l Gr. eikon (note o, 1:15). This is one of three places where the word means pattern or moral and spiritual likeness (v 10; Rom. 8:29; 2 Cor. 3:18). The idea here is that God planned for man to have full knowledge. Now He renews man after the original pattern or plan and gives him a sound mind and true knowledge (v 10; 2 Tim. 1:7; 2 Pet. 1:3-13). This could read, "renewed in knowledge according to the original pattern of God who created him," m In the new creation there is no distinction made in rights and privileges because of race, sex, color, or position in life (v 11; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28)

n Regarded by the ancients as the lowest type of barbarians. Bond slaves (v 11)

o Christ is all things in all believers, and is in all believers (Rom. 8:9-16)

p All classes, races, colors, sexes, and types of people in Christ make the elect, not only the Jews. Anyone chosen of God - an individual or nation - is the elect of God (note o, Lk. 18:7)

★3 If then ye be risen with Christ, who is your life, when he shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.◂

14 What to mortify (Rom. 1:29-32; 8:13; Gal. 5:19; 1 Cor. 6:9; Mk. 7:14; 2 Tim. 3:1-9)

5 ●[d]Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on [e]the children of disobedience:

7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

15 What to "put off" (Eph. 4:20)

●8 But now ye also [f]put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

●9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the [g]old man with his deeds;

16 What to "put on" (Eph. 4:23)

10 And have [h]put on the [i]new man, which is [j]renewed in knowledge after the [k]image of him that created him:

11 [l]Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Bär-bā'-rī-an, Scȳth'ī-an, bond nor free: but [m]Christ is all, and in all.

●12 Put on therefore, as [n]the elect of God, [o]holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

●13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

●14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of [p]perfectness.

17 Sevenfold admonition to Christian living and worship

●15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

●16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you [q]richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in [r]psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

●17 And [s]whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

IV Domestic life of believers. 1 Duties of wives (Eph. 5:22)

●18 [t]Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

2 Duties of husbands (Eph. 5:25)

●19 [u]Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

3 Duties of children (Eph. 6:1)

●20 [v]Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

4 Duties of fathers (Eph. 6:4)

●21 [w]Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they [x]be discouraged.

5 Duties of servants (Eph. 6:5)

●22 [y]Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

●23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

★24 [z]Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.◂

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

KIN CHAPTER 4 182

6 Duties of masters (Eph. 6:9)

●MASTERS, [a]give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

V Final admonitions: 1 Sevenfold appeal to prayer and holiness

●2 [b]Continue in [c]prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

●5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

●6 Let your speech be alway with grace, [d]seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

2 Instructions concerning five fellow-workers in the gospel

7 All my state shall [e]Tȳch'ī-cŭs declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

9 With [f]Ō-nĕs'ī-mŭs, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 [g]Ar-is-tär'chus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, [h]and Mär'cus, sister's son to Bär'na-băs, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)

g Gr. proskartereo, to be earnest toward a thing; persevere; be constantly diligent; attend to it continually or regularly (Rom. 12:12; Col. 4:2; see note n, Acts 1:14). If all this would be practiced in prayer it would be easy to:
1 Mortify the members (note d, 3:5)
2 Put off the old man (note f, 3:8)
3 Put on the new man (note h, 3:10)
4 Do the 12 things of note w, 3:17
5 Submit to husbands as to Christ (3:18)
6 Love wives without bitterness (3:19)
7 Obey parents in all things (3:20)
8 Love the children (3:21)
9 Serve masters as unto God (3:22-25)
10 Be just to servants (4:1)
Every person struggling with any of the above problems will do well to pray for grace to help him. Wives should pray for grace to submit to their husbands; husbands for grace to love their wives and be cured of bitterness; children for grace to obey parents; fathers for wisdom to deal with their children; servants and masters for grace to solve their problems; and all Christians should pray to overcome and live right h All problems will vanish with 8 practices:
1 Continuing in prayer (v 2)
2 Watching continually in prayer (v 2)
3 Giving continued thanks to God (v 2)
4 Praying for ministers and their work (v 3)
5 Praying for success of the gospel (v 3-4)
6 Living Christian life before men (v 5)
7 Using time for God (v 5)
8 Being tactful with men (v 6)
i Gr. artuo, spice, seasoning. Here; Mk. 9:50; Lk. 14:34. Let your speech be always spiced and seasoned with answers that will oppose sin and preserve from the corruption thereof. Let it be holy, wise, gracious, Christian, savoury, wholesome, courteous, respectful, desirable, and worthy of being kept in the memory of others

o Divine love is to be put on as the outer garment and finishing touch to a well dressed Christian. After putting on the 8 other things of note h, above, one is to put on this outer cloak as the bond of perfectness or as a girdle, it is to cover all, unite all, and bind all together as one. a Tychicus, Onesimus, Aristarchus, Marcus, and Justus are all mentioned here and no doubt they were all fellow-workers of Paul. The last three were of the circumcision, meaning they were Jews. This is further proof that Peter was not the pope at Rome at this time. This book was written about 64 A. D. during the very time that Peter was supposed to be pope. Some say that he was pope 29–67 A. D. Either Paul totally ignored the so-called head of the church or they are wrong. There is no proof that he was ever in Rome

d In Phrygia and west of Colosse

e A city of Phrygia near Colosse. It was called a holy city because of its many heathen temples of Apollo, Diana, Aesculaplus, and Hygeia. All these gods were worshipped here

f See Summary of Luke

g A companion of Paul who backslid and deserted the gospel work (v 14; 2 Tim. 4:10; Ph'm 24)

Invisibility (1:15)

Gr. aoratos, Trans. invisible (v 15–16; Rom. 1:20; 1 Tim. 1:17; Heb. 11:27). The word really means not visible, not in sight, unseen, concealed. Invisibility consists more of distance than substance. Cities or other material objects cannot be seen even 30 miles away. At this distance they are invisible. Objects concealed are invisible. Anything out of eyesight is invisible. God, angels, and other spirit beings are thus invisible. They can appear or disappear at will. They have been seen with the natural eyes many times, proving that invisibility must be understood with them as with all other invisible things that can become visible

18 proofs that God can be seen:

1 God has been seen with a body (note r, Jn. 4:24)

2 Man was made bodily in God's image (Gen. 1:26–27; 9:6; note o, 1:15)

3 God ate food with Abraham (Gen. 18:8)

4 Jacob wrestled with God (Gen. 32:24)

5 74 men ate with God (Ex. 24:1–11)

6 Moses saw God face to face out of His glory (Ex. 33:11; 1 Tim. 6:16), and he saw His back parts when he requested to see His glory (Ex. 33:18–23)

7 Joshua and all Israel saw Him (Josh. 5:13–15)

8 Gideon saw God (Judg. 6:11–23)

9 Samson's parents saw Him (Judg. 13:3–23)

10 David saw God (1 Chr. 21:16–17)

11 Job saw God (Job 42:5)

12 Isaiah saw and described God (Isa. 6)

13 Amos saw the Lord (Amos 9:1)

14 Ezekiel described God (Ezek. 1: 26–28 10:20; 40:3 with 43:7; 47:1–6)

15 Daniel described God, even His clothes, body, and hair (Dan. 7:9–14; 10:5–6)

16 Stephen saw God and Christ (Acts 7:56)

17 John described God (Rev. 4:2–5; 5:1–7)

18 All will see God (Rev. 21:3–4; 22:4)

Firstborn of creation (1:15):

Gr. prototokos. Trans. firstborn (v 15, 18; Mt. 1:25; Lk. 2:7; Rom. 8:29; Heb. 11:28; 12:23) and firstbegotten (Heb. 1:6; Rev. 1:5). It is used of Jesus the firstborn of Mary (Mt. 1:25; Lk. 2:7) and of the firstborn of Egyptians (Heb. 11:28). It means the first one born in the family. It must also be understood in this literal sense in connection with Jesus being the firstborn in God's family. However, Sonship in this case refers to humanity and not to deity (note f, Acts 13:33)

These facts must be understood in connection with the following:

1 The only begotten of the Father (Jn. 1:14)

2 The only begotten Son (Jn. 1:18)

3 His only begotten Son (Jn. 3:16; 1 Jn. 4:9)

4 The only begotten Son of God (Jn. 3:18)

5 This day have I begotten Thee (Ps. 2:7; Acts 13:33; Heb. 1:5; 5:5)

6 I will be to Him a Father, and He shall be to Me a Son (Heb. 1:5)

It is used of Jesus as being the:

1 Firstborn of every creature (v 15)

2 Firstborn from the dead (v 18)

3 Firstborn of many brethren (Rom. 8:29)

4 Head of the church of the firstborn (Heb. 12:23)

5 His firstbegotten (Heb. 1:5)

6 Firstbegotten of the dead (Rev. 1:5)

With these 12 facts it is clear in what sense Jesus is the first-born of every creature or of all creation and the first-born of many brethren. All creation came into existence by creative acts, not by a begetting as in the case of Jesus. Even those many brethren are not begotten in the sense Jesus was by the Holy Ghost. They were begotten by men, not by God, and were thus brought into the human family, not the family of God. The only way one gets into God's family is by adoption (Rom. 8: 14–16; Gal. 4:5–6; Eph. 1:5). Jesus is the only begotten Son . . . the first of all creatures to be begotten of God, the only one of all beings begotten of God, the first and only one of the family of adopted and "created" brethren begotten of God (Eph. 4:24; Col. 3:10), the firstbegotten of or from the dead, and the firstfruit of the resurrection of all men (1 Cor. 15:23–33; Col. 1:18; Rev. 1:5). The church is the called out people of the one who is the firstborn (Heb. 12:23). Adam and angels were by creation, not by begetting (Lk. 3:38; Gen. 6:1–4; Job 1:6; 38:4–7)

Moses' law annulled (2:14)

This is how He took the law of Moses out of our way. He simply nailed it to the cross and annulled it's penalty so we could have a new start in life before God again. Figuratively, He killed the killer. He crucified the thing that brought guilt and death to all men (Rom. 3:19–20; 6:23; 8:2–3; 2 Cor. 3:6–7; Eph. 2:14–16). Ancient laws are said to have been abrogated by nailing them to a post

Christian law on sabbaths (2:16)

This refers to all the sabbaths of the law of Moses, including the regular weekly sabbath. All of them are now abolished with the law thus fulfilling prophecy (Isa. 1:13–15; Hos. 2:11). Christians are now free to keep any day they want to as a sabbath (v 14–17; Rom. 14:5–6; Gal. 3:9–10). See Sabbath in the Index. All sabbaths were a shadow of the rest we now have in Jesus Christ (v 17; Mt. 11:28–30; Heb. 4:3, 10–11; 10:1)

Christ's two conquests (2:15)

Christ made 2 great conquests here:

1 Abolished and cancelled the law by:
(1) Blotting it out (v 14)
(2) Taking it out of the way (v 14)
(3) Nailing it to the cross (v 14)

2 Defeated the executors of law by:
(1) Spoiling or conquering them (v 15)
(2) Making a show of them openly (v 15)
(3) Triumphing over them in the very cross that they thought was a triumph over Him (v 15; Acts 2:23–36; 3:13–18; 1 Cor. 1:18–24; Eph. 2:16; Col. 1:20–22)

Public defeat of Satan (2:15)

Gr. deigmatizo, to expose to public infamy and shame. Only here, but the verb is used in Mt. 1:19 and Heb. 6:6 of public shame. The allusion is to the custom of conquerors making a public demonstration of conquered enemies. Satan and his human agents made a public shame out of Christ by crucifying Him. By that they thought they would triumph over Him, putting an end to His new religion, but the cross turned out to be their public defeat and shame (v 15; 1:20–22; Acts 2:23; 3:13–18; 5:28; 1 Jn. 3:8)

5 things not to judge others about (2:16):

1 What to eat (v 16; 1 Tim. 4; Rom. 14)
2 What to drink (v 16; 1 Cor. 10:31)
3 What holydays to keep (v 16; Gal. 4)
4 What new moon festivals to keep (v 16)
5 What sabbaths to observe (v 16; Rom. 14:5–6; Gal. 4:9–10)

5 facts about false cults (2:18):

1 Self-imposed fastings and self-denials of many things to appear religious, that are not forbidden in Scripture – touch not, taste not and handle not (v 18, 20–23; note o, v 8)

2 Gr. threskeia, Trans. worshipping (v 18) and religion (Acts 26:5; Jas. 1: 26–27). Here it is a cult or religion of angels and demons (v 18, 23; 1 Tim. 4:1–8)

3 Religion based upon visions that are supposed to come from God and angels (v 18; Dt. 18; Jer. 23; Ezek. 13)

4 Religion based upon superior knowledge, new discoveries, occult secrets, piety, and sensuous feelings (v 18; Rom. 1:21–23; Col. 2:8; 1 Tim. 6:20)

5 Religion that is not Christ-centered and gospel-true (v 19; Eph. 4:14; 6:11–12; 2 Cor. 11:14–15; Mt. 7:15, note)

Summary of Colossians

Date and place: Written from Rome about 64 A. D. and sent with Ephesians and Philemon by Tychicus

Author: Paul (see Summary of Romans)

Theme: Freedom from the law, all outward forms of religion, rituals, human philosophies, and false mysticism; and complete and real union with Christ in life and conduct. Paul contends that we died with Christ, and that ordinances, rituals, dead forms of religion, observance of sabbaths and holy days, and mystical rites are of no use to dead persons. Practical holiness is shown to spring from truth and faith in God. One cannot grow into Christ, but he may grow in knowledge, experience, and fulness of grace benefits by virtue of being in Christ and walking in the light (1:23; 2:6–7; 3:1–17)

Statistics: 51st book of the Bible; 4 chapters; 95 verses; 1,998 words; 1 question; 32 verses of history; 3 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

Jūs'tus, who are of the circumcision. [a]These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

3 Greetings from the brethren

12 [b]Ep'a-phrās, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, [c]that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in [d]Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ā, and them in [e]Hi-e-răp'o-lis.

14 [f]Luke, the beloved physician, and [g]Dē'mas, greet you.

4 Closing instructions

15 Salute the brethren which are in [e]Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ā, and [d]Nym'-phas, and the church which is in his house.

16 And when this epistle is read among you, [c]cause that it be read also in the church of the Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'anş; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ā.

17 And say to [d]Ăr-chip'pus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

5 Salutation and benediction

18 [e]The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Ā-mĕn'.

a A city of Phrygia near Colosse. See Rev. 3:14

b A Christian of Laodicea who had a church in his house (v 15). Not mentioned elsewhere

c This refers to the custom in the early church of making copies of various letters for other churches to read. What is meant by the letter from Laodicea is not stated and all speculation is valueless. Some think it refers to the epistle to Ephesus; others think it was a letter from Laodicea to the apostle; and still others that it was an epistle to Laodicea which was lost

d An unknown person mentioned only in this one place in Scripture. He evidently was a minister and is here admonished to be faithful to his calling. This admonition implies no unfaithfulness of the man, as some think

e The salutation was by Paul's own hand, but the epistle was dictated to a scribe

Christian law on drinks (2:16)

The law was very liberal about drinks (Dt. 14:24), and yet under it God condemned strong drink (Pr. 20:1; 31:4–7; Isa. 5:11–23). Like every other subject, we must go to the new covenant to find out God's will for Christians. It demands that whatever we eat or drink we are to do it to the glory of God (1 Cor. 10:31). It condemns all drunkenness. A Christian must decide on this basis what to drink and what not to drink (Lk. 21:34; Rom. 13:13; 1 Cor. 6:9–11; Gal. 5:19–21)

Christian law on traditions (2:20)

If you be dead with Christ, having been freed from the elementary rules of the world and rudiments of Judaism, why then be subject to them any longer? Their program is simply touch not this or you will be unclean (Lev. 15), taste not this for it is unclean (Lev. 11; Dt. 14), and handle not that for it is forbidden. All such things are to perish with the using. They are mere traditions of men, not laws of God in the new covenant (v 20–23)

Human religion powerless (2:23)

This is any form of worship man chooses for himself apart from the true worship of God (Rom. 1:21–25). Some forms have a great show of refinement, humility, and asceticism, but they are powerless to deal with sin and the old man (v 23). They only feed self-righteousness and pride and do not change the heart

32 things Christians must do (2:6):

1 Walk as when received Christ (v 6)
2 Be rooted in Christ (v 7)
3 Be built up in Christ (v 7)
4 Be established in the faith (v 7)
5 Abound in the faith (v 7)
6 Be joyful in the faith (v 7)
7 Beware of deception (v 4, 8, 18-19)
8 Let no man judge your eating (v 16)
9 Let none judge your drinking (v 16)
10 Let no man judge your holydays, new moons, festivals, sabbaths (v 16)
11 Live dead to the world and all its sinful ways (v 20–23; 1 Jn. 2:15–17; Rom. 12:1–2; Jas. 4:4)
13 Set affections above (3:2)
14 Mortify members on earth (3:5): fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, covetousness which is idolatry.
15 Put off the old man (3:8): anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth
16 Lie not one to another (3:9)
17 Put on the new man (3:10–12)
18 Forbear one another (3:13)
19 Forgive one another (3:13)
20 Put on divine love (3:14)
21 Let God's peace rule (3:15)
22 Be thankful (3:16)
23 Let God's Word dwell in you (3:16)
24 Teach, admonish one another (3:16)
25 Sing with grace (3:16)
26 Do all things in Jesus' name (3:17)
27 Give thanks to God (3:17)
28 Continue in prayer (4:2)
29 Watch with thanksgiving (4:2)
30 Walk in wisdom (4:5)
31 Redeem the time (4:5)
32 Speak with seasoned grace (4:6)

THESSALONIANS

The Church - The Model Servant - Rewards - Christian Living - The Blessed Hope - The Day of the Lord

a In all his epistles except 1 and 2 Thessalonians, Philippians, and Philemon he calls himself an apostle. It may be that he was held in such affection by these churches that he had no need to assert his apostolic authority b The same as Silas, Paul's companion on his 2nd missionary journey. He took part in the founding of the churches in Macedonia (Acts 15:40-18:18)

c See Timothy, p. 159

d This and the 2nd epistle are the only ones so addressed. Compare this with the other salutations in other epistles e Two times here it is made clear that the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are two separate and distinct persons. Believers are in both and the salutation is from both through Paul (v 1)

f See Phil. 1:3-4 and Col. 1:3 where the same forms of speech are used g 3 good things to remember:

1 Work of faith. . . . ye turned to God from idols (v 3 with v 9)
2 Labour of love. . . to serve the living and true God (v 3 with v 9)
3 Patience of hope. . . to wait for His Son from heaven (v 3 with v 10)

h These believers had faith, not dead, speculative, or professing faith, but real, living, active productive faith (v 3, 5-8; 2:13-14; 2 Th. 1:3, 11; 2:17; 3:1, 9)

i Their work of faith was backed by their labour of love. This is normal and the perfect scriptural pattern. The gifts should be exercised in love (1 Cor. 13)

j This was the third of the great characteristics of these believers (v 3). Their program was Christianity in action and the verse could read, "faithful work, loving labor, and hopeful patience."

k Another Gentile group called the elect of God (4 elect's, p. 201). No unconditional, eternal, or personal election is meant here. It simply refers to the rejection of Israel as the gospel representatives and to the election of the Gentiles to take their place (Mt. 21:43; 23:37-39; Rom. 11:11-29). In neither case was the election absolute. All was conditional, as far as final salvation was concerned. Nothing was by personal merit. All were called to blessings, which, if properly used, would lead them to personal and eternal salvation. That these blessings and even the calling and election of either class could be abused, become finally useless and forfeited by them is clear from the state of the Jews who, after being the elect for 2,300 years, were now rejected and reprobate (Rom. 11)

l 4 ways the gospel should be preached:
1 In word (v 5; Mt. 28:20; Mk. 16:15; Lk. 24:47; 1 Cor. 1:18-24)
2 In power (v 5; Mt. 17:20; Mk. 16:16-17; Lk. 24:49; Jn. 14:12; 1 Cor. 4:20)
3 In the Holy Ghost (v 5; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8; Rom. 15:18-20, 29; Heb. 2:4)
4 In much assurance (v 5; see note h, Col. 2:2) m You know how we demonstrated the gospel in word, in power, in the Holy Ghost, and in full assurance (v 5), and how we suffered in doing so (v 6; Acts 17)

n Gr. mimetes (note p, 1 Cor. 4:16)

o Gr. thlipsis (note e, Phil. 4:14)

p This is the true way to receive the Word of God. There is too little joy in new converts today. Could it be that they do not see a true demonstration of the power of God in modern churches, as referred to in v 3, 5; 2:13-14; 2 Th. 1:3, 11; 2:17; 3:1, 9; Heb. 2:4?

q Gr. tupos (note c, Phil. 3:17). These believers became models or patterns for all churches in Macedonia and Greece (v 7-8) - models, not only of patience in hope, but in faith and power that worked effectually through all of them which believed (2:13-14; 2 Th. 1:11). They were also imitators of the apostle and the Lord (v 6), as well as of the churches in Judea who also exercised the power of God (2:13-14; Acts 2:43; 3:6; 5:16; 6:3, 8; 11:21)

r Gr. exechecheomai, to sound forth; publish. Only here. From Thessalonica went ministers preaching and confirming the Word of God in Macedonia,

CHAPTER 1 183

I The introduction: 1 Authorship and salutation

1 PAUL, and [a]Sil-vā'nus, and [b]Tī-mō'the-ŭs, [c]unto the church of the Thĕs-sa-lō'nī-anș which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jē'sus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'șus Christ.

2 Thanksgiving and prayer to God for them

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

II The model church: its fourfold blessed state (Acts 2:42-47; 4:32-37; 5:12-16)

3 [d]Remembering without ceasing your [e]work of faith, [f]and labour of love, and [f]patience of hope in our Lord Jē'șus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, your [g]election of God.

III The model preacher: preach and confirm what is preached (Mt. 4:23; 10:1-8; 28:19-20; Mk. 16:15-20; Acts 1:1, 8; Rom. 15:18-19, 29; 1 Cor. 2:4; 4:18-21; Heb. 2:1-4)

5 For our [h]gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

IV Model converts: receive and propagate the gospel (Mk. 16:17-20; Acts 8:4; 11:19-21; Phil. 1:7)

6 And ye became [i]followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much [j]affliction, [k]with joy of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst:

7 So that ye were [l]ensamples to all that believe in Măç-e-dō'nī-â and Â-chā'ĭâ.

8 For from you [m]sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Măç-e-dō'nī-â and Â-chā'ĭâ, but also in every place [n]your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and [o]how ye turned to God from idols to serve the [p]living and [q]true God;

10 [r]And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jē'șus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2 184

V The model servant. 1 Boldness and suffering (Acts 4:13; Phil. 1:12-20)

FOR yourselves, brethren, [a]know our entrance in unto you, [b]that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, [c]at Phĭ-lĭp'pī, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much [d]contention.

2 Honesty and purity (2 Cor. 4:1-2; Acts 20:26; 1 Tim. 4:12)

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

3 Trust and faithfulness (1 Tim. 1:11-12; Rom. 1:14-15)

4 But as we were [e]allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; [f]not as pleasing men, [g]but God, which trieth our hearts.

4 Simplicity of speech and unselfishness (1 Cor. 2:1-5; 2 Thess. 2:7-9; Acts 20:33-35)

5 For neither at any time used we [h]flattering words, as ye know, nor a [i]cloke of [k]covetousness; God is witness:

5 Humility and consideration of others (Acts 20:33-35)

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we [l]might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

6 Gentleness and love (2 Tim. 2:22-26; Gal. 5:22-23)

7 But we were [m]gentle among you, even as a [n]nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

7 Self-sacrificing (Acts 20:33-35; 2 Thess. 2:7-9)

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

8 Blameless conduct (2 Cor. 6:3; Eph. 1:4; Phil. 2:15; 1 Tim. 3:2, 10; Tit. 1:6-7; 2 Pet. 3:14)

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, [o]how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

9 Parental care and training (Eph. 1:15-19; 3:13-21)

11 As ye know [p]how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, [q]as a d Gr. agon, conflict (note r, Phil. 1:30)

e Gr. paraklesis (note v, Acts 13:15)
3 marks of true exhortation (v 3):
1 Without deceit. Gr. plane, fraudulence; straying from orthodoxy or piety. Trans. deceit (v 3); deceive (Eph. 4:14); delusion (2 Th. 2:3); and error (Mt. 27:64; Rom. 1:27, note; Jas. 5:20; 2 Pet. 2:18; 3:17; 1 Jn. 4:6; Jude 11)
2 Without uncleanness. Gr. akatharsia (17 works of flesh, 207). We did not minister to your corrupt passions, but enforced their mortification (Col. 3:5; Rom. 8:12-13)
3 Without guile. Gr. dolos (note x, Rom. 1:29. Cp. Acts 13:10)

f Gr. dokimazo, test (note a, 2, 2 Cor. 13:5). We were tested and then accounted worthy to be trusted with the gospel. See 21 facts regarding Paul's preaching, p. 226.

g See Gal. 1:10

h The secret of pleasing God (Heb. 11:6)

i We were frank to tell the naked truth

j Gr. prophasis, pretense, excuse. Trans. cloak (v 5; Jn. 15:22); show (Lk. 20:47); color (Acts 27:30); and pretense (Mt. 23:14; Mk. 12:40; Phil. 1:18). He did not use the ministry as a pretense to make personal gain

k See notes on Lk. 12:15

l We might have used our position to get wages from you, for we have that right (Lk. 10:7; 1 Cor. 9:7-18; Gal. 6:6). We did not exercise these rights (v 6)

m Gr. epios, mild. Here; 2 Tim. 2:24

n Gr. trophos, nurse, feeder. Only here. It refers to a mother feeding her children

o 3 major qualities in Christian living:
1 Holily. Gr. hosios. Only here. Holy in reference to God
2 Justly. Gr. dikaios, righteous, just. Just in reference to man
3 Unblameably. Gr. amemptos. Only here; 5:23. Unblameable in reference to life and conduct before God and man p 3 kinds of ministry:

1 Exhortation. Gr. parakaleo (note g, 2 Cor. 1:4)
2 Comforting. Gr. paramutheomai. Here; 5:14; Jn. 11:19, 31
3 Charging. Gr. marturomai. Testifying to or strictly charging to righteousness. Trans. record (Acts 20:26) and testify (Gal. 5:3; Eph. 4:17)

q Note the spirit of pastoral care exercised by Paul for his disciples - gentle as a mother (v 7) and exhorting, comforting, and charging every one as a father does his children (v 11). Any pastor will succeed with this kind of personal care for each one in his congregation

Greece, and many other places (v 8). This indicates a healthy New Testament church, fulfilling the great commission (Mt. 28:19-20; Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 24:47; Jn. 17:17-19; Acts 1:4-8). Then, too, merchants went from Thessalonica to all parts, taking the news that the people had believed s Their faith and power were matters of conversation among the heathen. If they had manifested only a formal confession of faith without the power they would not have been model saints for other churches

t This shows that these converts were Gentiles who once served idol gods. They turned from these to serve the living and true God (v 9), and to wait for His Son from heaven (v 10)

u God is here called living in contrast to lifeless idols. He is called true in contrast to the whole system of idolatry which was false in its gods, worship, doctrines, promises, and prospects of eternal life

v 7 major Christian doctrines here:
1 Conversion - "turned" (v 9; Mt. 18:3)
2 True and living God (v 9; Jn. 17:3)
3 Against idolatry (v 9; 1 Cor. 8)
4 Jesus the Son of God (v 10; Jn. 3:16)
5 Second advent of Jesus Christ (v 10) c 1:3; 2:13; 5:17; 2 Th. 1:3; Rom. 1:9

d You received the Word of God, not as a fabrication of man, but as being in truth the very Word of God. You have the fullest proof possible – the power of the Word of God working effectually in you that believe (v 13)
e Gr. energeo, energy put forth from within in effectual operation. Trans. work effectually (v 13; Gal. 2:8; 2 Cor. 1:6); effectual fervent (Jas. 5:16); show forth one's self (Mt. 14:2; Mk. 6:14); do (Phil. 2:13); be mighty in (Gal. 2:8); and to work (Rom. 7:5; 1 Cor. 12:6, 11; 2 Cor. 4:12; Gal. 3:5; 5:6; Eph. 1:11, 20; 2:2; 3:20; Phil. 2:13; Col. 1:29; 2 Th. 2:7). This proves the power of the Word itself in lives of believers (v 13; Ps. 19:7; 107:20; Jn. 15:7; Rom. 1:16; 10:17; Heb. 4:12)
f There is still no reference in the N. T. to the church at Rome or of Peter as the first pope being the model for Christians. There is no such pre-eminence. This honor belonged to the churches in Judea. Not one reference to Rome as a pattern is found in any scripture g Both Jews and Gentiles suffered persecution from their own countrymen. The Jews were the persecutors of the churches everywhere. Among the Gentiles they caused the heathen to be stirred up against Christianity (Acts 13:6, 45, 50; 14:2, 5, 19; 15:1-2, 5; 16:3; 17:5, 13; 18:5-6)
h 7 sins of the Jews:
1 Killed Jesus Christ (v 15; Acts 2:23)
2 Killed their own prophets (v 15; Mt. 23)
3 Persecuted the church (note g, above)
4 Lived contrary to God (v 15; Acts 7:51)
5 Contrary to all men (v 15; Mt. 23)
6 Opposed salvation of others (v 16)
7 Multiplied sins continually (v 16)
i For the above 7 sins wrath comes upon them to the uttermost (Lev. 26; Dt. 28 and 32; Mt. 23:34-39; Lk. 21:20-24; Rom. 11)
j Gr. aporphanizomai, having been bereaved. Only here. Paul had compared himself to a parent and the people to his beloved children (v 7, 11). Here he represented himself as feeling what an affectionate father would feel if torn from his children. Because of this he endeavored to see them all the more (v 17). In fact, he would have seen them time and time again if Satan had not hindered (v 18) k Gr. egkopto. Trans. hinder (v 18; Rom. 15:22) and be tedious unto (Acts 24:4). Through what means Satan hindered may be answered by referring to his sufferings of 2 Cor. 11:23-28

s He has innumerable means and many millenniums of experience and cannot be overcome by argument, pleading mercy, or any other dealings with him. He must be rejected and resisted, and all relationship cut off from him (Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8-9; Eph. 6:10-18; 2 Cor. 10:4-7. See note h, 2 Cor. 2:11)

The rapture first (5:4)

Christians are not in ignorance and darkness about the day of the Lord (v 1-2, 4-5, 9). The rapture takes place at least 7 years before the second advent (2 Th. 2:7, note; Rev. 4:1, note). Therefore, they will not be here so that that day will overtake them as a thief like it will the ungodly (v 2-5)

The Jews had a tradition that God would judge the Gentiles at night when they were careless and asleep in sin, but would judge the Jews in the day time when they would be employed in keeping the law. But both Jews and Gentiles who miss the rapture will have the day of the Lord come upon them as a thief. It is only brethren who will be translated and escape this day (v 4-5, 9; Lk. 21:36; 2 Th. 2:7, note) father doth his children,

12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath [a]called you unto his kingdom and glory.

10 Power of the gospel effectual in all believers (Mt. 18:18, refs.)

13 For this cause also thank we God [c]without ceasing, because, when [d]ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which [e]effectually worketh also in you that believe.

11 Conflict with Satan and wicked men who oppose truth (Phil. 1:27-30; Col. 2:1; 1 Thess. 2:18)

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which [f]in Jū-dæ'ā are in Christ Jē'sus: [g]for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15 [h]Who both killed the Lord Jē'sus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gĕn'tiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: [i]for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, [j]being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but [k]Sā'tan hindered us.

12 His rewards for labour (1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 2:10)

19 [l]For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? [m]Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jē'sus Christ at his [n]coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

185 CHAPTER 3

VI Paul's concern for the Church. 1 Mission of Timothy

WHEREFORE when we [o]could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Ath'ĕns alone;

2 And sent Tī-mō'the-ŭs, our brother, and minister of God, and our [p]fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these [q]afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer [r]tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by [s]some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

2 Timothy's report to Paul

6 But now when Tī-mō'the-ŭs came from you unto us, and brought us [q]good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

3 Paul's prayer and longing for their perfection in faith

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, [d]if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For [c]what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might [t]perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now [g]God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jē'sus Christ, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 [u]To the end he may stablish your hearts [v]unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, [w]at the coming of our Lord Jē'sus Christ with all his saints.

186 CHAPTER 4

VII The separated walk and the blessed hope. 1 Exhortation to please God and walk godly FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jē'sus, that as ye have received of us how ye [x]ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jē'sus.

2 True sanctification (1 Cor. 1:30; 2 Cor. 6:14-18; 7:1; Heb. 12:14)

3 For [y]this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his [z]vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gĕn'tiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

3 Command to increase in love (1 Cor. 13; 1 Jn. 3:11-18; 4:11-21)

a The devil (Mt. 4:1-3; Lk. 4:2) b See The truth about grace, p. 226 c The only place, except Lk. 1:19, where euangelion does not refer to the gospel (note c, Mt. 24:14). The good news Timothy brought back to Paul was: their faith, their love, and their affection for Paul (Glad tidings, p. 270)
d We live only if we stand fast in Christ (v 8; Heb. 3:6, 12-14)
e Question 3, Last one in 1 Thessalonians f Gr. katartizo, arrange; adjust (note a, 3, 2 Cor. 13:5) g Another clear proof of more than one person in the Godhead. Two mentioned here: God, our Father; our Lord Jesus Christ. This confirms deity of Christ (see 1 Jn. 5:7) h 3rd N. T. prophecy in 1 Th. (3:13, unfulfilled). Next, 4:13. This refers to the rapture when Christ meets the saints in the air (4:16) and takes them to heaven where they are presented before God the Father and established in eternal and unblameable holiness by God. Up to this point salvation and eternal life are given to men on condition (note d, Jn. 6:27). In the rapture men receive unforfeitable life for the first time as a harvest of a life of sowing to the Spirit and to fulfill the promises of eternal life in the next life (Mt. 7:13-14; 18:8-9; 19:28-29; Mk. 10:29-30; Lk. 18:29-30; Rom. 2:7; 6:21-23; Gal. 6:7-8; 1 Tim. 1:16; 4:8; 6:12, 19; Tit. 1:2; 3:7; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13; 3:7; 1 Jn. 2:25; Jude 20-24; Dan. 12:2; note d, Jn. 6:27)
i Gr. amemptos (note s, Phil. 2:15)
j This could not refer to the event of Zech. 14:5; Jude 14 when the saints will accompany Christ to earth, for they are not then presented before the Father. By this time they will have been with God for at least 7 years (2 Th. 2:7, note). This then refers to the coming of Jesus with the saints back to heaven when He meets them in the air (4:16-17; Jn. 13:1-3) k Paul was constantly desirous of their perfection in Christ (2:7, 11-12; 3:10, 13; 4:1-7; 5:12-23)
l 14 requirements of the will of God and of sanctification (4:3-15):
1 Abstain from fornication or all kinds of sex sins (v 3; note g, Mt. 5:32)
2 Know how to possess the vessel in sanctification and honour (v 4)
3 Not in the lust of concupiscence or strong sexual desire (v 5; note d, Col. 3:5). Here it means excessive sexual lust like that of the Gentiles who knew no bounds
4 That no man defraud his brother by seducing his wife to corrupt her and break up a home (v 6). This still refers to sex sins and not to cheating, for it is dealing with sex uncleanness down to v 7. Every type of perversion was practiced among the heathen. Their gods, their rulers, and their teachers were examples of impurity. They had no system of ethics that forbade these practices. The Christian religion forbade them as worthy of death and hell and this has preserved the world from complete ruin to this day
5 Walk in holiness, not in uncleanness of sex perversion (v 7; note y, Rom. 1:24)
6 Do not despise men (v 8)
7 Love one another (v 9; 1 Cor. 13)
8 Increase in love (v 10; 3:12)
9 Study to be quiet (v 11; 2 Tim. 2:10 Be diligent in business (v 11) 15)
11 Work with your hands (v 11; 1 Cor. 4:12; Eph. 4:28; 2 Th. 3:10)
12 Walk honestly before men (v 12)
13 Have a bright hope (v 13-17)
14 Comfort one another (v 18)
m Gr. hagiasmos, consecration. Trans. holiness (Rom. 6:19, 22; 1 Th. 4:7; 1 Tim. 2:15; Heb. 12:14) and sanctification (1 Cor. 1:30; 1 Th. 4:3-4; 2 Th. 2:13; 1 Pet. 1:2). See Jn. 17:17 and p. 231
n This refers to one of two things
1 To man's own body which he is to keep from fornication (v 3; 2 Cor. 4:7; 2 Tim. 2:21)
2 To the wife, whom a man is privileged to possess in marriage relationship (v 4; 1 Pet. 3:7)

8 [a]He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also [b]given unto us his Holy Spirit.

9 But as touching [c]brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are [d]taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ā: but we beseech you, brethren, [e]that ye increase more and more;

4 Be diligent in business and be an example to the world (Rom. 12:9-16; 1 Tim. 4:12-16)

11 And that ye [f]study to [g]be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

5 The fact and manner of the rapture of the Church and Old Testament saints (Lk. 21:34-36; Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; 2 Cor. 5:1-8; Eph. 5:27; Phil. 3:11, 20-21; 1 Th. 2:19; 3:13; 5:9, 23; 2 Th. 2:1, 7-8; Col. 3:4; Jas. 5:7-8; 1 Jn. 2:28; 3:2; 1 Pet. 5:4; Rev. 1:19, note)

★13 [h]But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, [i]concerning them which are asleep, that ye [j]sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

▸14 For if we believe that Jĕ'şus [k]died and rose again, even so them also which [l]sleep in Jĕ'şus will God [m]bring with him.

▸15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the [n]coming of the Lord shall not [o]prevent them which are asleep.

▸16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with [p]a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the [q]trump of God: [r]and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

▸17 [s]Then we which are alive and remain shall be [t]caught up together with them [u]in the clouds, [v]to meet the Lord in the air: [w]and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

●18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5 187

VIII The day of the Lord (2 Th. 2:2; 2 Pet. 3:10). 1 How to know that day

BUT of the [x]times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that [y]the day of the Lord so cometh [z]as a thief in the night.

3 [a]For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then [b]sudden destruction cometh upon them, [c]as travail upon a woman with child; and [d]they shall not escape.

2 The day of the Lord not to overtake Christians as a thief

4 But ye, brethren, [e]are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 [f]Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

3 What Christians must do in view of the day of the Lord

●6 [g]Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

●8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, [h]the hope of salvation.

4 Christians will be raptured before the day of the Lord (2 Thess. 2:7, note; Rev. 1:19, note)

▸9 [i]For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jĕ'şus Christ,

▸10 Who died for us, [j]that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

●11 [k]Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

IX Practical doctrines. 1 Honor and respect ministers (Heb. 13:7, 17)

●12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are [l]over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

●13 And to esteem them [m]very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

2 Fourteen commands to Christians in view of Christ's coming ●14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are [n]unruly, comfort the [o]feebleminded, [p]support the weak, be patient toward all men.

●15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

●17 Pray without ceasing.

●18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jĕ'şus concerning you.

●19 Quench not the Spirit.

●20 Despise not prophesyings.

●21 Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

●22 [q]Abstain from all appearance of evil.

3 At the rapture the body, soul and spirit will be preserved blameless (1 Cor. 15:51-58; 2 Cor. 5:1-8; Phil. 3:21; 1 Th. 3:13; Eph. 5:27)

a The principle stated here is expressed in various ways in Scripture. God considers certain sins as direct sins against Him: murder (Gen. 9:6), despising the least child or believer (Mt. 18:10; Lk. 10:16; 1 Th. 4:8), any mistreatment of a human being (Mt. 25:31-46), or rejection of Jesus and the gospel (Jn. 12:48). If this could be emphasized more there would be less malice, envy, jealousy, and strife among Christians and even among sinners

b Every believer has the Holy Spirit in a measure when born again (Rom. 8:14-16; Gal. 4:6). In fact, "if any man have not the Spirit" he does not belong to Christ (Rom. 8:9). This Spirit of sonship or even some gift of the Spirit may be received without having the Spirit baptism or the fulness of the Spirit (notes on Jn. 3:34; Acts 1:4-8; 2:4) c Gr. philadelphia, brotherly or sisterly love. Trans. brotherly love (v 9; Rom. 12:10; Heb. 13:1); love of the brethren (1 Pet. 1:22); and brotherly kindness (2 Pet. 1:7). Cp. Gr. Philadelphela (Rev. 1:11; 3:7)

d Gr. theoddidaktos. Only here. It refers to the God-teaching of divine love among Christians (Jn. 6:45). This God teaches by example of giving His only Son (Jn. 3:16; 1 Jn. 3:1). This He did while we were yet rebels and enemies (Rom. 5:5-10). If God loved His enemies this much, surely Christians can love one another (1 Jn. 3:11-23; 4:7-21)

e Increase in love of the brethren more and more (3:12; 2 Cor. 9:10)

f Gr. philodmeomai, to be ambitious; pursue eagerly; strive emulously and aspire to; prize above measure. Trans. study (v 11); strive (Rom. 15:20); and labour (2 Cor. 5:9). Not the same word as in 2 Tim. 2:15 k The death of Jesus Christ is the assurance of salvation for all who will believe (Mt. 26:28; Rom. 5:6-11; 1 Pet. 2:24). The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the assurance of resurrection for all men (v 14; 5:10; Jn. 14:19; Rom. 5:10; 6:5-8; 1 Cor. 15:4-23; 2 Tim. 2:11)

l Body-sleep not soul-sleep, p. 881

m Christians at death go immediately to heaven to await the resurrection of their sleeping bodies (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11). When Christ leaves heaven to come down in the air of the earth (v 17), the saints who are in heaven will come back with Him and be reunited with their bodies which will be resurrected in a moment (v 14; 1 Cor. 15:51-58)

n This means by revelation (Gal. 1:12)

o The coming in the air (v 17), not His second advent to the earth of Zech. 14; Rev. 19; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Jude 14. See notes on Rapture, p. 227

p Gr. phthano, to come before or first. It means that the living saints will not precede or go before the dead saints, but that both will go together to meet the Lord in the air (v 16-17). Trans. prevent (v 15); attain (Rom. 9:31; Phil. 3:16); and come (Mt. 12:28; Lk. 11:20; 2 Cor. 10:14; 1 Th. 2:16)

u Gr. harpazo, to carry off: grasp hastily; snatch up; to seize and overpower; to plunder (note 1, Jn. 10:28). From this we get our word rapture, meaning the act of transporting, as harpazo is used in Mt. 13:19; Acts 8:39; 2 Cor. 12:2, 4; 1 Th. 4:17; Rev. 12:5

v This no doubt refers to literal clouds instead of multitudes of people x Saints will be with Christ in heaven during the tribulation (2 Th. 2:7, note; Rev. 4:1, note); will accompany Christ to earth at Armageddon (Zech. 14:1-5; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-21); will live in the new Jerusalem in heaven but reign on earth with Christ during the Millennium (Rev. 20:4-10; 21:9-10; Heb. 12:22-23); will

a Warning against date setting, p. 227

b The destruction will be general among the nations. The cities of the nations will fall by a great earthquake. Hail will fall the weight of 114 lbs., and the armies of the nations at Armageddon will be destroyed except for a 6th part of them (Ezek. 39:2; Zech. 14:1-5, 16-21; Rev. 19:11-21). Many will be left alive to enter the Millennium (Zech. 14:16-21; Isa. 2:1-4; Mt. 25:31-46)

c See The rapture first, p. 224

d We are all Christians and will escape that sudden destruction (v 4-5, 9). Since we are of light and of the day, not of the darkness and night, we will not suffer the destruction appointed to children of darkness. The reason is clear from this fact, as well as what is stated in v 9; 2 Th. 2:7, note

e See Conditions of escape, p. 227

f Salvation is a hope and not actually an unforfeitable possession until the next life (v 8; Rom. 8:20-25; 2 Th. 2:16; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13). Eternal life is also a hope now even though we possess it (Tit. 1:2; 3:7; Heb. 3:6; 6:11, 11, 18-19; 1 Pet. 1:3, 13). It will actually not be an unforfeitable and an eternal possession until the next life and at the end of a life of sowing to the Spirit (Mt. 7:13-14; 16:8-9; 19:28-29; Mk. 10:29-30; Lk. 18:29-30; Rom. 2:7; 6:21-23; Gal. 6:7-8; 1 Tim. 1:16; 4:8; 6:12, 19; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13; 3:7; 1 Jn. 2:25; Jude 20-24; Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29)

g God has not appointed Christians to go through the tribulation wrath, the sudden destruction of v 2-3; Rev. 6:1-19:21; Mt. 24:15-21, or the wrath of eternal hell, but to be delivered by rapture so that whether we live or die we should live together with Him forever (v 9-10; 4:13-18; 2 Th. 2:7, note; Rev. 4:1, note)

h This clearly refers to the rapture of 4:13-18 and proves that all in Christ, dead or alive, will be raptured and live with Christ forever; and that all will escape the wrath of 5:1-3, 9; Mt. 24:15-21; Rev. 6:1-19:21

i This expression is used in 4:18 and here and in each passage it refers to comfort in view of rapture and escape of the wrath which will be poured out upon men after the rapture and before the second advent (Rev. 6:1-19:21). See 2 Th. 2:7, note

j Gr. proistemi, to set over; be at the head of; be the chief. Trans. be over (v 12); rule (Rom. 12:8; 1 Tim. 3:4-5, 12; 5:17); and maintain (Tit. 3:8, 14). These were the apostles, prophets, teachers, pastors, and other ministers (Eph. 4:11; 1 Cor. 12:28)

k Ministers are not only to be respected, but esteemed superabundantly. The Gr. perissos is trans. beyond measure (Mk. 6:51); exceeding abundantly above (Eph. 3:20); exceedingly (1 Th. 3:10); very highly (1 Th. 5:13); more abundantly (Jn. 10:10); more (Mt. 5:37, 47); superfluous (2 Cor. 9:1); and advantage (Rom. 3:1). This is to be done in love and for their work's sake (v 13)

l Gr. ataktos. Only here. Cp. 2 Th. 3:6, 7, 11. It means those who are out of step and not performing their duty in the church

m Gr. oligopsuchos, fainthearted. Only here. Those who lose heart in any battle n Gr. antechomai, to hold one's hand; to shade one's eyes; to be a help. Trans. support (v 14); hold fast (Tit. 1:9); and hold to (Mt. 6:24; Lk. 16:13)

The truth about grace (3:5):

why would His labor be in vain if there was no possibility of Satan tempting Christians, causing them to fall and be lost? Surely Paul understood the grace of God and its limitations to those who refuse to obey the gospel, for he used the word 110 of the 156 times the Gr. charis (grace) is found in the N. T.

It is true that grace cannot be withheld from man because of demerit, lessened by demerit, or be mixed with the law of works; but this does not prove that there are no conditions men must meet in order to get the benefits of grace. Not one scripture teaches unconditional grace, or that God gives grace to men who disobey the gospel. If so, then God is under obligation to save all, even sinners who disobey if He saves even one (Rom. 2:11). God is under obligation to saints only when they walk in the light and remain true to the gospel (1 Jn. 1:7). He is not under obligation to sinners until they come to full obedience of the gospel. Grace teaches men to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts and to live soberly, righteously, and godly here and now (Tit. 2:11-12). If men do not obey its teaching grace can go no further. Anyone may:

1 Receive grace in vain (2 Cor. 6:1)
2 Frustrate it in his life (Gal. 2:21)
3 Fall from it (Gal. 1:6-8; 5:4)
4 Fail of the grace of God (Heb. 12:15)
5 Turn it into lasciviousness (Jude 4)
6 Sin in spite of it (Rom. 6:1)
7 Continue or discontinue in it (Acts 13:43)
8 Minister it to others (1 Pet. 4:10)
9 Grow or not grow in it (2 Pet. 3:18)
10 Receive or reject it (Jn. 3:16; Rev. 22:17; Heb. 12:15; Jas. 4:6)

30 things grace can do: It can

1 Save the world (Gen. 6:8; Eph. 2:8-9)
2 Give one all good things (Ps. 84:11)
3 Bring men to repentance (Zech. 12:10)
4 Impart great blessings (Acts 4:33)
5 Bring salvation (Tit. 2:11-12; Eph.
6 Impart faith (Acts 18:27) 2)
7 Justify (Rom. 3:24-25; Tit. 3:7)
8 Overcome sin (Rom. 5:20)
9 Reign in life if permitted (Rom. 5:21)
10 Make one God's elect (Rom. 11:5-11 Give boldness (Rom. 15:15) 6)
12 Make partaker of Christ (1 Cor. 10:
13 Give power (1 Cor. 15:10) 30)
14 Inspire liberality (2 Cor. 8:1-2, 6-9; 9:8)
15 Give endurance (2 Cor. 12:9)
16 Call men to the ministry (Gal.
17 Impart riches (Eph. 2:7) 1:15)
18 Inspire singing (Col. 3:16)
19 Give seasoning to speech (Col. 4:6)
20 Give strength (2 Tim. 2:1)
21 Teach (Tit. 2:11-12)
22 Give aid in suffering (Heb. 2:9)
23 Help in time of need (Heb. 4:16)
24 Give stability (Heb. 13:9)
25 Give life (1 Pet. 3:7)
26 Help render true service (Heb. 12:
27 Become abundant (1 Tim. 1:14) 28)
28 Bring hope (2 Th. 2:16)
29 Give ability to preach (Eph. 3:8)
30 Change lives (1 Cor. 16:10)

30 things grace cannot do: It cannot

1 Set aside forever all condemnation for future sins (Jn. 5:14; 8:34; Rom. 6: 1-23; 8:12-13; Gal. 5:21; 2 Cor. 5:10)
2 Set aside failure of saved men to meet the many conditions of salvation (1 Jn. 1:7; Rom. 6:1-23; 8:1-13; Jas. 5: 19-20; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 1:23; 2:6-7)
3 Cancel free moral agency (Col. 1: 23; 1 Jn. 1:7; Rom. 6:16-23; Rev. 22:17)
4 Keep men saved when they sin (Rom. 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5: 19-21; 6:7-8; Jas. 5:19-20; Heb. 6:4-6; 10:26-29; 2 Pet. 2:20-21)
5 Cancel the death penalty when saved men break the law (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; Heb. 10:26-29; Jas. 5: 19-20; Ezek. 18:4, 20-24; 33:12-13, 18)
6 Make God a liar who said every man that sins must die (Ezek. 18:4; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Rev. 21:8)
7 Cancel the law of confession of sins before they are forgiven (1 Jn. 1:7, 9; Rev. 2:5, 16; 3:19; Lk. 13:1-5; Acts 2:38)
8 Forgive future sins, for transgression and confession are necessary before forgiveness (1 Jn. 1:9; Rev. 2:5, 16, 22; 3:19; Lk. 13:1-5; Acts 2:38; Mk. 6:12; Rom. 2:4-6; 2 Cor. 7:10)
9 Cancel responsibility of saved men concerning sin (Rom. 14:10; 2 Cor. 5: 10; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; Rom. 14:12)
10 Be responsible should saved men backslide (1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 2:5; 3:2; Jas. 5:19-20; Gal. 5:19-21)
11 Free saved men from condemnation for future sins unless confessed (1 Jn. 1:7, 9; Rev. 2:5, 22; 3:2; Jas. 5:19-20)
12 Permit God to forgive unconfessed sin (2 Chr. 7:14; 2 Cor. 7:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9; 2 Tim. 2:25; Rev. 2:5; 3:2)
13 Blind men so that they cannot sin if they choose to do so (Rom. 6:16-23; 8: 1-13; 1 Jn. 1:7; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29)
14 Guarantee any man eternal life if he refuses to obey (Jas. 5:19-20; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:9-20; 9:27; Ezek. 33:12-20)
15 Force obedience (Rev. 22:17; Jn. 3: 16-20; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 1:6-8; 5:4; 6:7-8; 1 Jn. 1:7)
16 Make any man a child of God in the sense Jesus was (Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:16)
17 Force God to continue blessing any man who sins (Ezek. 18:4; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:19-21; Jas. 5:19-20)
18 Make the sins of the saved different from the sins of the unsaved (Rom. 6: 16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 1:5-10; 2 Pet. 2:20-22)
19 Condemn sinners and excuse saints who commit the same sins (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 14:10-12; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; Ezek. 18:4, 24-28; 33:12-16; Rev. 2:5, 16, 22; 3:2)
20 Operate in the life of a free moral agent without his consent (Jn. 3:16-20; 7:17; 8:34; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)
21 Impart eternal life to men who serve sin and Satan (Mt. 6:24; Rom. 6: 16-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; 1 Jn. 3:8)
22 Keep men from moral falls if they wilfully sin (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29; Ezek. 33:12-20)
23 Force God to go contrary to His own program of grace (Rom. 1:16; 1 Jn. 1: 7; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 10:26-29)
24 Cancel the law of sowing and reaping (Gal. 6:7-8; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; Ezek. 18:4, 24-28; 33:12-16; Rev. 2:5-22)
25 Guarantee unconditional favor to anyone (2 Cor. 6:1; Gal. 1:6-8; 2:21; 5:4; Heb. 12:15; Jas. 5:19-20)
26 Guarantee unforfeitable life without conditions being met (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; Jas. 5:19-20; Heb. 10:26-29; note d, Jn. 6:27)
27 Guarantee sinlessness to men unless conditions are met (1 Cor. 3:16-17; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; Gal. 5:16-26; 6:7-8; Heb. 6:1-9; 10:26-29; 12: 14-15)
28 Encourage anarchy in God's government (Gen. 2:17; Rom. 6:16-23; 8: 12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8)
29 Force God to be lenient with rebels (Ezek. 18:4; Rom. 6:23; 8:12-13; Gal. 6:7-8)
30 Give any man a pardon that guarantees him salvation and eternal life regardless of how he lives in sin and rebellion (Ex. 32:32-33; Ezek. 18:4; 33:10-20; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8)

Knowledge of Truth (2:1)

12 times he calls attention to the Thessalonians showing what they know of truth:

1 Know what manner of men we were (1:5)
2 Know our entrance unto you (2:1)
3 Know how shamefully we were treated (2:2)
4 Know we did not use flattering language and were not covetous (2:5)
5 Know how we exhorted, comforted, and charged you (2:11)
6 Know that we were appointed afflictions for the gospel (3:3-4)
7 Know what commandments we gave you by Jesus Christ (4:2)
8 Know how to possess your vessels in sanctification and honor (4:4)
9 Know perfectly about the day of the Lord (5:2)
10 Know your true teachers (5:12)
11 Know what withholdeth that the Anti-Christ might be revealed (2 Th. 2:6-8)
12 Know how you ought to follow us (2 Th. 3:7). Cp. this with know ye not below

12 "know ye not's" of Paul: Know ye not

1 That so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death (Rom. 6:3)?
2 That to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are - sin or righteousness; Satan or God (Rom. 6:16)?
3 That I speak to them that know the law - the Jews (Rom. 7:1. Cp. 2:12-16)?
4 That ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you (1 Cor. 3:16)?
5 That a little leaven leavens the whole lump (1 Cor. 5:6)?
6 That saints shall judge the world (1 Cor. 6:2)?
7 That saints shall judge angels (1 Cor. 6:3)?
8 That the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God (1 Cor. 6:9)?
9 That your bodies are the members of Christ (1 Cor. 6:15)?
10 That he which is joined to an harlot is one body (1 Cor. 6:16)?
11 That your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost (1 Cor. 6:19-20)?

X Conclusion and benediction

25 a Brethren, pray for us.
26 b Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.
27 I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.
28 The d grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. A-men'.

Summary of 1 Thessalonians

Date and place: Written from Corinth about 54 A. D. and was the first of the author's 14 epistles

Author: Paul (see Summary of Romans and Paul in the Index)

Theme: To confirm young disciples in fundamental truths already taught them; to exhort them to continue in holiness; and give comfort concerning those who had already died in the faith. All the doctrines were taught them in a period of a month (Acts 17:1-9). Converts were mainly Gentiles who became outstanding as examples of demonstrating God's power taught by Paul to all who believe (1:8; 2:13-14; 3:6; 2 Th. 1:3, 11; 2:17). The coming of the Lord is a very prominent subject in all chapters (1:10; 2:12, 19; 3:13; 4:13-18; 5:1-11)

Statistics: 52nd book of the Bible; 5 chapters; 89 verses; 1,857 words; 3 questions; 69 verses of history; 20 verses of unfulfilled prophecy a Constantly Paul asked for the prayers of the saints. He recognized their prayers as more valuable than all their wealth and help otherwise b This was an Eastern custom c A reason for this is not clear, unless there may have been some danger of it not being read to all the church, or perhaps local groups in and around Thessalonica d Paul begins and ends the epistle with a statement about the grace of Christ

8:18-25; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13). See note on complete sanctification, p. 231
f In each chapter of this epistle the coming of the Lord is presented in a different aspect: 1:10; 2:19; 3:13; 4:13-18; 5:23

12 That they which run in a race run all, but one wins the prize (1 Cor. 9:24)?

21 facts regarding Paul's preaching (2:4)

1 Not in vain (v 1, 13-20)
2 Preached in mistreatment (v 2)
3 Preached in boldness (v 2)
4 Preached in great conflict (v 2)
5 Did not use deceit (v 3; note e)
6 Did not foster corrupt passions (v 3)
7 Did not use guile (v 3; note e)
8 Was trusted of God with it (v 4)
9 Preached to please God, not man (v
10 Used no flattering words (v 5) 4)
11 Was not covetous (v 5; Lk. 12:15)
12 Did not seek human glory (v 6)
13 Ministered without pay (v 8, 9)
14 Was patient and gentle (v 14)
15 Preached with great affection (v 15)
16 Was ready to sacrifice life (v 16)
17 Worked day and night (v 9)
18 Lived what he preached (v 10)
19 Was full and complete (v 11)
20 His purpose was right (v 12)
21 Gave unceasing thanks to God for results of the gospel (v 13-20)

Soul of man (5:23)

Gr. psuche, life; soul or spiritual part in contrast to the material body; a departed soul; also the spirit which still retains the shape and size of its living owner; the seat of the desires, feelings, passions, appetites, and emotions. Psuche is the only word trans. soul in the N. T. It occurs 105 times. Trans. soul 58 times: life 40 times; mind 3 times; and heart, heartily, us, and you once each. Psuche corresponds to Heb. nephesh in the O. T. (note, Job 14:22). For example, Acts 2:27 with Ps. 16:10; 1 Cor. 15:45 with Gen. 2:7; etc. The soul is immortal (note m, 1 Pet. 3:4)

"Psuche" is used of:

1 Lower animals (Rev. 8:9; 16:3)
2 Man as an individual (Acts 2:41, 43; 3:23; 7:14; 27:37; Rom. 2:9; 13:1; 1 Cor. 15:45; Jas. 5:20; 1 Pet. 3:20; 2 Pet. 2:14; Rev. 6:9; 18:13; 20:4)
3 The life of man, which can be lost, destroyed, saved, etc., and trans. life (Mt. 2:20; 6:25; 10:39; 16:25, 26; Mk. 3:4; 8:35; 10:45; Lk. 6:9; 9:24, 56; 12:22-23; 14:26; 17:33; Jn. 10:11-17; 12:25; 13:37-38; 15:13; Acts 15:26; 20:10, 24; 27:10, 22; Rom. 11:3; 16:4; Phil. 2:30; 1 Jn. 3:16; Rev. 12:11)
4 The life of man, which can be lost, destroyed, saved, etc., and trans. soul (Mt. 10:28; 16:26; Mk. 8:36-37; Lk. 12: 20; 21:19; 1 Th. 2:8; 5:23; Heb. 4:12; 6:19; 10:39; 13:17; Jas. 1:21; 1 Pet. 1:9; 2:11, 25; 4:19)
5 Used of man to emphasize self, such as my soul, or myself (Mt. 11:29; 12:18; 26:38; Mk. 14:34; Lk. 1:46; 12: 19; Jn. 12:27; Heb. 10:38; 1 Pet. 1:22)
6 Used of the powers of one's being (Mt. 22:37; Lk. 2:35; 10:27; Acts 4:32; 3 Jn. 2; Eph. 6:6; Phil. 1:27)

The day of the Lord (5:2)

The day of the Lord is the Millennium, from the second advent to the rebellion of Satan at the end of that period (Rev. 19:11-20:10). The day of the Lord cannot come until the Lord comes to reign (Isa. 2:12; 13:6, 9; 34:8; 61:2; 63:1-6; Jer. 46:10; Ezek. 30:3; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Amos 5:18; Joel 2; Oba. 15; Zeph. 1:6, 18; 2:2-3; Zech. 14; Mal. 4; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; 1 Th. 5:2; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:1-12; Jude 14; Rev. 19: 11-21; 20:1-10)

True Christian behavior (4:11)

Gr. hesuchazo. Trans. be quiet (v 11); rest (Lk. 23:56); cease (Acts 21:14); and hold one's peace (Lk. 14:4; Acts 11:18). The thought is that of a disposition and life of peace, and contentment; even temperament; to be meek; and learn self-control in all things; not to permit any thing to disturb or cause a display of temper tantrums or disturb the peace of others

There evidently were a few idle, tattling people in this church, who, instead of working, went from place to place carrying on religious gossip, meddling with the business of others, and causing parties or divisions. Hence, the commands to quit such practices, to do their own business, let others alone, to hold their peace, walk honestly toward the world, and to work with their own hands so they would have no time to gad about and gossip (v 11-12)

6 new revelations (4:13):

1 All who die in Jesus will be brought back from heaven to be given resurrected bodies (v 14; Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Cor. 15:20-23, 35-58; Phil. 3:21)

2 The living in Christ at this time will not die but be changed (v 15-17; 1 Cor. 15:51-58; 2 Cor. 5:1-10; Phil. 3:21)

3 This is the coming of the Lord in the air, not His coming to the earth (v 15-17; 2 Th. 2:7, note; Rev. 4:1, note)

4 The Lord Himself, not some other one, shall descend from heaven to translate the saints (v 16; Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; Phil. 3:21)

5 The dead in Christ shall rise first before the living are changed (v 16; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; Phil. 3:21; Jn. 5:28-29)

6 The church and all in Christ from Abel to this time will be changed from mortality to immortality in body in a moment and will be caught up (raptured) with the dead in Christ to meet the Lord in the air (v 17; Jn. 14:1-3; Lk. 21:36; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; Phil. 3:21; 2 Cor. 5:1-10; Col. 3:4; 2 Th. 2:7, note; Eph. 5:27)

8 Christian hopes (4:13)

Christians hope for:

1 Salvation (Rom. 8:20-25; 15:4, 13; 1 Th. 5:8; 2 Th. 2:16; 1 Pet. 1)
2 Righteousness (Gal. 5:5)
3 God's calling (Eph. 1:18; 4:4)
4 Eternal inheritance (Col. 1:5; Eph. 1:11-18; Heb. 9:15; 1 Pet. 1:4)
5 God's glory (Rom. 5:1-5; Col. 1:27)
6 Resurrection (Acts 23:6; 24:15; 1 Th. 4:13; Tit. 2:13; 1 Jn. 3:3)
7 Eternal life (1 Cor. 13:13; 15:19; Eph. 2:12; Col. 1:23; Tit. 1:2; 3:7; Heb. 3:6; 6:11, 18, 19; 7:19; 1 Pet. 1:3-13)
8 Converts safe in heaven (1 Th. 2:19)

Body-sleep not soul-sleep (4:14)

Sleep means death of the body (v 14-16; 5:10; Dt. 31:16; 2 Sam. 7:12; 1 Ki. 1:21; Job 7:21; Ps. 13:3; Dan. 12:2; Mk. 5:39; Lk. 8:52; Jn. 11:11-14; Acts 13:36; 1 Cor. 11:30; 15:51; Jas. 2:26). These are all the passages where the word sleep is found in connection with death. The word slept is used in Mt. 27:52; 1 Cor. 15:20 of death, and the phrase slept with his fathers is used 36 times of death in the O. T.

Not one time is it stated that the soul sleeps. The soul is immortal (1 Pet. 3:4, note). The term sleep in Jesus simply refers to those who were in Christ at their death (v 14, 16)

Rapture and second advent (2:19)

Gr. parousia, personal presence (note p, Mt. 24:3). This refers to the rapture, not the second advent of Christ. It is the same as in 3:13; 4:13-17; 5:8; 2 Th. 2:7, note

These two comings should not be confused. The scriptures that apply to one do not apply to the other. Not one passage refers to both events as if they were one. These two distinct comings are separated by several years and so, are not two stages or phases of one coming

The rapture is the first of the two comings, not a coming to earth but in the air. It could not be the second advent because Christ does not come to the earth to live here and fulfill a mission as He did at the first advent. When Christ meets the saints in the air He takes them back to heaven with Him and presents them before the Father's throne where they remain during the time the tribulation is running its course on the earth (1 Th. 3:13; Jn. 14:1-3). Christ does not remain in the air with the saints when they meet Him as in 1 Th. 4:13-17. The marriage supper and the judgment of saints take place in heaven, then at the second advent after the tribulation Christ and the saints leave heaven together to come down to the earth (2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 19). The rapture is the time Christ comes for the saints to take them to heaven

The second advent is the time He comes to the earth to live here and fulfil a mission. This is the time He comes from heaven with the saints, having raptured them at least 7 years before. The second advent cannot take place until all of Rev. 1:1-19:21 is fulfilled while the rapture can take place any moment without anything being fulfilled

Shout-command (4:16)

Gr. keleusma, a cry of incitement; an order; command in war; the call of preparation for action. Only here. Not the same word where shout is mentioned the only other time in the N. T. (Acts 12:22). Here it is the shout of command for the dead to arise, as in the case of Lazarus (Jn. 11:43). This will be followed by the shout of the archangel (used only here; Jude 9), and the trump of God, whose great and terrible blasts, like those on Sinai grew louder and louder until the heavens and the earth did shake (Ex. 20:18-19; Heb. 12:18-21, 26)

The trump of God (4:16)

This is not the same as the 7th trumpet of Rev. 11:15-13:18. One occurs at the rapture of the church before Daniel's 70th week (v 16; 2 Th. 2:7, note; Rev. 4:1, note), and the other occurs at the rapture of the manchild in the middle of the 70th week (Rev. 11:15-13:16). One is the trump of God (v 16), the other the trumpet of the 7th angel (Rev. 11:15): one is to herald an event that will take place in a moment (1 Cor. 15:51-58), the other is to herald many events which are days in duration (Rev. 10:7; 11:15-13:18); one is a trumpet of blessing (v 16-17), the other a trumpet of woe to men (Rev. 8:13; 11:15; 12:12); one is before the 7 seals and first 6 trumpets of Rev. 6:1-9:21, the other is after these (Rev. 11:15). See note f, 1 Cor. 15:23

10 qualifications for the rapture (4:16):

1 Be in Christ (v 14, 16; 2 Cor. 5:17-18)
2 Be Christ's (1 Cor. 15:23; Gal. 5:24)
3 Be blessed and holy (Rev. 20:4-6; Heb. 12:14)
4 Be good (Jn. 5:28-29)
5 Be worthy (Lk. 21:36)
6 Be in the Church (1 Cor. 12:13, Eph. 1:20-23; 4:4-6; 5:27; Col. 1:18, 24)
7 Be pure (1 Jn. 3:2-3)
8 Be without spot or wrinkle (Eph. 5:27)
9 Live and walk in the Spirit (Gal. 5:19-21)
10 Walk in the light (1 Jn. 1:7; Col. 2:6)

10 purposes of the rapture (4:17):

1 To receive saints to Himself as promised (v 17; Jn. 14:1-3; Eph. 5:27)
2 To resurrect the dead in Christ from among the wicked dead (v 14, 15-17; note p, Phil. 3:11; Rev. 20:4-6)
3 To take saints to heaven to live in the New Jerusalem and receive rewards (v 17; 3:13; Jn. 14:1-3; 2 Cor. 5:10; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 19:1-10; 21:9-10)
4 To change bodies of saints to immortality (v 16-17; 1 Cor. 15:35-58; Phil. 3:21)
5 To present saints before God (v 17; 3:13; Jn. 14:1-3; Jude 24; Rev. 19:1-10)
6 To make saints whole in body, soul, and spirit (v 16-17; 5:23; Phil. 3:21)
7 To receive the fruit of the early and latter rain (Jas. 5:7; Jn. 14:1-3)
8 To cause the saints to escape the tribulation of Rev. 6:1-19:21 (v 16-17; 5:9; Lk. 21:36; Rev. 4:1, note)
9 To remove the hinderer of lawlessness (2 Th. 2:7, note; Rev. 4:1, note)
10 To permit the revelation of the Antichrist (2 Th. 2:7, note; Rev. 4:1)

22 commands and admonitions in ch. 5:

1 Do not sleep; be spiritually alive (v 6)
2 Watch, be alert for enemies (v 6)
3 Let us be sober, not intoxicated (v 6-7)
4 Put on the armour of God (v 8; Eph. 6)
5 Comfort one another (v 11; 4:18)
6 Edify or build up one another (v 11)
7 Know or be kind to ministers (v 12)
8 Esteem ministers highly in love (v 13)
9 Live in peace among yourselves (v 13)
10 Warn the unruly, the disorderly (v 14)
11 Console the fainthearted (v 14)
12 Sustain the weak, strengthless (v 14). See note m, 1 Cor. 8:10
13 Be patient with all men (v 14)
14 Render evil to no man (v 15)
15 Follow that which is good (v 15)
16 Rejoice always in all things (v 16)
17 Pray always about all things (v 17)
18 Give thanks always in all things
19 Quench not the Spirit (v 19) (v 18)
20 Despise not prophesyings (v 20)
21 Test all things; retain the good (v 21)
22 Abstain from all appearance of evil, not only from all evil (v 22)

Warning against date setting (5:2)

Just like a woman knows she must travail if she is with child but knows not the day or the hour, so it is with the sudden destruction. We know the times and seasons of it, but not the day or the hour. Since the second advent of Christ brings this sudden destruction it means that men will not know the exact day or the hour of His coming. This will always be the case, as predicted by Christ in Mt. 24:36, 39, 42-51; 25:13. Jesus Christ and angels do not know the day or hour of the second advent (Mk. 13:32). It is, therefore, folly for any man to make predictions and set dates for the return of Jesus Christ to earth, for the end of the times of the Gentiles, for the battle of Armageddon, or for the sudden destruction of v 3

Time of sudden destruction (5:3)

When Antichrist shall have conquered the 10 kingdoms inside the Roman Empire in the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 13 and 17), and by these kingdoms shall have conquered Russia and the other nations north and east of the Roman empire in the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 11:40-45), it will be time for the world to be saying "Peace and safety." They will think that getting rid of Israel (Zech. 14) will mean no further wars. They will then look forward to a period of peace and prosperity, but the Lord will come suddenly when Jerusalem is half taken and sudden destruction will be upon all the nations at Armageddon (Zech. 14; Joel 3; Rev. 19:11-21)

Conditions of escape (5:6)

In view of the fact that we are children of the light and of the day, and that God has not appointed us to wrath but to obtain deliverance from this day by rapture, let us meet the conditions of escape from that day of wrath and from the sudden destruction of v 6-11

4 conditions of escape:

1 Not sleep (v 6-7). Gr. katheudo, to repose one's self in sleep. Used of the sleeping, indifferent, careless, and unfaithful virgins (Mt. 25:5); of the sleeping disciples who could not watch with Christ one hour (Mt. 26:45); and of indifferent and backsliding men (Eph. 5:14; 1 Th. 5:6, 7, 8). The warning here is that we not go back into sin

2 Watch (v 6). Be always alert and live godly in Christ; do not permit self to be overthrown by temptation (Mt. 24:42-51)

3 Be sober (v 6-8). Gr. nehpo, to drink no intoxicants; live soberly and righteously (Tit. 2:11-12). Trans. be sober (v 6, 8; 1 Pet. 1:13; 5:8) and watch (2 Tim. 4:5; 1 Pet. 4:7). It was counted a disgrace even among the heathen to be drunk in the day, hence the admonition to live as children of light and of the day (v 5-8)

4 Put on the breastplate of faith and love and the helmet, the hope of salvation (v 8; Eph. 6:10-18). We are not only to be sober and watch, but we are called to fight the fight of faith and lay hold of eternal life (1 Tim. 6:12; 1 Cor. 9:24-27)

Scriptures on the rapture: Christ's coming FOR the saints

1 Pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things... and to stand before the Son of man (Lk. 21:34)

2 In My Father's house are many mansions... I go to prepare a place for you... I will come again, and receive you unto Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also (Jn. 14:1-3)

3 We shall not all sleep (die physically), but we shall all be changed. In a moment... at the last trump... the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we (the living) shall be changed... put on immortality... then... death is swallowed up in victory (1 Cor. 15:51-56)

4 Christ loved the church... that He might present it to Himself (Eph. 5:25-27)

5 From whence (heaven) also we look for... Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body (Phil. 3:11, 20-21; 2 Cor. 5:1-9)

6 For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven... the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air (not on earth, to go back to heaven with Him; 1 Th. 4:13-18; 2:19; 3:13; 5:9, 23)

7 We beseech you... by our gathering together unto Him... until he be taken out of the way (2 Th. 2:1, 7-8, notes)

8 When Christ... shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory (Col. 3:4; 1 Jn. 2:28; 3:2; 1 Pet. 5:4)

9 Be patient... unto the coming of the Lord... until He receive the early and latter rain (Jas. 5:7-8)

Scriptures on the 2nd advent: Christ's coming WITH the saints

1 One like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought Him near before Him. And there was given Him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages shall serve Him (Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; 18, 27)

2 Then shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations... His feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which... shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west... the Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with Thee (Zech. 14:1-5, 9, 16-21)

3 Immediately after the tribulation... then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory (Mt. 24:29-31)

4 When the Son of man shall come in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then shall He sit upon the throne of His glory. And before Him shall be gathered all nations (Mt. 25:31-46)

5 When the Lord shall be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God (2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8)

6 The Lord cometh with ten thousands of His saints, to execute judgment upon all... that are ungodly (Jude 14-15)

7 He cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see Him... all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of Him... the armies of heaven followed Him upon white horses (Rev. 1:7, see 19:11-21; 20:1-3; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 3)

g 4fold praise for Thessalonians: For 1 Growing faith (v 3; Faith, p. 201)
2 Abounding love (v 3; note, 1 Cor. 13:4)
3 Patience in troubles (v 4)
4 Steadfastness and faith in trouble (v 4) h Gr. huperauxano, to abound beyond measure; to grow exceedingly healthy and fruitful, as a good tree planted in good soil. Faith is one of the seeds of grace that should grow normally in everyone until he has a genuine work of faith with power (v 11; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24) i Gr. agape, note g, 1 Cor. 13:4. Not only a few of them had abounding love, but everyone had it (v 3; 1 Th. 3:12)
j Same as increase in 1 Th. 3:12
k We hold you up as an example to other churches to show what grace can do in honest and open hearts (v 4) l Gr. kauchaomai, to boast or vaunt oneself. Trans. glory (v 4; Rom. 5:3; 1 Cor. 1:29, 31; 3:21; 4:7; 2 Cor. 5:12; 10:17; 11:12, 18, 30; 12:1, 5, 6, 9; Gal. 6:13-14); glorying (2 Cor. 12:11); rejoice (Rom. 5:2; Phil. 3:3; Jas. 1:9; 4:16); joy (Rom. 5:11); and boast (Rom. 2:17, 23; 2 Cor. 7:14; 9:2; 10:8, 13-16; 11:16; Eph. 2:9)
m From Acts 17:5, 13; 1 Th. 2:14 we learn that the Thessalonians had suffered much persecution from the Jews and from their own countrymen, but being fully persuaded of the gospel, and having the actual power of it working in their lives, they would not turn aside from it. Persecution has never hurt the true church and never will n 2 effects of tribulation (v 5-6):
1 A guarantee of the righteous judgment of God in punishing persecutors for their rebellion against Him and His people (v 5-6)
2 A guarantee of the rewards of those who endure persecution (v 5-6)
o All God's judgments are righteous and based upon the law of sowing and reaping (v 5-6; Gal. 6:7-8; Dt. 32:4). God demands justice of man in judgment (Lev. 19:15, 36; Dt. 1:17; 16:18-19; 24:17)

188 CHAPTER 1

I The introduction: 1 Authorship and salutation

1 PAUL, and [b]Sil-vā'nus, and [c]Tī-mō'the-ŭs, [d]unto the church of the Thĕs-sa-lō'nī-ans [e]in [f]God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

2 Thanksgiving for four blessings manifest in his converts

3 We are [g]bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, [h]because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and [i]the charity of every one of you all toward each other [j]aboundeth;

4 [k]So that we ourselves [l]glory in you in the churches of God for your [m]patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

3 A guarantee that God will avenge His own elect

5 [n]Which is a manifest token of the [o]righteous judgment of God, that ye may be [p]counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing it is a [q]righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

II The day of the Lord (2 Th. 1:7-2:12). 1 The second coming of Christ begins that day

7 [r]And to you who are troubled rest with us, [s]when the Lord Jē'sus [t]shall be [u]revealed [v]from heaven with his [w]mighty angels,

8 [x]In flaming fire taking vengeance [y]on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jē'sus Christ:

9 Who shall be [z]punished with [a]everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10 [b]When he shall come to [c]be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

2 Prayer for them in view of the coming of Christ

11 Wherefore also we [d]pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of [e]faith with power:

12 That the name of our Lord Jē'sus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

3 An appeal in view of both the rapture and the second advent

1 [f]NOW we beseech you, brethren, [g]by the coming of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, and [h]by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, [i]neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

4 Two things must precede the day of the Lord: apostasy and the revelation of Antichrist

3 [j]Let no man deceive you by any means: [k]for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, [l]the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is [m]worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 [n]Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

5 One thing must precede the revelation of the Antichrist: the rapture first, AND THEN the revelation of the Antichrist

6 And now [o]ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: [p]only he who now letteth will let, [q]until he be taken out of the way.

8 [r]And then shall [s]that Wicked be revealed, whom [t]the Lord shall [u]consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall [v]destroy with the brightness of his coming:

6 The power of the Antichrist (Dan. 8:24; Rev. 13:1-18; 19:20)

9 Even him, whose [w]coming is after the working of Sā'tan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with [x]all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; [y]because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

7 Reasons for God permitting apostasy and strong delusion

11 And for this cause [z]God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

III Exhortations and prayers (2:13-3:15). 1 Thanksgiving: two means of salvation

13 But we are [a]bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning [b]chosen you to salvation through [c]sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the n And then, when? When he who hinders will be taken out of the way, then shall that wicked be revealed (v 7-8). Antichrist cannot possibly come until after the rapture of 1 Th. 4:13-16. All who go in the rapture will not be here during the days of Antichrist and during the tribulation of Rev. 6:1-19:21; Mt. 24:15-21; Dan. 12:1

o That wicked is the little horn of Dan. 7:8, 24; 8:9, 23; the prince that shall come of Dan. 9:26-27; the king of the north of Dan. 11:36-45; the man of sin of 1 Th. 2:3, 4, 8; the beast of Rev. 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 16:2-16; 17:1-18; 19:19-21; 20:10. p Whoever the Antichrist will be he will fulfill many prophecies and be slain by Christ at Armageddon (v 8; Dan. 7:11; Isa. 11:4; Rev. 19:19-21)
q Gr. anallsko, to kill, destroy (v 8; Lk. 9:54; Gal. 5:15). Other scriptures speak of his being slain by Christ (Dan. 7:11; 8:23-25; 9:27; 11:45; Isa. 11:4). This does not contradict Rev. 19:20, for this passage only shows how that, after he is slain, he will be cast into conscious and eternal torment along with others (Mt. 25:41, 46; Rev. 19:20; 20:10)
The fact that he will be slain disproves the theories of Antichrist being Judas or some other historical man resurrected as the beast of Rev. 13. If he were a resurrected man he could not be slain. It is not necessary for Judas or some other historical man to be brought back from death to fulfill Scripture. A future man could do this, as well as one of the past. All that is necessary is his yieldedness as a tool of Satan
s His preparation and revelation will be a work of Satan. The satanic angel now in the abyss will come out and use the human Antichrist to fulfill Satan's will in these last days. See 7 headed beast, p. 310. He will be endued with satanic power (v 8-9; Dan. 8:24; 11:36-39; Mt. 24:24; Rev. 13; 16:13-16; 19:20)
t With every cunning art and wicked practice men and demons can produce in order to deceive men who reject truth (v 10-12; 1 Tim. 4:1-8; 2 Tim. 3:5; 4:1-5; Mt. 24:24; Rev. 13; 19:20) u This states the reason God will permit such strong delusion at this time (v 10-12). If men determine to go to hell, there is nothing further that God can do to rescue them (Mt. 25:41; Rom. 1:21-32) truth:

2 Two commands: stand fast (1 Cor. 16:13; Gal. 5:1; Phil. 4:1; 1 Thess. 3:8)

●15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

3 Prayer for comfort and blessings upon good works

16 Now our Lord Jē'sus Christ himself, [b]and God, even our Father, which hath [c]loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3 190

4 Prayer for gospel success and deliverance from enemies

[d]FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be [e]glorified, even as it is with you:
2 And that we may be delivered from [f]unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not [g]faith.

5 Paul's confidence in God

▶3 [h]But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.
4 And we have [i]confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.
5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 How to deal with sinning church members (Mt. 18:15-17; Acts 5:1-11; 1 Cor. 5:1-13)

●6 Now we [j]command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh [k]disorderly, and not after the [l]tradition which he received of us.

7 Paul's example of conduct (Acts 20:17-36; Phil. 3:17; 4:9)

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to [a]follow us: for we behaved not ourselves [b]disorderly among you;
8 [c]Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:
9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

8 Commands to lazy busybodies

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, [d]that if any would not work, neither should he eat.
11 [e]For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, [f]working not at all, but are [g]busybodies.
●12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jē'sus Christ, that [h]with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

9 Command to be patient in doing good (Gal. 6:9; Mt. 5:16)

●13 [i]But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

10 How to deal with exalted and rebellious church members

●14 [j]And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.
15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

11 Conclusion and benediction

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.
17 [k]The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.
18 The grace of our Lord Jē'sus Christ be with you all. A-mĕn'.

a 2 things must be done to obtain glory:
1 Stand fast (v 14-15)
2 Hold the true doctrines (v 15; 3:6)
It is folly to talk about "coasting" into heaven without meeting the terms of the gospel. One must not only be called, but he must remain faithful to the call (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 9:27; Gal. 5:19-21; 1 Th. 3:8; 1 Tim. 5:11-15; 6:19-20; 2 Tim. 2:12, 17-18; Jas. 5:19-20; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 4:1-11; 6:4-9; 10:23-39; 12:14-15; 1 Pet. 1:5-13; 2 Pet. 1:3-10; 2:20-22)

b Another clear reference of two separate and distinct persons - Jesus Christ Himself (one person), and God, even the Father (another person, v 16; 1 Jn. 5:7; The Trinity, p. 280)

c 6 facts about God. See col. 4 d In conclusion, pray for us (v 1-2):

1 That the Gospel may have free course
2 That the Gospel may be glorified
3 That we may not be hindered in work. Paul was the only N.T. writer who asked for the prayers of those to whom he wrote (Rom. 15:30; 2 Cor. 1:11; Eph. 6:19; Phil. 1:19; Col. 4:3; Ph'm 22; Heb. 13:18)

e Gr. doxadzo, Trans. be made glorious (2 Cor. 3:10); have glory (Mt. 6:2; 2 Cor. 3:10); full of glory (1 Pet. 1:8); honor (Jn. 8:54; 1 Cor. 12:26); magnify (Rom. 11:13); and glorify 49 times in the sense of praise and honor (2 Th. 3:1; etc.)

f Gr. atopos, out of place - under no discipline: absurd; disgusting; disorderly. Trans. unreasonable (v 2); amiss (Lk. 23:41); harm (Acts 28:6); and wickedness (Acts 25:5) g Gr. pistis, confidence, faithfulness, trust, pledge of good faith. Used 244 times. Trans. belief (2 Th. 2:13); fidelity (Tit. 2:10); assurance (Acts 17:31); and faith 239 times (Heb. 11:1-39; 12:2; etc.). Here it means fidelity or faithfulness in contrast to the Lord who is faithful (v 2-3). See Faith, p. 201

h 12 times God and Christ are called faithful (Dt. 7:9; Isa. 49:7; 1 Cor. 1:9; 10:13; 2 Th. 3:3; Heb. 10:23; 11:11; 1 Pet. 4:19; 1 Jn. 1:9; Rev. 1:5; 3:14; 19:11)

i Paul's 3-fold confidence:
1 In God to establish and keep saints from evil (v 3)
2 In saints that they will obey (v 4)
3 In God to direct their hearts into deeper love and patience (v 5)

j See 7 parting commands, col. 3 below

k Gr. ataktos. Here and v 11

l Gr. paradosis, note q, 1 Cor. 11:2

Judgment of the nations (1:10)

At the second advent Christ will judge the living nations and send the goats of Mt. 25:31-46 to eternal punishment. This is not a general judgment or one of the wicked dead, so both passages refer primarily to the living people at the second advent (v 10; Mt. 25:31-46). Christ will not only judge the wicked living nations at that time, but will be glorified in His saints and be admired by all who believe among those who are alive on earth (v 10)

Christian obligation (1:3)

Gr. opheilo, be under an obligation to do a thing. Trans. bound (v 3; 2:13); be guilty (Mt. 23:18); behoved (Heb. 2:17); must needs (1 Cor. 5:10); need so require (1 Cor. 7:36); duty (Lk. 17:10; Rom. 15:27); should (1 Cor. 9:10); ought (Jn. 13:14; 19:7; Acts 17:29; Rom. 15:1; 1 Cor. 11:7, 10; 2 Cor. 12:11, 14; Eph. 5:28; Heb. 5:3, 12; 1 Jn. 2:6; 3:16; 4:11; 2 Jn. 8); owe (Mt. 18:28; Lk. 7:41; 16:5, 7; Rom. 13:8; Ph'm 18); due (Mt. 18:34; 1 Cor. 7:3); be indebted (Lk. 11:4); debt (Mt. 18:30); and be a debtor (Mt. 23:16). Most all these ideas could be understood here in v 3

4fold prayer for Thessalonians (1:11):

1 That God would count them worthy of the eternal calling (v 11)
2 That God would fulfill all His pleasure of goodness in them (v 11)
3 That God would fulfill in them the work of faith with power (v 11)
4 That Christ and saints may be glorified in each other by grace (v 12)

Summary of 2 Thessalonians

Date and place: Written from Corinth about 54 or 55 A.D.
Author: Paul (see Summary of Romans and Paul in the Index)
Theme: To instruct the Thessalonians concerning the day of the Lord and events immediately preceding it. False teachers, forging Paul's name to a letter, had taught the new converts that he had changed his doctrine and that the day of the Lord was at hand. Paul reminded them that they already knew the truth from him (2:5). He assured them that he had not changed his doctrine, that he had nothing to do with the forged letter (2:1-3), and urged them to stand fast in the truth (2:15-17). His teachings show that apostasy and Antichrist precede the day of the Lord and the rapture of the church precedes Antichrist (2:1-12)
Statistics: 53rd book of the Bible; 3 chapters; 47 verses; 1,042 words; 1 question; 31 verses of history; 16 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

2 classes of people to be judged (1:8)
1 They that know not God - that put forth no effort to know or understand Him (2 Cor. 4:4; Mt. 13:19)
2 They that obey not the gospel - that put forth no effort to obey it (Jn. 3:17-20, 36; Acts 7:51; Rom. 1:21-32)

7 parting commands (3:6):
1 Withdraw from unruly brothers (v 6)
2 Work or not eat (v 11)
3 Work peaceably (v 12)
4 Make your own living (v 12)
5 Be not weary in well doing (v 13)
6 Have no fellowship with rebels (v 14)
7 Admonish rebels (v 15)

a Gr. mimeomai, imitate. Only here; v 9; Heb. 13:7; 3 Jn. 11. Cp. note p, 1 Cor. 4:16. Paul constantly held himself up as an example for all Christians, for Christ had chosen him to be this for all men (1 Tim. 1:16)

b Gr. ataktos. Here and v 6. It means out of order: not in order of battle; not at one's post of duty; undisciplined; irregular; lawless and disorderly. They act according to their own wills and are idle and busybodies (v 11). Paul here says that he did not go out of his rank or post of duty, but kept his place and discharged his duties at all times and places as a true and tried soldier of Jesus Christ (v 7) c We paid for what we ate of any man's bread. We worked and paid our own debts. We were not chargeable to any man. We laboured night and day not to be a burden on them and to be an example to all men not to depend upon others for support (v 8-9) d This is a principle based upon the part of the curse to make a living by the sweat of the brow (Gen. 3:19). Idleness has always been a curse and always will be. It is wrong to support men who will not work and share their own responsibility (v 10)

e How and by whom Paul learned of the state of the church is not known, but from this information he wrote this epistle Either lounging around or becoming a religious gossip to stir up trouble

g Gr. periergazomai, to be busy about useless matters; doing every thing that they should not do; meddlers in the business of others; prying into the domestic affairs of others. Such people are a curse to every neighborhood and a plague to every religious group

h See True Christian behavior, p. 227

i While you refuse to support those who are busybodies and lazy, do not forget the worthy poor. This is the second time this is found in Paul's writings (v 13; Gal. 6:9)

j Perhaps some had disobeyed the first epistle and the church continued to bear with them. Now he tells the church to disfellowship anyone who still refuses to obey truth. Count him more an enemy to himself than to you. Continue to admonish him even though you have disfellowshipped him for his soul is still of infinite value (v 14-15)

k Compare this with the ending of other epistles of Paul

6 facts about God (2:16):
1 Loved us (v 16; Jn. 3:16)
2 Given us everlasting consolation (v 16; note v, Acts 13:15)
3 Given us good hope through grace (v 16; 8 Christian hopes, p. 227)
4 Comfort (v 17; God is called, 200)
5 Establishment in good words (v 17)
6 Establishment in good works (v 17)

Disturbing things (2:2)

3 things disturbed the Thessalonians:
1 Spirit - spirit-communication, pretended revelation, or spirit-demonstration
2 Word - teaching, preaching, discourse, reasoning, argument, fluent speaking
3 Letter as from us (v 2). False teachers had come to Thessalonica with a letter that had been forged in the name of Paul containing false doctrines about the day of the Lord being at hand (v 2-3)

Is God responsible? (2:11)

In what sense does God send such things? This question is answered in Rom. 1:21-32. It is not God's will that any man perish, but that all come to repentance (Jn. 3:16-20; 2 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17). If men persist in rebellion, then God gives them up and over to their own ways which will damn their souls. It is something that He is forced to do because He cannot save men who persist in damning their own souls. God has made the laws of sowing and reaping and this is the sense in which God has anything to do with such destinies (Gal. 6:7-8; Isa. 45:7, note)

Eternal punishment (1:9)

Gr. dike, penalty awarded by a judge; suffer punishment. Used 4 times: punishment (v 9); judgment (Acts 25:15); and vengeance (Acts 28:4; Jude 7). The penalty here is eternal destruction. The Gr. for destruction is olethros, ruin; undoing; that which causes destruction, a plague, pest. Trans. destruction (1 Cor. 5:5; 1 Th. 5:3; 2 Th. 1:9; 1 Tim. 6:9). Whatever it is that causes the destruction or ruin is eternal. It is not annihilation, for the destruction is eternal and the ones being so punished eternally are as eternal as the destruction itself. There will be no possibility of their ever being reconciled to God beyond this life, for they are eternally banished from the presence of God and from the glory of His power (v 10; Heb. 9:27). This in itself would be dreadful punishment, but besides this there will be the punishment in eternal hell (Mt. 8:12; 13:49-51; 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:43-49; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:11-15; Isa. 66:22-24)

Purpose of the epistle (2:3)

The purpose of the epistle was to calm believers and assure them that the day of Christ (the Lord, as in the texts) had not yet come; that apostasy and the Antichrist must first come; that the rapture must take place even before these two events (v 3-8); that he did not write any such letter as used by the false teachers who were disturbing them; and that he had not changed his doctrine since seeing them and writing the first epistle to them

Exhortation in view of His coming (2:1)

1 The coming of Jesus Christ. This could refer to both comings - the coming in the air for the saints (notes, 227 and 230; h, I Th. 3:13; i through x, 4:13-18), and the coming of Lord to the earth with the saints (notes p, Mt. 24:3; (p. 227 and 230)

2 Our gathering together unto Him. This could only refer to the rapture or the coming of the Lord for the saints before the tribulation, not to the second advent when He comes with the saints to the earth after the tribulation p. 227 and 230)

2 events precede the day of the Lord: (2:3)

1 Falling away. Gr. apostasia, defection, revolt, apostasy. Used only here and in Acts 21:21, but the same as apostasion, divorce, in Mt. 5:31; 19:7; Mk. 10:4. The Gr. here has the definite article, the apostasy, referring to the great one during the tribulation days between the rapture and the second advent of Christ (Mt. 24:4-31; Rev. 6; 1-19:21)

At the rapture of all dead and living in Christ in a moment (1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; I Th.4:13-18), not one soul will be left on earth who is a Christian or in Christ. Multitudes will soon be saved afterward through an awakening (Acts 2:16-21; Rev. 6:9-11; 7:1-21; 12:17). The rest will become so hardened as to seek to destroy these being saved in those days (Rev. 9:20-21; 16:2, 9-11). The great whore of Rev. 17 will destroy multitudes of Christians during the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week, while the Antichrist is coming to power over the 10 kingdoms inside the old Roman Empire (Rev. 6:9-11; 17:6). When Antichrist comes to full power over the 10 kingdoms in the middle of Daniel's 70th week, he, together with the 10 kings, will destroy the great whore, establish the beast worship, and kill multitudes who will not worship him and his image or take his brands (Rev. 7:9-17; 13:1-18; 14:9-13; 15:2-4; 16:6-11; 2-4;17; 16-17). This is the great apostasy of 2 Th. 2:3)

2 The man of sin revealed (2:3)

21 facts about the Antichrist: (2:3-12)

1 Called the man of sin because he will be the embodiment of lawlessness and leader of the great apostasy of v 3, 8-12; Rev. 13:1-18; 14:9-13; 16:2-4; 18:2-12

2 Called the son of perdition, because of being destined to destruction by his rebellion, like Judas or any other man who sells himself to Satan (v 3, 8-12; Rev. 13:2; Dan. 8:24; 11:37-39)

3 He is to be revealed (v 3)

4 He will be the opposer of God (v 4)

5 Will exalt himself above God (v 4)

6 Will accept worship as God (v 4)

7 His worship will be carried on in the future Jewish temple at Jerusalem (v 4; Dan. 8:10-14, 23-27; 9:27; 11:36-45; 12:1-7; Mt. 24:15-21; Rev. 11:1-2; 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 16:2-12; 20:4-6)

8 He will claim to be God (v 4)

9 He has a time to be revealed (v 6)

10 Something now holds back or hinders his revelation (v 7; note i, Lk. 4:42)

11 The spirit of lawlessness now works preparing for his revelation (v 7)

12 The mystery of iniquity, or spirit of lawlessness cannot reveal him until the hinderer of lawlessness be taken out of the world (v 7)

13 When the hinderer of lawlessness is taken out of the world, THEN shall that wicked be revealed (v 7-8)

14 When the wicked is revealed he will live until the second advent of Christ, will head the armies at Armageddon and will be destroyed by Christ (v 8; Rev. 19:11-21; Dan. 7:24-28; 8:23-27; 9:27; 11:36-45; 12:1-7; Mt. 24:15-31)

15 He is a man, for he will be killed by Christ at Armageddon (v 8; Dan. 7:11; 8:25; Isa. 11:4; Rev. 19:11-21). This man could not be Judas or someone else who has died already (Heb. 9:27)

16 He will be Satan's agent and his last attempt to raise up a world dictator (v 9; Dan. 8:24; 11:37-39; Rev. 13:2)

17 He will have miraculous powers from Satan (v 9; Dan. 8:24; 11:37-39; Rev. 13:2, 11-18; 16:13-16; 19:20; Mt. 24:24)

18 He will be a deceiver (v 10; Dan. 8:24-25; 9:27; 11:36-45; Mt. 24:15-31; Rev. 13:1-18; 19:20)

19 Only those who are lost will follow him (v 10-12; Rev. 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 16:13-16; 19:20)

20 The reason for men being deceived by him is that they have rejected truth, loved sin, and refused salvation (v 11-12)

21 He will be a great delusion and a lie (v 11-12; Dan. 8:10-14, 25; 11:39)

The hinderer of lawlessness (2:7)

What is it?

1 It is something already known (v 6)

2 It now hinders lawlessness (v 6-7)

3 It is strong enough to prevent the revelation of the Antichrist (v 6-8)

4 It will hinder lawlessness until it is removed from the earth (v 7-8)

5 It is called "he" (v 7)

6 It will be removed from the earth before the second advent (v 7-8)

7 It will not be here when Christ comes to destroy Antichrist (v 7-8)

The hinderer is one of 3 things:

1 Governments (Rom. 13:1-7; 1 Pet. 2:13)

2 The church (Mt. 5:13; 2 Cor. 2:15-16; Eph. 6:12-18; 2 Cor. 10:4-7)

3 The Holy Spirit (Jn. 16:7-15)

The hinderer of lawlessness must be the one that will be taken out of the world before Antichrist can be revealed (v 6-8). Will governments be taken out of the world? No, because Antichrist reigns over many kingdoms (Dan. 7:24; 11:40-45), and other kings reign over the rest of the earth all during the time the hinderer of lawlessness is removed (Rev. 11:15; 16:13-16). Will it be the Holy Spirit? No, for He will be here all through the tribulation and forever (Jn. 14:16; Acts 2:16-21; Rev. 12:17 with 19:10; Zech. 12:10-13:1). Multitudes will be saved by the Holy Spirit during the tribulation, as now (Acts 2:16-21; Rev. 6:9-11; 7:1-21; 12:5, 17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6). It is the church. It will be raptured before Antichrist comes and this is the only one of the hinderers of lawlessness that will be removed from the earth (1 Th. 4:16; see The "he" and Rapture, below)

The "he" of 2 Thess. 2:7

The only argument used to prove that the Holy Spirit is the hinderer of this passage is the pronoun he. It is believed that the church could not be referred to as he, because it is the bride of Christ; that the church is spoken of as a virgin, a woman, and that it is referred to by feminine pronouns.

On the contrary, the church is 1 Not referred to by feminine pronouns

2 Never symbolized by a woman
3 Never called the bride of Christ (see note, Rev. 21:9-10). The church is called a man (Eph. 2:15; 4:13) and the body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:12-13, 27; Eph. 1:22-23; Col. 1:18, 24). Because Christ is a man, it would not be proper to compare His body to that of a woman or to use feminine pronouns in referring to the church. Since the church is not a woman, a lady, a virgin, a bride, and is not referred to by feminine pronouns; and since the church is called a man and the body of Christ who is a man, the church can be referred to by the pronoun he.

The church is the only one of the three hinderers of lawlessness that will be taken out of the world. We must, therefore, conclude that the he or the hinderer of lawlessness of 2 Th. 2:7 must refer to the church being taken out of the world... And then shall that wicked be revealed who will be destroyed 7 years later by Christ at His second advent (v 7-8)

Rapture before Antichrist (2:7)

The church will continue to hinder lawlessness until the rapture. And then the Antichrist will be revealed. This is conclusive proof that the rapture takes place before Daniel's 70th week and the tribulation of Rev. 6:1-19:21. According to Dan. 9:27, Antichrist will be here for 7 years, for he makes a 7-year covenant with Israel. If he is here for 7 years, which will be the last 7 years of this age, and if he who hinders lawlessness refers to the church and is taken out of the way before he comes, then the rapture will take place before the last 7 years of this age and before the Antichrist comes at the beginning of those 7 years. See other proofs of this fact, Rev. 4:1, note

Fact of the second advent (1:7)

8 things it is NOT:

1 Not the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. This was another Comforter, not Jesus (Jn. 14:16-26; 15:26; 16:7-15)

2 Not conversion (Mt. 18:3; Jn. 3:1-8; Acts 3:19; 26:18; Jas. 5:19-20)

3 Not death which takes place among humans, 90 times each minute (Jas. 2:26; 1 Cor. 15:26)

4 Not the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A. D. (Lk. 21:20-24). Christ restores Jerusalem when He comes (Zech. 14:1-21)

5 Not the preaching of the gospel. His coming is suddenly and only once (Mt. 24:27-51; 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1; Rev. 19)

6 Not a spiritual coming (Zech. 14; Mt. 24:29-31; 2 Th. 1; Rev. 19)

7 Not the founding of the church which took place while Christ was here (Mt. 16:18; 1 Cor. 3:11; Eph. 2:19-22; Acts 15:13-16)

8 Not the rapture (see p. 227)

30 Testimonies proving the fact:

1 Enoch (Jude 14-15)
2 Jacob (Gen. 49:10)
3 Balaam (Num. 24:7, 17-19)
4 Moses (Dt. 4:27-31; 30:1-11; 31:29)
5 Job (19:25-27)
6 David (Ps. 22:26-31; 72:1-17)
7 Ethan (Ps. 89:1-37)
8 An unknown psalmist (Ps. 102:16)
9 Isaiah (9:6-7; 59:20; 63:1-6)
10 Jeremiah (3:14-25; 23:5-6)
11 Ezekiel (38:19-23; 39:21; 43:7)
12 Daniel (2:44-45; 7:13-27)
13 Hosea (3:4-5; 5:15; 11:9; 13:10)
14 Joel (2:1-11; 3:1-21)
15 Amos (1:2; 9:11-15)
16 Obadiah (v 15-21)
17 Micah (1:3-4; 4:1-7)
18 Zephaniah (1:7-8, 14-18; 3:8-20)
19 Haggai (2:6-9, 21-23)
20 Zechariah (2:10-11; 8:3-8, 23; 12:1-14; 13:8-9; 14:1-21)
21 Malachi (3:2-5; 4:1-6)
22 Jesus (Mt. 16:27; 19:28; 23:38-39; 24:1-25:46; 26:64; Lk. 21)
23 Peter (Acts 3:20-21; 1 Pet. 1:7, 13; 2 Pet. 1:16; 3:3-4)
24 James (Acts 15:13-18)
25 Paul (Rom. 11:25-27; 1 Th. 1:7-10; 2 Th. 2:1, 8-12; 1 Tim. 6:14; 2 Tim. 4:1, 8; Tit. 2:13; Heb. 9:28)
26 John (14:28; Rev. 1:7; 11:15; 16:15; 19:11-21; 22:20)
27 Angels (Acts 1:11; Lk. 1:32-33)

Time of the second advent: (1:7)

1 Immediately after the tribulation (Mt. 24:29; 25:31; Rev. 11:1-19:21)

2 At the beginning of the Millennium (Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10)

3 After Antichrist reigns 3 1/2 years (Rev. 13:5; 19:11-21; 2 Th. 2:7-8)

4 At the end of this age (Mt. 13:38-43, 47-50; 24:3, 29-31; 25:31-46)

5 When ten kingdoms are formed inside the old Roman empire (Dan. 2:44-45; 7:23-24; Rev. 13:1-18; 19:11-21)

6 In the days of terrible moral conditions as in the days of Lot and Noah (Mt. 24:37-51; Lk. 17:22-27; 2 Tim. 3:1-13; 4:1-4; 2 Pet. 2; Jude)

7 After the church age (2 Th. 2:7-8; Acts 15:13-18; Jude 14; Zech. 14:5)

8 When Jerusalem is surrounded by armies and half the city is taken (Zech. 14:1-5, 14-21; Joel 3)

9 After the resurrection of the righteous dead and 1,000 years before the resurrection of the wicked (Rev. 20:1-15; Zech. 14:5; Jude 14)

10 After all of Rev. 4-19 is fulfilled (Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10)

11 At the time Satan is bound before the Millennium (Rev. 20:1-7)

12 When Israel is restored and converted and Christ takes the throne of David to begin His reign over Israel forever (Isa. 9:6-7; Hos. 3:4-5; Lk. 1:32-33; Ezek. 36:23-28; 37:16-28)

10 fold manner of His coming (1:7):

1 As lightning (Mt. 24:27)

2 With destruction (Mt. 24:38-51; 25:31-46; 1 Th. 5:2; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8; Jude 14-15; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21)

3 Visibly (Mt. 24:29-31; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Rev. 1:7; 19:11-21; Zech. 14)

4 In brightness and fire (2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8; Ezek. 38:17-21; Mal. 4:1-6)

5 In vengeance and wrath (Rev. 14:14-20; 19:11-21; Jude 14-15; 2 Th. 1:7-10)

6 With power and great glory (Mt. 16:27; 24:27-31; 25:31-46)

7 With saints and angels (Zech. 14:5; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; 1 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14; Rev. 17:14; 19:14)

8 With clouds (Mt. 24:29-31; 26:64; Rev. 1:7; Dan. 7:13-14)

9 As Judge and King (Rev. 19:11-21; Isa. 11; Zech. 14; Mt. 25:31-46)

10 As a thief (1 Th. 5:2-4; Rev. 16:15)

35 purposes of the 2nd advent (1:8):

1 Take vengeance on rebels (2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:11-21)

2 Judge living nations (Mt. 25:31-46; Ps. 67:4; 96:10-13; 98:9)

3 Establish universal religion and civil government (Ps. 72:11; Isa. 2:1-4; Zech. 14; Mal. 1:11; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10)

4 Deliver Israel (Zech. 14; Rom. 11:25-29; Isa. 63:1-6; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 19)

5 Destroy enemies (Jude 14-15; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8-12; Rev. 19:11-21; Zech. 14)

6 Re-establish David's throne and his kingdom (Isa. 9:6-7; Jer. 30:7-11; Ezek. 37:20-26; Hos. 3:5-6; Lk. 1:31-33; Acts 15:13-16)

7 Deliver creation from bondage (Rom. 8:21-24; Isa. 11:1-2; 35:1-8; 65:20-25)

8 Bring salvation (Isa. 11:9; 49:6; 52:7; 1 Pet. 1:5-13; Rom. 11:25-29)

9 Mete out justice to all (Isa. 11:1-9; 42:1-4; Jer. 23:5-6; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)

10 Reign over all nations (Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Zech. 14; Rev. 11:15)

11 Make resurrected saints eternal rulers of earth (Mt. 19:28; 1 Cor. 6:1-3; Rev. 2:26; 5:10; 20:4-9; Dan. 7:18-27)

12 Gather Israel (Gen. 49:10; Isa. 11:10-12; 66:19-21; Mt. 24:31)

13 Put down rebellion on earth (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 2:27; 11:15; 19:11-21)

14 Rebuild the Jewish temple (Ezek. 43:7; Zech. 6:12-13)

15 Manifest God's glory (Isa. 4:2-6; 35:2; 40:5; 60:1-9; Ezek. 39:21; Mt. 16:27; 25:31)

16 Remove the curse from the earth (Isa. 35; 65:20-25; Micah 4:1-7; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; 21:1-7; 22:3)
17 Bring universal peace and prosperity (Isa. 2:1-4; 35:1-8; Mic. 4:1-7)
18 End the times of the Gentiles (Lk. 21:24; Rom. 11:25; Zech. 14)
19 Possess the earth (Ps. 2; Rev. 11:15)
20 Build up Zion (Ps. 102:16; Ezek. 37:11-28; 40:1-48:35)
21 Evangelize the world (Isa. 2:1-4; 11:9; 52:7; 66:19-24; Mal. 1:11; Zech. 8:23; 10:1; 14:16-21)
22 Restore all things (Acts 3:19-21)
23 Bind Satan and his angels (Rev. 20:1-10; Isa. 24:21-23)
24 Punish the inhabitants of earth for sins (Isa. 26:21; 27:1; Rev. 11:18)
25 Give man one more probationary trial (Rev. 20:1-10; Isa. 11 and 65: 20-25)
26 Fight the battle of Armageddon and restore man's dominion (Rev. 19: 11-21; Mt. 5:5; 25:31-46; Ps. 8)
27 Establish a theocratic government (Ps. 2; Isa. 2:1-4; 4:1-3; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Zech. 14:9; Rev. 20)
28 Gather together in one all things in heaven and in earth (Eph. 1:10)
29 Re-locate and segregate the different races (Dt. 32:8; Acts 17:26)
30 Heal everyone (Isa. 32:1-5; 33: 24; 35:5)
31 Fulfill the Abrahamic, Davidic, and other covenants with man (Gen. 12:1-3; 2 Sam. 7; etc.)
32 Be glorified in the saints (v 10, 12; Mt. 25:31-46, notes)
33 Be admired by believers (v 10; note c, 1:10)
34 Prepare the earth for the eternal habitation of God (Isa. 35; Zech. 14; Rev. 20-22; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)
35 Purge man of all possibility of future rebellion, so that the original program with man can be finally and eternally realized (Gen. 1:26-31; 8:22; 9:12; Ps. 8; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 20-22)

The doctrine of sanctification (2:13)

Gr. hagiasmos, consecration; a separation unto God FROM a profane, secular, and carnal use TO a sacred, religious, and spiritual use.

Sin is not necessarily involved in sanctification, because the word means setting apart. Material things and holy persons that are not sinful or that have had no old man in them can be and have been sanctified. If sin is not involved in the person or thing set apart then no sin is cleansed in the process of setting apart, but if sin and filth are involved in a person or a material thing to be set apart unto God, then such must be dealt with to make it presentable to God

1 Material things have been sanctified without taking an old man (Satan, note f, 2 Cor. 5:17) out of them:
(1) Bread (1 Sam. 21:6)
(2) The tabernacle and its furniture (Ex. 29:43-30:29; Lev. 8:10-15)
(3) Priests' garments (Lev. 8:30)
(4) Houses and lands (Lev. 27:9-29)
(5) Meat (1 Tim. 4:3-5)
(6) Solomon's temple and furniture (2 Chr. 7:16-20; 29:17-19)
(7) Gates (Neh. 3:1)
(8) Mt. Sinai (Ex. 19:23)
(9) The offerings (Ex. 29:27)
(10) Herod's temple (Mt. 23:17)

2 Holy persons have been sanctified who never had an old man in them:
(1) God the Father (Lev. 10:3; Num. 20:13; Isa. 5:16; Ezek. 20:41; 28:22-25; 36:23; 38:16; 39:27; 1 Pet. 3:15)
(2) Christ (Jn. 10:36; 17:17-19)

3 God's name has been repeatedly sanctified without taking an old man out of it (Isa. 29:23; Ezek. 36:23)

4 Babies have been sanctified from birth before committing sin (Jer. 1:5; Lk. 1:15-17; Gal. 1:15) and one never did have an old man in Him (Lk. 1:35; Jn. 10:36)

5 Heathen soldiers and husbands have been sanctified who never were Christians (Isa. 13:3, 17; 1 Cor. 7:14)

6 Believers sanctify God and never take an old man out of Him (1 Pet. 3:15)

7 Christ sanctified Himself though He never had an old man in Him (Jn. 17:19)

8 The same people were sanctified many times so sanctification cannot be limited to one act (Ex. 19:14, 22; 28: 41; 29:33, 44; 30:29; Lev. 8:30)

9 Men have sanctified themselves (Lev. 11:44; 20:7). Did they take an old man out of themselves?

10 The same people that sanctified themselves (Lev. 11:44; 20:7) were also sanctified by Moses (Ex. 19:10-14) and by God (Ex. 29:43-44; 31:13; Lev. 20: 8; 21:8, 15, 23; 22:9, 16). Which ones took the old man out?

11 All the first-born of Israel were sanctified at birth (Ex. 13:2; Num. 8: 17). If the old man was taken out at this time, then none of them had an old man after that.

12 Sanctified disciples (Jn. 13:10; 15:3, notes) were further sanctified in the same sense that the sanctified Christ (Jn. 10:36) further sanctified Himself (Jn. 17:17-19). See page 158 for proof that O. T. saints, including the disciples, were sanctified

13 The 7th day was sanctified without sin and cleansing being involved (Gen. 2:3-4)

30 proofs when sanctification begins:

It began in God's plan before Adam (Eph. 1:4), but in experience it begins:

1 When one gets salvation through sanctification (2 Th. 2:13; Rom. 1:16)

2 When he receives Christ (1 Cor. 1:30)

3 When born again (1 Jn. 2:29; 3:7-10; 4:7, 17; 5:1-5, 18; 1 Pet. 1:15-23)

4 When one becomes God's elect through sanctification (1 Pet. 1:2-4; Eph. 1:4)

5 When made righteous (1 Cor. 1:30; 1 Jn. 1:29; 3:7-10; 5:1-5, 18)

6 When created in holiness (Eph. 4:24)

7 When the old man (Satan, note f, 2 Cor. 5:17) is put off (Rom. 6; Eph. 4:22-24; Col. 3:8-10; 2 Cor. 5:17-18)

8 When one becomes dead to sin (Rom. 6)

9 When baptized into Christ by the Spirit (Rom. 6; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:27)

10 When one ceases to live in sin (Rom. 6; 8:12-13; 1 Jn. 3:7-10; 5:1-5, 18)

11 When he turns from Satan to God at forgiveness of sins (Acts 26:18)

12 When accepted by God (Rom. 15:16)

13 When one gets into Christ and is made a new creature (2 Cor. 5:17-18)

14 When one becomes Christ's and crucifies the flesh (Gal. 5:24; Eph. 4:24)

15 When washed from sin and justified (1 Cor. 6:11; Eph. 5:25-26; Rev. 1:5)

16 When he becomes one with Christ (Heb. 2:11; 2 Cor. 5:17-19; Rom. 8: 1-13)

17 When he accepts Christ as the offering for sin (Heb. 10:4-14; 1 Cor. 1:30)

18 When one is cleansed by the blood of Christ (Heb. 10:29; 1 Jn. 1:7-9)

19 When saved to the uttermost and from Satan (Heb. 7:25; 1 Jn. 3:8-10; 5:18)

20 When redeemed (Lk. 1:68-77; 1 Cor. 1:30; Heb. 9:12-15; 1 Pet. 1:18-23)

21 When one believes truth (1 Th. 2:13)

22 When saved from fornication (1 Th. 4:3-4; Gal. 5:24; 1 Cor. 6:9-11)

23 When one becomes the temple of God (1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:19-20; Rom. 8:9)

24 When reconciled to God (2 Cor. 5: 17-21; Col. 1:20-23; Rom. 5:1-11)

25 When one is saved and purified by faith (Acts 11:14-18; 15:7-11)

26 When brought to obedience to God (1 Pet. 1:2; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13)

27 When one is made ready for resurrection to see God (Heb. 12:14; Rev. 20:4-6)

28 When grace brings salvation and the Spirit renews (Tit. 2:11-13; 3:5)

29 When converted and all sins are blotted out (Acts 3:19-21; 26:18)

30 When purged of all sin (Heb. 1:3; 10:1-18; 2 Pet. 1:4-10).

This is instantaneous sanctification.

Proof of progressive sanctification:

1 Statements of Jesus (Lk. 9:23; Jn. 8:31; 14:26; 15:3; 16:13-16)

2 Statements of Luke (Acts 13:43; 14: 22; 15:41; 16:5; 18:26)

3 Statements of Paul (Rom. 1:11, 17; 2:7; 4:12; 6:3-22; 7:4-6; 8:1-13; 11: 20-22; 12:1-21; 14:19; 1 Cor. 1:7-10; 11:31-34; 15:58; 16:13; 2 Cor. 3:18; 5:9; 7:1; 10:4-6; 13:11; Gal. 5:1, 13, 16-26; Eph. 3:16-21; 4:1-32; 5:1-18; 6:1-18; Phil. 1:6, 9; 2:5-27; 2:12-15; 3:7-15; 4:8-9; Col. 1:9-29; 2:3-9; 3: 1-17; 4:12; 1 Th. 2:2-13; 3:1-12; 5: 11-23; 2 Th. 1:3-5; 2:13-17; 3:3; 1 Tim. 1:18; 4:12-16; 5:21-22; 6:12-14; 2 Tim. 1:13-14; 2:4, 19-26; Tit. 2:7-14; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 4:11; 5:11-14; 6: 1-2, 11-12; 10:23-39; 12:1-2; 13:20-21)

4 Statements of James (1:3-4, 12, 22-27; 2:14-26; 3:2; 4:4-10; 5:1-12)

5 Statements of Peter (1 Pet. 1:5-16; 2:1-12; 3:8-12; 4:1-19; 5:1-10; 2 Pet. 1:4-10; 3:14-18)

6 Statements of John (1 Jn. 1:6-9; 2: 1-6, 24-29; 3:1-10; 5:1-18; 2 Jn. 1, 6, 8; 3 Jn. 4, 11)

7 Statements of Jude (v 3, 20-24)

Proof of complete sanctification:

1 Statements of Jesus (Mt. 10:22; 19: 27-29; 25:46; Mk. 10:29-30; Lk. 21:36; Jn. 4:36; 6:27; 12:25; 14:1-3)

2 Statements of Paul (Acts 26:18; Rom. 2:7-10; 5:21; 6:22-23; 8:17-18, 23-25; 13:11; 1 Cor. 1:7-8; 15:1-6, 23, 51-58; 2 Cor. 4:16-18; 5:9; Gal. 6:7-8; Eph. 1:4, 13-14; 4:13-16; 5:26-27; Phil. 1:6; 3:7-14, 20-21; Col. 3:4; 1 Th. 1:10; 2:19; 3:13; 4:13-18; 5:23; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 6:1-12, 18-19; 10: 23, 35-39)

14 facts about Christ in Col. 1:

1 Head of the kingdom (v 13; Rev. 20)
2 Redeemer (v 14; Mt. 20:28; Gal. 4:5)
3 Image of the invisible God (v 15)
4 Firstborn of every creature (v 16)
5 Creator of all things (v 16)
6 An eternal Being (v 17; Mic. 5:2)
7 Upholder of all things (v 17; Heb. 1:3)
8 Head of the church (v 18, 24; Eph. 5)
9 Originator of all things (v 18)
10 Firstborn from the dead (v 18)
11 The pre-eminent One (v 18-19;
12 The fulness of God (v 19; 2:9) 2:9)
13 The Mediator between God and man (v 20-22; 2 Cor. 5:14-21; 1 Tim. 2:4-6)
14 The indweller of saints (v 27; note n, Lk. 22:3)

What all true Christians are (3:12):

1 Gr. hagios, holy (Rom. 11:16; 12:1; 1 Cor. 3:17; Eph. 1:4; 2:21; 3:5; 5:27; Col. 1:22; 3:12; 1 Th. 5:27; 1 Tim. 2: 8; Tit. 1:8; Heb. 3:1; 1 Pet. 1:15-16; 2:5, 9; 3:5; 2 Pet. 1:21; 3:2; Rev. 22:11)
2 Gr. agapao, beloved of God (Rom. 1:7; 2 Cor. 7:1; Col. 3:12; 1 Th. 1:4; 2 Th. 2:13; 1 Jn. 3:2; 4:1, 7, 11)

Christ, the Godhead bodily (2:9):

In Christ alone, not in the philosophies, vain deceit, human traditions of the Jews and Gentiles, or the world principles will be found the fulness of the Godhead in reality, or bodily. Jewish institutions were mere shadows of the realities and of the redemption made through the offering of the body of Christ in sacrifice (v 14-17; Mt. 26:26-28; Rom. 7:6; Eph. 2:16; Heb. 10:1-18; 1 Pet. 2:24). Hence, the Gr. word somatikos, bodily, refers to that which is real in contrast to that which is typical, or shadowy as in v 17; Heb. 10: 1. It is found only here. The Gr. word for Godhead is Theotes, meaning Deity. It occurs only here and relates to the Godhead or Deity personally. Christ is the personal and bodily manifestation of all the fulness of Deity. He was God incarnate and the manifestation of all the fulness of God's power and blessings to men (Isa. 7:14; 9:6; Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:34-35). The fulness of the Holy Spirit rested upon Him and worked through His body (Isa. 11:2; 42: 1-7; 61:1-2; Jn. 3:34; Acts 10:38). The fulness of redemption from the Deity came through His body (1 Pet. 2:24). This is why we become complete in Him and why He is the head of all principality and power (v 10; 1:16-18; Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:9-11; 1 Pet. 3:22)

5 things to put to death (3:5):

1 Fornication, all manner of unlawful sexual relationship (note g, Mt. 5:32)

2 Uncleanness, homosexuality and all other forms of sex perversion (see point 3, 17 works of flesh, p. 207)

3 Inordinate affection, unnatural, unrestrained, excessive, and out of bounds passion and lust (note c, Rom. 1:26)

4 Evil concupiscence, evil, wicked, and depraved desire, lust, passion or appetite

The Gr. word for evil is kakos, trans. evil 38 times (v 5; Mk. 7:21; etc.); ill (Rom. 13:10); harm (Acts 16:28; 28:5); evil things (Lk. 16:25; Rom. 1:30; 1 Cor. 10:6); bad (2 Cor. 5:10); noisome (Rev. 16:2); and wicked (Mt. 21:41)

The Gr. word for concupiscence is epithumia, and means any strong or vehement desire. It is used of good desires a few times, but mainly of evil and depraved lusts. Trans. desire (Lk. 22:15; Phil. 1:23; 1 Th. 2:17); concupiscence (Rom. 7:8; Col. 3:5; 1 Th. 4:5); and lust 31 times (Jn. 8:44; Rom. 1:24; Eph. 2:3; etc.)

5 Covetousness, Gr. pleonexia. Trans. covetousness (Mk. 7:22; Lk. 12: 15; Rom. 1:29; 2 Cor. 9:5; Eph. 5:3; Col. 3:5; 1 Th. 2:5; 2 Pet. 2:3); covetous practice (2 Pet. 2:14); and greediness (Eph. 4:19). Here it is called "covetousness which is idolatry" because the thing coveted becomes an idol (point 5, col. 1, p. 207; note e, Lk. 12:15).

This 5th sin is also mainly a sex sin seems clear from the fact that it is linked with 4 other sex sins of this passage. It describes the erotomaniac so common among women, who extravagantly idolizes, being intent upon a mental possession of the beloved one. She is usually extremely vain and, as a rule in love with a person of high social and intellectual standing - a prince, celebrated statesman, victorious general, famous actor, popular singer, brilliant preacher, or some other great man. Such diseased form of love is coupled with idolatrous admiration and worship, and, among other things is responsible for present day "swooning" and mobbing of singers, actors and other celebrated persons for autographs, pictures or part of their clothing

Warning against being spoiled (2:8):

Gr. sulagogeo, to carry off as booty or plunder; to rob and despoil. Used only here. Why such a warning if there is no possibility of their goods being taken from them? What are their goods that men can spoil? Is he referring to material goods or salvation and its benefits as in v 2-7? This clearly shows the possibility of man robbing others of Christ and His blessings. This does not contradict Jn. 10:28-29; Rom. 8:35-39 or any other passage. One must follow Christ and be fully persuaded as in these passages or any man can be robbed and spoiled

7 ways men can spoil Christians:

1 Through philosophy (v 8)
2 Through vain deceit (v 4, 8, 18-19)
3 Through traditions of men (v 8)
4 Through human religion and world principles contrary to the gospel (v 8, 14-23; note g, Gal. 4:3)
5 Through circumcision (v 11-13; Acts 15:1; Rom. 4:9-16; Gal. 5:1-11)
6 Through the law of Moses, demanding observance of the laws on meats, drinks, holydays, new moons, feasts, and sabbaths (v 14-17)
7 Through false cults that puff up and imitate the gospel (v 18-23)

By all these means unsuspecting souls are being carried off as plunder and booty by false teachers. The founders of false religions and human philosophies which pamper the flesh and give their victims elated feelings of importance make an appeal to them.

b Gr. epitage. Trans. commandment (Rom. 16:26; 1 Cor. 7:6, 25; 2 Cor. 8:8; 1 Tim. 1:1; Tit. 1:3) and authority (Tit. 2:15). The only place Paul says he is an apostle by commandment of God. It could mean by appointment. Cp. Tit. 1:3

h This salutation peculiar to Timothy and Titus i Just when this happened is not clear. Some suppose that by this time Paul was liberated from prison, that he went into Asia and then into Macedonia, leaving Timothy in Ephesus to carry out this charge (v 3) j These were Judaizing teachers who were constantly seeking to bring Christians back under the law of Moses (v 3-4, 6-7) k No doctrine other than those of the gospel or of the New Testament. Those in the law of Moses or the old covenant which are not brought into and made a part of the new covenant are not to be taught (see 85 contrasts, p. 201)
l Gr. muthos, anything delivered by word of mouth; legendary tales, as opposed to historical account; a fable; foolish or improbable story (v 4; 4:7; 2 Tim. 4:4; Tit. 1:14; 2 Pet. 1:16) m Gr. aperantos, endless, boundless, infinite; something that cannot be passed through or settled. Only here.
n Gr. genealogia, genealogy, a record of descent or lineage (v 4; Tit. 3:9). Among the heathen were endless tales of offspring of numberless gods. Jews and Samaritans took great pride in ancestors (Mt. 3:9; Jn. 4:12; 8:39). Paul warned against this (2 Cor. 5:16; 11:22; Phil. 3:4-6) and charged Timothy to be occupied with essentials of Christian faith. Emphasis on natural descent is foreign to Christianity, for in Christ there is no difference (1 Cor. 12:13; Col. 3:11)
o Gr. zetesis, a searching after; investigation. Trans. question (v 4; 6:4; Jn. 3:25; Acts 25:20; 2 Tim. 2:23; Tit. 3:9). Here it means disputings that cause strife, divisions, and parties p Gr. oikonomia, dispensation of God which is in faith (note a, Eph. 1:10) q Gr. telos, end. Here it means the design of the commandment is love. The fables and geneological questions lead to strife and debate, and the dispensation of God leads to love through faith (v 5) r 3 blessings of love:
1 A pure heart (v 5; Mt. 5:8)
2 A good conscience (v 5)
3 A faith unfeigned or sincere (v 5)

u Gr. mataiologian, empty arguments; many words with little sense, and that sense not worth hearing. Cp. Tit. 1:10 v Gr. thelo, wish or desire; the emotional element that leads to consequent action, and in which the natural impulse is stronger than the reasoned resolve. Trans. will 174 times; desire 16 times; and other ways 15 times. Many today have a passion for titles but not the qualifications (v 7; 2 Tim. 3:7)

191 CHAPTER 1

I The introduction: authorship and salutation

PAUL, an [a]apostle of Jē'şus Christ by the [b]commandment of God our [c]Saviour, [d]and Lord Jē'şus Christ, [e]which is our hope;

2 Unto [f]Tĭm'o-thȳ, my [g]own son in the faith: [h]Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jē'şus Christ our Lord.

II Legalism and false doctrines. 1 False doctrine rebuked

●3 [i]As I besought thee to abide still at Ĕph'e-sŭs, when I went into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à, [j]that thou mightest charge some that they teach [k]no other doctrine,

2 Controversies over fables and genealogies rebuked

●4 Neither give heed to [l]fables and [m]endless [n]genealogies, which minister [o]questions, rather than [p]godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

3 Fourfold summary of a Christian character (Gal. 5:22-23)

5 Now the [q]end of the commandment is [r]charity out of a pure heart, and of a good [s]conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

4 The general cause of error (2 Tim. 3:7; 1 Cor. 14:38)

6 From which some having [t]swerved have turned aside unto [u]vain jangling;

7 [v]Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

5 Purpose of the law (Rom. 3:19; Gal. 3:19): fourteen condemned classes

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, [w]that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

6 Paul an example: (1) A trusted and faithful minister

11 According to the glorious gospel of the [x]blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jē'şus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the [y]ministry;

(2) The chief of sinners saved (Mt. 12:31; Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9; 2:1-2; 3:5)

13 [z]Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was [a]exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jē'şus.

▸15 This is a [b]faithful saying, and [c]worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jē'şus came into the world to save sinners; [d]of whom I am chief.

(3) A pattern for the salvation of all sinners

16 Howbeit [e]for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jē'şus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

7 Glory to the only true God for such complete redemption

17 [f]Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Â-mĕn'.

8 Charge to Timothy (Cp. 1 Tim. 4:12; 5:21; 6:11; 2 Tim. 1:6, refs.)

18 [g]This charge I commit unto thee, son Tĭm'o-thȳ, according to the [h]prophecies which went before on thee, [i]that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

●19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having [j]put away concerning faith have made [k]shipwreck:

20 Of whom is [l]Hȳ-me-næ'us and [m]Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dēr; [n]whom I have delivered unto Să'tan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

192 CHAPTER 2

III Prayer and women. 1 Exhortation to pray for all men

I [o]EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made [p]for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

2 God wills all men to be saved (2 Pet. 3:9; Jn. 3:16; Rev. 22:17)

▸4 [q]Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

3 Christ the only mediator between God and man (2 Cor. 5:14-21; Rom. 3:25; Eph. 2:14-22; Phil. 2:5-11; Col. 2:11-17)

a 6fold former state of Paul (v 13-15):
1 Blasphemer of Christ (v 13)
2 Persecutor of Christians (Acts 8:1-3)
3 Injurious - killed saints (Acts 9:1)
4 Ignorant of the gospel (v 13)
5 An unbeliever in Christianity (v 13)
6 Chief of sinners (v 15) b Gr. huperpleonazo, superabounded over all. Only here. Cp. Rom. 5:20 c 4 faithful sayings in Tim. and Titus:
1 Christ came to save sinners (v 15; 4:10; Mt. 1:21; Jn. 3:16; Gal. 1:4)
2 Godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of life now, and of that which is to come (4:8-10)
3 If we be dead with Him, we shall also live with Him (2 Tim. 2:11-13)
4 They which believe must maintain good works (Tit. 3:8. Cp. 3:1; Rev. 21:5; 22:6)
This gives the whole span of redemption from the fall of man to the eternal reign with Christ d The gospel, of Christ dying to save sinners, is worthy of being accepted by the whole world. Since He died for the world, the world has a right to the benefits of His death (Jn. 3:16-20, 36; 5:24) e The sins of point a, above gave him claim to the title chief of sinners. The Gr. for chief is protos, meaning first in rank. Trans. chief (v 15; Mt. 20:27; Mk. 6:21; 10:44; Acts 13:50; 16:12; 17:4; 25:2; 28:7, 17)
f Because Christ came to save sinners, I obtained mercy. I have been chosen as a pattern for all who will believe on Christ to everlasting life (v 16)
g 4 facts about God the Father (v 17):
1 The King eternal - Gr. basilei ton aionon, King of the Ages. Cp. Isa. 9:6; Jer. 10:10
2 Immortal - Gr. aphthartos, incorruptible. The same word trans. to show the spirit and soul of man as not being corruptible (1 Pet. 3:4); and other things as being uncorruptible and immortal (Rom. 1:23; 1 Cor. 9:25; 15:52; 1 Pet. 1:4, 23). If God is immortal (aphthartos, 1 Tim. 1:17) and man's spirit is immortal (Gr. aphthartos, 1 Pet. 3:4), then it is a settled fact that the inner man is just as immortal as God
3 Invisible - Gr. aoratos (note c, Col. 1:16; Invisibility, p. 222)
4 The only wise God. Cp. 6:16. God is the source of wisdom and immortality, not that He is the only one that has wisdom and immortality, for Christ, the Holy Spirit, angels, and the inner man have wisdom and immortality h Same as commandment in v 5
i Referring perhaps to those that were uttered when spiritual gifts were imparted to Timothy (4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6)
j 3 necessary things to save the soul:
1 War a good warfare (v 18; 2 Tim. 2:4)
2 Hold faith (v 19; 3:9; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 4:11; 6:4-9; 10:23, 26-29, 36-39)
3 Maintain a good conscience (v 19).
k Gr. apotheomai, thrust away; drive away; beat off; banish; to repel; reject; disdain. Trans. put away (v 19); put from (Acts 13:46); thrust from (Acts 7:27, 39); and cast away (Rom. 11:1-2). How could these thrust away their faith and make shipwreck of it if such were not possible? If one can make shipwreck of his faith, does he still have faith that will save the soul?
l See Ship-wrecked faith, p. 236 m A man who thrust away and made shipwreck of his faith, becoming a blasphemer (v 19-20) and a false teacher, overthrowing the faith of others (2 Tim. 2:16-18) n Another man who thrust away and made shipwreck of his faith (v 19-20) and who became an enemy of the gospel (2 Tim. 4:14-15; Acts 19:33). Both of these men had faith and a good conscience before making shipwreck of them (v 19). Thus we not only have reference to a possibility of such shipwreck, but also a record of examples o Perhaps like in 1 Cor. 5:5
p 4 duties of Christians p. 237 q 3 classes to be prayed for (v 1-3)
r 2 things always the will of God:
1 That all men be saved (v 4; Mk. 16:15; Jn. 3:16; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)
2 That all come to the knowledge of the truth (Heb. 4:12; 2 Tim. 3:16) a One here means one in individuality, not unity (1 Cor. 8:6; Eph. 4:4-6). There are three separate ones in the Divine Trinity and they are also one in unity (Jn. 17:11, 21-22; 1 Jn. 5:7; Dt. 6:4) b Gr. mesitēs, a middle person to reconcile two parties at enmity - God and men (note m, Gal. 3:20) c Gr. antilutron, ransom. Only here. Cp. lutron in Mt. 20:28; Mk. 10:45; Tit. 2:14; Heb. 9:12. Lutron signifies a ransom paid for the redemption of a captive, and antilutron signifies ransom or exchange of one person for another, or the redemption of life for life

d The testimony of the ransom to be given in its own times or in due season

e I am appointed a herald, an apostle to teach Gentiles the whole truth (v 7)

f It was common custom among Jews to lift up hands in prayer. It was their way of making entreaty and request. This was to be done without wrath or hatred toward any person; without an unforgiving spirit; and without reasonings and disputings within, over what was being prayed for g Women also should pray to God in like manner as the men (v 8), and being properly attired and modest in appearance

h Gr. kosmeō, to order, arrange, deck, adorn, or embellish. Trans. adorn (v 9; Lk. 21:5; Tit. 2:10; 1 Pet. 3:5; Rev. 21:2); to trim (Mt. 25:7); and garnish (Mt. 12:44; 23:29; Lk. 11:25; Rev. 21:19)

i Gr. kosmios, well-ordered, moderate, regular, or well-behaved. Trans. modest (v 9) and of good behaviour (1 Tim. 3:2)

j Gr. katastolē, apparel, equipment, dress, or clothing. Only here k Gr. aidos, sense of shame or honor; regard for others; respect; reverence; self-restraint, modesty or bashfulness toward men; not being bold or forward. Only here and trans. reverence in Heb. 12:28

l Gr. sophrosunē, discretion; self-control; chastity; temperance. Trans. soberness and soblety (v 9, 15; Acts 26:25). Cp. 2 Tim. 1:7; Tit. 2:4, 12

m See Ancient head-dress, p. 236

n Gr. polutelēs. Here; Mk. 14:3; 1 Pet. 3:4. It is the extravagance in ornaments and costly garments that Paul rebukes. See notes on 1 Pet. 3:3. In fact, the passage is not condemning any one style, ornament, or garment, but demanding moderation in dress and behaviour in general as women professing godliness (v 10). When either men or women live primarily for dress and outward show it is wrong

o Gr. hupotagē. Here; 3:4; 2 Cor. 9:13; Gal. 2:5. See note g, 1 Cor. 14:34-35 p Gr. authenteō, to have power over. Only here. Women should not dictate to men, but exercise their rights to teach, prophesy (or preach), pray, and do other things under the authority of men (note g, 1 Cor. 14:34-35)

q It was the custom then for men to speak up in public assemblies to ask questions and even interrupt the speaker when they did not understand, but this liberty was not granted to women

r This is Paul's reason for stating the headship of men (v 11-14; 1 Cor. 11:3) s She shall be saved from dying during child birth if she remains godly (v 15). Childbearing does not save the soul. Even to be saved from dying in childbirth is not promised unless a woman continues in 4 things:

1 Faith (v 15; notes r and s, Col. 1:23)
2 Love (v 15; note g, 1 Cor. 13:4)
3 Holiness (v 15; note l, 1 Th. 4:3)
4 Sobriety (v 15; note l, above)
If one must continue in these things just to have the assurance of continued physical life, shall anything less be required for eternal life? Even with this promise, the benefits must be appropriated by faith

t Gr. episkopos, overseer, bishop, or preaching elder (note t, Acts 20:28)

u 16 qualifications for bishops, p. 236

5 For there is [a]one God, and one [a]mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jĕ'sus;
▸6 Who gave himself [c]a ransom for all,[d] to be testified in due time.

4 God's method of propagating the gospel (Mt. 4:23; 10:1-7; Mk. 6:7-13; 16:15-20; Lk. 10:1-20; Acts 1:8; Rom. 15:18-29; 1 Cor. 1:17-21).

7 [e]Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gĕn'tiles in faith and verity.

5 Where and how to pray (Mt. 6:5-15; 7:7-11; Mk. 11:22-24; Lk. 11:1-13; 18:1-14; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26)

●8 I will therefore that men pray every where, [f]lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

6 Simple and modest styles commanded for women (1 Pet. 3:3-4. Cp. Isa. 3:16-24)

●9 [g]In like manner also, that women [h]adorn themselves [i]in modest [j]apparel, with [k]shamefacedness and [l]sobriety; not with [m]broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or [n]costly array;
10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

7 Subjection of women commanded (Gen. 3:16; 1 Cor. 11:3; 1 Pet. 3:1-6)

●11 Let the woman learn in silence with all [o]subjection.
12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to [p]usurp authority over the man, but to be [q]in silence.
13 [r]For Ad'ăm was first formed, then Ēve.
14 And Ad'ăm was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

8 Conditional promise to save women from death in childbearing

15 Notwithstanding she [s]shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3 193

IV Qualifications for church officers. 1 Seventeen qualifications for preachers (Acts 20:17, 28; Tit. 1:5-9; 1 Pet. 5:1-8)

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of [t]a bishop, he desireth a good work.
●2 A bishop then [u]must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;
●3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;
●4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all [e]gravity;
5 [b](For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)
●6 Not a novice, [d]lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
●7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; [f]lest he fall into reproach and the [g]snare of the devil.

2 Thirteen qualifications for deacons (Acts 6:3)

●8 Likewise [h]must the [i]deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;
●9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.
●10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.
●11 Even so must their [j]wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.
●12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
13 For they that have [k]used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jĕ'sus.

V Instructions to ministers. 1 They are to be examples

14 These things write I unto thee, [l]hoping to come unto thee shortly:
15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in [m]the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

2 The minister's message (Mt. 4:23; 28:20; Mk. 16:15; 1 Cor. 1:18-27; 2:1-4; 15:1-28; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:16-17)

16 [n]And [o]without controversy great is [a]the mystery of [p]godliness: [b]God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the [c]Gĕn'tiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4 194

3 The minister's opposition: latter day apostasy and demon doctrines (2 Tim. 3:1-8; 4:1-4; Mt. 10:11-22; 24:24; 2 Cor. 11:13-15; 2 Pet. 2)

[q]NOW the Spirit speaketh [r]expressly, that in the [s]latter times [t]some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;
2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;
3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, [u]which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and a Gr. semnotes, solemnity; dignity; majesty. Trans. gravity (v 4; Tit. 2:7) and honesty (1 Tim. 2:2) b If a man's home rule is not good, how can he be trusted with civil or religious government?

c Question 1. Only one in 1 Timothy d The reason for not putting a new convert in the office of bishop or overseer is the lack of Christian experience and service. It is natural for men to feel themselves important when entrusted with government. This feeling must be killed out entirely before one can be a true ruler. The example of Lucifer is given to emphasize the absolute necessity of mortifying pride - self-exaltation and esteem. Lucifer was trusted as the original overseer of the planet earth. He ruled for an indefinite period before Adam and was perfect in his ways until he was lifted up in pride to believe he could invade heaven and dethrone God (v 6; Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; Jer. 4:23-26; 2 Pet. 3:5-8). The new convert before learning the lesson of humility and the worth of his true self without grace, is likely to fall the same way Lucifer did. We do not need church rulers of this type - haughty, proud, exalted, despotic, and self-important e Gr. tuphoō, to make dull, senseless, conceited, silly, stupid, or absurd. Trans. lifted up (v 6); be proud (1 Tim. 6:4); and be high-minded (2 Tim. 3:4). The Gr. tuphōn, furious storm, hurricane, typhoon, may best illustrate such conceited, puffed up behaviour of inflated ones in the ecclesiastical realm f The reason given why a bishop must have a good report from non-church people - is to avoid reproach and falling into the snare of the devil (v 7). Backsliders usually fall by the sins of their former life. On these lines the devil concentrates to bring about the fall of as many as he can

g Gr. pagis, snare. Here; 6:9; Lk. 21:35; Rom. 11:9; 2 Tim. 2:26

h See 10 qualifications for deacons, 236

i See note d, Mt. 20:26

j See 4 qualifications for wives of deacons, p. 236

k 2 great rewards for faithful deacons:
1 Purchase a good degree (v 13). Gr. for purchase is peripoieo, to preserve, acquire, keep safe, and protect for oneself a good degree or rank among Christians (v 13; Acts 20:28)
2 Great boldness in the faith (v 13). Gr. parrēsia, freedom of speech. Trans. boldness of speech (2 Cor. 7:4); plainness of speech (2 Cor. 3:12); freely (Acts 2:29); confidence (Acts 28:31; Heb. 3:6; 10:35; 1 Jn. 2:28; 3:21; 5:14); boldness and boldly (Jn. 7:26; Acts 4:13, 29, 31; Eph. 3:12; 6:19; Phil. 1:20; 1 Tim. 3:13; Ph'm 8; Heb. 4:16; 10:19; 1 Jn. 4:17); openly (Mk. 8:32; Jn. 7:4, 13; 11:54; 18:20; Col. 2:15); and plainly (Jn. 10:24; 11:14; 16:25, 29)

l I hope to come to you shortly, but if I am delayed, you will know how to conduct yourself in the church (v 14-15)

m 3 names of the New Testament church:
1 The house or household of God (v 15; Eph. 2:19-22, Cp. Gal. 6:10)
2 The church or assembly of the living God (v 15; Eph. 3:15; 5:1)
3 The pillar and ground of truth, the upholder of the great truth of the mystery of godliness (v 15-16). Another great truth upheld is the headship of God (1 Cor. 11:3; Eph. 1:10). This truth Lucifer abode not in (Jn. 8:44; Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17). He is now denying it (1 Jn. 2:18-23). The church is now demonstrating it (Eph. 3:10; 4:11-16; 5:24; Heb. 13:7, 17; 1 Pet. 5:1-6)

n Gr. homologoumenos, confessedly

o See 7 facts of the mystery of godliness, p. 236 know the truth.

4 [a]For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is [b]sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

4 How to be a good minister (2 Tim. 2:15; 3:16-17; 2 Cor. 2:14-7:16)

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a[c]good minister of Je'sus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

●7 [d]But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and [e]exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

▸8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is [f]profitable [g]unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of [h]that which is to come.

9 [i]This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, [j]who is the Saviour of [k]all men, specially of those that believe.

●11 [l]These things command and teach.

5 Ministers are to be examples to others (3:1-7)

●12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an [m]example of the believers, [n]in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

6 Nine commands to ministers (3:1-7, 14-16; 4:1-12; 2 Tim. 2:15)

●13 [o]Till I come, give attendance to reading, to [p]exhortation, [q]to doctrine.

●14 [r]Neglect not the [s]gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the [t]presbytery.

●15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

●16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; [u]continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.◂

195 CHAPTER 5

VI Concerning various classes. 1 Men and women in general

REBUKE not an [v]elder, but intreat [w]him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

●2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

2 Concerning elder widows (Eph. 5:22, refs.)

●3 [x]Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or [y]nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a [z]widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth in [a]pleasure is [b]dead while she liveth.

●7 And these things give [c]in charge, that they may be [d]blameless.

8 But if any [e]provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an [f]infidel.

●9 Let not a widow be [g]taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

●10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the [h]saints' feet, if she have relieved the [i]afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

3 Concerning young widows (Eph. 5:22, refs.)

11 But the younger [j]widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax [k]wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having [l]damnation, because they have [m]cast off their first faith.

13 And withal they learn to be [n]idle, [o]wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, [p]but tattlers also and [q]busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

●14 I will therefore that [r]the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 [s]For some are already turned aside after Sā'tan.

4 Concerning relief of widows

●16 [t]If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

5 Concerning church elders (1 Tim. 3:1-13; Tit. 1:5-9; 1 Pet. 5)

●17 [u]Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

●18 For the scripture [v]saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, [w]The labourer is worthy of his reward.

●19 Against an elder receive not an [x]accusation, [y]but before two or three witnesses.

6 Concerning a sinning brother (Cp. Gal. 6:1; Mt. 18:15-17)

●20 Them that sin [z]rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

a Not a new revelation. See Gen. 9:3-4; Acts 10:14, 28; 11:8; Rom. 14:14. It was only for a special purpose that certain animals were forbidden Israel (Lev. 11; Dt. 14). God wanted them to eat only the clean and sacrificial type b Food is sanctified, set apart, by God's command (Gen. 1:29; 9:3) and prayer

c 30 things about a good minister, p. 237

d This refers to Jewish writings which contain some of the most ridiculous and profane fables ever to be invented. See notes n and o, 1:4

e Gr. gumnazo. Here; Heb. 5:14; 12:11; 2 Pet. 2:14. Take exercise in godly things instead of physical, so you may win eternal life (v 7-8; 1 Cor. 9:24-27)

f Gr. ophelimos. V 8; 2 Tim. 3:16; Tit. 3:8

g 3fold profit of godliness (v 8):
1 Profits in all things (2 Pet. 1:3)
2 Profits in this life (Mk. 10:30-31)
3 Profits in the life to come (Rom. 6)

h The life to come is eternal life which one receives as an unforfeitable possession at the end of his life of sowing to the Spirit (Mt. 7:13-14; Mk. 10:29-30; Rom. 6:22-23; 8:12-13; Gal. 6:7-8). Eternal life is received now on condition (note d, Jn. 6:27)

i See note c, 1:15

j See note c, 1:1

k There is a sense in which God has already saved all men - by providing salvation for them to receive if they want to. When Adam and Eve incurred the death penalty, the race would have been extinguished if God had not interposed and promised the seed of the woman. In the final sense of salvation, God becomes the Saviour only of those who accept the Redeemer by faith (Jn. 3:16)

l Let these things (of point c, above) be the substance of your preaching n See 6 things to be example in, p. 237

o See 9 commands to Timothy, p. 237

p Gr. paraklesis. Note v, Acts 13:15

q Gr. didaskalia. Trans. teaching (Rom. 12:7); learning (Rom. 15:4); and doctrine (Mt. 15:9; Mk. 7:7; Eph. 4:14; Col. 2:22; 1 Tim. 1:10; 4:1, 6, 13, 16; 5:17; 6:1, 3; 2 Tim. 3:10, 16; 4:3; Tit. 1:9; 2:1, 7, 10)

r Gr. ameleo. Here; Mt. 22:5; Heb. 2:3; 8:9; 2 Pet. 1:12

s Gr. charisma, grace, favor. Trans. free gift (Rom. 5:15-16) and gift (Rom. 1:11; 6:23; 11:29; 12:6; 1 Cor. 1:7; 7:7; 12:4, 9, 28, 30, 31; 2 Cor. 1:11; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6; 1 Pet. 4:10). This refers to the gifts and graces of God given to Timothy, enabling him to do the same works that Paul did (v 14; 2 Tim. 1:6; 1 Cor. 16:10). Such power was given by prophecy and the laying on of hands. The prophecy was some prediction that Timothy would be used of God (1:18; 4:14)

t Gr. presbuterion. Note b, Acts 22:5

u Suppose one would refuse to continue in them, would he then save himself? See note d, Acts 14:22

v Gr. presbuteros. Here it means an elderly person - one advanced in years, but in v 17 it means an officer of the church, commonly called a presbyter or bishop. See note b, Acts 22:5. If an elderly person makes a mistake he should be entreated as a father with great respect. The Gr. for rebuke is epiplesso, to strike at; rebuke or reprove sharply; to reproach harshly. Only here. Do not do this to an elderly person

w See Commands for 12 classes, p. 237

x Gr. timao, respect, revere; reward; support. Trans. honor (v 3; Mt. 15:4-6; 19:19; Mk. 7:6, 10; 10:19; Lk. 18:20; Jn. 5:23; 8:49; 12:26; Acts 28:10; Eph. 6:2; 1 Pet. 2:17) and value (Mt. 27:9)

y Gr. ekgonos, children, descendents. This shows that a widow indeed was one who had no relatives or friends to support her. Let the children or descendents of any who need support manifest their religion at home by caring for those they are responsible for, and thus repay their parents for bringing them up (v 4) a See 14 qualifications of a "widow indeed", p. 237

b Gr. spatalao, to live riotously, wantonly. Here and Jas. 5:5

c This proves that death in Scripture does not mean extinction of being, but separation (3 deaths, p. 213). This kind of death is separation from God because of sin (7 dead things, p. 213)

d Gr. parangello. Trans. charge (v 7; 1:3; 6:13, 17; Lk. 5:14; 8:56; Acts 16:23; 23:22); declare (1 Cor. 11:17); and command (Mt. 10:5; Mk. 6:8; 8:6; Lk. 8:29; 9:21; Acts 1:4; 4:18; 5:28, 40; 10:42; 15:5; 16:18; 17:30; 23:30; 1 Cor. 7:10; 1 Th. 4:11; 2 Th. 3:4, 6, 10, 12; 1 Tim. 4:11)

e 16 qualifications for bishops, p. 236

f Gr. pronoeo, to observe, plan, or provide beforehand. Here; Rom. 12:17; 2 Cor. 8:21

g Gr. apistos. Trans. infidel (v 8; 2 Cor. 6:15); unbelieving (1 Cor. 7:14-15; Tit. 1:15; Rev. 21:8); unbeliever (Lk. 12:46; 1 Cor. 6:6; 14:23; 2 Cor. 6:14); faithless (Mt. 17:17; Mk. 9:19; Lk. 9:41; Jn. 20:27); thing incredible (Acts 26:8); and believeth not (1 Cor. 7:12, 13; 10:27; 14:22, 24; 2 Cor. 4:4). If one does not use every lawful means to provide for his own he is worse than an infidel

h Enrolled on the list for relief. These were perhaps deaconesses on the retired list as widows serving the church in various ways for their support

i Not a polygamist, but having been legally married to one man

j An act of kindness the pious women often showed sandal-wearing visitors and travellers (notes, Jn. 13)

k Gr. thlibo, note k, 2 Cor. 1:6

l This indicates more than just relief for widows. It implies that those supported by the church were to carry out certain duties, perhaps as deaconesses and were to be old enough to be beyond the temptations of marriage, which would cause the breaking of their vows to the church

m Gr. katastremiao, to behave insolently toward. Only here. Such is possible even to the point of damnation if they cast off their first faith (v 11-15) and become insolent against Christ

n See Condemnation, p. 237

o Gr. atheteo. Trans. cast off (v 12); reject (Mk. 6:26; 7:9; Lk. 7:30; Jn. 12:48); despise (Lk. 10:16; 1 Th. 4:8; Heb. 10:28; Jude 8); bring to nothing (1 Cor. 1:19); disannul (Gal. 3:15); and frustrate (Gal. 2:21). If one does this to his faith will faith save his soul in spite of his not having it? See note k, 1 Tim. 1:19 p Gr. argos, doing nothing; lazy. Trans. idle (v 13; Mt. 12:36; 20:3, 6); slow (Tit. 1:12); and barren (2 Pet. 1:8)

q Gr. periercomai, to go about aimlessly as a vagrant. Trans. wander about (v 13; Heb. 11:37); vagabond (Acts 19:13); and fetch a compass (Acts 28:13)

r Gr. phluaros, silly talker; a fool; prater. Only here. Cp. 3 Jn. 10 s Gr. periergos. Trans. busy-body (v 13) and curious arts (Acts 19:19)

t 4 commands for young women:
1 Marry (v 14; Heb. 13:4; 1 Cor. 7)
2 Bear children (v 14; Gen. 1:28)
3 Guide the house (v 14)
4 Give no ground to Satan (v 14-15)

u 7 steps in the fall of some women:
1 Becoming insolent to Christ (v 11)
2 Breaking Christian vows through unfavorable remarriage (v 11)
3 Casting off first faith (v 12)
4 Learning to be idle (v 13)
5 Becoming tattlers (v 13)
6 Becoming busybodies (v 13)
7 Ending as followers of Satan (v 15)

v Christians who have widows must support them and not depend upon the church to care for them

w Ruling elders, especially preaching and teaching elders are to receive double honor or wages (v 17-18; 1 Cor. 9:6-14; Gal. 6:6; Heb. 7:1-10). See note f, Acts 14:23

x Quoted from Dt. 25:4; 1 Cor. 9:9

y Quoted from Mt. 10:10; Lk. 10:7

z Gr. kategoria, bring a charge against; accuse. Here; Lk. 6:7; Jn. 18:29; Tit. 1:6

a Dt. 19:15; Mt. 18:16; 2 Cor. 13:1

b Gr. elegchos, test; trial; examine. See note m, Jn. 16:8

a Gr. diamarturomai, to call solemnly to witness. Trans. charge (v 21; 2 Tim. 2:14; 4:1); witness (Acts 20:23); and testify (Lk. 16:28; Acts 2:40; 8:25; 10:42; 18:5; 20:21, 24; 23:11; 28:23; 1 Th. 4:6; Heb. 2:6). Not the same word in note d, 5:7

b 6fold solemn testimony before:
1 God - one person of the Trinity
2 Jesus Christ - another separate and distinct person of the Trinity 3 The elect angels - the ones who remained true when over one-third of God's angels rebelled with Lucifer (Rev. 12:4, 7-12; Isa. 14:12-14). The word elect proves some angels are chosen and others are not, the reason being that some rebelled and others did not. See 4 elect's of God, p. 201

c See 8 commands to Timothy, p. 237

d With two kinds of wine mentioned in Scripture - one, unfermented new wine found in the cluster (Isa. 65:8), we can be assured Timothy was not urged to take the intoxicating kind to strengthen him

e The sins and good works of some are manifest now because they are openly done, and the sins and good works of others are done in secret and will not be made manifest until the judgment (v 24-25)

f Gr. doulos, slaves. Christian slaves were to treat masters with honor and respect, so as to bring no reproach upon the cause of Christ (v 1)

g Christian owners of slaves were not to despise them for they were brethren and the owners' equals in Christ (v 2; Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11). This does not sanction slavery among Christians. It simply shows approved and proper relationship between those who may be in a position of slave and master

h 12 traits of false teachers: Guilty of 1 Rebellion against truth (v 3)
2 Pride - inflated and puffed up (v 4)
3 Ignorance of truth (v 4)
4 Doting (Gr. nosos, sick) over questions of the law (v 4)
5 Debatings - splitting hairs and stirring factions against others (v 4)
6 Envyings - sour tempers (v 4)
7 Strifes over doctrines (v 4)
8 Railings - evil speakings (v 4)
9 Evil surmisings - suspicions (v 4)
10 Perverse and vain arguments, rejecting truth because of corrupt minds (v 5)
11 Being destitute of truth but rich in fallacies and doctrines of demons (v 5; 4:1) 12 Seeking personal gain (v 5)

i Gr. hugiaino. Trans. wholesome (v 3); whole (Lk. 5:31; 7:10); sound (1 Tim. 1:10; 2 Tim. 1:13; 4:3; Tit. 1:9, 13; 2:1-2); and health (3 Jn. 2). Here it means doctrines of healing and health, not only for the soul, but for the body, as in the passages above. These words of health are listed along with the doctrines of godliness, proving they refer primarily to physical healing. The doctrines of godliness refer primarily to the soul (v 3)

j 3 commands Christians must turn away
1 From false teachers (v 3-5)
2 From disorderly brethren (2 Th. 3:6)
3 From men who have forms of godliness, but deny its power (2 Tim. 3:5) k Gr. aphistemi. (7 things, 236). It does not mean to stay with men who are false in an effort to convert them, but get away from them and associate with those of true faith

l Gr. eusebeia, note p, 3:16. Godliness with sufficient material blessings of food and raiment should make one content with life (v 6-8)

Divine Trinity have immortality, but all angels, seraphim, cherubim, living creatures of Rev. 4, and all spirit beings have immortality. Men have immortality of soul and spirit (note m, 1 Pet. 3:4), and will have immortality in body in the resurrection (1 Cor. 15:51-58). See note g, 2, 1:17

y God dwells in infinite glory which no man has ever seen nor can see. God out of His glory has been seen many times with the eyes of men (note r, Jn. 4:24). Moses talked with God face to face out of His glory and when he requested, "Show me thy glory" it could not be granted except as manifested through the back parts of God (Ex. 33:11-23)

z See 9fold charge to rich men, p. 237

6:11; 2 Tim. 1:6, refs.)

●21 I[a]charge thee[b]before God, and the Lord Jē'sus Christ, and the elect angels, [c]that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

●22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little[d]wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 [e]Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6 196

8 Duties of servants (Eph. 6:5; 1 Cor. 7:17; Col. 3:22; 1 Pet. 2:18; Tit. 2:9; Mt. 24:45-51; 25:1-30)

●LET as many [f]servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

9 Duties of masters (Eph. 6:9; Col. 4:1)

●2 And they that have[g]believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

10 Fifteen marks of false teachers (4:1-5; 2 Tim. 3:1-8; 4:1-4; 2 Pet. 2; 1 Jn. 4:1-6; Jude 4-19)

3 If any man teach otherwise, and[h]consent not to [i]wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

●5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: [j]from such withdraw thyself.

11 Dangers of covetousness and riches

6 But[l]godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

●8 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

9 But [m]they that will be rich fall into temptation and [n]a snare, and into[o]many foolish and hurtful lusts, which[p]drown men in [q]destruction and [r]perdition.

10 For [s]the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some[t]coveted after, they [u]have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many [v]sorrows.

12 Charge to Timothy: ten commands (1:18; 4:12; 5:21; 2 Tim. 2:6, refs.)

●11 But thou, O man of God, [w]flee these things; and [x]follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

●12 [y]Fight the good fight of faith, [z]lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast [a]professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee [b]charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jē'sus, who before Pŏn'tĭ-ŭs Pī'late[c]witnessed a good confession;

*14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, [d]unrebukeable, [e]until the appearing of our Lord Jē'sus Christ:●

13 God described: purpose of 2nd advent (1 Cor. 15:24-28)

15 [f]Which in[g]his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only [h]Potentate, the [i]King of kings, and Lord of lords;

16 Who [j]only hath immortality, [k]dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Â-mĕn'.

14 Last charge to Timothy: rich admonished (Jas. 5:1-7)

●17 [l]Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

●18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

●19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

●20 O Tĭm'o-thў, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Â-mĕn'.

Summary of 1 Timothy

Date and place: Perhaps written from Macedonia about 67 A. D. (1 Tim. 1:3).
Author: Paul (see Summary of Romans and Paul in the Index)
Theme: This book was the first of the three pastoral epistles - 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus - to give instructions concerning church order, doctrine, and discipline Statistics: 54th book of the Bible; 6 chapters; 113 verses; 2,269 words; 1 question; 105 verses of history; 5 verses of fulfilled and 2 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

a 10 dangers of coveting riches, p. 237

b Gr. pagis, a net; trap; a pit dug in the ground, filled with sharp stakes, and covered over so that any man or animal who stumbles into it will be killed. Here: 3:7; 6:9; Lk. 21:35; Rom. 11:9; 2 Tim. 2:26

c Too often, scraping together and heaping up riches debases the mind, destroys godly traits, and endues with selfishness, pride, and avarice which end in destruction and perdition (v 9-10)

d Gr. burithizo, drown. Here and in Lk. 5:7

e Gr. olethros (note g, 1 Cor. 5:5)

f See Perdition, p. 218

g Gr. philargyria. The love of money, not money itself, is the root of all these evils of v 9-10. Even the love of it is not the root of all evil that has ever been. Neither Lucifer nor Adam fell because of love for money (Gen. 3; Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; 1 Tim. 3:6). Cain (Gen. 4); Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 19); David (2 Sam. 12) and many others in Scripture went into sin for reasons other than the love of money. All men do not love money. Only some covet it and reap these evils of v 9-10

h Gr. orego, covet (v 10) and desire (1 Tim. 3:1; Heb. 11:16)

i Gr. apoplanao, err (v 10) and seduce Mk. 13:22). Here it means to err totally from the faith in Christ they once had. They could not err or be seduced from a faith they never did have. See v 21

j Gr. odune. Only here and in Rom. 9:2. The allusion here is to the snare or pit of note b, above, where the victim falls upon the many sharp stakes in the pit and is pierced through with them k For 10 things Christians must flee from, see notes a and g, above. Escape for your life for no man is out of reach of these things. How many have been ruined by the love of money alone!

l 6 things Christians must follow (v 11):
1 Righteousness (note d, Rom. 3:26)
2 Godliness (note p, 1 Tim. 3:16)
3 Faith (note g, 2 Th. 3:2; p. 201)
4 Love (note g, 1 Cor. 13:4)
5 Patience (note, Ps. 37:7)
6 Meekness (note, Ps. 25:9; Gal. 5:23)

m 7 last commands to Timothy, p. 237

n Gr. epilambano, to lay hold: seize; to attain to. Trans. lay hold on (v 12, 19; Lk. 23:26); catch (Mt. 14:31; Acts 16:19); take on (Heb. 2:16); take by (Mk. 8:23; Acts 23:19; Heb. 8:9); take (Lk. 9:47; 14:4; Acts 9:27; 17:19; 18:17; 21:30, 33); and take hold of (Lk. 20:20, 26)
The fact that Timothy, who had eternal life, was commanded to lay hold of it and keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until Christ comes, proves that it is not an unforfeitable possession until final salvation is brought at His appearing (1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13). It is now a hope, but hope that is seen is not hope (Rom. 8:24-25; 1 Cor. 13:13; Gal. 5:5; Eph. 4:4; Col. 1:5; 1 Th. 5:8; 1 Tim. 6:12, 19; Tit. 1:2; 3:7). La y hold on eternal life is commanded 3 times (v 12, 19; Heb. 6:18-19). See note d, Jn. 6:27

o Gr. homologeo. Trans. profess (v 12; Mt. 7:23; Tit. 1:16); promise (Mt. 14:7); give thanks (Heb. 13:15); and confess (Mt. 10:32; Lk. 12:8; Jn. 1:20; 9:22; 12:42; Acts 23:8; 24:14; Rom. 10:9-10; Heb. 11:13; 1 Jn. 1:9; 4:2, 3, 15; 2 Jn. 7) p Gr. parangello (note d, 5:7)

q See Mk. 14:61-62; Jn. 18:36-37

r Same as blameless (3:2; 5:7) s 2nd and last N. T. prophecy in 1 Tim. (6:14-15). This is required of all saints until the rapture (1 Th. 2:19; 3:13; 4:13-17) and the second advent (Tit. 2:13; 1 Tim. 4:1)

t which refers to the appearing when Christ will make known the only Potentate (v 15; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21; Zech. 14:1-9; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Isa. 9:6-7)

u The times that He rules (Eph. 1:10, note)

v Gr. Dunastes, a Mighty Prince, a Ruler. Only here of God, but trans. mighty (Lk. 1:52) and of great authority (Acts 8:27)

w Used of God and Christ (v 15; Rev. 17:14; 19:16). Both are great Potentates and Kings x Gr. athanasia, immortality. Here; 1 Cor. 15:53-54. This could only mean that God is the source of immortality, for not only do all three members of the Conscience (1:5)

Gr. suneidesis, joint knowledge of God and man; knowledge of our acts, state, or character as to right and wrong; the faculty, power, or principle which decides the lawfulness of our actions and affections, and approves or condemns them; the moral faculty or sense; consciousness of actions; the eye, judge, and guide of the inner man. Used 32 times. The word conscience is not found in the O. T.

12 kinds of conscience:
1 Awakened (Jn. 8:9)
2 Seared (1 Tim. 4:2)
3 Purged (Heb. 9:9, 14; 10:2)
4 Pure (Acts 24:16; 1 Tim. 3:9; 2 Tim. 1:3)
5 Weak (1 Cor. 8:7, 12, 13)
6 Defiled (Tit. 1:15)
7 Witnessing (Rom. 2:12-15; 9:1; 2 Cor. 1:12)
8 Good (Acts 23:1; 1 Tim. 1:5, 19; 1 Pet. 2:19; 3:16, 21; Heb. 13:18)
9 Convicting or healthy (Mt. 27:3)
10 Satisfied (1 Cor. 10:25-29)
11 Evil (Heb. 10:22)
12 Perfect (Heb. 9:9)

15 classes law was made for (1:9-10):

1 Lawless - Gr. anomos, contempt for law; no rule of moral conduct. Trans. lawless (v 9); without law (1 Cor. 9:21); unlawful (2 Pet. 2:8); transgressor (Mk. 15:28; Lk. 22:37); and wicked (Acts 2:23; 2 Th. 2:8)

2 Disobedient - Gr. anupotaktos, not under subjection; undisciplined. Trans. disobedient (v 9); not put under (Heb. 2:8); and unruly (Tit. 1:6, 10)

3 Ungodly - Gr. asebes, irreligious (v 9; 1 Pet. 4:18; 2 Pet. 2:5; 3:7; Jude 4, 15)

4 Sinners - Gr. hamartolos, transgressors of law. Trans. sinner 41 times and sinful (Mk. 8:38; Lk. 5:8; 24:7; Rom. 7:13)

5 Unholy - Gr. anosios, totally depraved; the utter opposite of holiness within and without. Only here and 2 Tim. 3:2

6 Profane - Gr. bebelos, not fit to attend public worship (v 9; 4:7; 6:20; 2 Tim. 2:16; Heb. 12:16)

7 Parricides - Gr. patraloas, those who strike or slay their father. Only here

8 Matricides - Gr. metraloas, those who strike or slay their mother. Only here

9 Murderers - Gr. androphonois, those who take any human life contrary to law. Only here

10 Whoremongers - Gr. pornois, male prostitutes; libertines (5 classes not to inherit God's kingdom, p. 213)

11 Sex perverts - Gr. arsenokoites, those guilty of unnatural sex practices (note n, 1 Cor. 6:9; 5 classes, p. 213)

12 Menstealers - Gr. andrapodistais, kidnappers; those who steal slaves and sell and buy them, or who hold men for ransom. Only here

13 Liars - Gr. pseustais, saying for truth what is known to be false (v 10; Jn. 8:44-45; Rom. 3:4; Tit. 1:12; 1 Jn. 1:10; 2:4, 22; 4:20; 5:10)

14 Perjurers - Gr. epiorkois, those who lie under oath. Only here

15 Those guilty of any vice contrary to sound doctrine (v 10; Gal. 5:21)

Ship-wrecked faith (1:19)

Gr. nauageo, shipwreck; crash, smash, or be ruined. Here; 2 Cor. 11:25

20 facts about faith. It can be:
1 Shipwrecked (1 Tim. 1:19)
2 Put away or thrust away (1 Tim. 1:19)
3 Turned away from (Acts 13:8)
4 Made void (Rom. 4:14)
5 Exercised in vain (1 Cor. 15:17)
6 Held to or let go (v 19)
7 Departed from (1 Tim. 4:1)
8 Denied (1 Tim. 5:8; Rev. 2:13)
9 Cast off (1 Tim. 5:12)
10 Erred from (1 Tim. 6:10, 21)
11 Overthrown (2 Tim. 2:18)
12 Abandoned (2 Tim. 3:8)
13 Kept or lost (2 Tim. 4:7)
14 Found missing (Mk. 4:40; Lk. 8:25)
15 Adequate or fail (Lk. 22:32)
16 Made without effect (Rom. 3:3)
17 Dead (Jas. 2:17, 20, 26)
18 Obeyed or disobeyed (Acts 6:7)
19 Built up or destroyed (Jude 20)
20 Continued in or discontinued in (Acts 14:22; Col. 1:23; Heb. 10:39)

Ancient head-dress (2:9)

Gr. plegma, anything twined or plaited; a net; wreaths; chaplets. Only here. This is not the Gr. word for hair (trichos) trans. hair 14 times. It could refer to hair here, but it could also refer to some part of the head-dress, the horn, for instance. Women wore a hollow silver or gold tube or horn 18 to 20 inches long on the forehead adorned with all kinds of precious stones, having strong cords suspended from it to the back which reached to the knees, and had tassels of red silk weighted with lead. These kept the horn from toppling in front. The whole thing was rendered firm by a net-work of cords, which supported it, and by a strong band fastened tightly under the jaws.

A veil was worn over the horn in such a manner as to leave its lower half uncovered in front. The veil could be drawn over the face at will, to cover all the face but one eye.

Regarding the hair, which may be the reference here, it was worn in the back in braids - from 1 to a record of 110 braids. In each braid would be woven silk cords with gold coins at irregular distances and reaching down to the knees, glittering at every movement of the wearer. Sometimes hair was made into temples, and other fanciful figures with the aid of gum.

Sometimes caps completely covered with coins or frontlets ornamented with diamonds were worn. Oriental women were fond of excessive decking with jewelry, not only their heads, but other parts of the body as well. Ear-rings, nose-jewels, chains, rings, bracelets, ankle-rings, strings of real pearls and money, necklaces, and many other ornaments were worn, some even by the men (Gen. 24:47; Ex. 32:2; 35:22; Judg. 8:24; Isa. 3:16-24; Job 42:11)

16 qualifications for bishops (3:2):

1 Blameless in conduct, Gr. anepilleptos. Here; 5:7; 6:14

2 Husband of one wife, i. e., no polygamist. One could be a bishop without a wife, as Paul (1 Cor. 9:5)

3 Vigilant, Gr. nephalios, drinking no wine; sober. Trans. vigilant (1 Tim. 3:2); and sober (1 Tim. 3:11; Tit. 2:2)

4 Sober, Gr. sophron, of sound mind; discreet; prudent; moderate; self-controlled; temperate. Trans. sober (v 2; Tit. 1:8); temperate (Tit. 2:5); and discreet (Tit. 2:5). Cp. 2:9, 15; 2 Tim. 1:7; Tit. 2:4, 6, 12

5 Of good behaviour. Gr. kosmios, note 1, 2:9

6 Given to hospitality, Gr. philoxenon, lover of strangers. Here; Tit. 1:8; 1 Pet. 4:9. Cp. Rom. 12:13

7 Apt to teach, Gr. didaktikos, capable of teaching. Here; 2 Tim. 2:24

8 Not given to wine, Gr. paroinos, a winebibber. Here; Tit. 1:7

9 No striker, Gr. plektes, not quarrelsome; one not ready to strike back at those who displease him; no persecutor of those who differ with him. Here; Tit. 1:7

10 Not greedy of filthy lucre, Gr. aischrokerde, not desirous of base gain; not using wrong methods to raise money to increase his own income (v 3, 8; Tit. 1:7)

11 Patient, Gr. epieikes, meek and gentle (v 3). Note s, Phil. 4:5

12 Not a brawler, Gr. amachos, not contentious, but quiet and peaceable. Here; Tit. 3:2

13 Not covetous, Gr. aphilarguros, not a lover of money; not desiring the office for the sake of personal gain. Here; Heb. 13:5. Note e, Lk. 12:15

14 Ruler of his own house, not by harshness and tyranny, but with honesty

15 Not a novice, Gr. neophuton, new convert to the faith. Only here

16 Of a good report from outsiders

10 qualifications for deacons (3:8):

1 Grave (v 8), Gr. semnos, Trans. grave (v 4; Tit. 2:2) and honest (Phil. 4:8)

2 Not double tongued (v 8), Gr. dilogos, liars; saying different things to different persons on the same subject. Only here

3 Not given to much wine (v 8) even unfermented (in the cluster; Isa. 65:8)

4 Not greedy of filthy lucre (v 8). See point 10, col. 2, Cp. 1 Pet. 5:2

5 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience (v 9). They must maintain a good conscience and be able to demonstrate the mysterious power of faith (Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:17-18; note h, 1 Th. 1:3)

6 Let them be proved (v 10). The same as not a new convert, in v 6. Let them be tested and proved worthy of the office, and able to keep themselves from being lifted up in pride and falling in the same manner Satan did. See note d, 3:6

7 Blameless, Gr. aneglketos (v 10). Trans. blameless (v 10; 1 Cor. 1:8; Tit. 1:6-7) and unreprovable (Col. 1:22). They must be free from evil and reproach

8 Their wives must meet certain qualifications (v 11. See note, below)

9 Each, the husband of one wife (v 12). No polygamist.

10 Each, the ruler of his own house (v 12), as required of bishops (v 4-5)

4 qualifications for wives of deacons: (3:11)

1 Grave (v 11; point 1, above)
2 Not slanderers (v 11), Gr. diabolos, devils. See note s, Jn. 6:70
3 Sober (v 11), Gr. nephalios, not drinkers of wine (point 3, col. 2)
4 Faithful in all things (v 11)

These qualifications apply to wives of bishops, deacons, deaconesses, and Christian women in general

7 facts of the mystery of godliness: (3:16)

1 Great - divine fulness (v 16; Jn. 1:16-17; Eph. 3:19; Col. 1:19; 2:9)

2 God was manifest in the flesh - the incarnation (v 16; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:26-56; 2:1-39; Jn. 1:14; Rom. 8:3; Gal. 4:4; Heb. 1:5-6; 2:6-18)

3 Justified in the Spirit - divine vindication (v 16; Acts 2:22-28, 36; 3:14-18; Rom. 1:3-4; Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:5-11; Col. 1:15-24; 2:14-17; Heb. 1:3-9; 2:5-18; 1 Pet. 3:22)

4 Seen of angels - divine revelation (v 16; 1 Cor. 4:9; Eph. 3:9-10; 1 Pet. 1:10-12). Gr. horao, to discern clearly; to gaze upon with wide open eyes as something remarkable. Previous to this angels had little knowledge of the necessity or reasons for and nature of human salvation (1 Pet. 1:10-12). Now it is no longer a mystery to them or to men

5 Preached unto the Gentiles - divine inclusion (v 16; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28; Eph. 2:11-18; 3:1-6; Col. 3:11)

6 Believed on in the world - divine propagation (v 16; Mt. 4:23-24; 9:35; Lk. 4:16-19; Eph. 2:17)

7 Received up into glory - divine ascension and exaltation (v 16; Lk. 24:51; Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:9-11). The Gr. analambano is trans. received up (v 16; Mk. 16:19; Lk. 9:51; Acts 10:16); taken up (Acts 1:2, 11, 22; 7:43); and take (Acts 20:13-14; 23:31; Eph. 6:13, 16; 2 Tim. 4:11). The same human body and nature God was manifest in was resurrected and received up to glory (note k, Jn. 21:14).

These divine phases of the mystery of godliness form one complete whole concerning the redemption of all things. No single part is now a mystery, for all have been made clear by many scriptures. See Mystery, p. 175

7 things incited by the mystery of iniquity or lawlessness (4:1):

1 Departing from the faith (v 1). Gr. aphistemi, to put away; remove; separate; to revolt from. Trans. depart from (v 1; Lk. 2:37; 4:13; 13:27; Acts 12:10; 15:38; 19:9; 22:29; 2 Cor. 12:8; 2 Tim. 2:19; Heb. 3:12); refrain from (Acts 5:38); fall away (Lk. 8:13); and withdraw (1 Tim. 6:5).

It is possible to depart from the faith and apostatize if such passages are not false. No man can depart from something that he is not in or does not have. All men do not have faith (2 Th. 3:2). Only men of that class would find it impossible to depart from faith for they have no faith to depart from. Men are warned to take heed, lest their hearts become evil and unbelieving and cause them to depart from God (Heb. 3:12)

2 Giving heed to seducing spirits (v 1). Gr. planos, leading astray. Trans. seducing (v 1) and deceiver (Mt. 27:63; 2 Cor. 6:8; 2 Jn. 7). These are deceiving demons that seduce men. To seduce means to lead astray; draw into evil; specially to entice to surrender chastity. Demons are charged with carrying out the program of enticement to forfeit virtue or surrender chastity. This is the same as forbidding to marry of point 6, below

3 Giving heed to doctrines of devils (v 1). To urge departure from the faith is the first work of demons. This results in departure from holy living, and acceptance of doctrines that will damn the soul. Men who pretend inspiration and revelation and false teachers of all kinds are the agents of demons (2 Cor. 11:14-15). Every religion that denies the reality of God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, the atonement, the death and bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ, sin, sickness, Satan, demons, hell, heaven, and the other fundamental doctrines of Scripture are as much of Satan and demons as the Bible and Christianity are of God

4 Speaking lies in hypocrisy (v 2). Gr. pseudologos, speakers of lies in pretended revelations, and acting self-denial and mortification of the flesh in order to prove their false doctrines to be truth

5 Having the conscience seared with a hot iron (v 2). Gr. kauteriazo, to sear with a red hot iron; to brand; to be seared in conscience. Only here. It means to make callous, withered, hardened, and insensible to right and wrong. It was customary in ancient times to mark criminals with a hot iron, so, according to the heathen, the infernal judges would know their vices and appoint them punishment according to their sins

6 Forbidding to marry (v 3). To forbid means to prohibit, hinder, oppose, or operate against. Seducing spirits influence people to hinder and operate against wedlock by enticing them to meet the demands of the sex drive apart from the sanctity of marriage. To heed means to pay attention to and act under the leadership and control of. Hence, those who satisfy their sex needs through perversions - any of the ways contrary to what is approved by Scripture are under the control, more or less, of demons (Rom. 1:21-28; Lev. 20:13; Joel 3:3). This also applies to religions that discourage or forbid marriage to anyone among laymen or clergy. Marriage is honorable to all and the bed undefiled (Heb. 13:4; 1 Cor. 7)

7 Commanding to abstain from meats (v 3). Among the heathen and others, even some of the so-called Christians, certain meats and food are forbidden in utter disregard of v 3-4. Such unscriptural commanding under the new covenant is prompted by demons arrayed against the gospel and the liberty it provides regarding food (Gen. 9:1-7; Rom. 14:1-6)

14 end-time expressions (4:1):

1 Latter times - last years ending this age and before the Millennium (v 1)
2 Latter years - Armageddon and the end of this age (Ezek. 38:8, 16)
3 Latter days - the future tribulation (Num. 24:14; Dt. 4:30; 31:29; Jer. 23:20; 30:24; 48:47; 49:39; Dan. 2:28; 10:14)
4 Latter day - Millennium (Job 19:25)
5 Latter days - Millennium (Hos. 3:5)
6 Last days - end of this age preceding the Millennium (Dan. 8:19; 2 Tim. 3:1; Jas. 5:3; 2 Pet. 3:3; Jude 18)
7 Last day - the rapture, at least 7 years before the Millennium and second advent (Jn. 6:39, 40, 44, 54; 11:24. See notes on p. 230)
8 Last days - the tribulation period or last 7 years of this age (Acts 2:16-21)
9 Last days - first advent (Heb. 1:1-2)
10 Last times - first advent (1 Pet. 1:20)
11 Last time - apostolic times and the whole church age (1 Jn. 2:18)
12 Last time - second advent (1 Pet. 1:5)
13 Last days - Millennium (Gen. 49:1; Isa. 2:1; Mic. 4:1)
14 Last day - end of the Millennium (Jn. 12:48. Cp. Rev. 20:7-15)

4 duties of Christians (2:1)

1 Supplications (note s, Eph. 6:18)
2 Prayers (v 1; 5:5)
3 Intercessions (v 1, Gp. Rom. 8:26-27, 34; Heb. 7:25; Isa. 53:12)
4 Giving of thanks (v 1)

30 things about a good minister: he will (4:7)

1 Guard the true doctrines (1:3)
2 Refuse speculative doctrines (1:4; 4:7; 6:20)
3 Have a pure heart (1:5)
4 Have a good conscience (1:5, 19)
5 Have genuine faith (1:5, 19)
6 Be faithful to calling (1:12)
7 Be saved from sin (1:15)
8 Be a pattern to others (1:16; 4:12)
9 War a good warfare (1:18)
10 Pray and give thanks for all (2:1-8)
11 Lead a quiet and peaceable life
12 Live godly and honest (2:2) (2:2)
13 Meet the 16 qualifications of bishops (ministers) on p. 236
14 Behave as belonging to God (3:15)
15 Hold to the fundamentals of truth (3:16)
16 Warn men of the 7 evils of the mystery of iniquity on p. 236
17 Remind brethren of truth (4:6)
18 Maintain faith and good doctrine (4:6)
19 Exercise self in godliness more than in bodily exercise (4:7-8)
20 Labor and suffer reproach for Christ (4:10)
21 Attend to reading, exhortation, and doctrine (4:13)
22 Make proper use of gifts (4:14)
23 Meditate wholly upon duties (4:15-16)
24 Be just to all classes (5:1-6:21)
25 Keep self pure (5:22)
26 Be content with life (6:6-8)
27 Abstain from fleshly lusts (6:9-11)
28 Follow fruit of the Spirit (6:11)
29 Fight the fight of faith and lay hold of eternal life (6:12)
30 Live blameless before God and true to all men (6:14-19)

6 things to be an example in (4:12):

1 In word - teach sound doctrine; nothing but the Word of God that saves the soul (Rom. 1:16; 10:17; 2 Tim. 3:16; Jas. 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:23)
2 In conversation, Gr. anastrophe, the whole conduct of life in domestic and public relations; behaviour. Always trans. conversation (v 12; Gal. 1:13; Eph. 4:22; Heb. 13:7; Jas. 3:13; 1 Pet. 1:15, 18; 2:12; 3:1, 2, 16; 2 Pet. 2:7; 3:11). Cp. anastrepho, note 2, 2 Cor. 1:12)
3 In charity, Gr. agape, love. Note g, 1 Cor. 13:4
4 In spirit. If this refers to the Holy Spirit it means in the use of spiritual gifts and in yieldedness to the Spirit in all of life and conduct (1 Cor. 12; Gal. 5:22-23). If it refers to the human spirit it means the manner and disposition in which all things are done
5 In faith, Gr. pistis, often used in the sense of faithfulness. Note g, 2 Th. 3:2; Faith, p. 201
6 In purity, Gr. hagneia. Here and 5:2

9 commands to Timothy (4:13):

1 Give attendance to reading (v 13)
2 Give attendance to exhortation (v 13)
3 Give attendance to doctrine (v 13)
4 Neglect not your spiritual gift (v 14)
5 Meditate upon these things (v 15)
6 Give self wholly to them (v 15)
7 Take heed to yourself (v 16)
8 Take heed to your doctrine (v 16)
9 Continue in your doctrine (v 16)

Commands for 12 classes (5:1):

1 Elderly men (5:1)
2 Young men (5:1)
3 Elderly women (5:2)
4 Young women (5:2)
5 Elderly widows (5:3-10, 16)
6 Young widows (5:11-15)
7 Church officers or elders (5:17-19)
8 Anyone who sins (5:20)
9 Servants (6:1)
10 Masters (6:2)
11 Teachers (6:3-5)
12 Rich men (6:9-10, 17-19)

14 qualifications of a "widow indeed" (5:5)

1 No children or descendents (v 4)
2 Desolate and in need (v 5)
3 Trusting in God (v 5)
4 Living in daily prayer (v 5)
5 No pleasure seeker (v 6)
6 Blameless in life and conduct (v 7)
7 At least 60 years old (v 9)
8 Not often married and divorced (v 9)
9 Her reputation one of good works (v 10)
10 She has brought up children (v 10)
11 Been hospitable (v 10)
12 Served the saints (v 10)
13 Relieved suffering (v 10)
14 Followed every good work (v 10)

Condemnation (5:12)

Gr. krima, a judgment; sentence. Trans. damnation when meaning loss of soul (v 12; Mt. 23:14; Mk. 12:40; Lk. 20:47; Rom. 3:12); condemnation (1 Tim. 3:6; Jas. 3:1; Jude 4). It is used of men condemning Christ to death (Lk. 23:40; 24:20); of God's vengeance on rebels (Rev. 18:20); of judgment where the loss of the soul is meant (Mt. 7:2; Jn. 9:39; Acts 24:25; Rom. 2:2-3; 5:16; 11:33; Gal. 5:10; Heb. 6:2; 1 Pet. 4:17; 2 Pet. 2:3; Rev. 17:1); of power of judgment to the saints (Rev. 20:4); of going to law (1 Cor. 6:7); of condemnation of saints (1 Cor. 11:34); of human and divine damnation (Rom. 13:2); and of men damning themselves (1 Cor. 11:29)

It is not sinful to marry, but any marriage causing one to break his vows to God, is to be avoided. Marriage is honorable to all (Heb. 13:4). Paul advises remarriage here, as a measure against the evils of v 11-15

6 commands to Timothy (5:21-23):

1 Observe these things (30 things, col. 1) without respect of persons (v 21)
2 Observe them without doing anything by partiality (v 21)
3 Lay hands suddenly on no man. Do not hastily ordain any man to the ministry. Let each one be tested and proved faithful before the laying on of hands (4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6; Heb. 6:1-2)
4 Do not partake of the sins of others or be responsible for their haste in ordaining unqualified men to the ministry (v 22)
5 Keep yourself pure (v 22), Gr. hagnos, pure from a thing. One thing referred to is ordaining unfit men to the ministry (v 24). The church in all ages has suffered from this practice. Trans. pure (v 22; Phil. 4:8; Jas. 3:17; 1 Jn. 3:3); clear (2 Cor. 7:11); and chaste (2 Cor. 11:2; Tit. 2:5; 1 Pet. 3:2)
6 Drink no longer water only or altogether, but mix a little wine with it for your stomach's sake to strengthen your body (v 23). Greeks often mixed water with wine, about one part wine and two to three parts water. It was held that continued water drinking injured the stomach. Timothy's father was a Greek (Acts 16:1) and he had been used to wine, but because of Christianity he had continued to abstain from it. Paul here gives him permission to use a little wine mixed with water for his health. The advice was dietic. We need not suppose, however, that Paul's use of the word wine means that Timothy partook of anything intoxicating.

It must be understood that the Bible refers to two kinds of wine - the fermented or intoxicating kind, called strong drink (Pr. 20:1; Isa. 5:11, 22; 24:9; 28:7; 29:9), and the unfermented or non-intoxicating kind like grape juice. Even juice in the cluster was called wine in those days. In Isa. 65:8 we read, "the new wine is found in the cluster," and we can be sure this would not be the kind to make anyone drunk (Gal. 5:19-21; 1 Cor. 6:9-11)

The water situation may have had something to do with this advice to Timothy also. In Asia Minor the water came mainly from cisterns which became stagnant at certain seasons

10 dangers of coveting riches. Causes: (6:9)

1 Many temptations of the devil (v 9)
2 Many snares of the devil (v 9)
3 Many foolish lusts (v 9)
4 Many hurtful lusts (v 9)
5 Destruction and perdition (v 9)
6 The root of evil to grow (v 10)
7 One to err from the faith (v 10)
8 Many sorrows (v 10)
9 Highmindedness (v 17)
10 Wrong trust (v 17)

Riches, in Scripture, are considered the cause of much sin and rebellion against God; and, for this cause, there are many warnings to men, especially converted men, to shun all covetousness of such (Dt. 6:10-17; Ps. 52:1-7; 73:1-22; Pr. 23:4-5; 28:20-22; 30:8-9; Jer. 9:23; Ezek. 28:5; Mt. 6:19; Lk. 6:24; 12:15-20; 16:13-31; 1 Tim. 6:4-19; Jas. 1:9-11; 5:1-3)

7 last commands to Timothy (6:12):

1 Fight the good fight of faith (v 12)
2 Lay hold on eternal life (v 12)
3 Keep this commandment (lay hold on eternal life, v 12) until Christ appears (v 14)
4 Charge the rich (according to the 9fold charge to rich men, below)
5 Keep or guard that which is committed to your trust (v 20). Gr. paratheke, trust or deposit (v 20; 2 Tim. 1:12, 14). The deposit entrusted to Timothy was the mystery of 3:16
6 Avoid profane, vain babblings (v 20; 2 Tim. 2:16)
7 Avoid fighting false science (v 20) Gr. gnosis, knowledge acquired by learning, effort, or experience. Trans. science (v 20) and knowledge 27 times (Lk. 1:77; 11:52; Rom. 2:20; 11:33; etc.). Cp. Job 26:7-14; 28:1-28; Eccl. 1:13-17

9 fold charge to rich men (6:17):

1 Be not highminded (v 17)
2 Do not trust in riches (v 17)
3 Trust in the living God (v 17)
4 Do good (v 18)
5 Be rich in good works (v 18)
6 Be ready to distribute goods to help others (v 18)
7 Be willing to communicate or have fellowship with all men, even the poor
8 Lay up treasures in heaven (v 19)
9 Lay hold on eternal life (v 19)

NOTES ON PHILIPPIANS CONTINUED

35 conditions of assurance (1:6):

1 Become a subject of God's grace (1:6)
2 Be partaker of God's grace (1:7)
3 Abound more and more in love (1:9) (1:10)
4 Approve things that are excellent
5 Be sincere until the end (1:11)
6 Be without offence till the end (1:10) ness (1:11)
7 Be filled with fruits of righteousness
8 Let your manner of life be as becometh the gospel of Christ (1:27)
9 Stand fast in one spirit and one mind with others striving together for the gospel (1:27)
10 Be not terrified by enemies (1:28)
11 Suffer for His sake (1:29)
12 Be likeminded with Christ (2:2)
13 Have the same love (2:2)
14 Be of one accord, of one mind with others (2:2; 3:16)
15 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory (2:3) (2:3)
16 Esteem others better than yourself
17 Be interested in others (2:4)
18 Let the mind of Christ be in you (2:5)
19 Obey the gospel (2:12) (2:12-13)
20 Work out your own salvation
21 Do all things without murmuring and disputings (2:14)
22 Be blameless, harmless, and without rebuke among men (2:15)
23 Hold forth the Word of life (2:16)
24 Beware of dogs, evil workers, and the circumcision party (3:2)
25 Press toward the high calling (3:13-16)
26 Walk by the gospel standard (3:16)
27 Be followers of me and mark enemies of the cross of Christ (3:17-20)
28 Stand fast in the Lord (4:1)
29 Help all workers of Christ (v 3)
30 Rejoice in the Lord always (v 4)
31 Let your moderation be known to all men (4:5)
32 Be anxious for nothing (4:6)
33 Let requests be known to God (4:6)
34 Think on right things (4:8)
35 Do what you have learned, received, heard, and seen in me (4:9)

One thing I do (3:13)

3 parts to this one thing:

1 I forget the ground I have covered in the race (1 Cor. 9:24-27). I cannot waste time over the past (v 13).
2 I reach forth to that which is before me in the race. I strain every nerve and muscle and use every ounce of my strength to win. My future depends on it. I am running for my life (v 13).
3 I press toward the mark (v 14), that is, I pursue the white line in the stadium upon which all runners must keep their eyes fixed, lest I be disqualified for the prize (v 14; 1 Cor. 9:24)

5 facts about false teachers (3:18):

1 They are enemies of the cross (v 18)
2 Their end is destruction (v 19; 2 Cor. 11:14-15; Heb. 6:8; 2 Pet. 2:20)
3 Their God is their belly (v 19; Rom. 16:18; Isa. 56:10-12; Ezek. 13:19)
4 Their glory is in their shame (v 19; Gal. 6:13; Tit. 1:10-13; 2 Pet. 2:2)
5 They mind earthly things (v 19; Rom. 8:5-6; 2 Pet. 3:3, 13-20. Cp. Mt. 7:15)

10 secrets of cure for worry (4:7):

Gr. phroureo, garrison; keep watch or guard. Trans. keep (v 7; Gal. 3:23; 1 Pet. 1:5) and keep with a garrison (2 Cor. 11:32)

1 Permit the peace of God to garrison or keep your heart and mind through Jesus Christ (v 7)
2 Renounce all worry and by prayer, supplication, and thanksgiving make all requests known to God (v 6; Jas. 4:7)
3 Think on right things (v 8)
4 Keep mind stayed on God (Isa. 26:3)
5 Use the weapons of spiritual warfare (2 Cor. 10:4-6)
6 Put on the whole armour of God (Eph. 6:10-18)
7 Have faith in God (Mt. 6:25-34; 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 11:22-24)
8 Live and walk in the Spirit (Gal. 5:16-26; Rom. 6:14-23; 8:1-13)
9 Do not cast away confidence (Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 6:11-12; 10:19-23, 36-39)
10 Cast all care upon God (1 Pet. 5:7)

What to look for (3:20):

Gr. apekdechomai (note c, Rom. 8:19). It is scriptural to look for the rapture or coming of the Lord in the air for the saints, to take place any time (v 20; Tit. 2:13), but not the second advent. (See notes on 2 Th. 2:7; Rev. 1:19; 4:1). The rapture and second advent are two events separated by at least 7 years. They are not two phases or two stages of one coming, but two distinct comings - one a coming in the air (not to the earth) before the tribulation, and the other a coming to the earth immediately after the tribulation (1 Th. 4:16 with Mt. 24:29). One is the coming for the saints (Jn. 14:1-3; Lk. 21:36; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-54; 1 Th. 4:13-17; 2 Th. 2:1, 7; Phil. 3:21; Col. 3:4) and the other is the coming to earth with the saints to set up the kingdom (Zech. 14:5; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-21)

6 things to meditate on (4:8):

1 True things - all that is in harmony with eternal truth in creation and revelation (2 Tim. 2:15; 3:16-17)

2 Honest things - all that is grave, decent, honorable, and Christian. Gr. semnos. Here; 1 Tim. 3:8, 11; Tit. 2:2

3 Just things - all that is in harmony with justice and righteousness (Rom. 3:24-31; 8:4; 2 Pet. 1:4-10)

4 Pure things - all that is chaste and holy for body and soul (Rom. 12:1-2; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 2 Cor. 7:1)

5 Lovely things - all that is pleasing and tends to bless others (1 Cor. 13:4-8; Gal. 5:22-23)

6 Things of good report - all that is in harmony with the best public good, virtuous and praiseworthy (Rom. 13:1-10; 2 Pet. 1:4-10)

TIMOTHY

a See note a, Acts 16:33
b Another proof that eternal life is yet a promise and not unforfeitable until the end of a life of sowing to the Spirit (note d, Jn. 6:27)
c Note g, 1 Tim. 1:2; Timothy, p. 159
d This salutation peculiar to Tim. and Tit.
e Another clear reference to two distinct persons of the three who make the Godhead (see Trinity, p. 280)
f Ever seeking to please God even when through ignorance I persecuted the church (see Conscience, p. 236
g Note the great love of Paul for Timothy, his mother and grandmother (v 3-5)
h See 2 Pet. 1:13; 3:1
i Sincere faith (note r, 1 Tim. 1:5) j She was the first convert. Then the daughter was saved, and finally Timothy. This did not come through heredity, but through prayer and Christian training. Timothy's father was a Greek (Acts 16:1) and since no mention is made of his faith it is possible that he was a heathen and contributed nothing to his son's Christian training.
k Gr. mamme, grandmother. Only here
l Wherefore - on account of which (your true faith and consecration), I remind you to stir up the gift of God that is in you. Be faithful even in afflictions according to the power of God in you (v 6-8). The gift is referred to as a fire, which, if not frequently stirred up and more fuel added, will go out. The Gr. for stir is anazopurein, to kindle up the fire; to add fresh fuel to it. Only here

From this it is clear that gifts can be neglected, as Paul warns in 1 Tim. 4:14. If this happens, if they are not properly used or replenished with continued grace and power from the Holy Spirit anointing they will become powerless and useless and thus fail in their purpose. This is why men need a constant supply of the Spirit - many fillings, as we see in Acts. This is why Jesus Himself had to live in prayer and receive a constant supply of the Holy Spirit (note p, Lk. 3:21). This is what Paul prayed for and expected in Phil. 1:19; Eph. 3:14-21.
m 4 things the gift of v 6 consists of:
1 Spirit of boldness (v 7; Rom. 8:15)
2 Spirit of power (v 7; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:8; 1 Cor. 16:10; 1 Tim. 4:14)
3 Spirit of love (v 7; 1 Cor. 13:4)
4 Spirit of a sound mind, understanding, and judgment (v 7; Gal. 5:22-23) n Gr. deilia, cowardice. Only here o Gr. dunamis, inherent power; power to reproduce itself, implying need of constant activity and use for continued reproduction. From this word we get our English dynamo and dynamics - the branch of mechanics treating of motion, the principles of active operation. Just as a dynamo needs to be in motion to produce power so one needs to stir up into flame the gift of God in his life (v 6; 1 Tim. 4:14)
p Gr. agape, note g, 1 Cor. 13:4
q See 1 Tim. 2:9; 3:2; Tit. 2:4, 6, 12
r 3 commands to Timothy:
1 Be not ashamed of the gospel (v 8; 2:15; Rom. 1:16; Lk. 9:26)
2 Be not ashamed of gospel preachers (v 8, 16; Lk. 9:26)
3 Be a partaker of the afflictions of the gospel (v 8; 4:5; Col. 1:24)
s 4 acts of God (v 9):
1 Saved us
2 Called us with an holy calling
3 Blessed us by His purpose and grace
4 Planned for us before the ages
t Before the ages of time - in eternity u 4 acts of Jesus Christ (v 10):
1 Made manifest God's blessings by His personal appearance on earth
2 Abolished death
3 Brought life through the gospel
4 Brought immortality through the gospel v Gr. katargeo (Law abolished, 213). He cancelled death and will destroy it completely at the end of the Millennium (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 21:4; 22:3)
w Christ brought to full view the life and immortality of the gospel, actually demonstrating it in His own case as a guarantee of the life and immortality of all who believe the gospel

197 CHAPTER 1

I The introduction. 1 Authorship and salutation

PAUL, an [a]apostle of Jē'şus Christ by the will of God, according to the [b]promise of life which is in Christ Jē'şus,

2 To Tī'mo-thỹ, my dearly beloved [c]son: [d]Grace, mercy, and peace, [e]from God the Father and Christ Jē'şus our Lord.

2 Thanksgiving for Timothy

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers [f]with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 [g]Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 [h]When I call to remembrance the [i]unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt [j]first in [k]thy grandmother Lō'ĭs, and thy mother Eū'nĭce; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

II Charges and personal references to the ministry (2 Tim. 1:6-2:26). 1 Three charges to Timothy (1:13; 2:1, 3, 14, 22; 3:14; 4:1, 5, 9; 1 Tim. 1:18; 4:12; 5:21; 6:11-21)

6 [l]Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

▸7 [m]For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; [n]but of power, and of love, and of a [o]sound mind.

8 [p]Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

2 The sevenfold work of God

9 [q]Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jē'şus [r]before the world began,

10 [s]But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jē'şus Christ, who hath [t]abolished death, and hath [u]brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

3 God's method of propagating His work (1 Tim. 2:7, refs.)

11 [v]Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gĕn'tīles.

▸12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

4 Two charges to Timothy (1:6, refs.; 1 Tim. 1:18; 5:21; 6:11)

●13 [w]Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jē'şus.

●14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Hō'lỹ Ghōst which dwelleth in us.

5 Desertion of Paul (4:14-17)

15 This thou knowest, [x]that all they which are in Ā'şĭa be turned away from me; of whom are [y]Phỹ-gĕl'lus and Hĕr-mŏg'e-nēs.

6 Prayer for Onesiphorus

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of [z]Ŏn-e-sĭph'o-rūs; for he oft refreshed me, [a]and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rōme, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 [b]The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in [c]that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ĕph'e-sūs, thou knowest very well.

198 CHAPTER 2

7 Eight charges to Timothy (2:1, refs.; 1 Tim. 1:18; 5:21; 6:11)

THOU therefore, my son, [d]be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jē'şus.

●2 And the [e]things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

●3 [f]Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jē'şus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

●7 [g]Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 [h]Remember that Jē'şus Christ of the seed of Dā'vid was raised from the dead according to my gospel:

8 Paul's suffering for the gospel (2 Cor. 4:8, refs.)

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an [i]evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the [j]elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jē'şus with eternal glory.

9 Five faithful sayings

a 2 commands to Timothy:
1 Hold fast the form (Gr. hupotuposis, a sketch outline; plan; copy. Only here and 1 Tim. 1:16) of sound words (v 13). The plan of salvation is no human invention. It was planned by God before the ages of time (v 9; Eph. 1:4) and is now manifest through Christ (v 10; Jn. 3:16; 1 Pet. 2:24).
2 Keep (guard) that good thing (Gr. paratheke, deposit, a thing given to keep) by the Holy Ghost (v 14). This refers to the gospel that was committed to him (v 13; 1 Tim. 3:16). The Holy Ghost and the gifts of God were given him for this purpose (v 6, 14; 1 Tim. 4:14)
b All in Asia refers to Christians from Asia that were visiting Rome. As one translator gives it: "all the Asiatics have discarded me." Finding Paul in disgrace, they showed no interest in him or his cause. Two of them are mentioned here (v 15). It would have been truly improbable for all Christians of so many churches to turn against him. That would mean that even Timothy, Lois, Eunice, and other faithful helpers had forsaken him and this was not true (v 5; 4:10-22)
c Nothing is known of these two d Here is one Asiatic who had not forsaken him, so "all they which are in Asia" of v 15 must be understood in the limited sense of some who visited Paul in Rome. He had entertained Paul in Ephesus and sought him out when he visited Rome (v 16-18; 4:19)
e This suggests that the others were ashamed of Paul in his chain. His life had been one of suffering and labor for Christ. Now from all appearances he was abandoned by his friends and in the hands of ruthless men. He was in prison and in chains, yet he was triumphant over all and unshaken in his faith. He felt no evil and feared no man or devil. Sin had lost its power, death its sting, the grave its victory, and hell its torments. No murmuring came from his lips or bitterness from his heart. He was a man's man and God's faithful servant, ready to die for the cause of Christ and the gospel f This is simply Paul's prayer and desire for his friend who had oft refreshed him in Ephesus and in Rome. Such hospitality does not save the soul, but it adds to the reward in the life to come if it is done with the right motive (Mt. 6:1, 5; 10:40-42)
g The day of Christ (note s, 1 Cor. 1:8)
h 7 commands to Timothy:
1 Be strong in the grace in Christ (v 1)
2 Commit truth to faithful men (v 2)
3 Endure hardness as a good soldier (v 3)
4 Be not entangled with the affairs of this life, so as to please God (v 4)
5 Strive lawfully for the crown (v 5)
6 Consider what I say - the truth (v 7)
7 Remember, make Christ's resurrection a chief theme of the gospel (v 8)
i The doctrines you heard me outline for you before many witnesses when you were ordained (1 Tim. 4:14; 6:12; 2 Tim. 1:6; 2:2), commit to faithful men the same way they were committed to you (v 2)
j 3 similitudes of a Christian (v 3-6):
1 As a soldier (v 3-4)
2 As an athlete in the Olympic games (v 5)
3 As a farmer (v 6)
Just as the soldier lives up to certain standards if he is a good one, an athlete obeys the rules of the game if he wins, and a farmer tills according to natural laws of agriculture if he gets a crop, so the minister must live up to the rules if he expects a crown and eternal fruit k Consider my figures of speech and the Lord will give you understanding as to their application (v 7)
l Whatever we suffer, remember Jesus and His sufferings. If God raised Him up He will also do the same for us (v 8) m Gr. kakourgos. Only here and of the malefactors in Lk. 23:32, 33, 39. I suffer as a criminal and gladly endure it for the elect's sake that they may be saved eternally (v 9-10) n The elect here are the Gentiles for whose salvation Paul was bound. See note o, Lk. 18:7; 4 elect's of God, p. 201

b See 4 commands to Timothy, p. 241
c Gr. katastrophe, an overturning; overthrowing; catastrophe. Trans. subverting (v 14) and overthrow (2 Pet. 2:6). It means here to overthrow the faith of men and cause their backsliding (v 18, 25-26) d Gr. dokimos. Trans. approved (v 15; Rom. 14:18; 16:10; 1 Cor. 11:19; 2 Cor. 10:18; 13:7) and tried (Jas. 1:12). The opposite of adokimos, disapproved (note o, 1 Cor. 9:27)
e Gr. ergates. Trans. workman (v 15; Mt. 10:10; Acts 19:25); worker (Lk. 13:27; 2 Cor. 11:13; Phil. 3:2); and laborer (Mt. 9:37-38; 20:1-2, 8; Lk. 10:2, 7; 1 Tim. 5:18; Jas. 5:4).

g See point 6, 15 classes, p. 236
h Gr. kenophonia, vain talk; babbling; increasing ungodliness. Here and in 1 Tim. 6:20 i Gr. nome, have pasture. Here and Jn. 10:9. False doctrines will eat the soul like a canker (gangrene) until eternal death is reaped (v 17)
j Nothing is known of him other than he made shipwreck of his faith, erred from the truth, taught the resurrection was past, overthrew the faith of others, and was delivered to Satan by Paul (v 17-18; 1 Tim. 1:19-20)
k Nothing is known of him other than he did the same as the one in note j, above l Gr. anatrepo, overturn. Here; Tit. 1:11 m In v 19 it is stated that God's truth is like a sure foundation regardless of how many make shipwreck of their faith. Men are to build upon this foundation and be judged as to how they build (1 Cor. 3:11-15) n 7 things to purge self from:
1 Affairs of this life (v 4)
2 Backslidings (v 12)
3 Unbelief (v 13)
4 False doctrines that destroy faith (v 14, 18)
5 Profane and vain babblings that lead to ungodliness (v 16-17)
6 False teachers that overthrow faith (v 17-18)
7 Alliniquity and dishonor (v 19-20)
o 4 blessings of purging self (v 21):
1 A vessel of honor
2 Sanctification (note b, Jn. 17:17)
3 Meet (Gr. euchrestos, useful or profitable) for the Master's use. Only here; 4:11; Phm 11
4 Prepared unto every good work (Mk. 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12; Acts 1:8) p 8 commands to Timothy (v 22-26):
1 Flee from lusts (note k, 1 Tim. 6:11; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 3:5-10)
2 Follow righteousness, faith, love, and peace (v 22; note l, 1 Tim. 6:11)
3 Avoid foolish and unlearned questions that gender strife (v 23)
4 Do not strive with men (v 24)
5 Be gentle to all men (v 24)
6 Be apt to teach (v 24)
7 Be patient (v 24)
8 Instruct rebels with the view of reclaiming them to the truth (v 25-26)
q The only kind of heart to have if we are to expect prayer to be answered (v 19-21; Ps. 66:18)
r See notes l and n, 1 Tim. 1:4
s Gr. machomai, to fight; contend in battle; quarrel; wrangle; dispute. Trans. strive (v 24; Jn. 6:52; Acts 7:26) and fight (Jas. 4:2) t Gr. epios, mild. Here and 1 Th. 2:7
u Gr. didaktikos, capable of teaching. Here and 1 Tim. 3:2
v Gr. anexikakos, enduring evil. Only here w See note k, 1 Cor. 4:21
x Gr. paideuo (note k, Heb. 12:6), in this case the opposers to truth may need chastening by being turned over to Satan and his destruction so as to bring them to repentance if at all possible (v 25; 1 Cor. 5:5; 1 Tim. 1:19-20). Timothy would need to have the power of God to do this (1 Cor. 4:19-21; 16:10)
y Gr. ananepho, become sober again, or to recover from captivity. Only here. All men are liable to snares and will fall into them if not watchful z See note f and g, 1 Tim. 3:7
a Gr. zogreo, taken captive or alive (v 26). It is used only here and in Lk. 5:10 of disciples catching men or capturing them from Satan. Here it seems to be that the opposers of truth are taken captive by the devil to do his will

*11 [a]It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:◂
▸12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:
▸13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

10 Five charges to Timothy (1:6; 1 Tim. 1:18; 5:12; 6:11)

●14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [b]charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the [c]subverting of the hearers.
●15 Study to shew thyself [d]approved unto God, a [e]workman that needeth not to be ashamed, [f]rightly dividing the word of truth.
●16 But shun [g]profane and [h]vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

11 The result of error

17 And their word will [i]eat as doth a canker: of whom is [j]Hy-me-næ'us and [k]Phi-le'tus;
18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and [l]overthrow the faith of some.

12 The result of truth

●19 [m]Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.
20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.
▸21 If a man therefore [n]purge himself from these, [o]he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

13 Eight charges to Timothy (1:6; 1 Tim. 1:18; 5:12; 6:11)

●22 [p]Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a [q]pure heart.
●23 [r]But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.
●24 And the servant of the Lord must not [s]strive; [t]but be gentle unto all men, [u]apt to teach, [v]patient,

14 Character and duty of a true minister (2 Cor. 2:14-7:16)

●25 In [w]meekness [x]instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;
26 And that they may [y]recover themselves out of the [z]snare of the devil, who are [a]taken captive by him at his will.

III Apostasy: twenty-two signs of Christ's coming. 1 Character of the last days

THIS know also, that in [a]the last days [b]perilous times shall come.

2 Eighteen characteristics of apostates (Mt. 23:1-36; 24:9-12; Acts 20:29-30; Rom. 1:18-2:11; 2 Cor. 11:12-15; 1 Tim. 4:1-5; 2 Tim. 4:1-4; Phil. 3:18-19; 2 Th. 2:1-12; Heb. 6:4-6; 10:26-29; 2 Pet. 2; Jude 4-19; Rev. 13 and 17)

2 [c]For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,
4 Traitors, headv, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

3 Seven religious and moral sins of apostates (Jer. 23:1-2, 11-31; Ezek. 13:1-23; 34:1-6; Mt. 23)

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.
6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,
7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
8 Now as [d]Jan'nes and Jam'bres withstood Mo'ses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

IV Personal references and charges (2 Tim. 3:10-4:18). 1 Ninefold character of Paul's life and ministry (2 Cor. 2:14-7:16)

10 [e]But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at [f]An'ti-och, at I-co'ni-um, at Lys'tra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

2 Two unfailing laws of human experience

*12 [g]Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Je'sus shall suffer persecution.
13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

15 Of whom be thou ware also; [n]for he hath greatly withstood our words.

16 [o]At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

11 Paul's deliverance from Satan and wicked men (Rom. 16:20; 2 Cor. 1:10; 2 Tim. 3:11. Cp. 1 Th. 2:18)

17 [p]Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gen'tiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the [q]mouth of the lion.

★18 [r]And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. A-men'.

V Conclusion of the epistle: final salutations and greetings to various brethren (Cp. 1:1-2)

19 Salute Pris'ca and [s]Aq'ui-la, and the household of [t]On-e-siph'o-rus.

20 [u]E-ras'tus abode at Cor'inth: but [v]Tro'phi-mus have I left at Mi-le'tum [w]sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. [x]Eu-bu'lus greeteth thee, and Pu'dens, and Li'nus, and Clau'di-a, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Je'sus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. A-men'.

Summary of 2 Timothy

Date and place: Written from Rome about 68 A. D. It appears that Paul was released from prison after the record of Acts 28, about 64 A. D., that he travelled 5 or 6 years going eastward into Macedonia and Asia Minor (1 Tim. 1:3; Tit. 3:12) as anticipated in Phil. 1:26; 2:24; Ph'm 22, that he was arrested again and sent to Rome for execution after writing 2 Timothy

Author: Paul (see Summary of Romans and Paul in the Index)

Theme: This book was the last of the three pastoral epistles - 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus - to give instructions concerning church order, doctrine, and discipline

Statistics: 55th book of the Bible; 4 chapters; 83 verses; 1,703 words; no questions; 68 verses of history; 10 verses of fulfilled and 5 verses of unfulfilled prophecy a Gr. hieros. Only here and 1 Cor. 9:13

b Gr. gramma, note h, Gal. 6:11. The usual word for Scripture is graphe and is so trans. 51 times (v 16; Mt. 21:42; 22:29; 26:54-56; Mk. 12:10, 24; 14:49; 15:28; Lk. 4:21; 24:27, 32, 45; Jn. 2:22; 5:39; 7:38, 42; 10:35; 13:18; 17:12; 19:24-37; 20:9; Acts 1:6; 8:32, 35; 17:2, 11; 18:24, 28; Rom. 1:2; 4:3; 9:17; 10:11; 11:2; 15:4; 16:26; 1 Cor. 15:3-4; Gal. 3:8, 22; 4:30; 1 Tim. 5:18; 2 Tim. 3:16; Jas. 2:8, 23; 4:5; 1 Pet. 2:6; 2 Pet. 1:20; 3:16). Gramma is trans. Scripture only here (v 15) c See 7 things the Word of God is able to do, p. 241
d Salvation is always through faith in Jesus Christ - never through works, rituals, water baptism, communion, etc. (v 15; Eph. 2:8-9; Rom. 3:24-31)
e ALL, not a part of Scripture
f See 21 names of the Bible, p. 241 g 9 ways the Bible was given: through 1 Audible voice of God (Ex. 19:19; Dt. 5; Mt. 3:16-17; Jn. 12:28)
2 Angels (Acts 7:38; Heb. 2:2)
3 Prophets (Acts 3:21; Heb. 1:1)
4 Jesus Christ (Heb. 1:1; Rev. 1)
5 Apostles (Acts 1:2; Eph. 4)
6 Visions (Isa. 6; Dan. 7-8; Ezek. 1)
7 Dreams (Dan. 2; Mt. 1:20; 2:12)
8 Revelation (see p. 190, 207)
9 Inspiration (2 Tim. 3:15-17)
h See Inspiration, p. 241
i Gr. ophelimos, to convince men of truth. Trans. profitable (v 16; 1 Tim. 4:8; Tit. 3:8) and profit (1 Tim. 4:8)
j Gr. didaskalia, teaching (1 Tim. 4:13) k Gr. elenchos, reproof (v 16) and evidence (Heb. 11:1) l Gr. epanorthosis, to restore things to their proper use and place, correcting false theories and practices. Only here m Gr. paideia (note e, Eph. 6:4). It means here the schooling of mankind in true scriptural righteousness, perfecting the man of God, and enduing him with power for all good works (v 16-17; 2:19-21) n Gr. artios, complete; exactly fitted as a joint. Only here o Gr. exartizo, to finish out; equip fully. Trans. accomplish in Acts 21:5. When one is thus fully equipped he will be able to do the works of Christ (Mt. 17:20; 18:18; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16). The Scriptures are to bring this about in the man of God (v 16-17) p 4th N. T. prophecy in 2 Tim. (4:1, unfulfilled). Next, v 3. Gr. diamarturomai (note a, 1 Tim. 5:21). He again charges Timothy before both God and Christ, proving again that they are two separate persons (v 1) q Gr. krino, make a legal or other decision. Trans. to esteem (Rom. 14:5); think (Acts 26:8); determine (Acts 3:13; 20:16; 25:25; 27:1; 1 Cor. 2:2; 2 Cor. 2:1; Tit. 3:12); conclude (Acts 21:25); decree (1 Cor. 7:37); ordain (Acts 16:4); condemn (Jn. 3:17-18; Acts 13:27; Rom. 14:22); damn (2 Th. 2:12); avenge (Rev. 18:20); call to question (Acts 23:6; 24:21); sue at law (Mt. 5:40; 1 Cor. 6:1, 6); my sentence is (Acts 15:19); and judge 74 times (2 Tim. 4:1; etc.)
r See 2 classes judged, p. 241
s Gr. kata, a word denoting motion downward, when used of time, ashere, it means throughout, during, in the years, in the course of the kingdom. This means that there will be different judgments at different times, as in note r, above. See 10fold charge to Timothy, p. 241 t 5th N. T. prophecy in 2 Tim. (4:3-4, being fulfilled). Next, v 8. See 6 last day characteristics, p. 241 u See notes l, n, and o, 1 Tim. 1:4
v 5 kinds of ministers, p. 214
w 5fold testimony of Paul:
1 Ready to be offered or poured out as a libation to God and a sacrifice offering for souls (v 6)
2 My departure is at hand - the sentence of death has already been passed (v 6)
3 I have fought a good fight; an honorable fight - wrestled a good wrestling and am champion (v 7)

a It appears that he warned to see Timothy before he died and to have him present at his death, so he could know how a Christian should die for the faith. Then, too, he was short of companions (v 10-13)
b Demas was once a minister and a fellowlaborer with Paul (v 10; Col. 4:14; Ph'm 24). He had by this time grown cold in his experience with Christ and had gone back into the world again. Here it is clear to what extent he was backslidden. He loved this present world. According to 1 Jn. 2:15-17 anyone who loves the world, does not have the love of God in him. If the love of God is not in him, he cannot possibly be saved (Jn. 13:35; 14:15, 23; 15:9-12; 1 Cor. 16:22). Is it conceiveable that God will take people to heaven who do not love Him? If this man did love God at one time, which is clear from Ph'm 24, then how did he become separated from the love of God (Rom. 8:35-39)? Was God responsible for him loving this present world and forsaking Paul? If not, who was? This proves free moral agency after conversion. If we have free choice powers, then we alone can choose to backslide and fall God. We thus choose our own destiny after salvation as we do before salvation. Not one scripture ever suggests that God forces any man to serve Him
c Gr. aion, age. Present age (Tit. 2:11) d Not mentioned elsewhere. He and Titus both had left Paul to carry on work for Christ. They are not here condemned as backsliders as is Demas e See Titus, note l, Tit. 1:4
f This was Luke, the evangelist, and writer of the Gospel of Luke and Acts g This was John Mark, nephew of Barnabas, who, after having failed to continue with Paul as a young man, was now a steady and faithful worker (note j, Acts 12:12)
h See note i, Acts 20:4
i Gr. phailones. Used only here and means either a travelling-cloak for protection against weather, or, as others translate it, a travelling bag j What kind of books is not known k These were perhaps either the Jewish Scriptures, or a copy of the Septuagint l See note n, 1 Tim. 1:20
m The Lord will reward him (Gal. 6:7-8) n This suggests that this man went about opposing the gospel
o This refers to Paul's first apology or defense of the gospel either at some place where Alexander opposed the gospel (v 15), or to his first defense before Nero when he could not find any man to plead his cause p When no man stood with Paul, the Lord did. He delivered Paul from this particular trouble and blessed his ministry among the Gentiles (v 17)
q This could mean that Paul claimed his right as a Roman citizen, not to meet death by lions in the amphitheatre, or it could be figurative of deliverance from some great danger. Such an expression was a proverbial one denoting deliverance from imminent danger r 7th and last prophecy in 2 Tim. (4:18, fulfilled) s Acts 18:2; Rom. 16:3; 1 Cor. 16:19
t See note d, 1:16 u Acts 19:22; Rom. 16:23
v Acts 20:4; 21:29
w Gr. astheneo, weak, not necessarily diseased (note f, Phil. 2:26-27)

4 I have finished my course - run the race and have outstripped all my competitors and gained the prize (v 7)
5 I have kept the faith - followed every rule of the game and have won the prize lawfully (v 7) x 6th N. T. prophecy in 2 Tim. (4:8, unfulfilled). Next, v 18. This is the prize for Paul's efforts of v 6-7. The crown is laid up for all who prove true, but possessed of none until the time of reward. It is in view, not in possession. See 10 crowns, p. 866
y The day of Christ (1 Cor. 1:8)

7 facts about Paul (1:11-12):

1 Appointed: preacher of the gospel
2 Appointed: apostle of the gospel
3 Appointed: teacher of Gentiles
4 Suffered for the gospel (v 12)
5 Not ashamed of the gospel, God, or Christ (v 12; Rom. 1:16)
6 Knew in whom he believed (v 12)
7 Persuaded that God is able to keep (guard) the deposit (Gr. paratheke, 7 last commands, 237) until that day (the appearing of Christ, v 12; 4:8; 1 Tim. 6:14)

4 faithful sayings (2:11-13):

1 If we be dead with Him, we shall live with Him (v 11; Rom. 6:8; 2 Cor. 5:15)
2 If we suffer, we shall also reign with Him (v 12; Rom. 8:17-18)
3 If we deny Him, He also will deny us (v 12; Mk. 8:38; Lk. 9:26)
4 If we believe not, He abideth faithful: He cannot deny Himself (v 13)
If we deny the faith and apostatize, He is as true to His threatenings as He is to His promises. He cannot lie and act contrary to His Word or to Himself, so He is as much under obligation to curse for sin as to bless for righteousness

4 commands to Timothy (2:14-16):

1 Remind men of these facts (of v 1-13)
2 Charge men not to strive about words to no profit, which only subvert the hearers (v 14). Often, mere words have been a source of contention among Christians. Mostly, variance in definitions of words meaning the same thing has caused multitudes to be divided
3 Study to show yourself approved unto God, a workman unashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth (v 15)
4 Shun profane and vain babblings (v 16)

Rightly dividing truth (2:15)

Gr. orthotomeo, set straight; handle right. Only here. It means, not only to give the true meaning, but also the true application to the various times and classes of people. See notes 1, Mk. 4:12; 1, Mk. 4:20; and d, Mk. 4:22-23. Truth must be divided dispensationally, prophetically, historically, and with regard for classes and subjects. The chief fundamental principle of interpretation is to gather from the Scriptures themselves the precise meaning the writers intended to convey. We must apply the same principles and grammatical rules to the Bible, and exercise common sense and reason with it as with other books. One should take the Bible literally wherever it is at all possible, as we do all other books. When the language cannot be taken literally, we know it is figurative. We should then get the literal truth conveyed by the figurative language

7 things the Word of God is able to do: (3:15)

1 Make wise unto salvation (v 15; Rom. 1:16; Jas. 1:21)
2 Produce faith (v 15; Rom. 10:17)
3 Make Jesus Christ known (v 15; Jn. 5:39; 1 Cor. 15:1-8)
4 Build up (Acts 20:32)
5 Give inheritance (Acts 20:32)
6 Produce profit in doctrine, reproof, correction, and instruction in righteousness (v 16)
7 Make the man of God perfect (v 17)

21 names of the Bible (3:16):

1 The Scripture (Mk. 15:28; Jn. 7:38)
2 The Scriptures (Lk. 24:27; Jn. 5:39)
3 The Promises (Rom. 9:4-5; 15:8)
4 The Oracles of God (Rom. 3:2; Heb. 5:12; 1 Pet. 4:11)
5 The Lively Oracles (Acts 7:38)
6 The Law, the Prophets, and the Psalms (Lk. 24:25, 44)
7 The Law of the Lord (Ps. 1:2)
8 The Law and the Prophets (Mt. 5:17; 11:13; Acts 13:15)
9 The Book of the Lord (Isa. 34:16)
10 The Word of God (Mk. 7:13; Rom. 10:17)
11 The Sword of the Spirit (Eph. 6:17)
12 The Old and New Testament (2 Cor. 3:6-15)
13 The First and Second Covenant (Heb. 8:7)
14 The Word of Christ (Col. 3:16)
15 The Word of Life (Phil. 2:16)
16 The Scripture of Truth (Dan. 10:21)
17 The Word of Truth (2 Tim. 2:15)
18 The gospel of Christ (Rom. 1:16)
19 The Word of Faith (Rom. 10:8)
20 The Word of the Lord (2 Th. 3:1)
21 The Word of Righteousness (Heb. 5:13)

Inspiration: God-breathed (3:16)

Gr. theopneustos, God-breathed. Only here. It is that special influence of the Holy Spirit in the lives of holy men, which qualified and enabled them to make an infallible record of divine truth concerning the will of God to man

The purpose of inspiration is to secure truth and unity in record and not sameness of words or statements. Revelation discovers new truth; inspiration superintends the communicating and recording of that truth. We have examples of inspiration without revelation (Lk. 1:1-4); of inspiration including revelation (Rev. 1:1, 11); of inspiration without illumination (1 Pet. 1:11; 1 Cor. 14:13-19); and of revelation and inspiration including illumination (1 Cor. 2:12-16; 14:30)

We find lies of Satan and men; false doctrines; and many sins listed in Scripture. Inspiration simply guarantees that these lies were told; these fallacies were taught by certain men; and that these crimes were committed, but it does not make these lies and fallacies the truth or place God's sanction upon the crimes. One must find out whether Satan, evil men, or God is speaking in Scripture. God is not responsible for what others have said just because He causes what they did say to be recorded by inspiration. All God guarantees is that these things were said and done as they are recorded. Only what God says or teaches is truth which He requires men to obey

To what degree were writers inspired?

1 Some parts of Scripture give the exact words of God (Ex. 32:16; Dt. 5:4, 24; Mt. 3:17)
2 Some words were put into the mouths of the speakers who spoke as the Spirit inspired them (Ex. 4:12; Num. 23:5; Ezek. 2:7; 3:10-11; Acts 3:21)
3 Some words were written as the Spirit moved men (Ex. 34:27; 2 Pet. 1:21)
4 In some parts of Scripture it was left up to the writers to choose their own words and relate truth by the inspiration and guidance of the Spirit (Dan. 12:8-9; Lk. 1:1-4; Jn. 20:30-31; Acts 1:1-2)

The Spirit used the faculties and abilities of the writers to record things, past, present, and future. He gave direct revelations, guided them to choose records of men, and superintended the writers in all their work until we now have a perfect and infallible record of the origin and destiny of all creation

20 proofs Bible is inspired:

1 Its wonderful unity. Over 40 authors wrote 66 books in different lands and over a period of 1,800 years. Many never saw the writings of the others and yet there is no contradiction between any two of them. Collect any group of books by any other 40 men on any subject and see if they agree
2 Its superiority to other books in its origin, formation, doctrines, principles, claims, moral tone, histories, prophecies, revelations, literature, present redemption and eternal benefits, and its general contents
3 Its influence in the world. It has blessed millions in every generation, made the highest civilizations, and given man the highest hope and destiny
4 The character and greatness of those who accept it. The wisest, most godly, and honest of men acknowledge it as God's Word. Only infidels and the ungodly reject it
5 Man could not have written it if he would, and would not have written it if he could. No critic of Scripture has ever been able to improve or disprove it
6 Good men must have written it. It condemns all sin and records the sins and faults of its writers as well as others. This, evil men would not do. Even good men would not do it unless inspired to do so to help others
7 All man's present and eternal needs are met by the Bible. Redemption and promised benefits have been given to all who believed in all generations and this will always be
8 Its preservation through the ages. Whole kingdoms and religions have sought in vain to destroy it. It is still victor and indestructible.
9 The heavenly and eternal characters of its contents proves it to be of God
10 The response of the soul to it. The Bible fits the soul as a key to a lock
11 Its infinite depths and lofty ideals. It is universal in its appeal, reasonable in its teachings, reliable in its promises, durable in its conflicts, everlasting in its usefulness, new and modern in its statements, indispensable to human civilization, indisputable in its authority, interesting in its histories, colorful in its biographies, accurate in its prophecies, individual in its messages, far reaching in its vision, complete in its laws, comprehensive in its knowledge, infinite in its detail, unselfish in its purpose, simple in its application, just in its demands, righteous in its judgments, clear in its application, and masterful in its wisdom
12 Fulfilled prophecy. About 3,300 verses of prophecy have been fulfilled, predictions made hundreds and even thousands of years before their fulfillment. Not one detail has failed yet. About 2,908 verses are being fulfilled or will yet be fulfilled
13 Miracles. Hundreds are recorded in Scripture and many happen daily among those who pray and claim Bible promises
14 Its perfection. It is scientifically and historically correct. No one man has ever found the Bible at fault in any of its many hundreds of statements on history, astronomy, botany, geology, or any other branch of learning
15 Its adaptability. It is always up to date on any subject. It fits the lives of all people of all ages and all lands
16 Its spiritual and moral power. It meets perfectly every spiritual and moral need of man
17 Its doctrines. They surpass all human principles in relationship, religion, culture, etc. (1 Cor. 2:14)
18 Claims of the Bible itself. Over 3,800 times Bible writers claim God spoke what they wrote. The Bible itself claims to be the Word of God (see Inspiration, col. 2)
19 Secular history. Many pagan as well as Jewish and Christian writers confirm the facts of the Bible, quoting it as being genuine, authentic, and inspired of God 20 Its inexhaustible proofs. It would take many volumes to deal fully with the many thousands of facts which confirm the Bible to be the Word of God. The book must be divine. If one will use it properly it will confirm itself to him as the inspired Word of God

2 classes judged (4:1):

Both the quick (the living) and the dead are to face judgment. The dead and living in Christ will be raptured at His appearing in the air at least 7 years before the second advent and setting up of the Millennial kingdom (note, 2 Th. 2:7; 1 Th. 4:16). These will be judged at the judgment seat of Christ during these 7 years (1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10). Then the living nations will be judged at the second advent (Mt. 25:31-46). The wicked dead will be judged 1,000 years later (Rev. 20:4-15). All judgments will be over by the end of the Millennium. The living in the Millennium who commit sin will be judged as men are now in civil courts and executed if they are worthy of death (Isa. 11:3-10; 65:20)

10fold charge to Timothy (4:1):

1 Preach the Word (v 2)
2 Be instant in season - when you are disposed (v 2)
3 Be instant out of season - when you are indisposed (v 2)
4 Reprove. Gr. elencho, confute; convict; convince (note m, Jn. 16:8)
5 Rebuke. Gr. epitimao, to penalize; find fault with; rebuke cuttingly and sharply. Trans. rebuke (v 2; Mt. 8:26; 16:22; 17:18; 19:13; 20:31; Mk. 1:25; 4:39; 8:32-33; 9:25; Lk. 4:35-41; 8:24; 9:42, 55; 17:3; 18:15, 39; 19:39; 23:40; Jude 9); and charge (Mt. 12:16; Mk. 3:12; 8:30; 10:48; Lk. 9:21)
6 Exhort with all longsuffering and teaching (v 2)
7 Watch in all things (v 5)
8 Endure afflictions (v 5)
9 Do the work of an evangelist (v 5)
10 Make full proof of your ministry

6 last day characteristics of men (4:3):

1 Not endure sound doctrine (v 3)
2 Increase in lusts and sin (v 3)
3 Add one teacher to another, or gad about from church to church to find those who will not insist on their getting rid of sins and sinful pleasures (v 3)
4 Having itching ears, desire speakers who will tickle their ears and excuse their passions in the name of religion
5 Turn away their ears from truth which strips them of sin and demands their wholehearted consecration to Christ (v 4)
6 Turn to fables and false religions that pamper the flesh and condone sin

A TRIBUTE TO THE BIBLE

The Bible is not an amulet, a charm, a fetish, or a book that will work wonders by its very presence.

It is a book that will work wonders in every life, here and hereafter, if acted upon and obeyed in faith and sincerity. It is God's inspired revelation of the origin and destiny of all things, written in the most simple human language possible so that the most unlearned can understand and obey its teachings. It is self-interpreting and covers every subject of human knowledge and need now and forever.

As a literary composition, the Bible is the most remarkable book ever made. It is a divine library of 66 books, some of considerable size, and others no larger than a tract. These books include various forms of literature - history, biography, poetry, proverbial sayings, hymns, letters, directions for elaborate ritualistic worship, laws, parables, riddles, allegories, prophecy, drama, and others. They embrace all manner of literary styles in human expression.

It is the book that reveals the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts binding, its histories true, and its decisions immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy. The Bible contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's charter. Here heaven is opened, and the gates of hell disclosed. Christ is its grand subject, our good is its design, and the glory of God its end. It should fill your memory, rule your heart, and guide your feet in righteousness and true holiness. Read it slowly, frequently, prayerfully, meditatively, searchingly, devotionally, and study it constantly, perseveringly, and industriously. Read it through and through until it becomes part of your being and generates faith that will move mountains. The Bible is a mine of wealth, the source of health, and a world of pleasure. It is given to you in this life, will be opened at the judgment, and will stand forever. It involves the highest responsibility, will reward the least to the greatest of labor, and will condemn all who trifle with its sacred contents.

Qualifications and Disqualifications for Preachers - Christian Doctrines - Charges to Titus - Admonitions a Gr. doulos, bond-slave (note e, Mt. 20: 26-27). The only place Paul designates himself a servant of God. He calls himself a servant of Jesus Christ in Rom. 1:1; Phil. 1:1

b See note a, Acts 15:33
c The Christians who have taken the place of Jews as the elect of God during the time of their being cut off (Mt. 21: 43; 23:37-39; Rom. 9-11). See note on 4 elect's of God, p. 201 d 2 things that constitute apostleship:
1 Faith of God's elect. Gr. pistis, faithfulness (note g, 2 Th. 3:2)
2 Acknowledging (Gr. epignosis, full knowledge, note, Col. 3:10) of the truth which is after godliness (v 1)
e Gr. eusebia, piety (note p, 1 Tim. 3:16)
f Unforfeitable eternal life is now a hope. Hope that is seen is not hope (Rom. 8:24-25). How can it be a hope and a present possession, as stated in Jn. 3:16, 36; 5:24; 10:28-29? Why do we yet hope for it if we have it, as stated in v 2; 3:7; 1 Tim. 1:1? The simple truth is, that it is now given to everyone who is in Christ on condition of remaining in Him (1 Jn. 5:11-12; Jn. 15:1-8; Gal. 1:6-8; 4:19; 5:4; etc. See note d, Jn. 6:27)
g 3 things God cannot do:
1 Lie (v 2). See 30 things, p. 638
2 Deny Himself (2 Tim. 2:13)
3 Be tempted with evil (Jas. 1:13)
h Gr. epangelliomai, announce; command; give orders. Trans. promise (v 2; Mk. 14:11; Acts 7:5; Rom. 4:21; Gal. 3:19; Heb. 6:13; 10:23; 11:11; 12:26; Jas. 1:12; 2:5; 2 Pet. 2:19; 1 Jn. 2:25) and profess (1 Tim. 2:10; 6:21)
To whom such promise was announced, that God would give eternal life to men who were not yet created, is not known. If He made such a plan before the ages of time or in eternity past, there were beings or creatures then to whom He gave such information. This takes us back even before the pre-Adamite world of Gen. 1:1-2; Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; Ezek. 28: 11-17; 2 Pet. 3:5-8. See note i, Mt. 13:35. That the announcement and promise of eternal life concerned man and our times is clear in v 3; Eph. 1:4; 3:1-6

I The introduction: authorship and salutation (Cp. Rom. 1:1-4)

PAUL, [a]servant of God, and an [b]apostle of Jē'sus Christ, according to the faith of [c]God's elect, [d]and the acknowledging of the truth which is after [e]godliness;

▸2 In [f]hope of eternal life, which God, that [g]cannot lie, [h]promised before the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is [i]committed unto me according to the [k]commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To [l]Tī'tus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and the Lord Jē'sus Christ our Saviour.

II Seventeen qualifications for preachers (1 Tim. 3:1-13)

5 For this cause left I thee in [m]Crēte, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and [q]ordain [p]elders in every city, as I had [q]appointed thee:

●6 If any be [r]blameless, the husband of one wife, [s]having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

●7 For a [t]bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

●8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

●9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the [u]gainsayers.

III Seventeen disqualifications for preachers (Cp. 1: 5-9; 1 Tim. 3)

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially [v]they of the circumcision:

11 [w]Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One of themselves, even [x]a prophet of their own, said, The Crē'tī-anş are alway liars, evil beasts, [y]slow bellies.

●13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

●14 Not giving heed to Jew'ish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 [z]Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

202 CHAPTER 2

IV Charges and personal references to the ministry (2:1-3:14). 1 Thirty charges to Titus (2:1-10. Cp. 2 Tim. 1:6, refs.). (1) What to teach the aged men (Eph. 5: 25, refs.)

BUT [b]speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

●2 [c]That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

(2) What to teach aged women (Eph. 5:22, refs.)

●3 [d]The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

(3) What to teach young women (1 Tim. 5:11; Eph. 5:22, refs.)

●4 That they may teach [e]the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

●5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

(4) What to teach young men (Eph. 5:25, refs.; 2 Tim. 2: 6, refs.)

●6 [f]Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

●7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine, shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

●8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

(5) What to teach servants (Eph. 6:5, refs.)

9 [g]Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

2 Why all men can obey the gospel: 10 teachings of grace

▸11 [h]For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

12 [i]Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

★13 [j]Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jē'sus Christ;◂

3 The purpose of the work of Christ (Jn. 9:39; refs.)

a Titus was to teach and live the utter opposite of the Judaizers of v 10-16
b 8fold command: teach sound doctrine
1 To the old men (v 1-2)
2 To the aged women (v 3-4)
3 To the young women (v 4-5)
4 To the young men (v 6-8)
5 To servants (v 9-10)
6 To men - concerning grace (v 11-12)
7 To men - concerning the rapture and the second advent (v 13)
8 To men - concerning redemption (v 14-15) c See 6 commands to aged men, p. 213
d 5 commands to aged women (v 3-4):
1 Live holy (notes on Eph. 5:22-33; Col. 3:18; 1 Tim. 2:9-12; 1 Pet. 3:1-6)
2 Be not slanderers (Gr. diabolos, note s, Jn. 6:70)
3 Not given to wine (see 4 qualifications for wives of deacons, p. 236)
4 Be teachers of good things (v 3)
5 Teach the young women (v 4)
e 8 commands to young women (v 4-5):
1 Be sober (note l, 1 Tim. 2:9)
2 Love husbands (4 commands, p. 214)
3 Love children (v 4)
4 Be discreet. Gr. sophron (point 4, 16 qualifications for bishops, p. 236)
5 Chaste. Gr. hagnos. Here: 2 Cor. 7: 11; 11:2; Phil. 4:8; 1 Tim. 5:22; Jas. 3:17; 1 Pet. 3:2; 1 Jn. 3:3
6 Home-lovers - no gad-abouts (v 5)
7 Be good. Gr. agathos, virtuous (v 5)
8 Obedient to husbands (Eph. 5:22, 33; Col. 3:18; 1 Pet. 3:1-6)
f 4 commands to young men (v 6-8):
1 Be sober-minded. Gr. sophroneo, sober in mind (v 6; Mk. 5:15; Lk. 8:35; 2 Cor. 5:13; Rom. 12:3; 1 Pet. 4:7)
2 Be a pattern of good works. Gr. tupos, note c, Phil. 3:17
3 Be uncorrupt, grave, and sincere in teaching (v 7)
4 Have sound speech that cannot be condemned. Gr. hugies, sound (v 8) and whole (Mt. 12:13; 15:31; Mk. 3:5; 5:34; Lk. 6:10; Jn. 5:4-15; 7:23; Acts 4:10). It means healing words - the gospel of healing, not only spiritual, but physical (Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Jas. 5:14)
g 5 commands to servants (v 9-10):
1 Be obedient (note g, Eph. 6:5)
2 Please masters in all things (v 9)
3 Do not contradict or gainsay orders
4 Do not steal the goods of the master entrusted to you (v 10; Acts 5:2-3) 5 Show faithfulness in all things (v 10)
h 3 great blessings of grace:
1 It brings salvation (v 11; Eph. 2:8-9)
2 It has appeared to all men (v 11; Jn. 3:16; Rev. 22:17)
3 It teaches 7 great lessons:
(1) To deny ungodliness (v 12)
(2) To deny worldly lusts (v 12)
(3) To live soberly (v 12; 1:8; 2:2-7)
(4) To live righteously (v 12; Heb. 12:14; Rom. 6:14-23; 8:12-13)
(5) To live godly (v 12; 2 Tim. 3:12)
(6) To live right in this life (v 12)
(7) To look for the rapture and the second advent (v 13; Phil. 3:20)
i Gr. paideuo, instruction as to children (note x, 2 Tim. 2:25) j 1st and last prophecy in Titus (2:13). Men looked for the rapture in that day, proving there is no definite time element in Scripture for this event (v 12; Phil. 3:20)

Eternal ages (1:2):

Gr. chronon aionion, ages of time (v 2; 2 Tim. 1:9; Rom. 16:25). It means eternity; before the ages of time began. It is not the Gr. katabole, disruption or overthrow of the world, or themellos, founding of the world (note i, Mt. 13:36). Aionios is trans. elsewhere everlasting (Mt. 18:8; 25:41, 46; Lk. 16:9; Rom. 16:26; 2 Th. 1:9; 2:16; 1 Tim. 6:16; Heb. 13:20; 2 Pet. 1:11; Rev. 14:6); eternal (Mk. 3:29; 2 Cor. 4:17–18; 5:1; 2 Tim. 2:10; Heb. 5:9; 6:2; 9:12, 14, 15; 1 Pet. 5:10; Jude 7); for ever (Ph'm 15); everlasting life (Mt. 19:29; Jn. 3:16, 36; 4:14; 5:24; 6:27, 40, 47; Acts 13:46; Rom. 6:22); life everlasting (Lk. 18:30; Jn. 12:50; Gal. 6:8; 1 Tim. 1:16); eternal life (Mt. 19:16; Mk. 10:17, 30; Lk. 10:25; 18:18; Jn. 3:15; 5:39; 6:54, 68; 10:28; 17:2; Acts 13:48; Rom. 2:7; 5:21; 6:23; 1 Tim. 6:12, 19; Tit. 1:2; 3:7; 1 Jn. 1:2; 2:25; 3:15; 5:11, 13, 20; Jude 21); life eternal (Mt. 25:46; Jn. 4:36; 12:25; 17:3)

20 characteristics of gainsayers (1:9):

1 Unruly – rebellious to truth (v 10)
2 Vain talkers – empty boasters (v 10)
3 Deceivers – pretenders of truth (v 10)
4 Subvert (overthrown) whole houses (v 11; 2 Tim. 2:18)
5 Teach false doctrines (v 11)
6 Greedy of money (v 11; Phil. 1:21; 3:7)
7 Liars (v 12)
8 Evil beasts – ferocious (v 12)
9 Slow bellies – gluttons, hoggish (v 10
10 Unsound in faith (v 13) 12)
11 Consecrated to false doctrines (v 14)
12 Obey human commandments (v 14; Mt. 15)
13 Reject truth (v 14; 2 Tim. 4:1–4)
14 Unclean and unbelieving (v 15)
15 Only profess godliness (v 16; 2 Tim. 3)
16 Defiled in mind and conscience (v 15)
17 Deny God in life and conduct (v 16)
18 Abominable – unnatural in lusts (v 16)
19 Disobedient to God and truth (v 16)
20 Reprobate to all good works (v 16)

6 commands to aged men (2:2):

1 Be sober (point 3, Bishops, p. 236)
2 Grave (point 1, Deacons, p. 236)
3 Temperate (pt. 4, Bishops, p. 236)
4 Sound in faith (note g, 2 Th. 3:2)
5 Sound in love (note g, 1 Cor. 13:4)
6 Sound in patience (note, Ps. 37:7)

▸14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

4 Ten charges to Titus (2:1; 3:8. Cp. 2 Tim. 1:6, refs.)

●15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3 203

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,
●2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

5 Ninefold description of sinners

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

6 How and why men are redeemed

4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,
5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst;
6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jē'sus Christ our Saviour;
▸7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

7 Eight charges to Titus (2:1, 15. Cp. 2 Tim. 1:6, refs.)

●8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.
●9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.
●10 A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;
11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.
12 When I shall send Ar'te-mās unto thee, or Tȳch'i-cūs, be diligent to come unto me to Nĭ-cŏp'o-lĭs: for I have determined there to winter.
13 Bring Zē'nas the lawyer and A-pōl'los on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.
14 And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

8 Conclusion and benediction

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Ā-mĕn'.

Summary of Titus

Date and place: Perhaps from Macedonia about 67 A. D. (1 Tim. 1:3)
Author: Paul (see Summary of Romans and Paul in the Index)
Theme: The second of three pastoral epistles – 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus – to give instructions concerning church order, doctrine, and discipline for Christians. Titus has much in common with 1 Timothy in that both concern church order and sound doctrine. 2 Timothy deals primarily with personal walk in times of apostasy Statistics: 56th book of the Bible; 3 chapters; 46 verses; 921 words; no question; 45 verses of history; 1 verse of unfulfilled prophecy a See note f, 1:2; note d, Jn. 6:27

b See note c, 1 Tim. 1:15

WHAT GREAT MEN HAVE SAID ABOUT THE BIBLE:

It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible – George Washington

A studious perusal of the sacred volume will make better citizens, better fathers, and better husbands – Thomas Jefferson

The first and almost the only book deserving of universal attention – John Quincy Adams

It is the rock on which our Republic rests – Andrew Jackson

A man has deprived himself of the best there is in the world who has deprived himself of this (a knowledge of the Bible) – Woodrow Wilson

There is no other book so various as the Bible, nor one so full of concentrated wisdom – Herbert Hoover

To the influence of this Book we are indebted for the progress made in civilization, and to this we must look as our guide in the future – Ulysses S. Grant

What can I do with respect to the next world without my Bible? – John Bacon

The Bible is more than a Book; it is a living being with an action; a power which invades everything that opposes its extension – Napoleon Bonaparte

All other books are of little importance in comparison with the Holy Scriptures – Alexander Gruden

We, the undersigned, Students of the Natural Sciences, desire to express our sincere regret that researchers into scientific truth are perverted by some in our own times into occasion for casting doubt upon the truth and authenticity of the Holy Scriptures. We conceive that it is impossible for the Word of God written in the book of nature, and God's Word written in Holy Scripture, to contradict one another... physical science is not complete, but is only in a condition of progress – Signed by 800 scientists of Great Britain, recorded in the Bodelian Library, Oxford.

The Bible is the Book of faith, and a Book of doctrine, and a Book of morals, and a Book of religion, of special revelation from God; but it is also a Book which teaches man his responsibility, his own dignity, and his equality with his fellow man – Daniel Webster

PHILEMON

Character of Philemon - Intercession for Onesimus - Fellowship of Paul and Philemon in the Lord

a See Eph. 3:1; 4:1; 2 Tim. 1:8
b See Timothy, p. 159
c All we know of him is what we read here. He was a disciple of Colosse who had a church in his house (v 1-2) d Gr. sunergos (note q, Phil. 4:3)

e Tradition says she was the wife of Philemon and Archippus was their son, the pastor of the church in his house (v 2; Col. 4:17)

f Only here and in Phil. 2:25, note d, 3 g Again Paul refers to God the Father and Jesus Christ as two separate persons

h 3 characterstics of Philemon (v 5-7):
1 Love and faith toward God
2 Manifested his faith
3 Hospitality to saints

i Gr. koinonia, fellowship or communion (note h, 2 Cor. 13:14)
j Gr. paraklesis (note v, Acts 13:15)

k Gr. presbutes, an old man (v 9; Lk. 1:18; Tit. 2:2). If Paul was 25 years old when he saw Stephen stoned (Acts 7:58), he could not be more than 56 years old by this time. This word could be translated ambassador, which may be the true meaning of Paul here

l He was a run-away slave of Philemon who was converted under Paul in Rome (v 10-19; Col. 4:9)

m Christianity does not free from obligations that are lawful and right. Paul would have retained him to help him but he would not do so without the consent of Philemon (v 13)

The philosophy of redemption (Mt. 20:28; Phil. 1:7-18)

These scriptures and others state and illustrate the doctrine of redemption. In short, redemption means that one who is capable of redeeming and taking the place of another or others actually meets the demands of the law and becomes the legal substitute by paying the redemptive price for those who are condemned to death because of breaking the law

In the case of man, Satan caused him to rebel against God and break His law, incurring the death penalty. Man, being under the sentence of death, could not pay his own death penalty and also live again to enjoy freedom from sin and carry out the eternal purpose for which he was created. To carry out the eternal plan he had to be redeemed and brought back into full reconciliation with God in order to fulfill the holy and righteous demands of the law and holiness of God. God undertook redemption work for man by sending Jesus Christ to die for him and resurrect him from the dead so that the original plan could be realized. This is plainly set forth in the following points on the philosophy of redemption:

1 All life, both vegetable and animal, is sustained and perpetuated by substitutional suffering and death of innocent victims

2 God's benevolence, holiness, and relationship to the human race made atonement necessary. He had made the race to live forever and carry out His eternal program, so when it sinned it was necessary for Him to uphold and vindicate the moral law and yet redeem eternal man from His enemy. If He had permitted His enemy to escape with this attack on the eternal program He would be defeated in the eyes of all free moral agents who could join the rebellion trying to put God to complete defeat and eternal ruin

3 Satan had kidnapped man and made him a slave to sin and a subject of eternal death. He held a pseudo sovereignty over humanity and that for ransom on the principle of possession and consent of a responsible agent, or government by consent of the governed. This was the only principle of government that a holy God could establish with the wages of sin as death and eternal life as a reward for obedience. Satan's rights are recognized in Scripture. He is the god and prince of the world who had the power of death and hell before his defeat by atonement (Gen. 3:15; Jn. 10:10; 12:31; 2 Cor. 4:4; Col. 2:14; Heb. 2:14; Rev. 20:10)

4 God decided that through the atonement and the substitution of an innocent victim to take the place of the guilty kidnapped race He would free it from Satan, thus legally and forcefully evicting him, restoring man's dominion so as to carry on the eternal purpose.

5 The penalty had to be paid for man to go free. If sinful man had paid the penalty he would remain forever dead. If man was to become reconciled to God again and be restored to his original position, an innocent and a willing substitute had to be found to take his place who could fully meet the demands of the law and represent both God and man. He had to be more than man to be able to live again after the penalty was paid. The only solution was for God to become man and pay the penalty letting man go free. This way God could be free from all accusations of injustice in forcing another to do what He Himself would not do, and His holy law, justice, and form of government would be magnified before all creation in all eternity.

6 One of the three Divine Persons in the Trinity became a man, took the place of man in paying the penalty thus meeting all the demands of God and His holy law and defeating Satan and his hosts (Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 2:14-15; 1 Pet. 2:24).

7 When Satan put to death the innocent sinless Christ, the court of heaven cancelled all his claims, rights, and pseudo-sovereignty over his victims. Now he holds a false authority over them. His chief method now is intimidation. All who assert their legal, redemptive, blood bought, and divine rights and resist him can be free from sin, sickness, and satanic powers. All believers are now representatives and officers of God's law and can dispossess and cast out devils. They have the power of attorney to act in Christ's place now on earth (Mk. 16:17-18; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:16). All who refuse to do so and submit to Satan through unbelief are out of the divine will and will suffer what they permit satanic forces to do to them (Eph. 4:27; 6:10-18; Mt. 17:20).

Now real faith proves Satan impotent (Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:7-8; 2 Cor. 10:5-7; Eph. 6:10-18). God assumes responsibility for salvation and keeps men free on condition of meeting His terms of repentance and holy living (Lk. 13:1-5; Col. 2:6-7; Heb. 12:14-15; 1 Jn. 1:7-9; 2:29; 3:5-10; 5:1-4, 18). Satan is now only the accuser of the brethren and has no legal claim on them (Rev. 12:10). Christ is their defense attorney (1 Jn. 2:1-2; Rom. 8:33-34). The law must still be upheld and God cannot excuse any sin.

No human court can forgive and justify any man who continues to commit crimes. So it is with the Court of Heaven. The Supreme Judge is sworn to uphold the demands of the law in every case.

All sin must be confessed and the life consecrated to obedience to the moral law before one is justified and Satan loses his case in the Court of Heaven. If one commits sin and refuses to confess and rectify his life, Satan wins his case and God is under obligation to pass the sentence of the broken law (Num. 14:18; Rom. 1:29-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; Jas. 2:10).

I Authorship and salutation

PAUL, a[a]prisoner of Jē'şus Christ, and [b]Tim'o-thy our brother, unto [c]Phi-lē'mon our dearly beloved, and [d]fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved [e]Ap'phi-a, and Ar-chip'pus our [f]fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace, from [g]God our Father and the Lord Jē'şus Christ.

II Character of Philemon

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of [h]thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jē'şus, and toward all saints;

6 That the [i]communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jē'şus.

7 For we have great joy and [j]consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

III Intercession for Onesimus

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the [k]aged, and now also a prisoner of Jē'şus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son [l]O-nēs'i-mūs, whom I have begotten in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 [m]Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:

14 [a]But without thy mind would I do nothing; [b]that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 [c]For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, [d]but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 [e]If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

IV Fellowship of Paul and Philemon in the Lord

20 [f]Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 [g]But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

V Conclusion and benediction

23 There salute thee [h]Ep'a-phrās, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jē'şus;

24 [i]Mär'cus, [j]Ar-is-tär'chus, [k]Dē'mas, [l]Lu'cas, my fellow-labourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jē'şus Christ be with your spirit. A-mĕn'.

a No doubt Philemon would have consented for Paul to retain Onesimus as his helper if he had requested it, but this he did not do b I did not want to force you to give me a benefit by keeping your servant. I want you to be free to do what you will with your own servant

c He departed from you as a slave, an unfaithful slave. He left you for a short time, but now since he is converted he will be a faithful slave. You must receive him back, not as a slave, but as a brother in Christ. Love him as a brother for he is dear to you and especially to me (v 15-16)

d Question 1. The only one in Philemon

e If you consider me a friend, receive Onesimus as you would receive me. If he has wronged you or if he owes you anything put that on my account. I promise to pay it. I ask you to oblige me. I will not say that you owe me your own self besides (v 17-19)

f Let me have the joy of knowing that you have forgiven him. I have this confidence in you and that you will even do more than I say (v 20-21)

g Here Paul again expresses faith in his deliverance from prison and that he would get to visit the churches again

Summary of Philemon

Date and place: Written from Rome about 64 A. D.
Author: Paul (see Summary of Romans and Paul in Index)
Theme: Onesimus, a run-away slave of Philemon, a Christian of Colosse, had robbed his master and fled to Rome. There he became a convert of Paul, who sent him back to Philemon with this letter. The writing pleads the case of Onesimus for forgiveness and restoration to the favor of Philemon Statistics: 57th book of the Bible; 1 chapter; 25 verses; 445 words; 1 question; no prophecy

CHAPTER 1 205

I Christ better than the prophets: eightfold reason

GOD, who at[b] sundry times and in divers manners spake [c]in time past unto the fathers[d] by the prophets,

2 Hath in these [e]last days spoken unto us [f]by his [g]Son, whom he hath[h] appointed [i]heir of all things, by whom also he made the [j]worlds;

3 Who being the[k] brightness of his[l] glory, and the[m] express image of his[n] person, and upholding all things by the[o] word of his power, when he had[p] by himself purged our sins,[q] sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

II Christ better than angels: fortyfold reason: (Heb. 1:4-2:18). 1 Because of sonship and inheritance (Lk. 1:35; Jn. 3:16; 5:17-47)

4 Being made so much[r] better than the[s] angels, as he hath[t] by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

*5 [u]For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [v]Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [w]I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

*6 And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, [x]And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, [y]Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

2 Because of His deity, kingship, character, creative power, and eternity (Ps. 45:6-7; Isa. 9:6-7; Jn. 1:1-3; Col. 1:16-18)

*8 But unto the Son he saith, [z]Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a[a] sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 [b]Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore [c]God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness[d] above thy fellows.

*10 And, [e]Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the[f] foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the [g]works of thine hands:

11 They shall [h]perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be [i]changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

3 Because of His exaltation (Acts 2:33-36; Phil. 2:5-11; Eph. 1:21; 1 Pet. 3:22)

*13 [j]But to which of the angels said he at any time, [k]Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

▸14 Are they not all ministering spirits, [a]sent forth to minister for them who shall [b]be heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER 2 206

4 Because of a better covenant and witness (8:6; Jn. 1:17; 5:31-39; 14:6-15)

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them[c] slip.

2 For if the [d]word spoken by angels was[e] stedfast, and every [f]transgression and[g] disobedience received a just[h] recompence of reward;

3 [i]How shall we escape, if we [k]neglect [l]so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and[m] was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God[n] also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, according to his own will?

5 Because of war on and final conquest of all rebels against God (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Mt. 25:31; Col. 2:14; Jude 14; Rev. 11:15; 12:7-12; 19:11-20:15)

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the[o] world to come, whereof we speak.

*6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [p]What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and[q] didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast [r]put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

6 Because of His redemptive work (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Phil. 2:5-11)

▸9 But we see Jē'sus, who was made a little lower than the angels [s]for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

▸10 For it [t]became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, [u]to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

▸11 [v]For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, f Gr. bebaios, stedfast (v 2; 3:14; 6:19; 2 Cor. 1:7); firm (Heb. 3:6); sure (Rom. 4:16; 2 Pet. 1:10, 19); and of force (Heb. 9:17)

n God also bore witness. He did not leave the confirmation of such great salvation to men alone. He bore witness by:
1 Signs and wonders (Mk. 16:15-20; Acts 2:43; 5:16; 10:38; 1 Cor. 12:4-31)
2 Divers miracles (Acts 2:43; 19:11)

d Seeing that those whom He represents are flesh and blood, it was necessary for Him also to become flesh and blood that He might be capable of dying in their place, by this act destroying Satan and annulling his power of death over mankind (v 14)
e This refers to the deliverance of all righteous souls from the captivity of Satan and from their prison in the lower parts of the earth. Christ descended first into hell (Ps. 16:10; Acts 2:27), in the lower parts of the earth (Eph. 4:8-10; Mt. 12:40), then captured the righteous souls from Satan, leading them captive to heaven when He ascended on high as referred to in Eph. 4:8-10. This fulfilled Ps. 68:18. Before this, all righteous souls went into hades or sheol, along with the souls of the wicked, but in another compartment with a great gulf between them (Lk. 16:19-31). Now, the souls of the righteous no longer go into the heart of the earth to be held captive against their will. They go immediately to heaven at physical death to await the resurrection of their bodies (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11). The wicked continue to go to the torment compartment of hades or sheol and will continue to do so until the end of the Millennium. Then death and hades will deliver up the wicked souls who will be united with their bodies in resurrection to be judged and sent to eternal hell (Rev. 20:11-15) f Here Paul (Summary) sums up his argument about Christ being better than angels, declaring He did not take on the nature of angels, but became the natural seed of Abraham (v 16). It was necessary that He be made in all things like unto His brethren that He might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the things of God, to remit their sins by His own atonement, and to represent them in time of temptation (v 17-18). Thus Paul shows the Jews that Christ had to be made a human being; that He came from Abraham according to the flesh; that He was one of their own people; that redemption could not have been possible otherwise; that the Messiah had to suffer to redeem; and that He is now able to help and deliver all men who are tempted g Used of Christ 15 times in Hebrews (2:17; 3:1; 4:14-15; 5:1-10; 6:20; 7:1, 26-27; 8:1,3; 9:11, 25; 10:21; 13:11)
h Brethren consecrated to God, holy in life and conduct (note h, Acts 9:13)
i Partakers of heavenly calling, p. 257 j Among the Jews the high priest was also considered the Apostle of God. This no doubt is the meaning here to Israel. The Mosaic program had ended and there had been a change in the law and in the priesthood (Heb. 7:11-17) k Gr. homologia, agreement; terms of surrender; confession. Trans. profession (v 1; 4:14; 10:23; 1 Tim. 6:12; 2 Cor. 9:13) and confession (1 Tim. 6:13)
l The house of Moses means the nation of Israel and the house of Christ refers to the church (2:9-13; 3:6). See Num. 12:7
m See Christ better than Moses, p. 257 n The law of Moses and some of his prophecies testified and typified the sufferings of Christ and other gospel truths, which were to be spoken later when the Messiah should come (v 5; Mt. 5:17; 11:13; Lk. 16:16; 24:25-27, 44-46)
o This is Paul's explanation of what he means by Christ's house which He is building. We are that house, IF we meet the condition of being a member of it, and IF we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end (v 6) p Gr. katecho, hold fast (v 6; 10:23; 1 Th. 5:21); withhold (2 Th. 2:6); hold (Rom. 1:18; 7:6; Heb. 3:14); retain (Phm 13); stay (Lk. 4:42); let (2 Th. 2:7); keep (Lk. 8:15; 1 Cor. 11:2); keep in memory (1 Cor. 15:2); take (Lk. 14:9); seize on (Mt. 21:38); possess (1 Cor. 7:30); and make toward (Acts 27:40)
q See Liberty in prayer, p. 257

*12 Saying, [c]I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.
*13 And again, [b]I will put my trust in him. And again, [c]Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

7 Because of His conquest of death and hell and deliverance of righteous souls from captivity (Eph. 4:7-11)

▸14 [d]Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;
▸15 [e]And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

8 Because of His qualifications to help men in temptation (4:4-16; 1 Cor. 10:13)

16 [f]For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of A'brā-hăm.
17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful [g]high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.
▸18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

207 CHAPTER 3

III Christ better than Moses (3:1-6; Dt. 18:15-19; Jn. 1:17). 1 Because of His heavenly calling (1:3; 8:1-6; 12:2)

●WHEREFORE, [h]holy brethren, [i]partakers of the heavenly calling, consider [j]the Apostle and High Priest of our [k]profession, Christ Jē'sus;
●2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Mō'sēs was faithful [l]in all his house.

2 Because He is Creator (Jn. 1:3; Eph. 3:9; Col. 1:15-18)

3 For this man was counted worthy of [m]more glory than Mō'sēs, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.
4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

3 Because of His divine Sonship (Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mt. 1:18-25; Jn. 3:16; Heb. 1:5-7)

5 And Mō'sēs verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, [n]for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;
▸6 But Christ as a son over his own house; [o]whose house are we, if we [p]hold fast the [q]confidence and the rejoicing of [r]the hope [b]firm unto the [c]end.

IV Warnings and admonitions (Heb. 3:7-4:7). 1 Why Israel failed (Heb. 4:2; Rom. 9:25-33; 10:1-3; 11:7-32)

*17 [d]Wherefore (as the Hō'lў Ghōst saith, [c]To day if ye will hear his voice, ●8 [f]Harden not your hearts, as in the [e]provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
9 When your fathers tempted me, [b]proved me, and saw my works forty years.

2 God's judgment on Israel (Num. 14:1-45; Heb. 2:1-4; 4:2)

10 Wherefore I was [g]grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.
11 So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)

3 Warnings to holy brethren (v 1) to remain true to God (v 12-14; 4:11; 6:4-12; 10:26-39; 12:14-17)

12 [i]Take heed, brethren, [k]lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
●13 But [i]exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

4 The condition of continued life in Christ (v 6, 12-14; 4:11; 6:4-6, 12; 10:22-23, 26-29, 35-39; 12:14-15)

▸14 [m]For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

5 Exhortation for Christians to profit by Israel's failure (Rom. 11:17-24; 1 Cor. 10:1-11)

*15 While it is said, [c]To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of É'gўpt by Mō'sēs.
17 [o]But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?
18 And to whom [s]sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?
19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

208 CHAPTER 4

6 Exhortation to fear lest we should fail like Israel (Rom. 11:17-24; Gal. 3:7-14)

●LET [t]us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of a The hope here is that of eternal life. See note f, Tit. 1:2

b Same as stedfast in note f, 2:2, but not the same as hold fast, note p, 3:6
c 5 things we must do to the end:
1 Endure to the end to be saved (Mt. 10:22; 24:13; Mk. 13:13)
2 Hold fast the hope of eternal life to the end (Heb. 3:6)
3 Hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast to the end (Heb. 3:14)
4 Show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope to the end (Heb. 6:11)
5 Overcome and keep Christ's works to the end (Rev. 2:26)
d For this reason - because there is danger of failing to hold fast the hope of eternal life unto the end (v 6), the Holy Ghost here warns Christians, not sinners, to take heed, seeing to it that they do not fail God as many in Israel did and were cut off (v 7-14)
e 11th O. T. prophecy in Heb. (3:7-8; Ps. 95:7-11, fulfilled). Next, v 15. These words were originally a warning to Israel not to provoke God, lest they be excluded from the rest He had promised them. Paul quoted the words as a warning to Christians who could, through temptation and sin, fail to receive the eternal rest promised them See 22 warnings to Christians, p. 256
f If there is no possibility of Christians failing to hear God's voice, hardening themselves and being cut off from God as Israel was in the wilderness, why did Paul use this as a lesson to Christians (v 1, 6-14)?
g Gr. parapikrasmos, to embitter; provoke; cause bitter provocation. Only in v 8, 15, 16. The provocation, and the day of temptation in the wilderness here and in Ps. 95:8-11 refer to the whole wilderness experience of 40 years (v 8-9, 15-17).
h Gr. dokimazo, to put to the test; tested Me (note a, 2, 2 Cor. 13:5) i Gr. prosochthizo, to be wroth with; to be offended at. Only here and v 15. Used in the Sept. in Ps. 95:8, from which this is quoted j Here Paul again warns brethren, Christians, by the examples of Israel's failures in the wilderness. They were brought out of Egypt with the fullest assurance of blessing, prosperity, and eternal rest. By their sin and unbelief they came short of the promised blessings, fell in the wilderness, and were cut off from God. Paul states plainly that Christians, the born again or saved men can also return to an evil heart of unbelief, depart from the living God, be hardened by deceitfulness of sin, be cut off by God, and be finally lost (v 12-14) k 7 stages of apostasy:
1 Refusal to hear God (v 7)
2 Hardness of heart through refusal to hear and obey God (v 8, 13, 15)
3 Unbelief a consequence of hardening the heart against God (v 12)
4 Departure from the living God (v 12)
5 Open rebellion against God to provoke and tempt Him (v 8-9, 16)
6 Habitual sinning, careless living, and flagrant violation of God's laws (v 10, 17)
7 Apostasy - all faith in God and His redemptive work thrown overboard - beyond all hope of repentance because of no more faith (v 11, 18-19)
l This is further proof that Christians are referred to. Sinners are not advised to exhort one another daily, neither can they revert to sin and depart from the living God, for they are already estranged from God m After warning Christians that they can fall into sin and apostasy and be cut off from God by sin, as Israel was, the apostle lays down the condition they must meet to be finally saved. It is to hold the original confidence stedfast unto the end (v 14). See note q, v 6 n 12th O. T. prophecy in Heb. (3:15; Ps. 95:7-8, fulfilled). Next, 4:7. This is the 3rd time To day is used to emphasize it is the present when God's voice is heard (v 7, 13, 15). Make the best of time while you have it; listen to God
o Questions 8-10. Next, 7:11
p See God still swears that, p. 258
q Let us (holy brethren, 3:1, 6, 12-14) fear, lest we come short of eternal life. That the promise here is eternal life is clear in v 14; 9:15; 1 Jn. 2:25

a If there is no possibility of any of the holy brethren (3:1, 6, 12-14) coming short of eternal life, such warnings are vain

b The gospel was preached to Abraham, 430 years before the law (Gal. 3:8; Gen. 12:1-3), and to Israel under the law (v 2; Rom. 9:6-8; 10:7-21)

c Gr. sugkerannumi, to mix together; mingle: to blend together: temper by mixing. Trans. mix (v 2) and temper together (1 Cor. 12:24). It seems to be an idea taken from the human body which is kept all ve by proper mixing of food with the saliva and gastric juices. Should this mixture not take place such food would be a means of death rather than life. So here, the gospel does not profit unless it is properly mixed and blended together with faith. God has obligated Himself to bless only those who believe (Mk. 16:15-20; Jn. 3:16; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)

d Quoted from Ps. 95:11

e Gr. katabole kosmou, the disruption or casting down of the social system - the one before Adam (note i, Mt. 13:35)

f Quoted from Gen. 2:2-3

g A reference to Ps. 95:7-11

h There is no word in the Greek for must. It should read, "it remains for some to enter it". Just who they are is left up to the individual and not to the choice of God in anyone case. God wills that all be saved if they want to be (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)

i 13th O. T. prophecy in Heb. (4:7; Ps. 95:7-8). Next, 5:5. Here Paul applies the 95th Psalm in a prophetic sense to this present dispensation, warning men today not to harden their hearts and be cut off as Israel was in the wilderness

j This should have been trans. Joshua, for he is the one referred to here. The Heb. Yehoshua of the O. T., which we write Joshua, is everywhere rendered Iesous (Jesus or Saviour) by the Sept. It is this rendering that the apostle follows. If Joshua had given Israel rest God would not have spoken of another day of rest for His people (v 8-9). See Christ better than Joshua, p. 257

k See Eternal rest, p. 258

l 2 Gr. words translated "rest":
1 Gr. sabbatismos, keeping of the sabbath: rest from toils and trouble, in the life to come. Only in v 9
2 Gr. katapausis, cessation from labor so that the weary body may be rested and refreshed (3:11, 18; 4:1, 3, 5, 10, 11; Acts 7:49)

m This is more than a sabbath day which every man can observe as a rest period. One has to labor to enter into it (v 11). One can fail to enter this rest (v 1), but no man can possibly escape ordinary rest periods, saint or sinner

n The Scriptures (see 21 names of the Bible, p. 241

o Gr. diasmos. Here: Heb. 1:16; 2:12 p Gr. machaira, sword, 26 times (v 12; 11:34, 37; Eph. 6:17; Mt. 10:34; 26:47-55; Mk. 14:43-48; Lk. 21:24; 22:36-52; Jn. 18:10-11; Acts 12:2; 16:27; Rom. 8:35; 13:4; Rev. 6:4; 13:10, 14). See 7 facts about Word of God, p. 258

12 symbols of the Word of God:
1 A hammer to convict (Jer. 23:29)
2 A fire to refine (Jer. 23:29)
3 A mirror to reflect (Jas. 1:23)
4 Seed to multiply (1 Pet. 1:23)
5 A layer to cleanse (Eph. 5:26)
6 A lamp to guide (Ps. 119:105)
7 Rain and snow to refresh (Isa. 55:10)
8 A sword to cut (Heb. 4:12; Eph. 6:17)
9 A bow for revenge (Hab. 3:9)
10 Gold to enrich (Ps. 19:7-10)
11 Power to create faith (Rom. 10:17) and eternal life (1 Pet. 1:23)
12 Food to nourish:
(1) Milk for babes (1 Pet. 2:2)
(2) Bread for the hungry (Mt. 4:4)
(3) Meat for men (Heb. 5:11-14)
(4) Honey for dessert (Ps. 19:10)

q Piercing through the body and laying open the inner-most recesses of the soul (feelings, passions, desires, appetites) and mind (thoughts and intents of the inner-most being) r Gr. ktisis, created thing (note b, Rom. 8:22). Every thought, desire and intent of every creature of God are constantly under His eyes entering into his rest, a any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the b gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being c mixed with faith in them that heard it.

7 Faith brings rest, not the observance of some day (Rom. 3:1-31; 4:1-25; 5:1-11; Eph. 2:8-9)

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, d As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the e foundation of the world.

8 Character of God's rest: His works were finished, not because a certain day had come

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did f rest the seventh day from all his works.

9 Condition of rest - cease from law-works and accept by faith the rest in Christ (v 10; Mt. 11:28; Rom. 3:21-31; 4:1-25; Gal. 3:14; Eph. 2:8-9)

5 And in this place again, g If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some h must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in Da'vid, i To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

V Christ better than Joshua (v 8-13). 1 Because Joshua could not give true rest like Christ (Mt. 11:28)

8 For if j Je'sus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

•9 k There remaineth therefore a l rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

2 Warning to Christians to enter into rest by faith and not by observing some day (Col. 2:14-17; Gal. 4:9-10; Rom. 14:5-6)

•11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that m rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the n word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any o twoedged p sword, piercing even to the q dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any r creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

VI Christ greater than earthly priests (4:14-5:10; 7:1-8:6). 1 Because He is an heavenly High Priest, sinless, and able to deliver (3:1)

•14 s Seeing then that we have a great high priest, t that is u passed into the heavens, Je'sus the Son of God, let us hold fast our v profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be w touched with the feeling of our x infirmities; but y was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

•16 Let us therefore a come z boldly unto the b throne of grace, c that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5 209

2 Because other priests are earthly, sinful, and helpless to save (7:23, 27-28)

FOR every high priest d taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may e offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who can have f compassion on the g ignorant, and on them that are h out of the way; i for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

3 Because He is a Priest after a higher order than that of Aaron (6:20; 7:1-11; 20-28; 8:1-13)

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aar'on.

•5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, j Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

•6 As he saith also in another place, k Thou art a priest l for ever after the m order of n Mĕl-chĭs'e-dĕc.

4 Because He is perfect and able to save all men but other priests cannot (7:25-28; 8:1-6; 9:6-28; 10:10-23)

7 •Who o in the days of his flesh, when he had p offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

•9 And q being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest r after the order of Mĕl-chĭs'e-dĕc.

VII Warnings and admonitions (5:11-6:20). 1 Spiritual state of the Hebrew Christian j The throne from which all grace proceeds. In Israel it was the mercy-seat or covering for the ark between the two cherubim. The high priest could approach this only once a year and that with the blood of atonement. If he transgressed in anything he would be struck dead. His approach was with fear and trembling. The new covenant believers can come boldly to God's throne without fear and trembling, and that daily and at any time of the day. This is the freedom, confidence, and liberty of approach they are commanded to keep until the end (Liberty in prayer, p. 257; note o, Acts 4:13)

2 Grace to help or support when needed, where needed, and to the extent needed. It is not help for needs we think we shall have in the future, but immediate and present needs
7 steps in obtaining help:
1 Recognition of a meeting place with God - the throne of grace (v 16)
2 Consciousness that this meeting place is made possible through the atoning blood of Christ (10:19-20)
3 Obedience in coming to this throne (v 16; 10:22-23)
4 Calling upon God for mercy and grace to help in time of need (v 16)
5 Boldness in approach (v 16)
6 Fervency and earnestness in presenting needs (Jas. 5:16; Lk. 11:5-13)

w See 8 facts about Christ, p. 258 a Of Christ we have many things to say and difficult to make clear to you, not because they are mysteries, but because you are slow to grasp the doctrines delivered you (v 11)

b Gr. nothros, dull (v 11) and slothful (6:12). It is not truth that is so complicated; the trouble is with men who take the wrong attitude due to religious background (Mt. 13:14-16; Acts 28:27)

c You have been professed Christians long enough to be teachers, but because of your laziness and dulness in grasping truth, you must be taught a second time the first simple doctrines of Christ. You have not grown at all. You are still babes and unweaned (v 12; 1 Cor. 3:2; 1 Pet. 2:2). Milk-feeding was a metaphor used by many writers, both sacred and profane to express the first principles of religion and science. They applied sucking to learning; infant to every beginner; and meat to those who had learned the first principles of truth

2 characteristics of babes:
1 Dull of hearing (v 11)
2 Unskilful in the Word (v 13)

d Gr. apeiros, inexperienced. Only here

e Gr. teleios, one who has reached full maturity as to age or qualification, or by initiation (1 Cor. 14:20). See note v, Phil. 3:15

2 characteristics of adults:
1 Capable of instruction (v 14)
2 Powers of discrimination (v 14)

f Gr. aistheteria, organs of sense, as the eyes, ears, nose, tongue, palate, fingers, and the nervous system in general. These organs properly exercised and employed give one immediate consciousness of sight, hearing, taste, smelling, and all feelings. There is something in the soul that corresponds with all these senses and through them the soul is blessed and perfected

g Gr. gumnazo, to train stripped of clothes, as in gymnastic exercises (v 14; 12:11; 1 Tim. 4:7; 2 Pet. 2:14)

h Gr. diakrisis, to discriminate: the faculty of distinguishing: judgment (v 14; Rom. 14:1; 1 Cor. 12:10)

i In view of your lack of progress, let us leave the babyhood stage of Christian experience and become adults (v 1)

j 2 things manifest Christian maturity:
1 To leave the first principles - cease to remain in the state of babes (v 1)
2 Go on to perfection - never rest until you are an adult capable of taking strong meat, of being a teacher, and of exercising all senses in righteousness (5:13-14; 6:1). The Gr. for go on is phero, to be borne along as a ship driven by a wind (Acts 27:15-17). Here the Spirit is the power that moves believers forward (Acts 2:2-4; 2 Pet. 1:21; Rom. 8:14)

k Gr. kataballo, casting down or overthrow (v 1; 2 Cor. 4:9; Rev. 12:10; note i, Mt. 13:35). It means, do not cast down or destroy the foundation already laid of the 6 fundamental doctrines of v 1-2)

l Gr. themelios, (note i, Mt. 13:35)

m See 6 first principles, p. 258

n Gr. nekra erga. Only here; 9:14. It refers to the works of the old nature which deserve death and cause death in trespasses and sins (Eph. 2:1-8; Gal. 5:19-21; Rom. 1:21-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Col. 3:5-10; Mk. 7:19-21)

o Gr. baptismon, plural of baptidzo - baptisms. There are 7 baptisms in Scripture (note n, Mt. 3:6) p Gr. aionios, eternal (ages, p. 243)

q Gr. krima, judgment (see Condemnation, p. 237)

r 2 outstanding facts:
1 Christians can backslide, tear down the foundation of repentance that is already laid. Should they ever again be admitted into the church, they will have to build again the foundation of repentance and do their first works again (v 1-2; 2:1-4; Rev. 2:5)
2 Christians can fully apostatize from Christ, completely reject Him and His atoning work, so that it is impossible to renew them again to repentance (v 4-8; 10:26-29; 2 Pet. 2:20-22)

s See Sinful state of apostates, p. 258

t See Sinful apostasy, p. 258

u We are persuaded that you will not apostatize and not neglect your salvation so as to reap the judgment of God (v 9; 2:2-3), as some of your brethren have done (v 4-8)

11 [a]Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are [b]dull of hearing.

12 [c]For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk is [d]unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of [e]full age, even those who by reason of use have their [f]senses [g]exercised to [h]discern both good and evil.

210 CHAPTER 6

2 Eightfold command for Christians not to apostatize

THEREFORE [i]leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not [j]laying again the [k]foundation [l]of repentance from [m]dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine [n]of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of [o]eternal [p]judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

3 Former blessings of apostates

4 [q]For it is impossible for [r]those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Hó'lÿ Ghŏst,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

4 Reason why Christians should not apostatize: how to become an apostate (1 Tim. 4:1-5; 2 Tim. 3:1-9; 4:1-4; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Heb. 10:26-29; 2 Pet. 2:1-22; Jude 4-10; Rom. 1:18-32; Phil. 3:18)

6 [s]If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

5 Illustration of Christians and apostates (Mt. 7:15-29)

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, [t]we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

6 Exhortation to patience and diligence unto the end (3:6, 12-13, 14, refs.)

10 [u]For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have [v]ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And [w]we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

●12 That ye be not slothful, but [x]followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

7 How Abraham obtained the benefits of the promise (Gen. 22:16-17; Rom. 4:17-21; Jas. 2:20-26)

13 For when God made promise to Ă'bră-hăm, because he could swear by no greater, he [y]sware by himself, ★14 Saying, [z]Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he [a]obtained the promise.

8 God's guarantee of faithfulness to His obligations (1 Tim. 2:13; Isa. 55:11)

16 [b]For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for [c]confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

▸17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto [d]the heirs of promise [e]the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

▸18 That by [f]two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong [g]consolation, who have [h]fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

VIII Christ better than Melchisedec, Abraham and Levi (6:19-7:10). 1 Because He is our hope and forerunner. Melchisedec was a mere type (Ps. 110:4; Heb. 7:11-17)

▸19 [i]Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

▸20 Whither the [j]forerunner is for us entered, even Jē'sus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭs'e-dĕc.

211 CHAPTER 7

2 Melchisedec was an earthly king-priest (Gen. 14:18-20)

FOR this [k]Měl-chĭs'e-dĕc, king of Să'lem, priest of the most high God, who met Ă'bră-hăm returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Ă'bră-hăm gave a [l]tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Să'lem, which is, King of peace;

3 Melchisedec's origin was a God's promises are His debts to man. His righteousness and justice require Him to keep them, so you will be rewarded (v 10)

b This refers to contributions for the poor saints in Judea, as in 2 Cor. 8-9 c Paul comes back to his often repeated subject to the Hebrews here - that of warning them they must continue in full assurance of hope of eternal life even to the end, and that by so doing they will finally inherit the blessings of the promises (v 11-12. Cp. 2:3; 3:6, 12-14; 4:1-2, 6, 11; 6:1-8). Slothfulness will deprive them of both hope and faith

d Gr. mimetes, imitators (note p, 1 Cor. 4:16). He gives Abraham as an outstanding example of faith (v 12-15), then gives a whole list of faith-worthies of the O. T. whom we can imitate in faith (11:1-12:3)

e There was none greater than He to whom He could appeal, so He pledged His own eternal power to fulfill the promise

f 16th O.T. prophecy in Heb. (6:14; Gen. 22:17, fulfilled). Next, 7:17

g See the 20 promises to Abraham (Gen. 12:1-3, 7; 13:14-17; 15:4-6, 13-21; 17:2-8, 15-16, 19-21; 18:10, 18-19; 21:12-13; 22:8, 17). The promise referred to in this verse is the supernatural birth of Isaac h One of great authority who can enforce the contract and punish for any failure to keep it (v 16)

i Gr. bebaiosis (note n, Phil. 1:7)

j The children of faith (Rom. 4)

k The unchangeable purpose of calling the Gentiles to salvation by Jesus Christ and saving all who believe, of both Jews and Gentiles (Gal. 3:13-14; 1 Cor. 12:13; Rom. 1:16)

l This refers either to God's oath and promise (v 13) or to the two oaths of God confirming the promise to Abraham (v 13) and making Christ a high priest forever after the order of Melchisedec (7:21). See 30 limitations of God, 638 of O. T.

m Gr. paraklesis (note v, Acts 13:15)

n Here we have an allusion to the cities of refuge, and to persons who fled to them in safety (Num. 35; Josh. 20:2-3). The sinner can flee to Christ and find eternal refuge and safety (Jn. 3:16)

o Here Paul changes the allusion from safety in the cities of refuge to a ship reaching harbor after a tempestuous voyage, knowing that her anchor is sure and stedfast. So it is with the believer who has the hope of eternal life anchored safe in heaven (v 19-20) p Jesus is our Forerunner to heaven and our High Priest to represent us until we are safe in heaven with God (v 20)

q 10 facts about Melchisedec:
1 King of Salem, ancient Jerusalem (v 1; Gen. 14:18)
2 Priest of God in Abraham's day (v 1; Gen. 14:18)
3 Met Abraham returning from his military victory (v 1; Gen. 14:16-18)
4 Abraham gave him a tenth of the spoils (v 2; Gen. 14:16-24)
5 Called King of righteousness (v 2)
6 Called King of Salem, or King of Peace (v 2; Gen. 14:18)
7 Had no descent (Gr. genealogeomai, recorded pedigree); without recorded father or mother; and without recorded beginning of days or end of life (v 3, 6). He had a father, mother, birth, and death, but these were not recorded, so that he could be a type of Christ who was an eternal being really without beginning and ending (Mic. 5:2; Isa. 9:6-7; Jn. 1:1-2; Heb. 1:8)
8 Made a type of Christ, so that Christ could be made a priest after his order (v 3; 5:6, 10; 6:15-20; 7:1-10, 15-21). See Melchisedec, p. 258
9 He was an ordinary man (v 4)
10 Greater than Abraham (v 4-7)

r It was customary among ancient nations to give a tenth of the spoils of war to the objects of their worship

a See Melchisedec, p. 258
b He was a man and even greater than Abraham, the source of the Jewish race. There remains no mystery about him in view of the facts here. Because he had no recorded father, mother, etc. does not make him a man of mystery or a divine person as many have thought. Christ greater than, p. 257
c Gr. patriarches, father or chief of a family or tribe (v 4; Acts 2:29; 7:8-9) d The doctrine of tithing, p. 270 e This proves that even children of Abraham were supposed to pay tithes. If they were obligated to pay tithes, so were the Gentiles, including the church f No recorded pedigree (note q, v 1) g He reckoned no genealogy from them, from the geneologies of the priests (v 6). This was considered essential for a priest by the Jews. On the other hand, since they recognized Melchisedec as a true priest of God and greater than Abraham, they had to recognize that genealogy was not the essential thing for a priest and that on these grounds Jesus Christ could be a priest after the order of Melchisedec to fulfill Ps. 110
h This proves that the Melchisedec priesthood had commandment to take tithes of Abraham, as the Levites were commanded to take tithes of all Israel (v 5-6). If Abraham paid tithes to Melchisedec, his natural and spiritual seed should continue to pay tithes to this priesthood since it now replaced the Aaronic priesthood (v 9-21). Is the first priest of this order the only one to receive tithes? Should God require tithing under this priesthood at the first and then discontinue it when Christ became a priest after this order? Does grace lessen the obligation of man or increase it? Has this priesthood come to a self-supporting place, where it needs nothing from those under its benefits? Was it right that Abraham pay tithes to this priesthood and for Melchisedec to receive them for his support? If it was right then, could it be wrong now to continue this same program? Should a mere typical priesthood be supported and not the eternal priesthood itself?
i See Christ better than Abraham, p. 257
j If men that die receive tithes, how much more should they who live receive them? That is, if temporary priests have received them, how much more should the eternal priest receive them? (v 8) k As there is no record of his death or end of his priesthood, Melchisedec in Scripture record is an illustration of perpetuity of life, a type of Christ who is eternal (Isa. 9:6; Mic. 5:2; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 1:8-11)
l Those who receive tithes also pay them on their own income. In this, Abraham was the representative tithe payer for all his seed to come (v 9-10)
m In the loins of his ancestral father n Gr. teleiosis, completing or finishing of anything, so as to leave nothing imperfect or wanting. Trans. perfection (v 11) and performance (Lk. 1:45). Here it means that the Levitical priesthood was faulty. See note d, Rom. 8:3 and 85 contrasts, p. 201. The Levitical system was merely a shadow, not the substance and reality of the eternal priesthood of Christ. It represented a perfect system but was imperfect itself. It pointed to a perfect sacrifice that would take away sin, but was helpless to cleanse from sin o Not under it, but on account of it, for the law was given before this priesthood was established (Ex. 40:12-14) p Question 11, Next, 9:14. The eternal priesthood typified by Melchisedec was the original priesthood. It existed over 400 years before the Levitical order. Over 600 years after the Levitical priesthood David by the Holy Ghost predicted that another and a perfect priest would arise after the order of Melchisedec. The law, therefore, did not contain the original priesthood, which existed typically in Melchisedec and became reality in Jesus Christ
q See Change in priesthood, p. 258
r The Messiah of whom these things were predicted did not come from the tribe of Levi and had no Levitical pedigree to prove His claim to the priesthood (v 13)

not recorded (v 6) so he could be a mere type of Christ's eternity (Mic. 5:1-2; Jn. 1:1-2)

3 Without father, without mother,[a] without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Melchisedec was a mere man but Christ was a God-man (Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:35; Jn. 1:1-2; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; 1 Tim. 3:16)

4 Now consider how great this [b]man was, unto whom even[c] the patriarch A'brā-hăm gave[d] the tenth of the spoils.

5 Melchisedec was better than Abraham and Levi (Gen. 14:18-20)

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Lē'vi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren,[e] though they come out of the loins of A'brā-hăm:

6 But he whose[f] descent is not counted [g]from them [h]received tithes of A'brā-hăm, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of[i] the better.

6 Abraham and Levi paid tithes to the Melchisedec priesthood which is still in existence to receive tithes of Abraham's children (Rom. 4:12, 16; Heb. 5:6; 6:20; 7:15-8:6)

8 [j]And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them,[k] of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say,[l] Lē'vi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in A'brā-hăm.

10 For he was yet in the loins of [m]his father, when Měl-chĭṣ'e-dĕc met him.

IX Christ's priesthood better than Aaron's (7:11-8:6). 1 Because He has an unchangeable law and priesthood. Aaron's was changeable (7:16-24; 8:6. Cp. Gal. 4:21, refs.)

11 If therefore[n] perfection were by the Lĕ-vĭ'ī-cal priesthood, (for[o] under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Měl-chĭṣ'e-dĕc, and not be called after the order of Aär'on?

12 [p]For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

2 Because of a change in God's choice (Ps. 110:4; Heb. 1:1-8)

13 [r]For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is[a] evident that our Lord[b] sprang out of Jū'dā; of which tribe Mō'şeş spake nothing concerning priesthood.

3 Because of a better foundation (8:6-13; 9:23-24; 10:9-23)

15 [c]And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Měl-chĭṣ'e-dĕc there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a[d] carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

*17 For he testifieth,[e] Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭṣ'e-dĕc.

4 Because of a better hope (6:16-20; Rom. 5:1-11; 8:1-13; Tit. 1:2)

18 For there is verily a[f] disannulling of the commandment going before for the[g] weakness and [h]unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the[i] bringing in of a [j]better hope did; [k]by the which we draw nigh unto God.

5 Because of a better consecration and ordination (7:28; 9:6-28; 10:1-23)

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:
21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, [l]The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭṣ'e-dĕc:)

6 Because of a better covenant (8:6-13; 9:13-28; Mt. 26:28)

22 By so much was Jē'şus made a[m] surety of a[n] better testament.

7 Because of a better substance (7:16, 21, 28; 9:11-28; 10:10-23)

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:
24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an[o] unchangeable priesthood.

8 Because of a better salvation (9:11-28; 10:1-23)

▸25 [p]Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make[q] intercession for them.

9 Because of a better nature, character and exaltation (1:1-9; 2:9-18; 7:16; 8:1; 9:24)

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

10 Because of finished rea Paul speaks with all confidence that Christ came from Judah, according to the official Jewish genealogies. The genealogies of both Matthew and Luke establish this fact. There were no difficulties in them in that day or the enemies of the gospel would have used them as proof against Christ being the Messiah b Gr. anatello, hath risen. Generally used of the sun rising (Mt. 4:16; 5:45; 13:6; Mk. 4:6; 16:2; Jas. 1:11; 2 Pet. 1:19. Cp. Lk. 12:54). Here, Christ is risen out of Judah as the sun in all its strength to bring light to Israel and knowledge to His people (Isa. 9:1-2; 11:1; Mt. 4:16; Lk. 1:77-79)

c It is more abundantly manifest (Gr. katadelos, very plain) that God designed the Levitical priesthood to be changed, because of the oath in Ps. 110 which declares the Messiah should be a priest after the order of Melchisedec who was not only a priest but also a prophet and a king (7:1-10). None of the Levitical priests exercised a double or a triple office, as manifest in Jesus Christ
d Gr. sarkikos (note h, Rom. 7:14). The word carnal does not always mean sinful or corrupt, but sometimes feeble, frail, or human. The idea here is that Christ was not appointed a priest after the order of Aaron wherein weak and perishing men must succeed each other, but He was made a High Priest after another order - after the power of immortality or endless life (v 16-17)
e 17th O. T. prophecy in Heb. (7:17; Ps. 110:4). Next, v 21 f Gr. athetesis, abolition, rejection. Trans. disannulling (v 18) and put away (Heb. 9:26). What was disannulled? Not only the commandment of v 16-18 concerning the priesthood, but all the law, including the 10 commandments (85 contrasts, p. 201). That the commandment here refers to the law is made clear in v 19
g 15 things law could not do, p. 174 h 15 things law unprofitable in, p. 258
i Gr. epeisagoge, superintroduction. This refers to the introduction of the gospel or the new covenant to take the place of the old covenant (see 85 contrasts, p. 201)
j See Christ better than Aaron, p. 257 k By the atonement and the new covenant we have personal approach to God which no man had by the law program (v 19; 10:19-23)
l 18th O. T. prophecy in Heb. (7:21; Ps. 110:4). Next, 8:8. Paul's argument here is that God has never failed to fulfill His oaths. Since He did not establish the Levitical priesthood or the law of Moses by an oath, He was free to change or abolish them at His pleasure. See 14 oaths of God, p. 257 m Gr. egguos, giving surety or bail. Christ became the guarantee that the benefits of the new covenant would be given to all men who meet the terms. In this sense He is the mediator (8:6; 9:15)
n The new covenant is a better one as compared with the old covenant or the law of Moses (note c, 2 Cor. 3:6)
o A priesthood not passed to another, as in the Aaronic priesthood (v 23-24) p Because He is an everlasting priest, and has made the only true atonement for sin, He is able to save from all sin to the uttermost, in all places, at all times, and under all circumstances. The condition of salvation is coming to God by Him (v 25)
q Gr. entugchano, to light upon; fall in with; meet with; intercede with and for. Trans. intercession (v 25; Rom. 8:27, 34; 11:2) and deal with (Acts 25:24) 7 purposes of intercession:
1 To come to or meet a person for any cause whatever (v 25; Rom. 8:27, 34)
2 To plead the cause of others as in a civil court (Isa. 59:9-18; 1 Tim. 2:1)
3 To pray for others (Isa. 53:12; Lk. 22:44; Rom. 8:26-27, 34; Heb. 7:25)
4 To defend or vindicate a person or thing (Jer. 7:16; 27:18; 36:25)
5 To commend others to a person (Rom. 8:27, 34; Heb. 7:25)
6 To furnish any kind of assistence or help (Rom. 8:26-27)
7 To accuse or act against a person in a judicial way (Rom. 11:2; Acts 25:24)
r See 5fold character of Christ, p. 258 a Gr. anaphero. Trans. offer up (v 27; 13:15; Jas. 2:21; 1 Pet. 2:5); bear (Heb. 9:28; 1 Pet. 2:24); lead, carry, and bring up (Mt. 17:1; Mk. 9:2; Lk. 24:51)

b He offered no sacrifice for Himself, for He was sinless (v 26; 1 Pet. 2:22). He offered Himself once for all sinners; not daily or annually for the Jews only. He tasted death for every man (Heb. 2:9-15; 1 Pet. 2:24)
c See Christ's eternal body, p. 258
d This refers to the oath of God after the law was given to the effect that He would abolish the law and the Aaronic priesthood raising up another priest after the order of Melchizedek (Ps. 110:4). This oath, made over 600 years after the giving of the law, abrogates the law that was not established by an oath (7:11-22, 28). Since the Son's priesthood is eternal, the covenant upon which it operates is eternal. The old covenant, which the new covenant replaces, is not now in force (p. 201)
e Gr. kephalaion, main point. Only here and in Acts 22:28. See 7 facts about Christ, p. 258
f Gr. leitourgos, public servant or officer (note k, Rom. 13:6). Christ is the public servant who carries on the business of the whole human race with God. All have common rights in His work and service. He is the minister of the heavenly things pertaining to man's redemption and destiny (v 2-6; 9:11-15, 23-24)
g Gr. hagion, holies, referring to the holy of holies of the heavenly temple or tabernacle (v 2; 9:3, 8; 10:19). Used 10 times in Hebrews (v 2; 9:2, 3, 8, 12, 24, 25; 10:19; 13:11)
h Gr. skene. Trans. tabernacle 19 times and habitation one time (Lk. 16:9). See 7 kinds of tabernacles, p. 269

i Gr. kathistemi (note o, Tit. 1:5)
j 2 kinds of offerings:
1 Gifts to God acknowledging His government and providence in the universe
2 Sacrifices to God acknowledging sin and the necessity of atonement k Since it was necessary for all priests to make offerings, it was required of Christ to make one (10:1-12)
l The temple service in Jerusalem was still being carried on by the Levites. It was not possible therefore, for Christ to perform the office of a priest, being of the tribe of Judah, to which tribe the priesthood did not belong. The Levites served in this worship of shadows of heavenly things (v 4-5)

n Gr. tupos (note c, Phil. 3:17)
o A more excellent ministry because of the better covenant based upon better promises (v 6; 7:22; 2 Cor. 3:6-18) p Gr. leitourgia. Trans. ministry (v 6; 9:21); ministration (Lk. 1:23); and service (2 Cor. 9:12; Phil. 2:17, 30)
q Gr. mesites (note m, Gal. 3:20)
r 10 better things in Hebrews:
1 Hope (7:19) 6 Substance (10:34)
2 Testament (7:22) 7 Country (11:16)
3 Covenant (8:6) 8 Resurrection (11:
4 Promises (8:6) 9 Thing (11:40) 35)
5 Sacrifices (9:23) 10 Things (12:24) s The claim of 33,000 promises in the Bible is wrong. There are not that many verses, much less promises. In the N. T. there are only 750 promises in 250 classifications (note a, Rev. 22:20)
t The law of Moses was faulty and had to be done away so that the perfect covenant might come into force (15 things about law, p. 174, 258; 95 old and new covenant contrasts, p. 201)
u The second or the new covenant was necessary because the first or the old covenant did not provide salvation and eternal life (85 contrasts, p. 201)
v This could refer to finding fault with the Jews and not with the covenant, as Jer. 31:31-34 complains that they broke the covenant; but v 7 is clear that the covenant itself was faulty demption (1:3; 10:10, 14; 12:2)

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to [a]offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did [b]once, when he offered up[c] himself.

11 Because of His perfection (5:9; 9:11; 10:14)

28 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was[d] since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

212 CHAPTER 8

12 Because of a better position (1:3; 7:26; 9:23-28; 10:19-23)

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is [e]the sum; We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

13 Because of a better ministry in a better tabernacle (7:19, 25, 27-28; 9:11-28)

2 A[f] minister of the [g]sanctuary, and of the true [h]tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is [i]ordained to [j]offer gifts and sacrifices: [k]wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 [l]For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Mō'ṣeṣ was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for,[m] See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the[n] pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

14 Because He is a Mediator of a better covenant based upon better promises (7:22; 8:1-13; 9:14-28)

▸6 But now hath he obtained[o] a more excellent[p] ministry, by how much also he is the[q] mediator of a [r]better covenant, which was established upon better[s] promises.

X Christ's covenant better than the Old Covenant (8:7-10:18). 1 Because of its tenfold superiority

7 For if that[t] first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for[u] the second.

★8 For finding fault with[v] them, he saith,[w] Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Iṣ'ra-el[x] and with the house of Jū'dah:◂

▸9 [y]Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of E'gẏpt; because they continued not in my[z] covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

▸10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Iṣ'ra-el after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

▸11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

▸12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first [a]old. Now that which decayeth and [b]waxeth old is ready to[c] vanish away.

213 CHAPTER 9

2 Because the Old Covenant tabernacle was only typical of the New Covenant one (8:1-2, 5; 9:24; 10:1)

THEN verily the first covenant had also [d]ordinances of divine service, and [e]a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a[f] tabernacle made; the [g]first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

3 And after the [h]second veil, the tabernacle which is called the[i] Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the[j] ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aär'on's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

5 [k]And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

3 Because the Old Covenant restricted personal approach to God. The New Covenant gives full access to God always (10:19-23)

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone[l] once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

4 Because Old Covenant services could not cleanse even its ministers (5:1-3; 7:27)

8 The Hō'lẏ Ghōst this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a[m] figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining a Gr. diatheke. Trans. covenant 18 times (Lk. 1:72; Acts 3:25; 7:8; Rom. 9:4; 11:27; Gal. 3:15, 17; 4:24; Eph. 2:12; Heb. 8:6-10; 9:4; 10:16, 29; 12:24; 13:20) and testament 12 times (Mt. 26:28; Mk. 14:24; Lk. 22:20; 1 Cor. 11:25; 2 Cor. 3:6, 14; Heb. 7:22; 9:15-20; Rev. 11:19)

b This is the nature of gospel system:
1 I will put My laws in their mind (v 10). They will be fully enlightened and have perfect knowledge of truth
2 I will write them in their hearts (v 10). All their affections, passions, and appetites shall be purified so that they shall willingly obey My Word
3 I will be their God, and they shall be My people (v 10). I will make them new creatures and unite them to Me forever (2 Cor. 5:17)
4 They shall all know Me from the least to the greatest of them (v 11)
5 I will be merciful when they commit injustices against God or man (v 12)
6 I will forgive their sins and lawlessness, remembering them no more (v 12). All this implies genuine repentance and forsaking of sin (Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29) c Gr. palaioo, to abrogate; annul; be antiquated; no longer in force; to be obsolete, out of date. Trans. old and decay (v 13) and wax old (Lk. 12:33; Heb. 1:11) d Gr. geraskō, to grow aged; become old and infirm. Here and in Jn. 21:18 e Gr. aphanismos, a making away with; disappearance. Only here, but used by the Greeks of laws that become out of date and abolished

f Gr. dikaioma, rites and ceremonies. Trans. ordinances (v 1, 10); judgment (Rom. 1:32; Rev. 15:4); righteousness (Rom. 2:26; 5:18; 8:4; Rev. 19:8); and justification (Rom. 5:16) g Gr. kosmikos, earthly; of the world. Here and Tit. 2:12. This refers to the tabernacle made by Moses after the patterns shown him of heavenly things (8:5; 9:23-24)
h See note h, 8:2

i The first room of the tabernacle - the holy place wherein there were:
1 The golden candlestick (v 2; Ex. 25:31-40)
2 Golden altar of incense (v 2; Ex. 30:1-10)
3 Table of shewbread with 12 loaves representing 12 tribes (v 2; Ex. 25:23-30)

j A second vail (veil) separated the holy place from the most holy place or holy of holies. The first vail separated the holy place from the tabernacle court and prevented the people from looking into the holy place (Ex. 26:31-36)
k The holy of holies which contained the ark of the covenant (v 4-5; Ex. 25:10-22)

l A box or chest about 3x3x5 ft. in which were the golden pot of manna (v 4; Ex. 16:32-34), Aaron's rod that budded (Num. 17), and the tables of the covenant or the two stones on which were written the ten commandments (2 Cor. 3:3, 7; Ex. 25:16). The golden censor (Lev. 16:12) appears to have been left in the holy of holies with the ark (v 4) m This describes the lid to the ark of the covenant (Ex. 25:10-22). Two cherubim, one on each end of the lid stretched forth their wings to touch each other over the mercy seat which typified God's throne and the divine presence (v 5; Ex. 25:18-22)

n On the great day of atonement (Lev. 16:14; 23:27). This going only once a year into the holy of holies testified that the way into the holiest of all, the holy of holies of heaven, had not been made (v 8). Now it has been made by the death of Christ (10:19-23)

o Gr. parabole. Here and 11:19 trans. figure, but in the gospels it is always trans. parable, except in Mk. 4:30; Lk. 4:22. A shadow of the realities in Christ (8:5; 10:1). A program of types for the time then present - the dispensation of law in which both gifts and sacrifices were offered, none of which could make men perfect as to the conscience (v 9; 10:1-18)

a See Conscience, p. 236
b See True Bible types, p. 258
c Gr. epikeimai, to be laid upon: imposed on. Trans. imposed on (v 10): press upon (Lk. 5:1); and lie upon (Jn. 11:38; 21:9; Acts 27:20; 1 Cor. 9:16). These natural rites and ceremonies were commanded by divine authority, as proper representations of the gospel system, which should come and rectify all things
d See note k, Gal. 3:19
e Gr. diorthosis, a making straight; correcting: amending of a faulty reformation. Only here. It refers to correcting the faults and weaknesses of the law of Moses by the abolishment of it, and the substitution of a perfect covenant which meets every need wherein the law failed (v 10; 7:11-19, 27-28)
f The realities of Christianity that were typified by the law system (v 11; 10:1)
g Gr. dia, through: referring to His passing through the heavens into the heavenly tabernacle to appear in the holy of holies there for us (v 11, 24) h Not of an earthly tabernacle made by hands of man out of earth's created materials, as the tabernacle of Moses i Gr. ktisis, creation (note b, Rom. 8:19)
j Christ does not minister in an earthly tabernacle or offer the blood of goats and calves which cannot take away sins. He ministers in the holy place in heaven where He has offered the true atonement - His own blood which brings eternal redemption (v 12)
k He made atonement once for all and does not have to make daily atonement as earthly priests (v 12; 7:27; 9:6-7, 25-28; 10:1-18)
l Gr. heuriskō, to find; discover; procure; obtain. Trans. obtain (v 12); get (Lk. 9:12); perceive (Acts 23:29); and find 174 times (Heb. 4:16; 11:5; 12:17; etc.). Christ found and obtained for man the only method of eternal salvation, that of taking man's place and dying in his stead (Mt. 26:28; Heb. 2:9-15; 1 Pet. 2:24) m The redemption price that stands good forever. It is eternal in its merit and efficacy. Man's possession of it does not make it eternal. It would be eternal if no man ever received or kept it. There are certain conditions one must meet to get it and keep it (note d, Jn. 6:27; note e, 3:7) n Gr. lutrosis, a ransoming. It is from lutron and lutroo, a ransom price of redemption; an atonement; a release on receipt of a ransom price. Used only here; Lk. 1:68; 2:38. Lutron, ransom, is found in Mt. 20:28; Mk. 10:45, and lutroo, redeem, in 1 Pet. 1:18; Lk. 24:21; Tit. 2:14
o For if these carnal rites and ceremonies set the body apart and ceremonially purify the flesh of defilement giving it re-admission to public worship and freedom from temporal punishments of the law, how much more shall the blood of Christ, through the Holy Spirit purge your conscience from sin and make you inwardly holy before God (v 13-15)?
p The rituals of the law only cleansed the body - the flesh (v 13). The blood of Christ cleanses the soul and spirit and reconciles one to God (v 14-15; Col. 1:14-22; 1 Jn. 1:7; Rev. 1:5)
q Question 12, Next, 10:2
r The Holy Spirit is eternal (1 Jn. 5:7) s Through the Spirit, Christ:
1 Was begotten (Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:35)
2 Trained (Isa. 50:4; Lk. 2:40, 52)
3 Tested (Mt. 4:1; Lk. 4:1)
4 Worked (Mt. 12:28; Lk. 4:14-21; Acts 10:38; Isa. 11:1-2; 42:1-7; 61:1-2)
5 Offered self a sacrifice (Heb. 9:14)
6 Was resurrected (Rom. 8:11)
7 Justified (1 Tim. 3:16)
t See note n, 8:1
u To this end, Christ became the mediator of the new covenant, that through His death sins could be remitted and men be given eternal inheritance (v 15)

w Gr. diatheke (note a, 8:9) x It was only by means of death that man could be saved, for death was the penalty for sin (Mt. 26:28; Rom. 5:6-11; 6:10; 14:9; 1 Cor. 15:3; 2 Cor. 5:14-21; Col. 1:14-22; Heb. 2:9-15; 9:15; 1 Pet. 2:24) to the [a]conscience;

5 Old Covenant sacrifices were carnal, temporary and powerless to cleanse from sin (10:1-9)

10 [b]Which stood only in meats and drinks, and diverse washings, and [c]carnal ordinances, [d]imposed on them [e]until the time of [f]reformation.

6 Because the New Covenant sacrifice brought eternal redemption (7:24; 9:15; 10:10-23)

11 But Christ being come an high priest of [g]good things to come, [h]by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, [i]not of [j]this building;

▶12 [k]Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in [l]once into the holy place, having [m]obtained [n]eternal redemption for us.

7 Because the Old Covenant sacrifices could not remit one sin (10:4), but the blood of Christ does (Mt. 26:28; Rom. 3:25; 5:9; Eph. 1:7; 2:13; Heb. 10:19; 1 Jn. 1:7; 1 Pet. 1:18; Rev. 1:5; 5:19)

▶13 [o]For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the [p]purifying of the flesh:

▶14 [q]How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the [r]eternal [s]Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from [t]dead works to serve the living God?

▶15 [u]And for this cause he is the [v]mediator of the [w]new testament, that [x]by means of death, [y]for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, [z]they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

8 Because the death of Christ was necessary to make the New Covenant (Mt. 26:28; 1 Pet. 2:24)

16 For where a [a]testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the [b]testator.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

9 Because the Old Covenant was dedicated by blood of animals (9:11-15; 10:1-9)

18 [c]Whereupon neither the first testament was [d]dedicated without blood.

19 For when Mō'ses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 Saying, [e]This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the [a]ministry.

22 And [b]almost all things are by the law [c]purged with blood; and [d]without shedding of [e]blood is no remission.

10 Because the New Covenant was dedicated by the blood of Christ (Heb. 9:13, refs.)

23 It was therefore necessary that the [f]patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

▶24 [g]For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the [h]figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to [i]appear in the presence of God for us:

11 Because the Old Covenant had many sacrifices but the New Covenant had only one (10:10, 14)

25 [j]Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the [k]foundation of the world: but now once in the [l]end of the [m]world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is [n]appointed unto men once to die, but [o]after this the judgment:

▶28 So Christ was once offered to [p]bear the sins of many; and unto them that [q]look for him shall he appear the [r]second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10 214

12 Because the Old Covenant was only a shadow of the realities of the New Covenant (Col. 2:14-17)

FOR the law having a [s]shadow of good things to come, and not the very [t]image of the things, [u]can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 [v]For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For it is [w]not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

13 Because Christ abolished the Old Covenant (Gal. 4:21, refs.)

▶5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, [x]Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou [y]prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the [z]volume of the book it is b Almost. Some were ceremonially purged with water and fire (Num. 31:23) and some with the ashes of a red heifer (Num. 19:2-10), but all were first consecrated by blood

c Ceremonially purged (v 13), not purged from sin (10:4) d Here Paul shows that there can be no redemption but through the blood of Christ; and to prefigure this the law could not grant any remission of sin without the blood of a victim (v 22)
e The word atonement is used 80 times in the O. T. and only 1 time in the N. T. The word blood is used 329 times in the O. T. and 101 times in the N. T. See 14 blessings of the blood, p. 257

Here, the things in the tabernacle (8:5), were purified ceremonially by the blood of animals (v 18-23). The heavenly patterns are purified by the blood of Christ (v 12-15, 23)
g Christ is not entered into earthly holy places to minister, but into heaven itself to represent us (v 24; 8:1-6) h Gr. antitupon, an antitype: exact representation. Here; 1 Pet. 3:21. The earthly holy places and things are mere representations of the true and the heavenly (v 24)

w It was not possible that the law could take away sins, make perfect, or purify the heart. Why some Christian groups insist on going back under the law in some points is only explainable by 2 Cor. 4:4; 11:14-15; 2 Tim. 4:1-4; 2 Th. 2:8-12

y Christ died to redeem the O. T. saints who looked forward to the cross by faith as we look back to the cross by faith (11:1-40) z Final calling and election are based upon meeting the terms of God in our period of probation. It is at the end of a life of conformity to the gospel that we receive the eternal inheritance (1 Cor. 9:25-27; 2 Tim. 4:8; Jas. 1:12; 1 Pet. 1:4-5, 9, 13; 2 Pet. 1:4-10) a All redemptive covenants whether typical or actual were ratified by the death of a victim (v 16; Gen. 15:9-18)
b See New covenant ratified, p. 258
c Wherefore, as the death of a victim was necessary to ratify covenants, the first or Mosaic covenant was dedicated by blood (v 18-22)

e Quoted from Ex. 24:4-8. Cp. Mt. 26:28

a God did not will to redeem man by animal sacrifices, but by a human sacrifice of infinite merit. To this end He prepared a body for the eternal logos who came to do the will of God and die for the sins of the world (v 7-9; Gal. 1:4; 1 Pet. 2:24)

b This could be understood 2 ways:
1 He takes away the first sacrifices to establish the sacrifice of Christ (v 12)
2 He takes away the old covenant to establish the new covenant (p. 201)

c By the will of God in preparing Christ as a sacrifice we are sanctified and perfected (v 10-14). Cp. 1 Th. 4:3-7; 2 Th. 2:13

d In summing up his arguments for the abolishment of the law and the establishment of the new covenant, Paul emphasizes 2 things
1 The utter helplessness and emptiness of the earthly priests standing daily to minister sacrifices that can never take away sins (v 11)
2 The infinite power of the one sacrifice of Christ that cleanses from all sin, defeats the enemies of God, and perfects all believers for ever (v 12-14)

i Where sins are remitted, there is no need of an offering for sins any longer. Thus Paul concludes his argument of the priesthood of Christ, begun in 5:1. Christ's offering is efficacious for all past, present, and future sins, but on condition of proper confession of sin and meeting the terms of continued grace (1 Jn. 1:9; Rom. 10:9-10)

j See Christ better than O. T. sacrifices, p. 257

k Gr. parrhesia, liberty: full access to heaven (note o, Acts 4:13). The practical teaching of the epistle begins here (10:19-13:25). It is a grand conclusion to the doctrinal arguments of 1:1-10:18

l The high priest of the law could go only once a year into the holiest place on earth, but by the blood of Christ the least saint can have daily access to the holiest place in heaven (v 19)

m It is a newly made way and a living way. It is so-called because Christ was newly slain and because He, being the way to God, is alive forevermore (Jn. 14:6; Rev. 1:18). He is now alive within the veil (v 20; 7:25) n 7 commands for believers:

1 Draw near to God (v 22)
2 Have pure conscience (v 22)
3 Have clean bodies (v 22)
4 Have unwavering faith (v 23)
5 Provoke others to good works (v 24)
6 Be regular church attendants (v 25)
7 Exhort one another daily (v 25; 3:13)

o 4 ways to draw near to God:
1 By boldness (v 19; 4:14-16)
2 By the blood of Jesus (v 19)
3 By a new and living way (v 20)
4 By High Priesthood of Christ (v 21)

p An honest, earnest, sincere heart

q Gr. plerophoria, full conviction: certain (v 22; 6:11; Col. 2:2; 1 Th. 1:5)

r Not the body sprinkled by the water of separation, as under the law (Num. 19:2-10), but our hearts - the inner man, sprinkled by the blood of Jesus (v 22; 12:24; 1 Pet. 1:2). This is accomplished by faith in the blood (Rom. 3:24-25)

s See Conscience, p. 236

t Our bodies bathed, referring to actual cleanliness of body rather than to baptism (Lev. 15:8-27; 17:15-16)

u See note k, Heb. 3:1

v Jas. 1:4-8; Rom. 4:17; Mk. 11:22-24

w Gr. katanoeo. Trans. consider (v 24; 3:1; Mt. 7:3; Lk. 12:24, 27; Acts 11:6; Rom. 4:19); perceive (Lk. 6:41; 20:23); discover (Acts 27:39); and behold (Acts 7:31-32; Jas. 1:23-24)

x Gr. paroxusmos, to make keen: urge; prick; provoke; irritate; excite. Trans. provoke (v 24) and contention (Acts 15:39)

y Gr. episunagoge (note c, 2 Th. 2:1)

z It would seem here that some had forsaken the Christian gatherings, perhaps because of the persecutions referred to in v 32-33 written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou [a]wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. [b]He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

14 Because Old Covenant sacrifices were powerless but the New Covenant one is eternally efficacious (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24)

▸10 [c]By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jē'sus Christ once for all.

11 [d]And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, [e]sat down on the right hand of God;

13 [f]From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

▸14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Hō'lȳ Ghōst also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

*16 [g]This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, [h]I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;◂

▸17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 [i]Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

XI Warnings and admonitions (10:19-39). 1 Every believer is a priest and is exhorted to enter the holiest and enjoy his full rights in Christ (4:14-16; Eph. 1:3, 14; 2:14-22)

19 Having therefore, brethren, [k]boldness to [l]enter into the holiest by the blood of Jē'sus,

20 By a [m]new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over the house of God;

●22 [n]Let us [o]draw near with [p]a true heart in [q]full assurance of faith, having our [r]hearts sprinkled from an evil [s]conscience, and our [t]bodies washed with pure water.

●23 Let us hold fast the [u]profession of our faith [v]without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)◂

2 Our duty one to another

●24 And let us [w]consider one another to [x]provoke unto love and to good works:

●25 Not forsaking the [y]assembling of ourselves together, [z]as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and [a]so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

3 To apostatize means eternal punishment (4:6-9; 2 Pet. 2:20)

*26 For [b]if we sin [c]wilfully [d]after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, [e]there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a [f]certain [g]fearful looking for of judgment and [h]fiery indignation, which shall [i]devour the [j]adversaries.

28 [k]He that despised Mō'ses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 [l]Of how much [m]sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath [n]trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath [o]counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith [p]he was sanctified, an [q]unholy thing, and hath [r]done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

*30 For we know him that hath said, [s]Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, [t]The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the [u]living God.

4 Exhortation to patience and continued faith and endurance (3:14, refs.)

32 But call to remembrance the [v]former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of [w]afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by [x]reproaches and [y]afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

▸34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have [z]in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

●35 [a]Cast not away therefore your [b]confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.◂

36 For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

*37 [c]For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

5 Warning against backsliding and perdition (4:4-9; 10:26-29)

*38 [d]Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man [e]draw back, [f]my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; [g]but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

215 CHAPTER 11

XII Christ better than Old Testament faith examples (11:1-12:4). 1 Faith defined (Rom. 4:17)

a Christians should exhort one another to faithfulness, more and more, as the day of Christ draws near (note s, 1 Cor. 1:8)

b See 7 things we can do, p. 259

c Gr. hekousios, here, but trans. willingly in 1 Pet. 5:2

d After receiving the knowledge of the truth is the same as tasting the good Word of God, as in col. 2, p. 258

e 1st N. T. prophecy in Heb. (10:26-31). Next, 12:27. When one rejects Christ as the only sacrifice for sin, there remains no other. He will have to suffer the punishments of that rejection, as in note f, below. Such are wilful apostates, as in notes s and t, 6:4-9, and not ordinary backsliders. As long as a backslider retains his faith in Christ and His atonement he can be renewed to repentance, but if he totally rejects Christ and His gospel, he becomes hopeless (col. 2 and 3, p. 258)

f See 7 judgments of apostates, p. 259

g Gr. phoberos. Here: v 31; 12:21

h Jealousy; fervour of fire; or zeal of God in punishing apostates. A Hebraism. See Ps. 79:5; Ezek. 36:5; 38:19; Zeph. 1:18; 3:8

i Gr. esthio, to consume like an eating disease; to vex. Trans. devour (v 27); live of (1 Cor. 9:13); be eating (Mt. 26:26); and eat 53 times. Here it means eternal punishment for adversaries of God

j Gr. hupenantios, hostile; opposers. Trans. contrary in Col. 2:14 k He that rejected and denied the divine authority of the law died without mercy (Num. 15:30; Dt. 17:2-6)

l Question 14. Next, 11:32

m The offenses against the law were nothing compared to the 7 sins of note b, above; and punishment will be proportioned to the offence n Gr. katapateo. Trans. tread under foot (v 29; Mt. 5:13; Lk. 8:5; 12:1) and trample (Mt. 7:6). It means to treat the Son of God with utmost contempt and blasphemy

o Gr. hegeomai. Trans. count (v 29; Phil. 3:7-8; 2 Th. 3:15; 1 Tim. 1:12; 6:1; Jas. 1:2; 2 Pet. 2:13; 3:9); account (2 Pet. 3:15); esteem (Phil. 2:3; 1 Th. 5:13; Heb. 11:26); think (Acts 26:2; 2 Cor. 9:5; Phil. 2:6; 2 Pet. 1:13); suppose (Phil. 2:25). If one does this to the blood of Christ he is worthy of eternal punishment p He was sanctified - not could have been, but was sanctified. This refers to personal holiness by the blood (Heb. 13:12, 20; 1 Jn. 1:7; Eph. 1:7; Rev. 1:5), and proves that sanctified men can apostatize to the point of final rejection of Christ and be lost

q See Ultimate sin of apostates, p. 259

z An everlasting inheritance (9:15; 1 Pet. 1:4; Rom. 8:17-18) a Gr. apoballo, to throw away; lose. Here and Mk. 10:50. The reference is to cowardly soldiers, who throw away their weapons and flee from battle. Your confidence is your shield so keep it and use it (Eph. 6:10-18)

b Gr. parrhesia (note o, Acts 4:13) c 24th O. T. prophecy in Heb. (10:37; Hab. 2:3). Next, v 38. This refers to the coming of Christ (9:28; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 19:11-21)

d 25th O. T. prophecy in Heb. (10:38; Hab. 2:4). Next, 11:18. Faith is the beginning of justification (Rom. 5:1; Eph. 2:8-9). Faith is also the continuation of justification (v 38-39)

e Gr. hupostello, to let down; shrink back from. Trans. draw back (v 38); withdraw (Gal. 2:12); shun (Acts 20:27); and keep back (Acts 20:20). If Christians could not do this, these scriptures would mean nothing

f God has a soul (note r, Jn. 4:24)

g This is proof that those who draw back unto perdition lose their souls (v 39) a Gr. pistis, faith (note g, 2 Th. 3:2). See 18 definitions of faith, p. 259 b Gr. hupostasis, a support: ground work; confidence: substance; reality; essence (note n, 1:3). Used in the Papyri of title deeds f Gr. presbuteros (note g, Acts 14:23). The list of faith-worthies begins with Abel (v 4). No report is given of Adam and Eve - not a word of any repentance, faith, or holiness of life. Their spiritual and eternal fate is completely hidden g Gr. aion, ages (note c, Mt. 12:32; note k, Mt. 13:39; Plans the ages, p. 256) h Gr. katartizo (note a, 3, 2 Cor. 13:6). The ages were planned by the Word of God and the things that are now seen were not made of existing material. Both the ages and dispensations as well as the material creations are referred to here (Gen. 1:1; Heb. 1:2)

i ABEL: faith's worship (v 4):
1 Offered a sin-offering, acknowledging his own sinfulness and need of mercy
2 Cain offered a minchа, or eucharistic offering of the fruit of the ground, ignoring his sinfulness and personal need of God
3 Abel was justified by faith in Christ's blood which he acknowledged in type
4 God testified to his righteousness by accepting his sacrifice (Gen. 4:4)
5 By his faith in blood atonement he still preaches to men of such need 6 The word gifts indicates more than one offering, thus testifying his faith in the utter insufficiency of what he did offer, but true faith in what they typified j ENOCH: faith's walk (v 5):
1 He walked with God 300 years
2 He was translated that he should not see death in his generation
3 He could not be found because God had translated him (Gen. 5:21-24)
4 He had testimony that he pleased God by being a man of faith (v 5-6)
5 He has been living in heaven over 5,265 years (Gen. 5:22; Zech. 4:11-14; Rev. 11:4)
6 He will come back and die as one of the two witnesses (Rev. 11:3-11, notes) k Here we see the absolute necessity of faith and the secret of pleasing God l 4 secrets of answered prayer, p. 259
m NOAH: faith's work (v 7):
1 Warned of God of things not seen
2 Moved with fear - religious fear or reverence toward God, not from fear of losing his life
3 Prepared an ark to save his house
4 Condemned the world (Gen. 6:8-8:19; 1 Pet. 3:20)
5 Became heir of the righteousness - justified by faith (Rom. 3:21-31; 4:1-25) n ABRAHAM: faith's obedience (v 8-10):
1 Called to go into a new life and a new land (Gen. 12:1-4)
2 Promised the new land (Gen. 15:18)
3 Obeyed, not knowing whither he went
4 Sojourned in the promised land with Isaac and Jacob (v 9). Jacob was 15 years old when Abraham died
5 Dwelled in tents with his heirs
6 Looked for a permanent dwelling - a city in heaven (v 10, 13-16)
o The new Jerusalem, the capital city of God over the universe (v 10, 13-16; 12:22-23; 13:14; Rev. 3:12; 21:1-22:5)

q See The Master Builder, p. 259
r Gr. demiourgos, a maker; author; magistrate; one who calls men to work. Only here, but used by the Gnostics of the Creator of the world s SARA: faith's reckoning (v 11-12):
1 Received strength to conceive seed
2 Was delivered of a child when past age (v 11; Gen. 17:19; 21:1-8)
3 She reckoned or counted God to be true to His word (v 11, Cp. Rom. 4:19)
4 She was equal to being dead as far as having children was concerned (v 12)
5 Innumerable seed came from her by God's power through faith (v 11-12)

NOW [a]faith is the [b]substance of [c]things hoped for, [d]the evidence of things not seen.
2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

2 Creative faith of God (Rom. 4:17; 1 Cor. 13:13; 2 Pet. 3:5)

3 Through faith we understand that the [e]worlds [k]were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

3 ABEL: atoning or sacrificial faith (Gen. 4:4; Heb. 12:24)

4 By faith [i]Ă'bĕl offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

4 ENOCH: translation faith (Gen. 5:21-24; Jude 14)

5 By faith [j]Ē'nŏch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

5 Necessity of faith (Mt. 17:20; 21:21-22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; Jas. 1:5-8)

•6 But [k]without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God [l]must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

6 NOAH: active and preservation faith (Gen. 6:8-9:29; 2 Pet. 2:5)

7 By faith [m]Nō'ah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

7 ABRAHAM: obedient faith (Gen. 12:1-25:11; Rom. 4:1-25)

8 By faith [n]Ă'bră-hăm, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.
9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Ĭ'saac and Jă'cob, the heirs with him of the same promise:
10 For he looked for a [o]city which hath [p]foundations, whose [q]builder and [r]maker is God.

8 SARAH: life-giving faith (Gen. 17:15; 18:9; 21:1; Rom. 4:17)

11 Through faith also [s]Să'rā herself [r]received strength [b]to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she [t]judged him faithful who had promised.
12 Therefore [d]sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the [c]stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

9 Patient and hopeful faith: Abel to Abraham and Sarah (Rom. 8:24)

13 These all died in faith, not having received the [f]promises, but having seen them [g]afar off, and were persuaded of them, and [h]embraced them, and confessed that they were [i]strangers and [j]pilgrims on the earth.
14 For they that say such things [k]declare plainly that they seek a [l]country.
15 And truly, if they had been [m]mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had [n]opportunity to have returned.
16 But now they [o]desire a better country, that is, an [p]heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

10 ABRAHAM: tried faith (Gen. 22; 1 Pet. 1:7; Jas. 1:12)

17 By faith [q]Ă'bră-hăm, when he was tried, offered up Ĭ'saac: and he that had received the promises offered up his [r]only begotten son,
•18 Of whom it was said, [s]That in Ĭ'saac shall thy seed be called:
19 [t]Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a [u]figure.

11 ISAAC: revelation faith (Gen. 27:1-40; Heb. 11:10, 13-16)

20 By faith [v]Ĭ'saac blessed Jă'cob and Ē'saŭ concerning things to come.

12 JACOB: prophetic faith (Gen. 48:1-22; 49:1-28)

21 By faith [w]Jă'cob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Jō'şeph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

13 JOSEPH: authoratative faith (Gen. 50:22-26)

22 By faith [x]Jō'şeph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Ĭş'ra-el; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

14 AMRAM and JOCHEBED: fearless faith (Ex. 2:2; 6:20)

23 By faith [y]Mō'şes, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was [z]proper child; and

2 Chose affliction with God's people instead of enjoying pleasures of sin (v 25)
3 Esteemed the reproach of Christ greater than riches of Egypt (v 26)
4 Had his eyes fixed upon the reward of renouncing sin for Christ (v 26) c Gr. ameomai. Trans. refused (v 24; Acts 7:35) and deny 26 times (Mt. 10:33; 27:70-72; 1 Tim. 5:8; 2 Tim. 2:12; etc.). He rejected sonship and kingship on earth to gain the same things in heaven d Gr. sugkoucheo, to endure ill-treatment, wrong, hurt, or injury with. Only here e Moses had a revelation of the coming Messiah and looked forward to His day, as did Abraham (Jn. 8:56) f MOSES: faith's fearlessness (v 27). This refers to his contest with Pharaoh and the exodus from Egypt (Ex. 5:1-14:31). He feared not the visible king because he saw the Invisible One g MOSES: faith's protection (v 28; Ex. 12)
h ISRAEL: faith's preservation (v 29; Ex. 14:15-31; 15:1-27)
i ISRAEL: faith's miracle (v 30; Josh. 6)
j Gr. porne. Trans. harlot (v 31; Mt. 21:31-32; Lk. 15:30; 1 Cor. 6:15-16; Jas. 2:25; Rev. 17:5) and whore (Rev. 17:1, 15-16; 19:2) k RAHAB: faith's deliverance (v 31; Josh. 2:1, 9, 11; 6:23; Mt. 1:5; Jas. 2:25)
l Question 15. Next, 12:7
m GIDEON: faith's miraculous victory (v 32; Judg. 6:1-8:35)
n BARAK: faith's triumph (v 32; Judg. 4-5)
o SAMSON: faith's physical strength (v 32; Judg. 13:1-16:31) p JEPHTHAH: faith's boldness (v 32; Judg. 11:1-12:7)
q DAVID: faith's utter reliance (v 32; 1 Sam. 17:32-51; 23:2, 11; etc.)
r SAMUEL: faith's integrity (v 32; 1 Sam. 3:18; 7:1-17; 8:1-3; 12:16-24) s 17 works of faith (v 33-38):
1 Subdued kingdoms (Josh. 12; 2 Sam. 8)
2 Wrought righteousness (Gen. 15:6)
3 Obtained promises (Num. 14:30)
4 Stopped mouths of lions (Dan. 6)
5 Quenched fire (Dan. 3)
6 Escaped swords (1 Sam. 17:Ex. 18:4)
7 Were made strong (Heb. 11:11; Rom. 4:19)
8 Waxed valiant in fight (2 Sam. 23:8-23; 1 Sam. 14:13-15; Judg. 7)
9 Put armies to flight (1 Sam. 17:51)
10 Women had children resurrected (1 Ki. 17:17-24; 2 Ki. 4:18-37)
11 Endured torture (Gen. 39:20; Judg. 16:21-31)
12 Endured mockings, scourgings, bonds, and imprisonments (v 36; Gen. 39:20; Jer. 37:16; 38:6; 1 Ki. 22:27)
13 Suffered stonings (2 Chr. 24:21)
14 Endured death by sawing (v 37)
15 Suffered temptations (Gen. 39:1-17)
16 Suffered martyrdom by the sword (1 Sam. 22:18; 1 Ki. 19:10)
17 Suffered wanderings and afflictions (v 37-38; 2 Ki. 2:8, 13)

and famines (v 26-28)
(7) Cannibalism and destruction of cities (v 29-31. See also Dt. 11:2-6; 28:1-64). See Chastening, p. 259 t Gr. mastigoo, to whip; flog; beat. Always trans. scourge (Mt. 10:17; 20:19; 23:34; Mk. 10:34; Lk. 18:33; Jn. 19:1; Heb. 12:6)
u Question 16. Next, v 9
v If chastening is sickness, then all who become Christians are to be made sick. Is this the reward of righteousness?
w Question 17. Last question in Hebrews. True chastening or correction is by learning the will of God through the Word and by the Holy Spirit. As we live in the Spirit we are led, taught, and shown the will of God daily (Jn. 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-26; 1 Jn. 1:7). This is proper and true child training and if one rebels he has to be dealt with according to his sowing (Gal. 6:7-8) x Num. 16:22; Job 33:4; Eccl. 12:7; Isa. 42:5; Zech. 12:1; Heb. 12:23 they [a]were not afraid of the king's commandment.

15 MOSES: sacrificing, suffering, and enduring faith (Ex. 2:11-20; Acts 7:20-34)

24 By faith [b]Mō'ṣeṣ, when he was come to years, [c]refused to be called the son of Phā'raōh's daughter;

25 Choosing rather to suffer [d]affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach of [e]Christ greater riches than the treasures in Ĕ'gўpt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith [f]he forsook Ĕ'gўpt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

16 MOSES and ISRAEL: protecting faith (Ex. 12-14)

28 Through faith [g]he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith [h]they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Ĕ-gўp'tians assaying to do were drowned.

17 JOSHUA and ISRAEL: bold conquering faith (Josh. 5:13-6:27)

30 [i]By faith the walls of Jĕr'ĭ-chō fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

18 RAHAB: deliverance faith (Josh. 2:12-20; 6:25)

31 By faith the [j]harlot [k]Rā'hăb perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

19 Summary of faith worthies and their exploits

32 [l]And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gĕd'e-on, and [m]of Bā'rāk, and of [n]Săm'son, and of [o]Jĕph'tha-ē; of [p]Dā'vid also, and [q]Săm'u-el, and of the prophets:

33 [r]Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom... the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

20 All saints to be perfected together (9:15; 11:10-16; 13:14)

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, [a]received not the promise:

▸40 God having provided some better [b]thing for us, that they without us should not be made [c]perfect.

216 CHAPTER 12

21 Christ better than Old Testament faith worthies because He is the author and finisher of all faith: five commands

[a]WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

●2 Looking unto Jĕ'sus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the [c]joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is [d]set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

●3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 [e]Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

XIII Warnings and admonitions (12:5-13:23). 1 The Father's chastening: not to be despised (Prov. 3:11)

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, [f]My son, despise not thou the [g]chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art [h]rebuked of him:

▸6 For whom the Lord loveth he [i]chasteneth, and [j]scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

2 Chastening proof of sonship (1 Cor. 11:31-32; Rev. 3:19)

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; [k]for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof [l]all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

3 Wisdom of subjection to God

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: [m]shall we not much rather be in subjection unto [n]the Father of spirits, and live?

a The promise referred to here is that of the coming Messiah, the sum and substance of all the O. T. promises (v 39; 10:36-37; Lk. 1:67-79; Rom. 1:2-6). O. T. saints relied upon the promise of the Messiah, but did not live to see Him come in the flesh, fulfill His work of redemption, make the new covenant, and establish the church
b The better thing for us is no doubt the new covenant and its realities of which the old covenant sacrifices and rituals, even the sacrifices of Abel, Noah, and Abraham, were shadows. The verse could read, "God foresaw something better for us: He would not have them perfected without us."
c Gr. teleioo (note q, 2, Phil. 3:12)
d 5 things to do:
1 Lay aside every weight (v 1). Gr. ogkos, bulk; mass; heap; weight. In a bad sense it means arrogance, conceit. Paul's purpose here is to get the believer to lay aside whatever weight is hindering Christian progress
2 Lay aside the sin which doth so easily beset us (v 1). Gr. hamartia, missing the mark in a moral sense (note v, Jn. 1:29). The sin that easily besets is the one each person has been addicted to, whatever is his weakness
3 Run with patience the race set before us (v 1). Gr. agon, fight, conflict (note r, Phil. 1:30). Gr. agon. Trans. race (v 1); fight (1 Tim. 6:12; 2 Tim. 4:7); contention (1 Th. 2:2); and conflict (Phil. 1:30; Col. 2:1)
4 Look unto Jesus (v 2). He is the head of all the long train of faith heroes. He is the Author and Perfecter of our faith
5 Consider Him (v 3). Observe and analyze every part of His life and conduct, His courage in sufferings. See Christ better than O. T. heroes, p. 257 e The joy set before Him was the redemption of creation through doing the Father's will (Ps. 40:6).
f Mk. 16:19; Acts 2:34; Rom. 8:34; Eph. 1:20; Col. 3:1; Heb. 1:3; 8:1; 1 Pet. 3:22 g You have not been called upon to shed your blood in striving against sin h Quoted from Pr. 3:11-12
i Gr. paideia, child training (note e, Eph. 6:4)
j Gr. elengcho, convict (note, Jn. 16:8)
k 8 reasons when and why God chastises:
1 When men refuse to hear (Job 33)
2 When they commit iniquity (2 Sam. 7:14)
3 When men provoke God (Ps. 6:1; 38:1)
4 When they forsake God (Ps. 89:30-32)
5 When men refuse to judge themselves (1 Cor. 11:32)
6 When they stubbornly rebel (Dt. 11:2-6; Lev. 26:14-31; Num. 14)
7 When men sow to the flesh (Gal. 6:7-8)
8 When His children need instruction and correction (Heb. 12:5-10; Rev. 3:19)
2 kinds of chastening:
1 Child correction and training. The Gr. paideuo means child training. It is used of:
(1) Instruction to rebels (2 Tim. 2:25)
(2) Rebels learning not to blaspheme by being turned over to Satan (1 Tim. 1:20). Cp. 1 Cor. 5:5
(3) Men being educated in school or by private instructors (Acts 7:22; 22:3)
(4) Grace teaching men (Tit. 2:12)
(5) Christians being trained in the way of righteousness (Heb. 12:5-11; 1 Cor. 11:32; Rev. 3:19)
(6) Persecutions for the gospel through which Christians learn much (2 Cor. 6:9)
(7) Punishment of Christ who was accused of being a criminal (Lk. 23:16, 22)
2 Punishments upon rebels. It is simply the law of sowing and reaping in operation. For rebellion God promised certain curses and did allow certain plagues in Lev. 26
(1) Terror, consumption, burning ague, and material loss (v 16)
(2) Death, oppression and fear (v 17)
(3) Humbling and poverty (v 18)
(4) Weakness and crop failures (v 20)
(5) Human beings and stock killed by wild beasts (v 22)
(6) Wars, pestilences, defeat in war, a Even earthly parents chasten for only a few days. Shall we believe that God is less loving (Mt. 7:7-11)? Shall we say that sicknesses of life-long continuance are His doings and that He is the only parent who never gets through chastening His children? Is God one to continue chastening after obedience has been learned? Paul is here showing that God is a better parent than men, not a worse one. See Christ better than parents and others, p. 257

b This is the object of all the chastening (child training) and correction of God.

c His holiness, not the man-made kind that sets up human standards of dress and outward appearance which create pride and false humility and gender strife among Christians. God's emphasis is on inward holiness; man's on outward appearance (1 Sam. 16:7)

d Neither correction, restraint, rebuke, nor discipline are pleasant for the moment, but by these means obedient children and men are made (v 11)

e See 10 commands for Christians, p. 258

f Gr. anorthoo, to set upright again; restore; to set straight again. Trans. lift up (v 12); set up (Acts 15:16); and make straight (Lk. 13:13)

g Gr. paraluo, palsied, as trans. elsewhere (Lk. 5:18, 24; Acts 8:7; 9:33). Quoted from Isa. 35:3 of worn and sick persons who are totally discouraged. Here they are exhorted to take courage and persevere to the end (v 12-15)

h Make the straight path, lest you get into rough and stoney ways, become lame, and be prevented from reaching the goal. If you go into the proper path, though you have been wounded in a wrong path, your wound will be healed (v 13)

i Gr. dioko, to pursue; chase; seek after; follow closely (note r, Phil. 3:12)

j See note m, 1 Th. 4:3

k Gr. episkopeo, to look at; inspect; examine; pay regard to. Here; 1 Pet. 5:2

l Gr. hustereo, to come late for. Trans. fall or fall from (v 15); be behind (2 Cor. 11:5; 12:11); come short of (Heb. 4:1); lack (Mt. 19:20; Mk. 10:21; Lk. 22:35); want (Jn. 2:3); part which lacked (1 Cor. 12:24); come behind (1 Cor. 1:7); come short of (Rom. 3:23); be destitute (Heb. 11:37); be in want (Lk. 15:14; 2 Cor. 11:9); suffer need (Phil. 4:12); and be the worse (1 Cor. 8:8)

8 proofs Paul is warning Christians: They are instructed to:
1 Follow the faith heroes of Heb. 11 who compass them about (12:1)
2 Lay aside every weight (12:1)
3 Lay aside the besetting sin (12:1)
4 Run with patience the Christian race
5 Consider and look to Jesus, the Author and Perfecter of faith (12:2-4)
6 Recognize and submit to God's chastening as true sons in order to partake of His holiness (12:5-11)
7 Follow peace and holiness and meet other terms of blessing lest they fail of the grace of God (12:12-17)
8 The whole book is for Christians and to them, as proved by:
(1) We - the Christians (2:3; 3:6, 14; 4:14; 6:9, 19; 10:10, 26; 12:1; 13:10, 14)
(2) Let us - the Christians (4:1, 11, 14, 16; 6:1; 10:22, 23, 24; 12:1, 28; 13:13, 15)
(3) Their salvation (2:10)
(4) They were sanctified (2:11; 10:10, 29)
(5) Holy brethren (2:11-12; 3:1, 12; 10:19)
(6) Them - the saints (2:15, 18)
(7) Many other terms in all chapters are used which prove Christians are referred to, whether they are Jews or Gentiles m Gr. pikria, bitterness (v 15; Acts 8:23; Rom. 3:14; Eph. 4:31).

n Gr. pornos, male prostitute, fornicator. See 5 classes, col. 4, p. 213

4 Present and future fruits of chastening (Phil. 2:13)

10 For they verily for [a]a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, [b]that we might be partakers of [c]his holiness.

▸11 Now no[d]chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

5 Seven changes in view of failing God (6:4-6; 10:26-29)

●12 [e]Wherefore [f]lift up the hands which hang down, and the [g]feeble knees;

●13 And [h]make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

●14 [i]Follow peace with all men, and [j]holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

●15 [k]Looking diligently lest any man [l]fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness [m]springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

6 Warning of Esau (Gen. 25:27-34; 27:1-46; Mal. 1:1-5)

16 Lest there be any [n]fornicator, or [o]profane person, as Ē'saŭ, who for one morsel of meat sold his [p]birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: [q]for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

7 Believers do not come to Mt. Sinai and the law of bondage

18 [r]For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Mō'sēs said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

8 Believers come into an eightfold blessing in grace

22 But ye are come unto mount [s]Sī'ŏn, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm, and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and [t]church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the [u]spirits of just men made perfect, 24 And to Jē'sus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the [v]blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Ā'bĕl.

9 Warning against rebellion

●25 [b]See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we [c]turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

10 Future renovation of the heavens and the earth (2 Pet. 3:10-13; Heb. 1:10-12; Rom. 8:21; Rev. 21)

●26 [d]Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, [e]Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

●27 And this word, [f]Yet once more, signifieth the [g]removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which [h]cannot be shaken may remain.

●28 Wherefore [i]we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with [j]reverence and [k]godly fear:

29 [l]For our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER 13 — 217

11 Seven commands concerning Christian living

LET brotherly love continue.

2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby [m]some have entertained angels unawares.●

●3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the [n]body.

4 Marriage is honourable [o]in all, and the bed undefiled: [p]but whoremongers and [q]adulterers God will judge.

●5 Let your [r]conversation be without [s]covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, [t]I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.◂

6 So that we may boldly say, [u]The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

12 Command to respect ministers (1 Th. 5:12)

●7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

13 Christ always the same

▸8 Jē'sus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

14 Warning against false doctrines (Eph. 4:14; 1 Tim. 4:1-8; 2 Tim. 4:15; Phil. 3:17-19) a Only here and in 1 Pet. 1:2. It refers to the blood of Christ that speaks better things than the blood of Abel's offering (v 24; 11:4) b Gr. blepo, take heed; beware that you refuse not Christ who speaks from heaven (v 24-25; 1:1-2) c Gr. apostrepho, to turn back; to turn oneself away. Trans. turn away from (v 25; Mt. 5:42; Acts 3:26; Rom. 11:26; 2 Tim. 1:15; 4:4; Tit. 1:14); pervert (Lk. 23:14); put up again (Mt. 26:52); and bring again (Mt. 27:3). If there is no escape when one does this, then how could such a person be saved?

d This indicates that it was the voice of God that spoke the law on Sinai (1:1-2) e 27th and last O. T. prophecy in Heb. (12:26; Hag. 2:6, unfulfilled)

f 2nd N. T. prophecy in Heb. (12:27-29, unfulfilled). Next, 13:14. This refers to the renovation of the heavens and the earth by fire, as in 2 Pet. 3:10-13

g The renovation of the heavens and earth at the end of the Millennium will remove all things of the curse and those that are man made which need to be taken away, so that the things of God may remain eternally (v 27-29)

h Some things cannot be shaken. They will remain eternally. One is the earthly kingdom which cannot be moved (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-27; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 22:5)

i We receive the kingdom, that is, we shall be kings and priests of the eternal earthly kingdom (Dan. 7:18, 27; Zech. 14:5; Rom. 8:17-18; 1 Cor. 6:2-3; 2 Tim. 2:12; Jude 14; Rev. 1:6; 5:10; 22:5)

j Gr. aidos, reverence (note k, 1 Tim. 2:9)

k Gr. eulabeia, fear of the gods; piety; caution; discretion. Here: 5:7

r Gr. moichos (v 4; Lk. 18:11; 1 Cor. 6:9; Jas. 4:4; notes g and h, Mt. 5:32) s Gr. tropos, manner of life (Jude 7; Acts 1:11) and way (Rom. 3:2; Phil. 1:18)

t See note e, Lk. 12:15

u Taken from Josh. 1:5; 1 Chr. 28:20

v Quoted from Ps. 118:6

a Gr. periphero, to whirl about: revolve. See note t, 2 Cor. 4:10.
b An altar stood for the benefits of the sacrifices. In Christianity, it stands for the benefits of the death of Christ as well as being a place to meet God
c Here a comparison is made of the sacrifice of beasts and that of Christ: the animals being burnt without the camp and Christ being crucified without the gates of Jerusalem
d As Christ bore reproach by being led as a criminal outside of Jerusalem to die, let us be willing to bear persecution for Him (2 Tim. 3:12) e 3rd and last N. T. prophecy in Heb. (v 14; 11:10, 16; Rev. 21)
f By Christ let us offer the sacrifice of praise continually, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name, and not daily sacrifices of animals which could never take away sins (10:1-18)
g Gr. koinonia, fellowship (note b, 2 Cor. 13:14; note m, 2 Cor. 1:7)
h See 12 things, Num. 24:1

In many parts and ways (1:1)

In many parts and in many ways (Isa. 28:10). From all these parts we get a perfect harmony, as in musical sounds made up of different parts. There is only one plan of God for man. All the prophets gave perfect and harmonious testimony that Jesus Christ was the Son of God and Saviour of the world (Acts 10:43)

Plans the ages (1:2)

Gr. aion, age - a period of time whether long or short. Trans. world (v 2; Mt. 12:32; 13:39, note); age (Eph. 2:7; Col. 1:26); course (Eph. 2:2); and other ways. Here it means Christ was the agent in planning the ages and making God's plan for man. In this sense He is the everlasting Father (Isa. 9:6). He not only planned the ages, but all creations (Col. 1:15-18; Jn. 1:3; Eph. 3:9)

"In Son" (1:2)

Gr. en, as in note d of 1:1. There is no definite article here and no pronoun his. It reads, "In Son", emphasizing not only His sonship, but that He is the only Son in the sense of being begotten (Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:16, 18). Under the O. T. there were many parts, ways, and persons used in speaking to men, but in the N. T. all was done through the Son who fulfilled the law and the prophets and made the new covenant (Mt. 26:28; Acts 1:2).

8 facts about Christ (1:2-3):

1 Spokesman for God (v 2)
2 Appointed heir of all things (v 2)
3 Planner of the worlds (ages, v 2)
4 Brightness of God's glory (v 3)
5 Express image of God's person (v 3)
6 Upholder of all creations (v 3)
7 Saviour of the world - purged sins (v
8 Ascension and exaltation (v 3) 3)

Glory (1:3)

Gr. doxa, glory 145 times (v 3; 2:7, 9, 10; 3:3; 9:5; 13:21); glorious (Rom. 8:21; 2 Cor. 4:4; Phil. 3:21; Col. 1:11); praise (Jn. 9:24; 12:43; 1 Pet. 4:11); honor (Jn. 5:41, 44; 8:54; 2 Cor. 6:8; Rev. 19:7); worship (Lk. 14:10); and dignity (2 Pet. 2:10; Jude 8)

3fold office of Christ (1:9)

No man was ever anointed as prophet, priest, and king before Christ. Some were anointed kings, some prophets, and some priests, but in Christ all these offices are combined. He is Prophet to all men (Heb. 1:1-2), High Priest to the whole race (Heb. 3:1; 4:14-16; 5:6; 6:20; 7:11-17), and King of all nations (Dan. 7:13-14; Isa. 9:6-7; Zech. 14:9; Lk. 1:32-33; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)

10 reasons why salvation is great (1:3)

1 Its Founder - Christ preached it (v 3)
2 Its price - Death of only begotten Son (Jn. 3:16; Col. 1:20; 1 Pet. 2:24)
3 Its scope:
(1) Time and eternity (2 Cor. 6:2; Isa. 45:17; Heb. 5:9)
(2) Jews and Gentiles (Rom. 1:16)
4 Its benefits:
(1) Bodily healing (Acts 3:16; 4:9-12; Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Jas. 5:14)

●9 Be not [c]carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

15 Two altars compared

10 We have an [b]altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.
11 [c]For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.
12 Wherefore Jē'sus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.
●13 [d]Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

16 Our future home (Rev. 21)

●14 [e]For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

17 The believer's sacrifices

●15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.
●16 But to do good and to [f]communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is [g]well pleased.

18 Obey ministers (v 7)

●17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: [a]for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

19 Requests for prayer

18 [b]Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.
19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now the [c]God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jē'sus, that [d]great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of [e]the everlasting covenant,
21 [f]Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jē'sus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Ā-mĕn'.

21 Exhortation; benediction

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.
23 Know ye that our brother Tĭm'o-thȳ is [g]set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.
●24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Ĭt'a-lȳ salute you.
25 Grace be with you all. Ā-mĕn'.

Summary of Hebrews

Date and place: Written from Rome about 68 A. D. along with Gal. and 2 Tim.
Author: Arguments for Paul's authorship are:
1 The thoughts and reasonings are Paul's. Any difference in style is due to his writing to Jews as a Jew and not to Gentile churches as in other epistles. Furthermore, the translation of the book into Greek by Luke may account for some change in style
2 Peter confirms the fact that Paul wrote an epistle to Jews (2 Pet. 3:15-16)
3 The book of Hebrews is ascribed to him by over 100 ancient writers in both Greek and Latin, from 70 to 730 A. D.
4 It was received as Paul's by the council of Laodicea (363 A. D.), by the council of Carthage (397), by the Syrian churches (370), and generally by the Greeks and Eastern churches from the earliest centuries
5 Paul is named as the author in the Alexandrian MSS 500 A. D.
6 Some Latin churches questioned it only because Paul's name is not used in the introduction as in all his other epistles; but this was for 2 reasons
(1) Eusebius, the father of church history, explains that Paul wrote the epistle in Hebrew, leaving his name off so that it would be read and received more readily by Jews who hated him and would not want to listen to anything he had to say. Luke translated it into Greek, hence it is similar to Acts in expression. See The Ante-Nicene Fathers, Vol. 2, p. 579
(2) In the oldest MSS the epistle follows Galatians with the title To the Hebrews, indicating that it was part of the Galatian letter. If this be true, the authorship stated in Gal. 1:1 applies to both books. This would explain why Paul speaks of Galatians as a large letter (6:11). The Israel of God of Gal. 6:16 would be an appropriate introduction to the book of Hebrews
7 There is nothing in the epistle contrary to Paul's authorship. The truth is there is much internal evidence that Paul was the author:
(1) Both books argue at length on the abolishment of the old covenant
(2) Both anticipate the visit of the writer (Gal. 4:20; Heb. 13:19)
(3) Paul was the only writer of the N. T. who requested prayer for himself. Cp. Heb. 13:18 with note d, 2 Th. 3:1
(4) Many exhortations in Hebrews are similar to those of other epistles of Paul. Cp. Heb. 12:3 with Gal. 6:9; Heb. 12:14 with Rom. 12:18; Heb. 13:1-3 with Eph. 5:2-4; Heb. 13:16 with Phil. 4:18; Heb. 5:12 with 1 Cor. 3:2; Heb. 8:1 with Eph. 1:20; Heb. 4:6; 9:15; 12:24 with Gal. 3:19-20; 1 Tim. 2:5; Heb. 10:1 with Col. 2:17; Heb. 10:33 with 1 Cor. 4:9; Heb. 13:9 with Eph. 4:14; Heb. 13:10 with 1 Cor. 9:13; 10:18; Heb. 13:20-21 with Rom. 15:33; 16:20; 2 Cor. 13:11; Phil. 4:9; 1 Th. 5:23; Heb. 13:22 with Acts 24:16; etc.
(5) The author of both books wrote from Italy (Heb. 13:24)
(6) Paul was the only N. T. writer who wrote from prison and expected release (Heb. 13:19, 23 with Phil. 1:7-8, 13, 26; 2:23-24; etc.)
(7) No other writer of epistles mentions Timothy. Paul refers to him 20 times in his recognized epistles. Cp. Heb. 13:23. When Paul mentions Timothy to others he always calls him brother (2 Cor. 1:1; Col. 1:1; 1 Th. 3:2)
(8) The conclusion of the epistle is like others of Paul. Cp. Heb. 13:18-25 with the end of his other epistles
Theme: To present Jesus Christ as God, and as better than all men and angels; to prove that Judaism and the law have come to an end; to confirm Jewish Christians in the faith; and to set forth new covenant doctrines for all men
Statistics: 58th book of the Bible; 13 chapters; 303 verses; 6,913 words; 17 questions; 270 verses of history; 9 verses of fulfilled and 24 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

(2) Soul salvation (1 Pet. 1:9; 2 Cor. 7:10; Eph. 1:7; 2:8-9)
(3) Deliverances (Ex. 14:13; 1 Sam. 14:45; Isa. 33:2)
(4) Joy and peace (Ps. 20:5; 51:12; Isa. 12:3; Rom. 5:1-2)
(5) Preservation (Isa. 26:1)
(6) Daily benefits (Ps. 68:19)
5 Its infinity - It reaches to the greatest depths and the farthest ends to redeem, exalting the redeemed to the highest heavens (Eph. 3:18; Acts 13:47; Ps. 98:3; Isa. 49:6)
6 Its divine source (Ps. 25:5; 37:39)
7 Its confirmation (Heb. 2:3-4; Mk. 16:15-20, notes)
8 Its basic requisites - Grace and faith alone (Rom. 3:24-31; Eph. 2:8-9; Tit. 2:11)
9 Its exclusiveness (Acts 4:12)
10 Its utter simplicity of reception (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9)

22 warnings to Christians (3:7):

1 We ought to give the more earnest heed lest we slip away from truth (2:1)
2 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation (2:3)?
3 Whose house are we, if we hold fast the hope firm unto the end (3:6)
4 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the Living God (3:12)
5 Exhort one another daily. . . . lest any of you be hardened through sin (3:13)
6 We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold stedfast unto the end (3:14)
7 Let us therefore, fear, lest you come short of the promised rest (4:1-2)
8 Let us labour to enter into rest, lest any man fall through unbelief (4:11)
9 Let us hold fast our profession (4:14)
10 If they fall away, to renew them again unto repentance is impossible (6:4-9)
11 Show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end (6:11)
12 Be not slothful, but faithful and patient to inherit the promises (6:12)
13 Lay hold upon the hope of eternal life set before us (6:18-19)
14 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering (10:23)
15 If we sin wilfully we will receive judgment and fiery indignation (10:26-31)
16 Cast not away confidence (10:35)
17 If any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him (10:38-39)
18 Let us lay aside every weight and the sin that so easily besets us (12:1)
19 Make straight paths for your feet, lest the lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed (12:13)
20 Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled; lest any become a fornicator and sell his birthright like Esau (12:15-17)
21 See that ye refuse not God. For if Israel escaped not God's wrath when she refused Him, much more shall we not escape His wrath, if we turn away from Him (12:25)
22 Let us have grace and serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear, for God will punish by fire (12:28-29)

Christ is better (1:4)

34 Made in all things like men so He could redeem them (v 17)
35 Suffered temptation and won, so He could succor those tempted (v 18)

Christ better than Moses (3:3)

1 He has an heavenly calling (v 1)
2 The Apostle of our profession (v 1)
3 High Priest of our profession (v 1)
4 Christ is building His own house, the Church (v 6), but Moses did not build his house, Israel (v 3)
5 Christ as God created all things (v 4; 1:2; Eph. 3:9; Col. 1:15-18)
6 Christ is a son over His house, not a servant as Moses was (v 5-6)
7 Moses predicted Christ would be better than himself (v 5; Dt. 18:15-19)

Christ better than Joshua (4:8)

1 Jesus was God's only begotten Son; Joshua was not (1:5-7; 4:14)
2 Christ's followers enter rest now (v 3, 10; Mt. 11:28-30). Joshua did not give rest (v 8)
3 Christ provided real rest of which sabbath days under Joshua were mere types (v 9-10; Col. 2:14-17)
4 Christ provided eternal rest; Joshua did not (v 8-10)
5 Christ provided rest both here and hereafter; Joshua did not (v 8-10; Mt. 11:28-30)

Christ better than other priests (4:14)

1 Jesus Christ was God's only begotten Son (v 14; 1:5-7; 5:5; Jn. 3:16)
2 Not a descendent of earthly priests (7:11-14; Mt. 1:1)
3 Passed into heaven to minister to us (v 14; 7:25; Rom. 8:34)
4 Jesus Christ was sinless (v 3, 15)
5 He lives forever to help in time of need (v 16; 7:25)
6 Not taken from among men or ordained by them, but sent from heaven and ordained by God (5:1, 5; Jn. 3:16; Acts 10:38)
7 Christ a priest after the order of Melchisedec (5:6, 10, 20)
8 He was perfect (5:9)
9 Christ is the author of eternal salvation to all men who obey (5:9)
10 Made a way of access to God (4:14-16; 10:19-23)

Christ better than Melchisedec (7:3)

1 Christ will be the future eternal king of Jerusalem (Ezek. 43:7; 48:35; Zech. 14; Rev. 20); Melchisedec was the past temporary king (7:1)
2 Christ is an eternal priest (6:20; 7:17); Mel. temporary (7:1)
3 Christ is God (1:8; Jn. 1:1-2, 14); Mel. a man (7:4)
4 Christ eternal King of Righteousness (Jer. 23:6); Mel. temporary (7:2)
5 Christ eternal King of Peace (Isa. 9:6); Mel. temporary (7:2)
6 Christ is an eternal being (1:8; Jn. 1:1-2; Mic. 5:2; Isa. 9:6); Mel. was not (7:3, 6, notes)
7 Christ as an eternal being had no father, mother, beginning of days, or end of life (Mic. 5:2); Mel. had all these but they were not recorded (7:3, 6, notes)
8 Christ was the antitype; Mel. the type of an eternal priesthood (6:20; 7:17)

Christ better than Abraham (7:7)

1 Christ a member of the Godhead that made the covenant with Abraham and gave him promises (6:13-15; 1 Jn. 5:7)
2 Christ is the hope of Abraham (6:16-20; Col. 1:27)
3 Christ is eternal (6:20; Jn. 8:58; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 1:8-11)
4 Christ is the Saviour and Blesser of Abraham (6:20; 7:7; Gal. 3:13-18, 26-29)
5 Christ is Abraham's eternal High Priest of which Melchisedec was only a type (6:20; 7:3, 7-10, 14-21)
6 Abraham payed tithes to Christ's eternal priesthood (7:2, 4-10)
7 Christ is only begotten Son of Abraham's God (7:3; Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:16)

Christ better than Aaron (7:19)

1 Makes perfect (v 11, 19; 10:14)
2 Of a higher order (6:20; 7:1-21)
3 A priest after a higher law (7:16)
4 An eternal priest (7:16-17, 21)
5 A priest of an all powerful and more profitable covenant (7:18)
6 A priest of a better hope (7:19)
7 A priest of a better way of approach to God (7:19; 10:19-23)
8 A priest by God's oath (7:21; Ps. 110:4)
9 A priest of a better covenant based upon better promises (7:22; 8:6)
10 Unchangeable (7:23-25, 28; 10:12-14)
11 Able to save (7:25; 10:1-18)
12 An eternal intercessor (7:25)
13 Holy, harmless, undefiled, and separate from sinners (7:26-27)
14 Exalted to heaven (7:26; 1:3; 8:1; 12:1-2)
15 No daily sacrifices (7:27; 10:10-14)
16 An all-sufficient sacrifice (7:27; 10:10-14)
17 Not infirm (7:28; Mt. 8:17)
18 Consecrated forever (7:28)
19 Minister of the true and the heavenly temple (8:1-2; 9:11)
20 Ministers realities (8:4-5; 10:1-4)
21 A more excellent ministry (8:6)
22 Mediator of a better covenant based upon better promises (8:6)

Christ better than O.T. sacrifices (10:18)

1 His sacrifice ratifies the new covenant based upon better promises (8:6-13; 9:15-22; 10:16)
2 Makes a way of personal approach to God (9:8; 10:19-23)
3 Makes perfect (9:9; 10:1-14)
4 Ministers realities (9:11; 8:5; 10:1)
5 Makes entrance to heaven (9:12)
6 Obtains eternal redemption (9:12-7 Purifies the soul (9:12-14, 15)
8 Gives eternal inheritance (9:15)
9 Opens an heavenly ministry (9:24)
10 Ends the many sacrifices (9:25-26)
11 Assures justice (9:27; 10:26-31)
12 Abolishes the law of Moses (10:9; Col. 2:14)
13 Sanctifies all believers (10:14)
14 Takes away sins (10:10-18)
15 Makes atonement complete (10:12-14)
16 Defeats enemies (10:13; Col. 2:14-17 Forgets forgiven sins (10:17) 17)
18 Remits confessed sins (10:18)
19 Gives boldness of approach to God (10:19-23; 4:14-16)
20 Gives man an eternal High Priest (10:25-39; 6:20; 7:11-21)

Christ better than O.T. heroes (12:1-3):

1 Creator of all (1:2; 11:3)
2 Author and perfecter of their faith (12:1-2)
3 Their Saviour (12:2; 10:1-18)
4 The one they all looked for and had faith in (11:4-40)

Christ better than parents, others (12:11)

1 Christ suffered more than they (12:3)
2 His chastening to a better end (12:10)
3 Not a fornicator as Esau (12:16-17)
4 Provided better way to God (12:18-24)
5 Provided better covenant (12:24)
6 Provided better atonement (12:24)
7 Speaks from heaven (12:25-29)
8 Gives us a kingdom (12:28)
9 The same always (13:8)
10 Sanctifies us (13:12-13)
11 The way of goodness and praise (13:15-16)
12 The Great Shepherd and source of perfection and works (13:20-21)

Partakers of heavenly calling (3:1)

Gr. methchos, partaker (v 1, 14; 6:4; 12:8); partner (Lk. 5:7); and fellow (Heb. 1:9). All holy brethren are partakers, partners, and fellows in the heavenly calling. Israel had an earthly calling and those who are alive when the Messiah comes will enter an earthly program of replenishing the earth forever. Those of both Jews and Gentiles who are saved and who will partake of the resurrection will be kings and priests to reign over the earth and all other creations forever. They will help God administer the affairs of the universe in all eternity (Rev. 1:5-6; 5:10; 22:4-5). Their calling is heavenly in that they will not be limited to an earthly program as all men would have been if man had not sinned (Gen. 1:27-31). Cp. Mt. 22:30; Lk. 20:34-35; Heb. 11:10-16; 12:22-23)

14 blessings of the blood (9:22):

1 Atonement for the soul (Lev. 17:11; Rom. 3:24; 5:11; Col. 1:20)
2 Remission of sins (Mt. 26:28; Rom. 3:24-25; Heb. 9:22; Eph. 1:7)
3 Life and peace (Rom. 5; Col. 1:20)
4 Redemption (Rom. 3:24-25; Eph. 1:7; Heb. 9:12-15; 1 Pet. 1:18-23; Rev. 5:9)
5 Justification (Rom. 5:9; Gal. 3:6-14; Acts 13:38-39)
6 Made nigh (Eph. 2:13; Heb. 10:19)
7 Pure conscience (Heb. 9:14)
8 Cleansing from sin (1 Jn. 1:7)
9 Sanctification (Heb. 10:10-14; 13:20)
10 New covenant (Mt. 26:28; Heb. 10:29; 12:24; 13:20)
11 New birth (1 Pet. 1:18-23)
12 Overcoming power (Rev. 12:11)
13 Church membership (Acts 20:28)
14 Salvation (Ps. 51; Heb. 9:15)

Angelic apostles (1:14)

Gr. apostello, to send forth as a messenger with a commission, the sender remaining behind. The noun, apostle, denotes one thus sent. Here angels are sent like apostles to minister to the heirs of salvation. It is used of the apostles in Mt. 10:5, 16; Mk. 3:14; 6:7. The word is used 133 times and generally of special missions, not of a permanent work or calling. This may help us to understand why the disciples made a failure in Mt. 17, after being sent on the special mission with power to heal and represent Christ in the cities He was to visit on a special tour. They evidently received power for this one mission, Christ knowing that their full reception of power would come later at Pentecost (Acts 1:8)

Heirs of salvation (1:14)

Gr. kleronomeo, heirs (v 14; Gal. 4:30); obtain by inheritance (Heb. 1:4); and to inherit (Mt. 5:5; 19:29; 25:34; Mk. 10:17; Lk. 10:25; 18:18; 1 Cor. 6:9-10; 15:50; Gal. 5:21; Heb. 6:12; 12:17; 1 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 21:7). Salvation, like eternal life, is not an unforfeitable possession until we inherit it fully in the next life (Rom. 13:11; 1 Th. 5:9; Heb. 9:28; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13)

18 safeguards for Christians (2:1):

1 Hearing (2:1)
2 Heeding (3:12)
3 Exhorting (3:13)
4 Fearing (4:1)
5 Laboring (4:11)
6 Coming (4:16; 10:19-20)
7 Leaving (6:1)
8 Showing (6:11-12)
9 Drawing (10:22)
10 Holding (3:6; 10:23)
11 Laying (12:1)
12 Looking (12:2; 15)
13 Considering (12:3)
14 Lifting (12:12)
15 Making (12:13)
16 Following (12:14)
17 Going (13:13)
18 Obeying (13:17)

Liberty in prayer (3:6)

Gr. parrhesia, freedom of speech; liberty of access to God. See note o, Acts 4:13. Here it refers to absolute confidence of access to God because all sins which separated from God are removed (Isa. 59:1-2). In O.T. days men were not permitted to approach God. Even the mountain on which God gave the law was not to be touched by man or beast. Only the high priest was permitted in the holy of holies once a year; and even then he could not approach God without proper atonement. Now, we all have free and daily access to God by the blood of Jesus (Heb. 10:19-23; Eph. 2:18). We are invited to come boldly to the throne of grace to obtain help in time of need (Heb. 4:14-16). As long as we hold fast to this liberty of access to God we are His house (v 6). If sin is in the life we do not and cannot have this liberty of access. God will not hear our prayers (1 Jn. 3:20-23; 5:14-15). See Ps. 66:18

14 oaths of God in Scripture (7:21):

1 To Abraham (Gen. 12:1-3; 15:18-21; 22:16-18; Lk. 1:72-74; Heb. 6:13-14)
2 Confirmed in Isaac (Gen. 26:3; Ps. 105:9-11; Jer. 11:5)
3 Confirmed in Jacob (Gen. 28:13-15; Ps. 105:9-11)
4 Confirmed in Israel (Dt. 29:1-15)
5 To rebellious Israel (Dt. 1:34-35; Heb. 3:11, 18; 4:3; Ps. 95:11)
6 To rebellious Moses (Dt. 4:21)
7 To David (2 Sam. 7; Ps. 89:4, 35; 132:11; Acts 2:30-32)
8 To Israel to destroy Antichrist (Isa. 14:24-27; Rev. 19:11-21)
9 To all creatures that they must bow to God (Isa. 45:23; Phil. 2:9-11)
10 Of the destruction of the temple (Jer. 22:5)
11 Of the perpetual desolation of Bozrah (Jer. 49:13)
12 Of the eternal destruction of Babylon (Jer. 51:14; Isa. 13-14)
13 Of Messiah and His everlasting priesthood (Ps. 110:4; Heb. 7:21, 28)
14 Of the new covenant to take the place of the law (Isa. 49:8; 59:21; 61:8; Jer. 32:40; Rom. 11:27; Heb. 8:6-13; 10:16)

God still swears that (3:16):

1 The soul that sinneth, it shall surely die (Ezek. 18:4)
2 Whosoever sinneth against Me, him will I blot out of My book (Ex. 32:32-33; Rev. 3:5; 22:19)
3 When a righteous man sins he will die for his iniquity (Ezek. 18:26; 33:18)
4 The wages of sin is death Rom. 6:23; 8:12-13; Gal. 5:21; 6:7-8)
5 If you live after the flesh you will die (Rom. 8:12-13)
6 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God (1 Cor. 6:9-11)
7 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy (1 Cor. 3:17; 6:9-11; Rom. 8:12-13; Rev. 21:8)
8 They which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God (Gal. 5:19-21)
9 They that commit such things are worthy of death (Rom. 1:21-32)
10 If we deny Him He also will deny us (2 Th. 2:12)
11 Every man will be judged according to his deeds (Rom. 2:6)
12 He that soweth to the flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption (Gal. 6:7-8)

These scriptures and many others like them apply to everybody. God is under oath to enforce these laws regardless of who is guilty, a sinner or professing Christian (see p. 284-285)

8 facts about Christ (5:7):

1 His sufferings were in the days of His flesh on earth (v 7)
2 He prayed with supplications, strong crying and tears to God (v 7)
3 He prayed to be saved from death, not from death on the cross, for He was not saved from this
4 He was heard and saved from death by satanic powers which tried to kill Him in the garden of Gethsemane before He could get to the cross where He was to fulfil prophecy and complete atonement (note c, Mt. 26:39; note s, t, and v, Lk. 22:43-44; 1 Pet. 2:24; Gal. 3:13)
5 He learned obedience by His sufferings
6 Was made perfect by His sufferings
7 By means of suffering He made atonement and became the author of eternal salvation to all who will obey Him
8 Was called of God to be an high priest after the order of Melchisedec

7 facts about Word of God (4:12):

1 Gr. zao, to live; to be full of vigor; be strong; powerful; active. Trans. quick (v 12; Acts 10:42; 2 Tim. 4:1; 1 Pet. 4:5); lively (Acts 7:38; 1 Pet. 1:3; 2:5); and to live and be alive 112 times. Not the same as zoe, living (Rev. 4:6, note)
2 Gr. energes, Trans. powerful (v 12) and effectual (1 Cor. 16:9; Ph'm 6)
3 Gr. tomoteros, sharper. Only here
4 Piercing even to divide asunder the soul and spirit
5 Dividing the joints and marrow
6 Discerns the thoughts
7 Discerns the intents of the heart

Eternal rest (4:9)

1 The rest that remains for the people of God could not be:
(1) The sabbath of Gen. 2:1-4, for this was God's rest and not man's
(2) The sabbath of Ex. 20:8-11
(3) The rest in the promised land, for both David and Paul spoke of a future rest long after these 3 rests (v 7-10)
2 The rest that remains for the people of God is twofold:
(1) Rest in Christ (Mt. 11:28-30; Heb. 4:3)
(2) Eternal rest in the next life (Heb. 3:11, 18; 4:1, 5, 9-11; Rev. 14:13)

10 commands for Christians (12:12-17):

1 Lift up the hands which hang down
2 Strengthen the feeble knees (v 12)
3 Make straight paths for your feet
4 Let the lame be healed (v 13)
5 Follow peace with all men
6 Follow holiness (v 14)
7 Look diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God (v 15; Gal. 5:4)
8 Look diligently lest any root of bitterness springing up defile you (v 15)
9 Look diligently lest you become a fornicator as Esau (v 16)
10 Look diligently lest you be rejected and find no repentance (v 16-17)

6 first principles of Christianity (6:1):

1 Repentance (v 1; note i, Mt. 4:17)
2 Faith in God through Christ (v 1; Rom. 3:24-25; 5:1-11; 1 Cor. 1:18-24; 15:1-8)
3 Baptisms (note n, Mt. 3:6)
(1) Baptism into Christ
(2) Water baptism (Mt. 28:19)
(3) Spirit baptism (note n, Mt. 3:6)
4 Laying on of hands when
(1) Blessing men (Gen. 48:14)
(2) Making offerings (Num. 8:10)
(3) Ordaining (Num. 27:18, 23)
(4) Imparting Spirit (Dt. 34:9)
(5) Blessing children (Mt. 19:15)
(6) Healing sick (Mk. 6:2, 5; 16:18; Lk. 4:40; 13:13; Acts 5:12; 28:8)
(7) Performing miracles (Acts 19:11)
(8) Imparting gifts (1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6; Heb. 6:2)
(9) Imparting the Spirit baptism (Acts 8:17-24; 9:17; 19:6)
5 Resurrection of the dead (v 2; 1 Cor. 15; 1 Th. 4:13-16; 2 Th. 2:7, note)
6 Eternal judgment (v 2; Mt. 25:46; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:11-15; Isa. 66:22-24)

5fold former state of apostates: (6:4)

1 Were once enlightened, but not now enlightened (v 4). Thayer's Greek Lexicon says this refers to "those who have been made Christians." Paul uses the same term of saved men elsewhere (Eph. 1:18; Heb. 10:32; Cp. Ps. 19:7-8; Lk. 11:34-36). Only saints are called children of light (Eph. 5:8; Col. 1:12; 1 Th. 5:5) and only saved men are spoken of as being in the light (Mt. 5:14-15; Lk. 16:8; Jn. 3:20-21; 8:12; 12:36; Rom. 13:12; Eph. 5:14; Col. 1:12; 1 Jn. 1:7; 2:9-10). Only men who have not been saved are spoken of as being darkened from gospel light (2 Cor. 4:4; Eph. 4:18; 5:8; Col. 1:13; 1 Th. 5:5; 1 Pet. 2:9; 1 Jn. 1:6; 2:8-11)
2 Have tasted of the heavenly gift (v 4). The Gr. genomai, have experience of. Trans. to eat (Acts 10:10; 20:11; 23:14) and to taste (v 4, 5; 2:9; Mt. 16:28; 27:34; Mk. 9:1; Lk. 9:27; 14:24; Jn. 2:9; 8:52; Col. 2:21; 1 Pet. 2:3). How could one taste death, taste the Lord, taste the heavenly gift, and other things of these passages without experiencing them?
3 Were made partakers of the Holy Ghost (v 4). Gr. metochos, partner and fellow with (note 1, 3:1). No sinner is a partaker of the Holy Ghost (Rom. 8:9-16). It is almost blasphemy to accuse the Holy Ghost of being a partner, sharer, and an associate with the ungodly. Jesus said that sinners cannot receive the Holy Ghost (Jn. 14:17). Jude confirmed the same truth (Jude 19)
4 Have tasted the good Word of God (v 5). To taste the Word of God is to be saved, as proved in Mt. 13:20-23; Lk. 8:13-15; Jn. 15:3; Acts 2:41; 4:4; 8:14; 11:1; 17:11; Rom. 10:9-10; Eph. 5:26; Jas. 1:18-25; 1 Pet. 1:18-23. No man receives the Word and remains unsaved
5 Have tasted the powers of the world to come (v 5). To taste of these powers means to experience eternal life. Every time such statement is found it refers to eternal life (Mk. 10:30; Lk. 18:30; 20:35). See notes on 10:28-29

5fold apostasy and end of apostates: (6:6)

1 If they shall fall away (v 6). How could they fall away from the experiences of v 4-5 if they never did have them? The language is past tense and factual so it cannot be denied that the ones referred to did at one time have these experiences
2 Gr. parapipto, to fall aside; apostatize; fall away. It means to throw overboard all faith in the experiences of the gospel and deny them. Men are here warned that such is possible
3 To renew them again to repentance is impossible. The reason given is that they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put Him to open shame. This is the final act of apostasy. They publicly judge Him an imposter and worthy of death. That is, they do not believe in Him or His atonement any longer. Since such faith is the only thing that could renew them again to repentance, it then becomes impossible. How could they be renewed again to repentance if they had not experienced repentance before? The word again means once more; another time; anew; and this requires repentance once before
4 Gr. adokimos, rejected (v 8). See note o, 1 Cor. 9:27
5 The end of apostates (v 8). Just like that which bears thorns and briers is burned, so apostates are to be punished in eternal hell (Isa. 66:22-24; Mt. 25:46; Mk. 9:43-49; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:10-15)

16 things the law unprofitable in (7:18):

Gr. anepheles. Only here and Tit. 3:9. The law was unprofitable in:
1 Redemption from sin (8:15; 10:1-18)
2 Making perfect (7:19; 10:1)
3 Giving eternal inheritance (Rom. 4:13)
4 Freeing from sin and death (Rom. 8:2-3)
5 Imparting faith (Gal. 3:12)
6 Giving life (2 Cor. 3:7; Gal. 3:21)
7 Purging the conscience (9:9; 10:1-4)
8 Working miracles (7:18; Rom. 8:3)
9 Giving access to God (9:7-8; 10:19)
10 Giving mercy (10:28) 19-23)
11 Justification (Gal. 2:16; Rom. 4)
12 Imparting righteousness (Rom. 3:21-25)
13 Imparting the Spirit (Gal. 3:1-5, 14)
14 Providing realities (Col. 2:14-17; 8:5; 10:1)
15 Sanctification (10:9-14)

6fold character and position of Christ: (7:26)

1 Holy (v 26; 1 Pet. 2:22)
2 Harmless, Gr. akakos, without evil. Trans. simple (Rom. 16:18)
3 Undefiled, Gr. amiantos, here; 13:4; Jas. 1:27; 1 Pet. 1:4. Here it means that He had no bodily imperfection and nothing low, base, or unbecoming in His life and conduct
4 Separate from sinners, Gr. chorizo. Trans. separate (v 26; Rom. 8:35, 39) and put asunder (Mt. 19:6; Mk. 10:9). He lived a perfect life not being unequally yoked together with sinners in their sinful ways
5 Made higher than the heavens. He was more exalted than angels and all other created beings of heaven (v 26; Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:9-11; 1 Pet. 3:22)

Melchisedec (7:3)

Without descent, genealogy. He had no recorded father, mother, birth, or death. As in v 6, his genealogy was not counted or recorded, so that he could be a type of the Son of God who really had no father, mother, birth, or death as a Divine Being (Isa. 9:6; Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1-2; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 1:8-11). As God Christ was not begotten, was not God's Son, and had no birth or death. Only as man did the second person of the Divine Trinity have a begetting, a father, a mother, a birth and a death (note f, Acts 13:33)

2fold purpose of Paul:

1 To show that Jesus Christ was the person prophesied of in Ps. 110, which psalm the Jews uniformly held to refer to the coming Messiah
2 To answer the objections of the Jews against Christ's priesthood on the grounds that He did not come from priestly stock and could not be the antitype of Aaron or fulfill Lev. 21:10-15. From the Jewish viewpoint Christ would be further disqualified because:
(1) No proselyte could be a priest
(2) No slave could be a priest
(3) No bastard could be a priest (Jews accused Him of being illegitimate)
(4) No son of a Nethinim (temple servant of the priests) could be one
(5) No man whose father exercised a base trade such as the carpenter trade. Many Jews considered Him unfit to be a priest because of this

Here Paul shows that it was not necessary for the priest to come from a particular stock, for Melchisedec was a priest of the most high God and not from Abraham or Aaron. He was a Canaanite. See 10 facts about, p. 248

Jews considered any person not in the regular genealogies of Israel to be without father and without descent or genealogy. Then, too, Jews considered Melchisedec to be without father and without mother because he was a righteous man and should not be classed with the heathen. This peculiar phraseology was not uncommon when a person was unknown or obscure. Such was their way of signifying that the parents were unknown

Change in law and priesthood (7:12)

The priestly order of Aaron now being abrogated, to make way for the original priesthood that preceded it, the order of Melchisedec, this made it necessary to change also the law and abolish all its sacrificial offerings which could not bring perfection, reconcile men to God, make them holy or take away sins (v 12; 10:5-10). God designed to change the law and its priesthood, to introduce Jesus Christ as the only Priest and Sacrifice and substitute the gospel system for the Levitical institutions

Christ's eternal human body (7:27)

He offered His body - the one God prepared for Him to offer as a sacrifice for all men (Heb. 10:1-14). Since it was His body that died for sin, it was necessary for the same body to be resurrected and ascend into heaven to represent men. This is what is stated in v 25, He ever liveth. He is ever to live in the same body that lived and died on earth (Lk. 24:39; Acts 1:11; Zech. 13:6). Thus by His eternal intercession and presentation of His resurrected humanity before God He represents man in heaven and makes it possible for God to justify men who meet His terms (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 3:21-26; 10:9-10)

7 facts about Christ (8:1):

1 Our High Priest (3:1; 6:20; 7:11-28)
2 Exalted at God's right hand (8:1; 1:3; 12:2; Rom. 8:34; Eph. 1:20)
3 Minister of realities of which the law was a shadow (8:2-6; 9:22-28; 10:1-12)
4 An heavenly Priest (8:1-5; 9:23-24)
5 Mediator of the new covenant (8:6; 9:15; Mt. 26:28)
6 Became the only and true sacrifice (8:3; 9:11-28; 10:1-18; 1 Pet. 2:24)
7 Source of all blessings:
(1) Mercy (8:12)
(2) Remission of sins (8:12; 10:1-18)
(3) Good things to come (9:11; 10:1)
(4) Eternal redemption (9:12-15)
(5) Purged conscience (9:14)
(6) Eternal inheritance (9:15)
(7) Representation (9:24)
(8) Victory over man's enemies (10:13)
(9) Sanctification (10:10)
(10) Perfection (10:14)
(11) Forgetting of sins (10:17-18)
(12) Access to God (10:19)

True Bible types (9:10)

Not only were the tabernacle and its services of the time then present (v 9), a parable or an illustration of good things to come but they were nothing more than temporary outward rites and ceremonies to be observed until the setting of all things right when the Messiah should come (v 10). They stood only for the body and could not save the soul. The word carnal simply refers to that which is natural, not necessarily sinful. It is not used in a sinful sense here and in many other places. (See note h, Rom. 7:14). Had these carnal ordinances been sinful God would not have commanded them to be observed, nor could they have been shadows of good things to come (8:5; 10:1)

New covenant ratified (9:16)

Gr. diatitheml, arrange: to make a covenant with; appoint; to dispose of by a will; make a testament. Trans. testator (v 16-17); make (Acts 3:25; Heb. 8:10; 10:16); and appoint (Lk. 22:29). In this case the word refers to the death of Christ who was charged to make the new covenant with man. Since the victims involved were under the penalty of death for their sins, and since the covenant had to do with redemption of these victims from their sins by the death of a substitute, it was necessary for the one making the covenant to die in order to redeem those He volunteered to free from death (v 16). Such a covenant could only be in force after the victim was dead and the covenant ratified by such death (v 17)

7 kinds of tabernacles (8:2):

1 Temporary dwellings (Mt. 17:4; Mk. 9:5)
2 Tabernacle of Moloch (Acts 7:43-
3 Kingdom of David (Acts 15:16) 44)
4 Heavenly sanctuary (Heb. 8:2; 9:11)
5 Mosaic tabernacle (Heb. 8:5; 9:2, 6, 8, 21; 13:10)
6 Tents of dwelling (Heb. 11:9)
7 The Holy City (Rev. 13:6; 21:2-23)
The heavenly tabernacle is called the temple of God in Isa. 6:1; Rev. 3:12; 7:15; 11:19; 14:15, 17; 15:5-8; 16:1, 17

The perfect sacrifice (9:26)

Gr. sunteleia, ages. At the end of the ages of preparation for the Messiah, Christ has come to put away sin by His own sacrifice (v 26). The Gr. word for sin here is hamartia, missing the mark. It is used in connection with the sin offering in Heb. 9:26; 10:6, 8, 18; 13:11. The meaning here is no doubt that Christ has come to do away with the sin-offerings of the Mosaic system by His one offering which cleanses from all sin. It is a historical fact that after Christ died the sacrifices of the law ceased. Jews have had no sacrifices for 1900 years (Hos. 3:4-5)

Man's inescapable appointment (9:27)

Gr. apokeimai, be laid up in store; be in reserve. Trans. appoint (v 27); be laid up (Lk. 19:20; Col. 1:5; 2 Tim. 4:8). It is appointed or laid up by divine decree: "Dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return" (Gen. 3:19). This law of death will hold firm for all men until the time of the rapture when the living who are to be translated will not see death (1 Cor. 15:51-58; 1 Th. 4:13-16; Phil. 3:21). All who live at the end of the Millennium and who do not rebel against God will be permitted to live on the new earth forever without dying. Death will be destroyed and all things will be again as they were before Adam sinned (Rev. 20:7-10; 21:1-22:5; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)

Death ends probation (9:27)

After death the judgment, not a second chance to live on earth and be saved. Death ends all probation for the one who dies. If he is righteous at death his soul and spirit go to heaven awaiting the resurrection of the body (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11). If he is wicked at death his soul and spirit go to hell to await the resurrection of his body (Lk. 16:19-31; Isa. 14:9; Rev. 20:11-15). There is no such thing as purgatory or a second chance to be on probation in the Millennium or any other time. Neither is there a re-incarnation or a transmigration from body to body

7 things we can do (10:26):

1 Sin wilfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth (v 26)
2 Renounce Christ as the only sacrifice after we have received Him (v 26)
3 Despise the gospel after we have received its knowledge (v 26, 28)
4 Tread under feet the Son of God after knowing Him (v 29)
5 Count Christ's blood that one time sanctified us, an unholy thing (v 29)
6 Do despite or blaspheme the Holy Spirit of grace that we have received (v 29)
7 Become an adversary after knowing the truth (v 26-27)

7 judgments of apostates (10:27):

7 judgments we shall experience if we do the seven things above;
1 Have no other sacrifice for sins
2 Certain fearful judgment (v 27)
3 Fiery indignation that will devour all adversaries (v 27)
4 Sorer punishment than being stoned to death under the law (v 28-29)
5 Vengeance from God (v 30)
6 Full judgment and recompense for sins committed (v 30-31)
7 Fearful handling by God (31)

Remembrance of former days (10:32)

1 They were illuminated (v 32)
2 Endured persecutions (v 32; Acts 8:1; 9:1; 12:1)
3 Were exhibited in theatres (v 33). Gr. theatrizomai. Only here. Cp. 1 Cor. 4:9
4 Became companions of other suffering Christians (v 33). Gr. koinonos (note m, 2 Cor. 1:7)
5 Had compassion on Paul (v 34). Gr. sumpatheo. Trans. sympathized here and feeling in 4:15
6 Took joyfully the spoiling of goods for the gospel's sake (v 34)
7 Knew their reward (v 34)

Finished sacrifice (10:12)

After Christ made His supreme sacrifice His work for sins was finished. He could then sit down and wait to see His work completed in the lives of believers who would be freed from sin and delivered from their enemies (v 12-14; 1:3; 12:2; Ps. 110:4). The continual daily sacrifices proved the imperfection of such sacrifices. Christ's one sacrifice proved its completeness, hence He could sit down, instead of continuing to offer Himself as the priests of the law who offered sacrifices daily (v 12-14)

Victorious sacrifice (10:13)

By His sacrifice Christ defeated all satanic powers (Col. 2:14-17). Now He needs only to await the time of their complete submission and punishment (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Heb. 2:5-15; Eph. 1:10). In the meantime He is calling out an heavenly people whom He will make kings and priests to reign over all coming generations in the Millennium and the new and eternal earth (Acts 15:13-18; Rev. 1:5-6; 5:8-10; 20:4-6; 22:4-5)

Ultimate sin of apostates (10:29)

Gr. koinon, to make common or unclean. Trans. an unholy thing (v 29); common (Acts 2:44; 4:32; 10:14, 28; 11:8; Tit. 1:4; Jude 3); unclean (Rom. 14:14); and defiled (Mk. 7:2). They count the blood of Christ a common thing; esteem it of no value as an atonement. Once they did esteem it as the atonement or they could not have been sanctified by it, but later they became apostate, disregarding it altogether as unfit to redeem

18 definitions of faith (11:1):

1 Substance of things hoped for (11:1)
2 Evidence of things not seen (11:1, 7)
3 Invisible backing of elders (11:2)
4 Creative power of divine works (11:3)
5 Divine testimony of right doing (11:4)
6 Cancellation of natural laws (11:5)
7 Basis of pleasing God (11:6)
8 Dependence upon God's word (11:7)
9 Trust in an unknown future (11:8-10)
10 Counting things that be not as though they were (11:11-12; Rom. 4:17)
11 Seeing invisible things (11:13-16)
12 Assurance of God's faithfulness (11:17-19; 10:23)
13 Confidence in things to come (11:20-31; 3:6, 14; 10:35; Eph. 3:12; 1 Jn. 3:21)
14 Stimulus of Christianity (11:32-12:2)
15 The life-blood of the just (10:36)
16 Shield of Christian armour (Eph. 6:16)
17 Down payment of things desired (3:6, 12-14; 6:11-12; 10:22-23, 35-39)
18 Guarantee of answered prayer (Mt. 21:22; Mk. 11:22-24; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1)

12 things Christians hope for (11:1):

1 Salvation (Rom. 8:24-25; 1 Th. 5:8)
2 Righteousness (Gal. 5:5)
3 Calling (Eph. 1:18; 4:4)
4 Christ in them (Col. 1:27; 1 Tim. 1:1)
5 Greater N. T. glory (2 Cor. 3:7-12)
6 Future life (1 Cor. 15:19; Pr. 14:32)
7 Resurrection (Acts 23:6; 24:15; 26:8
8 Final rewards (1 Th. 2:19) 6-7)
9 Final grace (1 Pet. 1:13)
10 Coming of the Lord (Tit. 2:13)
11 Being like Christ (1 Jn. 3:1-3)
12 Eternal life (Tit. 1:2, note: 3:7; Heb. 3:6; 6:11, 18-19; 1 Pet. 1:3)

12 kinds of things not yet seen (11:1):

1 Restoration of all things (Acts 3:21)
2 Invisible things (Rom. 1:20)
3 Things of the Spirit (Rom. 8:5)
4 Things to come (Rom. 8:38)
5 Things prepared for us (1 Cor. 2:9)
6 Eternal things (2 Cor. 4:18)
7 Things in heaven (Phil. 2:10)
8 Things under the earth (Phil. 2:10)
9 Future things (Phil. 3:13)
10 Things above (Col. 3:1-2)
11 The Lord (1 Pet. 1:8; 1 Tim. 6:16)
12 Final salvation (Rom. 8:24-25; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13)

10 facts about Mt. Sinai (12:18):

1 Not to be touched (v 18; Ex. 19:12)
2 Burned with fire (v 18; Ex. 19:18)
3 Full of blackness (a thick cloud)
4 Full of darkness (v 18; Dt. 4:11)
5 Full of tempest (v 18; Ex. 19:16)
6 Full of a sounding trumpet (v 19; Ex. 19:19)
7 Full of the voice of God (v 19; Dt. 4:12; 5:4
8 Israel could not endure the voice or commandments (v 19-20; Dt. 5:23-26)
9 Any thing that touched the mount was killed (v 20; Ex. 19:12, 21)
10 The sight was so terrible that even Moses trembled with fear (v 21)

8 things in heaven (12:22):

1 The heavenly Mount Sion (v 22; Rom. 11:26; Rev. 14:1)
2 The capital city of God (v 22; 11:10, 16; 13:14; Rev. 3:12; 21:1-27; 22:1-5; Jn. 14)
3 Innumerable angels (v 22; 1:5-14; Rev. 5:11-14)
4 The general assembly and church of the firstborn (v 23; Col. 1:18)
5 God the Judge of all (v 23)
6 The spirits of just men made perfect (v 23; Rev. 6:9-11)
7 Jesus the mediator of the new covenant (v 24; Mt. 26:26; Heb. 9:15)
8 The blood of Christ (v 24; Mt. 26:28; Col. 1:20; 1 Pet. 1:18-23)

4 secrets of answered prayer (11:6):

1 Please God (1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:14-15)
2 Come to God in the right attitude and with the right motives (Mt. 6:5-15; 7:7-11; Phil. 4:5-6)
3 Believe that He is (Jn. 16:23)
4 Believe that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him. If one can believe this as much as he believes in the existence of God prayer will be granted. If one believes firmly in His existence and doubts His word, he makes Him a liar and God is under no obligation to answer prayer (Jas. 1:4-8). The Gr. for diligently is ekzeteo, trans.:
(1) Seek diligently (v 6)
(2) Seek after (Acts 15:17; Rom. 3:
(3) Seek carefully (Heb. 12:17) 11)
(4) Inquire diligently (1 Pet. 1:10)
(5) Require (Lk. 11:50-51)

The Master Builder (11:10)

Gr. technites, an architect, one who plans, calculates, and constructs a building. Trans. builder (v 10) and craftsman (Acts 19:24, 38; Rev. 18:22). From the same root we have teknon, carpenter, one who is a builder and constructor (Mt. 13:55; Mk. 6:3). The word used in contempt of Christ. The Lord chose this occupation in preference to being a shepherd, like David. Christ is the great Architect, Designer, Fabricator of all material creations (v 10; Jn. 1:3; Eph. 3:9) and of all moral creations (Col. 1:15-18). He is the Preparer, Arranger, and Constitutor of the ages and dispensations (Heb. 1:2; 11:3; Isa. 9:6). God worked through Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit (Gen. 1:2; Ps. 104:30)

25 unfulfilled promises (11:13):

1 Becoming a great nation (Gen. 12:
2 A great name (Gen. 12:3) 2)
3 Their blessers blessed (Gen. 12:3)
4 Their cursers cursed (Gen. 12:3)
5 All nations blessed through them (Gen. 12:3; 18:18)
6 The promised land (v 8; Gen. 12:3; 13:15; 15:18; Acts 7:5)
7 Innumerable seed (v 12; Gen. 13:16)
8 Many nations from them (Gen. 17:6, 16)
9 Many kings from them (Gen. 17:6, 16)
10 Covenant with their seed (Gen. 17:7)
11 Ishmael a great nation (Gen. 17:20)
12 Their descendents serving God in righteousness (Gen. 18:18-19; Lk. 1:70-75)
13 Their descendents serving God in Canaan (Gen. 15:13-14; Acts 7:6-7)
14 Complete fulfillment of the Abrahamic covenant (Gen. 18:19)
15 Their seed possessing their enemies (Gen. 22:17-18; Lk. 1:71-74)
16 An heavenly city (Heb. 11:10, 16)
17 An heavenly country (Heb. 11:14-16)
18 Salvation of the heathen (Gal. 3:8)
19 A spiritual seed (Rom. 4:16; 9:8)
20 First coming of Messiah (Gal. 3:16; Lk. 1:68-75)
21 Death of Messiah and defeat of Satan (Heb. 11:4, 17-18; Gen. 3:15; Gal. 3:13-14)
22 Second advent of Messiah (Heb. 11:5; Jude 14-15)
23 Resurrection (Heb. 11:10, 16, 19; Isa. 26:19; Dan. 12:2)
24 Eternal life to come (Gen. 17:8; Mt. 8:11; 22:32; Lk. 1:55; Heb. 11:10-16)
25 Eternal inheritance (Gal. 3:17-18, 29; Heb. 11:10-16; Lk. 1:68-75)

Chastening (12:6)

Some Christians do not think of chastening any other way except by sickness and disease. They believe they are being chastened when sick and yet they know nothing in particular that they have done. Such should realize from facts on p. 254 that when God actually allows plagues there is a reason which will be known to the individual or nation. God never uses drastic means except as a last resort, when all other methods of getting men to obey have been exhausted. Lev. 26 and Dt. 28 are clear chapters on this point. In Job 33:14-29 we have the cause of sickness in many cases

If a child of God wants to claim he is being chastened by God, then let him acknowledge also that he has repeatedly refused to listen to God or obey Him (Job 33). Let him acknowledge his sins, for God does not send plagues upon obedient children. They are given promises of healing and protection from plagues if they will but appropriate them (Ex. 15:26; Ps. 91; 103:3; Mt. 7:9-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 1 Pet. 2:24; 2 Jn. 2; Jas. 5:14-16). Only those who sow will reap and only those who rebel will be cursed (Gal. 6:7-8; Job 33:14-29; Lev. 26; Dt. 28)

On the other hand, Christians are subject to contagious diseases or certain physical maladies through improper nutrition, exercise, and improper care of the body, as much as sinners. They are also subject to satanic attacks as others, and if they do not learn to claim the promises and resist Satan they may become physically afflicted like other men (Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:7-9; Eph. 4:27; 6:10-18)

One thing is certain, God is not to blame for sicknesses upon His obedient children and to claim such is to cooperate with Satan and not God (Jn. 10:10; Lk. 13:16; Acts 10:38). If men use Job as an excuse for unbelief, let them realize that Job did not know the gospel. He had no written revelation, covenant, or promise, and yet he got healed by God. Let men likewise fight as Job did until they get an answer and healing (Job 42:10; Jas. 5:10-11)

Would any earthly father chasten or train a child through cancers, tumors, or innumerable sicknesses and diseases? Would this demonstrate true fatherhood, as Jesus taught of God in Mt. 7:7-11; Lk. 11:9-13? What earthly parent would allow a child to suffer bodily if he could help it? Shall we say that God is the only Father who loves to see His children sick? How could He love them much more than earthly parents if He were this kind of being? Are sicknesses the only method God has for training His children?

10 ways of chastening:
1 Wars (2 Sam. 7:14; Lev. 26:28-40; Hos. 10:10; Jer. 30:14)
2 Whipping (Dt. 8:5; 21:18; Pr. 13:24; 19:18)
3 Fasting (Ps. 69:10; Dan. 10:2-12)
4 Persecutions (2 Cor. 6:9; 11:23-30)
5 Famine (Lev. 26:28-29)
6 Fines (Dt. 22:18-19)
7 Captivity (Hos. 7:12)
8 Scourging (Lk. 23:16, 22; 1 Kl. 12:11, 14; 2 Chr. 10:11, 14)
9 Judgments (Dt. 11:2; Isa. 53:5)
10 Sickness on sinners (Job 33:14-30)

JAMES

218 CHAPTER 1

I Authorship and salutation

JAMES, [a]servant [c]of God and of the Lord Je'sus Christ, to the [d]twelve tribes which [e]are scattered abroad, [f]greeting.

II Christian testings (1:2-2:26; 1 Pet. 1:7; 4:1-19; 1 Cor. 4:9-13; 2 Cor. 6:3-10; 11:23-33; 12:7). 1 Purpose of testing (Rom. 5:3)

●2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye [g]fall into [h]divers temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the [i]trying of your faith worketh patience.

●4 But let patience have her [j]perfect work, [k]that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

2 Test of faith: the secret of answered prayer (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24)

●5 If any of you [l]lack [m]wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. ◂

●6 But [n]let him ask in faith, [o]nothing wavering. For [p]he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For [q]let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A [r]double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

3 Test of humility (1 Pet. 5:5)

●9 [s]Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as [t]the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a[v]burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: [w]so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

4 Test of endurance (5:10-11; 1 Pet. 1:7; 4:12)

▸12 [x]Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive [y]the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

5 Test of temptation (Mk. 7:21; 1 Cor. 10:9-13; Heb. 4:14)

●13 [z]Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is [a]tempted, when he is drawn away of his [b]own lust, and [c]enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth [d]death.

●16 [e]Do not err, my beloved brethren.

6 Test of appreciation: source of all good gifts (Phil. 1:6; 1 Th. 5:18)

▸17 [f]Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the [g]Father of lights, with whom is [h]no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

7 Test of Christian experience - the new birth (Jn. 3:5; 1 Pet. 1:23; 1 Jn. 5:1)

18 Of his [i]own will [j]begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of [k]firstfruits of his creatures.

8 Test of Christian living (Eph. 4:1, refs.)

●19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man [l]be swift to hear, slow to speak, [m]slow to wrath:

20 For the [n]wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

●21 Wherefore lay apart all [o]filthiness and [p]superfluity of naughtiness, and receive [q]with meekness the [r]engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

9 Test of obedience (Heb. 11:8-10, 17-19; Rom. 1:5)

●22 But be ye [s]doers of the word, and not [t]hearers only, [u]deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man [v]beholding his natural face in a[w]glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

▸25 But whoso [x]looketh into [y]the perfect law of liberty, and [z]continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

10 Test of pure religion (Rom. 8:1-13; 2 Cor. 5:17; Col. 3:5-10)

26 If any man among you seem to be [a]religious, and [b]bridleth not his tongue, but [c]deceiveth his own heart, this man's [d]religion is [e]vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

c Another clear reference to two separate and distinct persons - God and Christ (1 Jn. 5:7, note) d The twelve tribes were still in existence, so ten of them were not lost and never have been any more than the two tribes (note a, Acts 13:16)

e Jews lived in all lands and in every city of Europe, Asia, and Africa (Acts 2:5-9; 26:6). They maintained their own laws and synagoges remaining separate from all other peoples.

f Gr. chairo, rejoice; joy; hail. An ancient greeting of health and prosperity. Trans. greeting (v 1; Acts 15:23; 23:26); God speed (2 Jn. 10-11); farewell (2 Cor. 13:11); joyfully (Lk. 13:6); joy (2 Cor. 7:13; Phil. 2:17-18; Col. 2:5; 1 Th. 3:9); hail 6 times; be glad 14 times; and rejoice 37 times

g Gr. peripipto, to fall into; to be caught by. Here; Lk. 10:30; Acts 27:41

h Different trials. Gr. peirasmos, trial; attack; put to proof; examine; question (note o, Gal. 4:14). A trial of any kind, not necessarily temptation to sin (v 2-4, 12; 1 Pet. 1:7) i Trials test religion and faith and the man who stands true in them proves his religion sound and his faith genuine. Tests work patience and patience works perfection (v 3-4, 12; Rom. 5:3-5; 1 Pet. 1:7) p Nothing doubting. Gr. diakrino, doubting; staggering (note n, 1 Cor. 11:29)

q He who doubts is like a wave that is rising one moment, sinking the next. One minute he believes; another he does not. He says yes and then no to what God has promised, never making up his mind which way he believes. He staggers, helpless in prayer like a drunken man

r It is as certain that a doubtful man will not get an answer as it is that the man of faith will get an answer (v 5, 7) s This term was used by the Jews of a man who attempted to worship God and still loved the creature; who wished to secure both worlds. He would not give up the world here and yet was loathe to give up heaven - one torn between carnal and spiritual things

t Let the poor Christian rejoice in his hope of heaven, but the rich one in his humiliation for both are here only for a short while (v 9-11)

u Gr. anthos, Here and 1 Pet. 1:24

v Gr. kauson, Here; Mt. 20:12; Lk. 12:55

x Gr. makarios, Trans. happy 6 times and blessed 43 times (Mt. 5:3-11; etc.)

y See note x, 2 Tim. 4:8

z After using the word temptation in the sense of trial, James now uses it in the sense of solicitation to sin. God cannot be tempted with evil, neither does He tempt any man with it. Evil temptations come from evil, not from good

b Gr. apatao, to cheat; outwit; to be deceived. Here; Eph. 5:6; 1 Tim. 2:14 c Gr. threskeia. Trans. religion (v 26-27; Acts 26:5) and worshipping (Col. 2:18)

d Gr. matalos. Trans. vain (v 26; 1 Cor. 3:20; 15:17; Tit. 3:9) and vanity (Acts 14:15) See 2fold religion, p. 283 a 3 kinds of lusts (desires):

1 Lusts of man (v 14; 4:2; Gal. 5:16)
2 Lusts of Satan (Jn. 8:44; Eph. 2:2-3; Rom. 6:12; 1 Jn. 2:17; 3:8)
3 Lusts (desires) of God (Gal. 5:17, 22-23; Ps. 51:6)

b Gr. deleazo. Trans. entice (v 14); beguile (2 Pet. 2:14); and allure (2 Pet. 2:18)

c See 3 kinds of death, p. 213

d Do not be deceived by supposing that God is the author of sin or that He impels any man to commit it (v 13)

e Whatever is good comes from God who never changes; whatever is evil comes from Satan and fallen man who are bent on doing whatever gains a selfish and sinful end (v 17)

f See God is called, p. 200

g Gr. parallage, change; variation. Only here. It is an astronomical term descriptive of the varying positions of the heavenly bodies causing changes in the seasons of the year. God is not changeable like this. In every season He is the same, neither does He change like the shadow on a sun dial (v 17; Heb. 13:8)

h It is God's will that all men be saved - begotten by the Word (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)

i The Word of Truth is one of the agents that make men new creatures (note f, Jn. 3:5; 1 Pet. 1:23; Eph. 5:26)

j See note j, Rom. 8:23

k See 7 commands to Christians, p. 264

l See 4 kinds of disposition, p. 264

m This verse explains why men should be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath. The wrath of man cannot work the righteousness that God requires. For example, the zeal of Israel in murdering the prophets, their own Messiah and His followers n Gr. rhuparia, moral filthiness; impure and unholy affections; baseness; vileness; depravity (v 21). Only here. It is from rhuparos meaning cheap or shabby; foul; dirty; moral wickedness; sordid; mean. Trans. vile (Jas. 2:2). The root word rupos is trans. filth in 1 Pet. 3:21. Cp. rupoo, moral filth (Rev. 22:11)

o Gr. perisseia. Trans. superfluity (v 21) and abundance (Rom. 5:17; 2 Cor. 8:2; 10:15). The word for naughtiness is kakia, wickedness (note 1, Eph. 4:31). Here the idea is the abundance of wickedness p Gr. prautes, mildness; gentleness. Here; 3:13; 1 Pet. 3:15

q Gr. emphutos, inborn; innate. Only here. It is by the Word of Truth inborn and implanted in the soul that one is saved and begotten (v 18; Eph. 5:26). The word is called seed (1 Pet. 1:23; 1 Jn. 3:9). When it is implanted in the soul it germinates and springs forth into eternal life. Only the seed that fails to be sown on properly prepared soil, and cared for, will fail to bring forth fruit (Mt. 13:3-30)

r Gr. poietes, a performer. Trans. doer (v 22, 23, 25; 4:11; Rom. 2:13) and poet (Acts 17:28)

s Gr. akroates. Here; v 23, 25; Rom. 2:13

t Gr. paralogizomai, to deceive by false reasoning. Here and Col. 2:4

u See The word - a mirror, p. 264

v Gr. esoptron, mirror. Here; 1 Cor. 13:12

w Gr. parakupto, to bend over for a better look. Trans. look into (v 25) and stoop down (Lk. 24:12; Jn. 20:5, 11)

x This is not the law of Moses, but the new covenant, the only perfect law (Heb. 8:6). The law of Moses was imperfect and faulty (Heb. 7:12, 18-19, 22; 8:6-7). See 85 contrasts, p. 201. Cp. Ps. 19:7, note y Gr. parameno, to stay beside; stand by; stand fast. Trans. continue (v 25; Heb. 7:23; Phil. 1:25) and abide (1 Cor. 16:6). The idea is taken from women spending much time at the mirror decorating themselves to the greatest advantage, not leaving one hair or the smallest ornament out of place. Thus if one will be as careful to take every advantage of the Word of God to keep his soul saved and his life conformed to the gospel he will be blessed in his deed (v 25)

z Gr. threskos, a careful follower of his belief. Only here a Gr. chalinagogeo. Only here; 3:2

a Do not have the faith of Christ with respect of persons. Do not prefer the rich merely because of riches, and not for their moral, spiritual, and public usefulness (v 1–4) b Gr. synagoge. Trans. assembly (v 2); congregation (Acts 13:43); and synagogue 55 times (note e, Mk. 1:21)

c Gr. chrusodaktulios, gold-ringed. Only here. The ring is not condemned; it was customary for men and women to wear rings and other ornaments (see Ancient headdress; Outward adorning, 236, 269)

d Gr. lampros, bright; brilliant; radiant; shining. Trans. goodly (v 2; Rev. 18: 14); bright (Acts 10:30; Rev. 22:16); white (Rev. 15:6; 19:8); clear (Rev. 22: 1); gay (Jas. 2:3); and gorgeous (Lk. 23: 11), so that we have clothing of angels, men in heaven, and men on earth described. Neither the gold ring nor the gay clothing is condemned; only respect of persons with those who wear them e Gr. esthes. Trans. apparel (v 2; Acts 1: 10; 12:21); raiment (v 2); clothing (v 3; Acts 10:30); and robe (Lk. 23:11)

f Jewish petty courts were held in local synagogues (note e, Mk. 1:21). The case here is no doubt of a judicial kind, not a Christian or Jewish religious service, where there are two men, one rich and one poor, the master of the synagogue, or the judge, is not to pay particular attention to the rich man and neglect the poor one (v 3). As plaintiff and defendent, they are equal in the eye of justice and should be considered so by an impartial judge.

g Questions 1–4, Next, v 14. These questions confirm the facts that:
1 The judge was partial (v 4)
2 The judge had evil thoughts (v 4)
3 God hath chosen the poor who are rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom in preference to the rich of this world who do not have faith (v 5)
4 The judge despised the poor (v 6)
5 Wicked rich men oppress the poor (v 6)
6 They force the poor to trials before judges that are partial to themselves
7 They blaspheme God's name (v 7)

h The law of both the old and new covenants demanded that men love their neighbors as themselves (Lev. 19:18; Mt. 22:39; Rom. 13:8–9; Gal. 5:14; Eph. 5:2). The new covenant, or the perfect law of liberty, is referred to here, for James is writing to Christians (note x, 1:25). It was customary among Gr. writers to use the word royal of anything that was of general concern, noble, grand, or useful. James uses it of the law of love, which came from God and was emphasized by Christ as being suitable and necessary to all men (Jn. 13:34; 15:12)

i If you show any degree of partiality and injustice you break God's law. You are a transgressor (v 9; 1 Jn. 3:4)

j The reason for this is that one sin is enough to damn the soul (Gen. 2:17; Rom. 5:12–21). The obligation to law is total (Dt. 27:26; Gal. 3:10). This applies to all laws that have the death penalty (v 11; Rom. 1:32; 1 Cor. 6:9–11; Gal. 5:19–21). One is guilty of law breaking whether he breaks one or many laws (v 11). The authority which gave one commandment gave all of them and the one who resists Him by breaking one law is guilty of the whole k These commandments are in both covenants, the old and the new (Ex. 20:13–14; Mt. 21–32; Rom. 13:9). We are not now under obligation to obey them because they are part of the old covenant which is abolished, but because they are part of the new (note i, Acts 15:24)

l This refers to the new covenant, not the old (note x, 1:25). It is by the gospel men of this age will be judged (Rom. 2:16)

m See 3 laws, p. 264

n The ones who receive mercy and show mercy rejoice in the fact that they will not face judgment because of obeying the law. They will be exalted by mercy above judgment. There is no mercy in law. The meaning is that mercy through grace will triumph over law because the demands of the law have been met by grace and the lawbreakers are justified by it through faith to escape the judgment of the law (Jn. 3: 1 Jn. 3:11–17)

•MY brethren, [a]have not the faith of our Lord Je'sus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your [b]assembly a man with a [c]gold ring, in [d]goodly [e]apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 [f]Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

▸5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

•8 If ye fulfil [h]the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But [i]if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

12 Test of perfection (Mt. 5:44–48; 2 Cor. 10:4–6)

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is [j]guilty of all.

•11 For he that said, [k]Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

•12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by [l]the law of liberty.

•13 [m]For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and [n]mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

13 Test of faith (5:10–11; 1 Pet. 1:7; Heb. 11:17–19)

14 [o]What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, [p]being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 [q]Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

14 Two illustrations of the faith-works doctrine (Gen. 22; Josh. 2)

20 [r]But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not A'brā-hăm our father [s]justified by works, [t]when he had offered I'saac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, [u]A'brā-hăm believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the [v]Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith [w]only.

25 Likewise also was not [x]Rā'hăb the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the [y]body without the spirit is dead, [z]so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3 220

III The Christian and the tongue (1:26; 3:1–12; Prov. 12:18; 13:3; 15:4; 18:8, 21; Lk. 6:45; 1 Pet. 3:10; Rom. 3:13). 1 The mark of perfection

•MY brethren, be not many [a]masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we [b]offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

2 The nature of the tongue

3 Behold, we put [c]bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire [d]the course of nature; and it is set on fire of [e]hell.

3 The tongue uncontrollable

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

a Believing in God is no proof that you are justified by faith alone, for even devils believe without justification (v 19)

b Questions 8–11, Next, 3:11. Are you willing to be instructed as to the nature of true saving faith?

c 2 examples of justification by faith and works, not works only (v 21–26):
1 Abraham (v 21–24; Gen. 22)
2 Rahab (v 25; Josh. 2 and 6)

d It is clear from Gen. 22 that Abraham proved his faith in God when he was asked to offer up Isaac as a sacrifice. It was faith that led him to this act of obedience (v 23). Had he refused to obey it would have demonstrated that he had no faith in God or His Word. It is also clear that this act of faith and works was not his initial justification by faith. That was at least 40 to 50 years before offering Isaac (Gen. 12: 1–4; 15:6; Rom. 4:1–6) e Quoted from Gen. 15:6 which was many years before offering Isaac as in Gen. 22. Thus every act of obedience is an act of faith and works combined to maintain justification before God.

f The greatest blessing possible is to be a friend of God

g The whole passage emphasizes faith with works; works with faith, not faith only or works only. Even Paul did not teach justification by faith only, for he also taught works whereby Christians should demonstrate their faith (note p, v 14)

h Rahab was also justified by her works and her faith when she hid the spies with peace (Josh. 2; Heb. 11:31)

i The body only dies at the time of physical death. This is caused by the soul and spirit leaving the body (v 26). The body returns to dust and the soul and spirit of the righteous go to heaven to await the resurrection (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21–24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9–11). The soul and spirit of the wicked go to hell to await the resurrection (Lk. 16:19–31; Isa. 14:9; Rev. 20:11–15). The soul and spirit are spiritual and immortal. They cannot go back to dust (see Immortality, p. 270; 3 deaths, p. 213)

j Just as surely as the inner man leaves the body at physical death and is no longer with the body, so faith without works is dead (separated) and is powerless (v 26)

k Gr. didaskaloi, teachers (note n, Acts 13:1. Cp. Lk. 12:48)

l We all stumble or trip over many things

m See notes on Tongue, p. 264

n The circle of human life is continually excited by the tongue unless it is kept sanctified. Evil surmisings, misrepresentations, falsehoods, calumnies, jealousies, envyings, wrath, and malice, all form part of the destroying flames of fire from the tongue of the ungodly

o Gr. gehenna of fire (note m, Lk. 12:5). The whole course of life is set on fire of hell. This refers to the anger and violent passions of wrath related to the vile language of the tongue. It also pictures the confusion and misery caused by the tongue - like the misery of hell

o Questions 5–7, Next, v 20 p This refers to those who say that they have faith and that works are not necessary in Christian living. It does not say they have real and active faith, but they say they have. Can faith alone save (v 17–18, 20–26)? James is not referring to initial justifying faith, but to the demonstration of Christian faith before men. Christianity demands of its followers good works to all men (Mt. 5:16; 16:27; Eph. 2:10; 1 Tim. 6:18; 2 Tim. 3:17; Tit. 1:16; 2:7, 14; 3:8). One is not justified by works (Rom. 3: 25–31; 4:1–6; 9:11; 11:6; Gal. 2:16; Eph. 2:8–9; Tit. 3:5), but justified ones must do them to prove their Christian consecration (v 14–18, 20–26)

q Faith without works is dead; works without faith is dead (v 17, 20, 26). Neither is complete in itself. It is like fire burning without fuel and fuel burning without fire. One can say that this is possible but it is not so because such is contrary to the creative maketup and the laws that govern fire and fuel a All species of beasts have been tamed by man, but the tongue cannot be tamed by any cunning, persuasion, or influence of man. Salvation alone can help a man control the tongue (2 Cor. 5:17-18)

b See 12 things about the tongue, p. 264

c Gr. homoiosis, making like; image. Only here, but in the Sept. in Gen. 1:26; Ezek. 1:10; Dan. 10:16; etc. This refers to outward or bodily image d Questions 12-15. Next, 4:1. Nothing has been found in nature that can compare to the double use of the tongue - to the blessing and cursing out of the same mouth

4 comparisons (v 11-12):
1 A fountain cannot produce sweet and bitter water at the same time
2 A fig tree cannot produce olives
3 A vine cannot produce figs
4 The ocean cannot produce sweet water

e One who can bridle his own tongue and is qualified to teach others (v 13)

f Gr. anastrophe, conduct; behaviour (see point 2, 6 things, col. 1, p. 237)

g True wisdom is always accompanied with meekness and gentleness. Proud, overbearing, and disdainful men may pass as scholars and have learning, but not true wisdom.

h If you have this condition of heart you have no true wisdom. Even if you defend religion you are false in your profession and lie against the truth (v 14)

i 8 characteristics of false wisdom:
1 Bitter envying (v 14, 16). Gr. zelos (point 9, 17 works of flesh, p. 207)
2 Strife in the heart (v 14, 16)
3 Glory in profession (v 14)
4 Earthly, having this life only in view (v 15)
5 Sensual, living only to satisfy the animal appetites (v 15)
6 Devilish, inspired by demons (v 15)
7 Confusion (v 16)
8 Every evil work (v 16)

j 8 characteristics of divine wisdom:
1 Pure - chaste, holy, and clean (v 17)
2 Peaceable (v 17; Heb. 12:14)
3 Gentle - meek, modest, and kind (v 17)
4 Easily entreated - not stubborn or obstinate, but yielding to others (v 17)
5 Full of mercy - always forgiving and performing acts of kindness (v 17)
6 Full of good fruits (Gal. 5:22-23)
7 Without partiality - having no respect of persons (v 17; Jas. 2:1-10)
8 Without hypocrisy - open, honest, genuine, and true (v 17)

k Peace-makers are continually recommending this divine wisdom to others (v 18)

l Questions 16-17. Next, v 4 m About this time in Judea the Jews made many insurrections against the Romans under the pretense of defending their religion and procuring their way of life. The many factions among the Jews themselves also fought violently and massacred and plundered one another. In some provinces the Jews fought the heathen, killing many, and bringing destruction upon themselves. These wars were undertaken through a spirit of covetousness and zeal, trying to convert the heathen and destroy idolatry n 12 reasons for unanswered prayer:

1 Lusts (v 1, 2, 3, 5; Jn. 8:44)
2 Murders (v 2)
3 Covetousness (v 2)
4 Fighting and war (v 2)
5 Asking amiss to satisfy lusts (v 3)
6 Adulteries (v 4)
7 Friendship of the world (v 4)
8 Pride (v 6)
9 Rebellion against God (v 7)
10 Backsliding and sin (v 8)
11 Double mindedness or doubt (v 8)
12 Misuse of the tongue (v 11-12)

This passage should never be taken by the Christian as an excuse for unanswered prayer. By so doing he automatically classes himself as lustful, murderous, covetous, adulterous, worldly, proud, sinful, and blasphemous. Is it any wonder that God does not answer the prayers of such people? Would you? No man can ask amiss if he is in Christ and asks according to the promises (Jn. 15:7; Mk. 11:22-24; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8). The reason Christian prayers are not answered is unbelief (6 secrets of answered prayer, p. 264)

8 [d]But the [b]tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

4 Ungodly use of the tongue

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the [c]similitude of God.
●10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.
11 [d]Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?
12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

5 Christians can control the tongue (Gal. 6:22-23; 1 Pet. 3:10)

●13 Who is a [e]wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good [f]conversation his works [g]with meekness of wisdom.

6 Nine marks of human wisdom

14 [k]But if ye have [i]bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.
15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.
16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

7 Nine marks of Divine wisdom

17 But the [j]wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.
18 [k]And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

221 CHAPTER 4

IV Rebukes and commands (4:1-5:20). 1 Cause of division

FROM whence come [m]wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?

2 Five reasons for unanswered prayers of backsliders

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.
3 [n]Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

3 Rebuke for worldliness (1 Jn. 2:15; Rom. 12:2; Jn. 15:18)

4 [a]Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that [b]the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.
5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, [c]The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?
▸6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but [d]giveth grace unto the humble.

4 Eleven conditions of answered prayer (Cp. v 2-3)

●7 [e]Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and [f]he will flee from you.
●8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. [g]Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; [h]and purify your hearts, ye [i]double minded. ◂
●9 [i]Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your [k]laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.
●10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he[l]shall lift you up. ◂

5 Rebuke to self-appointed judges (3:1; Mt. 7:1-5)

●11 [m]Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.
12 There is one [n]lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: [o]who art thou that judgest another?

6 Exhortation to the self-willed and the braggart

13 [p]Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:
14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? [q]It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.
15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.
16 But now ye rejoice in your [r]boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

7 Violation of knowledge of right constitutes sin (Cp. Rom. 3:20; 4:15; 14:23; 1 Jn. 3:4)

17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is [s]sin.

222 CHAPTER 5

8 Rebuke to wicked rich men: seven-fold judgment for seven sins (2:6-7; 1 Tim. 6:9-10; Lk. 12:15-21)

[t]GO to now, [u]ye rich men, weep and howl for your b The Christian and the world. He must:

1 Be free from the cares of the world (Mt. 13:22; Lk. 21:34-36)
2 Not gain the world at the expense of his soul (Mt. 16:26)
3 Not offend others as the world does (Mt. 18:7)
4 Not be of it (Jn. 15:19; 17:14, 16)
5 Not love his life in the world (Jn. 12:25)
6 Be delivered from the world (Gal. 1:4)
7 Be crucified to the world (Gal. 6:14)
8 Shine as a light in the world (Phil. 2:15)
9 Deny its lusts; live godly in it (Tit. 2:12)
10 Be unspotted from the world (Jas. 1:27)
11 Not be friends with the world (Jas. 4:4)
12 Escape the pollution and corruption of the world (2 Pet. 1:4; 2:20)
13 Not love the world, neither the things that are in the world (1 Jn. 2:15-17)
14 Be like Christ in the world (1 Jn. 4:17)
15 Overcome the world (1 Jn. 5:4-5)
16 Be chosen out of it (Jn. 15:19; 17:6)
17 Be not conformed to it (Rom. 12:2)
18 Be dead to its ways (Col. 2:20) c There is no exact scripture quoted by James here. He must refer to the spirit and design of several passages, as Gen. 6:5; 8:21; Num. 11:29; Pr. 21:10. That the spirit of man is designed to lust to envy, or that the Holy Spirit who dwells in the Christian lusts to envy, is contrary to all teaching of Scripture

d Quoted from Pr. 3:34

e 10 commands for backsliders, p. 264

f See 4 promises to backsliders, p. 264

g Cleansing the hands was a symbol of innocence and purity (Mt. 27:24)

h Gr. hagnizo, to make pure (v 8; Jn. 11:55; Acts 21:24, 26; 24:18; 1 Pet. 1:22; 1 Jn. 3:3). Here it means to separate from the world and consecrate to God, renouncing all sin

i Double-mindedness refers to doubting God (1:6-8)

j This is true repentance which always brings the mercy of God if done in time - now (1 Jn. 1:7; Heb. 9:27)

k 10 types of sin and pleasure:
1 Wars and fightings (v 1-2)
2 Lusts of sin (v 1-5; Eph. 2:1-3)
3 Murders and killings (v 2)
4 Desires - covetousness (v 2)
5 Adulteries and other sex sins (v 4)
6 Friendships with worldly men (v 4)
7 Envies and jealousies (v 5)
8 Pride and haughtiness (v 6-10)
9 Laughter prompted by sin (v 9)
10 Joy founded on sin (v 9)

l Mourners and penitents used to lie on the ground, and roll themselves in the dust. When forgiven penitents arose from the earth and clothed themselves in clean and better garments

m Gr. katalaleo, to speak against; backbite; rail at; slander (v 11; 1 Pet. 2:12; 3:16). This refers to slandering among the different factions of Jews and the Jews against their brethren who had accepted Christ n God is the one lawgiver and judge, who is able to save or destroy. Man has no right to usurp this authority (v 11-12)

o Questions 20-21. Next, 5:13

p Here we have a reference to travelling merchants, going from city to city displaying their wares in the bazars (Gen. 37:25)

q This is practically what James said of the rich man in 1:10-11

r Boastings here consist of bragging on buying and selling from city to city and what one will do here and there. One should always say, "If the Lord will," we will live, and do this or that (v 15-16). This would demonstrate personal faith in God and His providence instead of one's own abilities. All such boasting is of evil intent (v 15) s Gr. harmartia, missing the mark. Trans. sin 153 times (v 16; Mt. 1:21; etc.); sinful (Rom. 8:3); and offence (2 Cor. 11:7)

t Gr. age, come (4:13; 5:1)

u 1st and last prophecy in James (5:1-8, unfulfilled)

[a] Gr. talaiporia, bodily hardships; misery. Here: Rom. 3:16. Cp. talaiporos, wretched (Rom. 7:25; Rev. 3:17)

[b] 6 predictions concerning evil rich men:
1 Miseries will come upon them (v 1)
2 Riches will become corrupted (v 2)
3 Garments to become motheaten (v 2)
4 Gold and silver to canker (v 3)
5 The rust or poison of their riches will witness or testify of their many sins (v 3)
6 The rust or poison of their riches will eat their flesh as it were fire (v 3)

[c] These riches are corrupted instead of cankered as gold and silver. They refer to crops, flocks, stores of grain, wine, oil, and many changes of raiment in the wardrobes

[d] Gr. sepo, to make rotten; putrid; to fester or mortify. Only here

[e] Gr. setobrotos, motheaten. Only here

[f] Gr. ïardos, rusted over. Only here

[g] Gr. ios, rust (v 3) and poison (3:8; Rom. 3:13). Your putrified stores, your motheaten garments, and your tarnished coins, are proof of your covetousness and your love of money. See note e, Lk. 12:15

[h] This pictures the corroding or rusting of boarded money as testifying so strongly against the wicked it will burn like flesh diseased with canker

[i] 7 sins of wicked rich men:
1 Heaping together treasures on earth (v 3; Mt. 6:19-21; Lk. 12:15-21)
2 Defrauding laborers (v 4; Lev. 19:13; Dt. 24:14-15; Jer. 22:13; Mal. 3:5)
3 Living in pleasure at the expense of those defrauded (v 5; Mt. 23:14)
4 Living in wantonness or sensual appetites to the uttermost (v 5; Rom. 13:13; 1 Tim. 5:11; 2 Pet. 2:18)
5 Nourishing the heart, or living in luxury and pride (v 5)
6 Condemning the just, or perverting the judgment of the poor (v 6; 2:1-10)
7 Killing the just to multiply their own riches (v 6; 1 Ki. 21)

[j] See 14 end-time expressions, p. 236

[k] This term is often used in the O.T. of God who is Lord of hosts, or Lord of armies, who has infinite power to rule the nations and punish the wicked (1 Sam. 1:3, 11; 4:4; 15:2; etc.)

[l] Gr. truphao, to live softly or delicately; fare sumptuously; live in luxury; to be effeminate; to be licentious; to revel. Only here, but the same meaning as truphe in Lk. 7:25; 2 Pet. 2:13

[m] Gr. spatalao, to live riotously and in pleasure (v 5; 1 Tim. 5:6)

[n] Gr. trepho, Trans. nourish (v 5; Acts 12:20; Rev. 12:14); feed (Mt. 6:26; 25:37; Lk. 12:24; Rev. 12:6); and bring up (Lk. 4:16). Here it has the idea of fearling and surfeiting as men do at the time of the slaughter of many sacrifices at religious feasts (v 5)

[o] This refers to the rapture, not the second advent, when the Lord will come in the air to receive the saints to Himself (v 7-8; Jn. 14:1-3; Lk. 21:34-36; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; 2 Cor. 5:1-8; Eph. 5:27; Phil. 3:11, 20-21; 1 Th. 2:19; 3:13; 4:13-17; 5:9, 23; 2 Th. 2:1, 7-8; Col. 3:4; 1 Jn. 2:28; 3:2; 1 Pet. 5:4)

[p] The early and latter rains in Palestine, the early rain at seedtime and the latter rain at harvest time (Dt. 11:14), are used here to picture the fruit of the harvest of souls. The early spiritual rain fell at the founding of the church (Acts 2:1-16) and the latter rain will be poured out at the end of this age when the complete harvest of this church age will be gathered (Acts 2:16-21). Cp. Hos. 6:3; Zech. 10:1

[q] Gr. stenazo, groan (note k, Rom. 8:23). Here it means to murmur

[r] 7 examples of suffering and patience:
1 Joseph (Gen. 37:8-36; 39:1-41:44)
2 Moses (Num. 12:1; 16:2-4; etc.)
3 David (1 Sam. 18:1-26:25; 2 Sam. 15)
4 Elijah (1 Ki. 17:1-19:18)
5 Jeremiah (11:21; 37:15)
6 Job (Jas. 5:11; Job 1-2)
7 Many others (Heb. 11:32-40)

[s] In the case of so many today who use Job as an excuse for being sick and bodily afflicted, there is never any end of the Lord. Job's trial lasted only a few months. He was fighting for deliverance all that time, if we could see the end of the Lord in modern Job's it would be easier to accept them as such [a] miseries that [b] shall come upon you.

2 Your [c] riches are [d] corrupted, and your garments are [e] moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is [f] canker-ed; and the [g] rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall [h] eat your flesh as it were fire. [i] Ye have heaped treasure together for the [j] last days.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the [k] Lord of sāb'a-ōth.

5 Ye have lived in [l] pleasure on the earth, and been [m] wanton; ye have [n] nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

9 Exhortation in view of the coming of the Lord

●7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the [o] coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the [p] early and latter rain. ◂

●8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. ◂

●9 [q] Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

10 Job: example of patience

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for [r] an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

▸11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Jōb, and have seen the [s] end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

11 Concerning making vows (Mt. 5:33-37; Ps. 15:6; 76:11)

●12 But above all things, my brethren, [a] swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into [b] condemnation.

12 Divine prescriptions for afflictions and sickness

●13 Is any among you [c] afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

●14 Is any [d] sick among you? [e] let him call for the [f] elders of the church; [g] and let them pray over him, [h] anointing him with [i] oil in the name of the Lord:

13 Assurance of healing (Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Ex. 15:26; Ps. 91; 103:3; Isa. 53:4-5; 58:8)

▸15 And [j] the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and [k] the Lord shall raise him up; and [l] if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

●16 [m] Confess your [n] faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be [o] healed. The [p] effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. ◂

14 Assurance of answered prayer (Lk. 11:1-13; 18:1-14; Mt. 21:22)

17 [q] Ē-li'as was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

15 The true state of a backslider and how renewed (Gal. 4:19; 6:1; 1 Jn. 1:9; 2:1-2; Ps. 51; Rev. 3:5)

19 [r] Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

Summary of James

Date and place: Written about 45 A.D. at Jerusalem before the first Christian council (51 A.D.)

Author: James, the half-brother of Jesus Christ (col. 1, p. 264)

Theme: Pure religion for the Christian Jews of the dispersion who began the world church (1:1; Acts 2:5-11). James is more Jewish in content than Matthew, the gospel for the Jews; than Jude and Revelation, and even Hebrews. There are only 2 references to Jesus Christ (1:1; 2:1), and apart from these the book of James could take a place with the O.T. canon as far as doctrine is concerned. There is no mention of the gospel, the incarnation, life, death, or resurrection of Jesus Christ. There is no suggestion as to the Messiah having come or of redemption through Him. There is no trace of early Christian controversies. James adheres to the teachings of Christ in 14 points: Jas. 1:4 with Mt. 5:48; 1:5 with Mt. 7:7; 1:6 with Mk. 11:23; 1:22 with Mt. 7:24-26; 1:25 with Jn. 13:17; 2:5 with Lk. 6:20; 2:13 with Mt. 6:14-15; 3:12 with Mt. 7:16-20; 4:8-9 with Lk. 6:24-25; 4:10 with Mt. 23:12; 4:11-12 with Mt. 7:1; 5:12 with Mt. 5:34-37; 5:1 with Lk. 6:24; 5:9 with Mt. 24:33

Statistics: 59th book of the Bible; 5 chapters; 108 verses; 2,309 words; 24 questions; 100 verses of history; 8 verses of fulfilled prophecy

2fold pure and undefiled religion (1:27)

1 To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction (v 27)
2 Keep self unspotted from the world. True religion consists of universal benevolence and purity of heart and life (Mt. 5:16, 44; 2 Cor. 9:8; Col. 1:10; 1 Tim. 1:5; Tit. 2:7, 14; 3:1, 8; Heb. 12:14; Jas. 1:27; 3:13, 17; 1 Pet. 2:12; 1 Jn. 3:17)

7fold way to pray to get answers: (1:6)

1 Pray to the Father (Jn. 16:23)
2 In the name of Jesus (Jn. 14:12-15)
3 By the Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:26)
4 With full understanding of rights and privileges (1 Cor. 14:14-15)
5 In harmony with the Word (Jn. 15:7)
6 In faith, nothing doubting (v 6)
7 With praise for the answer (Phil. 4:6)

[a] Jews and Arabs were notorious for swearing or taking oaths by heaven, earth, Jerusalem, the temple, the altar, and the different members of the body. Even simple affirmatives were always accompanied with an oath. It was this wicked practice that caused James to give this command (v 12)

[b] Gr. hupokrisis, hypocrisy (note n, Gal. 2:13). The idea is that those who were in the habit of making oaths also believed that they could make them with the mouth while the heart cancelled them. Oaths were made with mental reservations to annul them, regardless of how solemn they were. This was all done in hypocrisy and fostered searing of the conscience as to what was said. One soon became a confirmed hypocrite in such matters

[c] Gr. kakopatheia, ill plight; distress; suffer hardships. Only here. This has reference to any trouble other than sickness. Questions 22-24. Last ones in James

[d] Gr. astheneo, weak, feeble, sick (note f, Phil. 2:26-27)

[e] 2 things the sick are to do (v 14-15):
1 Call the elders of the church
2 Confess sin if it has been committed

[f] Gr. presbuteros (note g, Acts 14:23)

[g] 4 things elders are to do for the sick:
1 Pray over them (v 14)
2 Anoint the sick with oil (v 14)
3 Invoke the name of the Lord (v 14)
4 Pray the prayer of faith (v 15)

[h] Gr. aleipho. Always trans. anoint (v 14; Mt. 6:17; Mk. 6:13; 16:1; Lk. 7:38, 46; Jn. 11:2; 12:3)

[i] No doubt pure olive oil is meant, as it was customary among Jews to carry such oil with them in all their journeys to anoint their bodies, and heal their wounds and bruises (Lk. 10:34). This anointing was merely symbolic of the healing of God by the Holy Spirit (v 14; Mk. 6:13). It could not mean that olive oil was a cure for all kinds of diseases. The oil was not to do the healing else the anointing alone should be done. One would not have to pray and invoke the name of Jesus Christ merely to anoint with oil, nor would it have to be done by the elders of the church.

[j] This is what heals the sick in such cases. When the prayer of faith is prayed and the name of Jesus Christ invoked, the Lord shall raise up the sick and forgive him if he has sinned (v 15). This power to heal is promised each believer, not only the elders of the church (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26)

[k] This is true divine healing

[l] Healing and forgiveness go hand in hand (Mt. 9:5; 13:15; Acts 3:16; 4:12; 28:27)

[m] 2fold secret of bodily healing (v 16):
1 Confess your faults one to another
2 Pray one for another, that you may be healed (Mt. 18:19; 21:22; Mk. 11:24)

[n] Gr. paraptoma, a falling aside when one should have stood upright; a transgression; a moral fall (note j, Rom. 11:11)

[o] See 35 facts - sickness, healing, p. 264

[p] Gr. energeo (note e, 1 Th. 2:13). It could read, "a prayer of a just man wrought in him by divine energy"

[q] Elijah. His case is given to show that all men are alike in constitution and to encourage others to pray even for miracles (v 17-18; 1 Ki. 17:1; 18:1, 41-46)

[r] 7 facts about backsliders:
1 It is possible for brethren or Christians to err from the truth and become unconverted (v 19; note g, Lk. 22:32)
2 An erring Christian can be converted again (v 19-20; note g, Lk. 22:32)
3 An erring Christian becomes a sinner again if he sins (v 20; Rom. 6:14-23)
4 An erring Christian incurs the death penalty again when he sins (v 20; Ezek. 18:24; Rom. 8:12-13; Gal. 5:19-21)
5 If the erring Christian is saved from his error his soul will be saved again from death (v 20; 1 Jn. 1:9; 1 Jn. 5:16; Rev. 2:5)
6 If he repents and is saved again from death his sins will be forgiven and hidden (v 20; 1 Jn. 1:9; Rev. 2:5)
7 If he does not repent he will be lost and will have to pay the penalty for sin (v 20; Rom. 6:14-23; 8:12-13; 2 Tim. 2:12; Ezek. 18:24; Heb. 6:4-6, notes; 10:26-29, notes; 2 Pet. 2:20-21)

James (1:1)

James was not the one called the son of Zebedee (Mt. 4:21, note) or the son of Alphaeus (Lk. 24:10, note), but the actual half-brother of Jesus Christ (Mt. 13:55; Mk. 6:3; Gal. 1:19). See note d, Lk. 8:19, for proof that Mary had other children after Jesus was born. Christ's brethren did not believe on Him until after the resurrection (Jn. 7:5), but the other 2 James's did. This one experienced a special appearance of Christ but is not classed as an apostle (1 Cor. 15:7). This verse alone proves that there were 3 James's, for the other 2 were apostles (Mt. 10:2-3). It is always clear in Scripture when the other 2 are meant. Mary (Maria, in the Gr.), the sister of the virgin Mary had only 2 sons and one daughter (Mt. 27:56; Mk. 15:40; 16:1; Lk. 24:10). The fact that her sons had the same names as 2 sons of the virgin Mary proves nothing. The brethren of Jesus are distinguished from the 2 apostles called James (Acts 1:13-14). The virgin Mary had more sons and daughters than did her sister Maria (Mt. 13:55; Mk. 6:3). Jude was the brother of James of this book (Jude 1). It is safe to conclude that when James is referred to without any designation as "brother of John", "son of Zebedee", or "son of Alphaeus" that James the brother of our Lord is meant (Acts 12:2, 17; 15:13; 21:18; 1 Cor. 15:7; Gal. 1:19; 2:9, 12; Jas. 1:1; Jude 1). 6 perfect things in James (1:4):

1 Perfect work of patience (1:4)
2 Perfect knowledge (note v, Phil. 3:15)
3 Perfect gifts (1:17)
4 Perfect law of liberty (1:25)
5 Perfect faith by works (2:22)
6 Perfect man by restraint (3:2)

15 ways "wisdom" is used (1:5):

1 Human education (Acts 7:22)
2 Man's wisdom (1 Cor. 1:19-22; 2:1-13)
3 Human philosophy and religion (Col. 2:23; 1 Cor. 3:19; 2 Cor. 1:12; Gal. 1:14)
4 Earthly, sensual, devilish wisdom (Jas. 3:14-16)
5 Prophetic anointing (Lk. 11:49)
6 Godly training (Lk. 2:40, 52)
7 Anointing to speak (Lk. 21:15; Acts 6:1 Cor. 2:7)
8 Ministerial ability (Eph. 1:8, 17; 3:10; Col. 1:19, 28)
9 Christ the wisdom of God (1 Cor. 1:24, 30; Col. 2:3; 3:16)
10 Divine gift of wisdom (1 Cor. 12:8)
11 Divine attribute of God (Rom. 11:12 Heavenly wisdom (Jas. 3:17-18)33)
13 Spirit of revelation (2 Pet. 3:15)
14 Ability of Christ (Mt. 12:42; 13:54)
15 Native insight (Rev. 13:18; 17:9)

6 secrets of answered prayer (1:5):

1 Lack - consciousness of needs (v 5)
2 Let him ask of God (v 5; Phil. 4:6)
3 That giveth to all men liberally (v 5; Mt. 7:7-11; 21:22; Mk. 11:22-24)
4 Upbraideth not (v 5). Gr. oneidizo. Trans. upbraid (v 5; Mt. 11:20; Mk. 16:14); revile (Mt. 5:11; Mk. 15:32); cast in one's teeth (Mt. 27:44); and reproach (Lk. 6:22; Rom. 15:3; 1 Tim. 4:10; 1 Pet. 4:14). Men have been rebuked for unbelief, but never for having faith (Mt. 6:30; 8:26; 11:20; 17:17; Mk. 16:14)
5 It shall be given him (v 5; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 11:1-13; 18:1-14; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:13-14)
6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering (v 6; Heb. 11:6)

7 steps in temptation (1:14):

1 Tempted: thought of evil (v 14)
2 Drawn away: strong imagination (v 3
3 Lust: delight in viewing it (v 14) 14)
4 Enticed: weakening of the will (v 5
5 Lust conceived: yielding (v 15) 14)
6 Sin: sinful act committed (v 15)
7 Death: result of actual sin (v 15)

7 commands to Christians (1:19):

1 Be swift to hear (v 19)
2 Be slow to speak (v 19)
3 Be slow to wrath (v 19)
4 Lay aside all filthiness (v 21)
5 Lay aside all overflowing of wickedness (v 21)
6 Receive the Word with meekness (v
7 Be doers of the Word (v 22) 21)

4 kinds of disposition (1:19):

1 Those easily angered and easily pacified
2 Those easily angered and difficult to appease
3 Those not easily angered and easily appeased
4 Those not easily angered and difficult to appease

The Word - a mirror (1:23)

He sees his blemishes and imperfections and is moved by what he sees. As long as he sees his deformities, spots, and ugliness he tries to do something about them. But on going away from the mirror he forgets and his imperfections no longer bother him. So it is with the Bible. As long as one studies it he sees himself as he really is and constantly seeks to improve himself and conform to its teaching (v 25). If he gets away from the Bible a man soon forgets the real picture of himself, what manner of man he is (v 24)

Tongue and other small things (3:3)

1 Bits that guide horses (v 3)
2 Helms that guide great ships (v 4)
3 Little fires that kindle great ones
4 Tongues that boast great things (v 5-8)

14 kinds of tongues:

1 Viper's tongue (Job 20:16)
2 Flattering tongue (Ps. 5:9)
3 Proud tongue (Ps. 12:3)
4 Lying tongue (Ps. 109:2; Pr. 6:17)
5 Deceitful tongue (Ps. 120:2)
6 False tongue (Ps. 120:3)
7 Froward tongue (Pr. 10:31)
8 Wholesome tongue (Pr. 15:4)
9 Healthy tongue (Pr. 12:18)
10 Naughty tongue (Pr. 17:4)
11 Perverse tongue (Pr. 17:20)
12 Soft tongue (Pr. 25:15)
13 Stammering tongue (Isa. 28:11; 33:19)
14 Backbiting tongue (Pr. 25:23)

12 things about the tongue (3:8):

1 A little member (v 5)
2 Boasts great things (v 5)
3 Is a fire (v 6)
4 A world of iniquity (v 6)
5 It defiles the whole body (v 6)
6 Sets afire the course of nature (v 6)
7 It is untameable (v 7-8)
8 An unruly evil (v 8)
9 Full of deadly poison (v 8)
10 Used to bless God and curse men (v 9)
11 Capable of good conversation (v 13)
12 Capable of bitter strife (v 14)

10 commands for backsliders (4:7):

1 Submit yourselves to God (v 7)
2 Resist the devil (v 7)
3 Draw nigh to God (v 8)
4 Cleanse your hands, you sinners (v 8)
5 Purify your hearts, you doubters (v 8)
6 Be afflicted, mourn, and weep (v 9)
7 Let your laughter be turned to mourning (v 9)
8 Let your joy be turned to heaviness (v 9)
9 Humble yourselves before God (v 10)
10 Speak not evil of one another (v 11)

4 promises to backsliders (4:7):

1 God giveth more grace to the humble
2 He (the devil) will flee from you
3 He (God) will draw nigh to you
4 He (God) shall lift you up

There are no unconditional promises or covenants in Scripture. See 10 commands above, for conditions to meet if one wants the benefits of promises

3 laws (2:13):

1 The law of mercy (Mt. 5:7)
2 Law of forgiveness (Mt. 6:14-15)
3 Law of sowing and reaping (Gal. 6:7-8)

35 facts about sickness and healing: (5:16)

1 Health was natural and eternal before the fall (Gen. 1:26-31; 2:17)
2 Both death and sickness originated with sin and are now being propagated by Satan (Rom. 5:12-21; Job 2:6-7; Lk. 13:16; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38; 1 Jn. 3:8)
3 The first prophecy and promise of redemption included healing (Gen. 3:15; Isa. 53:5; Mt. 8:16-17; 1 Pet. 2:24)
4 The first recorded bodily affliction came through wrongdoing (Gen. 20:1-18)
5 The first recorded healing was by the prayer of a prophet (Gen. 20:7, 17)
6 God made covenants with His people to heal them (Ex. 15:26; 23:23; Lev. 26; Dt. 28; Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Jas. 5:14)
7 God has always kept His covenants and has healed multitudes by spiritual means (Ps. 103:3; 105:37; 107:20; Acts 10:38)
8 Spiritual means to heal is all that God promised and commanded (Ex. 15:25; Ps. 91; Isa. 58; Mt. 8:17; 13:15; Jas. 5:14-16; 1 Pet. 2:24)
9 Spiritual means were used in the wilderness by Israel (Ex. 15:26; Num. 11:1-3; 12:13-16; 21:1-9; Jn. 3:14)
10 Healing was promised on condition of obedience (Lev. 26; Dt. 28; Ex. 15:26; Ps. 91; Isa. 58; Jas. 5:14-15)
11 God permits Satan to afflict sinners and even His own people when they go astray, to bring them to repentance (Job 33:12-30; Ps. 38; 103:3; Num. 12:13-16; 21:9; 1 Cor. 5:1-5; 2 Cor. 2:6-11; Gal. 6:7-8)
12 God always healed when lessons were learned and men repented (Gen. 20:7, 17; Num. 11:2; 12:13-16; 21:1-9; Job 33:12-30; 42:1-12; Ps. 103:3; Jas. 5:14-15)
13 Health as well as healing was promised when men met certain conditions (Ex. 15:26; Lev. 26; Dt. 28; Ps. 91; Pr. 3:1-8; 12:18; 13:3; 15:4; 18:8, 21; Isa. 58; Jas. 5:14; 1 Pet. 3:10-11; 1 Jn. 2)
14 Christ came to redeem from both sin and sickness (Isa. 53; 61:1-2; Mt. 8:17; 9:5; Gal. 3:13; Rom. 8:11; Acts 10:38; 1 Pet. 2:24; 1 Jn. 3:8)
15 Healing is in fulfillment of prophecy (Isa. 35; 53; 61:1-2; Mt. 8:17; Acts 10:38; 1 Pet. 2:24; Mt. 13:15)
16 Jesus proved His Sonship by healing all men (Mt. 4:23-24; 11:3-6; Lk. 4:16-21; Acts 10:38; 1 Jn. 3:8)
17 Every disciple called and sent by Christ was given power to heal (Mt. 10:1-8; Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 10:1-21; Acts 1:8)
18 Jesus commanded His disciples to become endued with power to heal before they went out (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8)
19 All disciples throughout this age are commanded to observe the same commands Christ gave the first disciples (Mt. 28:20; Acts 1:4-8; Mk. 16:15-20)
20 Early disciples did confirm the Word by healing (Mk. 16:15-20; Acts 2:43; 3:1-12; 5:12-16; 6:8; 8:7-13; 11:19-22; 14:3, 27; 15:4, 12; 19:11-12; 28:9; Rom. 15:18-19, 29; 1 Cor. 16:10; Phil. 1:7; 1 Th. 2:13; Heb. 2:3-4)
21 The Holy Spirit was sent into the world to carry on the healing ministry (Acts 1:1-8; 2:33; 1 Cor. 12; Heb. 2:3-4)
22 Jesus promised every believer, not only ministers, power to do the works that He did (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Acts 1:4-8)
23 Gifts of healing and other gifts are promised as the spiritual equipment of the church (1 Cor. 1:7; 12:1-11; Rom. 1:11; 12:6-8; 15:18-19, 29; Heb. 2:3-4)
24 Healing is part of the work of the church (Mt. 10:1-8; Lk. 10:1-21; 24:49; Acts 1:1-8; 1 Cor. 12; Jas. 5:14-16)
25 Healing is provided as part of Christ's atonement (Isa. 53:4-5; Mt. 8:16-17; 13:14-15; Jn. 3:14; 10:10; Rom. 1:16; 8:11; 1 Cor. 11:23-32; Gal. 3:13; Jas. 5:14-16; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3 Jn. 2). Cp. Ex. 15:26; Ps. 91; 103:3
26 Healing is part of the children's bread and their promised right by virtue of redemption (Mt. 7:7-11; 15:22-28; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 13:16; Jn. 3:14-16; 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; 1 Jn. 3:8, 20-22; 5:14-15; 3 Jn. 2)
27 Healing is one of the signs of the gospel to follow believers (Mk. 16:15-20)
28 Healing was not only for the O. T. days (Ex. 15:26; Ps. 91; 103:3) and for the Millennium (Isa. 30:26; 33:24; 35:1-10). It is also for this age, or the gospel is faulty and the new covenant worse than the old one (Mt. 8:17; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; 1 Cor. 12:1-11; Heb. 2:3-4)
29 Healing proves that God's promises are true (2 Cor. 1:20, See above point)
30 Healing is part of salvation, for the Heb. and Gr. words for salvation all imply the ideas of forgiveness, healing, health, and full deliverance from the curse (Rom. 1:16; Gal. 3:13; 1 Pet. 2:24)
31 Healing can naturally be expected as part of the infinite care of God over His children (Mt. 6:10; 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 11:1-13; 18:1-18; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:4-8; 5:14-16)
32 Healing is on the same basis as forgiveness of sins - prayer and faith (Mt. 9:1-7; 13:15; 21:22; Acts 28:27; Jas. 1:4-8; 5:14-16; Heb. 11:6)
33 Healing proves the resurrection of Christ and the descent of the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:4-8; 2:33; 3:16; 4:12; Rom. 8:11)
34 God has provided all necessary means of healing and complete defeat of satanic powers (2 Cor. 10:4-5; Eph. 6:10-18; Mk. 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12-15; Jas. 4:7; 5:14-16; 1 Pet. 2:24; 5:7-9)
35 Healing is always the will of God for His people who may: "ask what ye will" (Jn. 15:7); "whatsoever" (Mt. 21:22; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:16); "anything" (Jn. 14:14); "what things soever ye desire" (Mk. 11:22-24); and "much more" than earthly parents would or could give their children (Mt. 7:7-11)

Thus it is clear in Scripture that bodily healing is provided for in the Old and New Testaments. The New Testament is based upon better promises than the Old Testament (Heb. 8:6)

Man a free moral agent (22:17)

If man were not a free moral agent, God would be entirely responsible for all sin, the effects of sin, rebellion, sickness, and the damnation of men, demons, and angels

7 facts about free moral agency:

1 Man has no choice about coming into the world but after he is here and old enough to be responsible, he is held accountable for his salvation or damnation (Mk. 16:15-16; Lk. 13:3, 5). Man has his own will to exercise in this matter (Jn. 3:16; 6:37; 7:17; Rev. 22:17)
2 It is God's will that all men who will to be, shall be saved (v 17; Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)
3 Men are commanded to choose God (Josh. 24:15; Lk. 13:3, 5)
4 Men are to be cursed if they do not choose God (Pr. 1:29-33; Mk. 16:16; Isa. 66:3)
5 It is impossible to serve God and Satan at the same time (Mt. 6:24; Jn. 8:32-36; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13)
6 Promises are given to men upon the basis of their choice (v 17; Mt. 16:24-25; Mk. 3:35; 16:16; Jn. 3:16; 5:40; 7:17; 9:31; 12:26)
7 In over 4,000 scriptures where "choose", "will", and other words expressing will power are used, not one suggests that God forces any man to accept Him and do His will. Man's relationship with God is entirely on a voluntary basis (v 17; Mk. 16:16; Jn. 3:16; 7:17; 1 Pet. 5:2)

No man recognizing that endless decisions are necessary to daily life can deny the fact of free acts and conduct, for he knows he has freedom of action - moral action - concerning right and wrong, and that he is responsible to God for his every act. If one can deny these facts, he can deny his very existence and prove it on the same basis he tries to prove that he is not a free moral agent. That he is and that he is free to choose his own destiny and daily moral actions are facts known to sane beings

I Authorship and salutation

1 PE'TER, an apostle of Je'sus Christ, to the c strangers scattered throughout d Pon'tus, Ga-la'tia, Cap-pa-do'ci-a, f A'sia, and g Bi-thyn'i-a,

2 h Elect according to the i foreknowledge of God the Father, through k sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Je'sus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

II Thanksgiving: 1 For the new birth and a fourfold inheritance (Acts 26:18; Rom. 8:17; Eph. 1:11)

▸3 Blessed be the l God and Father of our Lord Je'sus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath m begotten us again unto a n lively hope by the resurrection of Je'sus Christ from the dead,

4 o To an p inheritance q incorruptible, and r undefiled, and that s fadeth not away, t reserved in heaven for you,

2 For preservation unto final salvation (Mt. 10:22; Rom. 8:24)

▸5 Who are u kept by the power of God through faith unto v salvation w ready to be revealed in the last time.

3 For perfection of faith through sufferings (5:9-10)

6 x Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in y heaviness through manifold z temptations:

7 a That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of b gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory c at the appearing of Je'sus Christ:

4 For present unspeakable joy and salvation (1:18-23)

8 d Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the e end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

5 For the fulness of salvation predicted by prophets and enquired of by angels

10 Of which salvation the prophets have f enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the g grace that should come unto you:

11 h Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the i gospel unto you with the Ho'ly Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels k desire to look into.

III Exhortations in view of the fulness of salvation (1:13-2:10). 1 Seven commands

13 Wherefore l gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, m and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the n revelation of Je'sus Christ; ◂

●14 As obedient children, not o fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

●15 But as he which hath called you is holy, p so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

●16 Because it is written, q Be ye holy; for I am holy.

●17 r And if ye call on the Father, who s without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: ◂

2 How men are not redeemed

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not t redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your u vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

3 How men are born again: (1) By faith in the blood of Jesus Christ (Mt. 26:28; Rom. 3:24; 5:9; Eph. 1:7; 2:13; Heb. 9:14; 10:1-19; 1 Jn. 1:7; Rev. 1:5)

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 Who verily was v foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

(2) By faith in God through Christ (Eph. 2:8-9; Heb. 12:2)

21 w Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

(3) By the Holy Spirit (Jn. 3:1-5; 16:7-11; Rom. 8:1-16; Eph. 2:18)

●22 Seeing ye have x purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

(4) By the word of God (Jn. 3:5; 15:3; Rom. 1:16; Eph. 5:26; Jas. 1:18)

23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorrupti-a It was the new covenant and its full blessings that the prophets foretold. The fulness of grace (Jn. 1:16-17), the fulness of the Holy Spirit anointing upon believers (Lk. 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; Acts 1:4-8), the full gifts and fruit of the Spirit (1 Cor. 12:4-11; Gal. 5:22-23), and the complete redemptive acts and processes of which the law was a shadow (Heb. 10:1) were all predicted by the prophets. The way into the holiest by the blood of Christ (Heb. 10:19), power and authority of every believer to do the works of Christ (Jn. 14:12), and many other truths and experiences were unknown to the prophets b Angels are no doubt amazed at the wonderful plan of redemption and of the eternal exaltation of the redeemed. Even now they are being taught by the church the manifold wisdom of God (Eph. 3:9-11). They observe saints constantly (1 Cor. 4:9) and desire to look into the wonderful truths of the gospel (v 12)

f Gr. suschematize, to conform to another's example. Only here and Rom. 12:2
g Paganism scarcely produced a god whose example was not the most abominable. Their greatest gods were paragons of impurity, of sexual excess and perversion. Here Christianity has an infinite advantage over heathenism. God is holy and He demands all His followers to be like Him (v 15-16; Heb. 12:14)
h Quoted from Lev. 11:44
i If you call on God through Christ and profess to be obedient children, pass your time here in reverence and fear j Since God is no respecter of persons He cannot be anything but infinitely impartial in His dealings with all men. He cannot prefer one above another nor bless one above another when all meet the same terms and love Him with all the heart. The seeming preference of God between two men is based upon the attitude and disposition of the men toward God and conformity to His plan. Naturally, God cannot bless two men the same when one is in obedience and the other in rebellion. God will bless the ones more who conform more fully to His holiness. Here it is clear that all judgment of God will be according to every man's work (v 17; Mt. 16:27) k Gr. luroo, to procure the life of a captive or a slave by paying a price (note n, Heb. 9:12). The price here is not silver and gold, but the precious blood of Christ (v 18-19; Mt. 26:28; Eph. 1:14; Col. 1:20; Acts 20:28). Silver and gold, the most valuable medium of commerce among men, bear no proportion in their value to the souls of men to be redeemed. Nothing but the precious blood of Christ could pay the ransom price for the soul from death l Empty, foolish, unprofitable, and vain traditions and rituals. The Jews had added innumerable religious burdens and empty ceremonies which they held to be essential to salvation m Gr. proginosko, to know beforehand (note y, Rom. 8:29). Cp. note j, 1:2

f Gr. logikos, belonging to speech; belonging to reason; that which is rational; fit for reasoning; hence, logic. Trans. of the word (v 2) and reasonable (Rom. 12:1). The milk to be found in the Word of God is in the highest sense reasonable

There it was laid and there Christ suffered and died for the sins of the whole world (Mt. 23:37-39; Lk. 13:33). Reasons Jews stumbled at Christ:
1 Because He did not come as a worldly prince to deliver them from the Romans (Jn. 11:48; Acts 1:7)
2 Because He was a poor man having no appeal to worldly people (2 Cor. 8:9; Jn. 15:19-23; 17:14-16)

q Gr. proskomma. Trans. stumbling (v 8); stumbling-block (Rom. 14:13; 1 Cor. 8:9); and offence (Rom. 14:20)
r Gr. skandalon. Trans. offence (v 8; Mt. 13:41; 16:23; 18:7; Lk. 17:1; Rom. 9:33; 16:17; Gal. 5:11); occasion of stumbling (1 Jn. 2:10; Rom. 14:13); and stumbling-block (Rom. 11:9; 1 Cor. 1:23; Rev. 2:14) s This is what made them stumble. Anyone who obeys God will not stumble at Christ t This simply means that men are appointed to stumble if they are determined to be disobedient. God did not choose them to stumble or be disobedient. This was their choice (Mt. 13:15)

224 CHAPTER 2

5 Five things that will stop spiritual growth (Rom. 8:13)

WHEREFORE [d]laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

6 How to grow spiritually (Rom. 10:17; Eph. 4:11-16; 2 Pet. 1:5-11)

●2 As [e]newborn babes, desire the sincere milk [f]of the word, that ye may [g]grow thereby:

7 What Christ is to believers (v 6; 1 Cor. 1:30; Eph. 2:14; 5:25-33)

3 If so be ye have [h]tasted that the [i]Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

8 What believers are to God (v 9; Eph. 2:19-22; 2 Cor. 6:16-18)

5 [j]Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to [k]offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jē'şus Christ.

9 What Christ is to believers (v 3; Heb. 4:14-16; 9:15; 12:2)

★6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, [l]Behold, I lay in Si'ŏn a [m]chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be [n]confounded.

10 What Christ is to sinners (Acts 17:31; Rev. 20:11-15)

★7 Unto you therefore which believe he is [o]precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, 8 And a [p]stone of [q]stumbling, and a rock of [r]offence, even to them which stumble at the word, [s]being disobedient: whereunto [t]also they were appointed.

11 What believers are to God (v 5; Tit. 2:14; Phil. 2:15; Rev. 1:6)

9 [u]But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the [a]praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

★10 [b]Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

IV Christian relationship to others (2:11-3:13). 1 Of Christians to sinners (2 Cor. 6:14-18)

●11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you [c]as [d]strangers and pilgrims, abstain from [e]fleshly lusts, which [f]war against the soul;

●12 Having your [g]conversation honest [h]among the Gĕn'tīleş: that, whereas they speak against you as [i]evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God [j]in the day of visitation.

2 Christian relationship to rulers (Rom. 13; 1 Tim. 2:1-2)

●13 [k]Submit yourselves to every [l]ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him [m]for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For [n]so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to [o]silence the [p]ignorance [q]of foolish men:

●16 [r]As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

●17 [s]Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. [t]Fear God. [u]Honour the king.

3 Christian relationship of servants to masters (Eph. 6:5)

●18 Servants, [v]be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the [w]froward.

19 For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 [x]For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, that is acceptable with God.

4 Christ an example of suffering wrongfully (3:17; Mt. 5:38)

21 [y]For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an [z]example, that ye should follow his [a]steps:

★22 [b]Who did no sin, [c]neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who, when he was [d]reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

▶24 [e]Who [f]his own self [g]bare our sins in his [h]own body [i]on the tree, [j]that we, being dead to h What Peter writes to Christians applies to both Jews and Gentiles i Jews and Christians were not at first distinguished by the heathen and as the Jews were so hated by the Gentiles it became necessary that Christians walk very godly to prove to men that they were not the same as Jews, even though many of them were Jewish by nationality

j In the day they shall be brought to Christ through your lives of suffering and by your good works k Be subject, as in Rom. 13:1-7. Christians are under command to obey human laws and civil rulers as long as they do not transgress the laws of God l Gr. krisis, always trans. creature or creation except here and Heb. 9:11. See note b, Rom. 8:19. It means not only to be subject to every human ordinance, but also to every human creature who has any authority in government. The Jews thought it unlawful to obey any ruler who was not of Jewish stock
m This is the purpose of human government and civil rulers, and it is only right that all good men co-operate to put lawlessness down

5 Let the inner man be adorned more than the outward man (v 3-4)
6 Trust in God (v 5)
7 Do well (v 6)
8 Live faithful to the husband, so there will be no fear of being found guilty of infidelity (v 6)
These are not only duties of a wife, but are the 8 things which make a model wife. How can one win a husband or anyone else who is constantly breaking these laws?
i If husbands will not hear preaching of the gospel, they will hear the preaching of the chaste behaviour of the wives. The Gr. for conversation is anastrophe, conduct or manner of life (6 things, col. 1, p. 237). If the wife will conduct herself in chastity, reverence to the husband, and in fear of God the husband may be won (v 2-3)

CHAPTER 3 225

5 Christian relationship of wives to husbands (Eph. 5:22)

LIKEWISE, ye [g]wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may [h]without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

●3 Whose [i]adorning [k]let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

●4 But let it be the [l]hidden man of the heart, in that which [m]is not corruptible, [n]even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God [o]of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sā'rā obeyed Ă'brăham, calling him lord: [p]whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any [q]amazement.

6 Christian relationship of husbands to wives (Eph. 5:25)

●7 [r]Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the [s]weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; [t]that your prayers be not hindered.

7 Relationship of Christian brethren: 14 commands

●8 Finally, [u]be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

●9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

●10 [v]For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

●11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

▸12 [w]For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: [x]but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 [y]And who is he that will harm you, if ye be [z]followers of that which is good?

V Christian sufferings (3:14-4:19). 1 Suffering for righteousness and its result ●14 But and if ye [a]suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: [b]and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

●15 But [c]sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

●16 Having [d]good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your [e]good conversation in Christ.

2 God's will and Christ's example in suffering (2:21-25)

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, [f]that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For [g]Christ also hath [h]once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to [i]death in the flesh, but [j]quickened by the Spirit:

3 Christ's descent to Tartarus (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; Eph. 4:7-11; Col. 2:14-17; Rev. 1:18; Ps. 16:10)

19 [k]By which also he went and preached unto the [l]spirits in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Nō'ah, while the ark was a preparing, [m]wherein few, that is, eight souls were [n]saved by water.

4 Water baptism a symbol and does not put away the filth of the flesh of Gal. 5:19-21; 2 Cor. 7:1; Col. 2:11, etc.

21 The [o]like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the [p]filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jē'şus Christ:

5 Christ exalted over all His enemies and all spirit beings (Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:9-11; Col. 1:16-18)

22 [q]Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4 226

6 Christians are to suffer and cease from sin (Rom. 8:13; Gal. 5:24; Col. 3:5-10)

FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, [r]arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for [s]he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

●2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

7 Seven sins of the old life a All sufferings for right-doing will work to your good (Rom. 8:28), providing you take the right attitude (v 14; Mt. 5:10; Lk. 6:22-23)

b Quoted from Isa. 8:12-13 c Another proof that sanctification means to separate from a profane to a sacred purpose. We are to give God His rightful place; hold Him in reverence d Conscience, p. 236. One can always have a good conscience if he maintains good behaviour (v 16)
e Gr. anastrophe, manner of life; behaviour (6 things, col. 1, p. 237) f 6 things to do in view of suffering:
1 Be happy in suffering (v 14; Mt. 5:10)
2 Be not afraid of man (v 14; Mt. 10:28)
3 Be not troubled by trouble (v 14)
4 Take suffering as unto God and hold Him sacred in your heart (v 15)
5 Be ready to give an account of your life, conduct, and hope (v 15)
6 Maintain a good conscience by good behaviour (v 16)
g 8 facts about Christ (v 18-22):
1 Suffered (v 18)
2 Was put to death (v 18)
3 Was resurrected by the Spirit (v 18)
4 Went to hell (Ps. 16:10; Acts 2:27)
5 Preached to angels while in hell (v 19; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7)
6 Ascended to heaven (v 22)
7 Sits on God's right hand (v 22; Eph. 1:20; Heb. 1:3; 8:1; 12:2)
8 Exalted above all others (v 22; Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:9-11; Col. 1:15-18)
h 3 purposes of Christ's sufferings (v 18):
1 Suffered for sins (Gal. 1:4; Mt. 26:28; Eph. 1:14; 1 Cor. 15:3; 1 Pet. 2:24)
2 Suffered for the unjust (Rom. 5:6-8)
3 Suffered to bring us to God (Col. 1:20-22; 2:14-17; 2 Cor. 5:14-21)
i He died in the flesh, but did not die in the spirit, proving immortality of the spirit (Jas. 2:26; note m, 1 Pet. 3:4)
j His dead body was resurrected by the Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:11) k By the Holy Spirit anointing He preached to the angels in tartarus while His body was in the grave (v 19; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7. See notes on Gen. 6:4)
l See 10 proofs that spirits are angels, p. 269
m Into which ark 8 souls were saved by (Gr. dia, through) water, or saved from drowning in the flood by being in the ark (v 20; Gen. 6:9-10, 18; 7:7; 8:18). The water did not save them but the ark did n They were not saved in the sense of their souls being saved from sin, but saved from death and from drowning in the flood o The like figure of baptism in water also saves us. How does it save us? Is it the water that saves or the thing that it is a figure of? It was not the water that saved the 8 persons of v 20. It was the ark that saved them from drowning in the flood. So baptism in water does not save the soul, but faith in the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, that which baptism is a figure of, does save the soul (Rom. 6:3-5; 1 Cor. 15:1-4; Eph. 1:14; Col. 1:20-22). A mere figure can have no power to save, but the reality of the figure can. Peter, lest some should trust in water baptism to save the soul, makes it very clear that baptism does not save one from the filth or moral depravity of the flesh. He shows it to be only the answer of a good conscience toward God, one that has been made clean by faith in the resurrection of Jesus Christ (v 21). It is clear here that at baptism the conscience is already supposed to be good and clean and baptism merely answers to it. As the waters of the flood could not have saved these 8 persons, had they not made use of the ark, so the water of baptism does not save the soul of anyone, but testifies figuratively to the salvation that comes by faith (Rom. 1:16; 3:24-25; 10:9-10). See note a, Mt. 3:11; note q, Acts 22:16 p Gr. rupos, the root word of rhuparia, rhuparos, and rhupoo, meaning moral filth and depravity (Jas. 1:21; 2:2; Rev. 22:11; note n, Jas. 1:21)
q See note g, 8, above. Cp. Mt. 28:18
r Put on the same armour of forgiveness, meekness, gentleness, and complete self-control that Christ had s He that has mortified the flesh has ceased from sin (Rom. 8:12-13; Col. 3:5-10)

(Rom. 1:29-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Eph. 2:1-3; Col. 3:5-10)

3 For the[a]time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gĕn'tiles, when we [b]walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye [c]run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

8 All men are to be judged (Acts 17:31; Rom. 2:16; 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 20:11-15)

5 Who shall give [d]account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 [e]For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, [f]but live according to God in the spirit.

9 Four commands in view of judgment

7 But [g]the end of all things is at hand: [h]be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for [i]charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another without [j]grudging.

10 Concerning spiritual gifts (1 Cor. 12:1, refs.)

10 As every man hath received the [k]gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the [l]manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the [m]oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jē'sus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. A'mĕn'.

11 Four things Christians are to suffer, things they are not to suffer, and four things to do in sufferings

12 Beloved, [p]think it not strange concerning the [q]fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 [r]But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.◂

14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 [s]But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a [t]busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer [u]as a [v]Chris'tian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

12 Present and future judgments and how to escape punishment

17 For the time is come that [w]judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, [x]what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore [y]let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

227 CHAPTER 5

VI Fourteen commands to Christians (5:1-11). 1 Seven to Pastors (1 Tim. 3; Tit. 1)

THE [a]elders which are among you I exhort, who am also [b]an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 [c]Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for [d]filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as being [e]lords over God's heritage, but being [f]ensamples to the flock.

4 And when the chief [g]Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a [h]crown of glory that fadeth not away.

2 Seven commands to all Christians

5 Likewise, ye younger, [i]submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed [j]with humility: [k]for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.◂

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:◂

7 Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.◂

8 Be [l]sober, be [m]vigilant; because your [n]adversary the [o]devil, as a [p]roaring lion, [q]walketh about, seeking whom he may [r]devour:

9 [s]Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the [t]same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

VII Conclusion and benediction

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jē'sus, after that ye have suffered a while, [u]make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. A-mĕn'.

12 By [v]Sĭl-vā'nus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is a This is a picture of Gentile life and indicates that Peter is writing also to the Gentiles and not only to Jews (See Summary of 1 Peter, p. 289)

b See 8 sins of Jews - Gentiles, p. 270 c They marvel how you can renounce these fleshly gratifications for something spiritual that you cannot see d 5th N. T. prophecy in 1 Peter (4:5-7, v 5-6 unfulfilled: v 7 fulfilled). Next, v 13. All men will give account to God e In order to judge all men justly, the gospel has been given to all alike. Those who are now dead had the gospel preached to them while they were alive, just as those who are now alive are hearing the gospel. It was preached to Abraham (Gal. 3:8) and to Israel (Heb. 4:1-2). Even Abel, Enoch, Noah, etc. had the gospel (Heb. 11). In cases where men have not had the law or the gospel, God will judge them on the basis of the light they have had and according to their living up to the conscience (Rom. 2:12-16)
f All men live according to God in the spirit, proving that the inner man is immortal (note m, 3:4)
g Peter uses this term of impending judgment on Israel, which came about 10 years later, when Jerusalem and the temple were destroyed and the priesthood and sacrifices came to an end. God used the same kind of expression to Noah, referring to the flood (Gen. 6:13) h 4 commands in view of judgment:
1 Be sober (v 7). Gr. sophroneo, (note f, 1, Tit. 2:6)
2 Watch unto prayer (v 7). Gr. nepho, to live soberly (point 3, col. 4, p. 227)
3 Above all, have fervent love among yourselves (note g, 1 Cor. 13:4)
4 Be hospitable without murmuring (v 9; Rom. 12:13; Heb. 13:2) i Gr. ektenes, earnest; zealous, abundant. Trans. fervent (v 8) and without ceasing (Acts 12:5. Cp. note e, 1 Th. 2:13)
j Not that our love will cause God to pass up or pardon the sins of others, but that it will enable us to pass up the faults of others and not hold grudges ourselves k Gr. goggusmos. Trans. grudging (v 9) and murmuring (Jn. 7:12; Acts 6:1; Phil. 2:14). Do nothing merely because it is commanded, but do it from love to God and man l Gr. charisma, a gift or an ability given by the Holy Spirit through grace (note s, 1 Tim. 4:14). Every man is to minister to others according to the ability he receives from God (v 10-11; Rom. 12:3-8; 1 Cor. 12:4-11) m 7 manifold things:
1 God's manifold works (Ps. 104:24)
2 Man's manifold transgressions (Amos 5:12)
3 Man's manifold temptations (1 Pet. 1:6)
4 God's manifold grace (1 Pet. 4:10)
5 God's manifold wisdom (Eph. 3:10)
6 God's manifold mercies (Neh. 9:19, 27)
7 Man's manifold reward (Lk. 18:30) n Gr. logion, a divine answer to a question. It always implies a speech purely celestial, in which man has no part. Here; Acts 7:38; Rom. 3:2; Heb. 5:12. Heathen gave the highest respect to oracles from their gods. They held them as sacred and inviolable and did scarcely anything in business, war, making peace, or making laws without an oracle. How much more should Christians obey the Bible which they hold to be the oracles of God! Heathen gave many presents to their priests to get an oracle that could be interpreted either way a matter happened, but Christians have an infallible revelation in all affairs of life - and it is free o Let him not try to minister beyond his own ability, or imitate the ability of another (2 Cor. 10:11-18)
p See 10 facts about sufferings, p. 270
q Gr. purosis, burning. Here; Rev. 18:9, 18
r 6th and last N. T. prophecy in 1 Peter (4:13, unfulfilled). 10 rewards, p. 270
s See Christian sufferings do not consist of: p. 270
t The inspector of another; meddling in the affairs of others and forgetting his own (v 15; Lev. 19:16; Pr. 20:3; 2 Th. 3:11-12; 1 Tim. 5:13)
u See Of what Christian sufferings consist, p. 270

a Meaning Christ-like. Used only here; Acts 11:26; 26:28
b Gr. krima, judgment, damnation, punishment (Condemnation, p. 237). If the righteous are found sinning He judges them first, and if they are found righteous He delivers them from judgment (Gen. 18:23-32; 19:22; Ex. 14:13-31; Ezek. 9:1-11; etc.). The idea here is that if God will punish the righteous when they sin, He will surely punish the ungodly. If the ones who are righteous are scarcely saved, there is no possible hope of sinners being saved c Questions 3-4. The last ones in 1 Peter d Let them that suffer for well doing endure it and commit themselves to God who is faithful to avenge all such (v 19; Heb. 10:30-31)
e Gr. presbuteros, presbyters, bishops, pastors, and overseers of the churches (note g, Acts 14:23) f Gr. sumpresbuteros, a fellow elder; one on the same level with yourselves. If Peter was the first pope, the prince of the apostles, and the head of the church he certainly missed the opportunity here of making such clear to the church
5 things Peter claimed to be:
1 A servant of Jesus Christ (2 Pet. 1:1)
2 An apostle of Jesus Christ (1 Pet. 1:1; 2 Pet. 1:1)
3 A fellow-elder (1 Pet. 5:1)
4 A witness of the sufferings of Christ (1 Pet. 5:1; Acts 5:32)
5 A partaker of the glory (1 Pet. 5:1)
g 6 commands to the elders (v 2-3):
1 Feed, do not fleece the flock of God
2 Take oversight of the flock of God
3 Serve God and His flock willingly
4 Serve readily, not for personal gain
5 Do not be lords over God's heritage
6 Be examples to the flock
h Gr. aischrokerdos, eagerness for base gain. Only here. Cp. 1 Tim. 3:3, 8 i Not exercising lordship over the flock that is under you, but being examples in utter humility and service (v 3) j Gr. tupos, pattern (note c, Phil. 3:17) k See note d, Heb. 13:20
l See note x, 2 Tim. 4:8
m 8 commands to Christians (v 5-9):
1 Let the younger submit to the elder
2 All submit to one another (v 5) (v 5)
3 Be clothed with humility (v 5)
4 Humble yourselves to God (v 6)
5 Cast all your care upon God (v 7)
6 Be sober (v 8)
7 Be vigilent (v 8)
8 Resist Satan in the faith (v 9) n See Christian humility, p. 270
o Quoted from Pr. 3:34
p Gr. nepho, sober (point 3, col. 4, p. 227) q Gr. gregoreo, to be awake. Trans. vigilant (1 Pet. 5:8); wake (1 Th. 5:10); watchful (Rev. 3:2); and watch 20 times (Mt. 24:42-43; 25:13; Acts 20:31; 1 Cor. 16:13, notes; Col. 4:2; 1 Th. 5:6; Rev. 3:3; 16:15; etc.). Never be off your guard. Be ready every moment to resist the devil (v 9; Jas. 4:7; Eph. 4:27)
r Gr. antidikos, an opponent in a suit; properly the defendent, but also the plaintiff or the one who brings suit. Here; Mt. 5:25; Lk. 12:58; 18:3
s See 21 names and titles of Satan, p. 270 t See 7 things Satan compared to, p. 270 u Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7
v Gr. katapino, to gulp down. Trans. devour (v 8); drown (Heb. 11:29); swallow (Mt. 23:24); and swallow up (1 Cor. 15:54; 2 Cor. 2:7; 5:4; Rev. 12:16). It is not every one that Satan can gulp down. Those who obey the commands of point m, above, cannot be swallowed up by him
w This method of satanic defeat is open to every child of God (Jas. 4:7) x These refer to persecutions of Christians in all the world and not to diseases. The word for afflictions means the same as the sufferings of Christ in v 1, and not to sicknesses and diseases. It is pathema (note p, Rom. 7:5). It is not necessary for Christians to be sick in order to enjoy the 4 blessings of note y, below. See note u, 4:16 y 4 blessings from suffering persecutions:
1 Perfection (note a, 2 Cor. 13:5)
2 Establishment in the faith (note u, Rom. 1:11)
3 Spiritual strength. Gr. sthenos, to bind together and strengthen so there will be no danger of warping, splitting, or falling apart. Only here
4 Settling or grounding one in the faith. Gr. themelioo, good foundation z The same as Silas. Cp. 1 Th. 1:1; 2 Th. 1:1; Acts 15:40; 16:19 a This refers to the city of Babylon on the River Euphrates, the only literal Babylon mentioned in Scripture. It is a historical fact that Babylon was still in existence at that time and that there were many Jews there. Josephus writes of Babylon about the same time. Josephus, book 18, chap. 9; book 19, chap. 1

God's foreknowledge (1:2)

Gr. prognosis, a perceiving beforehand. Only here and Acts 2:23. In both places it refers to God seeing ahead that He would have to send a Saviour to redeem man from the fall. See notes y and z, Rom. 8:29-30. No single individual is chosen, elected, foreknown, or predestined to be saved or lost without his personal choice and responsibility in the matter (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17). It would be a cruel respect of persons - an unjust regard for one and an unjust disregard for another and not divine justice for one to be chosen by God to be saved and another to be damned. God offers grace to all alike. His invitations, promises, provision, and warnings of punishment are general. All men are invited to choose life and are warned of eternal punishment if they do not do so. It is inconsistent with man's probation for God to choose and elect some to be saved and some to be lost

Begotten again (1:3)

Gr. anagennao, to beget anew. Used only twice and that by Peter. Trans. begotten again(v 3) and be born again (v 23). It certainly teaches a begetting more than once. The word again proves this fact (v 3; Jn. 3:3, 7; note d, Gal. 4:19). Man was created in union with God and in God's grace and favor. He fell from this position and has to be born AGAIN to get back into God's grace (Jn. 3:3, 7). After one is born AGAIN he is warned not to build AGAIN the things he once destroyed (Gal. 2:18); not to turn AGAIN to sin (Gal. 4:9); not to be entangled AGAIN with the yoke of bondage (Gal. 5:1); not to be overcome with the pollutions of the world (2 Pet. 2:20-22); and not to lay AGAIN the foundation of repentance and service to God (Heb. 6:1). If man does not heed these warnings and does these things AGAIN, then what happens? Is he still saved? Is he still born of God? Is he still in grace? See note d, Gal. 4:19

3fold salvation (1:5)

1 The believer now has salvation and is saved from all sin (Lk. 19:9; Acts 4:12; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; 2 Cor. 6:2; 2 Th. 2:13; 1 Jn. 1:9; Eph. 1:14)

2 The believer is being kept from sin as he walks in the light (Phil. 2:12; 2 Tim. 3:15; Tit. 2:11-12; Heb. 2:3; 6:9; 1 Jn. 1:7)

3 The believer will eventually be saved from all the fall (Rom. 13:11; 1 Th. 5:9; Heb. 5:9; 9:28; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13)

8 facts about Christ (2:3):

1 Gracious (v 3; Ex. 34:6; Ps. 86:15; 103:8; 111:4; 112:4; 116:5; 145:8)

2 A Living Stone. The only foundation of the church (v 4, 6; Isa. 28:16; 1 Cor. 3:11; Eph. 2:18-22)

3 Chosen or elected of God (v 4). Chosen to be the Saviour of the world and founder of the church (see the 4 elect's of God, p. 201)

4 Disallowed of men (v 4). A fulfillment of Ps. 118:22; Isa. 53

5 Gr. entimos. Trans. precious (v 4, 6); dear (Lk. 7:2); hold in reputation (Phil. 2:29); and honorable (Lk. 14:8). Regardless of the attitude of men, God holds Christ to be supremely precious, dear, and honorable

6 The chief corner stone (v 6-8; Isa. 28:16)

7 A stone of stumbling (v 8, note p; note r, Ps. 118:22)

8 A rock of offence (v 6, note p; note r, Ps. 118:22)

4 things Christ did do (2:24):

1 Suffered as our example (v 21)
2 Committed His cause to God (v 23)
3 Bore our sins in His own body (v 24)
4 Submitted to stripes to heal men (v 24; Isa. 53:4-6; Mt. 8:16-17)

Summary of 1 Peter

Date and place: Written from Babylon about 60 A. D.

Author: Peter, one of the 12 apostles (1:1; Mt. 10:2); called Simon and Cephas (Jn. 1:42); a native fisherman of Bethsaida (Mt. 4:18; Jn. 1:44); history of (Mt. 4:18; 8:14; 10:2; 14:28; 15:15; 16:16-23; 17:1, 24; 18:21; 19:27; 26:33-75; Jn. 13:6-37; 18:10-27; 20:2-6; 21:2-21; Acts 1:13-15; 2:14-38; 3:1-12; 4:8-19; 5:3-29; 8:14-20; 9:32-40; 10:5-46; 11:2-13; 12:3-18; 15:7; Gal. 1:18-2:14). Peter was a married man (Mt. 8:14; 1 Cor. 9:5). He had no headship over the entire church. He ministered primarily to Jews only (Gal. 2:7) and was not even the head of the Jewish section of the church much less that of the Gentiles (Acts 15; 2 Cor. 11:28; Gal. 2:6-21). Peter was only an elder among many others (1 Pet. 5). There is not the slightest proof that he ever visited Rome. Paul, in no epistle to Rome and in none written from Rome ever mentions him as being a resident bishop there. Instead of going west we find Peter going east and writing an epistle from Babylon. We know nothing of his death other than what is given in Jn. 21:18-19. He wrote 2 books, 1 and 2 Peter

Theme: To exhort believers to stand true in all kinds of suffering; and to set forth the true grace of God (5:12). Suffering is mentioned 16 times in 5 chapters

Statistics: 60th book of the Bible; 5 chapters; 105 verses; 2,482 words; 4 questions; 92 verses of history; 3 verses of fulfilled and 10 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

Telos - the end (1:9)

Gr. telos, the end of a thing. It could also mean the consummation of being admitted or initiated into religion, marriage, etc. If this is what Peter had in mind it refers to believers being initiated into salvation by their faith (v 8-9). He could have had in mind the end of salvation itself, which is at the end of a life of faith (see note below). Trans. end (v 9; 4:7, 17; Mt. 10:22; 24:6, 13, 14; 26:58; Mk. 3:26; 13:7, 13; Lk. 1:33; 21:9; 22:37; Jn. 13:1; Rom. 6:21-22; 10:4; 1 Cor. 1:8; 10:11; 15:24; 2 Cor. 1:13; 3:13; 11:15; Phil. 3:19; 1 Tim. 1:5; Heb. 3:6, 14; 6:8, 11; 7:3; Jas. 5:11; Rev. 2:26; 21:6; 22:13); ending (Rev. 1:8); finally (1 Pet. 3:8); to the uttermost (1 Th. 2:16); continual (Lk. 18:5); and custom (Mt. 17:25; Rom. 13:7)

10 future blessings of salvation (1:5):

1 Redemption of the body (Rom. 8:23)
2 Redemption of all creatures (Rom. 8:19-24; Acts 13:47; Isa. 11:6-9)
3 Unforfeitable eternal life (Mt. 19:29; Mk. 10:30; Lk. 18:30; Gal. 6:7-8)
4 Final defeat of Satan (Rev. 12:10; 20:1-10; Isa. 24:21-22; 25:7-8)
5 All rebellion put down and cancellation of the curse (Rev. 22:3; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)
6 Uniting of heaven and earth (Eph. 1:10)
7 Complete removal of sin, sickness, death, and all effects of rebellion (Rev. 21:3-5; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)
8 Renewal of the heavens and earth to a perfect state (Rev. 21-22; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rom. 8:19-25; Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-28)
9 Eternal continuation of natural peoples, animals, and all things as would have been if man had not sinned (Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 11:6-9; 65:20-25; Rom. 8:20-25)
10 Eternal kingdom of Christ and of God on earth (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)

7 commands for Christians (1:13):

1 Gird up the loins of your mind (v 13). This means to brace up and take courage in face of the trials that one is called to go through
2 Be sober (v 13). Gr. nepho, to live soberly and righteously (note e, 3, 1 Th. 5:6; Tit. 2:11-12)
3 Hope to the end for the grace and salvation that are to be brought at the coming of Christ (v 13; Rom. 9:24-25). This further confirms the fact that all of grace and salvation is not received at remission of sins (see note above)
4 Do not pattern after your former life of sin (v 14; Eph. 2:1-3). You are new creatures and you must live new lives (2 Cor. 5:17-18)
5 Be holy in all your manner of life (v 15). You are to pattern after God in all things (v 16)
6 Pass the time of your sojourning here in fear (v 17; 1 Cor. 10:12-13)
7 See that you love one another with a pure heart fervently (v 22; Jn. 13:34-35; 15:12-13)

Spiritual sacrifices (2:5)

The sacrifices this priesthood offers are spiritual (note g, Rom. 7:14)

1 Spiritual men offering themselves (Rom. 12:1-2; 1 Cor. 2:15; 3:1; Gal. 6:1)
2 Spiritual services (1 Cor. 2:4; 9:11; 14:12; 2 Cor. 3:6)
3 Songs (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16)
4 Praises (v 9; Heb. 13:15-16)
5 Conduct (Rom. 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16, 25)
6 Personal faith (2 Cor. 4:15)
7 Wisdom and knowledge (Col. 1:9)
8 Personal love (Col. 1:8)
9 Faithfulness (Phil. 1:27; Rom. 1:9)
10 Prayer and supplications (Eph. 6:18)

Christian virtues (2:9)

Gr. aretas, virtues. Trans. praises (v 9); lamb (Lk. 10:3); and virtue (Phil. 4:8; 2 Pet. 1:3, 5). The virtues Christians are to show before men are the perfections of wisdom, knowledge, justice, truth, love, patience, holiness, goodness, grace, joy, peace, faith, and other attributes and powers of the Divine Trinity. These virtues are to be demonstrated by Christians to angels and men (1:12; 1 Cor. 4:9; Eph. 3:9-10)

8 commands for pilgrims (2:11):

1 Abstain from fleshly lusts (v 11)
2 Live honest lives before men (v 12)
3 Submit to human civil rulers (v 13-15)
4 Be free, but live godly (v 16)
5 Honor all men (v 17)
6 Love the brotherhood (v 17)
7 Fear God (v 17)
8 Honor the king (v 17)

Jews and human governments (2:16)

Jews considered themselves free men - servants to no one but God. They used this doctrine to justify their many rebellions against Rome and other nations. They used it for a cloak of maliciousness and rebellion. Peter warned them not to do so, but to be subject to civil rulers in all lands proving they were true servants of God

Outward adorning (3:3)

1 Hair style (Ancient head-dress, 236)
2 Wearing gold (above note, 236)
3 Wearing apparel. It is not the total condemnation of these three things that Peter intends here. It is stressing the importance of inner adorning over outward adorning. Many go to extremes classing as sin all wearing of certain hair styles, and wearing of finger rings, bracelets, and other ornaments; but this is not the purpose of the passage. It says nothing of any one of these things being sinful or unbecoming to Christians, and in this respect is in perfect accord with Paul who rebukes extravagance in ornaments and garments (Ancient head-dress, p. 236)

If we are to condemn all hair styles or all wearing of gold, then we must be consistent and condemn all wearing of clothing, for this is one of three things referred to here. If we are to condemn one altogether we must condemn all three. It is not, therefore, the total abstinence from any of these things, a This is John Mark, a convert of Peter and the author of the Gospel of Mark. See note j, Acts 12:12. He was not the actual son of Peter, but a son in the faith in the same way that Timothy and Titus were sons of Paul (1 Tim. 1:2; Tit. 1:4) b This was the oriental greeting, not necessarily a Christian one but the proper emphasis on each that is meant. We are to pay more attention to the inward man than to the outer man (v 4). Peter gives here the examples of holy women of old who adorned the inner man by being quiet and meek before their husbands, but who wore much jewelry and outward adorning (v 5-6; Gen. 24:22, 30, 47, 53). All these came from Abraham and Sarah who were rich in silver and gold (Gen. 24:35). Ornaments were worn by men as well as women in ancient times (Ex. 32:2; 35:22; Judg. 8:24; Isa. 3:11-24; Job 42:11)

10 proofs spirits are angels (3:19):

1 They sinned in the days of Noah (Gen. 6:4. See note on this passage)
2 If these were human souls it would not specify only those who sinned in the days of Noah
3 Human beings are never called spirits. Where human spirits are referred to it is always qualified and clarified by speaking of them as spirits OF men (Heb. 12:23); spirits OF all flesh (Num. 16:22; 27:16); and spirits OF the prophets (1 Cor. 14:32). Men have spirits, but they are not spirits. Where the word spirits is used without such qualifications it refers to spirit-beings (Ps. 104:4; Heb. 1:7, 14)
4 There is a special prison for angels that sinned before the flood (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7)
5 The Gr. for preached is kerusso, meaning to proclaim as a public crier, or to announce something whether it be good or bad (note j, 2 Cor. 1:19). It is not the Gr. evangelizo, meaning glad tidings of salvation as it would be if salvation had been preached to human beings
6 The gospel is never preached to human beings after they die, and there would be no special message for only the one generation of Noah's day or God would be a respecter of persons. Human beings are appointed to die and after this the judgment (Heb. 9:27), not more preaching intended for their salvation
7 There is no special prison for human beings who sinned in Noah's day and another prison for all other human beings who have sinned. All go to sheol and hades until the judgment (Rev. 20:11-15)
8 Christ made no announcement to human souls in hell that we know about. He did liberate the righteous souls taking them to heaven with Him when He ascended on high (notes t and v, Eph. 4:8). He left the angels in hell until the judgment (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7)
9 Christ Himself, not Enoch, Noah, or some other man, went to preach to these spirits. This could only be while He went to hell (Ps. 16:10; Acts 2:27)
10 Whoever the spirits are they were in prison when Christ preached to them (v 19). All these facts indicate that they were angels and not men

The Sinless One (2:22)

Christ was the only sinless human being that ever lived. Mary was a sinner, for she rejoiced in God, her Saviour (Lk. 1:47). There is no hint in Scripture that she had an immaculate conception. If she did have, then her parents had to be sinless, and their parents, etc. back to Adam. On the contrary, all men are born in sin aside from Christ, for He is the only one without a human father (Ps. 51:5; Rom. 5:12-21; Reasons Christ had sinless flesh, p. 175)

3 reasons for Christ's death (2:24):

1 That we might be dead to sins (notes p and r, Rom. 6:6-7)
2 That we might live unto righteousness (note d, Rom. 3:26)
3 That we might be healed (see 35 facts about sickness and healing, p. 264)

25 proofs of immortality of the soul: (3:4)

1 The hidden man of the heart is not corruptible (Is immortal, v 4)
2 Hell from beneath is moved to meet thee at thy coming (Isa. 14:9-11)
3 They have eternal life (Jn. 3:15-16; 6:54, 58; 17:2-3)
4 They are passed from death unto life (Jn. 5:24; 6:40, 47)
5 He shall live forever (Jn. 6:51)
6 They shall never perish (Jn. 10:28)
7 They shall never die (Jn. 11:25-26)
8 Man is not able to kill the soul (Mt. 10:28; Lk. 12:5)
9 There appeared Moses talking with Him (Mt. 17:3. Cp. Dt. 34:6)
10 Their worm dieth not (Mk. 9:43-49)
11 In hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments (Lk. 16:19-31)
12 All live unto Him (Lk. 20:37-38)
13 Though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day... The things which are not seen (the soul and spirit) are eternal (2 Cor. 4:16-18)
14 To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord (2 Cor. 5:6)
15 To depart (die, the inner man leaving the body, Jas. 2:26) is to be with Christ (Phil. 1:21-24)
16 Whether we wake (live) or sleep (die), we shall live with Him (1 Th. 5:10)
17 You are come unto the spirits of just men made perfect (Heb. 12:22-23)
18 The souls of the dead live according to God in the spirit (1 Pet. 4:6)
19 He that doeth the will of God abideth forever (1 Jn. 2:17)
20 We know we have passed from death unto life because we love (1 Jn. 3:14-15)
21 God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son (1 Jn. 5:11)
22 He that hath the Son hath life (1 Jn. 5:12; 2:24-25)
23 Your heart shall live forever (Ps. 22:26)
24 The path of the just shineth more and more unto the perfect day (Pr. 4:18)
25 I saw under the altar the souls... they cried, saying (Rev. 6:9-11)

7fold example of Christ (2:21):

1 Sufferings (v 21)
2 Sinlessness (v 22)
3 Guilelessness (v 22)
4 Love when being mocked (v 23)
5 Patience in threatenings (v 23)
6 Resignation to God (v 23)
7 Righteousness (v 24)

12 commands for Christians (3:8):

1 Be of one mind (v 8; Eph. 4:1-3)
2 Have compassion on one another (v 8)
3 Love as brethren (v 8; 1 Cor. 13)
4 Be pitiful (tenderhearted, v 8)
5 Be courteous (friendly, v 8)
6 Not rendering evil for evil (v 9)
7 Not railing for railing (v 9)
8 Be a blessing to others (v 9)
9 Control the tongue (v 10; Jas. 3)
10 Do not be deceptive (v 10)
11 Shun evil and do good (v 11)
12 Seek peace and pursue it (v 11)

10 facts about Christian sufferings: (4:12)

1 Suffering is not strange or unusual for Christians (v 12; 2 Tim. 3:12)
2 One should rejoice when a partaker of the sufferings of Christ (v 13; Mt. 5:10)
3 The greater the suffering the greater the joy and glory (v 13; Rom. 8:17-19)
4 Besides the greater glory to come the Christian has the Holy Spirit upon him now to enable him to endure (v 14; Rom. 8:26-27)
5 Of what Christian sufferings consist (see v 4, 14; 16; note on v 16, below)
6 Christian sufferings glorify God (v 14; Rom. 8:17-18)
7 Of what Christian sufferings do not consist (see v 15; note on v 15, below)
8 It is an honor, not a shame, to suffer as a Christian (v 16)
9 Though sufferings begin with Christians they end in an eternal weight of damnation to the ungodly (v 17-18)
10 Sufferings should be borne by Christians in patience as in the will of God, realizing that God is always faithful to His own in their sufferings (v 19; 1 Cor. 10:13)

Christian sufferings do not consist of: (4:15)

1 Sufferings for murder (v 15)
2 Sufferings as a thief (v 15)
3 Sufferings for being an evildoer
4 Sufferings for being a busybody (v 15)
5 Sufferings for any crime listed in Rom. 1:18-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21

Of what Christian sufferings consist: (4:16)

1 Persecutions for righteousness (Mt. 5:10; 13:21; Mk. 10:30; Jn. 15:20)
2 Revilings and slander (Mt. 5:11-12; 10:25; Acts 13:45; 1 Pet. 4:4)
3 False accusations (Mt. 10:17-20)
4 Scourgings for Christ (Mt. 10:17)
5 Rejection by men (Mt. 10:14)
6 Hatred by the world (Mt. 10:22; Jn. 15:18-21)
7 Hatred by relatives (Mt. 10:21-36)
8 Martyrdoms (Mt. 10:28; Acts 7:58)
9 Temptations (Lk. 8:13; Jas. 1:2-16)
10 Shame for His name (Acts 5:41)
11 Imprisonments (Acts 4:3; 5:18; 12:4)
12 Tribulations (Acts 14:22; 2 Th. 1:4)
13 Stonings (Acts 14:19; 2 Cor. 11:25)
14 Beatings (Acts 16:23; 2 Cor. 11:24-25)
15 Being a spectacle to men (1 Cor. 4:9)
16 Misunderstandings, necessities, defamation, and despisings (1 Cor. 4:10-13)
17 Troubles, afflictions, distresses, tumults, labours, watchings, fastings, and evil reports (2 Cor. 6:8-10; 11:26-28)
18 Reproaches (Heb. 13:13; 1 Pet. 4:14)
19 Trials (1 Pet. 1:7; 4:12)
20 Satanic opposition (Eph. 6:27; 6:12)
21 Groaning and travailing because of the curse (Rom. 8:17-26)

10 rewards for Christian suffering (4:13)

1 Greater glory in heaven (2 Cor. 4:
2 Eternal consolation (2 Cor. 1:7) 17)
3 Making Jesus known (2 Cor. 4:11)
4 Life to others (2 Cor. 4:12)
5 Making grace manifest (2 Cor. 4:15)
6 Guarantee of judgment (2 Th. 1:5)
7 Reign with Christ (2 Tim. 2:12)
8 Spirit upon us (1 Pet. 4:14)
9 Glory to God (1 Pet. 4:16)
10 Great joy (1 Pet. 4:13-14)

8 sins of Jews and Gentiles (4:3):

1 Lasciviousness, Gr. aselgeia, every form of lewdness and impurity (point 4, 17 works of the flesh, p. 207)
2 Lusts, Gr. epithumia, strong or vehement desire (see Col. 3:5)
3 Excess of wine, Gr. oinophlugia, to be hot, or to boil; to be aflame with wine. Cp. point 16, 17 works of the flesh, p. 207; Drunkenness, p. 92
4 Revellings, Gr. komoi, lascivious feasts, boisterous festivity, singing and drinking in honor of heathen gods (see 17 works of the flesh, p. 207)
5 Banquetings, Gr. potois, wine-feasts; drinking matches. Only here
6 Abominable idolatries. An idol feasts the most impure, obscene, and perverted sexual orgies, and abominable rites were practiced. See notes a and f, Eph. 5:12, 17
7 Excess of riot, Gr. asotia, flood of profligacy, sweeping away all rule, order, and restraint before it. See note h, Eph. 5:18
8 Speaking evil of you, Gr. blasphemeo, blaspheming God and man. Trans. speak evil of (v 4, 14; Rom. 14:16; 1 Cor. 10:30; Tit. 3:2; 2 Pet. 2:2, 10, 12; Jude 8, 10); revile (Mt. 27:39); rail on (Mk. 15:29; Lk. 23:39); report slanderously (Rom. 3:8); defame (1 Cor. 4:13); speak blasphemy (Mt. 26:65); blaspheme (Lk. 22:65); blasphemer (Acts 19:37); and blaspheme (Mt. 9:3; Mk. 3:28-29; Lk. 12:10; Jn. 10:36; Acts 13:45; 18:6; 26:11; Rom. 2:24; 1 Tim. 1:20; 6:1; Tit. 2:5; Jas. 2:7; Rev. 13:6; 16:9, 11, 21)

Reviling (2:23)

Gr. loidoreo, revile. Here; Jn. 9:28; Acts 23:4; 1 Cor. 4:12. He did not rail on His tormenters or threaten them, but committed His cause to the righteous Judge who will always do right (Gen. 18:25)

4 things Christ did not do:

1 He did not sin (v 22)
2 He did not use guile to cover up (v 22)
3 He did not rail on His enemies (v 23)
4 He did not threaten His enemies (v 23)

Christian humility (5:5)

Gr. tapeinophrosune. Trans. humility (v 5; Col. 2:18, 23); humility of mind (Acts 20:19); humbleness of mind (Col. 3:12); lowliness (Eph. 4:2); and lowliness of mind (Phil. 2:3)

12 facts about humility. The secret of:

1 The glory of the creature (Rev. 4:11; Lk. 17:10)
2 Redemption (Phil. 2:5-8)
3 Riches and honor (Pr. 15:33; 22:4; Mt. 5:3)
4 Fellowship (Isa. 57:15; 66:2)
5 Soul rest (Mt. 11:29)
6 Personal salvation (Mt. 18:3; Lk. 18)
7 Greatness (Mt. 20:26-27; Lk. 22:26)
8 Exaltation (Mt. 23:12; Lk. 14:11)
9 Revelation (Mt. 11:25; Lk. 10:21)
10 Unity (Eph. 4:1-3; 5:21; 1 Pet. 5:5)
11 Victorious Christian living (Rom. 12; 1 Cor. 13; Gal. 5, 26; Phil. 2:1-4; Col. 3:5-14; 1 Jn. 4:20; 1 Tim. 1:15; Tit. 2:11-14)
12 Faith (Mt. 8:8; 15:28; Jn. 4:50)

10 examples of humility:

1 Abraham (Gen. 18:27, 32)
2 Jacob (Gen. 32:10-11)
3 Moses (Ex. 4:10; Num. 12)
4 David (2 Sam. 7:18-19; 1 Chr. 17:16-17)
5 Job (42:4-6)
6 Isaiah (6:5)
7 The centurian (Mt. 8:8)
8 John the Baptist (Jn. 3:30)
9 Jesus (see Christ's union, p. 105)
10 Paul (Eph. 3:8; 1 Tim. 1:15)

21 names and titles of Satan (5:8):

1 Devil (v 8; Mt. 4:1-11; Eph. 6:11)
2 Adversary (v 8; 1 Tim. 5:14)
3 Satan (Rev. 12:9; Lk. 10:18; 11:18)
4 Belial (2 Cor. 6:15; Dt. 13:13)
5 Lucifer (Isa. 14:12-14) 2)
6 Dragon (Rev. 12:3-17; 13:2-11; 20:
7 Serpent (Rev. 12:9; 2 Cor. 11:3)
8 Enemy (Mt. 13:39; Lk. 10:19)
9 Tempter (Mt. 4:3; 1 Th. 3:5)
10 Wicked One (Mt. 13:19; 1 Jn. 5:18)
11 Beelzebub (Mt. 10:25; 12:24)
12 God of this World (2 Cor. 4:4)
13 Prince of this world (Jn. 12:31)
14 Accuser of the Brethren (Rev. 12:10)
15 Prince of the power of the Air (Eph. 2:1-3; 6:12)
16 The Anointed Cherub (Ezek. 28:11-17 Angel of Light (2 Cor. 11:14) 17)
18 Prince of Devils (Mt. 12:24)
19 The Thief (Jn. 10:10)
20 King over all the Children of Pride (Job 41:34)
21 Leviathin (Job 41:1; Isa. 27:1)

7 things Satan is compared to (5:8):

1 A roaring lion (v 8)
2 A fowler (Ps. 91:3)
3 Fowls (Mt. 13:4, 19)
4 A wolf (Jn. 10:12)
5 A thief (Jn. 10:10)
6 A serpent (Rev. 12:9; 20:3)
7 A great red dragon (Rev. 12:3-12)

The doctrine of tithing (Mt. 23:23)

Tithing before the law of Moses:

It was practiced 430 years before the law (Gen. 14:20; 28:22; Heb. 7:1-11)

Tithing under the law of Moses:

1 Commanded (Lev. 27:30; Mal. 3:10)
2 Five purposes:
(1) For Levites (Num. 18:21-24)
(2) Tithes of tithes for priests (Num. 18:26; Neh. 10:37; 12:44)
(3) Tithes of tithes every 3 years for the poor and the ministers (Dt. 14:27-29; 26:12-14)
(4) To supply God's house (Mal. 3:10)
(5) To honor God (Pr. 3:9-10)
3 When brought: yearly, along with all other offerings for the feast (Dt. 12:6-7; 14:22-26)
4 Belonged to God, not the people who paid them (Lev. 27:30-34; Mal. 3:8)
5 Where brought (2 Chr. 31:12; Neh. 10:38; 12:44; 13:5, 12; Mal. 3:8)
6 If borrowed: 20% interest had to be added when paid (Lev. 27:31)
7 If exchanged: both it and the exchange must be paid (Lev. 27:33)

Tithing in the New Testament:

1 Christ taught it (Mt. 23:23; Lk. 11:42. Cp. Mt. 5:20 with Lk. 18:11-12. See Mt. 10:10; Lk. 10:7-8). This was teaching for the kingdom of heaven (Mt. 11:11-14; Lk. 16:16)
2 Paul taught it:
(1) Condemned sacrilege (Rom. 2:22), or robbing temples (Mal. 3:8-10) and using holy things (Lev. 27)
(2) Teachers to be paid (Gal. 6:6)
(3) God ordained support of ministers (1 Cor. 9:7-14; 1 Tim. 6:17-18)
(4) Christians to give as God prospers them (1 Cor. 16:2)
(5) Melchisedec priesthood is eternal and must be supported by children of Abraham (Heb. 6:20; 7:1-11, 17, 21)
(6) Children of Abraham in faith must walk in his steps (Rom. 4:12; Heb. 7)
(7) Tithing is proof of obedience and appreciation of God's blessings (Rom. 4:12; Heb. 7:6-10; 1 Cor. 9:7-14; 1 Tim. 6:17-18. Cp. Mal. 3:8-10; Pr. 3:9-10; Gen. 14:20; Dt. 8:10-20)

Blessings of tithing:

1 Blessing for obedience (see above)
2 God's house will not want (Mal. 3:10)
3 God's ministers will not want (1 Cor. 9:7-14; 1 Tim. 5:17-18; Neh. 13:10; Mal. 3:8-10)
4 Material and spiritual blessings (Mal. 3:8-10; Pr. 3:9-10; 2 Chr. 31; Neh. 13)

Examples of paying tithes:

1 Abraham (Gen. 14:20; Heb. 7:1-11)
2 Jacob (Gen. 28:22)
3 Levi in Abraham (Heb. 7:9)
4 Hezekiah and Israel (2 Chr. 31)
5 Nehemiah and Israel (Neh. 13)
6 Hypocrites (Mt. 23:23; Lk. 11:42; 18:12)
7 Christians (1 Cor. 9:7-14; 16:2; 2 Cor. 7:11; 8:1-15; Gal. 6:6; 1 Tim. 5:17-18; Heb. 7)

No scripture even mentions a substitute program for tithing in the N. T.

Glad tidings (Mt. 24:14)

Gr. evangelizo, good news or glad tidings of various kinds

Used in the O. T. (Septuagint) of:

1 Any kind of good news (1 Sam. 31:9; 2 Sam. 1:20; 1 Chr. 10:9)
2 God's kindnesses (Ps. 96:10; 96:2)
3 Messianic blessings (Isa. 40:9; 61:1)

Used in the N. T. of:

1 The kingdom of heaven and of God (Mt. 4:23; 9:35; 24:14; Mk. 1:14)
2 God (7 times, Rom. 1:1; 15:16)
3 Jesus Christ (14 times, Mk. 1:1; Rom. 1:16; 15:29; 1 Cor. 9:12-18)
4 Salvation, including all phases of redemption of Rom. 1:16 (Mk. 16:15; Lk. 4:18; Eph. 1:13)
5 The grace of God (Acts 20:24)
6 Peace (Rom. 10:15; Eph. 6:15)
7 The promises (Eph. 3:6; Heb. 8:6)
8 The truth (Eph. 1:13; Col. 1:5)
9 Faith (Phil. 1:27)
10 Hope (Col. 1:23)
11 Immortality (2 Tim. 1:10)
12 The general blessings of the new covenant called "the gospel" 74 times (Mk. 16:15; Gal. 1:11; 3:8). There is only one gospel and both Jews and Gentiles are required to obey the whole N. T. from Matthew to Revelation (Mt. 28:20; Acts 1:1-2; Rom. 10:12; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28; Eph. 2:11-22; 3:5-11)

The gospel of the kingdom is not only of a coming kingdom, but is of salvation and all benefits of the good news of Christ (6:33; 13:11-50; 18:1-35; Mk. 1:14-15; Jn. 3:3-5; Acts 8:12; 20:25; 28:23, 31; Rom. 14:17; 1 Cor. 4:20; 6:9; Col. 1:13).

a See Summary of 1 Peter, p. 269
b See note f, 1 Pet. 5:1
c See note a, Acts 15:33
d Gr. isotimos, equal honor. Only here. It refers to valuable and costly faith; faith of a great price e The true and costly faith comes through the righteousness of God and Jesus Christ, or through their method of redemption of the lost world (Rom. 10:17)
f The Greek reads, "our God and Saviour Jesus Christ". Peter thus declares that Jesus is God as much as the Father and the Holy Spirit
g See 10 things about Jesus Christ, p. 274
h Gr. theios, that which belongs to the Godhead. Here: v 4; Acts 17:29
i Gr. dunamis, inherent power; power to reproduce itself, like a dynamo. Trans. power 75 times (v 3, 16; Mt. 6:13; 22:29; 24:29-30; 26:64; Mk. 9:1; 12:24; 13:26-26; 14:62; Lk. 1:17, 36; 4:14, 36; 5:17; 9:1; 10:19; 21:26, 27; 22:69; 24:49; Acts 1:8; 3:12; 4:7, 33; 6:8; 8:10; 10:38; Rom. 1:4, 16, 20; 8:38; 9:17; 15:13, 19; 1 Cor. 1:18, 24; 2:4-5; 4:19-20; 5:4; 6:14; 15:24, 43; 2 Cor. 4:7; 6:7; 8:3; 12:9; 13:4; Eph. 1:19; 3:7, 20; Phil. 3:10; 1 Th. 1:5; 2 Th. 1:11; 2:9; 1 Tim. 1:7-8; 3:5; Heb. 1:3; 6:5; 7:16; 1 Pet. 1:5; 3:22; Rev. 4:11; 5:12; 7:12; 11:17; 13:2; 15:8; 17:13; 18:1); ability (Mt. 25:15); strength (1 Cor. 15:56; 2 Cor. 1:8; 12:9; Heb. 11:11; Rev. 1:16; 3:8; 12:10); might (Eph. 1:21; 3:16; Col. 1:11; 2 Pet. 2:11); mighty (Rom. 15:19; 2 Th. 1:7); mightily (Col. 1:29); mighty work (Mt. 11:20, 21, 23; 13:54, 58; 14:2; Mk. 6:2, 5, 14; Lk. 10:13; 19:37); mighty deed (2 Cor. 12:12); wonderful work (Mt. 7:22); miracle (Mk. 9:39; Acts 2:22; 8:13; 19:11; 1 Cor. 12:10, 28; Gal. 3:5; Heb. 2:4); worker of miracles (1 Cor. 12:29); abundance (Rev. 18:3); violence (Heb. 11:34); virtue (Mk. 5:30; Lk. 6:19; 8:46); and meaning (1 Cor. 14:11)

CHAPTER 1 228

I Authorship and salutation

SI'MON PĔ'TĔR, a[b]servant and an [c]apostle of Jē'sus Christ, to them that have obtained like[d]precious faith with us through the [e]righteousness of God[f] and our Saviour Jē'sus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, [g]and of Jē'sus our Lord, II Christian virtues (1:3-11).

1 Full provision stated (Jn. 14:12; Acts 1:8; Rom. 15:29; Eph. 3)

3 According as his [h]divine [i]power hath given unto us [j]all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us [k]to glory and virtue:

2 How to get gospel benefits (2 Cor. 1:20; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; Heb. 11:6)

▸4 [l]Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that [m]by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the [n]corruption that is in the world through lust.

3 Spiritual addition: eight Christian virtues that guarantee security in Christ

●5 And [o]beside this, giving all diligence, [p]add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;
●6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;
●7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.
▸8 For [q]if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jē'sus Christ.

9 But [r]he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.
●10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, [s]give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for [t]if ye do these things, ye shall never [u]fall: ◂
★11 [v]For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the [w]everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jē'sus Christ. ◂

III Peter's threefold testimony. 1 Concerning himself

12 [x]Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, [a]as long as I am in this [b]tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even [c]as our Lord Jē'sus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will [d]endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in [e]remembrance.

2 Concerning Jesus Christ (Mt. 16:28; 17:1-9)

16 For we have not followed [f]cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and [g]coming of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven [h]we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

3 Concerning the Scriptures (2 Tim. 3:16-17; Heb. 1:1-2)

★19 We have also a [i]more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, [j]until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

20 [k]Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any [l]private [m]interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were [n]moved by the Hō'lȳ Ghŏst.

CHAPTER 2 229

IV False apostate teachers (2:1-22; 2 Tim. 3:2). 1 Their damnable doctrines (1 Tim. 4:1)

BUT there were [o]false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be [p]false teachers among you, who [q]privily shall bring in [r]damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that [s]bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 Their following, practices, and certain judgment

2 And many shall follow their [t]pernicious ways; [u]by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through [v]covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of [w]a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

3 Examples of judgments on apostates (Gen. 6-8; 19:1-a It is necessary as long as I live to keep you in mind that there are certain conditions you must meet in order to enter into eternal life (v 13; note v, 1:11; note d, Jn. 6:27)

b The human body (v 13-14; 2 Cor. 5:1-9)
c Referring to the prediction of Christ in Jn. 21:18-19
d Gr. spoudazo, to be diligent; zealous; earnest (note p, Eph. 4:3). This word is trans. diligent in v 10; 3:14, and shows Peter's concern for Christians to make their calling and election sure by meeting the terms of eternal life e The third time Peter makes reference to keeping in remembrance the conditions of entrance into eternal life (v 12, 13, 15. See 3:1; note v, 1:11; note d, Jn. 6:27). Many today emphasize forgetting any conditions of eternal life. In fact, they teach that there are no conditions other than accepting Jesus, that the rest of the Christian program is up to God and that if one is lost it is God's responsibility, not man's f Peter evidently refers to the fables of the heathen priests about their gods. He declares that he and others were eyewitnesses of Christ and His transfiguration (v 16-18)
g This refers to the transfiguration which was an actual demonstration of Christ coming in His glory to earth to set up His kingdom (Mt. 16:27-28; 17:1-8; 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Rev. 19:11-21)
h Three disciples heard God's voice and saw the glory of God and the appearance of Moses and Elijah (Mt. 17:1-8)
i We have a more sure word of prophecy than the oracles of heathen priests who fake messages from their idol gods (note n, 1 Pet. 4:11)
j 2nd N. T. prophecy in 2 Pet. (1:19, unfulfilled). Next, 2:1. This refers to the second coming of Christ, which was so signally foreshadowed on the holy mount of transfiguration (Num. 24:17; Mal. 4:2) k This is the first principle of truth, that no prophecy is self-originated by the speaker or from a mere impulse of the prophet's own mind. Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost (v 20-21)
l Gr. idios, one's own; personal; private. Trans. his own 76 times, and private only here m Gr. epilusis, a release. Only here. It means no prophecy is of personal release or from the prophet's own mind or from human impulse n Gr. phero, to bear along (note k, Jn. 21:18). The prophets were borne along or moved by the Holy Ghost. They uttered things far beyond their knowledge and searched diligently the meaning (1 Pet. 1:10-12)
o 3rd N. T. prophecy in 2 Pet. (2:1-3; being fulfilled). Next, 2:9. Gr. pseudopropheteis, false prophets (v 1; Mt. 7:15, note; 24:11, 24; Mk. 13:22; Lk. 6:26; Acts 13:6; 1 Jn. 4:1; Rev. 16:13; 19:20; 20:10) p Gr. pseudodidaskalos, false teachers. Only here. Cp. 2 Cor. 11:26; Gal. 2:4
q Cunningly and secretly
r Heresies of destruction that will damn the soul (note e, Acts 5:17) s Acts 20:28; 1 Cor. 6:19-20; 1 Pet. 1:18
t Heresies of destruction. Some texts read follow their lasciviousness or their lusts of the flesh u Lusts and slander of the truth have destroyed multitudes
v In order to get money to spend upon their own lusts, they fabricate counterfeit doctrines, false theories, and pretend miracles to deceive (v 3) w God predicted their punishment long ago and their damnation is sure (v 3) ridding the earth of all rebellion and then continue reigning over the restored and perfect earth forever (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 5:10; 20:1-10)

x In view of the reasons I have stated as necessary to enter into eternal life (note v, above), I will not neglect to remind you of these things, though you already know them, and are established in them (v 12)

38; Jude 6-7)

4 For if God spared not the angels that [b]sinned, but cast them down to [c]hell, and delivered them into [d]chains [e]of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And [f]spared not the old world, but saved Nō'ah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And [g]turning the cities of Sŏd'om and Gō-mŏr'rhā into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto [h]those that after should live ungodly;

4 God's dealings are just

7 And delivered just Lŏt, vexed with the [i]filthy [j]conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

*9 The Lord knoweth how [k]to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment [l]to be punished:

5 Marks of false apostate teachers: (1) Lusts and anarchy (2 Tim. 3:1-9; Phil. 3:17-19; Jude 4-19)

10 But chiefly [m]them that walk after the flesh in the [n]lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 [o]Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

(2) Boastful and deceptive (2 Cor. 11:12-15; Jude 4-19; 2 Th. 2)

▸12 But these, [p]as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

▸13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while [q]they feast with you;

(3) Corrupt and unmerciful (2 Tim. 3:1-9; Jude 4-19; Rev. 13)

14 Having [r]eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; [s]beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

(4) Consecrated to personal gain and eternal perdition (Num. 22; Jn. 12:3-6; Acts 1:18-25; Jude 4-19)

15 Which [t]have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of [u]Bā'laam the son of Bō'sôr, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was [v]rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 These are [w]wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

(5) Glory in human wisdom (Col. 2:18; 1 Cor. 1:18-25; Phil. 3:19)

18 [x]For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much [y]wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live [z]in error.

(6) Take advantage and bring unstable souls into bondage

19 [a]While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

(7) Apostates are beyond hope of salvation (Heb. 6:4-6; 10:26-29)

20 For [b]if after they have escaped the [c]pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jē'sus Christ, they are again [d]entangled therein, and [e]overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, [f]The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

230 CHAPTER 3

V The day of the Lord (3:1-13; 1 Th. 5:9-11; 2 Th. 2:1-12).

1 Purpose of the epistle

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

●2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the [g]holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

2 Prediction of scoffers who deny Christ's coming

*3 [h]Knowing this first, that there shall come in the [i]last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, [j]Where is the promise of his [k]coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

a 3 examples of judgment (Cp. Jude 5-7):
1 Fallen angels (v 4). They rebelled with Lucifer when he ruled the earth and when he invaded heaven to dethrone God in the pre-Adamite period (v 4: Gen. 1:1-2; Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; Jer. 4:23-26; 2 Pet. 3:5-8; Mt. 13:35, note; Lk. 10:18)
2 The antediluvians (v 5; Gen. 6-8)
3 Sodom and Gomorrah (v 6; Gen. 19)

b It does not say here what sin they committed causing them to be confined to hell, but Jude 6-7 and Gen. 6:1-4 tell us that they committed fornication living with the daughters of men contrary to their own nature. These angels committed sin beyond that of falling with Lucifer, for they are now confined to hell for that sin. If all the fallen angels had committed such sin they all would now be bound in hell and none loose with the devil to fight against God in the middle of Daniel's 70th week, 3 1/2 years before the second advent of Christ (Rev. 12:7-17). It would not be just to bind some and not all if the same sin was committed by all. Thus it is clear that there are two classes of fallen angels - those now bound and those now loose with Satan

c Gr. tartaros, and Latin, tartarus, a dark abyss; a place of punishment. Only here 8 facts about tartarus:
1 A prison for angels (v 4)
2 Located under the earth (v 4)
3 A place of confinement for angels until the judgment (v 4; Rev. 20:11-15; Jude 6)
4 A place visited by Christ when He went to hell (Ps. 16:10; 1 Pet. 3:19)
5 A place of darkness (Jude 6-7)
6 A place of eternal fire (Jude 7)
7 A place of vengeance (Jude 7)
8 The word is used only here, but in Greek writings tartarus was held to be a place in the earth lower than hades where the Titans, the primeval deities or the giants who were supposed to be the first children of the earth and even older than the Greek gods, were cast when they lost their war with Zeus

d Gr. seira, a cord; rope; chain. Only here. It could mean literal chains, for the Gr. in Jude 6 is desmos, a band; fetter; halter; imprisonment. Trans. band (Lk. 8:29; Acts 16:26; 22:30); string (Mk. 7:35); bond (Lk. 13:16; Acts 20:23; 23:29; Phil. 1:7, 13, 14, 16; Col. 4:18; 2 Tim. 2:9; Phm. 10, 13; Heb. 10:34; 11:36); and chain (Jude 6). It is used only twice of being bound by Satan with an infirmity (Mk. 7:35; Lk. 13:16). That angels can be bound by literal chains and confined to prisons, see Rev. 9:1-2, 14; 20:1-3, 7, 10, notes

e Jude 6 reads, under darkness. The Gr. zophos is used here: v 17; Jude 6, 13. It is literal, not spiritual

f See Gen. 6:1-8:22 for this story

g See Gen. 19 for this story

h Peter's argument is that if God did not spare the angels, the antediluvians, and the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, He will not spare any man who lives ungodly, including the backslider (v 9-22)

i Gr. aselgeia, licentiousness, lustfulness (point 4, col. 1, p. 207)

j Gr. anastrophe, conduct (6 things, p. 237). Here it refers to sodomy k The godly are not preserved from temptations, but delivered out of them (1 Cor. 10:13; Jas. 1:2, 12-15; 1 Pet. 1:7; 4:12)

l 4th N.T. prophecy in 2 Pet. (2:9, unfulfilled). Next, 3:3. One of the most absurd theories is that the soul is not immortal; that it goes out of existence at the time of death; and that it is brought back into existence at the resurrection only to be judged and immediately made extinct again as a punishment. If this is the kind of punishment the wicked get why go through the process of bringing them back into existence again just to make them extinct another time? For Bible punishment being eternal see Hell in the Index

m 16 sins of sodomites. They:
1 Commit homosexual sins (v 10; Rom. 1). Cp. 16 sins, p. 274
2 Despise government and law (v 10)
3 Are presumptuous, bold, daring, headstrong and reckless (v 10)
4 Are self-willed and self-sufficient in their own eyes (v 10)

a 3 great sins of Balaam (Num. 22:1-24:25):
1 The way of Balaam (v 15). This was the love of the wages of unrighteousness and coveting the gifts of Balak (v 15; Num. 22:7, 17, 37; 24:11)
2 The error of Balaam (Jude 11). This was accepting the wages of unrighteousness for his services in giving the secret of how to get God to curse Israel (Jude 11; 2 Pet. 2:15; Num. 31:8, 16)
3 The doctrine of Balaam (Rev. 2:14). This was to teach Balak that if he would give his most beautiful women to the Israelite men and cause them to commit idolatry and adultery that God Himself would curse Israel (Num. 25:1-9; 31:8, 16)

b See Num. 22:22-35

c 2 symbols of false prophets - teachers:
1 Wells without water (v 17)
2 Clouds without rain (v 17)
In the desert it is distressing to find wells without water and clouds that dissipate without rain. So are false teachers who are as unprofitable as an empty well and as a dissipated cloud. See note 1, Mt. 7:15

d False teachers cannot give the water of life, but they can damn souls by the methods used in this verse

e Gr. aselgeia, licentiousness, lustfulness (point 4, col. 1, p. 207)

f This error refers to the vile affections of the homosexual sins, as is clear here and in Rom. 1:27

g False teachers promise liberty from the condemnation of sinful lusts, but they themselves are not free (v 19)

h See Backsliders, p. 274

i Gr. miasmata, things that infect, pollute, and defile. It is used still today of the contagion of dangerous diseases and of decaying bodies, stagnant water, and putrid matter. The world is here pictured as putrid and full of contagion of sin and uncleanness (v 20; 1:4)

j Gr. empleko, to plait or weave in; interweave; entangle. Here and 2 Tim. 2:4. This shows to what extent they were escaped from the pollutions of the world and then entangled again k Gr. hettao, to make worse; vanquish. Trans. overcome (v 19-20) and inferior (2 Cor. 12:13)

l Partially quoted from Pr. 26:11 m Here Peter classes the writings of the apostles as equal in authority to the writings of the holy prophets (v 2) n 5th N.T. prophecy in 2 Pet. (3:3-4, being fulfilled). Next, v 7

q See Second advent in the Index

5 Speak evil of lawful authority (v 10)
6 Live like brute beasts (v 12)
7 Speak evil and blasphemy (v 12)
8 Commit sins in open daylight and without sense of shame (v 13)
9 Make sport of their deceptions (v 13)
10 Have eyes full of adultery (v 14)
11 Beguile innocent and unstable souls leading them into perversion (v 14)
12 Have forsaken the right way (v 15-13 Live in covetousness (v 14-15) 22)
14 Are braggarts and boasters (v 18)
15 Seduce and allure others to surrender chastity and live in lusts (v 18)
16 Promise men liberty from sin but they themselves are sinful (v 19)
Such are the chief ones reserved for punishment in eternal hell (v 10)

n This is definitely the homosexual sin (note y, Rom. 1:24)

o The idea here is that the holy angels who are given responsibility to report to God of the actions of fallen angels and wicked men, do not rashly accuse or condemn, but merely report facts as they are without bitterness and railing. They are courteous in their reports (v 11; Zech. 3:1; Jude 9) p Like animals that are void of reason, following depraved instincts

q They attend your love feasts and pose as godly men while in your midst

r The images of sinful acts are continually floating before their eyes. They revel in imaginations of lustful acts

s They seduce the innocent, unwary, inexperienced, light, and trifling women and even men to surrender chastity

t See point 3, Backsliders, p. 274

3 Scoffers are ignorant of the pre-Adamite world (Gen. 1:1-2; Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; Ezek. 28:11-17; Mt. 13:35)

5 For this they willingly are [a]ignorant of, [b]that [c]by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth [d]standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the [e]world [f]that then was, being [g]overflowed with water, perished:

*7 But the heavens and the earth, [h]which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved [i]unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

4 God's value of time compared to that of man (Isa. 57:15)

●8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, [j]that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

▸9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; [k]but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

5 Renovation by fire. Earth made perfect third time: End of day of the Lord (Rom. 8:21; Heb. 1:10-12; 12:26-29; Rev. 20:11-21:1; Isa. 66:22)

*10 But [l]the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the [m]which the [n]heavens shall [o]pass away with a [p]great noise, and the [q]elements shall [r]melt with [s]fervent heat, the [t]earth also and the [u]works that are therein shall be [v]burned up.

11 [w]Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, [x]what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, 12 [y]Looking for and [z]hasting unto the coming of the [a]day of God, [b]wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

▸13 Nevertheless we, according to his [c]promise, look for [d]new heavens and a new earth, wherein [e]dwelleth righteousness.

6 Admonitions in view of the day of the Lord

●14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

7 Classes that misunderstand Scripture and why (1 Cor. 1:18-29; 2:6-14; 2 Cor. 4:2-4; 1 Tim. 4:1-8; 2 Tim. 3:1-9; 4:1-4)

15 And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath [f]written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are [g]some things hard to be understood, which they that are [h]unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

8 Two commands against backsliding

●17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, [i]beware lest ye also, being led away with the [j]error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

●18 [k]But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jē'sus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Â-mĕn'.

Summary of 2 Peter

Date and place: Perhaps written from Babylon about 61-65 A.D.

Author: Simon Peter (1:1; see Summary of 1 Peter)

Theme: 2 Peter was written to the same readers as was 1 Peter (3:1), and for the same purpose - to exhort believers to stand true in Christian suffering and to set forth the true grace of God (1 Pet. 5:12). In this second book Peter foretells conditions of the latter days and shows more fully how the earth will be renovated by fire instead of by water as in the 2 great universal floods of Lucifer and Noah (3:1-13). The similarity of 2 Peter, 2 Thessalonians, 1 and 2 Timothy, Jude and Revelation should be noticed. All picture the great apostasy of the last days. All describe the leaders of this apostasy, and reveal the end of anti-Christian forces. Revelation is the final unveiling of the latter day apostasy under Antichrist (Rev. 6:1-20:3 with 2 Th. 2:1-12; 1 Tim. 4:1-8; 2 Tim. 3:1-13; 4:1-6; 2 Pet. 2:1-3:9; Jude 3-19).

Statistics: 61st book of the Bible; 3 chapters; 61 verses; 1,559 words; 2 questions; 51 verses of history; 2 verses of fulfilled and 8 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

Pass away - change (3:10)

Gr. parerchomai, pass away; pass from one condition to another. It never means annihilation. Used 75 times of:

1 Passing of time (Mt. 7:28; 9:10; 11:1; 13:53; 14:15; 19:1; etc.)

2 Events coming to pass (Mt. 24:6; Lk. 21:7; Jn. 14:29; Acts 27:9)

3 The unchangeableness of God's Word - heaven and earth will be changed, but not the Word of God (Mt. 5:18; 24:34-35; Mk. 13:31; Lk. 16:17; 21:32-33; etc.)

4 People passing by certain places (Mk. 6:48; Lk. 18:37; Acts 16:8)

5 Denoting neglect (Lk. 11:42; 15:29)

6 The coming of persons (Lk. 12:37; 17:7)

7 Never passing up duty (Lk. 15:29)

8 Danger passing away (Mt. 26:42)

9 Sins passing away (2 Cor. 5:17-18)

10 Dying (Jas. 1:10)

11 Passing away of the heavens and the earth (2 Pet. 3:10; Rev. 21:1), or the changing of them, like old things passing away and all things becoming new at the new birth (2 Cor. 5:17-18). In this last usage it means they will be:

(1) Purified by fire (v 7, 10-12)

(2) Delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the sons of God (Rom. 8:21)

(3) Changed to a new state (Heb. 1:10-12)

(4) Re-created or renewed to their original perfection (Heb. 12:25-28; Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24; 1 Pet. 3:13; Rev. 21:1)

(5) Cleansed of all the curse and its effects (Rev. 22:3) a Gr. lanthano, to be unseen or unnoticed. Trans. ignorant of (v 5, 8); unawares (Heb. 13:2); and be hid (Mk. 7:24; Lk. 8:47; Acts 26:26)

b See 12 things men are willingly ignorant of, p. 274
c This refers to God speaking the materials into existence out of which He then formed the heavens and the earth (note g, Heb. 1:10)
d This proves the earth was not created all wet as in Gen. 1:2, but dry, then flooded, and later restored to a dry state as in Gen. 1:9-10 e Gr. kosmos, social system. The one that then was, being deluged with water perished (v 6). This refers to the pre-Adamite world that totally perished by the flood of Gen. 1:2; Ps. 104:5-9. There was no man, bird, or any other life left after this flood (Jer. 4:23-26, notes). This was when Lucifer rebelled (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; Mt. 13:35. See notes on these scriptures) f 3 periods of the heavens and earth:
1 The world that then was (v 6; Gen. 1:1-2)
2 The heavens and the earth, which are now (v 7; Gen. 1:3-2:25)
3 The new heavens and new earth (v 13; Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24; Rev. 21-22)
g See Pre-Adamites, p. 274
h The present heavens and the earth, as restored to a second perfect state in the days of Adam (Gen. 1:3-2:25; Ex. 20:11)
i 6th N.T. prophecy in 2 Pet. (3:7, unfulfilled). Next, v 10. This proves that the time of the renovation of the heavens and the earth by fire of v 10-13 will be at the time of the great white throne judgment at the end of the Millennium (v 7; Rev. 20:11-15)
j See point 6, col. 3, p. 274 k This shows us why God has delayed so long in putting down all rebellion and in tolerating His enemies to continue their evil designs (pt. 7, col. 3, p. 274) l 7th and last N.T. prophecy in 2 Pet. (3:10-13, unfulfilled). See The day of the Lord, p. 226
m See note a, 1 Th. 5:2
n In the day of the Lord the renovation of the earth will take place - not at the beginning of it, but at the end (v 7; Rev. 20:7-15)
o The atmospheric heavens, not the starry space or the planet heaven p See Pass away - change, col. 2 below q Gr. rhoizedon, a rushing sound; swish, illustrating the length and suddenness of the renovation. Used only here r Gr. stoicheion, Trans. element (v 10, 12; Gal. 4:3, 9); rudiment (Col. 2:8, 20); and principle (Heb. 5:12). It has reference to the principles or basic elements of the present world system of evil spirits, sinful and fallen nature, disease germs, corruptions, and all elements by which men corrupt themselves s Gr. luo, to loose. Trans. melt (v 10); dissolve (v 11-12); destroy (Jn. 2:19; 1 Jn. 3:8); break up (Acts 13:43); break (Mt. 5:19; Jn. 5:18; 7:23; 10:35; Acts 27:41; Eph. 2:14); put off (Acts 7:33); unloose (Mk. 1:7; Lk. 3:16; Jn. 1:27); be loosing (Lk. 19:33); and to loose 23 times (Mt. 16:19; 18:18; 21:2; Mk. 7:35; 11:2-5; Lk. 13:15-16; 19:30-33; Jn. 11:44; Acts 2:24; 13:25; 22:30; 24:26; 1 Cor. 7:27; Rev. 5:2, 5; 9:14-15; 20:3, 7). Here it means the loosing of the atmospheric heavens and the earth from the curse by fire, not their annihilation
t Gr. kausoo, burning heat. Here: v 12 u Gr. ge, the ground (v 10)
v Gr. ergon, works, toil, deeds, labour, and acts of man. It is used of religious works as well as other kinds of work w Gr. katakalo, to burn down to the ground; wholly consume with fire. It has reference to the things of earth and of man that need to be removed, so that the things that need not be moved may remain eternally (Heb. 12:26-28)
x Seeing then - that all the things of earth and of man that need to be removed will be burned up, leaving only those things which need not to be burned up, let us live godly and holy lives (v 11) y Question 2. The last in 2 Peter a Let us look forward to the renewal of the earth and to the day of God in the new earth when He will be all and all, as before rebellion and sin (v 12; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 21:1-22:5) b Expecting and desiring the day of God. Man cannot hasten or hinder the coming of Christ, the coming kingdom, the day of God, or anything else fixed in God's own time (Acts 1:7) c The day of God is when God rules supremely again over all His creation without one person rebelling against Him, and as it was before Lucifer and Adam's rebellions (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 21:1-22:5; Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24; 2 Pet. 3:13)
d This will be at the end of the day of the Lord and the beginning of the day of God (v 7, 10-13; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 20:7-15)
e Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24
f 3 times earth made new:
1 At its first creation (Gen. 1:1)
2 At the recreation in the 6 days of Gen. 1:3-2:25; Ex. 20:11; 31:15
3 At the renovation of the heavens and the earth by fire (v 7, 12-13; Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24; Rev. 21:1-22:5) g The earth was originally created to be inhabited (Isa. 45:18). This purpose will be realized forever when the natural people who do not rebel with Satan at the end of the Millennium (Rev. 20:7-10) will remain on the earth after its renovation by fire and multiply forever, as God intended Adam and his race to do before the fall (Gen. 1:26-31; 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:20; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-27; Lk. 1:31-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:5) h 3 final commands that save the soul:
1 Be diligent that you may be found of Him in peace, without spot, and blameless (v 14)
2 Beware lest you also (like the backsliders of 2:1-22), being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness (v 18)
3 Grow in grace, and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ (v 18) i To what letters of Paul Peter refers is not stated, but Paul did write several epistles to Christians in Asia, to the Galatians, Ephesians, Hebrews, etc. It may be that he refers in particular to Hebrews. If so, it is further proof that Paul wrote Hebrews j The things that Peter refers to are not listed, so it cannot be known what he would consider hard to understand. Had he possessed the whole N.T. Peter might have had more light on some of Paul's statements. Then, too, if he had not been a special apostle to the Jews he might have understood more fully Paul's doctrines to Gentiles concerning complete abolishment of the old law of Moses. Peter might not have been so definite about such doctrines due to his ministry among the Jews k This should not be taken as proof that the Bible is hard to understand, or that the common man cannot understand it, for the unlearned and unstable not only stumble at the so-called things which are hard to comprehend by some, they also wrest at the so-called simple scriptures to their own destruction. They just do not want to understand and this leads to their own destruction (v 16; Mt. 13:15-17; 1 Cor. 2:14)
l Here is another proof that it is possible for a Christian to be led into error and fall from his stedfastness. If such is not possible, then many scriptures like this are meaningless m The error of the wicked is to wrest the Scriptures to make them countenance their lusts and sinful practices n Does this clause connected to "fall from your own stedfastness" mean that one can backslide and fall from grace? See Gal. 1:6-9; 5:4; Heb. 12:15 o The Christian life is a growth. Every grace and blessing of the gospel is in seed-form and implanted in the new born child of God (1 Pet. 1:23; Jas. 1:18). If these seeds are watered from heaven and cared for by the individual in conformity to the word of God they will grow to full maturity. No one or a dozen works of grace or anointings of the Spirit will make a person fully mature and beyond the growing stage of Christian experience. One must walk in the light as he receives knowledge and he will grow normally to maturity in Christ (1 Jn. 1:7; 1 Pet. 2:1-8)

10 things about Jesus Christ (1:2):

1 Peter's Master - servant of Christ
2 Made Peter an apostle (Mk. 3:14-19)
3 Source of precious faith (Acts 3:16)
4 Source of righteousness (1 Cor. 1:30)
5 He is God (Jn. 1:1-2)
6 He is Saviour (Jn. 4:42; Acts 5:31)
7 Source of grace (Jn. 1:16-17)
8 Source of peace (Rom. 5:1; Eph. 2:14)
9 Associated with God the Father as the source of knowledge (Eph. 1:17; 4:13)
10 A separate person from God the Father (v 2; 1 Jn. 5:7, note)

10 things that guarantee abundant entrance into the kingdom (1:11):

1 Obtain like precious faith (v 1)
2 Increase in grace and peace (v 2)
3 Live a godly life by God's power (v 3; 1 Pet. 1:5-13)
4 Partake of the divine nature (v 4)
5 Escape the corruption of the world and the lust of the flesh (v 4)
6 Add the graces of v 5-7
7 Let these graces abound (v 8)
8 Be fruitful in knowledge (v 8)
9 Live free from past sins (v 9)
10 Give diligence to make personal calling and election sure (v 10)

An allusion is made here to Roman generals who were given triumphal parades as a reward for some signal victory or conquest (note j, 2 Cor. 2:14)

7 steps in spiritual arithmetic (1:5):

1 Add to faith virtue (Virtues, p. 269)
2 Add to virtue knowledge (v 5)
3 Add to knowledge temperance (note c, 9, Gal. 5:22)
4 Add to temperance patience
5 Add to patience godliness (note p, 1 Tim. 3:16)
6 Add to godliness brotherly kindness
7 Add to brotherly kindness love (note g, 1 Cor. 13:4)

Backsliders (2:22)

One of 1,522 if's in the Bible, plainly indicating that all can and some do escape the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of Jesus Christ and are again entangled therein becoming worse than they were before they found Christ (v 20)

12 proofs these are backsliders:

1 In notes p through v, 1:5-11, and notes a through e, 1:13-15, it is clear that Peter lays down conditions to be met if one is not to fall

2 In note a, 2:4, Peter warns men that God sent 3 great catastrophes upon angels and men because of their backslidings and sins. One may argue that the antediluvians and Sodom and Gomorrah were not backsliders and had nothing to backslide from, but this argument cannot possibly hold true of the angels that sinned, which, as is acknowledged by all, were created sinless and holy and in God's grace and blessings. They sinned and are now in hell (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7). Angels are definitely called sons of God in Gen. 6:1-4; Job 1:6; 2:1; 38:4-7, hence sonship whether by creation or adoption will not keep God from damning any angels or men who rebel and sin and who do not get right with Him

3 Gr. kataleipo, to forsake; abandon; give up; to leave. Trans. forsake (v 15; Heb. 11:27); reserve (Rom. 11:4); leaving places one has been in (Mt. 4:13; Acts 2:31; 21:3); leaving things behind (Mk. 14:52; Lk. 5:28; 15:4; Acts 6:2; 24:27; 26:14; 1 Th. 3:1; Heb. 6:1); and leaving people one has been with or among (Mt. 16:4; 19:5; 21:17; Mk. 10:7; 12:19; Lk. 10:40; 20:31; Jn. 8:9; Acts 18:19; Eph. 5:31; Tit. 1:5)

The Gr. word for right way also means straight way (Mt. 3:3; Mk. 1:3; Lk. 3:4-5; Acts 8:21; 9:11; 13:10). One could not forsake or abandon the straight way if he had not been in it

4 Gr. planao, to stray from; wander. Trans. go astray (2:15; 1 Pet. 2:25; Mt. 18:12-13); wander (Heb. 11:38); be out of the way (Heb. 5:2); seduce (1 Jn. 2:26; Rev. 2:20); deceive (Mt. 24:4-5, 11, 24; Mk. 13:5-6; Lk. 21:8; Jn. 7:12, 47; 1 Cor. 6:9; 15:33; Gal. 6:7; 2 Tim. 3:13; Tit. 3:3; 1 Jn. 1:8; 3:7; Rev. 12:9; 13:14; 18:23; 19:20; 20:3, 8, 10); and to err from the truth (Mt. 22:29; Mk. 12:24, 27; Heb. 3:10; Jas. 1:16; 5:19). If they went astray from the right and straight way, they were one time in it

5 Gr. apopheugo, escape; flight from; a place of refuge. Used only by Peter in 2 Pet. 1:4; 2:18, 20. The first verse proves that escaping the corruption that is in the world through lust is at the time one partakes of the divine nature (1:4). Can it be possible that people at such a time are not saved or born again?

6 Gr. epignosis, full and true knowledge (note k, Col. 3:10). This confirms that they were one time believers or they would not have had the experiences of like precious faith, grace, peace, and godliness which come with such knowledge, as proved in 1:1-4

7 The words again entangled therein, and overcome (v 20), prove they were one time free from such pollutions or they could not be entangled and overcome in and by them again (note d, Gal. 4:19)

8 The statement, "the latter end is worse with them than the beginning," proves that they one time were saved and could have had a better ending than the beginning if they had not become entangled again in the pollutions of the world (v 20). What would have been their end in the unsaved state? What was to be their end after going back to the sins of the former life? What would have been the end if they had stayed free from the pollutions of the world until death?

9 Peter's explanation of why it would have been better not to have known the way of righteousness, than after knowing it, to turn away, becoming entangled and overcome by sins again, proves that they were once saved and in the way of righteousness, actually knowing the Christian way (v 21)

10 The illustration of the sow and the dog proves that they were one time saved and that they had gone back into sin again like a dog is turned to his vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire (v 22). If this does not illustrate going back into sin again by Christians it has no point. To argue that it does not refer to Christians returning to sin again on the pretext that the sow always remains a sow and the dog always remains a dog proves nothing, for the same is true of lost sheep, coins, and men (Lk. 15, notes). They always remain what they are when found as do sows and dogs. In none of these illustrations is there a change made in the sow, dog, sheep, coin or lost boy. The point is that the sheep, the coin, and the lost boy were found, and the sow and the dog went back to their old ways. Even a born-again man is not changed into another species. He is still a man. He is simply cleansed from sin like the sow that was washed (1 Jn. 1:7, 9; Rev. 1:5). If he wants to remain cleansed from sin he must walk in the light and in the Spirit (1 Jn. 1:7; Gal. 5:16-26; Rom. 8:12-13). To argue that the sow was never washed or the dog was never free from vomit is meaningless. Is it not possible to wash a sow from all mire and is it not possible that she could go back into the mire again? Is it not possible for this to be done more than once? Is not the same principle true of a dog or anything else?

11 The warning of 3:14 proves that some might not be without spot and blameless

12 The warning of 3:16 proves that it is possible to go into sin and fall from stedfastness in Christ

12 things men are willingly ignorant of: (3:5)

1 That by the Word of God the heavens were created of old (v 5; Ps. 68:33; 93:2; 102:25; Mic. 5:2)

2 That the earth was established in and out of water (v 5; Ps. 24:2; 136:6)

3 That the world that then was refers to the pre-Adamite world or social system which was destroyed by a great universal flood before Adam (v 6; Gen. 1:2; Ps. 104:5-9; Jer. 4:23-28; Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17. See notes on these scriptures)

4 That the heavens and the earth which are now were restored from chaos and judgment about 6,000 years ago in Adam's day (v 7; Gen. 1:3-2:25)

5 That the heavens and the earth entered their second sinful career through Adam and are now reserved for a second universal renovation by fire at the time of the great white throne judgment at the end of the Millennium (v 7, 10-12; Rom. 8:18-25; Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-28; Rev. 20:7-15)

6 That with God a thousand years is like a day and a day like a thousand years. He inhabits eternity and is not subject to time to get His work done before death as is the case with us (v 8-9; Isa. 57:15; Eph. 3:11)

7 That the Lord is not slack concerning His promises but is longsuffering to all men, wishing that all would come to repentance (v 9; 1 Tim. 2:4; Rev. 22:17)

8 That the day of the Lord is to come as a thief in the night, in which day (the end of it) the heavens and the earth will be renovated and made new a third time (v 10-13; Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24; Rev. 21-22)

9 That all rebellion will then be put down (v 13; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)

10 That the righteous natural people left on earth after the rebellion of Rev. 20:7-10 will multiply and replenish the new earth forever, carrying out God's original program for Adam, as would have been done if man had not sinned (v 13; Gen. 1:26-31; 8:22; 9:1; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:20; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Mt. 25:34, 46; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 21:1-22:5)

11 That God will move His capital city from the planet heaven to the planet earth to dwell with men forever and administer the affairs of the universe from the earth (v 13; Rev. 21:1-22:5)

12 That the resurrected saints, saved from Abel to the Millennium, will be heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ and will reign as kings and priests on earth helping God administer the affairs of the universe forever (v 13; Ps. 149:5-9; Dan. 7:18-27; Mt. 19:28; Rom. 8:17; 1 Cor. 4:8; 6:2; Eph. 2:7; 2 Tim. 2:12; 2 Th. 1:4-10; Rev. 1:6; 2:26-27; 5:9-10; 11:15; 12:5; 20:4-6; 22:5)

This ignorance of the biblical facts is not forced upon men. They are willingly ignorant, preferring to remain in darkness, even scoffing at the second advent of Christ and denying Him who bought them with His own blood (2:1-2; 3:5, 8). They shut their eyes against light and refuse all evidence

Pre-Adamites (3:6)

1 Two social systems are mentioned here by Peter: one was before the one which is now, and the other, after the one that then was (v 6-7)

2 The former social system perished by water and the present one will perish by fire (v 6-7)

3 The former social system was created "in the beginning" and was destroyed by the flood of Gen. 1:1-2. The present social system was created in 6 days since the flood of Gen. 1:2 (Gen. 1:3-2:25)

4 The flood of Noah did not destroy all the social system on earth between Adam and Noah, for some were preserved in the ark to continue that social system after the flood; but the social system that then was before the present one utterly perished. Not one man, bird, or animal was left alive (v 6; Gen. 1:2; Jer. 4:23-26)

5 No reference in Scripture can be found of a change in the heavens and the earth in Noah's day, as in Adam's day (Gen. 1:3-2:25). This proves that the world that then was had to be before Adam's day because the heavens and the earth, which are now came into existence at that time and not at the time of Noah

6 There was no man, bird, vegetation, or any other life left after the flood of v 6; Gen. 1:2. They were made again in the 6 days (Gen. 2:4-9). That they had been here before Adam is clear from Jer. 4:23-26, notes

7 There have been and will be 3 social systems on earth:

(1) The pre-Adamite, the one that then was before the present heavens and the earth (v 6)

(2) The Adamite sinful social system, from Adam to the new heavens and the new earth (v 7)

(3) The Adamite sinless social system in the new earth (v 13; Rev. 21:1-22:5; Isa. 66:22-24)

8 Peter taught two distinct ends of two sinful careers of the earth:

(1) The world that then was. The pre-Adamite social system had a sinful career or it would not have perished in the flood of v 6; Gen. 1:2; Jer. 4:23-26; Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; Mt. 13:35

(2) The present Adamite sinful social system, making the present sinful career of the earth. It will come to an end during the Millennium (v 7, 10-13; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 20:7-10)

9 If v 6 pictured Noah's flood it would be clear, for Peter always mentions Noah or 8 persons if he refers to this flood (1 Pet. 3:20; 2 Pet. 2:5). Others also make it clear when they refer to Noah's flood (Isa. 54:9; Mt. 24:37-38; Lk. 17:26-27; Heb. 11:7)

10 There is no doubt of a universal flood before Adam (v 6; Gen. 1:2; Ps. 104:5-9). Since God never sends a flood unless judgment is necessary, there must have been a social system to be banished before Adam

10 You are sealed unto the day of redemption (Eph. 4:30)

11 He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ (Phil. 1:6)

12 I am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day (2 Tim. 1:12)

13 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation (1 Pet. 1:5)

14 We have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ (1 Jn. 2:1-2)

15 Beloved, now are we the sons of God (1 Jn. 3:2)

16 Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory (Jude 24)

Eternal security is, therefore taught in Scripture on the basis of obedience to God. See 35 conditions of assurance, p. 237; notes on Jn. 6:27; 10:27-29; 15:1-8; 1 Cor. 9:27; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29; 2 Pet. 2:20-22. If men truly want security, let them meet God's terms. No man is obligated to sin. God has made full provision to keep men and present them faultless in heaven if they will co-operate; but no provision except hell is made for rebels. All hope of assurance while living in rebellion is a fool's hope. Any teaching of security that encourages sin is false and satanic.

True security is through faith and obedience to God and grace, not disobedience and disgrace

3 chief sins of the ungodly (Jude 4):

1 Gr. metatithemi, to place differently; to change for oneself; to change one's opinion to a new one; retract. Trans. turning (v 4); translate (Heb. 11:5); carry over (Acts 7:16); remove (Gal. 1:6); and change (Heb. 7:12). Ungodly men used the grace and mercy of God to cover up their sins of lasciviousness; finding in religion to commit the most horrible sex perversions. See 17 works of the flesh, p. 207

2 Denying the only Lord God (v 4). They denied the right of God to rule their lives so they could continue in sin

3 Denying the Lord Jesus Christ (v 4; 2 Pet. 2:1).

16 sins of homosexuals (Jude 8):

1 Practice sex perversion (v 8; Rom. 1)
2 Despise government and law (v 8)
3 Insult rulers (v 8; 2 Pet. 2)
4 Speak evil in ignorance (v 10)
5 Corrupt themselves (v 10; Rom. 1)
6 Commit sin in maintaining error in religion (v 11; Gen. 4)
7 Serve in religion for gain (v 11; 2 Pet. 2:15; Num. 31:8, 16)
8 Rebel like Korah (v 11; Num. 16)
9 Practice hypocrisy (v 12)
10 Commit ungodly deeds (v 15; Rom. 1)
11 Blaspheme God (v 15)
12 Murmur and complain (v 16)
13 Live in ungodly lusts (v 4, 16, 18)
14 Brag and boast (v 16)
15 Mock truth (v 18; 2 Pet. 3:3)

CHAPTER 1 231

I Christian fellowship (1:1-2:2). I The incarnation makes fellowship possible (Jn. 1:14)

THAT which was [b]from the beginning, which[c]we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have[d]looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the[e]Word of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that[f]eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

2 Five conditions of fellowship. (1) Walk in the light of Scripture as it is received

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our[g]fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jē'sus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you,[h]that your[i]joy may be full.

5 [i]This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that[k]God is light, and in him is no[l]darkness at all.

6[m]If we say that we have[n]fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

▸7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the[o]blood of Jē'sus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

(2) Be truthful in confessing we are sinners (Rom. 3:23)

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

(3) Repent of sins and make peace with God (Lk. 13:1-5)

▸9[p]If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(4) Be truthful about actual transgressions against God

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2 232

(5) Maintain fellowship by living free from sin (Rom. 6:1-23; 8:1-13; Tit. 2:11-14; Heb. 12:14)

▸MY [q]little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And[r]if any man sin, we have an [s]advocate with the Father, Jē'sus Christ the righteous:

▸2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and[t]not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

II Thirteen evidences of knowing God (2:3-29). 1 By keeping the commandments (Jn. 14:21-24; 15:10)

3 And [b]hereby we do know that we know him, [c]if we keep his[d]commandments.

4 [c]He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

2 By walking godly as Christ walked (2:29; 3:7; 4:17; 5:1-18)

6 [f]He that saith he[e]abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

3 By loving the brethren (Jn. 13:34-35; 15:12-13; 1 Cor. 13)

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, [g]a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 [h]He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 [i]He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of [k]stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

4 By having sins forgiven (Eph. 1:7; 1 Jn. 1:9; Rev. 1:5; Col. 2:13)

▸12 I write unto you,[l]little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

5 By knowing Jesus Christ and by overcoming Satan (1 Jn. 5:18)

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome [n]the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

6 By the Word of God abiding within (Jn. 8:31-32; 15:7; Rom. 1:16)

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young a That glorious and wonderful person, Jesus Christ the Lord (v 1, 3-4) b 10 things concerning Jesus Christ:

---

1 From the beginning (v 1; Jn. 1:1-2); from everlasting (Mic. 5:1-2; Heb. 1:8)
2 We have heard Him with our ears (v 1)
3 We have seen Him with our eyes (v 1)
4 Our hands have handled Him (v 1)
5 He is the Word of Life (v 1; Jn. 14:6)
6 We bear witness of this Life (v 2)
7 He is that eternal Life (v 2)
8 He is not the Father, but was with Him from all eternity (v 2; Jn. 1:1-2)
9 He was manifested to us (v 2)
10 We declare Him to you for 2 reasons:
(1) That you may have fellowship with us, with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ (v 3)
(2) That your joy maybe full (v 4)

c We have absolute certainty of the reality of what we proclaim. We have actually heard, seen, and touched Him, not transiently, but frequently. We lived with Him daily for years. We heard His teaching and saw His divine works (v 1-3; 2 Pet. 1:16; Acts 5:31; 1 Cor. 15:1-8)

d Gr. theasomai, gazing with a purpose: see with desire; regard with admiration. From theoreo, to gaze at, as a spectacle. It is used of bodily sight and the actual presence of the object on which the gaze is fixed. It means a prolonged and continued gaze. Both words are used 80 times

e The Word was made flesh and dwelled among men so that they would have as much proof of His personal existence, as they had of any other person in their midst (Jn. 1:1-2, 14; 1 Tim. 3:16)

f See 20 facts of eternal life from John, p. 279

g See 4 persons to fellowship, p. 279

h See note b, 12, above

i This expression is used by John 4 times (Jn. 16:11; 16:24; 1 Jn. 1:4; 2 Jn. 12) and only once elsewhere (Acts 2:28)

j This is the chief message Christ came to deliver, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. Neither Moses nor the prophets ever gave the fulness of this message (Jn. 1:16-17). Christ Himself is the chief manifestation of God's light to men (Jn. 1:1-9; 3:16-20; 8:12; 12:35-36)

k God is a person and dwells in a light that no man can approach unto; whom no man has seen in all His glory nor can see (1 Tim. 6:16). The phrase God is light does not constitute the being of God, It must be understood in the same sense that we understand God is love, God is good, God is a Spirit, God is a consuming fire, and other statements about Him; also, in the same sense that Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life, or the door (Jn. 10:9; 14:6). Do these expressions do away with the reality and personality of God and Christ? See note r, Jn. 4:24

l God as the source of wisdom, knowledge, holiness, and truth cannot have the least degree of ignorance, imperfection, sinfulness, and darkness. God is to man what the sun is to our world, hence the importance of the message that God is light and no darkness at all (v 5)

m See 5 "if's" of human experience, p. 279

n The Gr. for fellowship in v 3-7 is koinonia (note h, 2 Cor. 13:14)

o We are cleansed from all sin from the time of confession of sin (v 9) and as long as we walk in the light (v 7) p If we do one thing - confess our sins, God will do 4 things (v 9):

1 Be faithful to us
2 Be just with us
3 Forgive us our sins
4 Cleanse from all unrighteousness

q A term used 9 times in this epistle (2:1, 12, 13, 18, 28; 3:7, 18; 4:4, 21). It is used elsewhere only in Jn. 13:33; Gal. 4:19

r This is the purpose and demand of the gospel (v 1; Mt. 1:21; Rom. 6:18-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26; Col. 3:5-10; Tit. 2:11-12)

s We do not sin if we walk in the light (1:7, 9), but if one does fall into sin

a Not for us apostles or the Jews only, but also for Gentiles (Eph. 2:11-18; 2 Cor. 5:14-21; Jn. 3:16)

b 21 reasons "we do know that we know Him":
1 By personal fellowship (1:3-7; 2:13)
2 Fulness of joy in the heart (1:4)
3 Keeping His commandments (2:3; 3:22)
4 Walking even as He walked (2:6)
5 Love of the brethren (2:9-11; 3:10-19, 23; 4:7-21; 5:1)
6 Overcoming the world and Satan (2:13-14; 5:4, 18)
7 Hatred of the world (2:15-17)
8 Being one with Christians (2:19)
9 Holy Spirit anointing (2:20-27)
10 Knowing the truth that sets free (2:21; Jn. 8:32-36)
11 Acknowledging God and Christ (2:22-25)
12 Doing righteousness (2:29; 3:7-10; 5:1-4, 18)
13 Purifying ourselves (3:3)
14 Being born again (2:29; 3:9; 5:1-18)
15 Cleansing from sin (1:7-9; 3:5-10)
16 Freedom from condemnation (3:20-24)
17 The indwelling Spirit (3:24; 4:4, 13)
18 Faith (2:23; 5:1, 10)
19 Confessing Christ (4:14-15)
20 Receiving Christ (5:10-13; Jn. 1:12)
21 Answered prayer (3:21-22; 5:14-15) c To be saved one must keep His commandments: not merely start keeping them, but continue in keeping them. If the condition is to keep them, then upon this basis only will God bless and save men (Rom. 1:5; Jas. 1:22-25; 1 Pet. 1:2) d See N.T. commands, p. 313

e If any man professing to be saved does not keep the commandments he is a liar (v 4-5). This is a death blow to the claim of those who live in sin and say the blood of Christ covers their ungodliness

f Everyone who makes a Christian profession ought to walk as Christ did (v 6; 3:1-10; 4:17; 1 Pet. 2:21). To be in Christ means that one is a new creature and that affections and lusts of the flesh have been crucified (2 Cor. 5:17-18; Gal. 5:16-26; Rom. 8:12-13; Col. 3:5-10)

g 10 proofs of abiding in Christ:
1 Walking as Christ walked (v 6)
2 Love of the brethren (v 10; 3:14-15)
3 God's Word abiding within (v 14)
4 Doing the will of God (v 17)
5 Permission of individual (v 24-25)
6 Continued anointing (v 27)
7 Freedom from sin (3:6)
8 Keeping commandments (3:24; Jn. 15:10)
9 Indwelling Spirit (3:24)
10 Fruit bearing (Jn. 15:4, 7)

h Gr. kainos, renewed; fresh (2 Cor. 5:17). This new commandment is an old one renewed and made complete in meaning by Jesus Christ (v 7-8; Lev. 19:18 with Jn. 13:34)

i No man professing a Christian experience who hates his brother has received a saving knowledge of truth (v 9, 11)

j A man that truly loves his brother has proof of his Christian experience, and if he continues to love he will not stumble over his brethren (v 10)

k See note r, 1 Pet. 2:8

l 4 stages of Christian experience:
1 Gr. teknia, infants; new born (v 12)
2 Gr. paidia, little children: those able to walk and talk (v 13)
3 Gr. neaniskoi, young men: those grown to the prime of life and no longer tossed about like children by fallacies (v 13-14; Eph. 4:14)
4 Gr. pateres, fathers: those who are matured in the Lord (v 13-14)

m Through His name (Mt. 1:21; Acts 4:12)

n Satan (v 13-14; 5:18; Mt. 13:19)

he still has hope; and can confess sin and be cleansed again (v 1; 1:9; Gal. 4:19, note)

t 3 things Christ is to believers:
1 Gr. parakletos, a Helper; Advocate (note t, Jn. 14:26)
2 The Righteous One, having suffered, the just for the unjust (v 1; 1 Pet. 3:18; 1 Cor. 1:30; 2 Cor. 5:14-21)
3 Gr. hilasmos, the atoning sacrifice for sins. Used here and 4:10 a This is the secret of victory over sin. As long as one remains in harmony with the Word of God he cannot sin (note a, 3:9)

b See 2 things not to love, p. 279

c This is the reason men must not love the world system or the things in it. Love of God and love of these things are not compatible (v 15)

e Gr. alazoneia, vain-boastings. Used only here and Jas. 4:16

f 1st N. T. prophecy in 1 John (2:17, unfulfilled). Next, v 18. Gr. kosmos, social system. It will be changed, not annihilated (note e, Eph. 2:2; note p, 2 Pet. 3:10)

g The world system passes away, but the man who does not conform to it abides forever (v 17)

h Gr. parago. Trans. pass away (v 17; 1 Cor. 7:31); pass by (Mt. 20:30; Mk. 2:14; 15:21; Jn. 8:59; 9:1); pass (1 Jn. 2:8); pass forth (Mt. 9:9); and depart (Mt. 9:27). Not the same as parerchomai (note p, 2 Pet. 3:10). Neither word means annihilation, but a change, passing out of operation, or away from man's realm

m Gr. chrisma, anything smeared on: a scented unguent or ointment of thicker consistency than muron, sweet oil or perfume. Trans. unction (v 20) and anointing (v 27). Cp. the verb chrio (Lk. 4:18; Acts 4:27; 10:38; 2 Cor. 1:21; Heb. 1:9). The ointment here refers to the Holy Spirit from which flows all the gifts and graces of the church and which is typified in Ex. 29:7; 30:23-25. Cp. Ps. 45:7

n All things necessary to salvation and the Christian life in general, so you do not need the so-called superior knowledge of the Gnostics and others who seek to deceive you (v 26-27)

o I write to confirm the truth you already know and to warn you against those who would seduce you (v 26-27)

p Question 1, Next, 3:12

q See 3 false doctrines of that day, p. 282

r No man can be born again or be saved from sin who denies that Jesus is the Son and the Christ of God. He cannot know God or Christ (v 23; 5:1; Mt. 1:21; Jn. 3:16; 14:6; 17:1-3)

s Gr. arneomai, to deny (note c, Heb. 11:24)

t This was printed in Italics to show that the translators considered it doubtful. Perhaps it was wanting in some of the MSS. which they used. It no doubt should be restored to the text as genuine because:

1 It is in perfect harmony with the first part of the verse

2 It is in harmony with many other passages (Jn. 3:16; 6:37, 44, 53; 8:19, 24; 14:6; 1 Jn. 5:1, 5, 10-12)

3 It is found in the text of more than 20 of the best MSS.

4 It is found in many of the ancient versions - the Syriac, Arabic, Coptic, and others

5 It is quoted as part of the text by the early church Fathers - Origen, Cyprian, Cyril, and many others

6 It is restored to the Greek texts of Griesbach, Lachmann, Tischendorf, Tregelles, Alford, Wordsworth, Nestle, and others

7 It is restored in modern versions - Weymouth, Moffat, Berkeley, Concordant, Centenary, Goodspeed, Rotherham, Fenton, Revised Standard Version, and others

u Let or permit that which you have heard from the beginning remain in you. This no doubt refers to Christ, as is clear from the same expression in 1:1; 2:13, 14

v Men will continue in the Father and in the Son only as long as they permit such relationship (v 24). If they do not permit the Father and Son to abide in their lives then what? See Jn. 15:6

w Gr. meno, to abide; stand one's ground; continue. The same word is trans. 3 ways in this same verse: abide, remain, men, because ye are strong, and the word of God[a] abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

7 By doing the will of God instead of loving the world (Jn. 15:18; 17:16; Rom. 12:1-2; Jas. 4:4)

●15[b] Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. [c]If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 [d]For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the [e]pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

*17 And [f]the [g]world [h]passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that [i]doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

8 By remaining in unity (Jn. 17:11, 21; Rom. 16:17; Eph. 4:1-3)

*18 Little children, it is [j]the last time: [k]and as ye have heard that [l]antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

9 By having the Spirit anointing and truth (4:4; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15)

20 But ye have an[m] unction from the Holy One, and [n]ye know all things.

21 [o]I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

10 By accepting both the Father and the Son (Dan. 7:9-14; Jn. 1:1-2; 14:21-28; Acts 7:55-59; 1 Cor. 11:3)

22 [p]Who is a liar but he that denieth [q]that Jē'sus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 [r]Whosoever [s]denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [t][but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

11 By letting Christ abide (1 Jn. 1:1-2; Col. 2:6-7; Jn. 15:1-6)

●24 [u]Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. [v]If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall [w]remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

▶25 [x]And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

12 By remaining in Christ (Jn. 15:1-6, 9; Col. 1:23; 2:6-7; Jude 24)

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that [a]seduce you.

27 But the [b]anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and [c]ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

*28 And now, little children, [d]abide in him; [e]that, when he shall appear, we may have [f]confidence, and not be [g]ashamed before him [h]at his coming.

13 By doing righteousness (2 Cor. 5:17; Jn. 8:31; 15:10; Rom. 8:1-13)

29 [i]If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that [j]doeth righteousness is born of him.

233 CHAPTER 3

III Divine love (3:1-4:24; 1 Cor. 13). 1 God's love declared and proved in sonship (Jn. 1:12; Heb. 12:5)

[k]BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the [l]sons of God: therefore the [m]world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

*2 Beloved, [n]now are we the sons of God, and it [o]doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

2 The effect of Divine love: (1) Purity of Christians (Mt. 5:8; Jn. 15:3; 2 Tim. 1:3; Tit. 1:15; 2 Pet. 3:1; Ps. 24:4)

3 And [p]every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, [q]even as he is pure.

4 [r]Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: [s]for sin is the transgression of the law.

(2) Sinlessness of Christians (Rom. 6:1-23; 8:1-13; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:19-20; 2 Cor. 5:17; 7:1; 10:4-5; Eph. 1:4; 4:24; Gal. 5:16-26; 1 Tim. 4:12; Tit. 2:11-14; Heb. 12:14-15)

▶5 And ye know that he was manifested [t]to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 [u]Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

●7 Little children, [v]let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might [w]destroy the [x]works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is [y]born of God doth not [z]commit sin; [a]for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

a Gr. planao (point 4, col. 2, p. 274)

b Gr. chrisma (note m, 2:20) c No need of any new doctrine or any instruction from the seducers of v 26. John does not teach that saints have no further need of gospel ministers, for God has set them in the church to teach (Eph. 4:11; Heb. 13:7, 17)

d 2 such commands in Scripture:
1 Abide in Him (v 28)
2 Abide in Me (Jn. 15:4)
Keeping the commandments is the only guarantee of constant abiding (Jn. 15:10). Abiding is the condition of fruit-bearing (Jn. 15:4, 7). If one does not abide he is cut off and destroyed like a branch (Jn. 15:6). See note g, 2:6

e 3rd N. T. prophecy in 1 John (2:28, unfulfilled). Next, 3:2. To be found in Him at His coming is one of the purposes of abiding in Christ. To this end Paul counted all loss for Christ and made every known consecration (Phil. 3:7-16)

g Gr. aischuno, confounded; disgraced; to be ashamed (v 28; Lk. 16:3; 2 Cor. 10:8; Phil. 1:20; 1 Pet. 4:16)

h This coming refers to the rapture when Christ will come for the saints who will rise to meet Him in the air (1 Th. 4:13-17; Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; Col. 3:4; Phil. 3:20-21; 2 Th. 2:7-8, notes)

2 That every born again one is righteous
3 That doing righteousness is proof of the new birth (v 29; 3:6-10; 5:1-4, 18)

k Look upon it and wonder at the kind and quantity of love the Father has given freely and without merit to men (v 1; Eph. 3:17-19; Rom. 8:35-39)

l Sons by adoption (Rom. 8:15; Gal. 4:5; Eph. 1:5), not by begetting as in the case of Christ, who is the only begotten Son of God (Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:16, 18)

m The world will not acknowledge or approve of doctrines and manner of life of the adopted sons, because it did not approve of Christ, the only begotten Son (v 1)

n John here addresses the adopted sons who work righteousness (2:29)

o 4th N. T. prophecy in 1 John (3:2, unfulfilled). Next, 4:17. It is not yet manifest what we shall be like except that we shall have bodies like His glorified human body. This will be at the rapture (Phil. 3:20-21; 1 Cor. 15:51-54; Col. 3:4). Every person will have his own body, color, features, and characteristics, as on earth (1 Cor. 15:35-54)

2 The spirit and nature of the devil in sinners (note f, 2 Cor. 5:17) and continue. If you allow or permit Christ to abide (meno) in you, He will remain (meno) in you, and if Christ remains in you, then you shall continue (meno) in the Son and in the Father x If one allows Christ to remain in his life, then he receives "eternal life," This term is used synonymously with "Christ" who is called eternal life in 1:1-2. This eternal life is only in Him (5:11-12). Life eternal is to know God and Christ (Jn. 17:2-3; 1 Jn. 1:1-2; 5:20). See 29 conditions of eternal life (note d, Jn. 6:27)

a 2 classes of men (v 10; Mt. 13:38):
1 The children of God
2 The children of the devil

k Because he was a better man and more righteous than himself. This is many times the excuse of enmity (Heb. 11:4; Gen. 4) l Expect no better treatment from the world than Abel received from Cain m 21 things we know:
1 That we know Him (2:3)
2 That we are in Him (2:5)
3 It is the last time (2:18)
4 We know all things of truth (2:20)
5 We know the truth (2:21)
6 That no lie is of the truth (2:21)
7 Every one that doeth righteousness is born of God (2:29)
8 When He shall appear, we shall be like Him (3:2)
9 He was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin (3:5)
10 We have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren (3:14)
11 No murderer or hater of men has eternal life (3:15)
12 We are of the truth (3:19)
13 He abideth in us (3:24)
14 We have the Spirit of God (4:2, 13)
15 We know the difference between the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error (4:6)
16 That we dwell in Him and He in us (4:13)
17 We love God's children (5:2)
18 We have eternal life (5:13)
19 Whosoever is born of God sinneth not (5:18)
20 We are of God (5:19)

o Gr. anthropoktonos, manslayer. Only here and in Jn. 8:44. Does this mean that only sinners who murder do not have eternal life or that Christians can murder and still have eternal life? Is this the kind of government God runs? Does this compare with civil governments in justice?
p "Eternal life" - "Jesus Christ," p. 279
q Eternal life and Christ are separate from the individual and always will be. They abide in one's life like any other separate and outside something which one may permit to come into his life (v 15) c A plain evidence of sonship (v 24; 4:13; Rom. 8:15; Gal. 4:6). Only sons are given the Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:9). This does not refer to the fulness of the Spirit, which all sons have not received (Jn. 7:37-39)

10 [z]In this the children of God are [a]manifest, and the children of the devil: [b]whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

(3) Love for the brethren (2:7, refs.)

11 For this is the [c]message that ye heard [d]from the beginning, that we should [e]love one another.

12 Not as [f]Cain, who was of that [g]wicked one, and slew his brother. [h]And wherefore [i]slew he him? [j]Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

●13 [k]Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We [l]know that we have passed from death unto life, [m]because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no [n]murderer hath [o]eternal life [p]abiding in him.

16 [q]Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 [r]But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, [s]how dwelleth the love of God in him?

●18 My little children, [t]let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in [u]deed and in truth.

(4) Answers to every prayer (5:14-15; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:21-22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5)

19 [v]And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

▶20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

▶21 Beloved, if our [w]heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.

▶22 And [x]whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

(5) Abiding in Christ by the Holy Spirit (Jn. 3:5; 7:37-39; 14:12-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15; Rom. 8:1-16; Gal. 5:16-26; Jude 20-24)

●23 And this is his commandment, [y]That we should believe on the name of his Son Jē'sus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth [z]in him, and he in him. And hereby we [a]know that he abideth in us, [b]by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4 234

3 Protection of God's love
(1) Command to test all spirits. Cp. 1 Cor. 12:3

BELOVED, believe not every [a]spirit, but [b]try the spirits whether they are of God: because many [c]false prophets are gone out into the world.

(2) How to test the spirits

2 [d]Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jē'sus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jē'sus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; [e]and even now already is it in the world.

(3) How to overcome demons

4 [f]Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because [g]greater is he that is in you, than [h]he that is in the world.

(4) Marks of demon inspired false teachers (1 Tim. 6:3; 2 Tim. 3:2; 2 Pet. 2:10-22)

5 [i]They are of the world; therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

(5) Marks of true Christians

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. [j]Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

4 The acid test of a born again experience (1 Jn. 3:15; Jn. 13:34-35; 15:12; 1 Cor. 13)

●7 Beloved, [k]let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for [l]God is love.

5 Proof of God's love to men

9 [m]In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [n]not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the [o]propitiation for our sins.

6 Proof of our dwelling in God and God's love in us (Jas. 2:14)

●11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath [p]seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath [q]given us of his Spirit.

14 [r]And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

a Gr. agapetos, dearly beloved: worthy of love. Trans. beloved 47 times (v 1, 7, 11; Mt. 3:17; 12:18; Rom. 1:7; Jude 3; etc.); well-beloved (Mt. 12:6; Rom. 16:5; 3 Jn. 1); dearly beloved (Rom. 12:19; 1 Cor. 10:14; etc.); and dear (Eph. 5:1; Col. 1:7; 1 Th. 2:8) b Gr. pneuma, the equivalent to the Heb. ruach (Spirit, p. 628). Pneuma is used 385 times in the N. T.

"Pneuma" is used of:
1 God as Spirit (Jn. 4:24; 2 Cor. 3:17)
2 Christ (1 Cor. 6:17; 15:45)
3 The Holy Spirit (Mt. 1:18, 20; 3:11, 16 - altogether of Him over 240 times)
4 Christ's personal spirit (Mk. 2:8; 8:12; Lk. 2:40; Jn. 11:33; 19:30)
5 Angels (Heb. 1:7, 14; Ps. 104:4)
6 Spirits of men (Mt. 5:3; 1 Cor. 2:11; 6:20; 1 Th. 5:23; Heb. 4:12; 12:23)
7 Evil spirits (Mt. 8:16; 10:1; 12:43; Acts 8:7; 16:16; Rev. 16:13; 18:2)
8 The resurrection body (1 Cor. 15:44). See Spirit, p. 430

c Gr. dokimazo, test (note a, 2, 2 Cor. 13:5). The reason here given is because of many false teachers going abroad (v 1). Cp. 7 ways, note j, Mt. 7:16

7 ways to test false prophets by
1 Their confession of Jesus (v 2-3)
2 Their relationship with the world (v 5; 2:15-17; Jas. 4:4)
3 How they receive Christianity (v 6)
4 Their attitude toward the commandments of God (v 6; 3:20-24; Jn. 14:15)
5 Love of the brethren (4:7-21; 3:11-16; Jn. 13:34-35; 15:12-15)
6 The indwelling Holy Spirit (v 4-6)
7 The Word of God (v 6; 5:10; 2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Cor. 4:4)

d See note o, 2 Pet. 2:1; note, Mt. 7:16
e Every spirit inspiring any teacher to deny the incarnation, His passion, death, bodily resurrection, and bodily ascension to heaven is not of God, and is antichrist (v 2-3; note k, Jn. 21:14)
f Satan who will produce the future Antichrist is now in the world (v 3; 2 Th. 2:1-12). He already is producing many antichrists (see notes, 2:18-22)

j See 2:15-17; Jas. 4:4; Jn. 15:18-19 k The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth (Jn. 14:16-17; 15:26; 16:13) and the spirit of error is Satan (2 Cor. 4:4; 11:14-15; Mt. 13:19; 1 Tim. 4:1-2)

l 20 reasons we should love others:
1 To prove that we are of God (v 7)
2 It proves sonship (v 7; 5:1-2)
3 It is proof of knowing God (v 7-8)
4 Because God is love and we should imitate Him as children of God (v 8, 16)
5 God has imparted love to us (v 9; Rom. 5:5)
6 God sent His Son to make it possible (v 9; 1 Pet. 2:21)
7 That we might live (v 9, 10, 14)
8 Because God first loved us (v 10, 19)
9 We have been loved and forgiven so much (v 10; Jn. 3:16)
10 It is our duty (v 11)
11 God loved us when we were unlovable (v 11; Rom. 5:6-10)
12 God dwells in us (v 12)
13 God's love is perfected in us (v 12)
14 Because of the indwelling Spirit (v 13)
15 We believe in love (v 16)
16 We dwell in God (v 16)
17 We are like Him (v 17)
18 It proves we love God (v 20)
19 It is a command (v 21; 5:2)
20 It is natural as sons of God (5:1-2) m See note k, 1:5

n The giving of God's only begotten Son is the fullest proof of the infinite love of God and that all men can find full mercy (v 9-10; Jn. 3:16)
o Our love to God did not induce God to give His Son to die for us. It was God's love, not our merit, that caused Him to undertake our redemption from slavery to sin and Satan, and from eternal hell (Rom. 5:5-11, notes) a Much stress was laid upon this in the early church, because the Jews and many Gentile false teachers denied the reality of the incarnation. If one in those days accepted this, Christ's physical death to atone for sins, and the bodily resurrection of Christ he would likely accept Jesus as personal Saviour. But in our day when Christianity is the accepted religion in our country such confession of Jesus as Son of God has become a mere form in many circles. People think that because they acknowledge this fact in public they are saved from sin and are true Christians. One can do this only mentally and with the tongue many times a day without having a change in his life. One must believe from the heart as well as confess with the mouth (Rom. 10:9-10). If and when one does this he will be made a new creature in Jesus Christ (v 15; 5:1; 2 Cor. 5:17-18). True N. T. confession includes complete surrender of the life to God and consecration regarding future conduct that it will be according to the whole will of God as light is received (1 Jn. 1:7-9; 2 Cor. 7:10; Rom. 12:1-2)

b See note k, 1:5

c By God dwelling in us, by our dwelling in Him, by having the fulness of love in our lives, and by the perfection of that love in daily manifestation, we may have boldness in the day of judgment. This is possible because we are like God - holy, pure, loving, good, and true in this world (v 17; Tit. 2: 11-12)

d Gr. parrhesia (note o, Acts 4:13)

e 5th and last N. T. prophecy in 1 John (4: 17). Christians will be judged at the judgment seat of Christ (1 Cor. 3:11-15, notes). Sinners will be judged at the great white throne over 1,000 years later (Rev. 20:11-15, note)

f What a rebuke to those who hold that men cannot live victorious over the world, the flesh, and the devil! See note c, Mt. 5:48; Rom. 6:14-23, notes

g See note b, Jas. 4:4

h See ingredients of love (1 Cor. 13:4)

i The one who dreads judgment has a reason to fear. His love is not perfect. He must purify himself, as in 1:7; 3:1-10; 5:1-18. One should have Godly fear (Ps. 2:11; 15:4; 19:9; 34:7-11; 85:9; 103:11; Pr. 1:7; 3:7; 8:13; 14:27; 2 Cor. 7:1). The ungodly do not have this kind of fear (Ps. 36:1; 55:19; Rom. 3:18)

j See note on Dt. 10:12

k 6 liars in 1 John: Those who say
1 They have fellowship with God and still walk in darkness (1:6)
2 They have no sin (1:8)
3 They have not sinned (1:10)
4 They are Christians and do not keep
t. N. T. commandments (2:4)
5 There is no God or Jesus Christ (2:22)
6 They are Christians and still hate men (4:20)

l Question 4, Next, 5:5

m Every one who believes from the heart that Jesus is the Messiah and exercises faith in His atoning blood is born of God; and every one so begotten loves both God and man (v 1). This emphasizes the utter simplicity of salvation (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9; Rev. 22:17)

n See note b, 2:3

o Loving God and keeping His commandments are proof that we love the brethren (v 1-3; 2:9-11; 3:14-16); and loving the brethren is proof that we love God (v 1-3; 3:17-18; 4:7-21)

15 Whosoever shall [a]confess that Jē'sus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. [b]God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 [c]Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have [d]boldness in the [e]day of judgment: because [f]as he is, so are [g]we in this world.

7 The true nature of love (1 Cor 13; Gal. 5:22-23; Rom. 5:8)

18 There is no [h]fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. [i]He that [i]feareth is not made perfect in love.

8 Proof of love to the brethren (Jn. 13:34-35; 1 Cor. 13)

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, [k]he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, [l]how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

235 CHAPTER 5

1V The doctrine of Jesus Christ (5:1-21; Col. 1:14).

1 The time and how of the new birth

WHOSOEVER [m]believeth that Jē'sus is the Christ is born of God: [n]and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 Proof of the new birth (2: 3-29; 3:3-10; 4:7; 5:1-4, 18; 2 Cor. 5:17; Gal. 4:24)

2 [o]By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God [p]overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even [q]our faith.

5 [r]Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jē'sus is the Son of God?

3 Five witnesses of Jesus Christ (Jn. 5:31-42, refs.)

6 This is he that came [s]by water and blood, even Jē'sus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. [t]And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the [u]Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record [v]in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Hō'lȳ Ghōst: and these [w]three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these [x]three [y]agree in one.

9 [z]If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

4 Personal inward witness of the new birth (Rom. 8:1-16)

10 [a]He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: [b]he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

5 Eternal life is only in Jesus Christ (Jn. 15:1-6; 1 Jn. 2:24-25)

11 [c]And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and [d]this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

6 How to get answers to every prayer (1 Jn. 3:19, refs.)

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; [e]that ye may [f]know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the [g]confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing [h]according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

7 How to restore a backslider (1:9; 2:1-2; Mt. 12: 31-32)

16 If any man see his [i]brother sin a sin which is not [j]unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

8 Born again people in Christ are free from sin and Satan (1 Jn. 3:5, refs.)

18 We know that whosoever is born of God [k]sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God [l]keepeth himself, and that [m]wicked one toucheth him not.

9 A distinct difference between saints and sinners (1 Jn. 3:10)

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in [n]wickedness.

10 Eternal life is to know God and Jesus Christ (Jn. 17:3)

20 And we know that the Son

a 3 witnesses of humanity and sonship:
1 The Holy Spirit descending upon Jesus at His water baptism (Mt. 3:13-17). See note t, 5:6 on Spirit witnessing
2 The water - threefold witness:
(1) Water baptism symbolizing His own death, burial, and resurrection (Mt. 3:13-17)
(2) Water of the Word bearing witness to the incarnation (Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mt. 1:23; Lk. 1:34-35; note f, Jn. 3:5)
(3) Water and blood at the crucifixion testifying of His humanity (Jn. 19:34)
3 The blood, testifying not only the humanity and sonship of Jesus Christ, but guaranteeing redemption from sin (Mt. 26:28; Acts 20:28; Eph. 1:14; Col. 1:20-22; Heb. 9:14-26; 10:1-23; 1 Jn. 1:7). See point 19 of 89 proofs of a Divine Trinity, p. 280

b Agree to the one point of the humanity and sonship of Jesus (4:1-6; 5:5-9)

c If we receive witness of sinful men who can so easily deceive, we should gladly receive the witness of God who cannot possibly deceive. God's witnesses of His Son are greater than all men (v 9) d Every believer has a personal witness from God to his faith (Rom. 8:14-16; Gal. 5:6; 2 Cor. 5:17-18)

e Every unbeliever receives the fruit of his own rejection of God (Jn. 3:36)

f Eternal life in Jesus Christ is the great truth the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit, the water, and the blood bear testimony of (v 11-12)

g Eternal life is only in Jesus. All who are in Him have this eternal life and all out of Him do not have it 20 blessings in Jesus Christ:

1 No condemnation (Rom. 8:1)
2 Freedom from the law of sin and death (Rom. 8:2)
3 The love of God (Rom. 8:39)
4 Truth (Rom. 9:1)
5 Union in one body (Rom. 12:5)
6 Wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption (1 Cor. 1:30; Rom. 3:24)
7 Resurrection of the body (1 Cor. 15:
8 Triumph (2 Cor. 2:14) 22)
9 Abolishment of the law (p. 201)
10 New creation (2 Cor. 5:17-18)
11 Simplicity (2 Cor. 11:3)
12 Liberty (Gal. 2:4)
13 Sonship (Gal. 3:26)
14 Made nigh to God (Eph. 2:13)
15 High calling (Phil. 3:14)
16 Faith and love (1 Tim. 1:14; 3:13)
17 Grace (2 Tim. 2:1)
18 Salvation (2 Tim. 2:10)
19 Eternal life (1 Jn. 5:11; 2 Tim. 1:1)
20 Preservation (Jude 1)

h 2 reasons for writing (v 13):
1 That you may have eternal life
2 That you may believe on Jesus

i See note b, 2:3

j Gr. parresia, note o, Acts 4:13

k This means according to His Word (Jn. 15:7; Rom. 10:17). God cannot deny His Word or Himself. We should consider the answers as sure as if we already had them (Rom. 4:17; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1: 5-8; Mk. 11:22-24)

l A Christian brother, not a sinner

m All sin is forgivable except blasphemy against the Holy Spirit (Mt. 12:31-32). Since this sin is the only one unto death, that is, unforgivable it is useless to pray for it

n Does not practice sin (2:29; 3:5-10)

o Keeps himself, as in Jude 20-21

p He is not of the devil (3:8-10)

q The wicked one. The whole world is embraced in the arms of the devil and is more or less asleep in death in tresspasses and sins (Eph. 2:1-9)

this is no proof that it was not in the original book as here recorded. Cyprian, Bishop of Carthage, 200-258 A. D., quotes this as being written by John (vol. v, 418, 423, Ante-Nicene Fathers). Vigilius of Thapsus quotes it in the 5th century. The Codex Montfortii and the Vulgate contain it. The words are in perfect harmony with the doctrine of the Trinity. P. 280

w The only sense three can be one is in unity, as is clear in Jn. 17:11, 21-23. See other scriptural uses of the word one (Gen. 2:24; 11:6; 1 Cor. 3:6-8; 12: 13; Eph. 2:14; Heb. 2:11). Three persons cannot be one person in number in any sense, but the three can be one in unity See The Trinity, p. 280

a Is come in the flesh (4:2-3), and has brought redemption by His atoning work (1 Pet. 2:24; Col. 1:20-22)
b Understanding comes before faith and redemption (Rom. 10:17; 1 Cor. 1:30) c See note b, 2:3

20 facts of eternal life by John (1:2):

1 Men can have it by believing on Christ and God (Jn. 3:15-16, 36; 5:24; 6:40, 47)
2 It becomes a well springing up in the soul (Jn. 4:14)
3 Men must gather fruit unto life eternal (Jn. 4:36)
4 It comes through searching the Scriptures (Jn. 5:39)
5 Men must labor for it (Jn. 6:27, note)
6 It comes by drinking of, or partaking of the benefits of the blood of Jesus Christ by faith (Jn. 6:54)
7 Christ has the words of eternal life (Jn. 6:68)
8 Christ gives eternal life to His own who meet the conditions (Jn. 6:27, note; 10:27-29)
9 God commands men to get it (Jn. 12:50)
10 God sent Jesus to give it to all who come to Him through Christ (Jn. 17:2)
11 To know or to experience God and Christ is eternal life (Jn. 17:2-3)
12 Jesus Christ is that eternal life (1 Jn. 1:1-3)
13 This eternal life has actually been seen, heard, and handled (1 Jn. 1:1-3)
14 Men must not only meet the 23 conditions of eternal life of Jn. 6:27, note, but they must let, or permit it to remain in them after they get it (1 Jn. 2:24)
15 If men do let or permit it to remain in them, then they will continue in the Son, and in the Father (1 Jn. 2:24)
16 Eternal life is promised to all (1 Jn. 2:25), but it is given only to those who meet the conditions of receiving and keeping it (Jn. 6:27, note)
17 No man who hates his brother has it (1 Jn. 3:15)
18 It comes from God (1 Jn. 5:11)
19 It is only in God's Son (1 Jn. 5:11)
20 All men may know they have it (1 Jn. 5:13, 20; Jn. 3:16; 5:24; 17:2-3)

4 persons to fellowship (1:3):

1 God the Father (Isa. 57:15; Jn. 14:23; 17:21-23; 2 Cor. 6:13; 1 Jn. 1:3-7)
2 God the Son (Mt. 18:20; Jn. 14:23; 15:1-8; 1 Cor. 1:9; 10:16; 1 Jn. 1:3-7)
3 God the Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 3:16; 2 Cor. 13:14; Phil. 2:1)
4 The Christian (Acts 1:14; 2:1, 42-47; Eph. 5:19; Phil. 2:1-2; 1 Jn. 1:3-7)

40 persons not to fellowship:
1 The ungodly (Ps. 1)
2 Scorners (Ps. 1)
3 Workers of iniquity (Ps. 6:8)
4 Vain persons (Ps. 26:4)
5 Evil workers (Ps. 26:5)
6 Criminals (Pr. 1:10-15)
7 The foolish (Pr. 9:6; 14:7)
8 The angry man (Pr. 22:24)
9 Excommunicated church member (Mt. 18:17)
10 Those causing divisions (Rom. 16:17)
11 Backsliders (2 Jn. 9-11)
12 False teachers (1 Tim. 6:3-5; 2 Jn. 10)
13 The disorderly (2 Th. 3:6)
14 The disobedient (2 Th. 3:14-15)
15 Unbelievers (2 Cor. 6:14)
16 Infidels (2 Cor. 6:14)
17-22 Fornicators, the covetous, idolaters, railers, drunkards, extortioners (1 Cor. 5:9-11)
23-40 Self-lovers, boasters, the proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, the unthankful, unholy, those without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, the incontinent, fierce, despisers of good, traitors, the heady, highminded, pleasure-lovers, and hypocrites (2 Tim. 3:1-5)

5 "if's" of human experience: (1:6)

1 The hypocrite (v 6). If we say we know God and still walk in darkness our sins prove we are liars
2 The Christian (v 7). If we walk in the light, we have fellowship with the Father and the Son (v 3) and the blood of Jesus Christ keeps us cleansed from all sin
3 The self-deceiver (v 8). If we say we have no sin to confess, that is, we are not sinners, we deceive ourselves of God is come, and hath given us an b understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

Summary of 1 John

Date and place: According to tradition 1 John was written from Ephesus about 90 A. D.

Author: The apostle John (see Summary of St. John). Unbroken tradition affirms John to be the author, and internal evidence proves it. No less than 19 comparisons between statements of 1 John and the gospel of John prove they had the same author. Cp. 1 Jn. 1:1 with Jn. 1:1-2, 14; 2:5 with Jn. 14:23; 2:6 with Jn. 15:4; 2:8 with Jn. 1:5, 9; 13:34; 2:10 with Jn. 11:10; 2:13 with Jn. 17:3; 2:14 with Jn. 17:3; 3:1 with Jn. 1:12; 3:2 with Jn. 17:24; 3:8 with Jn. 8:44; 3:8-9 with Jn. 3:3-5; 3:11 with Jn. 13:34; 3:13 with Jn. 15:20; 4:9 with Jn. 3:16; 4:12 with Jn. 1:18; 5:13 with Jn. 20:31; 5:14 with Jn. 14:14; 5:20 with Jn. 17:2-3

Theme: Practical teaching on the love of God and Christian living and conduct

Statistics: 62nd book of the Bible; 5 chapters; 105 verses; 2,523 words; 5 questions; 100 verses of history; 5 verses of unfulfilled prophecy because we know better: and we lie. Gnostics and other heretics deny that they are sinners and that Christ's death atones for sin

4 The penitent sinner (v 9). If we confess our sins, that is, if we will be honest and acknowledge we are sinners (Rom. 3:23), God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness
5 The wilful rebel against God (v 10). If we say that we have never sinned, we make God a liar and His Word is not in us. In v 8 the idea is contending we are not guilty before God and here it is we were never guilty

2 things not to love (2:15):

1 Gr. kosmos, the order, behaviour, fashion, and government of this world system (Mt. 4:8; 13:35; Eph. 1:1-3; Jas. 4:4; 2 Pet. 1:4; 2:20)
2 The things that make up the world system of evil and rebellion against God (see following note: 3 classes)

3 classes of things of the world system: (2:16)

1 The lust of the flesh (v 15). See 17 works of the flesh, p. 207
2 The lust of the eyes:
(1) Lust for women (Mt. 5:28; Job 31:1)
(2) Eyes full of adultery - even men with men and women with women (2 Pet. 2:14; Rom. 1:18-28)
(3) Covetousness (Ps. 10:3; Lk. 12:15)
(4) All things desired (Eccl. 2:10)
(5) Idol worship (Ezek. 6:9; 18:6-15)
(6) All kinds of evil (Mt. 6:23; 7:22)
3 The pride of life:
(1) Self-righteousness (Job 32:1)
(2) Positions (Gen. 3:5; Ezek. 28:11-17; 1 Tim. 3:6; 3 Jn. 9)
(3) Power (Lev. 26:19)
(4) Riches (Ps. 39:6; Ezek. 28:5)
(5) Beauty (Ezek. 28:11, 17)
(6) Strength to war (2 Ch. 26:16)
(7) Constant vaunting one's self; glorying in sex activity; pleasures; and all the vanity of life (v 15; Ps. 24:4; 36:2; Isa. 3:16)

10 blessings of doing the will of God: (2:17)

1 Entrance into the kingdom (Mt. 7:21)
2 Kept from falling (Mt. 7:24-29)
3 Confirmation that one's deeds are of God (Jn. 3:21)
4 Answers to prayer (Jn. 9:31)
5 Being blessed (Jas. 1:22-26)
6 Never moved (Ps. 15:1-5)
7 To abide forever (1 Jn. 2:17)
8 The new birth (1 Jn. 2:29)
9 Righteousness like Christ (1 Jn. 3:7)
10 Confirmation of sonship (3 Jn. 11)

The Antichrist (2:18)

Anyone against Christ is antichrist. In this sense there are many (v 18, 22; 4:3; 2 Jn. 7), but the one referred to here is yet to come 15 titles of the Antichrist:

1 Antichrist (1 Jn. 2:18)
2 The Assyrian (Isa. 10:20-27; 30:18-33; 31:4-32:20; Mic. 5:3-15)
3 The King of Babylon (Isa. 14:4)
4 The Spoiler (Isa. 16:4, note)
5 The Extortioner (Isa. 16:4)
6 Gog, the Chief Prince of Meshech and Tubal (Ezek. 38:2-3, note)
7 The Little Horn (Dan. 7:8, 24; 8:9, 23)
8 King of Pierce Countenance (Dan. 8:23)
9 The Prince that Shall Come (Dan. 9:26-27, notes)
10 The King of the North (Dan. 11:5-11 The Man of Sin (2 Th. 2:1-12) 45)
12 The Son of Perdition (2 Th. 2:1-12)
13 The Wicked (Isa. 11:4)
14 That Wicked (2 Th. 2:8-12)
15 The Beast (Dan. 7:11; Rev. 13)

20 proofs purity is now possible (3:3):

1 He shall save... from... sins (Mt. 1:21)
2 For the remission of sins (Mt. 26:28)
3 Dead to sin (Rom. 6:2)
4 Body of sin might be destroyed, that we should not serve sin (Rom. 6:6)
5 Reckon selves dead to sin (Rom. 6:11)
6 Let not sin reign in your body (Rom. 6)
7 Sin shall not have dominion over you (Rom. 6:14-23)
8 Being made free from sin (Rom. 6:18)
9 Made me free from sin (Rom. 8:1-4)
10 They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts (Gal. 5:16, 24)
11 That we should be holy and without blame before Him in love (Eph. 1:4)
12 Live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world (Tit. 2:12)
13 Purged our sins (Heb. 1:3; 9:14)
14 Be ye holy: for I am holy (1 Pet. 1:16)
15 The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin (1 Jn. 1:7, 9)
16 Ought to walk even as He walked (1 Jn. 2:6)
17 Whosoever abideth in Him sinneth not... is righteous, even as He is (1 Jn. 3:6-7)
18 He that committeth sin is of the devil (1 Jn. 3:8-10; Jn. 8:44)
19 Whoever is born of God sinneth not (1 Jn. 4:17; 5:4-5, 18)
20 Without holiness no man shall see the Lord (Heb. 12:14-15)

7 plain gospel facts stated (3:5-9):

1 He was manifested to take away our sins (v 5; Tit. 2:12)
2 One can not be in Christ and continue to sin (v 5-6; 2 Cor. 5:17-18)
3 Man can be as righteous as Christ in this life (v 7; 4:17; Tit. 2:12)
4 Every man who sins is of the devil (v 8; Jn. 8:44)
5 Christ came to destroy the works of the devil (v 8; Mt. 8:17; Acts 10:38; Jn. 10:10)
6 One cannot sin as long as the Word of God remains in him (v 9; Rom. 6:14-23; 8:1-13)
7 All men are not children of God (v 10)

25 works of the devil (3:8):

1 Sin-rebellion (Gen. 3; 2 Cor. 11:3)
2 Works of darkness, including moral seduction and sex perversion (Eph. 5:11; 6:12; Acts 26:18; Rom. 1)
3 Works of wickedness (Col. 1:21)
4 Spiritual blindness (2 Cor. 4:4)
5 Stealing the Word of God (Mt. 13:19)
6 Deceptions and false religions (2 Cor. 11:14; 1 Tim. 4; Rev. 12:9)
7 To kill and destroy (Jn. 10:10)
8 Sowing tares, tempting, and sifting saints (Mt. 4:3; 13:26; Lk. 22:31)
9 Promoting counterfeit worship and miracles (2 Th. 2:8-12; 1 Cor. 10:20)
10 Causing storms (Job 1:18-19; Eph. 2:2)
11 Ruling nations (Mt. 4:8-9; Dan. 10)
12 Executing death (Heb. 2:14-15)
13 Accusing the brethren (Rev. 12:10)
14 Hindering prayers (Dan. 10:12-21)
15 Opposing the gospel (Eph. 6:1-18)
16 Supervising demons (Jn. 12:31), fallen angels (Rev. 12:7-12), and fallen man (Eph. 2:2; 1 Jn. 3:8; Jn. 8:44)
17 Causing sickness and disease (Mt. 4:23-24; 9:32-33; 15:22; Acts 10:38)
18 Causing infirmities (Mt. 8:17; Lk. 13:16; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38)
19 Catching lunacy and mania (Mt. 4:23-24; 17:14-21; Mk. 5:1-16)
20 Urging suicides (Mt. 17:15; Jn. 10:10)
21 Agitating lusts (Jn. 8:44; Eph. 2:1-3)
22 Lying and false prophecy (1 Ki. 22; Mt. 24:11, 24; 2 Cor. 11:13-15)
23 Propagating false doctrines (1 Tim. 4; 2 Tim. 4; 2 Th. 2; Rev. 13)
24 Oppressing men (Acts 10:38)
25 Persecuting Christians and warring on saints (Eph. 6:10-18; 1 Pet. 5:8-9)

Christ died to destroy and cancel all these works of the devil for believers in this age, and to give complete mastery over them (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Lk. 10:19; Jn. 14:12; Mk. 16:17-18). The only works listed above that will not be put down in this age are: all sin and rebellion among men; Satan's rule of the nations; the reign of death; and continued opposition of Satan to saints. These will be done away in the Millennium (Eph. 1:10; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 21:1-8; 22:3)

7 fallacies based on 1 Jn. 3:9:

1 That a born-again man cannot sin
2 That his sins are not real ones
3 That God automatically forgives his sins without confession
4 That God does not see his sins; instead He sees the blood of Christ which he is trusting in 5 That sins are not imputed to him
6 That he does not practice sin, but commits occasional sin
7 That all his sins, past, present, and future are already forgiven

At the best these fallacies are vain attempts to explain this verse and all of them are unscriptural. The secret of a proper understanding of this verse is in the word in, which, means in harmony with or in union with and not bodily entrance into, as proved in note n, Lk. 22:3. The seed is the Word of God by which a man is born again (1 Pet. 1:23; Jas. 1:18). The simple idea is that as long as one remains in union with or in harmony with the seed, or the Word of God, he cannot sin. One who is consecrated to obey the Bible and refuses to do so, cannot break the commandments of God. Therefore, he cannot sin, for sin is transgression of the law (v 4). The reason given here for not being able to sin is that "His" (God's) seed (the Word of God) remains (abides) in him. That is, the one born again refuses to transgress the commandment of God and commit sin. As long as this consecration remains he will be unable to sin. If he grows cold in his love for God, ceases to pray and keep his spiritual life up to normal he then may be overcome again and sin by transgressing the Word of God (1 Jn. 2:1; 2 Pet. 1:5-10)

"Eternal life" - "Jesus Christ" the same (5:15)

In some scriptures we find that the term eternal life is synonymous with Jesus Christ (1:1-2; 2:24-25; 5:11-13, 20; Jn. 14:6; 17:2-3). This life, like Christ, is eternal whether anyone ever receives it or not. Even if one receives it and then loses it, the life is still eternal. Individual possession of it either temporarily or otherwise does not make it eternal or not eternal. So the argument that if one should lose it, it would cease to be eternal is the wrong concept of it. A diamond or any other eternal thing would not cease to be eternal just because the owner lost it. So it is with eternal life. Conditions must be met to get it and to keep it (note d, Jn. 6:27). Christ cannot and will not remain in the life where sin and rebellion dwell (Jn. 15:4-8; Gal. 1:6-8; 2:6-7; Rom. 6:14-23; 8:1-13; 2 Cor. 13:5) a See note n, Lk. 22:3; 2 Cor. 5:17-18

b Eternal life is to know God and Jesus Christ (Jn. 17:2-3) c Avoid idolatry, false gods, and have no idols in your hearts and lives. Love God first and last (Mt. 22:37)

The Trinity - 18 fallacies (5:7):

1 That there is only one person or one being called God

2 That there is a difference in meaning of three human persons and three divine persons

3 That the terms Father, Son, and Holy Ghost refer to three manifestations of one person or one being

4 That the Father is the only person who is divine; the Son was created by the Father; and the Holy Ghost was created by the Son (Arianism)

5 That God consists of three persons in one person or three beings in one being

6 That the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost are essential parts of one being, just as man is made up of body, soul, and spirit

7 That God is a complex person and so it is folly to seek to explain the Trinity

8 That the Trinity is beyond human comprehension and bewilders the most learned

9 That the Trinity is not an O.T. revelation

10 That God has no body, bodily parts, or passions like human beings - nothing of a bodily nature

11 That God is invisible reality and cannot be seen by natural eyes

12 That God is a universal mind, conscience, love, goodness, and power filling all space and matter

13 That there is nothing on earth to resemble Him

14 That God cannot be comprehended by the senses but by the soul, for He is above sensuous perceptions

15 The image of God consists only of moral and spiritual likeness

16 That all statements of God having a body with bodily parts are mere figures of speech conveying some idea of God to man

17 That Jesus Christ is the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost

18 That Jesus is the one God and Jehovah of the O.T.

All such statements are unscriptural in the extreme and are contradicted by thousands of plain passages about God. Why would God tell us that all invisible things are clearly seen by visible things on earth, even to His eternal power and Godhead (Rom. 1:20), if He is incomprehensible; if there is nothing on earth to resemble Him; if He is a bodiless being; if He is three beings in one being; if His image is only moral and spiritual; if descriptions of His body and bodily parts are not true and real; and if He is an invisible nothingness floating in nowhere? If this is what God is why did He not say this instead of what He did say? Is it possible that He does not speak to us in plain human language? Or, is it possible that the church and false religions are in error and that God does mean what He says about Himself? Who gave man the right to change the Bible from a literal to an imaginative meaning? If statements about God are mere figures of speech trying to convey some idea of Him, what ideas do they convey? That He does not have a body with bodily parts, or that He does? That He is less real than His creations, or that He is as real? It would be unlike God to say over 20,000 things about Himself if He did not have a personal body, soul and spirit as stated

89 proofs of a Divine Trinity:

What we mean by Divine Trinity is that there are three separate and distinct persons in the Godhead, each one having His own personal spirit body, personal soul, and personal spirit in the same sense each human being, angel, or any other being has his own body, soul, and spirit. We mean by body, whether a spirit body or a flesh body, the house for the indwelling of the personal soul and spirit. The soul is that which feels and the spirit is that which knows

The doctrine of the Trinity can be clearly seen, being understood by the visible things that are made, even to His eternal power and Godhead (Rom. 1:20). What on earth was created in the image and likeness of God? Man (Gen. 1:26-28). Do God's image and likeness consist only of moral and spiritual powers? If so, it can be concluded that man is only a moral and spiritual being. Is God bodiless? If so, we can conclude that man is also bodiless. Is God only one being made up of several persons or beings in the one being? If so, we can conclude that man is one person or being made up of many. Does God need a flesh body in order to have any kind of body? No! There are such things as spirit and heavenly bodies. See 1 Cor. 15:35-38. From this passage we learn that all things in creation - grain, fish, birds, beasts, man, angels, and even the planets have bodies, sizes, shapes, and forms

The Bible declares that God has a body, shape, image, likeness, bodily parts, a personal soul and spirit, and all other things that constitute a being or a person with a body, soul, and spirit (see note r, Jn. 4:24; note a, Jn. 5:37; The doctrine of man, p.618 of O.T.)

Angels, cherubim, seraphim, and all other spirit beings have spirit bodies and personal souls and spirits. They have been seen with the natural eyes of men over 100 times in Scripture (note n, Heb. 13:2). If all other spirit beings have spirit bodies, could not the members of the Trinity also have spirit bodies? The 284 passages on spirits in Scripture prove that spirit bodies are just as real and capable of operation in the material worlds as are flesh beings. There is no such thing as a world of creations made up of invisible substance. The so-called spirit-world must be understood simply as spirit beings inhabiting material worlds created by God. Heaven itself is a material planet (Gen. 1:1; Heb. 11:10-16), having cities, mansions, furniture, inhabitants, living conditions, etc. See Heaven, p. 622 of O.T.

God has been seen bodily by human eyes many times (Gen. 18:1-33; 19:24; 32:24-30; Ex. 24:11; 33:11-33; Josh. 5:13-15; Judg. 6:11-23; 13:3-25; 1 Chr. 21:16-17; Job 42:5; Isa. 6; Ezek. 1:26-28; 10:1, 20; 40:3; Dan. 7:9-14; 10:5-10; Acts 7:56-59; Rev. 4:2-5; 5:1, 5-7, 11-14; 6:16; 7:9-17; 19:4; 21:3-5; 22:4)

In over 20,000 references about God in Scripture we get to know all we need to know about the subject. If we will take the Bible literally as to what it says about Him, as we do with other things the subject will be very clear, but if we make God a mystery, ignore the plain statements of Scripture about Him, and refuse to believe the many descriptions of God given by those who have seen one, two, and three separate persons called "God," then we will remain in ignorance

It is true there are a few figurative statements about God in Scripture, as there are about man and other things, but shall we do away with the reality of man and these other things because of a few figures of speech? Let us make man mere salt and lights (Mt. 5:13-14), if we are going to do away with God because of a few figures of speech

We submit the following facts in Scripture to prove a Divine Trinity of separate persons in the Godhead:

1 The word one means one in unity as well as one in number. It means unity in 1 Jn. 5:7, as it does in Jn. 17:11, 21-23, and yet these three persons, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost, are spoken of as one each in number and individuality in Scripture. There is one God the Father, one Lord Jesus Christ, and one Holy Ghost (1 Cor. 8:6; Eph. 4:3-6). Thus there are three separate persons in divine individuality and divine plurality. The Father is called God (1 Cor. 8:6), the Son is called God (Isa. 9:6-7; Heb. 1:8; Jn. 1:1-2; 20:28), and the Holy Spirit is called God (Acts 5:3-4). As individual persons each can be called God and collectively they can be spoken of as one God because of their perfect unity. The word God is used either as a singular or a plural word, like sheep

Everything that could be spoken of God collectively applies equally to each member of the Godhead as an individual, but there are some things that are said of each person of the Deity as to position, office, and work that could not be spoken as of the other members of the Godhead. The Father is the head of Christ (1 Cor. 11:3); the Son is the only begotten of the Father (2 Jn. 3), and the Holy Ghost proceeds from both the Father and the Son (Jn. 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15; Acts 2:34)

2 Names of God prove plurality of persons. The Heb. Elohim is the word for God in Gen. 1:1 and in over 2700 other places in the O.T. It is a unipluralnoun meaning Gods and is so trans. 239 times (Gen. 3:5; Ex. 22:28; 1 Sam. 4:8; Dan. 2:11; 4:6-9; 5:11, 14; etc.). Sometimes Elohim is used with plural verbs and pronouns, "the Gods they caused me to wander" (Gen. 20:13), and "there the Gods they appeared unto him" (Gen. 35:7)

3 Plural pronouns are used of God, proving plurality of persons (Gen. 1:26; 3:22; 11:7; Isa. 6:8; Jn. 14:23; 17:11, 22-23)

4 First, second, and third personal pronouns are used hundreds of times in Scripture, referring to one, two, and three persons of the Godhead in the same sense they are used of men. Sometimes the different members of the Deity use them to and of one another in the same sense man uses them. In Jn. 17 alone Jesus uses them 162 times in speaking to and of His Father. Cp. Jn. 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15. Sometimes singular pronouns are used of the whole Godhead of three members as a unity (Ex. 20:3; Isa. 44:6, 8; 45:5, 21; 46:9; Hos. 13:4), just like the whole church as a unit is spoken of as a man and he (Eph. 2:14-15; 4:13; 5:25-27; 2 Th. 2:7-8)

5 Man is become as one of us proves plurality of persons (Gen. 3:22)

6 Two and three persons called God have been seen by the same men at the same time and places as being separate persons (Dan. 7:9-14; Mt. 3:16-17; Jn. 1:31-34; Acts 7:54-60; Rev. 6:16; 7:9-17; 21:22; 22:3)

7 Two Lords are mentioned in Gen. 19:24; one on earth and one in heaven

8 Two persons are referred to in the O.T. See Ps. 8:5-6 with Heb. 2:5-18; Ps. 16:8-10 with Acts 2:25-36; Ps. 22:1-22 with Mt. 27:35, 39-43, 45-46; Heb. 9:14; 10:5-12; Ps. 40:6-10 with Heb. 10:5-7; and Ps. 45:6-7 with Heb. 1:8-9

9 Two Lords are mentioned sitting side by side (Ps. 110:1, 5; Mt. 22:44; 26:64; Acts 2:33-34; 7:54-56; Rom. 8:34; Eph. 1:20; Col. 3:1; Heb. 1:3, 13; 8:1; 10:12; 12:2; 1 Pet. 3:22; Rev. 22:3)

10 Two persons are mentioned and required in order to understand the plain language of Ps. 2; 89:19; 132:17; Pr. 30:4; Isa. 4:2; 10:16-17; 28:16; 49:1-10; 50:4-11; 52:13-53:12; 62:11; Mic. 5:1-5; Jer. 23:4-8; 33:14-26; Zech. 3:8-10; 6:12-13. In these passages one is anointed, becomes the son of, is sent by, is taught by, and becomes the servant of the other; and both are called Lord

11 Three self-acting persons - the Lord God, the Messiah, and the Holy Spirit, are referred to as blessing, anointing, sending, and doing things for one another in Isa. 11:2; 42:1-7; 48:16; 59:21; 61:1-2; 63:1-14; Zech. 12:10-13:2

12 In Zech. 1:7-21 the Lord of Hosts and the angel of the Lord (also called Lord, 1:19-20; 2:1-13) are talking together. One Lord says of the other Lord that He has sent Him to Israel (2:8-13). One Lord refers to Himself as Me and to the Lord of Hosts as His and He (2:8-11). This conference continues throughout Zechariah until 13:6-7 where both Lords are called fellows or associates

13 Jesus Christ is called the son of Abraham, David, Mary, and of God (Mt. 1:1; Mk. 1:1; 6:3). He is just as much a separate person from God as He is of these other persons

14 Two persons are referred to many times in the N.T. (Mt. 11:27; Lk. 23:46; Jn. 1:1-2, 18; 5:19-20; 14:1-9; 16:15; 17:3, 10; Acts 2:38-39; 3:13-26; Phil. 2:5-11; Eph. 3:5; Col. 1:15; 2 Th. 2:16-17; Tit. 2:13; Heb. 1:1-3; Rev. 20:6; 22:3)

15 Two and three persons are mentioned in the introductions to N.T. books (Rom. 1:1-4, 7; 1 Cor. 1:3; Jas. 1:1; 1 Pet. 1:1-3; 2 Jn. 3; Rev. 1:1-6; etc.)

16 God is the head of Christ and thus greater than He in position (1 Cor. 3:23; 11:3; 1 Chr. 29:11; Jn. 14:28)

17 Christ is the mediator between God and man, not between Himself and man (1 Tim. 2:5)

18 Two and three persons are referred to in every N.T. book (Mt. 3:16-17; 12:31-32; 17:5; 22:43-45; 28:19; Mk. 1:1-2, 10; 13:32; Lk. 1:32-35; 2:40, 52; 3:22; 4:1; 4:18; 9:35; 23:46; 24:39 with Jn. 4:24; Jn. 1:1-3, 14, 18; 5:17-26, 31-38; 6:37, 44-46, 57; 7:16-18, 28, 37-39; 8:13-19, 26-38, 42, 54; 10:15-18, 24, 29, 38; 12:26-31, 44, 49-50; 14:1-26, 28-30; 15:1-26; 16:1-33; 17:1-26; 18:11; 20:17, 21; Acts 1:7-8; 2:24-36; 3:13-26; 4:10, 26-31; 5:29-33; 7:37, 55-56; 8:12-17; 9:17; 10:38-48; 17:31; Rom. 1:3, 7, 9; 5:1-11; 8:1-13, 26-39; 1 Cor. 1:3-9; 2:10; 3:23; 8:6; 11:3; 12:3; 15:57; 2 Cor. 1:2-3; 5:17-21; 13:14; Gal. 1:1-3; Eph. 1:2-3; 3:14; 4:3-6; 6:23; Phil. 1:2; 2:5-11; Col. 1:2-3, 13-19; 3:1; 1 Th. 1:1-10; 3:13; 2 Th. 1:1-2; 2:16; 1 Tim. 1:2; 2:5; 5:21; 6:14-16; 2 Tim. 1:2; 4:1; Tit. 1:4; 2:13; Phm. 3; note n, Rev. 5:13 for 30 last N.T. references) In no conceivable way can we force a meaning of three persons in one person; three beings in one being; or three manifestations of only one person in any of these or any other scripture.

19 There are three distinct and separate witnesses that bear witness of Christ (1 Jn. 5:5-11, 13, 20). Both God and man require this many personal and separate witnesses to confirm any point (Mt. 18:16; 2 Cor. 13:1). The water and blood of 1 Jn. 5:8 could not be accepted as accredited personal witnesses in themselves. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost are the only personal witnesses of this passage. If we consider these to be only one person, then there are not the required number of witnesses to establish the truth of the Sonship of Jesus Christ. We are forced by facts to admit all of 1 Jn. 5:7-8 as inspired Scripture and therefore, the fact that the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost are three separate and personal witnesses instead of being only one person or witness.

Many scriptures confirm these three witnesses:

(1) The Father (Jer. 29:23; Mal. 3:5; Jn. 5:31-37, notes; Rom. 1:9; Heb. 1:1-2; 2:3-4)

(2) The Son (Isa. 55:4; Jn. 18:37; 1 Tim. 6:13; Rev. 1:5)

(3) The Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:16; Jn. 15:26; Heb. 10:15; 1 Jn. 3:6)

If all three are witnesses, then they must be separate persons. The water and the blood simply confirm the intelligent testimonies of the three persons of the Godhead and give additional weight to the Sonship of Jesus

20 The words THROUGH and BY, used of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit, but not once of the Father prove God to be a separate person and the Head and Director of all things done BY and THROUGH them (1 Cor. 3:23; 11:3; Jn. 10:29; 14:28; 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15; Acts 2:33-34):

(1) THROUGH Jesus Christ (Acts 4:2; Rom. 1:8; 5:1, 9, 11, 23; 7:25; 15:17; 16:27; 1 Cor. 15:57; 2 Cor. 3:4; Gal. 3:14; 4:7; 5:10; Eph. 2:7, 18; Phil. 4:7, 13; Tit. 3:6; Heb. 13:21; 1 Pet. 1:22; 4:11; 1 Jn. 4:9)

(2) By Jesus Christ (Jn. 1:3, 10, 17; 10:9; Acts 4:10; 10:36; Rom. 2:16; 3:22; 5:17, 21; Gal. 1:1; Eph. 1:5; 3:9; Col. 1:15-20; 3:17; Heb. 1:1-3; 1 Pet. 2:5; 5:10)

(3) THROUGH the Holy Ghost (Acts 1:2; 21:4; Rom. 8:13; 15:13, 19; Gal. 5:5; Eph. 2:22; Heb. 9:14)

(4) BY the Holy Ghost (Ezek. 11:24; Mic. 3:8; Zech. 4:6; Mt. 12:28; Lk. 2:27; 4:1; Acts 11:28; Rom. 5:5; 15:19; 1 Cor. 2:10; 6:11; 12:3, 13)

Proofs Jesus is not the Father:

21 The Father was in heaven all the time Jesus was on earth (Mt. 5:16, 48)

22 Christ now sits at the right hand of the Father (see note 9, above)

23 Jesus said He would confess men BEFORE MY FATHER, proving He is not the Father (Mt. 10:32; Rev. 3:5)

24 Jesus always prayed to the Father as a separate person (Mt. 11:25; Jn. 17)

25 The Father existed OUTSIDE the body of Jesus, so He could not be Jesus (Mt. 2:12; 3:17; 17:5; Jn. 12:27-30)

26 Both Jesus and Satan refer to a God separate from "Jesus" (Mt. 4:6-10)

27 God was the Father of Jesus, not Jesus, Himself (Eph. 1:3, 17; 3:14)

28 In parables Jesus illustrates His relationship to the Father as that of separate persons (Mt. 21:33-46; Jn. 15:1-8)

29 Men are taught to go directly to the Father and not to pray to Jesus (Jn. 14:12-15; 15:16; 16:23-26)

The Elect Lady and Her Children - Walking in the Truth - Warnings - Admonitions - False Teachers

236

I Authorship and salutation to the elect lady and children

THE[a] elder unto the[b] elect[c] lady and her children, whom[d] I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

▸2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and [e]shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, [f]from God the Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Christ, [g]the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

II Rejoicing over her children walking in the truth

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

III Admonition to walk in love and keep the commandments

●5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning,[h]that we love one another.

6 And [i]this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

IV Warning against deceivers and antichrists (1 Jn. 2:18)

7 For many[a] deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jē'sus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

●8 [b]Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

V Warning against backsliding (1 Jn. 2:1-2, 24-25)

▸9 [c]Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

VI What to do to false teachers (2 Cor. 11:12, refs.)

●10 [d]If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, [e]neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

VII Conclusion and greeting

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

13 The children of [f]thy elect sister greet thee. A-mĕn'.

a John was an elder in three ways:
1 By title, being an apostle and a preaching elder (Gr. presbuteros, note g, Acts 14:23)
2 By seniority, both as a Christian and as an apostle. He is supposed to have been the oldest of the apostles, to have had the most years of Christian experience and to have been the only one to die a natural death
3 By age, being about 90 years old at this writing. Cp. note k, Ph'm 9

b From Gr. eklektos, chosen excellent, pre-eminent (4 elect's of God, p. 201)

c Gr. kuria, feminine of Kurios, Lord, therefore it may signify lady, or some most excellent and honorable woman to whom John addressed the epistle. She likely had a church in her home. She was a married woman, for her children are also saluted. No husband is mentioned so perhaps she was a widow who entertained many ministers and traveling evangelists in her home

d I love with a Christian love and so do all who love the truth (v 1)

e The doctrines of Christianity are eternal f From both the Father and the Son of the Father, proving two distinct persons (See The Trinity, p. 280)

g The only time this expression is used. It emphasizes that Jesus is not the Father, but the Son of the Father (Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:16). The incarnation is the very foundation of Christianity

h This is John's peculiar emphasis in all his writings. He uses the word love 62 times compared to only 116 times by all other writers of the N.T.

i Keeping the commandments of the N.T. is proof of genuine love (v 6)

30 The Father knew things Jesus did not know (Mk. 13:32; Acts 1:7)
31 Others saw Jesus as a separate person from the Father (Dan. 7:9-14; Acts 7:56)
32 Jesus committed His own spirit to the Father, not to Himself (Lk. 23:46)
33 Jesus claimed that He came FROM God and WAS GOING BACK TO God (Jn. 8:42; 16:5; 10:36; 17:6)
34 God is a Spirit and not flesh and blood, like Jesus was (Jn. 4:24; 19:34; Mt. 16:17; Lk. 24:39)
35 Men on earth with Jesus heard God speak as a separate person FROM heaven (Mt. 3:17; 17:5; 2 Pet. 1:16-18)
36 Jesus claimed to be the Son of God, not the Father, Himself (Jn. 5:17-36)
37 Jesus called the Father My God even after the resurrection (Jn. 20:17; Rev. 3:12)
38 Jesus called God My Father 57 times (Jn. 15:1; Rev. 2:27). How could He be His own God and Father and beget Himself?
39 When Jesus was born on earth angels and men still recognized God in heaven (Lk. 2:7-16). Were they mistaken about God? Was the child all of God on earth and was He in heaven also?
40 Mary and Joseph acted with utmost ignorance if the baby Jesus was all of God, for they presented Him to the Lord who was someone other than Jesus (Lk. 2:22)
41 Simeon had a revelation and guidance from the Holy Spirit that Jesus was not the only member of the Godhead (Lk. 2:26-33)
42 John the Baptist knew the Father, but he did not know the Son (Jn. 1:31-34)
43 The Son died, not the Father (1 Cor. 15:3; 1 Pet. 2:24)
44 Jesus was the only begotten Son of the Father, so could not be the Father or the begetter of Himself (Jn. 1:14)
45 Jesus claimed that He could not and did not do any thing of Himself, but that the Father worked through Him (Jn. 5:19, 30; 8:38; 8:28; 12:49-50)
46 He did not come to do His own will, but that of the Father who sent Him (Jn. 5:30; 6:38)
47 His doctrine was not His, but the Father's (Jn. 7:16-17; 8:28)
48 He did not speak of Himself, but of the Father who had sent Him (Jn. 7:16-18; 8:26-40)
49 He did not please Himself, but the Father (Jn. 8:29)
50 He was a son, not a Father over the house of God (Jn. 8:35-36; Heb. 3:6)
51 He had the same relation to His Father that men have with Satan (Jn. 8:16, 35-44; 9:4)
52 He honored the Father as all men should (Jn. 8:49)
53 He did not seek His own glory, but that of the Father (Jn. 8:50-54; 17:4)
54 He knew the Father, but was not the Father (Jn. 8:55; 10:15)
55 He was loved of the Father as a separate person (Jn. 10:17-18)
56 He kept the Father's commandments and they were not His own (Jn. 12:49-50; 15:10)
57 His disciples were given to Him by the Father (Jn. 10:29; 17:1-25)
58 He was equal with the Father in some things, but not in others (Mk. 13:32; Jn. 5:17-30; 8:13-19, 29-42; 10:18-29; Acts 1:7; 1 Cor. 11:3; Rev. 1:1)
59 He and the Father were in unity and in each other in the same sense believers are to be in unity and in God (Jn. 10:36; 14:10-11, 23; 17:11, 21-23)
60 He was the only way to the Father (Jn. 6:37; 14:6)
61 He said, I am not alone or the only witness of My sonship. The Father is another witness (Jn. 5:36-38; 8:13-19, 54; 12:49-50; 14:10-11)
62 Over 80 times Jesus affirmed that He was not the Father and not the only person in the Godhead. Christ was the speaker, but not the one spoken of or to (Mt. 7:21; 11:27; 18:10, 35; Lk. 2:49; Jn. 5:17-43; 8:19-49; 10:17-37; 14:7-28; 15:1-26; Rev. 1:1; etc.). Is it any wonder that the Godhead, the Trinity, and the unity of God are so mysterious when we force separate persons to become only one person, all because we do not want to recognize the true meaning of the word one as referring to unity, not to individuality in some scriptures? Men would be just as great a mystery if we forced the meaning of all men to refer to one person
63 He was not as great as His Father (Jn. 10:29; 14:28, Cp. 1 Cor. 11:3)
64 The Father (Mt. 3:17), Jesus (Jn. 10:36), angels (Lk. 1:32-35), demons (Mk. 3:11; 5:7), and apostles (Mt. 16:16; Jn. 1:14; Rom. 8:32; 2 Jn. 3), all declare the sonship of Jesus, but not once do they declare a Christ-fatherhood
65 The Father and the Son spoke to each other in audible voices at the same time and place being heard by many witnesses (Mt. 3:16-17; 17:5; Jn. 12:27-30; 2 Pet. 1:17). In no single instance could such speaking be explained as the voice of one individual or be used to prove one person in the Deity.
66 The word both is used of the Father and the Son, proving two persons (Jn. 15:24; 2 Jn. 9)
67 The word also is used of the Father and the Son, proving two persons (Jn. 5:19, 27; 8:19; 13:32; 14:1)
68 The statement, "They have not known the Father, NOR ME" proves two persons (Jn. 16:3, 5)
69 Christ received all power in heaven and in earth (Mt. 28:18). Someone had to be greater than He was to give Him that power. Who was it (Jn. 14:28)?
70 Jesus was resurrected and exalted by the Father, so He could not be the Father (Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:9-11; Heb. 12:2; 1 Pet. 3:22)
71 God made Jesus both Lord and Christ (Acts 2:33-36)
72 Six times in Jn. 14:1-9 Jesus made it clear that He was not the Father Holy Spirit not Jesus or the Father:
73 The Holy Spirit is another from both the Father and the Son (Jn. 5:32; 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15)
74 It was necessary that Jesus go away so that the Holy Spirit could come (Jn. 16:5-15)
75 He has been seen with the natural eyes as a separate person from the Father and the Son (Mt. 3:16-17; Jn. 1:31-34; Rev. 4:5; 5:6)
76 He is symbolized as a separate person with Christ, both of them before God who sits on a throne (Rev. 1:4-5; 3:1; 4:5; 5:6)
77 He could not be sent from God until Christ was glorified, but would then be sent from both the Father and the Son (Jn. 7:37-39; Acts 2:33-34)
78 He was sent from the Father to endue Jesus with power, which required three persons: the one who sent Him, the one being sent, and the one who received Him (Acts 10:38; Isa. 11:2; 42:1-7; 61:1-2)
79 A clear distinction is made of the names of all three persons (Mt. 28:19; 2 Cor. 13:14; 1 Jn. 5:7)
80 A clear distinction is made between the Son who prays, the Father to whom He prays, and the Holy Spirit for whom He prays (Jn. 14:16)
81 A clear distinction is made between the Son on the right hand of the Father, the Father on the left hand of the Son, and the Holy Ghost who is sent from the Father and the Son (Acts 2:33-36; 7:56; Jn. 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15)
82 The Son was already given (Jn. 3:16), when the Spirit was not yet given (Jn. 7:39)
83 The Son can be blasphemed with forgiveness possible; but if the Spirit be blasphemed no forgiveness is possible. This proves two distinct persons (Mt. 12:31-32; Mk. 3:29-30; Lk. 12:10)
84 The Samaritans received Jesus, but had not yet received the Holy Ghost (Acts 8:5-25)
85 Jesus could do no miracle by Himself (Jn. 5:19), but by the Holy Ghost a Gr. planos. Trans. deceiver (v 7; Mt. 27:63; 2 Cor. 6:8) and seducing (1 Tim. 4:1). Seducing spirits and deceivers denied the incarnation (v 7; 1 Jn. 4:1-6). Today, they are denying the bodily, fleshly resurrection of Jesus as well as the incarnation. The Gr. here reads, "Jesus Christ coming in the flesh", proving that it refers to His bodily resurrection and His coming again to earth in the flesh. He will come in the same human body that was resurrected and taken to heaven (Zech. 13:6; Acts 1:11; Phil. 3:21; 1 Cor. 15:1-23; note k, Jn. 21:14)

b Here Christians are warned to meet required conditions of blessing in order not to lose rewards (1 Cor. 3:11-15, notes)

c Any person who sins and does not remain in the truth, hath not God. He who does not sin and who remains in the truth has both the Father and the Son (v 9). This warns of the possibility of backsliding and losing rewards (v 8) as well as losing God and Christ (v 9) d If any man poses as an apostle or Christian teacher and does not teach the true doctrine of Christ - the incarnation, the death, burial, and bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ, do not receive him or give him entertainment in your home. Do not even bid him God speed. If you do you are a partaker of his evil deeds and will be punished with him for the same sins (v 10-11)

e Classes not to fellowship (1 Jn. 1:3, note)

Summary of 2 John

Date and place: Perhaps written from Ephesus about 90 A.D.
Author: The apostle John (see Summary of St. John)
Theme: Walk of believers; deceivers - warnings regarding how they deceive Statistics: 63rd book of the Bible; 1 chapter; 13 verses; 303 words; no question; no prophecy

JOHN

God's Will - Source of Joy - Hospitality to Ministers - Warnings - Characteristics of Saints and Sinners

a See note a, 2 Jn. 1 b The second epistle of John to an individual (v 1; 2 Jn. 1) c It is not known whether this Gaius was the same mentioned in Acts 19:29; 20:4; Rom. 16:23; 1 Cor. 1:14 or not d 3 kinds of blessing that are God's will:
1 Material prosperity (v 2; Josh. 1:5-9; 1 Sam. 2:7-8; 1 Kl. 2:3-4; 1 Chr. 29:12; Ezra 8:22; Job 36:11; Ps. 1:1-3; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 15:7, 16; 2 Cor. 9:6-8; Phil. 4:19)
2 Bodily healing and health (v 2; Ex. 15:26; Ps. 91; 103:3; Isa. 53:4-5; 58:8; Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Jas. 5:14, note)
3 Soul salvation (v 2; Mt. 1:21; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; Eph. 1:7; 2:8-9; Heb. 7:25; 1 Jn. 1:7, 9; Rev. 1:5)
If anyone of these blessings was not the will of God, would it be the wish of this most beloved apostle? If such blessings are the will of God for one man, they are for all men alike who will have faith for them, because in the gospel there is no respect of persons e Perhaps the ministers of v 5-8 f From this we gather that Gaius was a convert of John the apostle. Or, it could refer to Christians under his care, those

He did many miracles (Jn. 2:11; Acts 10:38)
86 The Holy Ghost came not to speak of or glorify Himself, but to speak of and glorify Jesus (Jn. 16:7-15)
87 The descent of the Holy Spirit proved the arrival of Jesus in heaven to sit at the right hand of God, thus proving three persons (Acts 2:33-34; Jn. 7:39)
88 Jesus claimed even after the resurrection that He was not a spirit being, so He could not be the Father or the Holy Spirit who are spirit beings (Lk. 24:39; Jn. 4:24; 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15)
89 In the last book of the Bible the Trinity is seen as working together in all things (Rev. 1:4-6; 3:1; 4:5; 5:6; 21:10; 22:17)

28 blessings of faith (5:4):

1 Bodily healing (Mt. 8:10; Acts 3:16)
2 Protection (Mt. 8:26; 14:31)
3 Daily food (Mt. 16:8-10)
4 Forgiveness (Lk. 7:50; Rom. 3:25)
5 Miracles (Acts 6:8; Gal. 3:5)
6 Heart purity (Acts 15:9)
7 Sanctification (Acts 26:18)
8 Righteousness (Rom. 3:22; 9:30)
9 Justification (Rom. 3:28-31; 4:1-25; 5:1; Gal. 2:16; 3:8, 24)
10 Renewal of youth (Rom. 4:17-20)
11 Stability (1 Cor. 16:13; 2 Cor. 1:24)
12 Christian living (2 Cor. 5:7; Heb. 10)
13 Holy Spirit (Gal. 3:2, 14)
14 Sonship (Gal. 3:26)
15 Salvation (Acts 4:12; Eph. 2:8-9)
16 Christ indwelling (Eph. 3:17)
17 Baptism into Christ (Col. 2:12)
18 Works of power (1 Th. 1:3; 2 Th. 1:11)
19 Godly edifying (1 Tim. 1:4)
20 Boldness (1 Tim. 3:13)
21 Assurance (Heb. 10:22)
22 Good profession (Heb. 10:23)
23 Patience (Jas. 1:3; 1 Pet. 1:7)
24 Inheritance (Jas. 2:5)
25 Power to resist Satan (1 Pet. 5:9)
26 Victory over the world (1 Jn. 5:4)
27 Edification (Jude 20)
28 Many faith exploits (Heb. 11, notes)

10 faith confessions:

1 Nothing impossible (Mt. 17:20)
2 All things (Mt. 21:21)
3 Whatever you say (Mk. 11:22-24)
4 Salvation (Acts 4:12; 1 Pet. 1:5-13)
5 Daily necessities (Mt. 6; Lk. 12:28)
6 Victory in Christian living (Rom. 1:7
7 Access to God (Rom. 5:2) 17)
8 Holy Spirit (Gal. 3:14)
9 Promises fulfilled (Heb. 6:12)
10 Bodily healing (Jas. 5:14-16)

12 ways of Spirit witnessing of Jesus: (5:6)

1 By guiding Simeon to Jesus to declare His Messiahship when a babe (Lk. 2:27-32)
2 By training Jesus in His growth to maturity (Lk. 2:40-52; Isa. 50:4-5)
3 By descending upon Him, confirming His Messiahship (Mt. 3:16; Jn. 1:31-33)
4 By anointing Him to fulfill the prophets (Mt. 12:18 with Isa. 11:2; 42:1-7; Lk. 4:16-21 and Acts 10:38 with Isa. 61:1-2)
5 By the transfiguration of Christ, demonstrating His earthly kingship (Mt. 16:28; 17:1-9; 2 Pet. 1:16-21)
6 By enabling Christ to offer Himself as a ransom for all (Heb. 9:14)
7 By the resurrection of Jesus and His triumph over death, hell, and the grave (1 Pet. 3:18-19; Acts 2:24-32; Rom. 1:4)
8 By the Spirit's descent at Pentecost, confirming the ascension and exaltation of Jesus Christ (Jn. 7:37-39; Acts 2:33-36)
9 By fulfilling the prophecies of Jesus in men chosen to represent the Messiah (Jn. 14:16-17, 26; 16:26; 16:7-15; Acts 2; Heb. 2:1-4; Mk. 16:15-20)
10 By giving personal witness to every one who believes in Jesus Christ (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 8:9-16; Gal. 4:6)
11 By making it possible for each believer to carry on the original N. T. program (Mt. 18:18, refs.; Mk. 16:15-20, notes; Jn. 14:12-15; 1 Cor. 12)
12 By a written record of the life and teachings of Jesus Christ and of the new covenant (Acts 1:1-2; 1 Cor. 2:10; 2 Tim. 3:16-17; 2 Pet. 3:16)

8 uses of the word "heart" (3:21):

1 The physical organ - the seat of the physical life; the blood pump (2 Sam. 18:14; 2 Kl. 9:24; Eccl. 12:6; Pr. 14:30)
2 The center of anything (Mt. 12:40)
3 The inner man consisting of soul and spirit (Ps. 51:10; Mt. 5:8; 12:34-35; 15:18-19; 22:37; Rom. 6:17; 1 Pet. 3:4)
4 The conscience (Mk. 8:17; Jn. 12:40; Acts 2:37; Rom. 2:5; 1 Jn. 3:20-21)
5 The will (Acts 4:32; 1 Cor. 7:37)
6 The mind including:
(1) Thoughts (Gen. 6:5; Jn. 12:40)
(2) Imaginations (Gen. 8:21)
(3) Understanding (1 Kl. 3:9, 12)
(4) Wisdom (Ex. 35:35; Pr. 2:10)
(5) Blindness (Dt. 28:28; Rom. 1:21)
(6) Meditation (Ps. 19:14; Lk. 2:19)
(7) Deceit (Pr. 12:20; Jer. 17:9) 51)
(8) Wickedness (Jer. 17:9)
(9) Doubt (Mk. 9:23; Jas. 4:8)
(10) Purposes (Acts 11:23)
7 The soul including:
(1) Grief (Gen. 6:6; Dt. 15:10)
(2) Joy and gladness (Dt. 28:47)
(3) Desires (Ps. 37:4)
(4) Sorrow (Pr. 14:10; 15:13; Jn. 16:6)
(5) Discouragement (Dt. 1:28)
(6) Fear (Dt. 28:65-67)
(7) Comfort (Judg. 19:8)
(8) Pain (Ps. 55:4)
8 The spirit including:
(1) Zeal (Ex. 35:21, 26; 36:2)
(2) Humility (Ps. 34:18; Mt. 11:29)
(3) Faithfulness (Neh. 9:8)
(4) Hate (Lev. 19:17)
(5) Pride (Dt. 8:14; 17:20)

I Authorship and salutation (Cp. Acts 19:29; 20:4; 1 Cor. 1:14)

THE [a]elder [b]beloved [c]Gā'ius, whom I love in the truth.

II God's will for all saints (Ps. 1; 21:1 Jn. 3:19, refs.)

2 Beloved, [d]I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

III Rejoicing over Gaius walking in the truth

3 For I rejoiced greatly, [e]when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.
4 I have no greater joy than to hear that [f]my children walk in truth.

IV Commendation for hospitality to ministers

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;
6 [g]Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:
7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, [h]taking nothing of the Gĕn'tiles.
●8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

V Warning against Diotrephes

9 I wrote unto the church: but [d]Dī-ŏt're-phēs, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.
10 Wherefore, if I come, [b]I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

VI How to know saints and sinners (Mt. 7:15, refs.)

●11 Beloved, [c]follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

VII The good Demetrius

12 [d]Dē-mē'trĭ-ŭs hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true.

VIII Conclusion and benediction

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:
14 But I trust [e]I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

Summary of 3 John

Date and place: Perhaps written from Ephesus about 90 A. D.
Author: The apostle John (see Summary of St. John)
Theme: Personal responsibility concerning true and false ministers.
Statistics: 64th book of the Bible; 1 chapter; 14 verses; 299 words; 2 questions; no prophecy a Who this man was is not known and all speculation is useless. Regarding character he is known as being proud, ambitious, exclusive, malicious, inhospitable, despotic, and rebellious against apostolic authority (v 9-10) b This is the only threatening in John's writings, except in Revelation. He had apostolic power and threatened to use it to bring judgment on this rebel, as Paul threatened the Corinthians (1 Cor. 4:16-21) c Do not follow this kind of man (v 9-11). Do good, for this will be proof that you are of God and know Him (v 11)

d Only mentioned here
e In both 2 and 3 John, the apostle expressed his hope of seeing the ones to whom he wrote (2 Jn. 12; 3 Jn. 14)

who were his juniors in Christ and in age
g Gaius had entertained the visiting ministers and also strangers, and had done many works of charity (v 5-8)
h These ministers preached for Christ, not for personal gain or advantage. By all means they showed themselves disinterested in income (v 7-8)

(6) Foolishness (Pr. 22:15)
(7) Integrity (Gen. 20:5-6; 1 Kl. 2:44; 9:4; 1 Chr. 29:17)
(8) Immortality (Ps. 22:26; 69:32; 1 Pet. 3:4, note)

Who is a child of the devil? (3:10)

21 evidences one is a child of Satan:

1 Walking in darkness (1:5-6; 2:11)
2 Saying one has no sin (1:8, 10)
3 Failing to please God and keep His commandments (2:3-4; 3:22-24; 5:14-15)
4 Failing to walk as Christ did (2:6)
5 Hating anyone (2:9; 3:10-19; 4:20)
6 Failing to overcome Satan (2:13-14)
7 Loving the world and the things in it (2:15-17; 3:1, 13; 4:5)
8 Leaving Christian fellowship (2:19)
9 Ignoring truth (2:20-27)
10 Denying God and Jesus (2:22-23)
11 Doing unrighteousness (2:29; 3:10)
12 Making no effort to purify self (3:3)
13 Committing sin (3:8-10; 5:16)
14 Murdering (3:12, 15)
15 Shutting bowels of compassion (3:17)
16 Lacking faith (3:20-22; 5:14-15)
17 Being destitute of the indwelling Holy Spirit (3:24; 4:4, 13)
18 Being of the world and having fellowship with it (4:5)
19 Having no personal acquaintance with God or knowledge of eternal life (4:7-10; 5:10-13, 20-21)
20 Making no confession of Jesus (4:14-18)
21 Being overcome by the world (5:4-5)

5 secrets of answered prayer (3:22):

1 Freedom from condemnation (Rom. 8:1)
2 Confidence in God (note o, Acts 4:13)
3 Asking (Mt. 7:7-11; Lk. 11:9-13)
4 Keeping commandments (v 23-24)
5 Pleasing God (Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)

5 blessings of genuine love (3:19):

1 Confirmation that we are of the truth
2 Assurance of a clean heart before God
3 Freedom from condemnation (v 20-21)
4 Faith and confidence in God (v 21)
5 Answers to prayers (v 22)

3 false doctrines of that day (2:22):

1 That Jesus is not the Christ
2 That God is not the Father of Jesus
3 That Jesus is not the Son of God
The Jews and the Gnostics in particular denied the miraculous virgin birth of Jesus Christ. They considered Him a common man, the son of Joseph and Mary (Mt. 13:55-57; Mk. 6:3)

JUDE

Contention for the Original Faith - Apostates - Their Sins, Characteristics, and Judgment - Prophecies

238

I Authorship and salutation

1 [a]JŪDE, the [b]servant of Jē'şus Christ, and brother of Jămes, [c]to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jē'şus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

II Purpose of the epistle

●3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the [d]common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly [e]contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are [f]certain men crept in unawares, who [g]were before of old ordained to this condemnation, [h]ungodly men, [i]turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jē'şus Christ.

III Examples of judgment

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Ē'gĭpt, [j]afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which [k]kept not their first estate, but left their own [l]habitation, [m]he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sŏd'om and Gŏmŏr'rhą, and the cities about them [n]in like manner, giving themselves over to [o]fornication, and going after [p]strange flesh, are [q]set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

IV Lusts and sins of apostates (2 Pet. 2:10-22)

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers [r]defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

V Humility of Michael

9 Yet [s]Mī'chaĕl the archangel, when contending with the devil he [t]disputed about the body of Mō'şeş, [u]durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

VI Characteristics of apostates (2 Pet. 2:10-22)

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, [v]as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! [w]for they have gone in the way of Căin, and ran greedily after the error of Bā'laam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of [x]Cō'rĕ.

12 These are spots in your [y]feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: [z]clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, [a]twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, [b]to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

VII The prophecy of Enoch

●14 And Ē'nŏch also, [c]the seventh from Ăd'ăm, prophesied of these, saying, [d]Behold, the Lord cometh with [e]ten thousands of his saints, ▸15 [f]To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

VIII Apostates are boastful and unmerciful (2 Pet. 2)

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

IX Prophecy of Peter

●17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jē'şus Christ;

★18 [g]How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should [h]walk after their own ungodly lusts.

X Apostates are ungodly

19 These be they who [i]separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

XI Seven Christian practices that guarantee security

●20 [m]But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Hō'lĭ Ghōst, ●21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jē'şus Christ unto eternal life.

●22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

●23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 [n]Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory [o]with exceeding joy,

25 To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, [p]both now and ever. Ā-mĕn'.

a Jude was a half-brother of Jesus Christ (see James, p. 264; note d, Lk. 8:19)
b Gr. doulos, note e, Mt. 20:27
c 3 blessings of Christians:
1 Sanctification (v 1; p. 236)
2 Preservation (v 1; 1 Th. 5:23). Gr. tereo, note t, 1 Pet. 1:4
3 Calling (v 2; Rom. 8:28; 2 Pet. 1:10)
d So called because it belongs to the Jews and the Gentiles alike and offers salvation to the whole world (Jn. 3:16)
e Gr. epagonizomai, to contend against others (v 3). Only here. The idea is to maintain the original faith of the gospel which was being destroyed by false teachers (v 3-4) f Certain men came into the church under false pretences and began to sow discord. Cp. Gal. 2:4; 1 Pet. 2:1
g Gr. prographo. Trans. ordain before (v 4); write aforetime (Rom. 15:4); write (Rom. 15:4); write afore (Eph. 3:3); and set forth evidently (Gal. 3:1). It means their condemnation was already settled and recorded in Scripture examples (v 5-7)
h Gr. asebes (point 3, col. 1, p. 236)
i 3 chief sins of the ungodly, p. 274
j See 21 examples of beings fallen from grace, p. 284 k Gr. tereo, same as preserved in v 1. The angels did not preserve their first estate (Gr. their own principality). They did not remain in their own realm and native state, but left them so as to enter the human realm and marry the daughters of men in an attempt to do away with pure Adamite stock and thus keep the seed of the woman from coming into the world to defeat them (Gen. 6:1-4, notes; 2 Pet. 2:4, notes). It is stated here that the angels, like Sodom and Gomorrha, lived contrary to nature and committed fornication (v 6-7)
l Gr. oiketerion, dwelling. Used only one other time and that of the resurrected body which believers long for (2 Cor. 5:2). Angels left their own dwellings invading the human sphere and plane of living and usurped the rights and prerogatives of human beings (v 7; Gen. 6:1-4, notes; 2 Pet. 2:4, notes).
m For this special sin of fornication (v 7), the angels are now bound in tartarus in chains until the great white throne judgment (2 Pet. 2:4, notes; Rev. 20:11-15)
n As did these angels. That is, Sodom and Gomorrha who, as the angels did, gave themselves over to fornication, and went after strange flesh, are set forth as examples of eternal punishment (v 6-7). The sin of Sodom and Gomorrha was that of sodomy, of living contrary to nature (Gen. 19). The sin of these angels was also living contrary to nature - living with the daughters of men to produce the giant races of the Bible (Gen. 6:1-4, notes). Both men and angels broke through the sex bounds that God had set for them o Here fornication is used of homosexuality, sex perversions (note g, Mt. 5:32) p Gr. heteros, another of a different kind: men with men and angels with women, all living contrary to nature. Also, women with women is referred to in Rom. 1:24-32
q Have become examples of suffering the vengeance of God in eternal fire (v 7; Isa. 66:24; Mt. 25:46; Mk. 9:43-49; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:10-15)
r See 16 sins of homosexuals, p. 274 s Michael (Dan. 10:13, 21; 12:1; Rev. 12:7). No other angel bears the title of archangel, as recorded, but there are others who are also chief angels, for Michael is only one of them (Dan. 10:13) t This took place after the death of Moses. The devil had the power of death until Christ conquered him on the cross (Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 2:14-15; Rev. 1:18). The devil claimed Moses, but God intervened and took the body, burying it in the land of Moab (Dt. 34:5-6). If he has been resurrected it had to be after the resurrection of Jesus who

a Korah (Num. 16)
b Love-feasts of Christians which were held until about the 4th century when they were prohibited to be held in churches (1 Cor. 11:20, note)
c 5 comparisons of lascivious teachers:
1 Spots (Gr. spilas, hidden rocks) in your love-feasts on which many ship wrecks are made (v 12; 1 Tim. 1:19)
2 Clouds without the true refreshing showers of truth (v 12; Dt. 32:2). They are carried away by their passions and licentiousness (v 12; 2 Pet. 2:17)
3 Trees that are diseased and fruitless (v 12; Mt. 7:15, note)
4 Raging waves of the sea; foaming out the wickedness and shame like a troubled sea (v 13; Isa. 57:20)
5 Wandering stars or meteors floating about without direction and guidance (v 13; 2 Pet. 2:14-17)
d Does this refer to backsliding and becoming dead again in trespasses and sins, as in Lk. 22:32; Gal. 1:6-8; 4:19; 5:4; 6:1; Jas. 5:19-20; etc? How could they be twice dead if they had not been revived from death, had lived a while and then died again? (Lk. 8:13)
e They are reserved and headed for eternal darkness (Mt. 8:12; 25:30, 41, 46)
f See Gen. 5:18-24; Heb. 11:5
g 1st N.T. prophecy in Jude (v 14-15, unfulfilled). Next, v 18. This refers to the second advent of Christ with all the resurrected saints who will have been raptured at least 7 years before this (2 Th. 2:7-8, notes; Zech. 14:5; Rev. 19:14). The angels of heaven will also accompany Christ to earth at this time (2 Th. 1:7-10; Mt. 16:27; 24:29-31; 25:31). Where Jude learned of this prophecy is not known, unless it be from the book of Enoch which was known in the early church. Origen, Tertullian, and others mention a book by this name h This is an expression of an indefinite number, as in Dan. 7:10; Rev. 5:11
i 35 purposes of 2nd advent, p. 230 j 2nd and last N.T. prophecy in Jude (v 18, being fulfilled). Cp. 2 Pet. 3:3 k They murmur, complain and live in their own lusts and passions. They pretend devotion to rich men in order to gain money, influence, and power (v 16, 18)
l Separate themselves from the true church and those who demand holy living, which they leave under the pretense of superior wisdom and ideals (v 19)
m 7 final commands to Christians:
1 Build up yourselves on your most holy faith (v 20; 1 Tim. 1:4)
2 Pray in the Holy Ghost (v 20; Eph. 6:18; Rom. 8:26)
3 Keep yourselves in the love of God (v 20; 2 Tim. 1:14; Rom. 8:35-39)
4 Look for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ (v 21; Heb. 12:15)
5 Have compassion on some, making a difference between those who are weak and ignorant and those who are proud and arrogant of heart and unwilling to obey truth (v 22)
6 Save the willing with fear, pulling them out of the fate of eternal hell (v 23)
7 Hate even the garment spotted by the flesh (v 23; Jas. 1:27; Eph. 5:27)
n 2 things God is able to do (v 24):
1 Keep you from falling (1 Cor. 10:13)
2 Present you faultless to Himself (Eph. 5:27; Heb. 7:25)
o This will be our eternal reward p Both now, and throughout all the ages, God is to be praised (v 25) is the firstfruit of all that have died (1 Cor. 15:20-23). Whether Moses came out of the grave with the saints after Christ was resurrected is not stated (Mt. 27:52-53). He was in soulish form in Mt. 17:1-8

u A good example for saints today who sometimes rail on Satan and insult him
v They are uncultivated, follow only the depraved instincts, and are slaves to their animal passions (v 11)

Summary of Jude

Date and place: Probably written 66 A. D. Place, unknown
Author: Jude (1:1; note d, Lk. 8:19) Theme: Contending for the faith (v 3)
Statistics: 65th book of the Bible; 1 chapter; 25 verses; 613 words; no question; 22 verses of history; 1 verse of fulfilled and 2 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

21 examples of beings fallen from grace (Jude 5):

The following angels, demons, and men are examples of beings who have fallen from grace:

1 Lucifer. He was sinless and walked in the ways of God perfectly until he sinned (Ezek. 28:11-17, notes). He fell from God's favor and was cast out of heaven (Isa. 14:12-14; Lk. 10-18). He became sinful and lustful (Jn. 8:44) and destined to eternal hell (Mt. 25:41; Rev. 20:1-10)

2 Holy angels. Over 1/3 of God's holy angels rebelled with Lucifer (Rev. 12:3, 7-12) and became destined to hell with Satan (Mt. 25:41; Isa. 24:21). Many of these committed the extra sin of of fornication and are now in hell (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7). Angels are sons of God (Gen. 6:1-4; Job 1:6; 2:1; 38:4-7) and yet those who sin are to be punished forever in hell, so sonship is no unforfeitable guarantee of heaven

3 Demons. They were also created sinless and in God's grace and favor. That they sinned and are doomed to eternal hell is clear from their own admission of being worthy of punishment (Mt. 8:29; Mk. 5:7; Lk. 8:28-32; Jas. 2:19). Many of them are now in the abyss (Rev. 9). See Demons, p. 632 of O.T.

4 Pre-adamites. According to Gen. 1:2; Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; Ezek. 28:11-17; 2 Pet. 3:5-8 and other scriptures, Lucifer ruled the earth before Adam and caused all the people of his kingdom to lose God's favor and be destroyed in the flood of Gen. 1:2; 2 Pet. 3:5-8. (See notes on all these passages). Not one person, animal, city, or plant was left alive (Jer. 4:23-26, notes)

5 Adam and Eve were created in God's grace or favor (Gen. 1:26-31). They fell from grace by sin and lost the eternal life they would have kept if they had not sinned (Gen. 2:17; 3:1-19; Rom. 5:12-21; 2 Cor. 11:3). Nothing is ever said of their salvation from sin. They are not listed with faith-worthies of the O.T. (Heb. 11). Adam was still a sinner at the age of 810 years (Gen. 6:3, note). He was a son of God (Lk. 3:38). Thus, again, sonship is proved not to be a guarantee of eternal life. God promises to punish every angel or man who sins regardless of sonship or relationship. See 210 warnings below

6 Adamites. Every person born of Adam was once in grace in Adam and fell from grace or favor when he did, for they were in his loins when he sinned. This is why death passed upon all men (Rom. 5:12-21; 1 Cor. 15:21-22; 2 Cor. 11:3). If all men fell from the same favor Adam did and are commanded to regain grace in Christ, then it is settled that falling from grace and regaining it can happen more than once (note d, Gal. 4:19)

7 Many Israelites. Before their sin in Ex. 32 they were born again (Dt. 32:18; Gal. 4:28-29), redeemed (Ex. 15:13; Dt. 21:8), sanctified (Ex. 31:13; Lev. 20:8), converted (Ps. 19:7), in grace (Ex. 33:12-17; Ps. 84:11), had their names in the book of life (Ex. 32:32-33; 69:25-29), had the same gospel we have (Gal. 3:6-14; Heb. 4:2), and the other spiritual experiences of p. 158. When they sinned they were cut off from God and were lost (Ex. 32:32-33; 1 Cor. 10:1-18; Heb. 2:1-4; Jude 5)

Scores of times they forsook God and were cursed (Dt. 17:3; 29:26; Judg. 2:11-23; 3:5-14; 4:1; 5:31; 6:1; 8:28-35; 10:6-11:33; 12:7-13:1; 20:13; 1 Sam. 2:12-36; 3:11-14; 1 Kl. 11:1-13, 38-39; 12:25-33; 13:33-34; 14:16-31; 15:29; 16:2; 2 Kl. 17:7-23; etc.)

8 Nadab and Abihu, holy priests of God (Ex. 19:6; 28:1), were cut off in sin (Lev. 10:1-20; Num. 3:4)

9 Korah, Dathan, Abiram, and other holy men of God were cut off by sin and went to sheol (Num. 16:1-3, 23-33)

10 Saul, who had a change of heart and received the Holy Spirit (1 Sam. 10:9-13, 21-24), went into spiritualism (1 Sam. 28; Lev. 19:31; 20:6). He lost the Holy Spirit (1 Sam. 16:12-23), and died a suicide and cursed of God (1 Sam. 31:1-6; 1 Chr. 10:13-14)

11 Many disciples of Jesus left Him and His grace and followed Him no more (Jn. 6:66). They for a while believed (Lk. 8:13). They drew back to perdition (Heb. 10:26-39). To receive Christ and confess Him for only a moment brings the new birth, so those who believed for awhile had grace to fall from (Jn. 1:12; 1 Jn. 5:1)

12 Judas was once saved because:

(1) He was a familiar friend of Christ (Ps. 41:9). Heb. batah, to confide in, as to be secure without fear. Used in this sense 107 times. Would Christ call any unsaved man or the devil (as some suppose Judas to be) "mine own familiar friend"?

(2) Christ trusted Judas at one time or He would not have said "in whom I trusted" (Ps. 41:9). Would He have confided in such a man if he had always been this way?

(3) Judas ate of Christ's bread (Ps. 41:9). This always assures orientals of very personal and intimate friendship

(4) He had his name written in the book of life with the righteous (Cp. Acts 1:20 with Ps. 69:25-28, notes)

(5) He was a bishop of the church Christ is building (Acts 1:20 with Ps. 109:8). See 60 facts about, p. 636 of O.T.

(6) He had part of the apostolic ministry (Acts 1:17, 25)

(7) Christ gave him power against unclean spirits to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and disease. This was true of the twelve, Judas included (Mt. 10:1-4)

(8) He was sent forth as one of the twelve to represent Christ among Israel (Mt. 10:5-6)

(9) He was called to preach (Mt. 10:7)

(10) He was commanded to heal the sick, cleanse lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils (Mt. 10:8; Mk. 3:14-15; 6:7; Lk. 9:1-2)

(11) He freely received power to heal and it was commanded that he freely give (Mt. 10:8). If Judas could preach, heal, cast out devils, and have the other experiences mentioned and yet be unsaved and never in grace, should not those who are saved and in grace be able to do as much?

(12) He had the peace of God to give to a home as did all others of the twelve (Mt. 10:13)

(13) He was a sheep in the midst of wolves like others of the twelve (Mt. 10:16)

(14) He had the Holy Spirit in him (Mt. 10:19-20)

(15) He was ordained by Christ to the ministry as much as the others (Mk. 3:14)

(16) He was just as successful in preaching and healing as others (Mk. 6:12-13; Lk. 9:6, 10)

(17) He was an apostle, meaning he was one divinely called and sent to do the work of God (Lk. 6:13; note a, Acts 15:33)

(18) Judas fell by sin from the ministry and apostleship (Acts 1:25). How could he do this if he was always a sinner and always a devil as some say?

(19) Satan entered into Judas at the close of Christ's ministry, proving that he was not always an agent of the devil much less a devil from the beginning (Lk. 22:3; Jn. 13:2). He, therefore, backslid and became a thief (Jn. 12:6), a devil (Jn. 6:70, Gr. adversary), and the betrayer. To make Judas the very devil, a devil from the beginning, and an unsaved man never in grace is to ignore the plain facts of Scripture

(20) He had eternal life one time, as proved from Jn. 17:2 where we read of Christ giving eternal life "to as many as thou hast given him". Then in Jn. 17:12 it is stated that of "those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them (that thou gavest me and to whom I have given eternal life) is lost, but the son of perdition". What could be more clear than this - that Judas was given to Jesus and Jesus had once given him eternal life?

13 Ananias and Sapphira were saved and of one heart and one soul with all the church (Acts 4:32-5:1), until they agreed to lie to the Holy Ghost at which time they were killed (Acts 5:1-11). "Great grace was upon them all", including Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 4:33; 5:1)

14 The Galatians who had begun in the Spirit and had received the Spirit (3:2-4), were soon removed from Christ and grace (1:6; 5:4)

15 Demas, a preacher in the early church (Col. 4:14; Ph'm. 24) went back into sin, having loved this present world (2 Tim. 4:10). If any man loves the world the love of the Father is not in him. He is lost if he does not come back to God (1 Jn. 2:15-17)

16 Hymenaeus and Alexander were one time in the faith, but made shipwreck of it and put away faith (1 Tim. 1:19-20)

17 Many others coveted money and erred from the faith (1 Tim. 6:10, 21)

18 Many young widows waxed cold toward Christ and cast off their first faith and were damned (1 Tim. 5:11-13)

19 Hymenaeus and Philetus erred from the faith and overthrew the faith of others (2 Tim. 2:17-19)

20 Apostates were once saved, but fell away and departed from the faith. See notes on Rom. 1:21-32; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29; 2 Pet. 2:20-22

21 Many in the churches were once saved but later threatened with destruction if they did not repent (Rev. 2:5, 10, 16, 20-23; 3:3, 11, 16)

Besides the above examples of being cut off from God because of sin, the Bible abounds with plain laws, commands (1,050 in N.T. alone, listed on p. 313) and warnings of punishment for those who return to sin. These make it clear that there are no unconditional promises and covenants in Scripture. Passages where no conditions are expressed are automatically limited by hundreds of kindred verses stating conditions to be met. It is not necessary always to state the conditions in every passage. When stated in some it is clear they apply to all companion scriptures. For example, in 1 Chr. 22:10 God promises to establish Solomon's throne over Israel forever, but this unconditionally stated promise is based upon obedience as seen in points 27-35 below. See 99 ways of backsliders, p. 666 of O.T.

210 plain laws and warnings:

Those before Moses' law:

1 You shall surely die (Gen. 2:17)

2 Walk...be perfect (Gen. 17:2)

3 Keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment, that the Lord may fulfil His Word (Gen. 18:19)

Those under the healing covenant:

4 If diligently hearken...do right...give ear to commandments...keep all His statutes (Ex. 15:26)

Those under Moses' law:

5 That I may prove them, whether they walk in My law or no (Ex. 16:4)

6 If you obey...then you shall be a peculiar people unto Me (Ex. 19:5)

7 Whosoever sinneth against Me, him will I blot out of My book (Ex. 32:33)

8 By no means (not even by means of grace) clear the guilty (Ex. 34:6-7)

9 If you keep My commandments, then will I bless you (Lev. 26:3-13; Dt. 7:12-24; 11:13-14; 28:1-14)

10 But if you will not keep My commandments, then I will curse you (Lev. 26:14-45; Dt. 28:15-68)

11 Beware, forget not God, if you do forget Him...you will surely perish (Dt. 8:11-20)

12 What does the Lord require, but to walk in His ways (Dt. 10:12-13)?

13 Take heed...be not deceived, and you turn aside from God...then His wrath will be against you (Dt. 11:16-21)

14 I have set before you a blessing and a curse: a blessing if you obey...a curse if you disobey (Dt. 11:26-28)

Those under Palestinian Covenant:

15 Keep the words of this covenant...do them, that you may prosper...that He may establish you a people unto Himself (Dt. 29:1, 9, 13-15)

16 When you hear the words of this curse and you say in your heart, I shall have peace, though I sin, The Lord shall not spare...because they have forsaken the covenant (Dt. 29:19-28)

17 If you hear...keep His commandments...and if you turn unto the Lord with all your heart (Dt. 30:1-10)

18 I have set before you life and good, and death and evil...keep His commandments, that you may live (Dt. 30:11-16)

19 But if your heart turn away...you shall surely perish (Dt. 30:17-20)

Those given by Joshua:

20 Only observe to do according to all the law...that you may prosper...have good success (Josh. 1:7-8)

21 Keep and do all of the law...If you in any wise turn back...you shall perish (Josh. 23:6-16)

22 Choose you this day whom you will serve (Josh. 24:14-16)

23 If you forsake the Lord...then He will turn to do you hurt, and consume you, after He has done you good (Josh. 24:20)

Those given by Samuel:

24 If you will obey...rebel not, then you will follow the Lord (1 Sam. 12:14)

25 But if you do wickedly, you shall be consumed (1 Sam. 12:24-25)

26 You have not kept the commandment of the Lord...your kingdom will not continue (1 Sam. 13:13-14)

Those given by David and Solomon:

27 Keep the charge of the Lord...that He may continue His word (1 Kl. 2:3-4)

28 If your children take heed to walk in truth with all their heart (1 Kl. 2:4)

29 If you will walk in My ways...keep My commandments (1 Kl. 3:14)

30 If you keep My commandments, then I will bless...but if you break them, then will I cut off Israel (1 Kl. 9:3-9; 11:1-38; 2 Chr. 7:19-22)

31 Only if they obey (2 Kl. 21:7-8)

32 If he be constant to do My commandments (1 Chr. 28:7-10)

33 If My people humble themselves...pray...seek My face...turn from sin, then will I hear (2 Chr. 7:14)

34 If you seek Him, He will be found of you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever (1 Chr. 28:9)

35 But if you turn away from My commandments...Then will I pluck you up...cast out of My sight (2 Chr. 7:19-22)

Those given by O.T. prophets:

36 The Lord is with you, while you be with Him...but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you (2 Chr. 15:2)

37 Because you have forsaken the Lord, He has forsaken you (2 Chr. 24:20)

38 Because they have forsaken Me...My wrath shall not be quenched (2 Chr. 34:25)

39 But if they obey not, they shall perish...die without knowledge (Job 36:12)

40 They have forsaken the Lord...have gone away backward...I will not hear (Isa. 1:4-15)

41 But if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured (Isa. 1:19-20; Jer. 1:16; 2:13, 17, 19; 5:19; 9:13; 15:6; 16:11; 17:13; 19:4; 22:9)

42 If you will not obey, I will destroy you (Jer. 12:17)

43 When a righteous man turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity he shall die in his sin (Ezek. 3:20-21)

44 The soul that sinneth it shall die (Ezek. 18:4)

45 When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits sin...all his righteousness shall not be mentioned. In his sins he shall die (Ezek. 18:24-26)

46 The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression...If he trust to his own righteousness and commit iniquity, all his righteousness shall not be remembered; but for his sin he shall die (Ezek. 33:12-13)

47 If you will not hear, I will curse you (Mal. 2:2)

The new covenant - under grace

Those given by Christ:

48 If the salt has lost its savour it is good for nothing but to be cast out (Mt. 5:13)

49 He that endureth to the end shall be saved (Mt. 10:22)

50 Whosoever speaketh a word against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him (Mt. 12:32-33)

51 Dureth for a while...which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away (Mt. 13:21; Lk. 8:13)

52 Let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me (Mt. 16:24)

53 Labour for eternal life. See 23 conditions of eternal life, note d, Jn. 6:27

64 If you continue in My word, then are you My disciples indeed (Jn. 8:31)
65 Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin (not a son). And the servant abideth not in the house forever: but the Son abideth ever (Jn. 8:34-35)
66 My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me (note f, Jn. 10:27)
67 If a man love Me he will keep My words (Jn. 14:21-23)
68 If a man abide not in Me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned (Jn. 15:6)
69 Continue in My love (Jn. 15:9)
70 If you keep My commandments you shall abide in My love (Jn. 15: 10-13)
71 You are My friends, if you do whatsoever I command you (Jn. 15:14)

Those given by Paul:

72 Persuaded them to continue in the grace of God (Acts 13:43)
73 Exhorting them to continue in the faith (Acts 14:22)
74 When they knew God, they glorified Him not as God... God gave them up to uncleanness (Rom. 1:21-32)
75 They which commit such things are worthy of death (Rom. 1:32; 2:2-3)
76 By patient continuance in well doing seek for eternal life (Rom. 2:7)
77 Know you not, that to whom you yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants you are (Rom. 6:16-23)?
78 The wages of sin is death (Rom. 6:23)
79 Who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit (Rom. 8:1-4)
80 If you live after the flesh you shall die: but if you through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, you shall live (Rom. 8:12-13)
81 Because of unbelief they were broken off and you stand by faith... on them that fell, severity; but toward you goodness, if you continue in His goodness: otherwise you shall be cut off. And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in again (Rom. 11:20-23)
82 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy (1 Cor. 3:17)
83 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God (1 Cor. 6:9-10)
84 Through your knowledge the weak brother shall perish (1 Cor. 8:11)
85 I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection, lest when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway (1 Cor. 9:27, note)
86 By which you are saved, if you keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless you have believed in vain (1 Cor. 15:2)
87 By faith you stand (2 Cor. 1:24)
88 We labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of Him (2 Cor. 5:9)
89 We beseech you that you receive not the grace of God in vain (2 Cor. 6:1)
90 I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity in Christ (2 Cor. 11:3)
91 Christ is in you, except you be reprobates (castaway) - as in 1 Cor. 9: 27, note (2 Cor. 13:5)
92 I marvel that you are so soon removed from Him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel (Gal. 1:6-9)
93 If I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor (Gal. 2:18)
94 I do not frustrate the grace of God. (It can be done - Gal. 2:21)
95 Who hath bewitched you that you should not obey the truth (Gal. 3:1; 5:7)
96 Having begun in the Spirit, are you now made perfect by the flesh (Gal. 3:3, Cp. 5:19-21)?
97 The just shall live by faith (by daily faith, not a faith once for all - Gal. 3:11)
98 After you have known God, how turn you again to be in bondage (Gal. 4:9)?
99 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed labour upon you in vain (Gal. 4:11)
100 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you... I stand in doubt of you (Gal. 4:19-20, note)
101 Stand fast in the liberty... be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage (Gal. 5:1, 3)
102 You are fallen from grace (Gal. 5:4)
103 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump (Gal. 5:9; 1 Cor. 5:7-8)
104 If you bite and devour one another, take heed that you be not consumed one of another (Gal. 5:15)
105 Walk in the Spirit and you shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh (Gal. 5:16)
106 They which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God (Gal. 5:19-21)
107 Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to the flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting (Gal. 6:7-8)
108 The spirit that worketh in the children of disobedience (Eph. 2:2)
109 Because of these things (sins) cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience (Eph. 5:6)
110 That you may be without offence until the day of Christ (Phil. 1:10)
111 work out your own salvation with fear and trembling (Phil. 2:12)
112 Stand fast in the Lord (Phil. 4:1)
113 If you continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel (Col. 1:23)
114 As you have received Christ, so walk in Him: rooted and built up in Him, and established in the faith (Col. 2:6-7)
115 Beware lest any man spoil you... after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ (Col. 2:8)
116 Let no man beguile you of your reward... not holding the Head (Christ, Col. 2:18-19)
117 Mortify your members upon earth... for which things' sake cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience (Col. 3:5-6)
118 He that does wrong shall receive for the wrong which he has done: and there is no respect of persons (Col. 3:25)
119 I sent to know of your faith, lest by some means the tempter has tempted you, and our labour be in vain (1 Th. 3:5)
120 Now we live, if we stand fast in the Lord (1 Th. 3:8)
121 Taking vengeance on them that obey not the gospel... who shall be punished with everlasting destruction (2 Th. 1:8-9)
122 Withdraw from every brother that walketh disorderly (2 Th. 3:6, 14)
123 From which (faith) some have turned aside (1 Tim. 1:5-6)
124 Some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck (1 Tim. 1:18-20)
125 Some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils (1 Tim. 4:1)
126 Take heed unto yourself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in so doing this you shall save yourself, and them that hear you (1 Tim. 4:16)
127 He has denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel (1 Tim. 5:8)
128 When they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry; having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith (1 Tim. 5:11-12)
129 Some have already turned aside after Satan (1 Tim. 5:15)
130 While some coveted after (money), they have erred from the faith (1 Tim. 6:10)
131 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold of eternal life (1 Tim. 6:12, 19)
132 Some have erred concerning the faith (1 Tim. 6:21)
133 If we be dead with Him, we shall also live with Him (2 Tim. 2:11)
134 If we deny Him, He also will deny us (2 Tim. 2:12)
135 Who concerning the faith have erred... and overthrow the faith of some (2 Tim. 2:18)
136 Continue in the things you have learned (2 Tim. 3:14-15)
137-148 See 22 warnings to Christians in Hebrews, p. 256

Those given by James:

149 When lust has conceived, it brings forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, brings forth death (Jas. 1:13-15)
150 Be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves (Jas. 2:22-26)
151 To him that knows to do good, and does it not, to him it is sin (Jas. 4:17)
152 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him... he that converteth a sinner (who was formerly a Christian) from the error of his way shall save a soul from death (Jas. 5:19-20, note)

Those given by Peter:

153 He that bears and works righteousness is accepted of Him (Acts 10:35)
154 The face of the Lord is against them that do evil (1 Pet. 3:12)
155 If the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the sinner appear (1 Pet. 4:18)?
156 He that lacks these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and has forgotten that he was purged from his old sins (2 Pet. 1:9)
157 Give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if you do these things you shall never fall (2 Pet. 1:10)
158 If God spared not the angels that sinned (they were once holy and in grace) He will not spare you (1 Pet. 2:4-9)
159 The Lord knows how to reserve the unjust unto judgment (2 Pet. 2:9)
160 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray (2 Pet. 2:15)
161 They allure into sin those who were clean escaped from sin (2 Pet. 2:18)
162 Of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought into bondage (2 Pet. 2:19)
163 If after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse than the beginning. It had been better not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn away from the holy commandment (2 Pet. 2:20-22, note)
164 Be diligent that you may be found in Him in peace, without spot, and blameless (2 Pet. 3:14)
165 Beware lest you also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness (2 Pet. 3:17)

Those given by John:

166 If we say we have fellowship with Him and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth (1 Jn. 1:6)
167 If we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin (1 Jn. 1:7)
168 We know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments (1 Jn. 2:3)
169 He that says, I know Him, and keeps not His commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him (1 Jn. 2:4)
170 Whoso keeps His word... hereby we know that we are in Him (1 Jn. 2:5)
171 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now (1 Jn. 2:9)
172 If any man love the world the love of the Father is not in him (1 Jn. 2:15-17)
173 He that does the will of God abideth forever (1 Jn. 2:17)
174 Let that eternal life abide in you (1 Jn. 2:24-25, note)
175 Abide in Him; that when He shall appear we may have confidence (1 Jn. 2:28)
176 Everyone that does righteousness is born of Him (1 Jn. 2:29)
177 Everyone that has this hope in Him purifieth himself, even as He is pure (1 Jn. 3:3)
178 Whosoever committeth sin transgresses the law and incurs the death penalty (1 Jn. 3:4; Ezek. 18:4; Gal. 5:21)
179 Whosoever abideth in Him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth has not seen Him, neither known Him (1 Jn. 3:6, note)
180 He that committeth sin is of the devil, not of God (1 Jn. 3:8)
181 Whosoever is born of God does not commit sin (1 Jn. 3:9, note)
182 Whosoever does not righteousness is not of God (1 Jn. 3:10)
183 Whosoever loves not his brother is not of God (1 Jn. 3:10, 15)
184 He that loves not his brother abides in death (1 Jn. 3:14)
185 Whosoever hates his brother does not have eternal life abiding in him (1 Jn. 3:15)
186 Whosoever shuts up his bowels of compassion from a brother in need does not have God's love (1 Jn. 3:17)
187 He that loves not does not know God (1 Jn. 4:7-8)
188 Whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world (1 Jn. 5:1-5)
189 If any man see his brother sin a sin that is forgivable, he shall ask and life shall be given him (1 Jn. 5:16). This proves that when a man sins he incurs the death penalty (Jas. 5:19-20; Ezek. 18:4; Gal. 5:21)
190 Whosoever sins and abides not in the doctrine of Christ, has not God. He that abides has both the Father and the Son (2 Jn. 9)
191 He that does good is of God; but he that does evil is not of God (3 Jn. 11)

Those given by Jude:

192 Turning the grace of God into lasciviousness (Jude 4)
193 The Lord, having saved the people out of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not (Jude 5; 1 Cor. 10)
194 Sinning angels are set forth as an example to others who are tempted to sin (Jude 6-7). If God will damn them for sin, He will also damn others
195 Keep yourselves in the love of God (Jude 21)
196 Look for the mercy of Jesus Christ unto eternal life (Jude 21)

Those given by Christ and John:

197 You have left your first love. Recognize you are fallen, repent, and do your first works; or else I will remove your church (Rev. 2:4-5)
198 Be faithful unto death, and I will give you life (Rev. 2:10)
199 Repent, or I will come unto you and fight against you (Rev. 2:16)
200 Those that defile their garments will not walk with Me (Rev. 3:5)
201 He that does not overcome I will blot his name out of the book of life (Rev. 3:5; 22:18-19; Ex. 32:32-33; Ps. 69:28-29)
202 Hold that fast which you have, that no man take your crown (Rev. 3:11)
203 Because you are neither cold nor hot, I will spue you out of My mouth (Rev. 3:15-16)
204 Blessed are they that watch and keep their garments, lest they walk naked and ashamed (Rev. 16:15)
205 All who sin will have their part in the lake of fire (Rev. 21:8)
206 All who sin will not enter the Holy City (Rev. 21:27; 22:15, 19)
207 The unjust, filthy, and sinful will forever be that way (Rev. 22:11)
208 If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues of this book (Rev. 22:18)
209 If any man shall take away from the words of this book, God shall take away his part out of the book of life (Rev. 22:19)
210 God shall take his part out of the things written in this book (Rev. 22:19)

Scriptures stating assurance

1 Whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life... hath everlasting life... shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life (Jn. 3:15-16, 36; 5:24)
2 I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of My hand (or My Father's hand, Jn. 10:27-29)
3 I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels... nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God (Rom. 8:35-39)
4 We shall be saved from wrath through Him (Rom. 5:8-9)
5 There is now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus (Rom. 8:1)
6 He shall be holden up: for God is able to make him to stand (Rom. 14:4)
7 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that you may be blameless... God is faithful, by whom you are called into the fellowship of Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 1:8-9)
8 He hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love (Eph. 1:4)
9 You were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise (Eph. 1:13)

THE REVELATION

OF SAINT JOHN THE DIVINE

The Vision of Christ - The Seven Churches - The Things which must be after the Churches into Eternity

a Gr. apokalupsis, to unveil or uncover. It implies the lifting up of a curtain so all can see alike what is uncovered. When used of writing it means to reveal or make clear (Eph. 3:3; Gal. 1:12); when used of a person it denotes visible presence (v 1; 2 Th. 1:7; 1 Pet. 1:7, 13). Here it refers to both the book and the person of Christ. See p. 190 and 207

b Not a revelation altogether concerning Christ, but one from Him. Christ is not the main subject of the book. See note f, below

c God gave it to Christ, emphasizing His limitations during His incarnation (Isa. 50:4; Mt. 28:18; Mk. 13:32; Lk. 1:40, 52)

d The purpose was to show, not hide from His servants, events from John's day into all eternity (Rev. 21-22)

e 111 times in the N. T.: 14 in Rev.

f 45 times, emphasizing the subject matter of the book, which is things or events:
1 Events of the whole church age (Rev. 1-3)
2 Events in heaven (Rev. 4-5)
3 Events of the future tribulation of Daniel's 70th week (Rev. 6-19)
4 Events of the Millennium (Rev. 20)
5 Events of the eternal new heavens and the new earth (Rev. 21-22)

g Gr. tachos, swiftness; speed; quickly. Trans. shortly (v 1; 22:6; Acts 25:4; Rom. 16:20); quickly (Acts 12:7; 22:18; Rev. 2:5); and speedily (Lk. 18:8). The idea is that this series of events must begin quickly

h Gr. semaino, to show or point out; announce; to make a note of. That it does not mean that all things are in symbols is clear from its use elsewhere (v 1; Jn. 12:33; 18:32; 21:19; Acts 11:28; 25:27). It simply means to make a clear record

i The book was transmitted from God to Christ, to the angel, to John, to the churches, to us (v 1, 11)

k 7 times in Rev. indicating the prophetic aspect of the book (v 3; 11:6; 19:10; 22:7, 10, 18, 19)

7 rules regarding prophecy:
1 Understand prophecy as history written beforehand
2 Give the same meaning to words of prophecy as you do the words of history
3 Do not seek for hidden meanings
4 Do not think prophecy must be fulfilled before it can be understood
5 Do not interpret God's own interpretation of any thing in prophecy
6 Take all prophecy literally unless it is clear that it cannot have a literal meaning. Then get the literal truth conveyed by the figurative language
7 Let the Bible be its own interpreter s The descendents of those who pierced Him - the Jews (Zech. 12:10)

t The armies of the nations that will be surrounding Jerusalem when Christ comes (Zech. 14:1-5; Mt. 24:29-31)

u The first and last letters of the Gr. alphabet. Used 4 times in Rev. (1:8, 11; 21:6; 22:13. Cp. 1:17; 2:8. Used of Christ in all these places except in 21:6). He is also called the Almighty (v 8), which is elsewhere used of the Father (4:8; 11:17; 15:3; 16:7, 14; 19:15; 21:22)

v Partaker, as in note o, Phil. 1:7

w Used 5 times in Rev.: 4 times of persecution of Christians in John's day (1:9; 2:9, 10, 22), and one time of the future great tribulation (7:14). See note h, 2 Cor. 1:4

239 CHAPTER 1

Introductory remarks (1:1-11). 1 Title, origin, subject, object, transmission and author

THE aRevelation bof Jē'şus Christ, which God cgave unto him, dto shew unto his eservants fthings which must gshortly come to pass; and he sent and hsignified it by his angel iunto his servant Jŏhn:

2 Threefold authenticity (22:16)

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jē'şus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 The beatitude (Cp. 14:13; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7, 14) and nature of prophecy (Cp. 22:7, 10, 18, 19)

▸3 jBlessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this kprophecy, and lkeep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 Sevenfold salutation to the churches and threefold exaltation of Jesus Christ

4 JOHN to the mseven churches which are in Ă'şiă: Grace be unto you, and peace, nfrom him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the oseven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from pJē'şus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

*6 qAnd hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Ă-mĕn'.

5 Chief theme of Revelation (11:15-18; 19:11-21; 22:20)

▸7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and revery eye shall see him, and sthey also which pierced him: tand all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Ă-mĕn'.

6 Eternity of Jesus Christ (1:8, 11, 17; 2:8; 21:6; 22:13; Mic. 5:1-2; Jn. 1:1-2)

8 I am uAl'phă and Ō-mē'gă, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

7 The prophet - John (1:1, 4)

9 I Jŏhn, who also am your brother, and wcompanion inatribulation, and in the kingdom and bpatience of Jē'şus Christ, was in the isle that is called cPăt'mos, dfor the word of God, and for the testimony of Jē'şus Christ.

10 I was ein the Spirit on fthe Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, gas of a trumpet,

8 John's commission to write the Revelation

11 Saying, I am Al'phă and Ō-mē'gă, the first and the last: and, hWhat thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Ă'şiă; unto Ĕph'e-sŭs, and unto Smyr'nă, and unto Pēr'gamŏs, and unto Thў-a-tī'ră, and unto Sär'dĭs, and unto Phĭl-a-dĕl'phĭ-ă, and unto Lâ-ŏd-I-çē'ă.

I "THE THINGS which thou HAST SEEN" (1:12-20). 1 The vision of Christ: (1) Eight characteristics of Christ

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. iAnd being turned, I saw jseven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one klike unto the Son of man, lclothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

(2) Effect of the vision upon John (Cp. Isa. 6; Ezek. 1:28; 2:3; Dan. 8:27; 10:5-18; Acts 9:3-8)

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet mas dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, nFear not; I am the first and the last:

18 o*I am* he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Ă-mĕn'; and have the pkeys of hell and of death.

(3) Key to the interpretation (1:11 and 19 with 4:1)

19 qWrite the things which thou hast seen, and the things rwhich are, and the things which shall be shereafter;

(4) The symbols interpreted

20 The tmystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven gold-c A volcanic, treeless, rocky island about 6x10 miles, 30 miles S. W. of Samos. It was made a place of exile by the Romans for the lowest of criminals d 2 reasons for banishment (v 2, 9):

1 For preaching the Word of God
2 For testifying of Jesus Christ

e A term used of being wholly in union with the Holy Spirit and yielded to Him (note n, Lk. 22:3)

g God prepared Moses to receive the law by the blowing of a trumpet (Ex. 19:16-19)

h Here John was told to write in a book what he was about to see and send it to the 7 churches of Asia Minor (v 10-11)

i In v 12-18 we have the vision of the glorified Christ, which constitutes the first division of Revelation in v 19

j These symbolize the 7 churches (v 20)

k See Dan. 7:13-14; 10:5-10; Rev. 10

l 8fold description of Christ:
1 His body was clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded with golden girdle (v 13. Cp. Dan. 10:6)
2 His hair was white like wool and snow (v 14; Dan. 7:9)
3 His eyes were as a flame of fire (v 14; 19:12; Dan. 10:6. Cp. Heb. 4:12)
4 His feet were like fine brass (v 14; 10:1; Dan. 10:6)
5 His voice like many waters (v 14; 8:5; 10:2-4; 11:15; 14:2; 16:17-18; 19:6; Ps. 29; Heb. 12:26; Dan. 10:6)
6 His right hand held 7 stars, which were the pastors of the 7 churches (v 20)
7 His mouth had a two-edged sword coming out of it (v 16; 2:12, 16; 19:15, 21. Cp. Eph. 6:17; Heb. 4:12)
8 His countenance shone like the sun (v 16; 10:1; Dan. 10:6) m Note the effect of the vision upon John (v 17-18).

n Found 80 times in Scripture, generally of God quieting the fear of man because of His presence o This identifies the person to be Christ (Acts 2:25-36; 1 Cor. 15:1-23; Col. 2:14-17; Eph. 2:14-15; Jn. 21:14, note)

p Keys signify power and authority (v 18; 3:7; Mt. 16:19; 18:18; Isa. 22:22)

q John is now commanded to write (v 19). In v 11 he was told to write what he was about to see. Now he is told to write what he has already seen - the vision of v 16-18

r 3fold key to the book of Revelation:
1 Write the things which thou hast seen, that is, the vision of Christ in the midst of the candlesticks (Rev. 1)
2 Write the things which are, that is, the things concerning the churches, which John wrote about in Rev. 2-3
3 Write the things which shall be hereafter, that is, the events which MUST BE after the churches (Rev. 4:1-22:5). This confirms the 3fold division of Revelation: after John had written the things which thou hast seen in Rev. 1, and after he had written the things which are, the things concerning the churches in Rev. 2-3, he was told to Come up hither into heaven, and I will show thee things WHICH MUST BE HEREAFTER, that is, after the churches (Rev. 4-22). Rev. 4:1 says, AFTER THESE THINGS (after writing the vision of Rev. 1 and the things of the churches in Rev. 2-3)... Come up hither, and I will show thee THINGS WHICH MUST BE AFTER THESE THINGS. If the things of Rev. 4:1 on must be after the things of the churches, then they will not be fulfilled along with the things of the churches. This means that every event of Rev. 4-22 must be fulfilled after the rapture of the church. It also means that no historical or present event could possibly be a fulfillment of any event of Rev. 4-22

s After the things which are, or after the churches of Rev. 2-3 t Gr. musterion (see Mystery, p. 175). Used 4 times in Rev. (1:20; 10:7; 17:5, 7) a Gr. luchnia, lampstand or portable lamps. Used 7 times in Rev. 1:12,13,20; 2:1, 5; 11:4. Used elsewhere in Mt. 5:15; Mk. 4:21; Lk. 8:16; 11:33; Heb. 9:2. Cp. luchnos, note r, Mt. 5:15; Rev. 18:23; 21:23; 22:5

b Gr. aggelos (angelos), messenger. Here it refers to the pastors of the 7 churches. It is used of men in Rev. 1:1, 20; 2:1, 8, 12, 18; 3:1, 7, 14; 15:1, 6, 8; 16:1-17; 17:1; 21:9, 17; 22:8-10; Jude 13 c The messages to the churches are given immediately after the vision of Christ of Rev. 1. Chapters 2-3 make the 2nd division of Rev. and contain only the things which are, that is, the things concerning the church on earth until its rapture (1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; 1 Th. 4:13-17; 2 Th. 2:7, notes)

The 3fold application of the letters:
1 A local application to the churches in John's day. The letters portray actual conditions in 7 local churches in Asia Minor, the western coast of modern Turkey. This is clear from the messages themselves, as well as from 1:4, 11, 20
2 A prophetical application to the churches throughout this dispensation to the rapture, revealing spiritual conditions in local churches and in individuals in churches. See 7 proofs of prophetical application, p. 305
3 An individual application, so that the individual in any church in any generation may be warned and profit by the failures of the 7 churches (1:3; 2:7, 11, 17, 26; 3:5, 12, 21)
The dispensational application, that is, that these 7 letters portray 7 distinct church ages and 7 phases of church history throughout the age of grace is not clearly taught in the book. Much confusion and many false teachings are the result of this theory. If we would take all the 7 letters to apply to all Christians and churches throughout this dispensation, as we do all the other N. T. books, then we would have the true prophetical and dispensational aspect of the letters. Otherwise we would have just as much right to make 21 additional church periods out of the other N. T. epistles or letters, as some do these 7 letters. See 10 points of similarity in the letters, p. 302

d See note c, Eph. 1:1

CHAPTER 2 240

II "THE THINGS which ARE": the things concerning the churches until the rapture (2:1-3:22). 1 The epistle to Ephesus

UNTO the angel of the church of [d]Eph'e-sūs write; 'These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 [f]I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil; and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

★5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else [g]I will come unto thee quickly, and will [h]remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. ●

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the [i]Nĭc-o-lā'ĭ-tanes, which I also hate.

★7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to [j]eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the [k]paradise of God. ◂

2 The epistle to Smyrna

8 And unto the angel of the church in [l]Smyr'nā write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 [m]I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, [n]and are not, but are the synagogue of Sā'tan.

★10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer; [o]behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation [p]ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a[q]crown of life. ● ◂

●11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches; 'He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death. ◂

3 The epistle to Pergamos

12 And to the angel of the church in [s]Pēr'ga-mŏs write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy [t]works, and where thou dwellest, even where [u]Sā'tan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not [a]denied my faith, even in those days wherein [b]An'tĭ-pās was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Sā'tan dwelleth.

14 But I have a [c]few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the [d]doctrine of Bā'laam, who taught Bā'lăc to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Ĭs'ra-el, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the [e]Nĭc-o-lā'ĭ-tanes, which thing I hate.

★16 [f]Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. ●

●17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; [g]To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the [h]hidden manna, and will give him a[i]white stone, and in the stone a[j]new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it. ◂

4 The epistle to Thyatira

18 And unto the angel of the church in [k]Thў-a-tī'rā write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 [l]I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have [m]a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [n]Jĕz'e-bĕl, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 [o]And I gave her space to repent of her [p]fornication; and she repented not.

★22 [q]Behold, [r]I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the [s]reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you [t]according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thў-a-tī'rā, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known [u]the depths of Sā'tan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

★25 [v]But that which ye have already hold fast till I come. ●

▸26 And he that [w]overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, [x]to him will I give power over the nations:

▸27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

▸28 And I will give him [y]the morning star.

●29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

a Gr. ameomai, deny (note c, Heb. 11:24). It is possible for Christians to deny the faith or this and many like statements are false b An unknown Christian who became known by his martyrdom for Christ. There is a book called The Acts of Antipas, which makes him the bishop of Pergamos and states that he was put to death by being enclosed in a burning brazen bull

c 4 things condemned in Pergamos (v 14-15):

2 Eating things sacrificed to idols
3 Committing fornication

f 5th prophecy in Rev. (2:16-17, v 16, fulfilled; v 17, unfulfilled). Next, v 22. Repentance is required of all backsliders (v 5, 16, 21, 22; 3:3, 19). That there is a possibility of backsliders not repenting is clear from the fact here that if they did not repent they would be judged. According to this, if backsliders today do not repent, what happens?

g Only the overcomer is promised heaven (v 7, 11, 17, 26; 3:5, 12, 21)

h Gr. krupto. Trans. hide (v 17; 6:15-16; Mt. 5:14; 13:44; 25:25; Lk. 18:34; 19:42; Jn. 8:59; 12:36; Col. 3:3; 1 Tim. 5:25; Heb. 11:23); kept secret (Mt. 13:35); and secretly (Jn. 19:38). What is promised is made clear - real manna to eat, but what kind is hidden

i These were known to the ancients as victory stones. Also in ancient times they meant pardon and the evidence of it. Judges had white and black stones. If a black one was given the criminal he was condemned; if a white stone he would be pardoned. Conquerors in the public games were also given white stones with their names in them, which entitled them to be supported the rest of their lives at public expense. Perhaps all three things are meant by the white stone to the overcomer

i Literal (v 4-5, 18; 4:4; 6:11; 7:9, 13; 15:6; 19:14), but also symbolizes the righteousness of saints (19:8)
j Here Christ promises not to blot the name out of the book of life of any man who will obey the commands of note e, above. What if some should refuse to obey these commands, would their names not be blotted out? If we say such is impossible we accuse God of using vain threats on His people. He definitely promised Moses concerning any man who sinned, HIM WILL I BLOT OUT OF MY BOOK (Ex. 32:32-33). The psalmist by the Holy Ghost prayed that God would blot out the names of Judas and all like him (Ps. 69:25-28 with Acts 1:20). In Rev. 22:18-19 Christ again threatens to take the names of men out of the book of life if they take anything away from the words of the book of this prophecy

AND unto the angel of the church in [a]Sär'dis write; These things saith he that hath the [b]seven Spirits of God, and the [c]seven stars; [d]I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

●2 [e]Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

★3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. [f]If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee [g]as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.●

▶4 Thou hast a few names even in Sär'dis which have not defiled their garments; [h]and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

▶5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in [i]white raiment; [j]and I will not [k]blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

8 [d]I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

242 CHAPTER 4

III "THE THINGS which shall be HEREAFTER" - after the churches or after the rapture (4:1-22:5). 1 The heavenly temple: raptured saints with God (4:1-5:14). (1) Heavenly door (11:19; 14:15-18; 15:5-8; 16:1, 17)

★[a]AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a [b]door was opened in heaven: and the [c]first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, [d]Come [e]up hither, and [f]I will shew thee things which must be [g]hereafter.

(2) Heavenly throne (1:4; 3:21; 4:5-10; 5:1-13; 6:16; 7:9-17; 8:3; 12:5; 14:3-5; 16:17; 19:4-5; 20:11; 21:5; 22:1-3; Isa. 6:1; Dan. 7:9; Ezek. 1:26; 10:1; Heb. 1:3; 12:2)

2 And immediately [h]I was in the spirit: and, behold, [i]a throne was set in heaven, [j]and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a [k]jasper and a [l]sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an [m]emerald.

(3) Twenty-four elders (4:10; 5:5-14; 7:11-13; 11:16; 14:3; 19:4)

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty [n]seats:

c God as a person can sit on a literal throne, for He has a spirit body as all spirits. See The spirit world, p. 632. If men without their bodies can be clothed, exist in spirit form and be confined to material places such as hades (Lk. 16:19-31; Rev. 20:11-15) and the altar in heaven (Rev. 6:9-11); and if other spirit beings can be confined to tartarus (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7) and the abyss (Rev. 9:1-21; 20:1-3); etc., it is reasonable to believe that God as a Spirit being can sit on a literal throne (Isa. 6; Jn. 5:37; Acts 7:55; etc. See note r, Jn. 4:24)
d According to Pliny it is semi-transparent. According to others it is green transparent, perhaps the green chalcedony, called plasma at the present day (Ex. 28:20; 39:13; Ezek. 28:13; Rev. 4:3; 21:11, 18, 19)

2 They are distinguished from angels in 5:11-14
3 They have crowns and sit on thrones, which are promised redeemed men (2:10; 3:21; 20:4; Mt. 19:28; 1 Cor. 9:25-27; 2 Tim. 4:8). Angels are never seen in Rev. on thrones or wearing crowns. Angels are mentioned with thrones only in Isa. 14:12-14; Col. 1:16
4 They wear white raiment, which is used only in Revelation of Christ and saints (3:5, 18; 6:11; 7:9, 13; 15:6; 19:8, 14)
5 It is clear from 1:1; 5:5-7; 7:13-15; 19:10; 22:8-9 that one of the elders is the person showing John the Revelation, and that he is a redeemed man. If one of them is a man, then all 24 are men
Since they are redeemed men and in heaven on thrones all through the time of the fulfillment of Rev. 4-22, they must have been raptured before that 4 companies of redeemed men:
1 Old Testament saints (Acts 7:38; Heb. 11:1-40; 12:1)
2 New Testament church saints (Mt. 16:18; 1 Cor. 12:27-28; Eph. 1:20-23; 2:14-22; 4:12-16; 5:21-32; Col. 1:18, 24). Christ started this company, the church, and will present it to Himself at the rapture (Eph. 5:27; 1 Th. 4:16)
3 The 144,000 Jews, a distinct company by themselves, as proved from 7:1-8; 14:1-5, which see
4 The great multitude of tribulation saints, a separate company from the church and O.T. saints, for they are saved after the rapture, as proved in 7:9-17; 14:13; 15:2-4; 20:4, which see
The 24 elders must be representative of the first two companies, for the last two are not redeemed until after the elders are in heaven, or during the fulfillment of Rev. 4-22. See notes on 4:1; 2 Th. 2:7; 1 Th. 4:16
Why 24 elders?
The answer is not stated, but two facts are clear:
1 The whole priesthood of old was represented by 24 elders (1 Chr. 24:1-19)
2 The names of the 12 tribes of Israel and the 12 apostles are written on the holy city, New Jerusalem (21:10-14)

b 7 acts of the 24 elders:
1 Sit on thrones (4:4; 19:7-8)
2 Worship God (4:9-11; 5:8-10)
3 Cast crowns before God (4:10)
4 Fall prostrate before God (4:10; 5:8, 14; 11:16; 19:4)
5 Sing and play harps (5:8-10)
6 Act as priests (5:8)
7 Give John the Revelation (5:5; 7:13-14)

c See note on 5:6

d The actual floor of the throne room (v 6; 15:2-4. Cp. 1 Ki. 7:23-26; 2 Chr. 4:2-15)

e Gr. zoa, living ones, or creatures; not the Gr. therion, trans. beast in Rev. 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 15:2; 16:10; 17:1-18; 19:19-20. They are literal angelic beings as described here (v 6-8); and are distinguished from the redeemed elders (4:9-11), ordinary angels (5:1-12), seraphim (Isa. 6:1-8), and cherubim (Ezek. 1:4-28; 10:1-22) 7 acts of the zoa:
1 Call attention to God's holiness (4:4-8)
2 Fall prostrate in worship (5:8-10)
3 Sing and play harps (5:8-10)
4 Offer prayers of saints to God (5:8-5 Call forth the horsemen (6:1-8) 10)
6 Give vials to angels (15:7)
7 Listen to worship of others (14:3)

g They acknowledge the supremacy of God, and that they were redeemed and have their crowns by His blessings (v 10)

h The purpose of creation (v 11)

i The book was written within and sealed with 7 seals, which must be broken before the contents within could be revealed, as in 10:1-11, notes

j There are 26 unidentified angels in Revelation, besides the 15 angels identified as men, Christ (8:2-6; 10:1-11:3), Lucifer (12:1-9), and Michael (12:7-10) are also mentioned besides innumerable angels (5:5; 5:11; 7:11)

k This phrase is found 13 times in the book (5:2, 12; 6:10; 7:2, 10; 8:13; 10:3; 12:10; 14:7, 9, 15, 18; 19:17)

m See Men conscious 3 realms, p. 305 and upon the seats I saw four and twenty [a]elders [b]sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

(4) Seven spirits (1:4; 3:1; 5:6)

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the [c]seven Spirits of God.

(5) Sea of glass (15:2-4) and four living creatures (5:8-14; 6:1-8; 7:11; 14:3; 15:7; 19:4)

6 And before the throne there was a [d]sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne and round about the throne, were four [e]beasts full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, [f]Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

(6) Heavenly worship (1:5-6, 17; 5:8-14; 7:9-17; 8:3; 11:15-19; 12:10-12; 14:1-5; 15:1-8; 19:1)

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and [g]cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: [h]for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER 5 243

(7) Heavenly book (10:1-11)

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book [i]written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a [j]strong angel proclaiming with a [k]loud voice, [l]Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 [m]And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

(8) Heavenly Lamb (5:5-13; 6:1, 16; 7:9-10, 14, 17; 12:11; 14:1-4, 10; 15:3; 17:14; 19:7-9; 21:9, 14, 22-27; 22:1-3. Cp. Jn. 1:29, 36)

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the [a]Lion of the tribe of Jū'dà, the Root of Dā'vid, hath [b]prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a [c]Lamb as it had been slain, having [d]seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

(9) Worship of the Lamb by the living creatures and elders

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them [e]harps, and [f]golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed [g]us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign [h]on the earth.

(10) Universal worship of God and of the Lamb (19:1-10)

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many [i]angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was [j]ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain [k]to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, [l]Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, [m]be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Â-mĕn'. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 6 244

2 Daniel's 70th week and the tribulation (6:1-18:24; Dan. 9:27). The first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (6:1-9:21). (1) THE FIRST SEAL: rise of the Antichrist (Dan. 7:8, 23-26; 8:8-10, 20-25; 11:35-45; 2 Th. 2:1-12; Rev. 13:1-18; 17:10-16)

[a]AND I saw when [b]the Lamb opened one of the seals, a Christ is called 2 things here:

1 The Lion of the tribe of Judah (v 5)
2 The Root of David (v 5; Isa. 11:1)

b Gr. nikao, Trans. prevail (v 5): conquer (Rev. 6:2); get the victory (Rev. 15:2); and overcome (Lk. 11:22; Jn. 16:33; Rom. 3:4; 12:21; 1 Jn. 2:13-14; 4:4; 5:4-5; Rev. 2:7, 11, 17, 26; 3:5, 12, 21; 11:7; 12:11; 13:7; 17:14; 21:7). Christ conquered at Calvary (Col. 2:14-17)

c Gr. arnion, a young lamb: lambkin (Jn. 21:15). Used 27 times in Rev. 5:6, 8, 12, 13; 6:1, 16; 7:9, 10, 14, 17; 12:11; 13:8, 11; 14:1, 4, 10; 15:3; 17:14; 19:7, 9; 21:9, 14, 22, 23, 27; 22:1, 3 d Not 7 titles of the Holy Spirit, for there are more titles than this that are applied to the Spirit. Since the Lamb has the 7 horns and 7 eyes, since we know there is but one Holy Spirit (Eph. 4:4-6), and since the Lamb is a symbol of Christ, the 7 lamps of fire (4:5), the 7 horns, and 7 eyes are all symbolic of the one Holy Spirit and can only denote His fulness and power upon the Lamb and before the throne (Jn. 3:34; Isa. 11:2; 42:1-7; 61:1-2; Acts 10:38)

e Many musical instruments in heaven:
1 Here 24 harps and harpists (v 8)
2 In Rev. 14:2, 144,000 harps
3 In Rev. 15:2, innumerable harps
If God allows this many in heaven let us not consider it unheavenly to have musical instruments in churches

f Golden bowls full of incense, which represent the prayers of saints (Ps. 141:2; Rev. 8:4)

g Some hold that the 4 zoa or living creatures are redeemed because they say, "Thou hast redeemed us to God." But, from the description in 4:6-8, we know they are angelic beings who call attention to God's holiness. The pronoun us should be them, referring to the saints of v 8 whose prayers are being offered up before God. Such Greek scholars as Lachmann, Tischendorf, Alford, and Wordsworth omit the us of v 9. Griesbach, Tregalles, Lachmann, Tischendorf, Alford, and Wordsworth all omit the us of v 10, and instead, have them. All agree that the we of v 10 should be they, the antecedent of which is saints of v 8. Verse 10 then should read, "And hast made them unto our God kings and priests: and they shall reign on the earth." There is proof in notes on 4:4; 4:6-8 that the elders are redeemed and the living creatures are actual angelic beings. All of them offer up prayers of the saints who are to reign on the earth, but all are not redeemed

h Christ and the resurrected saints will reign on the earth in the Millennium and in the New Earth forever (v 10; 2:26-27; 11:15; 20:4-10; 22:5; Dan. 7:18)

i Three distinct classes:
1 Angels (v 11; Heb. 1:4-14; 12:22)
2 The zoa, living creatures (4:6-8; 5:11)
3 The 24 elders (4:4, note) 6-11)

j Myriads of myriads and chiliads of chiliads. A Hebraism of countless numbers (Heb. 12:22; Dan. 7:10) k 7fold ascription to the Lamb:

1 Power - omnipotence (v 12)
2 Riches - possessions (v 12; Jn. 17:5)
3 Wisdom - omniscience (v 12)
4 Strength - ability (v 12; Heb. 7:25)
5 Honour - reputation (v 12; Heb. 1:4)
6 Glory - praise (v 12; Phil. 2:9-11)
7 Blessing - worship (v 12-13; 7:12)

l 4fold ascription to God and Christ:
1 Blessing - worship (v 13; 7:10)
2 Honour - reputation (v 13; 1 Cor. 10:3 Glory - praise (v 13; Heb. 13:15) 13)
4 Power - omnipotence (v 13; 19:6)

m Worthiness to God and the Lamb is the theme of many passages in Rev. (1:5-6; 4:9-11; 5:8-14; 7:9-17; 11:15-18; 14:1-5; 15:2-4; 19:1-7)

n Note the 30 direct references to two and three persons in the Deity in Rev. (1:1, 2, 4-5, 6, 9, 2:7, 17, 26-29; 3:5-6, 12-13, 20-22; 4:2, 5; 5:1, 6-7, 13; 6:16; 7:10; 10:5-6; 11:15; 12:10, 17; 14:1, 4; 14:10, 12-13; 20:6; 21:22-23; 22:1, 3)

o The 62 events of 6:1-20:3 will be fulfilled during Daniel's 70th week. See The 70 weeks, p. 877 of O.T. 68 post-rapture events, p. 305

p The Lamb, Christ, takes the book out of the right hand of God who sits on the throne, and breaks the 7 seals one at a time, revealing the contents of each seal (5:7; 6:1-17; 8:1). Then He gives the opened book to John to eat, revealing the contents written within (10:1-11) and I [e]heard, as it were the noise of [b]thunder, one of the four beasts saying, [c]Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold [d]a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

(2) THE SECOND SEAL: war caused by the rise of Antichrist (Dan. 7:23-24; 8:9, 23; Mt. 24:6-7)

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out [e]another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

(3) THE THIRD SEAL: famine caused by the first seals (Mt. 24:7)

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo [f]a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, [g]A measure of wheat for a [h]penny, and three [i]measures of barley for a penny; and [j]see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

(4) THE FOURTH SEAL: death and hell rampant because of the first three seals (Mt. 24:6-7)

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold [d]a [k]pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over [l]the fourth part of the earth, [m]to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with [n]the beasts of the earth.

(5) THE FIFTH SEAL: first martyrs of the tribulation of Daniel's 70th week (7:9-17; 15:2-4; 20:4; Mt. 24:9-13)

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw [o]under the [p]altar the [q]souls of them that were slain [r]for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

10 And they [s]cried with a loud voice, saying, [t]How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 [u]And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, [v]until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

(6) THE SIXTH SEAL: wrath of God begins. It continues in the trumpets and vials (8:1-9:21; 11:15, 18; 15:1, 7; 16:1-21; 18:1-24). It ends with Armageddon (19:11-20:3; Zech. 14; Ezek. 38-39; Joel 3; Isa. 63:1-6; Jude 14)

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was [a]a great [b]earthquake; and the [c]sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the [d]moon became as blood;

13 And the [e]stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And the [f]heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and [g]every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 [h]And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For [i]the great day of his wrath is come: and [j]who shall be able to stand?

245 CHAPTER 7

PARENTHETICAL: two companies of redeemed (7:1-17). 1 Sealing of the 144,000 Jews to protect them from the trumpet judgments (7:2-3; 8:7-12; 9:4)

[k]AND after these things I saw [l]four angels standing on the [m]four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, [n]having the seal of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, [o]Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the [p]servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed [q]an hundred and forty and four thousand [r]of [s]all the tribes of the children of Is'ra-el.

5 Of the tribe of Jū'dā were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reu'ben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gād were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of A'sēr were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nĕph'tha-lĭm were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Mā-nās'sēs were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Sim'e-on were sealed twelve thousand.

a Found 33 times in Revelation: hear 7 times and heareth 2 times

b Found 10 times in Revelation

c The word Come in v 1, 3, 5, 7 is addressed to the 6 horsemen, not to John. The words and see in these verses are omitted in many texts, for John is already present looking at every scene

d See Antichrist, p. 298, col. 4

e This is a clear symbol of war - red horse - peace taken from the earth - killing one another - a great sword (v 4). It is the natural result of the white horse rider of v 2 going forth to conquer. This will be the 2nd tri-continent war. Antichrist comes out of the 10 kingdoms that will be formed in the first future tri-continent war of prophecy (Dan. 7:7-8, 23-24)

f This is a symbol of famine which is the result of the conquest and wars of the first two seals. Cp. Lam. 4:4-8; Mt. 24:7

g Bread by measure and weight signifies scarcity of food (Ezek. 4:10-17)

h 17¢, the daily wage (Mt. 20:1-16)

i A measure was about 1 quart, a slave's daily ration, an amount usually purchased for about 2¢. One could usually buy 8 measures of wheat or 24 measures of barley for a penny, but during this future famine only 1 measure of wheat or 3 measures of barley can be purchased for a penny. This will make food 8 times higher than in normal times

j The olive and grape need no cultivation; hence their ruthless destruction is forbidden k Here death and hell are personified. These two riders are named, because they are not recognized as easily as the first 3 riders of the first 3 seals

l Gr. chloros. Trans. green except here (see 8:7; 9:4; Mk. 6:39). Death rides the green horse, and hell rides the 5th horse, which is perhaps red to represent fire. Death here no doubt refers to a great pestilence following the wars and famines of the first 3 seals. Cp. Mt. 24:6-7; Ezek. 14:21

m See Tribulation not world-wide, p. 305

n This refers to the wars of the first 2 seals, the famine of the 3rd seal, and to death and hell of the 4th seal (v 2-8)

o Where the dead bodies are fallen in the wars, famines, and plagues of the first 4 seals, there the beasts will be gathered to eat them. Cp. Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:34-37; Rev. 17:17; Ezek. 39:17-21

p Gr. hupokato (point 3, col. 2, p. 305)

q 8:3-5; 9:13; 14:18; 16:7

r These people will be saved after the resurrection of the dead in Christ - those from Abel to the rapture in Rev. 4:1. They will be martyred between the rapture and the 5th seal in the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week, a period which takes in all the events of the seals and first 6 trumpets. They will be martyred by the great whore of Rev. 17:1-7 while she rules the 10 kings of the old Roman Empire territory and while the Antichrist is coming to power over them (Rev. 17:8-18)

s They are to be killed for the same two reasons John was on Patmos (1:9-10)

t This proves immortality of the soul and full consciousness between death and resurrection (note m, 1 Pet. 3:4)

u Question 2, Next, v 17

v The soul and spirit, or the inner man, has a form and shape exactly like the outer man and fits into the body even to the outer skin. This is based upon the fact that the soul is that part which feels and the spirit is that which knows. The inner man can wear clothing, rest, eat, drink, and do other things (v 11; Mt. 17:5; Lk. 16:19-31; Heb. 12:23). See Soul and Spirit, in Index

w Until the rest of the tribulation saints are martyred. Then all will be resurrected together and judgment sent upon their murderers (v 11; 7:9-17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)

(v 1-8)

r What could be clearer than this? - that the 144,000 are from 12 of the 13 tribes of Israel, not Gentiles. They are not a part of the church, for the church is raptured before this time, in Rev. 4:1. Nor could they be Jews before the rapture or in any other period outside of the first half of the last 7 years of this age c 5 times sun darkened in 70th week:

1 During the 6th seal in the early part of the week (8:12)
2 During the 4th trumpet (8:12)
3 During the 5th trumpet (9:2)
4 During the 5th vial at the end of the week (16:10)
5 Immediately after the future tribulation at the second advent (Mt. 24:29; Isa. 13:10; Ezek. 32:7-8; Joel 2:31; 3:15; Acts 2:16-21)

d 5 times the moon will become affected, corresponding with the sun darkening above

e 5 times the stars will become affected, corresponding with the sun above, but only 2 times are they spoken of as falling to the earth: first, during the 6th seal (v 13); secondly, at the coming of Christ immediately after the tribulation (Mt. 24:29-31). There will be several years between the two events. This does not refer to the fixed stars, which are really suns to other planets, all of which are much bigger than our earth, but to meteors or shooting stars

f This does not mean the extinction of the heavens any more than it does in 20:11; 21:1, for they are seen many times after this (8:1, 10, 13; 9:1; etc.)

g This does not mean the extinction of the islands and mountains, for several years later they are again affected by another great earthquake (16:20). The earth abideth forever (Eccl. 1:4; Ps. 1:4-5)

h In this verse we have 7 classes of men who realize that God's wrath has begun.

i This wrath is not the same as that in Rom. 2:5, 14-15; Rev. 20:11-15. It begins with events of the 6th seal in the first 3 1/2 years of the week and continues with the trumpet and vial judgments to the end of the week (v 17; 11:18; 15:1, 7; 16:1, 19; etc.). Because physical signs accompany the 6th seal and the second advent is no proof that the two events are the same. Between them all the events of 7:1-19:10 take place

j Question 3, Next, 7:13

k Rev. 7 is the 1st parenthetical passage. It is inserted between the 6th and 7th seals and contains explanatory matter about that which will transpire from the 6th seal through the rest of the week

l These are the first 4 trumpet judgment angels who are commanded not to blow their trumpets bringing the judgments until the 144,000 Jews are sealed or marked for protection to go through these judgments (7:1-3). The 144,000 are sealed then, before the 7 trumpet judgments

m Meaning the 4 directions of the earth. Cp. v 1; Isa. 11:12 with Rev. 20:8; Mt. 24:31

n This is simply having the name of God stamped or written in the forehead (14:1). It has nothing to do with the keeping of a sabbath. See Sabbath in Index

o For these plagues on earth, see 8:7-11 p The 144,000 Jews are not servants when the rapture takes place in Rev. 4:1, for all in Christ at that time will be translated (1 Th. 4:16; 1 Cor. 15:23). They will be saved after the rapture in the revival predicted in Acts 2:16-21. They are to be saved and become servants of God by the time they are sealed. This is why they have God's name written on them (v 3; 14:1)

A literal mark because:
1 This is plainly stated in v 3; 14:1
2 It is an object of sight, for direction is given to the first 4 trumpet judgment angels not to execute their judgments until they are sealed in the foreheads (v 3; 8:7-12)
3 Special direction is given to the 5th and 6th judgment angels not to hurt the 144,000 (9:4)
4 The mark of the beast is literal (13:16-18; 14:9; 20:4), and so this must be (14:1)
5 It is the name of God in the forehead (v 3; 14:1)
6 Literal names will be branded on the overcomers (3:12; 22:4), and this indicates that the name of God on the 144,000 will also be literal (14:1)

q Just as God reserved 7,000 men to Himself in Elijah's day, so He is going to reserve 144,000 Jews to Himself in the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week

Of the tribe of [a]Lĕ'vi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Is'sa-char were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zăb'u-lŏn were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Jō'seph were sealed twelve thousand. [b]Of the tribe of Bĕn'ja-mĭn were sealed twelve thousand.

2 The great tribulation saints (6:8-11; 13:7, 15-18; 15:2-4; 17:6; 20:4; Dan. 7:21-27; 8:24; 9:27; 12:7; Mt. 24:9, 22)

9 [c]After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which [d]no man could number, of [e]all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood [f]before the throne, and before the Lamb, [g]clothed with white robes, and [h]palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, [i]Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Â-mĕn': [k]Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Â-mĕn'.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, [l]What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, [m]These are they which came out of [n]great tribulation, [o]and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

▸15 [p]Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

▸16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

▸17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto [q]living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER 8 246

(7) THE SEVENTH SEAL: silence in heaven before the trumpet judgments begin in 8:7

AND when he had opened the [r]seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

PARENTHETICAL: priestly angel and preparation for the trumpet judgments

2 [s]And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; [t]and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 [u]And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much [v]incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets [b]prepared themselves to sound.

(8) THE FIRST TRUMPET: hail, fire, and blood rained from heaven (Cp. Ex. 9:22-26; Ezek. 38:16-23)

7 The first angel sounded, and there [c]followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

(9) THE SECOND TRUMPET: a burning meteor from heaven (Cp. 16:34; Ex. 9:14-21; Ps. 78:44; 105:29)

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were [d]a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

(10) THE THIRD TRUMPET: the star Wormwood poisoning the waters

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell [e]a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

(11) THE FOURTH TRUMPET: darkening of one third of the planets (Cp. Ex. 10:21-23; Rev. 16:10)

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the [f]sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

PARENTHETICAL: announcement of three woes upon mankind

13 And I beheld, and heard a This tribe is not ordinarily listed with the 12 tribes of Israel, being the ministers of the nation, but in this case Dan is left out because none of that tribe have yet turned to God in the revival saving the 144,000 Jews (v 3)

b The fact that 12,000 out of 12 of the 13 tribes of Israel are mentioned as being saved and as being servants of God during these first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week, proves they are all Jews and not Gentiles. The time of the fulfillment is equally proof that they are all alive at the same time, being saved in a short while after the rapture of the church in 4:1 (7:1-8; 14:1-5). They are protected through the trumpet judgments (v 2-3; 9:4), and will be translated as the manchild of Rev. 12:5, after which they are seen in heaven - in Rev. 14:1-5, which shows that the 144,000 have been translated and what they are doing in heaven. See notes, Rev. 12:5; 14:1-5 c These verses (9-17) portray the last company of redeemed in the book. They are all martyrs while the 144,000 are all living people translated without dying (12:5). These are martyred after the rapture of the church in 4:1. They include the saints under the altar in 6:9-11 and the rest of their brethren that should be killed in the tribulation (14:13; 15:2-4; 20:4-6) d Not that they could not be numbered, but that no man seeing them together in a multitude could tell the exact number

e They are Gentiles or mainly so f They are to be translated or they could not be before the throne of God in heaven. They cannot be resurrected and translated until they are all killed, implying their rapture to heaven toward the end of the 70th week of Daniel in time to be at the marriage of the Lamb (19:1-10). That they complete the first resurrection is clear in 20:4-6

g See 6:9-11; 7:13-14; 19:8

h Gr. phoinix. A symbol of victory and is used only here and in Jn. 12:13

i God alone is the author of salvation and the Lamb is the one who purchased it (5:8-10; Col. 1:20-22; 2:14-17; 1 Cor. 6:19-20; 1 Pet. 1:18-23)

j Amen, so be it: truly (note 1, 2 Cor. 1:20; note g, Jn. 1:51)

k 7fold ascription to God (Cp. 5:12):
1 Blessing - worship (v 12; 5:12)
2 Glory - praise (v 12; 5:12)
3 Wisdom - omniscience (v 12; 5:12)
4 Thanksgiving (v 12; Heb. 13:15-16)
5 Honour - reputation (v 12; 5:12)
6 Power - omnipotence (v 12; 19:6)
7 Might - strength (v 12; 5:12)

l Questions 4-5, Next, 13:4

m They come out of the great tribulation, hence we call them the tribulation saints (note a, 4:4) n Gr. the tribulation, the great, referring to the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (v 14; Mt. 24:15-22; Dan. 12:1; Jer. 30:6-9). All the events of Rev. 11:15-19:21 take place during this time

o The door of mercy will never be closed to Jews or Gentiles, for whosoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved (Acts 2:16-21; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-17; 1 Cor. 8:11; 1 Jn. 1:7; Rev. 1:5; 12:17; 22:17)

p See 10 blessings of redeemed, p. 306

q Everlasting fountains of life

r This is as literal as stated - silence in heaven about 1/2 hour (v 1). Why the silence is not stated

s These verses (2-6) are the 2nd parenthetical passage and explain events in heaven between the 7th seal and the first trumpet. They are preparatory to the blowing of the 7 trumpets which complete the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (11:15, note)

t By whom the trumpets were given is not stated, but perhaps it was one of the elders as was the case of the vials in 15:7. The 7 trumpets are to be blown successively between the seals and vials. The first will be blown after the 7th seal and the last in the middle of the week (11:15, note)

u This angel may be Christ in His high-priestly work (Heb. 4:14-16; 6:20-7:28; 13:15). The censer is always mentioned in connection with the high priest (Lev. 16:12; Heb. 9:4). See the results of intruding into this office (Lev. 10:1; Num. 16:1-19; 2 Chr. 26:19; Ezek. 8:11)

a Cp. the ministry of 5:8-10

b After the ministry of the angel at the golden altar (3-5), the 7 trumpet angels prepare themselves to sound (v 6). They take their turn at blowing their trumpets, proving successive events, as with the 7 seals and 7 vials

There is no ground for believing that they are contained in the 7th seal and that the 7 vials are contained in the 7th trumpet. On the contrary, the 7 seals are finished before John sees the 7 trumpets, and they in turn are all completed before he sees the 7 vials. The same will be true in their fulfillment. These facts also exclude the theory that some of the events continue in fulfillment while others are being fulfilled

As to the literalness of the events of the 7 trumpets, they are to be just as literal as the revelation gives them. Should we make symbolic that which is plainly literal? The plagues in Egypt were literal, so why not these? Some interpret the earthquake of 6:12-17 as the breaking up of society; the sun darkened as Christ rejected and God dethroned; the moon turned to blood as the destruction of derived authority; the stars falling as the downfall of religious leaders in the ecclesiastical heavens; the heavens departed as the destruction of organized Christianity; the grass (8:7) as the common people and the trees the dignity of man; the burning mountain (8:8) as spiritual Babylon cast into the sea of nations and destroyed by the people; the star falling from heaven (8:10-11 and 9:10) as the pope of Rome; the darkening of the planets (8:12) as spiritual darkness in man's religious sky; the key (9:1) as the system that opens the pit; the darkness (9:2) as the blotting out of true light in man's spiritual sky; the locusts (9:3-11) as the spread of false religions; the 200,000,000 demons (9:12-21) as men that have overrun Europe and Asia through many centuries; the sores (16:2) as a spiritual plague; the sea and rivers to blood (16:3-7) as the drying up of the source of life; the Euphrates drying up (16:12) as the drying up of the Turkish empire; and the earthquake (16:17-21) as the destruction of all religious institutions

Could this possibly be clearer than taking the events literally as written? How could all these things be, such as Europe being overrun by man over many centuries when all the events of 4:1 on are to be after the churches? How could the pope of Rome fall from heaven several times? How did he get up there to fall from heaven? These interpretations could not possibly be the true meaning of any of these events.

c Could not hail, fire, mingled with blood be cast out to the earth and burn up a third of the trees and all green grass (v 7)? If this is what John saw happen, who are we to say he did not see this, or that he saw something else? This happened in Egypt (Ex. 9:22-26). Is it impossible to happen again?

d Could not this literally happen? Could not a great meteor fall into the sea and turn a third of it to blood, killing a third of the fish and destroying a third of the ships (v 8-9)? If so, why change the passage? This happened in Egypt (Ex. 9:14-21; Ps. 78:44; 105:29). Could it not happen again?

e Could not a meteor fall from heaven and poison the drinking waters of mankind so that many men will die (v 10-11)? If this is not what is going to happen, then why did Christ show John it was going to happen? Is it impossible for God to make waters bitter and sweet as He wills? Cp. Ex. 15:26-27

f Could not the planets become darkened as stated here? This is what was done in Egypt (Ex. 10:21-23). Could it not happen again?

Thus we see that the first 4 trumpet judgments of notes c, d, e and f above have to do with literal plagues affecting vegetation, seas, rivers, and planets, as indicated by the angel in his message to the first 4 trumpet judgment angels in 7:1-3. Only confusion will be the result of changing the revelation, of which note b, above is an example. The next 3 trumpets will deal with the moral creation, not the material one, as in the first 4 trumpets a Angels can fly through the heavens even though they do not have wings (v 13; 14:6-20)

b This is the 3rd parenthetical passage. It announces 3 woes upon men at the last 3 trumpets:
1 Plague of demons out of the abyss to torment men for 5 months (9:1-12)
2 Plague of demons out of the abyss to slay a third of men on earth (9:13-21)
3 Casting out of Satan to the earth to destroy men for 3 1/2 years (11:14-13:18)

c This is an intelligent person, not a material meteor or shooting star. Personal pronouns and personal acts are ascribed to him (9:1-2). Only an intelligent being could be given a key to a material place and a command to obey, as here. Even Satan's angels are referred to as stars (12:3-9). There is no indication that this is a fallen angel. He will descend from heaven to open the abyss, liberating the creatures who will fulfill this vision in Rev. 9. He must be a holy and trusted angel to have the key to the pit. If a fallen one he could liberate all the fallen creatures that are now there. He is not the angel of the bottomless pit (9:11), for no king of demons could be trusted with such a key

d This indicates that the abyss is a place of fire, though not the same place as sheol-hades, tartarus, gehenna, or the lake of fire

e Gr. akris (v 3, 7; Mt. 3:4; Mk. 1:6). Ordinary locusts were clean and the principal food of John the Baptist (Mt. 3:4; Lev. 11:22; Eccl. 12:5)
8 proofs they are not ordinary locusts:
1 They will eat no grass, vegetables, or trees, as ordinary locusts do (v 4)-Cp. the 8th Egyptian plague of ordinary locusts that destroyed every green thing (Ex. 10:3-20)
2 They have a king (v 11). Ordinary locusts do not have (Pr. 30:27)
3 They are not stifled by the smoke, or burned by the fire of the abyss, as ordinary locusts would be (v 2-11)
4 These creatures are now confined to the infernal regions being there because of their sins (v 1-11. Cp. Lk. 8:28-31). No creature is confined to prison unless he has sinned. Ordinary locusts are not in the abyss
5 They are spirit beings and therefore indestructible by mortal men. Otherwise, men would not fear them, as they do here (v 5-6, 11). Men can destroy ordinary locusts regardless of their number
6 They are intelligent beings, capable of commands and following leadership (v 4-6, 11)
7 They have power to torment men like scorpions (v 3-10). Ordinary locusts do not have this power
8 Their description proves them to be intelligent spirit beings, not ordinary locusts of the earth: They have
(1) Bodies like horses (v 7)
(2) Heads like men (v 7)
(3) Crowns of gold (v 7)
(4) Hair like women (v 8)
(5) Teeth like lions (v 8)
(6) Breastplates of iron (v 9)
(7) Wings (v 9)
(8) Tails and scorpion stings (v 9)
These are literal beings, for every statement about them proves them to be real and capable of bodily contact with man. They are objects of sight for men see them and flee. They make a thunderous noise as they fly (v 9). They could not possibly be symbolic, for all symbols in Scripture are explained and made clear as to their meaning

f Gr. skorpios (v 5, 10; Lk. 10:19; 11:12)

g The 144,000 Jews (7:1-8; 14:1-5). Special direction is given here to the 5th and 6th trumpet judgment angels not to hurt them, the first judgment angels having been commanded not to blow their trumpets until they were sealed (7:1-3). Thus they are being protected from all these plagues. This proves they are all alive at the time of these judgments or all of them could not be protected h A king rules and commands them:

1 Not to hurt the grass (v 4)
2 Not to hurt any green thing (v 4)
3 Not to hurt the trees (v 4)
4 Not to hurt the 144,000 Jews (v 4)
5 To hurt all other men (v 4)
6 Not to kill men (v 5)

an angel [c]flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, [b]Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

247 CHAPTER 9

(12) THE FIFTH TRUMPET: the first woe on men - loosing of demons on earth to torment men for five months. A Opening of the pit and loosing of demons

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a [c]star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose [d]a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [e]locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the [f]scorpions of the earth have power.

B Their commission: torment all men but the 144,000 Jews (7:1-8)

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in [g]their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

C Description of the demons

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

D The leader of the demons

11 And they had a[h]king over them, which is the [i]angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hē'brew tongue is Ă-băd'-don, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Ă-pŏl'lў-ŏn.

PARENTHETICAL: announcement of the next two woes (8:13; 12:12)

12 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

(13) THE SIXTH TRUMPET: second woe on men - loosing of 200,000,000 demons out of the pit to slay one third of men. A Loosing of the four angel leaders and their commission

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a [a]voice from the four horns of the [b]golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, [c]Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Ĕū-phrā'tēs.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were [d]prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

B The number and description of the demons to slay men

16 And the [e]number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus [f]I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of [g]jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these [h]three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

C Hardness of men stated

20 And the [i]rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

Daniel's 70th week and the tribulation continued (6:1-18:24; Dan. 9:27). The last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week, or the last 3 1/2 years of this age (10:1-18:24)

248 CHAPTER 10

PARENTHETICAL (10:1-11:14). 1 The mighty angel (1) His description and the book opened to reveal what is written within (Cp. 5:1) a There are several unidentified voices in Rev. (5:2; 6:6; 7:2; 8:13; 10:4, 8; 11:12; 12:10; 14:7, 8, 9, 13, 15; 16:1, 17; 18:2, 4, 17; 19:5; 21:3). Other voices are identified, as that of Christ (1:10-15; 3:20; 4:1; 5:11, 12; 6:7, 10; 7:10; 10:3; 11:3; 14:2-5; 19:1-6)

b The one from which Moses made his golden altar for the tabernacle (Heb. 8:5; 9:23; Ex. 30:1-18; 37:25-28)

c The 4 angels bound in the Euphrates are fallen ones. Good angels are never bound. They are the leaders of 200,000,000 demon horsemen who are now bound in the abyss and who will be loosed under the 6th trumpet to cause the 2nd woe announced by the angel in 8:13. Cp. 9:12; 11:14; 12:12. Each of these angels will command 50,000,000 infernal cavalry. They will go in the 4 directions to slay the third part of men. Here the Euphrates is associated with the tribulation judgments (v 14; 16:13-16; Jer. 46:4-10) d This refers to a fixed point of time, not a period or length of time. The demon cavalry will slay one third of men at a definite hour, just as the first-born in Egypt were killed at mid-night. If the Roman Empire territory alone is to be affected by this woe, approximately 98,000,000 men will be killed. If the whole earth is meant, about 296,000,000 men will be killed. The fact that the horsemen start from the vicinity of the Euphrates indicates they may be limited to the countries surrounding that river

e The theory that these horsemen are 200,000,000 soldiers of various armies that have overrun Europe and Asia during the past centuries is false. These all come from the abyss at the same time and all go forth to slay one third of men at a certain hour (v 14-15). Also, that they are 200,000,000 men under Antichrist at Armageddon is false, because these are not ordinary men as proved by the description (v 17-19). No human horseman was ever like these or ever will be f 12 proofs they are literal creatures:

1 They have angelic leaders, proving them to be as real as angels (v 14-15)
2 Their exact number and description prove them to be many individuals (v 16)
3 They kill one third of men, proving bodily contact with them (v 15)
4 They are intelligent creatures or they could not follow commands and leadership (v 14-15)
5 They have riders on them, proving that they are real creatures (v 17)
6 They cannot be killed by fire and the smoke of the abyss, proving they are spirit beings (v 1-2, 17-18)
7 They are now bound in the abyss, proving them to be fallen and sinful (v 1-2). If not sinful they would not be bound
8 They are indestructible by men (v 17)
9 They have breastplates of fire, jacinth, and brimstone, proving that they have bodies capable of wearing breastplates (v 17)
10 They have bodies like horses and heads like lions (v 17)
11 Real fire, smoke, and brimstone issue from their mouths, proving they have real mouths (v 17-18) 12 They have tails like serpent heads that are capable of hurting men (v 19)

g A gem of orange color

h 3 ways by which they kill a third of men:
1 The fire out of their mouths (v 18)
2 The smoke out of their mouths
3 The brimstone out of their mouths

i The men not killed by these plagues only harden themselves against God and continue in demon and idol worship (v 20-21)

→ Cont. from column 1

7 To torment men for 5 months (v 5-10)

i This angel is a fallen one who is now bound in the abyss with these demon creatures. The Gr. reads, angel out of the abyss. His name means destruction or destroyer. When these demons were created and what their original responsibility and sin were is not known. One thing is certain, all creatures were created sinless, but capable of moral failure a Rev. 10:1-11:14 is the 4th parenthetical passage in the book. It explains certain events which are not the contents of the seals, trumpets, or vials, but which happen along with the main events of this period. It breaks the main vision of the trumpets and is inserted between the 6th and 7th trumpets, as the first parenthetical passage is inserted between the 6th and 7th seals (7:1-17). It is made up of 4 parts:

1 Rev. 10, the reception of the revelation of the things written within the 7 sealed book (5:5-7; 6:1-8:1)

2 Rev. 11:1-2, the vision of the capture of Jerusalem by Antichrist (Dan. 11:40-45; 2 Th. 2:3-4)

3 Rev. 11:3-12, the ministry of the two witnesses who will oppose Antichrist the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week

4 Rev. 11:13-14, the great earthquake which takes place at the ascension of the two witnesses - the same as the great earthquake under the 7th vial at the end of Daniel's 70th week (16:17-21)

All the parenthetical passages are inserted in their proper place of fulfillment unless it is clear otherwise that they are not to be fulfilled in the place where they are revealed. All facts of fulfillment are always clear in the passages themselves so that no confusion need arise

b All angels are mighty in power, but some are more powerful than others in authority if not in bodily strength (18:1; 2 Th. 1:7; Jude 9)

This angel is Christ:

1 The description of Him in v 1 proves He is Christ. Cp. 1:12-16; Dan. 10:5-6

2 The book open in His hand proves it. In 5:5-7 Christ takes the sealed book out of the right hand of God. In 6:1-8:1 He breaks the seals that bind it. Here the same little book is open so that the contents of the things written within might be revealed (v 2, 8-11)

3 Christ is the one giving John the Revelation (1:1; 10:4, 8-11)

4 His voice as a lion roaring (v 3) identifies Him with the Lion of Judah (5:5). Cp. Isa. 31:4-5; Jer. 25:29-36; Hos. 11:10-11; Joel 3:16; Amos 3:8. In these passages the Lord is spoken of as a lion roaring in the day of the Lord

5 The swearing of the angel (v 6) proves Him to be a divine person, for not one time in Scripture does an ordinary angel make an oath to God or man. In 50 scriptures it is stated that God swore or made oaths. In 31 other passages man swears to God and man. Cp. Dan. 12:7

6 Christ directs John concerning what to write and not to write. Cp. 1:11, 19; 2:1, 8, 12, 18; 3:1, 7, 12, 14; 10:4; 14:13-14; 19:9; 21:5

7 In 11:3 we have definite proof that the angel is Christ, for He says, I will give power unto My two witnesses. This proves Him to be a divine person c What the 7 thunders uttered is a mystery for it is not revealed. Cp. Dt. 29:29 d Gr. chronos, time (v 6; Mt. 2:7, 16; 25:19; Lk. 1:57; 4:5; Jn. 5:6; 14:9; Acts 1:6-7; 3:21; etc.). The idea is that delay in the time of fulfillment of the mystery of God (v 7) will be no longer. It could not mean that time as we know it will come to an end, for time made up of seconds, hours, days, weeks, months, and years will go on forever (Gen. 1:14, 18; 8:22; Ps. 72:5, 17; 89:36-37; Jer. 31:35-36). Time is eternal and we are in eternal time now. In this sense we are now in eternity, for we shall continue to exist forever either in heaven, earth, or hell. That time does not end here is clear from the next verse, which speaks of days continuing after this (v 7). The rest of the revelation mentions many days, years, and times after this delay no longer (11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5; 20:4-7; etc.)

e This refers to the casting out of Satan:

1 It is to be finished during the days of the 7th trumpet (v 7)

2 It has long been delayed (v 6-7)

AND I saw [a]another [b]mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

(2) His cry and the seven thunders speaking

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [c]Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

(3) His oath and the seventh trumpet or third woe announced

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be [d]time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, [e]the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

(4) The little book eaten and its effects (Cp. Ezek. 2:8-3:3)

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the [f]little book which is open in the hand of the [g]angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; [h]and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

(5) The contents of the little book (Cp. Ezek. 2:8-3:3)

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again [i]before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER 11 249

2 The temple of God and Jerusalem taken over by the Antichrist (Dan. 8:9-14, 23-26; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:7, 11; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:1-12; Rev. 13:1-18)

AND there was given me a [a]reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, [b]Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the [c]temple leave out, [d]and measure it not; [e]for it is given unto the Gĕn'tīles: and the holy city shall they [f]tread under foot forty and two months.

3 The two witnesses (11:3-12). (1) Time of their prophecy: during the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (11:2; 12:6, 14; 13:5; Dan. 7:25; 9:27; 12:7, 11-12)

3 And I will give power unto my [g]two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

(2) Their identity (Zech. 4:11-14; Mal. 4:5-6; Gen. 5:24; Heb. 11:5)

4 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

(3) Their power (11:3, 10)

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

(4) Their physical death (Heb. 9:27; 1 Cor. 15:20-23; Rev. 11:9)

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, [h]the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is [i]called Sŏd'om and Ĕ'gўpt, where also our Lord was crucified.

(5) Triumph over their death by their enemies (v 7)

9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets [j]tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

a A measuring reed was about 12 1/2 ft. long. Cp. 21:15-16. It was like a rod or sceptre as in 2:27; 12:5; 19:15

b This is measuring for chastening, not building, as in 2 Sam. 7:14; Ps. 2:9; 89:32; Isa. 11:4; Lam. 2:8; Ezek. 20:37; 1 Cor. 4:21 c 5 temples in history and prophecy:

1 Solomon's temple (1 Kl. 5-8)

2 Zerubbabel's temple (Hag. 1-2; Ezra 3:4-13; 6:1-22)

3 Herod's temple (Jn. 2:19-20; Mt. 24)

4 The future Jewish temple in the days of Antichrist (Dan. 9:27; 11:45; 12:7; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 11:1-2)

5 The millennial temple (Ezek. 40-48; Zech. 6:12-13. See Ezek. 45:7)

d The court here refers to the court of the Gentiles. It is not to be measured and given over to them, for it is already their part. The rest of the temple and Jerusalem, will be taken over by Antichrist for 42 months (v 2; 13:1-18; 2 Th. 2:2-4; Dan. 11:40-45; 12:7; Mt. 24:15)

e 5 things proved by this prophecy:

1 The times of the Gentiles did not end in 1843-44, 1914-18, 1924, 1927, 1936, 1942, 1948, 1954, or any other date set by man thus far

2 The times of the Gentiles cannot end until the end of the 42 months of v 2-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5 (19:11-21; Lk. 21:24; Zech. 14; Rom. 11:25-29)

3 The Jews must become victor over the Arabs again in order to get control of Jerusalem so that it can be given back into the hands of the Gentiles for the 42 months (v 1-2)

4 The Jews will have to be defeated by the Antichrist before he can take over the city for the 42 months (v 1-2; Dan. 11:40-45; 2 Th. 2:2-4)

5 The Jews will become victor over the Antichrist and the Gentiles at the end of the 42 months and will then have control of Jerusalem forever (v 1-2; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21)

f Gr. pateo, tread, walk on. Used here: 14:20; 19:15; Lk. 10:19; 21:24

g See 18 facts identifying the 2 witnesses, p. 306

h See 7 headed beast, p. 310

i Jerusalem is so-called because of becoming the headquarters of sodomites (homosexuals, Isa. 1:9-10; Ezek. 16:46, 53) and whoredoms (sex and religious perversions, Ezek. 23:3, 8, 19, 27) during the last 3 1/2 years the Gentiles control the city (v 1-2). This indicates that sex and religious perversions will be predominent sins ending this age (Mt. 24:37-39; Lk. 17:26-30)

j This indicates the reason for the long war of the last 3 1/2 years against the two witnesses

→ Cont. from column 1

3 It will be no longer delayed (v 7)

4 The casting out of Satan has been predicted since Adam's day (v 7; 12:7-12; Gen. 3:15; Isa. 24:21; 25:7; 27:1)

5 It is one of the 3 woes announced by the angel in 8:13 (12:12)

6 The casting out of Satan is the only event of the 7th trumpet that is necessary before the kingdoms of this world can become those of God and Christ, as announced in 11:15. It is the only event that fulfills the details above

f See p. 299 for proof that this little book is the same as the one in Rev. 5 g This coming of Christ to stand upon the earth and sea does not prove His formal possession of the earth at this time. This will not take place until 3 1/2 years later (19:11-21; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14)

h This is a Hebraism for receiving knowledge. Truth is always sweet when it is received by revelation from God, but it becomes bitter when the contents are noted to be woes upon the people of the prophet. Such is the case in connection with Israel under the 7th trumpet and through the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week when the great tribulation or Jacob's trouble begins (Rev. 12; Mt. 24:15-21; Jer. 30:4-7)

i Gr. epi, against, of, or concerning. The verse literally reads, "Thou must prophecy again (yet, further) as to (concerning) many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings." This is what John did in the rest of the Revelation, beginning with the 7th trumpet to the second advent (11:15-19:21)

a Gr. pneuma zoes, spirit of lives
b The spirit of life in one makes the body live, but when the spirit leaves the body it dies (Jas. 2:26). This proves the two distinct natures of man - the material and spiritual natures (6:9-11; Gen. 2:7; Pr. 20:27; Job 14:22; 32:8; Zech. 12:1; Mt. 10:28; 26:38-41; 1 Cor. 2:11; 6:20; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; 1 Th. 5:23; Heb. 4:12; 12:23). See 21 facts about the material and spiritual natures of man, A-U, p. 619 of O. T.

c The same words spoken to John (4:1). The translation of the two witnesses completes the first resurrection - the resurrection of all the righteous dead before the Millennium. It is the 5th translation or rapture (note f, 1 Cor. 15:23) d The same hour the two witnesses are translated at the end of Daniel's 70th week. Cp. Rev. 16:17-21

e No doubt the same great earthquake of the 7th vial (16:17-21) f The same number reserved to God in Elijah's former days on earth are killed the hour Elijah and Enoch are translated. Cp. Rom. 11:4; 1 Ki. 19:18

g This refers to the woe of 9:12-21 and is mentioned here to introduce the 3rd and last great woe upon men, announced by the angel in 8:13. The 3rd woe is not the earthquake of v 13, but the casting out of Satan under the 7th trumpet (12:12)

h The 7th trumpet covers a period of time (10:7) and includes all the 12 great events of 11:15-13:18:
1 The announcement (11:15)
2 6 statements of the elders (11:16-18)
3 Opening of the heavenly temple (11:19)
4 Travail of sun-clothed woman (12:1-2)
5 Dragon's attack on manchild (12:3-6
6 Rapture of the manchild (12:5) 4)
7 Flight of the woman (12:6, 14)
8 War in heaven - Satan cast out (12:7-12)
9 Dragon's attack on the woman (12:13-16)
10 Dragon's attack on the remnant (12:17)
11 Rise of beast out of the sea (13:1-10)
12 Rise of beast out of earth (13:11-18)
The 7th trumpet blows in the middle of Daniel's 70th week, for there is a period of 42 months (11:2; 13:5), 1260 days (11:3; 12:6), or 3 1/2 years from this trumpet to the second advent (12:14; Dan. 7:25; 9:27; 12:7). If the 7th trumpet sounds at this point, then the first 6 trumpets blow before this and the 7 seals are fulfilled before the trumpets. Therefore, the 7 seals and first 6 trumpets will be fulfilled in the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (6:1-9:21)

i This announcement is made here, but the actual fulfillment will not come until 3 1/2 years later (19:11-21). The casting out of Satan from heaven under the 7th trumpet makes it possible for God to take over the governments of this world at the time He has planned to do so - at the second advent (19:11-21)

j Another clear reference to two distinct persons in the Godhead (see p. 280) k Christ will reign forever over the kingdoms of this world after He comes (v 15; 22:4-5; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; 2 Sam. 7)
l Cp. 4:4, 10, 14; 14:3; 19:4

m 6 statements of the elders (v 17-18):
1 Thanks to God for using His power
2 The nations are angry
3 The time of God's wrath is come (6:17)
4 The time to judge the dead (the saints, 1 Cor. 3:11-15, notes)
5 The time to give rewards to saints (Mt. 16:27; 1 Cor. 3:11-15, notes)
6 The time to destroy earth destroyers (Mt. 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10)

n The ark after which Moses patterned his ark of the covenant (Heb. 8:5; 9:23)

(6) Their triumph over death
Cp. Col. 2:14-17

11 And after three days and an half the [a]Spirit of life from God [b]entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, [c]Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

4 The great earthquake which is the same as under the seventh vial (Rev. 16:17-21; 18:1-24)

13 And the [d]same hour was there a [e]great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men [f]seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

5 The third woe announced
(Cp. 8:13; 9:12; 12:12)

14 [g]The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

(14) THE SEVENTH TRUMPET: the third woe on men - casting out Satan from heaven and other events of 11:15-13:18. A Announcement by great voices in heaven

▶15 And the [h]seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, [i]The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our [j]Lord, and of his Christ; [k]and he shall reign for ever and ever.

B Announcement by the twenty-four elders (1:4, refs.)

16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, [l]fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,
17 Saying, [m]We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.
18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

C The heavenly temple opened again (4:1, refs.)

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple [n]the ark of his testament; and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

D The sun-clothed woman: national Israel (Gen. 37:9-11; Isa. 54:5-10; Jer. 3:1-14; Hos. 2:14-23; 3:4-5)

AND there appeared a great [a]wonder [b]in heaven; [c]a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

E The travail of Israel (Isa. 66:7-8; Jer. 30:1-11; Dan. 7:23-27; 8:9-14, 23-26; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:1, 7; Mic. 5:3; Zech. 12:10-14:21; Rom. 11:25-27; Mt. 24:15-22)

2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

F The great red dragon: Satan (12:9; 13:2; 16:13-16; 20:1-10)

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red [d]dragon, [e]having seven heads and [f]ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

G Satan's war on the manchild

4 And his tail drew the [g]third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon [h]stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

H The manchild: the 144,000 Jews sealed to go through the trumpet judgments (7:1-8; 9:4) - taken up to escape the tribulation on Israel when Antichrist breaks his seven years' covenant with them and enters Palestine (Dan. 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:1; Isa. 66:7-8; Mt. 24:15-22) - seen in heaven before God in Rev. 14:1-5

5 And she brought forth [i]a man child, who was [j]to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was [k]caught up unto God, and to his throne.

I Israel flees into the wilderness of Edom and Moab which escape the Antichrist (v 14; Isa. 16:1-5; 26:20-21; 63:1-6; Ps. 60:6-12; Ezek. 20:33-44; Dan. 11:40-45; Hos. 2:14-23; Mt. 24:15-22)

6 And the woman fled into the [l]wilderness, where she hath a place [m]prepared of God, that [n]they should feed her there [o]a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

J War in heaven: Satan cast out when the manchild is caught up (Dan. 11:45-12:1; Isa. 24:21-22; 25:7-8; 27:1)

7 And there was [p]war in heav-

a Gr. semeion, sign (note y, Jn. 2:11)
b Symbol seen in heaven, but the thing symbolized is on earth (v 6, 13, 15-16)

c 10 proofs the woman a symbol of Israel:
By the term Israel we mean national Israel, or Israel as a nation, not as scattered among the nations. Israel now has been a nation since 1948. Many Jews will continue in all lands until they are completely gathered at the second advent (Mt. 24:29-31; Isa. 11:11-12; Ezek. 37). See The sun-clothed woman, p. 307 for 10 proofs that she is a symbol of national Israel

d Used 13 times in Revelation as a symbol of Satan (12:3-17; 13:2-4, 11; 16:13; 20:2, Cp. Ps. 91:13; Isa. 27:1; Job 41)

e Symbols of the 7 world empires that precede the kingdom of Antichrist, which is the 8th (see p. 310, 311)

f His 10 horns are not crowned, while those on the beast are (Rev. 13:1), symbolizing his power over the 10 kingdoms will be given to the beast. His 7 heads are crowned (v 3), symbolizing his rule over the 7 kingdoms preceding the Antichrist kingdom. The 7 heads on the beast are not crowned (13:1), meaning that the Antichrist has not ruled the 7 kingdoms preceding his, the 8th kingdom (17:8-11)

g Symbolic of the third of God's angels that rebelled with Lucifer and showing how many will be with him in the future war in heaven under the 7th trumpet (v 4, 7-12)

h This is the dragon's first purpose - to destroy the manchild as soon as it is born. He fails in this because God takes the manchild to heaven (v 5)

i See The man-child p. 307 for 15 proofs that the 144,000 Jews are symbolized by the man-child j The manchild, or the 144,000, are to rule the nations with a rod of iron, as will Christ (Ps. 2; Rev. 19:15), the O. T. saints (Jer. 30:9; Ezek. 34:24; 37:24-25; Dan. 7:18, 27; Hos. 3:5; Mt. 8:11-12), the church saints (Mt. 19:28; Rom. 8:17; 1 Cor. 4:8; 6:2; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 1:5-6; 2:26-27; 5:10; 22:4-5), and the tribulation saints (Rev. 20:4-6). This honor have all the saints (Ps. 149:6-9)

k The manchild, or 144,000, will be caught up (12:5; 14:1-5), as will all the dead and living in Christ (note r, Rev. 4:1; 1 Th. 4:16), the future tribulation saints (Rev. 6:9-11; 7:9-17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6), and the two witnesses (Rev. 11:12). See 5 raptures, p. 175

l See point 10, p. 307, col. 1 m Edom, Moab, and Ammon escape the Antichrist and make the place of refuge for Israel in the tribulation (see point 10, p. 307, col. 1)
n The Arabs of modern Jordan and Arabia

o This is the number of days the woman flees into the wilderness and the manchild, or the 144,000, are in heaven before the second advent of Christ (11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5; Dan. 7:25; 12:7) p This war in heaven will be the last actual struggle between Satan and God over the possession of the heavenlies where Satan reigns (Eph. 2:2; 6:12). Satan still has access to God's heaven to accuse the brethren, but from the time of this casting out he will never again enter heaven (Job 1:6; 2:1; Rev. 12:7-12; Zech. 3:6) 5 facts about the war in heaven:

1 The fact: there will be a war (v 7)
2 The time in the middle of Daniel's 70th week (v 6-14; 13:1-5)
3 The place: in the heavenlies (v 7; Eph. 2:2; 6:12)
4 The combatants (v 7)
5 The result (v 8-12)

The war predicted here could not be the same as the one in heaven (Isa. 14:12-14; Lk. 10:18). That was in the dateless past before the 6 days' work of Gen. 1:3-2:25. This war is yet future, for all events of Rev. 4:1-22:5 must be after the churches (Rev. 4:1, note). The only truth we find here in connection with the original war in heaven is that revealing how many angels originally fell with Lucifer (12:4) a Dan. 10:13, 21; 12:1; Jude 9 b Angels fight by bodily contact in the same way that men do. They are capable of operation in the material and earthly realm. After all, heaven and other planets are of material substance like the earth. Angels have done and can do all things that men can do, plus some things men cannot do before becoming resurrected, immortalized, and being given glorified bodies like Christ who can appear and disappear, going through material substance (note k, Jn. 21:14). Angels are capable of being captured and confined by chains and prisons like men (Dan. 10:13-21; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; Rev. 9:11, 14; 20:1-10). Here one army of angels is going to defeat and cast down another army of angels to the earth and confine them there (Rev. 12:7-12). All fallen ones will be confined to hell forever (Mt. 24:41; Rev. 20:10). See Angels in Index c Gr. Ischuo, Trans. prevail (v 8; Acts 19:16, 20) be able (Lk. 13:24; 14:29-30; Jn. 21:6; Acts 6:10; 15:10) be of strength (Heb. 9:17) avail (Gal. 5:6; 6:15; Jas. 5:16); and several other ways

f 10 things constituting the 3rd woe:
1 Great tribulation such as never was or will be again (Mt. 24:15-22; Dan. 12:1; Rev. 7:9-17; 11:15-19:21)
2 War on Israel (12:13-15; Dan. 8:24; 11:40-45; 12:1; Mt. 24:15-22)
3 War on the remnant (12:17)
4 Forced worship of Satan and Antichrist (13:4-18; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)
5 War on Christians (12:11; 7:9-17; 13:7-10; 14:13; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)
6 Deceptions by miracles (13:13-17; 16:13-16; 19:20; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Mt. 24:24)
7 Physical brands on men enforced by law and the death penalty (13:16-18; 14:9-11)
8 Forced denial of God, Christ, and the Holy Spirit (13:1-5; 14:9-11)
9 World wars (Dan. 11:40-45)
10 Mobilization of all nations to Armageddon where they will be killed by the millions (14:17-20; 16:13-16; 19:19-21; Ezek. 39:2; Joel 3; Zech. 14)
g When he sees that he has failed to destroy the 144,000 or the manchild, he will turn on the woman or Israel who has produced the manchild (v 13)

i Symbolizes the armies of the Antichrist pursuing defeated Israel (v 15; Dan. 9:26-27; 11:21-26; Jer. 46:7-8)
j The earth will open its mouth and swallow the armies of the Antichrist, like it did Korah and his company (Num. 16:29-35) k The remnant of Israel who do not flee from Judea into the wilderness when the main body of the nation does (see point 10, p. 307, col. 1). The word remnant is never used of the church or Gentiles (Isa. 1:9, refs.)
l They are not saved when the 144,000 are translated as the manchild before this war on Israel (12:5; 14:1-5). Every one whose name is in the book of life in Israel will go at that time (7:1-3; 14:1-5; Dan. 12:1). These will have turned to God and believed on Jesus Christ after seeing the 144,000 Jewish Christians missing all of a sudden from the earth
m This means the spirit of prophecy, proving that the remnant who turn to God and believe on Jesus Christ receive the Holy Spirit (Rev. 19:10). The Holy Spirit will not be taken from the world at any time (Jn. 14:16; Acts 2:16-21; Zech. 12:10-13:1; etc.)

K Announcement of the third woe (8:13; 9:12; 11:14; 12:7-9)

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [e]Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great [f]wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

L Persecution and flight of Israel for 3 1/2 years (v 6, refs.)

13 And when the dragon [g]saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might [h]fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

M Destruction of Satan and Antichrist's armies pursuing Israel (Jer. 46:7-8; 47:2-3; Dan. 9:26-27; Cp. Num. 16:28-33)

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a [i]flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and [j]swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

O The rise of the Antichrist to power over ten kingdoms inside the Old Roman Empire (17:8-17; Dan. 7:23-24)

AND [a]I stood upon the sand of the [b]sea, and saw a [c]beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

P The Antichrist kingdom: revived Grecia, the eighth kingdom (17:8-11), following the seventh or the ten kingdoms of Rome (Dan. 7:8, 23-24; 8:20-26; 11:40-45; Zech. 9:17; Rev. 17:8-17)

2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his [d]power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

Q Source of Antichrist's power (Dan. 8:21; 11:36-39; 2 Th. 2:8-12)

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, [e]Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

R His blasphemy and length of his reign (Dan. 7:8, 11, 20-25; 11:36-45; 12:7; Rev. 11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 17:8-17)

5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, [f]and them that dwell in heaven.

S His war on the saints (v 15-16; 15:2-4; 20:4; Dan. 7:21; 8:24; 11:35-45; 12:1, 7; Mt. 24:15-22)

7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over [g]all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

T Extent of his reign: limited to ten kingdoms inside the Roman Empire (v 1-5; 17:8-17; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:8, 23-24; 11:40-45; Zech. 14:1-21; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 14:9-11; 16:13-16)

b The Mediterranean Sea, because the nations under Antichrist surround it on 3 sides. Sea represents peoples in symbolic passages (v 1; 17:1, 15; Dan. 7:2-3, 17)
c 20 facts about the 1st beast of Rev. 13:
1 He will be a man (v 18)
2 He will rise out of the sea of humanity (v 1; Dan. 7:24; 9:27; 11:36-45)
3 He will become ruler of the territory of the 7 kingdoms symbolized by the 7 heads (v 1; 17:8-17, notes)
4 He will become ruler of the 10 kingdoms that are yet to be formed inside the old Roman Empire territory (v 1; 17:8-17; Dan. 7:23-24)
5 He will be a blasphemer (v 1, 5; 17:3)
6 He will revive the old Grecian Empire. The beast is like a leopard, which, in the book of Daniel, symbolizes the Grecian Empire (Dan. 7:6; 8:20-23, notes; Rev. 17:8-17, notes)
7 He will also have characteristics of Medo-Persia (the bear, v 3; Dan. 7:5, note) and Babylon (the lion, v 3; Dan. 7:4, note)
8 He will receive his power, throne, and great authority from Satan (v 2; 16:13-16; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Dan. 8:24-25; 11:38-39)
9 He will not be assassinated and resurrected from the dead, as taught by some. It is one of the heads on the beast that is wounded to death and is healed, not the beast itself (v 3). Therefore, all the theories of Antichrist being a resurrected man, a reincarnation of some historic man, an incarnation of the devil, etc. are false (see p. 310)
10 He will have all the world wondering after him (v 2-4, 8-18)
11 He will be an object of worship (v 4, 14-18; 14:9-11; 15:2; 16:2; 20:4-6)
12 He will be a supernaturally gifted orator (v 5-6; Dan. 7:8, 11, 20, 25; 8:23; 11:36)
13 He will be given power and success for 42 months (v 4; 11:1-3; 12:6, 14; Dan. 7:25; 12:7)
14 He will defy God and claim to be God himself (v 6; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Dan. 7:25; 8:25; 11:36-39)
15 He will make war on the Jews and Christians and multitudes will be killed by him (v 7, 15; 7:9-17; 14:13; 15:2-4; 20:4-6; Dan. 7:21; 8:23-25)
16 He will be given power over all nations inside the 10 kingdoms of the old Roman Empire territory (v 7; Dan. 7:23-24; 8:23-25; 11:36-45)
17 He will be worshipped as God (v 8, 14-18; 14:9-11; 20:4-6)
18 He will have a religious leader in the false prophet of 13:11-17; 16:13-16; 19:20; 20:10
19 He will permit image worship of himself (v 14-17; 14:9; 15:2; 20:4-6)
20 He will cause the mark or emblem of his kingdom, or his name, or the number of his name to be branded upon the right hand or forehead of his followers (v 16-18; 14:9-11; 15:2; 16:2; 20:4-6) d 20fold power of Antichrist: power to 1 Blaspheme God (v 5-6; Dan. 7:8-25; 11:36)
2 Overcome saints (v 7; 7:9-17; 20:4)
3 Overcome Jews (12:13-17; Dan. 7:21)
4 Conquer many nations (v 7; Dan. 7:8, 23-24; 11:40-45; Ezek. 38-39)
5 Destroy mystical Babylon (17:12-6 Kill the two witnesses (11:7-12) 17)
7 Change times and laws (Dan. 7:25)
8 Understand mysteries (Dan. 8:23)
9 Do as he will for a period (Dan. 11:36; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 13)
10 Perform miracles (13:1-18; 19:20; Dan. 8:24; 2 Th. 2:8-12)
11 Cause craft to prosper (Dan. 8:25)
12 Control money and commerce (Dan. 11:38-43; Rev. 13:17; 18:1-24)
13 Cause great deceptions (13:13-18; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Jn. 5:43; Dan. 8:25)
14 Control religion (13:1-18; 14:9-11; 15:2; 16:2; 20:4-6; Dan. 11:36)
15 Control all lives in his realm (13:16 Control kings (13:7; 17:12-17) 15) world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.
10 [a]He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

U The false prophet: another man who will be the religious leader of the Antichrist (16:13-16; 19:20; 20:10)

11 And I beheld [b]another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.
12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.
13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

V The image of the Antichrist (14:9-11; 19:20; 20:4; Dan. 9:27; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:4)

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.
15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

W The three brands upon worshippers of Antichrist (14:9-11; 15:2-4; 20:4)

16 And he causeth [c]all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:
17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had [d]the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

X The beast and his number explained (17:8-17; Dan. 7:11, 23-27; 9:9-14; 23-25; 9:26-27; 11:35-45; 2 Th. 2:1-12)

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

252 CHAPTER 14

PARENTHETICAL (14:1-16:1). 1 The manchild or the 144,000 in heaven before God (12:5, refs.)

[e]AND I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the [f]mount Si'ŏn, and with him an hundred forty and four [g]thousand, having his [h]Father's name written in their foreheads.
2 And I heard [i]a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of [d]harpers harping with their harps:
3 And they sung as it were a [j]new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which [g]were redeemed from the earth.
4 These are they which [k]were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they [l]which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the [m]firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.
5 And [n]in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

2 The first angel preaches the gospel, warning men not to believe in Antichrist or take his mark

6 And I saw another [o]angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,
●7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

3 The second angel preaches the fall of Babylon (16:17-21; 18:1-24)

8 And there followed another angel, saying, Bȧb'ў-lon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

4 The third angel preaches the doom of the beast worshippers (Isa. 66:22-24; Mt. 25:41, 46; 19:20-20:10-15; 21:8)

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,
10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his [p]indignation; [q]and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the [r]presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:
11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

a Some MSS read "He that is destined to captivity will go into captivity: he that is destined to the sword will be killed by the sword"

b 16 facts about the 2nd beast of Rev. 13:
1 He also will be a man. The Gr. allos, means another of the same kind. The first beast is a man (v 18), so the second one must also be a man (v 11; 16:13; 19:20; 20:10). Personal pronouns are used of them, indicating they are persons
2 He will come out of the earth (v 11), which is the same as coming out of the sea. Cp. Dan. 7:3 with Dan. 7:17. There is no indication that he will be from the underworld of departed spirits, or that he will be a man resurrected from the dead. Both beasts symbolize two natural men who will be born in these last days, will fulfill prophecy and die at Armageddon (19:20; Dan. 7:11; Isa. 11:4; 2 Th. 2:8)
3 He will come after the first beast and will be his prophet (v 12; 16:13; 19:20; 20:10)
4 He will come with a lamb-like appearance to deceive, but will speak like the dragon (v 12)
5 He will exercise all the power of the first beast or Antichrist before him (v 2, 12; 19:20; 2 Th. 2:8-12)
6 He will cause men on earth to worship the first beast (v 12; 17:8-11, notes)
7 He will do great miracles, even to calling fire from heaven before men, counterfeiting God and His works (v 13; 19:20. Cp. Num. 11:1-3; 26:10)
8 He will deceive men by the miracles he will do in the sight of the first beast (v 14; 19:20)
9 He will cause men to make an image of the first beast to be worshipped (v 14; 14:9-11; 15:2; 16:2; 20:4-6)
10 He will have power to give life to the image causing it to speak and do personal acts (v 15. Cp. Ex. 7:10-12)
11 He will cause the image to demand the death penalty for all who will not worship the Antichrist (v 15; 7:9-17; 15:2; 20:4-6)
12 He will cause men in the kingdom of Antichrist to take a mark, or the name of the Antichrist, or the number of his name in the right hand or in the forehead (v 16; 14:9-11; 15:2; 16:2; 20:4-6)
13 He will make a law that no man might buy or sell if he does not take one of the 3 brands (v 17)
14 He will be equal to the first beast in sending demon spirits, working through ambassadors, to gather the nations to Armageddon (16:13-16; 19:19-21)
15 He will be taken with the Antichrist at Armageddon and be cast alive in the lake of fire (19:20)
16 He will still be in the lake of fire in conscious torment one thousand years later (20:10)

e Rev. 14 is the 5th parenthetical passage of the book. It contains 7 parenthetical statements
1 The 144,000 (or the manchild) in heaven (14:1-5)
2 The 1st messenger angel: the everlasting gospel preached to all nations (14:6-7)
3 The 2nd messenger angel: the announcement of the fall of Babylon (14:8)
4 The 3rd messenger angel: the announcement of the doom of beast worshippers (14:9-11)
5 The blessed dead (14:13)
6 Harvest: Armageddon (14:14-20)
7 Vintage: Armageddon (14:17-20)

f This Mt. Sion is the heavenly one:
1 This scene is heavenly (14:1-5)
2 The manchild or the 144,000 will have been taken to heaven (12:5)
3 Earthly Mt. Zion is not mentioned in Revelation
4 The Lamb is never pictured on earth in Revelation (note c, 5:6)
5 All raptured people go to the heavenly Mt. Sion (Heb. 11:10, 13-16; Jn. 14:1-3; Rev. 21-22)
6 That there is an heavenly Mt. Sion is clear from Rom. 11:26; Heb. 12:22-23
7 Christ will come out of Sion to earth at His second advent (Rom. 11:26)

a The same company sealed in 7:1-8, protected through the trumpet judgments (7:1-3; 9:4), and caught up as the manchild (12:5). Here they are in heaven singing and playing harps before the throne, before the 4 zoa or living creatures, and before the 24 elders, having been redeemed from the earth and from among men, being firstfruits from Israel to God after the rapture of the church (v 1-5)

b This is the seal of the living God of 7:1-3. It is the name of the Father written on the foreheads, not the keeping of Saturday as the sabbath as some teach. Cp. 3:12; 22:4. See Sabbath in Index

c This is the voice of the 144,000 singing their song, being accompanied by 144,000 harps which they play. The sound is compared to many waters and great thunder, like the voice of the redeemed at the marriage of the Lamb (19:6) d All redeemed will play harps and sing (v 2; 5:8; 15:2). If they are to do this in heaven surely the playing of instruments should be acceptable in church

e See The 144,000 and their new song, p. 297, col. 1

f The only song where the words or the theme is not given. A new song by a new people of a new theme

g By this time they were redeemed from the earth, being no longer on earth

h If this statement were taken literally, it would prove that they are all men, but the next statement, if taken literally, would prove that they are all women - virgins. Obviously, the idea is to picture their purity of character. They are saved men and women who have not polluted themselves with the idolatrous and immoral religious system of the great whore of Rev. 17. See Paul's similar comparison, 2 Cor. 11:2

i They are resurrected and glorified like Christ and can go where He can. It could not mean that they are inseparable throughout eternity

j The first Jews saved after the rapture of the saved Jews and Gentiles in the church (note t, Rev. 4:1) k They have no guile in them. They are faultless before God forever, proving that they have been translated as the manchild (12:5)

l 3 messenger angels flying in heaven:
1 The first flies around in the heavens close enough to the earth to be seen and heard of men. He preaches the everlasting gospel to all men on earth during the last 3 1/2 years of this age. This gospel is the same as what we now preach with but one exception. He will be able to announce that the hour of God's judgment is come. We can only announce that it is coming (6-7). All theories that this gospel is a special one given to certain denominations to preach are false. The angel will be a literal one doing what is here stated.
2 The second angel will fly in the heavens announcing the fall of literal Babylon, which will be destroyed under the 7th vial (v 8; 16:17-21; 18:1-24)
3 The third angel will fly in the heavens warning all men in the kingdom of Antichrist that if they do take the mark, the name, or the number of the name of the beast and worship him they will seal their own doom and be punished in eternal hell (v 9-11) m Is it any wonder that God will be so indignant when men will reject His written word, refuse to repent when judgments from heaven are sent upon them (9:20-21; 16:9, 11), reject the preaching of real angels flying in the midst of heaven (14:6-11), and ignore the preaching and miracles done by the two witnesses and multitudes of Christians who will receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the endowment of power to do miracles (Acts 2:16-21; Rev. 11:3-12; 12:17; 19:10)?

n One of many passages teaching eternal torment of the wicked (v 10-11; 20:10-15; 21:8; 22:15; Isa. 66:22-24; Mt. 8:12; 13:39-50; 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:43-49; Lk. 12:5; 16:19-31; p. 422-423)

o Men in the new earth will be able to "look upon the men that have transgressed" and are suffering punishment with the devil and his angels, as an everlasting monument of God's wrath on sin (v 10; Isa. 13:19-22; 34:8-15; 66:22-24, notes)

a These verses are an encouragement to saints who will be killed in the future tribulation (v 12-13; 6:9-11; 7:9-17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)

b 3 characteristics of saints (v 12):
1 Patience in sufferings
2 Keeping the commandments
3 Keeping the faith of Jesus Christ

c This word is used 16 times in the book, proving John was directed to write as he received the Revelation (1:11, 19; 2:1, 8, 12, 18; 3:1, 7, 12, 14; 10:4; 14:13; 19:9; 21:5). Cp. 1:3; 22:18-19

d From the time men begin to die because they will not take the mark of the beast (v 13). It refers to a special blessing to martyrs of the tribulation (6:9-11; 7:9-17; 14:13; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)

e 12 times the Holy Spirit speaks in Rev. (1:10; 2:7, 11, 17, 29; 3:6, 13, 22; 4:2; 17:3; 21:10; 22:17)

f 3 promises in view of faithfulness:
1 Blessed are the martyrs for Christ
2 Rest from their labours
3 Rewards follow them

g 7 kinds of clouds in Scripture:
1 White (v 14)
2 Black (1 Ki. 18:45)
3 Dark (Job 22:13)
4 Bright (Mt. 17:5)
5 Thick (Ex. 19:9)
6 Great (Ezek. 1:4)
7 Swift (Isa. 19:1)

h Ps. 8:4; Dan. 7:13-14; Jn. 1:51, note

i There is a temple in heaven (v 15, 17; 3:12; 7:15; 11:19; 15:5-8; 16:1, 17; Isa. 6:1), so Rev. 21:22-23 must be understood in this light. See note there

j This is symbolic of the battle of Armageddon (v 15-16; Joel 3:12-16, Cp. Rev. 19:21; Mt. 13:30, 39; Isa. 11:4; Jer. 51:33; Hos. 6:11; 2 Th. 2:8)

k The one by which Moses patterned his altar for the tabernacle (v 18; 6:9; 8:3-5; 9:13; 16:7, Cp. Heb. 8:6; 9:23)

l Perhaps over the fire of the altar to minister, as in 8:3-5; 9:13

m This is the second picture of the battle of Armageddon in this chapter (v 18-20; 19:15; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 3:12-16). Blood will flow on this battlefield up to the horses' bridles about 184 miles (v 20). This blood river will come from the veins of multitudes slain in the battle and from the hail, blood and overflowing rain that will fall from heaven on this day (Ezek. 38:21-23)

n About 184 miles

o See note y, Jn. 2:11

p The word seven is used 54 times in Rev.
See 18 kinds of "seven" things, p. 308

q Gr. teleo, to complete; bring to an end. Trans. fill up (v 1); make an end (Mt. 11:1); expire (Rev. 20:7); go over (Mt. 10:23); perform (Lk. 2:39); pay (Mt. 17:24; Rom. 13:6); accomplish (Lk. 12:50; 18:31; 22:37; Jn. 19:28); fulfill (Acts 13:29; Rom. 2:27; Gal. 5:16; Jas. 2:8; Rev. 15:8; 17:17; 20:3); and finish (Mt. 13:53; 19:1; 26:1; Jn. 19:30; 2 Tim. 4:7; Rev. 10:7; 11:7; 20:5)

The 144,000 and their new song (14:3)

Gr. kainos, renewed; fresh; newly introduced. The song will be new to them, Cp. 5:9; 15:3. It is one no man can learn, but the 144,000, implying they have an experience that no other man of any other company has ever had. Songs in Scripture pertain to some special experience. This is true of these in 5:9; 15:2-4. This was true of the singing of Moses, Miriam, and Israel (Ex. 15:1, 20-21); Deborah and Barak (Judg. 5); and of many who composed the psalms of Israel (see titles of the Psalms). This will be true of the songs of Israel in the future tribulation (Isa. 14:4-17); of the tribulation saints (Rev. 15:2-4); and of the saints in Rev. 5:8-10. All will be songs of deliverance. The reason Israel hung their harps upon the willow trees was that they had no deliverance (Ps. 137, Cp. Rev. 18:22)

10 distinctions of the 144,000:
1 Their number is unique (7:4; 14:1)
2 The only company of people protected from martyrdom by the great whore in the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (Rev. 6:9-11; 17:6)
3 First Jews saved after the rapture of the church in Rev. 4:1 (7:3; 14:3-4)
4 The only company sealed by an angel (7:1-8)
5 The only company having the Father's name written visibly on their foreheads while on earth (7:1-3; 14:1)
6 The only company protected from

5 The blessed dead who die at the hands of Antichrist (13:5-10; 15:2-4; 20:4. Cp. 6:9-11)

12 [a]Here is the patience of the [b]saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Je'sus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [c]Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord [d]from henceforth: Yea, saith the [e]Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do [f]follow them.

6 The harvest: Armageddon (Joel 3:13; Mt. 13:3, 38-43, 47-50; 24:29-31; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8-12; Isa. 11:4; 34:1-8; Jer. 51:33; Ezek. 38-39; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21; Jude 14)

14 And I looked, and behold a [g]white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the [h]Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the [i]temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, [j]Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

7 The vintage: Armageddon (Joel 3:13; Isa. 63:1-6; Rev. 19:15. See Rev. 14:14, refs.)

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the [k]altar, which had power [l]over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, [m]Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of [n]a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15 — 253

8 Seven vial angels prepare to pour out the completion of the wrath of God begun in Rev. 6:12

AND I saw another [o]sign in heaven, great and marvellous, [p]seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is [q]filled up the wrath of God.

9 The sea of glass (4:6)

2 [a]And I saw as it were a sea of glass [b]mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, [c]stand on the sea of glass, having the [d]harps of God.

3 And they sing the [e]song of Mo'ses the servant of God, and the [e]song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of [f]saints.

4 [g]Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for [h]all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

10 The heavenly temple again opened (Rev. 4:1, refs.) and the vial angels commissioned to act

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, [i]the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the [j]seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, [k]clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, [l]till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16 — 254

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the [m]vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

(15) THE FIRST VIAL: sores on men (Cp. Ex. 9:8-12)

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; [n]and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

(16) THE SECOND VIAL: sea to blood (Cp. Rev. 8:8-9, refs.)

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; [o]and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

(17) THE THIRD VIAL: rivers to blood (Cp. Ex. 7:19-24)

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; [p]and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, a This is the 6th parenthetical passage in the book. It explains the destiny of the martyrs of Jesus during the tribulation (v 2-4) b Gr. mignumi, mixed, mingled (v 2; 8:7; Mt. 27:34; Lk. 13:1). The idea here seems to be that of the floor of the great throne room of the heavenly temple being made of transparent glass with the appearance of fire or prismatic colors produced by the glory of God. Out of the throne proceed lightnings which would make prismatic colors flash upon the sea of glass like the aurora borealis (northern lights). The glory of God eminating from the light in which He dwells will light the whole city and cause the glittering on the sea of glass (Rev. 21:23; 1 Tim. 6:16)

c All the redeemed will have harps and sing (v 2; 5:8; 14:2) d The song of Moses was one of triumph over Pharaoh and his armies (Ex. 15:1-9. Cp. Dt. 32)

e The song of the Lamb is also one of triumph - victory over Satan and all enemies of God and man (v 3-4. Cp. Col. 2:14-17)

f Some texts read, nations. God is King of Saints and King of Nations

g Question 8, Next, 17:7

h This looks forward to the Millennium (Isa. 2:2-4; Zech. 14:16-21) and the New Earth (Isa. 66:22-24; Rev. 21:24-27; 22:2-5)

i This is the second time the temple in heaven is opened (v 5; 11:19)

j These 7 angels are men, in Rev. 17:1 one of them showed John the mystery of the great whore and the beast that carried her, and in Rev. 21:9 one showed John the Holy City. After seeing these things John fell down at the feet of the angel and was told that he was an ordinary man - one of the prophets (19:9-10; 22:8-9). He is called a man in Rev. 21:17

k See Rev. 19:8

l This indicates that men have access to the temple except on this occasion

m The vials contain the rest of the wrath of God which began in the 6th seal (6:12-17) continuing in the 7 trumpets of the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week. These vial judgments happen in the last 3 1/2 years of the week and are completed at the time of the second advent. Such plagues are predicted upon Israel's enemies in the last days (Dt. 30:1-10; Isa. 51:23). Four similar judgments have been poured out upon Egypt. The very language describing them proves that they are literal plagues and fulfilled in the order in which they are given. How long any one of them lasts is not revealed. They are for the purpose of punishing those who worship the beast and his image and those who take the brands of the beast n Could not this happen literally, as it did in Egypt (Ex. 9:8-12)? It is only to come upon the men who have the mark of the beast and who worship his image (v 2). This proves its limitation to the kingdom of Antichrist inside the old Roman Empire territory. What kind of ulcers is not fully described, but the word sore is used here; v 11; Lk. 16:21

o Could this not happen literally, as it did under the 2nd trumpet (8:8-9)? The sea here perhaps refers to the Mediterranean around which is located the kingdom of Antichrist p Could this not happen literally also, as it did in Egypt (Ex. 7:19-24)?

the trumpet judgments (7:1-3; 9:4; 12:5)
7 The only company composed entirely of living believers who are saved and translated in one generation (7:1-8; 12:5; 14:1-5)
8 The only company of redeemed composed entirely of Israelites (7:1-8; 14:1-5)
9 The only company that will experience seeing the terrible judgments of the trumpets upon others and they themselves be protected (7:1-3; 9:4; 12:5; 14:1-5)
10 The only company of redeemed Jews that will be suddenly delivered by translation from the great tribulation which will come upon Israel in the last 3 1/2 years of this age (7:1-3; 12:6; 14:1-5) a These 3 verses simply praise God for His justice in these plagues (v 5-7) b In the 4th trumpet the planets are partially darkened, but here the heat is increased until it scorches men. One is as easy for God to bring about as the other c This compares with the 9th Egyptian plague (EX. 10:21-22) d The throne of the beast, which will then be located in Jerusalem (Rev. 11:1-2; Dan. 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:7; Mt. 24:15-22; 2 Th. 2:3-4)

e This plague is stated to be upon the kingdom of Antichrist, proving it is limited to the old Roman Empire territory f Men will go into convulsions because of the pains and sores g Could not this be as literal as the drying up of the Red Sea and the Jordan river (Ex. 14:13-22; Josh. 3:4; 2 Kl. 2:8, 14)? The purpose of this is to prepare the way of the kings of the East to come into Palestine to co-operate with Antichrist at Armageddon (16:13-16; 19:19-21; Zech. 14:1-5; Joel 3)

Some teach that this drying up of the river Euphrates is the drying up of the Turkish Empire, but that is far from the truth

7 proofs not the Turkish Empire:

1 Such interpretation destroys the literal meaning
2 If it refers to the Turkish Empire drying up, then all the seals, trumpets, and first 5 vials have already been fulfilled. This is contrary to the fact that all of Rev. 4-22 MUST BE after the rapture (note t, Rev. 4:1)
3 Just because the Turkish Empire has become small is no proof that it is the fulfillment of the 6th vial. There is no relationship between the two in Scripture
4 All other passages about the river Euphrates are literal. It is never used as a symbol in Scripture
5 All the other judgments of the seals, trumpets, and vials are literal
6 No kings of the East have ever come across the dried up Turkish Empire and there is no hint in Scripture of any such thing
7 The drying up of the Red Sea and the river Jordan was literal, so why not this?

h This is the 7th parenthetical passage. It is inserted between the 6th and 7th vials and the events will be fulfilled in the order given. It explains how the kings of the earth, who are not under Antichrist, will be persuaded to co-operate with him at Armageddon (v 13-16). Unclean spirits will inspire ambassadors and do miracles through them to convince the kings of the earth that the success of their future lies in the whole earth co-operating together to stop Christ from taking over the earth at His second advent. They will inspire the nations to fight against Christ, fulfilling Ps. 2. Just as Ahab was allured to battle and destruction by demons in 2 Chr. 18:18-22, so the nations will be led to Armageddon by demons in the vain hope of defeating Christ (16:13-16; 19:11-21)
i This verse gives the source of the powers that will inspire men to fight against Christ at Armageddon (v 13-14)
j Christ again announces His second advent, which He here associates with Armageddon (v 15-16; 19:11-21). See 2nd advent, notes t-w, 2 Th. 1:7-10; Mt. 24 k Gr. harmagedon, mount of Megiddo on the south side of the valley of Megiddo or Esdraelon southwest of Mount Carmel (2 Chr. 35:22; Zech. 12:11). Megiddo was the capital of a portion of Canaan that was given to Joshua (Josh. 12:21; 17:11; Judg. 1:27). It is at the entrance to a pass across the Carmel mountain range, on the main highway between Asia and Africa, and is the key position between Euphrates and the Nile. It has been the battlefield of many peoples throughout the ages. Thothmes III, the founder of the old Egyptian Empire, said, "Megiddo is worth a thousand cities". See notes, Rev. 19:11-21
l See 20 things done under the 7th vial, p. 308

O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, [a]because thou hast judged thus.
6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.
7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

(18) THE FOURTH VIAL: scorching heat from the sun

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; [b]and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.
9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

(19) THE FIFTH VIAL: dense darkness upon Antichrist's kingdom

10 [c]And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the [d]seat of the beast; and [e]his kingdom was full of darkness; and [f]they gnawed their tongues for pain,
11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

(20) THE SIXTH VIAL: the river Euphrates dried up

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Eū-phrā'tēs; and the [g]water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

PARENTHETICAL: three unclean spirits (Cp. 2 Chr. 18:18-22)

13 [h]And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.
14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.
15 Behold, [i]I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.
16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hē'brew tongue [k]Ar-ma-gĕd'-don.

(21) THE SEVENTH VIAL: great earthquake and great hail weighing 114 lbs. each (11:13). Continued in Rev. 18:1-24

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [l]It is done.
18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was [a]great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.
19 And the [b]great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and [c]great Bāb'y-lon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.
20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.
21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of [d]a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

(The seventh vial continued and completed in the detailed destruction of literal Babylon of Rev. 18:1-24)

255 CHAPTER 17

PARENTHETICAL: the great whore and the beast explained (17:1-17). 1 The great whore (17:1-6). (1) Announcement of her judgment

[e]AND there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, [f]Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the [g]great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

(2) Her sins and lovers

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

(3) Her dominion (v 1, 11, 15)

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

(4) Her attire and sins

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

(5) Her name

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BĀB'Y-LON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

(6) Her drunkenness

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jē'sus: and when I saw her, I wondered a The same earthquake as in 11:13; Zech. 14:1-5. Literal Babylon and many cities of the nations will be destroyed (v 19; 16:1-24). This will fulfill 14:8; Isa. 13:19-22; 14:4; Jer. 50-51; etc.

b Jerusalem (v 19; 11:8, 13) c See notes on Rev. 18
d Gr. talantos, about 114 pounds
e This is the 8th parenthetical passage. It breaks the message about the fact of the destruction of literal Babylon (17:1-21) and the description of this destruction (18:1-24), both of which are under the 7th vial. The parenthetical portion is inserted between these two passages to show the contrast between mystical and literal Babylons. It is an allen-passage in subject matter and must be recognized as parenthetical in that it explains the mystery of the great whore and the beast that carries her (17:1-18). The time of the fulfillment is in the middle of Daniel's 70th week as is clear from the fact that the 10 kings give their power to the beast at this time and they turn on the great whore to destroy her so that the beast worship of Rev. 13 may be established (17:8-17)
f The speaker (angel of 1:1) was clearly a redeemed man, for when he had ended showing the Revelation, John fell down before him to worship and was told that he was a prophet and a fellow brother (Cp. 17:1, 7; 19:10; 21:9; 22:8-9)
g See Mystery Babylon, p. 309

Antichrist - white horse rider (6:2)

This is not to be confused with the white horse rider of 19:11-21. This one is symbolical; the other literal. This one represents Antichrist; the other is Christ in person. This one begins a series of terrible events on earth; the one in Rev. 19:11-21 ends these events. Furthermore, this white horse rider is not a symbol of a great revival of the Word of God, as some teach from Hab. 3:8-9, which is in the past tense and refers to God leading Israel out of Egypt. This rider is future and will be the first of 62 post-rapture events of Daniel's 70th week (see p. 306)

7 proofs this rider is Antichrist:
1 An individual is referred to (v 2)
2 He comes on a white horse, imitating Christ and claiming to be Him (v 2; Mt. 24:4-5; Jn. 5:43; Dan. 9:27; 11:37)
3 A bow in symbolic language in connection with man pictures evil designs and conquest (Ps. 7:12; 11:2; 37:14; 46:9; 58:7; Jer. 49:35). Christ is always symbolized as having a sword, not a bow (1:16; 19:15, 21)
4 Scripture makes it clear that Satan is the one who gives Antichrist a crown (Dan. 8:24; 11:38-39; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:2, 4)
5 Antichrist is the only person predicted in Scripture as going forth conquering and to conquer at this particular time, beginning Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 7:7-8, 20-21, 23-24; 8:23-25; 9:27; 11:36-45; Rev. 6:1). It takes him the first 3 1/2 years of the 70th week, or the last 7 years of this age, to get power over the future 10 kingdoms inside the Roman Empire territory. He first overthrows 3 of them (Dan. 7:23-24). Then by the middle of the week the 10 kings submit to him without further war. He then reigns over the 10 kingdoms for 3 1/2 years and fights Christ at Armageddon (Rev. 13:1-5; 17:8-17; 19:11-21)
6 This rider will cause the wars, famines, pestilences, death, and hell of the following 3 seals (6:3-8)
7 If this is not Antichrist, then we do not have him mentioned in Revelation before the middle of the week (Rev. 13). Were that the case, we should have two men going forth to conquer at the beginning of the week - one clearly pictured in Dan. 7:23-24; 8:23-25; 9:27; 11:36-45, and one here. Without these passages in Daniel the sphere of conquest, the number of nations conquered, the identity of the conqueror, his rise to power, and other facts could not be defined. But putting these passages with Rev. 6:1-2; 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 16:13-16; 17:1-17; 19:19-20 we have the complete revelation of the one man. If we do not take the one in Daniel and the one here as being identical, then we can know nothing regarding the identity of the white horse rider a Wonder...Why did you wonder(v 6-7)?

b Question 9. Last question in Revelation c The beast carries her, so she must be something separate from the beast itself. One is political; the other religious d The beast has the 7 heads and 10 horns. He is not any one of the heads or horns. He symbolizes something (v 11), and the heads and horns symbolize something else (v 12-17). To have a true understanding of the beast one must think of him as being different from both the heads and horns
e See 7 headed 10 horned beast, p. 310
f See notes h and i, Rev. 13:8
g The 7 heads are 7 mountains and the 7 mountains are 7 kings or kingdoms coexistent with Israel from her beginning to the 8th kingdom (v 9-11), and together, with the 8th kingdom, making the 8 kingdoms that will have persecuted Israel in the times of the Gentiles (Lk. 21:24; Rom. 11:25)
Here 5 of the 7 kingdoms "are fallen (Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece), and one is (the 6th, the old Roman Empire), and the other is not yet come (the 7th, made up of the 10 kingdoms that are yet to be formed inside the Roman Empire, Dan. 7:23-24); and when he (the 7th, or the Revised Roman Empire) cometh, he must continue a short space" (3 1/2 years, 12:12, 14). The beast "that was (had existed on earth before John's day) and is not (on earth in John's day), even he is the 8th (8th kingdom, succeeding the 7 preceeding kingdoms), and is of the 7 (of one of the 7, the 5th or Greece, that had fallen before John's day and becomes the 8th after the 6th and 7th kingdoms), and goeth into perdition" (v 9-11)
h See 8 mountain kingdoms, p. 311
i See 10 horns, p. 31F, col. 2
j No kingdom in John's day, but will receive kingdoms when the 10 are formed inside the Roman Empire territory in the last days. The kings will rule for 3 1/2 years independent of Antichrist and then give their power to him the last 3 1/2 years of this age (v 10-17; 13:5) k This proves the 10 kings have not yet come. They are not here now but will yet come and fight Christ at Armageddon (v 14; 19:19-21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:23-27; 8:20-25; 11:45; 12:7)

The "little book" of Rev. 5 and 10 (10:8)

1 The language in Rev. 5 and 10 proves it to be the same book
2 The announcement that Christ has prevailed to open the book (5:5), proves that it was to be opened and its contents revealed
3 The seals that bound the little book were broken by Christ in 6:1-8:1. The book is now open so that the things written within can be revealed (v 8-11)
4 If the little book of Rev. 10 is not the same as the one in Rev. 5, then the revelation is not complete, for the things written within have never otherwise been revealed
5 If the little book of Rev. 5 was so all important that no one but Christ could open it or look upon it, surely He would not have revealed the contents of the seals only, leaving the things written within unrevealed
6 Rev. 10:11 is the key to the contents of the book and proves it to be a revelation concerning judgments upon many nations, thus confirming the fact that the things written within are the same in nature as the seals binding the book. Hence, the book in Rev. 5 and 10 must be the same
7 The effect of eating the book is sufficient proof that the things written in it pertain to terrible events (v 9-10) similar to those of the 7 seals binding the book in Rev. 5. The effect upon John was the same as that upon Ezekiel and Jeremiah further proving it was one of judgments (Ezek. 2:3-3:14; Jer. 15:16; 20:7-9)
8 The book is not one of redemption or of title deeds to the earth, for no such books are revealed in Scripture. This would contradict the purpose of Revelation which reveals judgments in all of Rev. 6-19 with [c]great admiration.

2 Promise of an explanation of the whore and the beast

7 And the angel said unto me, [a]Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the [c]beast that carrieth her, which [d]hath the seven heads and ten horns.

3 The beast (17:8-17). (1) The satanic Prince of Grecia out of the abyss (11:7; Dan. 10:12-21) who will revive the Old Grecian Empire (Rev. 13:2, refs.) as the eighth kingdom of Rev. 17:8-11

8 The [c]beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life [e]from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

(2) The seven heads are seven kingdoms that precede the eighth kingdom

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. [g]The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

(3) The beast: the eighth kingdom ruled by the Antichrist (Rev. 13:1-18; Dan. 7:24; 8:23; 9:27; 11:40-45)

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is [h]the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

(4) The ten horns are ten kingdoms inside the Old Roman Empire which make the seventh kingdom (Dan. 7:8, 23-24; Rev. 13:1-3)

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are [i]ten kings, which have received [j]no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

(5) The ten kings will agree to give their kingdom to the Antichrist but continue as kings under him and will fight against Christ at Armageddon (19:19-21; Dan. 8:25)

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.
14 [k]These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

(6) The waters are the many people that make the eighth kingdom (v 1:3; 13:1; Dan. 7:2, 17)

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

(7) The ten kings and the Antichrist turn on the whore in the middle of Daniel's 70th week so the beast can be worshipped the last 3 1/2 years (13:8, 16-18; 14:9-11; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; 20:4)

16 And the [c]ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.
17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

4 The great whore is a city that has a kingdom reigning over the ten kings

18 [b]And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER 18 256

CONTINUATION AND COMPLETION OF THE 7th VIAL of Rev. 16:17-21. The destruction of literal Babylon (18:1-24; 14:8; Isa. 13:6, 9, 19-22; 14:1-27; Jer. 50:13, 19-20, 39-40; 51:5-8, 36-37, 62-64; Zech. 5:6-11). 1 The indictment of literal Babylon

AND [c]after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, [d]Bab'y-lon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is [e]become the [f]habitation of devils, and the [g]hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and [h]hateful bird.

3 [i]For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her [f]delicacies.

2 Verdict on literal Babylon

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [k]Come out of her, my people, [l]that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 [m]Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived delia Here we have the destruction of the great whore, the apostate religious system which dominates the 10 kingdoms while Antichrist is coming to power over them (v 16-17). This happens in the middle of Daniel's 70th week, for this is when the 10 kings give their power to Antichrist (v 17; 13:5)

b See Mystery Babylon, p. 309
c The phrase after these things proves that the events of 18:1-24 happen after those of 17:1-18, which passage is parenthetical and fulfilled 3 1/2 years before the 7th vial and the destruction of literal Babylon, as seen in note a, above. See note t, 4:1; note m, Jn. 5:1
d 16 contrasts between the 2 Babylons:
1 Mystery Babylon of Rev. 17 is symbolic; literal Babylon of Rev. 16:17-21; 18:1-24 is not
2 One is a mystery (17:7); the other is not (16:19; 18:1-24)
3 Everything in Rev. 17 is explained; all is so clear that nothing needs to be explained in 16:19; 18:1-24
4 John wondered at one (17:6), but not at the other (18:1-24)
5 One rides the beast (17:3-7); the other does not (18:1-24)
6 One angel promises to tell John all about mystery Babylon (17:7); several speak of literal Babylon (18:1-20)
7 One is called "the woman", the "great whore", etc.; the other is not 8 Names are written on one (17:5). This is not true of the other
9 Mystery Babylon was something new to John (17:1-7); literal Babylon was not 10 One is not mentioned by the prophets; the other, literal Babylon is mentioned many times.
11 One makes herself rich by duping men (17:4); literal Babylon makes others rich (18:3, 9-19)
12 One is destroyed by man (17:12-17); the other by God (18:5-20)
13 Men rejoice over the destruction of one (17:16-17); they lament the destruction of the other - literal Babylon (18:9-19)
14 God puts it into the hearts of men to destroy one (17:15-17); not the other
15 Men could not destroy mystery Babylon in one hour, as is true of literal Babylon (18:8, 10, 17)
16 30 articles of commerce are mentioned in literal Babylon (18:11-14); none are mentioned in mystery Babylon
7 similarities of the 2 Babylons:
1 Both commit fornication with kings and nations (17:2; 18:3-14)
2 Both shed blood of saints (17:6; 18:24)
3 Both have cups of sin (17:4; 18:6)
4 Both are a city (17:18; 18:10-21)
5 Both are made desolate (17:16; 18:19)
6 Both are called Babylon the great (17:5 with 14:8; 16:19; 18:2)
7 Both are clothed in scarlet and purple and decked with precious stones (17:4; 18:16). See 31 facts about literal Babylon, p. 308 e Babylon will become the chief center of demon operations after the rapture. This is the chief cause of her fall (v 2) f Gr. katoiketerion. Here: Eph. 2:22
g Gr. phulake, a garrison; keep in custody. Trans. hold and cage (v 2); ward (Acts 12:10); imprisonment (2 Cor. 6:5; Heb. 11:36); watch (Mt. 14:25; 24:43; Mk. 6:48; Lk. 2:8; 12:38); and prison (Mt. 5:25; 14:3, 10; 18:30; 25:36-44)
h Demon powers (Mt. 13:4, 19)
i That literal Babylon can cause men to commit spiritual fornication is clear from Jer. 51:7; point 1, p. 309, col. 1 j This indicates a commercial center. Note the 30 articles of commerce (v 11-15) k This call to come out of Babylon my people indicates the voice as that of Christ (v 1, 4, Cp. 1:12-16; 10:1-11; Dan. 7:13-14; 10:5-10). This command is the same as in Jer. 50:4-9; 51:5-8, 45
l The purpose of God's people coming out of Babylon is to be free from partaking of her sins, so that they may not receive of her plagues. This again proves that God's people can sin and partake of the punishments of the wicked (v 4-5) m Backsliders who sin are to be punished like ordinary sinners or God would be unjust and untrue to His Word (v 6; Gal. 6:7-8; Rom. 6:23; 8:12-13; Gal. 5:19-21)

a Here Babylon is personified as a queen and chief of all cities (v 7; Isa. 47:5,7)

b 4 plagues upon Babylon (v 8):
1 Death 3 Famine
2 Mourning 4 Utterly burned with fire

c The suddenness and completeness of the destruction of Babylon are emphasized by this prophecy, proving that the judgment is yet future (v 8, 10, 17, 19-21; Isa. 13:20; Jer. 50:13, 39-40; 51:29-43)

d If there was no other proof of two Babylons this would be sufficient. The kings of the earth will freely destroy mystery Babylon (17:12-17); here they lament the destruction of literal Babylon (v 9-10). Would they destroy something whose destruction they would lament?

e 30 articles of commerce, proving this Babylon to be a great commercial center:

1 Gold	16 Silk
2 Silver	17 Precious stones
3 Pearls	18 Fine linen
4 Purple	19 Thyine wood
5 Scarlet	20 Vessels of ivory
6 Odours	21 Vessels of wood
7 Wine	22 Vessels of brass
8 Oil	23 Vessels of iron
9 Wheat	24 Vessels of marble
10 Beasts	25 Cinnamon
11 Sheep	26 Ointments
12 Horses	27 Frankincense
13 Chariots	28 Dainty things
14 Slaves	29 Goodly things
15 Fruits	30 Fine flour

f Indicating travellers of all kinds and world merchants (Dan. 12:4). Merchants do not get rich through religious systems. Such systems get rich through merchants and offerings of the poor. This proves Babylon to be a literal commercial center, not a religious system as is mystery Babylon of Rev. 17. Antichrist will have control of great riches of the East in the last days (Dan. 8:25; 11:38-43; Rev. 13:17; 19:11-19)

g 3 worlds enriched by Babylon:
1 Governmental world (18:9-10)
2 Commercial world (18:11-16)
3 Maritime world (v 17-19)

God's purpose:
(1) To deliver Israel and end the times of the Gentiles (Isa. 63:1-7; Zech. 14:1-5; Lk. 21:24; Rev. 11:1-2)
(2) Punish the nations for their persecution of Israel (Mt. 25:31-46)
(3) To set up a divine government over the nations of earth (Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-27; Zech. 14; Rev. 11:15)
(4) To re-establish the kingdom of David as promised (2 Sam. 7; Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Acts 15:13-18)
(5) To rid the earth of all rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 20:7-10)
(6) To gather together in one all things in Christ, in heaven and in earth (Eph. 1:10)
(7) Give man one more dispensational test before destroying all rebels and restoring man's dominion as before the curse (20:1-10; 21:1-22:5; Isa. 66:22-24; 2 Pet. 3:10-13)

5 Length of the battle. It will last only one day (Zech. 14:1-7)

6 Results of the battle:
(1) Total defeat of satanic forces under Satan and Antichrist (19:11-20; 3; Isa. 63; Ezek. 38-39; Zech. 14; Joel 3)
(2) All earthly armies destroyed except one-sixth part (Ezek. 39:2)
(3) Armies made the carcases for the fowls and beasts to eat for 7 months (19:17-21; Ezek. 39:4-24; Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:34-37; Job 39:27-30)
(4) The beast and false prophet consigned to the lake of fire forever (19:20; 20:10; Dan. 7:11; 8:25; 11:45; 2 Th. 2:8-9)
(5) Satan, his angels and demons consigned to the abyss for 1,000 years (20:1-7; Isa. 24:22-23; 25:7)
(6) Blood flowing up to the horse's bridles for 184 miles (14:14-20; Ezek. 39:17-24; Isa. 63:1-7)
(7) Israel delivered and vindicated and God's eternal kingdom set up (19:11-20:10; 22:4-5; 11:15; Mt. 25:31-46; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-27; Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33)

ciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: [e]for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her [b]plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who [c]judgeth her.

3 Lamentation over the destruction of literal Babylon:
(1) By the governmental world

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and [d]lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Bȧb'ȳ-lon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

(2) By the commercial world

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The [e]merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

(3) By the maritime world

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and [f]all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, [g]wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

4 Rejoicing over the destruction of literal Babylon

20 [a]Rejoice over her, [b]thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

5 The cause and utter doom of literal Babylon

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with [c]violence shall that great city Bȧb'ȳ-lon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 [d]And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for [e]by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

End of the 21 consecutive events during Daniel's 70th week - the 7 seals, 7 trumpets, and 7 vials (Rev. 6:1-18:24). The parenthetical passages inserted between these 21 events are explanations of other events not contained in the seals, trumpets, and vials, but are fulfilled along with them in the order and time given unless stated to be fulfilled otherwise. See other parenthetical passages: 7:1-17; 8:2-6, 13; 10:1-11:13; 14:1-20; 15:2-4; 16:13-16; 17:1-18

PARENTHETICAL: scenes in heaven just before the second coming of Christ.

1 The voice of much people praising God

[f]AND [b]after these things I heard a great voice of much people [i]in heaven, [g]saying, Al-le-lū'iȧ; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Al-le-lū'iȧ. And her smoke rose up for [k]ever and ever.

2 The voice of the twenty-four elders praising God a 3 times heaven is told to rejoice:

1 When Satan is cast out (12:12)
2 When literal Babylon is destroyed (18:20)
3 When the marriage of the Lamb is come and His wife is ready (19:7)

b Angels are to share with apostles, and prophets in rejoicing because God has taken vengeance on His enemies

c Here we have the violence and suddenness of the destruction of literal Babylon pictured. She is to be cast down and not found any more. This has never been fulfilled for ruins of Babylon still remain and can be found any day. In fact, many remains of Babylon have been used to build Hillah and this is contrary to Jer. 51:26 if there is to be no future destruction of a literal city. After the final destruction not one stone of Babylon will be used to rebuild any city or house. Babylon has been restored several times since Nimrod and each time on a different site but in the same vicinity, so it could be true of the future city d Verses 22-23 emphasize the utter doom of literal Babylon and again confirm the fact of a future and total destruction of a literal place, not a religious system. People still visit the ruins of Babylon, which gradually went into decay and finally became a deserted city. It was never destroyed suddenly by an earthquake in one hour, hence the future fulfillment of 16:17-21; 18:1-24

e 8 causes of the doom of Babylon:
1 Pride (Isa. 13:19; 14:4; Jer. 50:29-34; Rev. 18:7-8)
2 Oppression of Israel (Isa. 13:1; 14:2-22; Jer. 51:24-25; Rev. 18:24)
3 Pleasures, sins, and luxuries (Isa. 47:8-11; Rev. 18:3-19)
4 Idol worship (Jer. 50:2; 51:47; Rev. 9:20-21; 13:14; 14:9-11; 16:2)
5 Fornication (Rev. 14:8; 18:3-9)
6 Spiritism (Rev. 18:2)
7 Sorceries (Isa. 47:12-13; Rev. 18:23)
8 Martyrdom of saints (Rev. 18:6, 24)

f This seems to teach that Babylon has been responsible for all murders on earth, as well as the martyrdom of all saints that have ever been slain, but this could not possibly be, for Abel and many other antediluvians were destroyed before Babylon ever existed. Multitudes have been slain outside of Babylon in all generations since her existence. The true meaning is that Babylon will be the final concentration of martyrdoms and reigns of terror making her responsible in the same sense that all the blood from Abel to Zacharias the prophet was to be required of the Pharisees living at the time of Jesus (Mt. 23:35-36). The idea is that of cumulative sins and judgment. God will punish Babylon with destruction and wrath equal to what she would receive if responsible for all that were ever slain upon earth. Her destruction will culminate the wrath of God started under the 6th seal in the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (6:12-17)

g This passage (19:1-10) is the 9th and last parenthetical passage in the book. It is inserted between the revelation of the 7th vial (16:17-21; 18:1-24) and the second advent (19:11-21). It reveals events in heaven just before the second advent

h After receiving the revelation of the destruction of mystery and literal Babylons in Rev. 17-18, John sees the marriage of the Lamb in heaven just before the second advent of Christ to the earth (19:1-21)

i The fact that much people are in heaven here proves they have been caught up in time for the marriage of the Lamb. This contradicts the theory of no rapture of saints to heaven, as well as the theory that the marriage supper of the Lamb will be held in the air after Christ raptures the saints (1 Th. 4:16-17). At the rapture the saints will go immediately to heaven where they will remain during the last 7 years of this age and during the tribulation (Eph. 5:27; Col. 3:4; 1 Th. 3:13; note t, Rev. 4:1; 2 Th. 2:7-8, notes)

a Heavenly worship in v 1-7:
1 Worship of angels and redeemed (v 1-3)
2 Worship of Zoa and 24 elders (v 4)
3 Command for angels and redeemed to worship (v 5)
4 Worship of angels and redeemed (v 6-7)

b All creatures in heaven announce:
1 The Lord God omnipotent reigneth
2 Let us be glad and rejoice. The reasons for rejoicing are: the marriage of the Lamb is come and His wife is ready (v 6-7) c Gr. gamos, marriage feast. Trans. marriage (v 7-9; Mt. 22:3-9; 25:10; Jn. 2:1-2; Heb. 13:4) and wedding (Mt. 22:3-12; Lk. 12:36; 14:8)

d His wife is the New Jerusalem. See The wife of Christ, p. 312

e This explains that His wife is made up of the saints of all ages from Abel to the last one in the first resurrection - those who will go to live in the New Jerusalem (Heb. 11:10-16; 12:22-23; 13:14; Rev. 21:2, 9-10)

f See note c, 14:13

g Many use this to teach that there are various classes of the redeemed: some being the bride part of the redeemed, some the guests, and some the servants; but this is a simple statement showing that all the redeemed are called to the marriage feast of the Lamb. All are inhabitants of the New Jerusalem and not just some of them. Therefore, all are a part of the bride, the Lamb's wife (Rev. 21:2, 9-10)

h The marriage feast of the Lamb is mentioned only in v 7 and 9. All we know about it is revealed here. Some use Ps. 45; Mt. 22; 25:1-13; etc. for additional information on the marriage supper of the Lamb, but there is no definite connection between these scriptures and v 7 and 9. See notes on these scriptures

i This proves that the angel showing John these things was a redeemed man (v 10; 22:8-9)

j The remnant of Israel in 12:17 have the testimony of Jesus, which is the Holy Spirit, proving that He will not be taken from the world as some teach k This is proof that the raptured saints go to heaven after meeting Christ in the air and that the marriage supper is held in heaven and not in the air

→ Cont. from column 4

(9) When the first resurrection has been completed (v 19-20:6)
(10) At the end of Daniel's 70th week (11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5; Dan. 9:27)
(11) At the beginning of the day of the Lord (19:11-20:7; 1 Th. 5:3; 2 Th. 2)
(12) When Antichrist has reigned 42 months (13:5; 19:19-21; 2 Th. 2:8-9)
(13) When the tares and wheat are separated (Mt. 13:40-50; 25:31-46)
(14) In the days when conditions will be as in the days of Noah and Lot (19:11-21; Mt. 24:37-39; Lk. 17:22-37; 1 Tim. 4; 2 Tim. 3:1-13; 4:1-4; 2 Pet. 2)
(15) At the time when Israel is to be finally gathered from all nations (Mt. 24:29-31; Isa. 11:10-12; Ezek. 37)
(16) At the time Satan is bound (19:11-20:7; Isa. 24:22-23; 25:7)
(17) When the two witnesses have finished their ministry (11:3-14)
(18) When Israel has been in the wilderness 3 1/2 years (11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5)
(19) When the seals, trumpets, and vials have all been fulfilled (16:17-21; 19:1-21)
(20) 1,000 years before the New Heavens and New Earth (19:11-20:10; 21:1)

3 Combatants. Armageddon will not be an ordinary battle or series of battles between two sets of earthly nations. It will be one between Christ and His heavenly armies (19:11-14; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Zech. 14:5; Jude 14) and earthly Israel (Zech. 14:14) on one side, and Satan and his angels (12:7-12; 20:1-3), demons (16:13-16), and earthly armies under the Antichrist on the other side (Dan. 2:44-45; 7:19-27; Ezek. 38-39; Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:19-21)

4 Purpose of Armageddon. Satan's purpose will be to stop Christ from taking possession of the earth, thus averting his own impending doom (12:12; 19:19-21; 20:1-10; Zech. 14:1-5)

← Cont. p. 300, Col. 1

(See 4:4, 6, 9; 5:8, 11)

4 And [c]the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, A'mĕn'; Al-le-lū'iă.

3 The voice from the throne commanding praise from all

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

4 The voice of the great multitude in reply (Cp. 5:11-14)

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Al-le-lū'iă: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

5 The marriage of the Lamb and all the redeemed from Abel to the Millennium who live in the New Jerusalem, which is the true bride of Christ (3:12; 20:4-6; 21:2, 9-10; Heb. 11:10, 13-16; 13:14; Jn. 14:1-3)

7 [h]Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and [d]his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: [e]for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are [g]called unto the [h]marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

6 John is again overcome and falls prostrate (1:17; 22:8-9)

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: [i]I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jē'şus: worship God: for [j]the testimony of Jē'şus is the spirit of prophecy.

3 SEVENTH DISPENSATION: Divine Government or Millennium (19:11-20:15). The last of seven dispensations. See other dispensations (Gen. 3:1; 4:1; 8:15; 12:1; Ex. 12:37; Mt. 3:1). (1) The second coming of Christ to rid the earth of all rebellion and restore God's kingdom as before the fall (Gen. 49:10; Num. 24:7-9, 17-19; Isa. 63:1-6; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Zech. 14:1-15; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15)

11 And I saw [k]heaven opened, and behold a [a]white horse; [b]and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture [c]dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

14 And the [d]armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

(2) The Battle of Armageddon: A Symbolized by a wine-press (14:17-20; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 3:13)

15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall [e]rule them with a rod of iron: and he [f]treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

B The Commander-in-chief of the heavenly armies at Armageddon (19:11-14; 1 Th. 1:7; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Isa. 63:1-6; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14:1-5; Jude 14)

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

C Armageddon symbolized by a great supper: the invited guests (Ezek. 39:4, 17-23; Mt. 24:38, 40-42; Lk. 17:34-37)

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto [g]the supper of the great God;

D The supper foretold (Ezek. 38:17-23; Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:34-37; Isa. 34:1-8; Joel 3:13-14; Rev. 14:20)

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

E The supper gathered (14:14-20; 16:13-16; 17:14; Ezek. 38:4-16; Joel 3:2; Zech. 14:1-5; Mt. 24:40-42)

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, [k]gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

F The supper slain and eaten (Isa. 34:1-8; 63:1-6; Ezek. 38:17-23; 39:4, 17-23; Zech. 14:1-15; Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:

b 20 facts about Christ (Rev. 19:11-22:5):
1 He rides a white horse (v 11, 19-21)
2 He comes from heaven (v 11; Zech. 14:4). See 2 Th. 1:7-10, notes
3 He is called Faithful (v 11)
4 He is called True (v 11)
5 He makes war in righteousness (v 11)
6 He judges in righteousness (v 11)
7 His eyes are as flames of fire (v 12)
8 He has many crowns on His head (v 12)
9 His body is clothed with a vesture dipped in blood (v 13)
10 He has three names:
(1) A name that no man knows (v 12)
(2) The Word of God (v 13)
(3) KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS (v 16). Cp. Mt. 1:21; Rev. 5:5
11 He is commander-in-chief of all the armies of heaven (v 14, 19-21. Cp. Jude 14; Zech. 14:5)
12 Out of His mouth goes a sharp sword to smite the nations (v 15, 21. Cp. 1:12-16; 10:1-2; 14:14-20)
13 He will rule the nations with a rod of iron (v 15; Ps. 2. Cp. 2:26-27; 12:5)
14 He will tread the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God (v 15, 21; 14:14-20; Isa. 63:1-7; Joel 3:13)
15 He will conquer Antichrist at Armageddon (v 19-21; 2 Th. 2:8-9; Zech. 14; Joel 3)
16 He will reign on earth 1,000 years to rid the earth of all rebels and put all enemies under His feet (20:1-10; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10)
17 He will, with the Father, be the eternal sanctuary (21:22, note)
18 He will, with the Father, be the eternal light of the New Jerusalem (21:22)
19 He will have a throne on the right hand of God forever (22:1; Heb. 1:3)
20 He will reign eternally on earth after all enemies are put down (22:5; 11:15; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 7:13-14; Lk. 1:32-33)

c Gr. bapto, to dip (v 13; Lk. 16:24; Jn. 13:26). From this word we get the word baptidzo, to baptize (note n, Mt. 3:6) d These armies include all the redeemed and resurrected saints of all ages and all the angels of heaven (v 14; Mt. 24:29-31; 2 Th. 2:7-10; Jude 14-15; Zech. 14:5; Joel 2:1-11)

e Ps. 2; Rev. 2:26-27; 12:5

f Isa. 63:1-7; Rev. 14:14-20; Joel 3:13

g The supper of the great God:
1 The invited guests (v 17; Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:34-37; Ezek. 39:17-21)
2 The supper foretold (v 18; Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:37; Isa. 34:3; Ezek. 39:17)
3 The supper gathered (v 19; 14:14-20; 16:13-16; 17:14; Ezek. 38-39; Zech. 14:2)
4 The supper slain and prepared (v 20-21; 14:14-20; Isa. 34:1-17; 63:1-7; Ezek. 38-39; Joel 3; Zech. 14)
5 The supper eaten (v 21; Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:37; Ezek. 39:17-21)

h The battle of Armageddon:
1 The place (16:13-16; Joel 3; Zech. 14:1-15; Ezek. 38-39)
2 The time (pre-millennial):
(1) When Antichrist conquers Russia, Germany, and other countries north and east of the 10 kingdoms and has mobilized the nations at Armageddon against Jerusalem (v 19-21; Dan. 11:44; Ezek. 38-39; Zech. 14:1-5)
(2) At the second advent to deliver the Jews from Antichrist (v 11-21; Joel 3; Zech. 14:1-5; Isa. 63:1-7; Jude 14; 2 Th. 1:7)
(3) Immediately after the great tribulation (v 11-21; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46)
(4) After the marriage supper of the Lamb (19:1-21)
(5) When Jerusalem is surrounded by the armies of all nations under Antichrist (v 19-21; Zech. 14:1-15)
(6) Just before the Millennium (v 11-21; 20:1-10)
(7) At the end of this age of grace (v 11-21; Mt. 13:40-50; 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Acts 15:13-18)
(8) At the time God sets up His kingdom in the days of the existence of 10 kingdoms inside the Roman Empire territory (11:15; 17:14; 19:11-21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18-27)

a The Antichrist and false prophet will be two mortal men killed at Armageddon (v 20; Dan. 7:11; Isa. 11:4; 2 Th. 2:8-9). Their bodies will be resurrected and cast into eternal hell (v 20; 20:10; Dan. 7:11). They and the goat nations (Mt. 25:41, 46) will be in the 2nd resurrection which, like the 1st resurrection, has several parts and covers a period of time (see col. 3, 880). This will make the first part of the 2nd resurrection before the Millennium. The rest of the dead will complete the 2nd resurrection after the Millennium (Rev. 20)

b 10 ways Antichrist's armies destroyed:
1 By brightness of Christ's coming (2 Th. 2:8)
2 By angels (2 Th. 1:7-10)
3 Saints (19:14; Jude 14; Zech. 14:5)
4 Cloudburst (Ezek. 38:22)
5 Great hailstones (16:21; Ezek. 38:22)
6 Fire and brimstone (Ezek. 38:22)
7 Pestilence and blood (Ezek. 38:22)
8 Jewish army (Zech. 14:14)
9 Self-destruction (Zech. 14:13)
10 Christ's sword (19:15, 21; Isa. 11:4)

f Gr. krateo, to be strong and mighty; to rule; hold sway; to lay hold of; become master of; subdue. Trans. lay hold upon (v 2; Mt. 12:11; 14:3; 26:55-57; Mk. 3:21; 6:17; 12:12; 14:51; Heb. 6:18); lay hands on (Mt. 18:28; 21:46); hold fast (Mt. 26:48; Heb. 4:14; Rev. 2:13, 25; 3:11); obtain (Acts 27:13); take (Mt. 22:6; 26:4, 50; Mk. 14:1, 44-49; Acts 24:6); take by (Mt. 9:25; Mk. 1:31; 5:41; 9:27; Lk. 8:54); hold by (Mt. 28:9); keep (Mk. 9:10); retain (Jn. 20:23); and hold (Mk. 7:3-8; Lk. 24:16; Acts 2:24; 3:11; Col. 2:19; 2 Th. 2:15; Rev. 2:1, 14-15; 7:1). This proves that angels can actually lay hold of the bodies of each other and can be confined to material places in material chains and with doors and locks (v 2; 9:1, 14; 12:7-12; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; Isa. 24:22-23) as well as take hold of bodies of men (Gen. 19:10, 16; 32:24-32)

g Gr. abussos, bottomless: unfathomed: enormous abyss: unbounded: immeasurable depth. Trans. bottomless pit (20:1, 3; 9:1-2, 11; 11:7; 17:8) and deep (Lk. 8:31; Rom. 10:7).

h 6 things an angel will do to Satan (v 2-3):
1 Lay hold on him (note f, above)
2 Bind him with a literal chain
3 Cast him into the abyss
4 Shut him up in prison
5 Set a seal upon him for 1,000 years
6 Loose him for a little season

i Sealed the abyss over him to keep him there so he could not deceive the nations for 1,000 years

j If the little season here is the same as the short time (12:12) and the short space (17:10), it will be only 3 1/2 years (12:12-14; 13:5) k The thrones here are those that saints will have, proving that all saints will rule with Christ in some capacity as kings and priests (1:6; 2:26-27; 3:21; 5:10; 12:5; 20:4-6; 22:4-5; Lk. 22:30; Rom. 8:17; 1 Cor. 6:2-4; 2 Tim. 2:12; Heb. 12:28; Ps. 149:6-9; Dan. 7:18, 27). See 2 classes of eternal people, p. 313

l 6 reasons for their beheading (v 4):
1 For the witness (testimony) of Jesus
2 For the Word of God
3 For not worshipping the beast
4 For not worshipping his image
5 For not taking his mark upon their foreheads
6 For not taking his mark in their hands
They (the tribulation saints) lived (were resurrected) and reigned with Christ 1,000 years (v 4) m The wicked dead who were not blessed and holy and who were not in the first resurrection (v 4-5). This proves 1,000 years between the first and second resurrections, or the resurrection of the righteous and the resurrection of the wicked (v 4-6, 7-15)

n The resurrection of the tribulation saints and the two witnesses (6:9-11; 7:9-17; 11:12; 15:2-4; 20:4-6) complete the first resurrection of all the righteous dead before the 1,000 years (v 5)

o All who have part in the first resurrection are blessed and holy. See The resurrections, p. 880 of O. T.

p The Millennium, p. 311

34-37; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8; Jude 14; Rev. 14:14-20)

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast [a]alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were [b]slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the [c]fowls were filled with their flesh.

258 CHAPTER 20

(3) The expulsion of Satan from the earth (Isa. 24:21-23; 25:7)

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the [d]key of the bottomless pit and a [e]great chain in his hand.

2 And he [f]laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Dĕv'il, and Sā'tan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the [g]bottomless pit, and [h]shut him up, and [i]set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a [j]little season.

(4) The first resurrection completed. The Millennium or thousand year reign of Christ and His saints on earth (5:10; 11:15; Zech. 14:9; Eph. 1:10; Lk. 1:32-33; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Ezek. 45:7; Mt. 13:40-43; 25:31-46; Acts 15:13-18; Rom. 11:25-27; Rev. 1:5; 5:10; 11:15; 20:1-10)

4 [k]And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were [l]beheaded for the witness of Jē'sus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the [m]rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

▸6 [n]Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him [p]a thousand years.

(5) Satan's post-millennial career and doom (Isa. 24:21-22): renovation of the heaven and earth by fire (2 Pet. 3:7-13; Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-28; Rom. 8:21)

7 And when the thousand years are expired, [a]Sā'tan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gŏg and Mā'gŏg, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them.

(6) Satan doomed to the lake of fire forever (Mt. 25:41)

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, [b]where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

(7) The second resurrection (20:4-5; Jn. 5:28-29; Dan. 12:2) and the final judgment: the wicked dead (Acts 17:31; Rom. 2:16) and fallen angels judged (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7). All wicked angels, demons, and men cast to the lake of fire forever (Mt. 5:22-30; 10:28; 13:42-50; 25:30-46; Mk. 9:42-48; Heb. 6:2; 10:26-31; Rev. 14:9-11; 19:20; 20:10-15)

11 And I saw a [c]great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven [d]fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

(End of earth's second sinful career which started in Gen. 3)

259 CHAPTER 21

4 The ages to come: the third and eternal perfect state (21:1-22:5). (1) New Heaven and New Earth (Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24; 2 Pet. 3:13)

AND I saw a [e]new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth [f]were passed away; and there was [g]no more sea.

a Satan's post-Millennial career and doom:
1 When the 1,000 years are up it will be time for the segregation and destruction of all rebels, including Satan, and the renovation of the heavens and the earth by fire, which will result in the New Heaven and New Earth (2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 20:7-10; 21:1-22:5)
2 Satan, his angels and demons will be loosed from the abyss (v 7; Isa. 24:22)
3 Satan and his hosts will go throughout the earth to deceive the nations who have not wanted the reign of Christ and who, in their hearts, have longed for an opportunity to get rid of such strict laws and rigid suppression of their lusts (v 8; Eph. 2:1-3)
4 The rebels will mobilize in the land of Gog and Magog, north of Palestine in Asia and ascend upon Jerusalem from the north (v 8. Cp. Ezek. 38-39 which refers to the same part of the earth, but to an event before the Millennium)
5 The rebels from all parts of the earth will surround the camp of the saints and the capital, Jerusalem (v 9)
6 Fire will come down from God out of heaven and devour every rebel (v 9; 2 Pet. 3:10-13)
7 The devil will be taken and cast into the lake of fire forever (v 10)

b The beast and false prophet were cast into the lake of fire 1,000 years before this (19:20). They are still there after the 1,000 years, proving that hell and eternal torment are realities, if one cannot burn up in 1,000 years he will never do so (Rev. 14:9-11; Mt. 25:46; Isa. 66:22-24)

c 7 Judgments of Scripture, p. 312

d Gr. pheugo, to flee. Trans. flee 28 times (Mt. 2:13; 3:7; 10:23; Jn. 10:5, etc.); and escape (Heb. 11:34; 12:25). That it is used in a figurative sense here and in Rev. 12:6; 16:20 is clear. If it were literal, the heavens and islands would not be in existence at this time, for two times they flee in the tribulation (Rev. 6:14; 16:20). They will never pass out of existence for they are eternal (Ps. 72:8-10, 17; 78:69; 89:36; 97:1-6; 104:5; Eccl. 1:4). The reference is to the shaking of the heavens and the earth as if they were passing away (Ps. 18:7; 60:2; 68:8; Isa. 44:23; 54:10; 55:12; 64:1-3)

e This will be the result of the renovation of the heavens and the earth by fire (2 Pet. 3:10-13, notes). The New Heavens and New Earth are mentioned in v 1; 2 Pet. 3:13; Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24

f Gr. parerchomai, pass from one condition to another (note p, 2 Pet. 3:10)

g The large oceans covering about 3/4 of the earth will be no more, but there will be an abundance of rivers, lakes, and small seas on earth forever (Ps. 72:8-17; 97:1-6; 146:6; Isa. 42:10; 60:5; 66:19; Ezek. 47; Zech. 14:8; Jer. 5:22; 31:35; 33:22; etc.)

10 points of similarity in the letters (1:20)

1 In nearly all of the letters there is a reference to one or more of the details of the description of Christ in 1:12-16
2 Each is addressed to the pastor
3 Each church is commended for its works except the last one
4 Each church is rebuked except the second and the sixth
5 Each church is commanded to repent except the second, fourth, and sixth. The fourth has sin of which to repent, but is not commanded to do so
6 Warnings of judgment are given to all the churches except the second and sixth
7 Each church was more corrupt than a preceding one except the first, second and sixth. The first one was commended for 10 things; the last one condemned for 10 things
8 Promises to overcomers are in each
9 Each has the same admonition to hear
10 John is told to write in each case, when he finishes one letter he is directed whom to write and what to write until the last is completed. Then he is told to write the things which must be after the churches (1:19; 4:1) a 7 names of the city of God:

1 The Holy City (v 2; 22:19)
2 New Jerusalem (3:12; 21:2)
3 The Tabernacle of God (13:6; 15:5; 21:3)
4 The Bride, the Lamb's Wife (21:2,9)
5 The Holy Jerusalem (21:10)
6 The Heavenly Jerusalem (Heb. 12:7 The Father's House (Jn. 14:2) 22)
It is called holy because there shall never enter into it anything that defileth, that worketh abomination, or maketh a lie (21:27)
It is called new because of its eternal freshness and newness, not because it is new in existence. It is as old as heaven and was promised to the earliest saints on earth (Heb. 11:10-16; Ps. 93:2; 103:19)
It is called the Tabernacle of God because it is the dwelling place of God
It is called the Bride, the Lamb's wife because it will be the eternal home of the redeemed of all ages (v 9; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Jn. 14:1-3)
It is called the Heavenly Jerusalem because it is the Jerusalem in heaven and not the one on earth
It is called the Father's House because it is the abode of God and His heavenly family (Jn. 14:1-3) b It will come down from heaven to be the capital of God on the new earth (v 2-3, 9-22:5) c The city will be adorned with jewels like a bride for her husband (v 19)
d God and His capital city will be among men forever (v 3-7, 24-27)
e This is the final realization of the eternal plan of God for man and the earth (Zech. 2:10-11; 8:3; Isa. 52:7; Ezek. 43:7)
f 12 blessings for men in the New Earth:
1 God dwelling among them (v 3, 7)
2 God will be their God (v 3, 7)
3 God shall wipe away all tears (v 4; 7:17; Isa. 25:8)
4 No more death (v 4; 1 Cor. 15:24-
5 No more sorrow (v 4; 22:3) 29)
6 No more pain (v 4; Gen. 3:14-19)
7 All things made new (v 5)
8 Plenty of water of life (v 6; 22:17)
9 Inherit all things (v 7; Rom. 8:17)
10 Eternal sonship (v 7; 1 Jn. 3:1-2)
11 No more curse (22:3)
12 Freedom from ungodly neighbors (v 8; 22:15) g Death will be destroyed at the end of the Millennium (1 Cor. 15:24-28)
h The former things refer to earth creations under the curse (22:3; Gen. 3:1-19)

k 10 classes in eternal hell:
1 The fearful, Gr. deilos, cowardly; craven; vile; worthless; miserable; wretched; and unhappy. Found only in v 8; Mt. 8:26; Mk. 4:40. In Sept. in Dt. 20:8; Judg. 7:3, 10
2 Unbelieving, Gr. apistos, infidel, faithless (note g, 1 Tim. 5:8)
3 Abominable, Gr. bdelussō, to cause to stink; make loathesome; feel disgust; detest; have horror of; to be abominated. It refers to those polluted with unnatural lust. Trans. abominable (v 8) and abhor (Rom. 2:22). This latter passage refers to abominable immoral practices in connection with idolatry (2 Chr. 21:11; Isa. 23:16-17; Ezek. 16:15, 26, 29; Acts 15:20, 29; 21:25; Rev. 2:14-21; 14:8; 17:2-4; 18:3; 19:2)
4 Murderers, Gr. phoneus. Trans. only murderer (v 8; 22:15; Mt. 22:7; Acts 3:14; 7:52; 28:4; 1 Pet. 4:15)
5 Whoremongers, Gr. pornoi, fornicators (5 classes, p. 213)
6 Sorcerers, Gr. pharmakeusin, persons who by use of drugs, enchanted potions, charms, and enchantments seek to produce supernatural effects in the lives of others. Only here; 22:15.
7 Idolaters, Those who practice idolatry and abominable immoral acts in worship of idols, as in point 3, above
8 Dogs. False prophets and homosexuals are called dogs in Scripture (Dt. 23:18; Isa. 56:10-11; Phil. 3:2; Rev. 22:15)
9 Liars (Rev. 21:8; 22:15)
10 Lovers of lies (Rev. 22:15)
l The same as gehenna of fire (note m, Lk. 12:5) m What could be clearer that hell is a real place?
n The second death is the lake of fire, or the second separation from God in hell (2:11; 20:14; 21:8)

(2) The New Jerusalem, the capital of the universe, moved to the planet earth from the planet heaven to be among men forever (21:9-22:5. See 3:12; Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10, 13-16; 12:22; 13:14; Gal. 4:26)

2 And I Jŏhn saw the[c] holy city, new Jē-ru'sā-lĕm,[b] coming down from God out of heaven, prepared [c]as a bride adorned for her husband.

▸3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is[d] with men, and [e]he will [f]dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

(3) The new and eternal peoples and conditions on earth (Gen. 8:22; 9:12, 16; 17:7, 19; 2 Sam. 7:24-26; Isa. 9:6-7; 51:8; 59:21; Jer. 31:35-36; 32:38-40; Ezek. 37:24-28; 43:7; 48:35; Dan. 2:44-45; 4:3, 34; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Joel 3:20; Mic. 4:7; Lk. 1:32-33; Heb. 1:8; 12:28; Rev. 11:15; 22:5)

▸4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more[g] death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the[h] former things are passed away.

▸5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things [i]new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

▸6 And he said unto me, [j]It is done. I am Al'phă and Ō-mē-gă, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

▸7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

(4) Eternal conscious punishment as an eternal monument of God's wrath on sin so that eternal generations will know that sin does not pay (Isa. 66:22-24; Rev. 14:9-11; 19:20; 20:10-15; Mt. 5:22-30; 10:28; 13:42, 50; 18:9; 23:15, 33; 24:51; 25:30, 41, 46; Mk. 9:43-47; Lk. 12:5; Heb. 6:2; 10:26-31)

▸8 [k]But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in [l]the lake which [m]burneth with fire and brimstone: [n]which is the second death.

(5) The true bride of Christ (21:2, 9-22:5). A Her identity (19:7, refs.; 21:2, refs.)

9 And there came unto me one of the [c]seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, [b]Come hither, I will shew thee the [c]bride, the Lamb's [d]wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and [e]high mountain, and shewed me that great city, [f]the holy Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, descending out of heaven from God,

B Outward appearance of the New Jerusalem (21:2)

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a[g] jasper stone, clear as crystal;

C The walls, gates, and foundations (Heb. 11:10, 13-16; Jn. 14:2)

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Iṣ'ra-el:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the[h] twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a [i]golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

D The measurements (Cp. the earthly eternal city Jerusalem, Ezek. 48:30-35; Joel 3:20)

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, [j]twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an[k] hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

E The materials in the New Jerusalem

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, [l]sapphire; the third, [m]a chalcedony; the fourth, an[n] emerald;

20 The fifth, [o]sardonyx; the sixth, [p]sardius; the seventh, [q]chrysolyte; the eighth [r]beryl; the ninth, a[s] topaz; the tenth, [t]a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, [u]a jacinth; the twelfth, an [v]amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were [w]twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the [x]street of the city was pure gold, [y]as it were transparent glass.

a These angels are redeemed men, for one of them tells John that he is a prophet (1:1; 19:10; 22:8-9). He is a man (v 17)
b See The bride of Christ, p. 312
c The word bride is used only 5 times in connection with believers (Jn. 3:29; Rev. 21:2, 9; 22:17). The word bridegroom is used 10 times in connection with believers (Mt. 9:15; Mk. 2:19-20; Lk. 5:34-35; Jn. 3:29). All these passages refer to believers who will live in the New Jerusalem, which is the bride, the Lamb's wife (21:2, 9-10) d See The wife of Christ, p. 312.
e Here we have the revelation that the city is not a cube, but a series of mountains starting with low foothills just inside the walls. For 1,500 miles the city ascends to the highest mountain on which is located the heavenly tabernacle or temple in which the scenes of Rev. 4-5 will be seen by all who visit the capital building. From this high mountain John could see the city, streets, rivers, etc. below, as partially described in v 9-27; 22:1-5. It is called Mount Sion (14:1; Heb. 12:22-23); the mount of the congregation in the sides of the north (Isa. 14:12-14); the mountain of His holiness (Ps. 48:1. Cp. Zech. 6:1; Ps. 24:3)
f The Holy City, New Jerusalem:
1 Its names (note a, 21:2)
2 Its source and origin (3:12; 21:2, 10; Jn. 14:1-3; Gal. 4:26; Heb. 9:11; 11:10-16; 12:22; 13:14)
3 Its preparation (21:2; Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14)
4 Its eternal location (3:12; 21:2, 9-10, 24-26; 22:1-5)
5 Its outward appearance (21:11-25)
6 Its walls, gates, and foundations (21:12-14; Heb. 11:10-16)
7 Its measurements (21:15-17)
8 Its materials (21:10-21)
9 Its age (21:2)
10 Its streets (21:21)
11 Its buildings (21:12; 7:15; 11:19; 14:15, 17; 15:1-8; 16:1, 17; Jn. 14:1-3)
12 Its lighting system (21:23, 25; 22:5)
13 Its water system (22:1; 7:17; 14:7)
14 Its inhabitants (3:12; 12:12; 13:5; 21:2-5, 9; 22:3-4; Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:11-16; 12:22-23; 13:14)
15 Its traffic (21:24-27)
16 Its food (2:7, 17; 19:1-10; 22:2; Ps. 78:25; Lk. 22:15-18, 28-30)
17 Its restrictions (21:8, 27; 22:8-15)
18 Its rulers (22:3-5)
g A beautiful sea-green (note d, 4:3) h The 12th will be the name of Matthias, who was numbered with the apostles (Acts 1:26)
i A measure 12 1/2 ft. long (note a, 11:1)
j 1,500 mi. square
k 300 ft. at 25 in. per cubit
l A blue stone, next to a diamond in hardness (v 19)
m A transparent stone - 4 kinds known:
1 A bluish white - most common kind
2 A dull milky veined - least valuable
3 A brownish-black - least beautiful
4 A yellow-red - most beautiful and valuable of all. Only in East Indies n A green stone (note l, 4:3)
o An agate stone, bluish-white and red p A blood-red stone (note e, 4:3) q A gold like stone; a dusky green with yellow cast - a species of topaz r A transparent gem of bluish-green s A pale green gem with a mixture of yellow t A yellowish green stone with a bluish hue of the chrysolite kind u A stone of red color with a mixture of yellow - a cinnamon stone v A stone of purple or violet color, composed of strong blue and deep red. Cp. these stones with those in the breastplate of the high priest (Ex. 28:17-21)
w No natural pearls could be this big, but God can make pearls as large as He wants, hence we do not have to doubt the literalness of these materials simply because we cannot explain them in a natural sense x The singular number here does not mean there is only one street in the city any more than it does in 11:8. There are 12 great broadways going out of the 12 gates of the city (v 21). One is described in 22:1-2 y Not glass, but gold of a kind unknown to us on earth (v 21)

a There will be a literal temple in the New Jerusalem (3:12; 7:15; 11:19; 14:15, 17; 15:1-8; 16:1, 17). The meaning is simply that men will no longer go to some building as the only place to meet with God, as in the earthly temple at Jerusalem, for God and the Lamb will be visibly present among men to meet with them in all places (v 3-7, 22; 22:3-5) b The city only is referred to here. There will be light from the sun and planets in the earth outside the city (Gen. 8:22; Ps. 89:2-3, 29, 35-37; Jer. 31:35-36; Isa. 30:26)

c The natural earthly nations who have lived from the tribulation period through the Millennium will multiply and replenish the earth and carry out the original program of God on earth as Adam and others would have done if man had not sinned (Gen. 1:26-28; 8:22; 9:1, 2, 16, 17:1-9, 19). They are the sheep nations of Mt. 25:31-46

d All men in the New Earth will be saved from sin and be righteous eternally. The rebels will be destroyed, but the camp of the saints will remain (20:7-10)

e All nations will traffic in and bring their gifts into the city forever (v 24-26)

f This refers to no night in the city, but outside the city there will be day and night eternally (Gen. 1:14-18; 8:22; Ps. 89:2-3, 29-37; Jer. 31:35-36)

g Proving that all the nations of the New Earth will have their names written in the book of life and be saved (v 24-27)

h Besides the 12 great rivers flowing down the midst of the 12 great broadways going through the 12 gates into all parts of the earth, there will be innumerable fountains of water of life throughout the city and many lakes and rivers in the earth (22:1-2; 7:17; 14:7; note g, 21:1)

i This is a description of only one of the great broadways going through one of the 12 great gates (21:21; 22:1-2)

j On both sides of all the 12 great rivers flowing for 1,500 miles through the 12 great broadways there will be rows of trees of life, each row being 1,500 miles long, as described in v 2 k Preservation of life for the natural, earthly nations, as well as for the resurrected saints (2:7; 22:2). There will be no sickness, so no healing from disease, but eternal health and life will come from the leaves of the trees (21:4; 22:2-23). Cp. Gen. 3:22-24

l There will be no more of the curse that came as a result of Lucifer and Adam's rebellion. Conditions as before will prevail eternally and things will continue as if the curse had never been. All rebels will be confined to the lake of fire as an eternal monument of God's wrath on sin and as a warning to coming generations in all eternity that sin does not pay. The New Heaven and New Earth and the new peoples will be the same ones we have today only in a new state. All things will be made new, not new things will be made to take the place of the old (21:5; 22:3)

m The servants will be the faithful angels, redeemed men, and all other creatures that have not rebelled or that have been redeemed from all possibility of rebellion in all eternity (Eph. 1:10; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)

n All creatures of the eternal state will actually look upon God's face and His name shall be in their foreheads, as in 3:12; 7:1-8; 9:4; 14:1. They shall reign and help God administer the affairs of the universe forever (v 5; 1:6; 5:10; Dan. 7:18, 27; Zech. 14:5; 1 Cor. 6:1-2; 2 Tim. 2:12; etc.)

o Rev. 1:1-2; 19:9-10; 22:6-8 p Note g, 1:1

q Christ declares His return to earth again many times (v 7, 12, 20; 1:7; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Lk. 17)

Nicolaitanes (2:6)

Followers of Nicolaus, a heretic. They are supposed to have been a sect of gnostics who practiced and taught impure and immoral doctrines, such as the community of wives, that committing adultery and fornication was not sinful, and that eating meats offered to idols was lawful. This was similar to the doctrines of Balaam and Jezebel of Thyatira (v 6, 14-15, 20)

F The temple (4:1, refs.)

22 And I saw [a]no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

G The light of the New Jerusalem

▸23 And [b]the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

H The traffic in the New Jerusalem (22:14. Cp. Zech. 14:16; Isa. 2:2)

▸24 And the [c]nations of them which are [d]saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do [e]bring their glory and honour into it.

▸25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be [f]no night there.

▸26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

▸27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: [g]but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

260 CHAPTER 22

I The rivers, streets and fruit of the New Jerusalem

AND he shewed me a pure [h]river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

▸2 [i]In the midst of the street of it, and [j]on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the [k]healing of the nations.

J The rulers of the New Jerusalem

▸3 And there shall be [l]no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his [m]servants shall serve him:

▸4 And [n]they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

▸5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

CONCLUSION OF REVELATION: 1 Confirmation of the book

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent [o]his angel to shew unto his servants the things [p]which must shortly be done.

2 Blessing for keeping the truths of the book (1:3, refs.)

▸7 Behold, [q]I come quickly: blessed is he that [r]keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

3 A common mistake in worship (Cp. 1:17; 19:10; Acts 10:25-26)

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: [b]for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

4 Command not to seal the book (Cp. Dan. 12:4)

★10 And he saith unto me, [c]Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: [d]for the time is at hand.

5 Eternal state of men to be as they are when they die

▸11 [e]He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

6 Christ's coming predicted

▸12 And, behold, [f]I come quickly; [g]and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 [h]I am Al'phá and Ô-mē'gá, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

7 The last blessing for those who keep the truths of the book (Cp. 1:3, refs.)

▸14 [i]Blessed are they that do his commandments, [j]that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

8 Last warning against sin and eternal punishment

15 [k]For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

9 Authenticity of the book affirmed (1:2)

16 [l]I Jē'sus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. [m]I am the root and the offspring of Dā'vid, and the [n]bright and morning star.

10 An invitation to all men to be saved (Jn. 3:16)

▸17 And [o]the Spirit and the bride say, Come. [p]And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

a The book ends with such a blessing upon men who hear, read, and keep the truths of this prophecy (1:1-3; 22:7)

b This is proof that the angel of 1:1; 19:9-10; 22:6-10 is a redeemed man

c These truths were to be understood and kept by all, hence they are not hidden truths. They are simple and clear to all who will believe them, but hidden from those who refuse to believe (2 Cor. 4:4)

d Here again emphasis is put on the fact of the immediate fulfillment of these events which were to happen in consecutive order from John's day into eternity: first, the things of the churches up to the rapture (chs. 1-3); secondly, events between the rapture and the second advent (chs. 4-19); thirdly, events of the Millennium and the New Earth forever (chs. 20-22)

e 13th N. T. prophecy in Rev. (22:10-12, unfulfilled). Next, v 14, Verse 11 states the fact that as a man dies he will be forever so there will be no second chance to improve the life and character of any lost one in all eternity. (Cp. Heb. 9:27)

2 The bride - those who are married to Jesus Christ in every generation and who will go to live in the New Jerusalem, which is the bride, the Lamb's wife (v 17; 21:2, 9-10) p 3 classes invited to come (v 17):

1 Those who hear
2 Those who are thirsty
3 Those who will to come
All men are thus invited to come and partake of the water of life freely. See Man a free moral agent, p. 264

10 facts about Jesus Christ (1:5):

1 Gr. martus, witness, martyr (v 5; note q, Phil. 1:8). Jesus was both a witness and a martyr (Rev. 3:4; 1 Pet. 2:24; Heb. 3:2)
2 The first-begotten of the dead (v 5; 1 Cor. 15:20-23)
3 The prince of the kings of the earth (v 5). Gr. archon. Trans. prince (v 5; Mt. 9:34; 12:24; 20:25; Mk. 3:22; Jn. 12:31; 14:30; 16:11; 1 Cor. 2:6-8; Eph. 2:2); ruler (Mt. 9:18, 23; Lk. 8:41; 18:18; 23:13, 35; 24:20; Jn. 3:1; 7:26, 48; Acts 3:17; 4:5, 8, 26; 7:27, 35; 13:27; 14:5; 16:19; 23:5; Rom. 13:3); chief (Lk. 11:15; 14:1); chief ruler (Jn. 12:42); and magistrate (Lk. 12:58)
4 He loved us (v 6. Cp. Jn. 3:16)
5 Washed us from our sins in His own blood (v 5; Mt. 26:28; 1 Jn. 1:7)
6 Made us kings and priests unto God and His Father (v 6; 5:10; 20:4-6)
7 To Him be glory and dominion for ever (v 6; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 7:13-14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)
8 He cometh with clouds - visibly and bodily, as He went away (v 7; Dan. 7:13-14; Mt. 24:29-31; Acts 1:11; Rev. 19)
9 They pierced Him (v 7; Jn. 19:34)
10 He is God (v 8; Heb. 1:8; Isa. 9:6-7; Jn. 1:1-2; Acts 20:28)

Examples of men translated (4:1):

1 Enoch (in the natural body, Gen. 5:24; Heb. 11:5; Zech. 4:14; Rev. 11)
2 Elijah (in the natural body, 2 Ki. 2:11; Zech. 4:14; Mal. 4:5-6; Rev. 11)
3 Jesus (in a resurrected body, Mk. 16:19; Lk. 24:39, 51; Acts 1:11)
4 Paul (2 Cor. 12:1-8)
5 John (Rev. 4:1-5:14)
6 Many bodies of O. T. saints (Mt. 27:52-53; Eph. 4:8-10)
7 All saved souls and spirits not yet given resurrected bodies (Eph. 4:8-10; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23)

a 15th and last prophecy in Rev. (22:18-20, unfulfilled). A solemn warning that applies not only to the book of Revelation, but to all the Bible. One cannot change God's eternal Word and escape His judgment. One cannot add to it or take from it without having what is stated in v 18-19 literally fulfilled in his case

b The plagues are those of eternal hell as well as many other kinds as referred to in 9:20; 15:1, 6, 8; 16:21; 21:9. See Bible plagues, p. 317

c See N. T. prophecies, p. 318

d 3 possibilities:
1 Names taken from the book of life (Ex. 32:32-33; Ps. 69:20-29; Rev. 3:5)
2 Part taken out of the Holy City (v 19)
3 Part taken out of the blessings written in this book (v 19)

The Lord's day (1:10)

A term used by early Christians of the first day of the week, the day of the Lord's resurrection (v 10. See Sunday, p. 191). Romans set aside certain days for emperor worship and called them "the Augustean day", etc., so Christians set aside Sunday as the day to worship God and Christ calling it the Lord's day

7 proofs of prophetical application: (1:20)

(1) V 3, 19; 4:1; 22:18-19 prove the whole book to be prophetical
(2) The term testimony of Jesus (1:9; 12:17), which is the spirit of prophecy (19:10), proves it to be a prophecy
(3) The fact that every event of Rev. 4-22 must be after the churches proves it to be a prophecy (1:19; 4:1)
(4) The term the word of God proves a prophetical communication (1:3, 9)
(5) Things which must shortly come to pass (1:1; 22:6-10) proves it to be prophecy
(6) The fact that the letters of Rev. 2-3 are as applicable as all the other letters and books of the N. T. proves it to be prophetical (2 Tim. 3:16-17)
(7) The promises to the overcomers in Rev. 1-3 prove that the letters still apply to Christians

Removal of churches (2:5)

Gr. kineo, to be removed. Trans. remove (v 5); wag (Mt. 27:39; Mk. 15:29); mover of (Acts 24:5); and move (Mt. 23:4; Acts 17:28; 21:30; Rev. 6:14). Used of an earthquake (Rev. 6:14). What could be the meaning of removing a church because of sin? Certainly not taking it to heaven as a reward for sin. The meaning is judgment and destruction, for this is the only penalty for sin (Rom. 6:23; 8:12-13)

18 blessings to the overcomer (3:21):

1 The tree of life (2:7)
2 The crown of life (2:10; 3:11)
3 Escape the second death or lake of fire (2:11; 20:14)
4 The hidden manna (2:17)
5 A white stone and a new name (2:17)
6 Part in the rapture (2:25; 3:11; 1 Th. 4:16; Phil. 3:21; Col. 3:4; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58)
7 Power over the nations (2:26-27)
8 Complete defeat of rebels (2:27)
9 The Morning Star (2:28)
10 Walk with Christ in white (3:4-5)
11 Name eternally in the book of life (3:5; 22:18-19)
12 Confession of name before God (3:13
A pillar in God's temple (3:12) 5)
14 Eternal abiding with God (3:12)
15 God's name upon him (3:12)
16 Name of the New Jerusalem upon him (3:12)
17 New name of Christ upon him (3:12)
18 Eternal throne and kingdom (3:21; 1:6; 5:10; 11:15; 22:4-5)

70 heavenly utterances (4:8):

First of 70 heavenly utterances in the book (4:8, 11; 5:2, 5, 9, 12, 13, 14; 6:1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 10; 7:3, 10, 12, 13, 14; 8:5, 13; 9:14; 10:3, 4, 6, 8, 9, 11; 11:1, 12, 15, 17, 19; 12:10; 14:2, 7, 8, 9, 13, 15, 18; 15:3; 16:1, 5, 7, 17, 18; 17:1, 7, 15; 18:2, 4, 21; 19:1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 17; 21:3, 5, 6, 9; 22:6, 9, 10, 20)

11 A warning to all men

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, a If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the b plagues that are written in this book:
19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this c prophecy, d God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

12 Conclusion and benediction of Revelation and of the whole Bible

20 He which testifieth these things saith, a Surely I come quickly. Ā-mĕn'. Even so, come, Lord Jē'sus.
21 The grace of our Lord Jē'sus Christ be with you all. Ā-mĕn'.

THE END OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Summary of Revelation

Date and place: Written on Patmos about 96 A. D. (1:9)
Author: The apostle John (1:1; Summary of St. John)
Theme: The revelation (unveiling) of (from) Jesus Christ, which God gave to Him to show unto His servants things (events) which must shortly come to pass (1:1). These "things" were to take place from John's day to and including the eternal events of the new heaven and new earth. The events are consecutive in order with parenthetical passages inserted between the main events, which explain certain things that are to happen along with the main events but are not the same as these events
The book is in 3 clearly defined divisions, the contents of which follow each other in the order given, as follows:
1 The things which thou hast seen, i. e., the vision of Christ in the midst of the candlesticks (1:12-20), which, together with the introduction to the whole book forms chapter 1
2 The things which are, i. e., the 7 letters to the 7 churches in Asia Minor, or present Turkey, to whom the whole book is addressed (1:19; 2:1-3:22). These messages to the churches apply to the whole church age and until the rapture of the church just before the future tribulation and coming of the Antichrist who will be here for the last 7 years of this age (Dan. 9:27; 2 Th. 2:7-12; Rev. 6:1-19:21)
3 The things which must be hereafter, i. e., events after the rapture of the church (1:19; 4:1-22:5). These include the scenes in heaven (Rev. 4-5), the 7 seals and their parenthetical statements (Rev. 6:1-8:1), the 7 trumpets and their parenthetical statements (Rev. 8:2-13:18), the 7 vials and their parenthetical statements (Rev. 14:1-19:21), the Millennium (Rev. 20), and the new heaven and new earth (Rev. 21:1-22:5), and events of the conclusion (Rev. 22:6-21)
Statistics: 66th and last book of the Bible; 22 chapters; 404 verses; 12,000 words; 9 questions; 53 verses of history; 10 verses of fulfilled and 341 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

Christ's 7fold estimate of Laodiceans (3:17)

1 Neither cold nor hot (v 15)
2 Lukewarm, sickening (v 16)
3 Wretched, Gr. talaiporos, enduring toil; suffering hardship, as the most abject slave (v 17; Rom. 7:24)
4 Miserable, Gr. eleeinos, pitiable, (v 17; 1 Cor. 15:19)
5 Poor, Gr. ptochos, one who crouches, cringes; a beggar. Trans. poor (v 17; 13:16; Mt. 5:3; 11:5; 19:21; 26:9, 11; Mk. 10:21; 12:42-43; 14:5-7; Lk. 4:18; 6:20; 7:22; 14:13, 21; 18:22; 19:8; 21:3; Jn. 12:5-8; 13:29; Rom. 15:26; 2 Cor. 6:10; Gal. 2:10; Jas. 2:3-6); poor man (Jas. 2:2); beggarly (Gal. 4:9); and beggar (Lk. 16:20, 22)
6 Blind, Gr. tuphlos, blind in ears, mind, and eyes. Used of spiritual darkness (v 17; Rom. 2:19; 2 Pet. 1:9; Mt. 15:14), as well as physical blindness (Jn. 9; etc.)
7 Naked, Gr. gumnos, naked; unclad; stript of arms; defenceless. Trans. naked (v 17; 16:15; 17:16; Mt. 25:36-44; Mk. 14:51-52; Jn. 21:7; Acts 19:16; 2 Cor. 5:3; Heb. 4:13; Jas. 2:15) and bare (1 Cor. 15:37)

Men conscious in 3 realms (5:3):

1 In heaven (v 3, 13; 6:9-11; 12:12; 13:6; Heb. 12:23; 2 Cor. 5:8)
2 In earth (v 3, 13; 12:12; 13:14)
3 Under the earth, Gr. hupokato, beneath; below; underneath. Trans. under (v 3, 13; 6:9; 12:1; Mk. 6:11; 7:28; Lk. 8:16; Jn. 1:50-51; Heb. 2:8). All the wicked go to hell underneath the earth at the time of physical death and are fully conscious (v 3, 13; 20:11-15; Lk. 16:19-31; Isa. 14:9; Dt. 32:22; Ps. 9:17; 18:5; 116:3; Pr. 15:24)

God's redemption terms (3:18)

Gr. agoradzo, to be in the market place; to do business there. The word is used here in the sense of doing business with God on His terms. Man sold himself a slave to sin and Satan. God paid the price of His redemption. Man is now obligated to meet God's terms of faith, repentance, and service if He wants to be redeemed. The word is not used here of man actually paying a price in money, goods, exchanging material things for the gold, raiment, and ointment of v 18, but rather of his paying the price of renouncing Satan, repenting of sins, and consecrating to God in face of suffering persecution such as Christians must suffer for Christ (v 19; 2 Tim. 3:12)

38 "great" things (6:12):

1 Voice (1:10; 11:12; 16:1, 17; 19:1; 21:3)
2 Tribulation (2:22; 7:14)
3 Earthquake (6:12; 11:13; 16:18)
4 Men (6:15; 11:18; 13:16; 18:23; 19:5,
5 Day (6:17; 16:14) 18; 20:11)
6 Power (6:17; 18:1)
7 Multitude (7:9; 19:6)
8 Mountain (8:8; 21:10)
9 Star (8:10)
10 Furnace (9:2)
11 River (9:14; 16:12)
12 City (11:8; 14:8; 16:19; 17:18; 18:16-21; 21:10)
13 Fear (11:11)
14 Voices (11:15)
15 Hail (11:19; 16:21)
16 Wonder (12:1)
17 Red dragon (12:3, 9)
18 Eagle (12:12)
19 Wrath (12:12)
20 Authority (13:2)
21 Things (13:5)
22 Wonders (13:13)
23 Thunder (14:2)
24 Winepress (14:19)
25 Sign (15:1)
26 Works (15:3)
27 Heat (16:9)
28 Day of God (16:14)
29 Babylon (16:19; 17:5; 18:2, 10)
30 Plague (16:21)
31 Whore (17:1; 19:2)
32 Admiration (17:6)
33 Riches (18:17)
34 Millstone (18:21)
35 God (19:17)
36 Chain (20:1)
37 White throne (20:11)
38 Wall (21:12)

a The last promise in Scripture and concerns the second advent of Jesus Christ to the earth. Being one of the most important doctrines of the Holy Bible, this is referred to many hundreds of times in both testaments.
In some Bible statistics it is claimed that there are 33,000 promises in Scripture. But it must be remembered that there are not this many verses in the Bible. See N. T. promises, p. 316
There are 750 promises in the N. T., but only 250 separate benefits due to the fact that many of the promises are repeated in different books. Some are not in the form of a promise, but the truths they contain make the basis of our claims for gospel benefits, so they are listed as promises. Generally, verses are listed with the book wherein the promise is found first

Tribulation not world-wide (6:8)

1 The first 4 seals apply only to a 4th part of the earth (v 8)
2 The martyrdom of the saints in 6:9-11 is primarily inside the Roman Empire territory where the great whore of Rev. 17 dominates the 10 kings
3 The 144,000 Jews of Rev. 7:1-8 are sealed from the nation of Israel in Palestine, for the woman, national Israel, brings forth the manchild (Rev. 12). Since the nation is not made up of all the Jews still scattered, then the whole prophecy centers around Palestine
4 The great tribulation saints of 7:9-17 are martyred only in that part of the earth where the tribulation will be - the old Roman Empire territory, as proved in Rev. 13 dealing with the extent of Antichrist's reign
5 The 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th trumpets are over only a third part of the earth (8:7-12)
6 The 6th trumpet causes only a third part of men to be killed (9:18)
7 Jerusalem and Israel are the ones affected in the troubles of 11:1-13; 12:1-17
8 The Antichrist rule will be only over the 10 kingdoms of the old Roman Empire territory (Rev. 13, notes)
9 The events of 14:8-20 concern Babylon, beast worshippers, martyrs, and Armageddon in Palestine
10 The vial judgments are also limited to the kingdom of Antichrist (16:2, 10, 12; 18:1-24). Even the second advent is local (Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 19:11-21). Christ will be reigning in Jerusalem before many people in the isolated parts of the earth will know He is on earth (Isa. 2:2-4; 52:7; 66:19-21; Zech. 8:23)

4 earthquakes in Daniel's 70th week (6:12):

1 Under the 6th seal in the first 3 1/2 years of the 70th week (v 12)
2 Between the 7th seal and the first trumpet in the first 3 1/2 years (8:5)
3 Under the 7th trumpet in the middle of the week (11:19)
4 Under the 7th vial at the end of the week (11:13; 16:19; Zech. 14:4-8)
Jesus predicted many earthquakes for the last days as a sign of His second advent (Mt. 24:7; Mk. 13:8; Lk. 21:11). Several are mentioned in Bible history (Amos 1:1; Zech. 14:5; Mt. 8:24; 27:51; 28:2; Acts 16:25). The greatest earthquake of all will take place at the end of the Millennium (Hag. 2:6-7, 21-22; Heb. 12:25-29; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 20:11). This will result in the renovation of the heavens and earth, making the 3rd perfect earth, and the end of the earth's 2nd sinful career (Rev. 21-22; Isa. 66:22-24)

Why Dan not sealed (7:4)

All, except Dan. The names of Dan and Ephraim are not mentioned here. The names of Levi and Joseph take their places. To explain the omission of Dan, many use Dt. 29:18-21, but which one of the tribes did not go into idolatry? The real reason for none of Dan being sealed here is that none are servants of God (v 3) at that time. Dan will be restored with the other tribes in the Millennium, so the idolatry of Dan is no reason for the tribe being left out here (Ezek. 48:30-35; Rev. 21:12)

10 proofs of the rapture taking place in Rev. 4:1:

Gr. meta tauta, after these things (note m, Jn. 5:1). This Gr. phrase is used at the beginning and at end of this verse thus: "After these things (after writing the things concerning the churches of Rev. 2-3), I looked...a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice... said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be after these things", that is, after the churches (4:1). This confirms and settles the question as to the time of the fulfillment of all the events of Rev. 4-22. They MUST BE after these things of the churches, or after the rapture of the church. The church is no longer on earth when the events of Rev. 4-22 take place.

1 Christ said the things of Rev. 4-22 MUST BE hereafter, that is, after the churches, as proved above and also in note r, Rev. 1:19. If this is true, then the church is raptured before these things of Rev. 4-22, and after the things of the churches of Rev. 2-3. If the things which are (Rev. 2-3) concern the church, then the things which must be hereafter the things which are must concern events after the churches. The church must be here during the time of the fulfillment of the things concerning the churches, and it must not be here during the fulfillment of the things after the churches. The church then is raptured in Rev. 4:1 between the things which are (Rev. 2-3) and the things which MUST BE hereafter, that is, after the churches (Rev. 4-22).

2 The words church and churches mentioned in the book up to the last verse of Rev. 3 are found 19 times in Rev. 1-3 and not one time in the third division of Revelation which contains the things which MUST BE after the churches (4:1-22:5). They are found again in the conclusion of the book (Rev. 22:6-21), but only after the things which MUST BE after the churches are fully revealed. If the church were on earth during the fulfillment of Rev. 4-22 it certainly would be mentioned.

3 The enthroned elders are representative of the raptured saints and they are always seen in heaven after Rev. 4:1. See note a, Rev. 4:4.

4 The 70th week of Daniel will be the last seven years of this age, during which time all of Rev. 4-19; Mt. 24-25 will be fulfilled. This week concerns Israel, not the church, therefore, the church must be raptured before this week, as in Rev. 4:1. See Rapture, 230.

5 There is no place for the rapture of the church and O. T. saints other than in Rev. 4:1. The manchild and the great tribulation saints are the only companies to be saved and raptured during Daniel's 70th week and these are distinct companies from the church and O. T. saints, as proved in notes on Rev. 4:4. Therefore, the church is either caught up in Rev. 4:1 - after the churches of Rev. 2-3 and before the events coming after the churches of Rev. 4-22, or it is never mentioned in Revelation as to its rapture. If it were to be caught up any time during this week it surely would have been mentioned. The church could not be the manchild or the tribulation saints, as proved in notes on Rev. 7, 12, and 14.

6 In Lk. 21:34-36 we have the promise of Jesus that the saved will be accounted worthy to escape all these things, and to stand before the Son of Man. The things they will escape are those of Mt. 24:4-26; Lk. 21:4-19 and Rev. 6-19.

7 In 1 Th. 5:1-11 we have another definite promise assuring us that saints will escape the wrath of God (of Rev. 6-19). God has not appointed us to this wrath, but to obtain deliverance through Jesus Christ so we can live with Christ (1 Th. 5:9-11). How could saints comfort one another as stated in this scripture and in 1 Th. 4:16-17; Tit. 2:13 if the only hope they had was the coming wrath of God in the future tribulation?

8 In 2 Th. 2:6-8 it is definitely shown that the rapture takes place before the revelation of the Antichrist and before the 70th week of Daniel. The events of Rev. 4-19 will take place during this week, so the rapture must take place in Rev. 4:1.

9 There is a marked change in God's attitude toward humanity in general, from that of mercy (Rev. 1-3) to that of judgment (Rev. 4-19). The seals, trumpets, and vials all picture judgment throughout Daniel's 70th week. If the church does not go through any of these things, as proved already, then the rapture must take place in Rev. 4:1.

10 An individual or a body of individuals can be identified by peculiarities and characteristics. If the church is to be on earth and is the subject of Rev. 4-19, then its earmarks should be seen. But such are not to be found. On the other hand, earmarks of Israel are seen throughout the book after Rev. 4:1. The earmarks of the church are seen up to this point only. This proves that two different institutions are dealt with in different parts of the book: first, the church until its rapture in Rev. 4:1; secondly, Israel after the rapture of the church to the second advent of Christ (Rev. 4-19).

20 earmarks of Israel after Rev. 4:1:

(1) In Matthew, the Hebrew Gospel, there are 92 references to the O. T.: in Hebrews there are 102; but in Revelation there 285. This proves the Jewish character of the book after Rev. 4:1.

(2) The word Lamb is used 27 times in Rev. 4-22 and not once in the church section of Rev. 1-3. It is never used in the Pauline epistles to the churches. It is used only 4 other times in the N. T. and always in connection with Israel (Jn. 1:29, 36; Acts 8:32; 1 Pet. 1:19).

(3) The terms the Lion of Judah and the Root of David are Jewish (Rev. 5:5).

(4) The 144,000 of Rev. 7:1-8; 14:1-5 are Jewish. They will be saved during the events after the rapture.

(5) The events of the seals, trumpets, and vials are a partial repetition of the plagues upon Egypt and are for the same purpose - that of judging Gentiles for their mistreatment of Israel. They fulfill many O. T. prophecies of punishments upon Gentiles because of their oppressions of Israel (Isa. 24:21; 26:20-21; 29:6-8; Jer. 30:6-9; Ezek. 38-39; Dan. 12:1; etc.). Not one such prediction is ever made concerning the church.

(6) The tribulation of Rev. 6-19 concerns Israel (Jer. 30:6-9; Dan. 12:1; Mt. 24:15-22).

(7) Daniel's 70th week concerns Israel and Jerusalem only (Dan. 9:24, 27).

(8) The church age comes between the 69th and 70th weeks of Daniel, proving that Israel is dealt with during the 70th week. See notes, Dan. 9:24-27.

(9) The only saved Gentiles in Rev. 4-19 are the tribulation saints and they are not the church (Rev. 6:9-11; 7:9-17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6). This confirms the Jewish aspect of Rev. 4-19.

(10) The ministry of the angels around the altar (8:2-5) is familiar to Israel only.

(11) The mystery of God promised by the prophets is Jewish (10:7).

(12) The temple, altar, temple worship, court of the temple, holy city, olive trees, ark of the covenant, etc., of Rev. 11 are all Jewish, not Christian.

(13) The kingdoms of this world becoming Christ's is the fulfillment of Jewish prophets (11:15; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14:1-21; Lk. 1:32-33).

(14) The woman and manchild are Jewish, as proved in Rev. 12, notes.

(15) A dragon with 7 heads and 10 horns, showing rulership of the nations that have persecuted Israel in the times of the Gentiles, also proves a Jewish connection (Rev. 12). It could not be a fit symbol in connection with the church.

(16) Michael (12:7) always stands for Israel (Dan. 10:13-21; 12:1).

(17) The remnant (12:17) is Jewish (Isa. 1:9, note).

(18) Literal Babylon (16:17-21; 18:1-24) proves a Jewish connection, as seen in Isa. 13-14; Jer. 50-51. The church has no relationship with Babylon.

(19) Armageddon and the second advent (16:13-16; 19:11-21) prove a Jewish connection. Neither subject is ever used of the church.

(20) The Millennium and the New Earth were predicted in connection with Israel hundreds of times (Rev. 20-22; Isa. 2; 65; 66; etc.), but not once with the church.

68 post-rapture events (4:1):

The beginning of the 3rd and last division of Revelation - the things which MUST BE AFTER THE CHURCHES (4:1-22:5). These events are from Revelation only. Others could be added from the prophets; Mt. 24; Lk. 21; etc., but these are enough to serve as an outline of post-rapture events.

1 1st seal: rise of Antichrist (6:1)
2 2nd seal: war (6:3-4)
3 3rd seal: famine (6:5-6)
4 4th seal: death and hell (6:7-8)
5 5th seal: first martyrs (6:9-11)
6 6th seal: wrath of God (6:12-17)
7 144,000 Jews sealed (7:1-8)
8 Tribulation martyrs worship (7:9-
9 7th seal: silence in heaven (8:1) 17)
10 7 angels given 7 trumpets (8:2)
11 Priestly angel ministers (8:3-5)
12 7 angels prepare to sound (8:6)
13 1st trumpet: hail, fire, blood (8:7)
14 2nd trumpet: sea to blood (8:8-9)
15 3rd trumpet: waters poisoned (8: 10-11)

30 Satan attacks the woman (12: 13-16)
31 Satan attacks the remnant (12:17)
32 Beast out of sea: Antichrist given power over nations (13:1-10, 18)
33 Beast out of earth: false prophet begins beast worship (13:11-17)
34 The 144,000 Jews, the manchild, presented to God (14:1-5)
35 Everlasting gospel preached by an angel (14:6-7)
36 Fall of Babylon announced by angel (14:8)
37 Doom of beast worshippers announced by an angel (14:9-12)
38 Blessing to martyrs announced (14:13)
39 Harvest: Armageddon (14:14-16)
40 Vintage: Armageddon (14:17-20)
41 7 vial judgments prepared (15:1, 6-7)
42 Tribulation martyrs worship (15: 2-4)
43 Heavenly tabernacle opened (15:5-44 1st vial: sores on men (16:2) 16:1)
45 2nd vial: sea to blood (16:3)
46 3rd vial: rivers to blood (16:4-7)
47 4th vial: great heat (16:8-9)
48 5th vial: darkness (16:10-11)
49 6th vial: Euphrates dried up (16:12)
50 3 unclean spirits: mobilization of nations to Armageddon (16:13-16)
51 7th vial: great earthquake - literal Babylon and other cities destroyed (16:17-21; 18:1-24)
52 Kings of earth commit fornication with the great whore (17:1-5)
53 Great whore martyrs saints (17:6-7)
54 8th kingdom formed (17:8-13)
55 War on the Lamb (17:14)
56 War on the great whore (17:15-18)
57 Marriage of the Lamb (19:1-10)
58 2nd advent of Christ (19:11-16)
59 Angel invitation to birds (19:17-18)
60 Battle of Armageddon (19:19-21)
61 Binding of Satan (20:1-3)
62 1st resurrection completed: Millennial reign of Christ begins (20:4-6)
63 Satan loosed on earth (20:7)
64 The last rebellion on earth (20:8-9)
65 Satan sent to hell (20:10)
66 2nd resurrection: judgment of the wicked dead (20:11-15)
67 New heaven and earth: curse removed and paradise restored as before the fall of man (21:1, 3-8, 24-22:5)
68 God's capital city, New Jerusalem, descends to earth (21:2, 9-23)

10 blessings of the redeemed (7:15):

1 Stand before God's throne (v 15)
2 Serve God day and night (v 15)
3 Have God in their midst (v 15)
4 Hunger no more (v 16)
5 Thirst no more (v 16)
6 No oppressive sunlight any more (v 16)
7 No uncomfortable heat any more (v
8 Fed by the Lamb forever (v 17) 16)
9 Plenty of refreshing water (v 17)
10 No more sorrow (v 17; 21:3-7)

18 facts identifying the 2 witnesses: (11:3)

1 They are two men, not covenants, dispensations, etc. (v 3, 7-12)
2 They are Christ's witnesses (v 3)
3 They will be given power in the future when they come to earth (v 3). This does not require them to be men who have already exercised this power.
4 They will be prophets (v 3, 10)
5 They will prophesy the last 42 months, 1260 days, 3 1/2 years of this age (v 2-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5; Dan. 7:25; 12:7)
6 They will be clothed in sackcloth (v 3)
7 They are symbolized by two olive trees and two candlesticks which stand before God (v 4; Zech. 4:11-14)
8 They were already in heaven when Zechariah prophesied, about 500 years before Christ (Zech. 4:11-14)
9 John saw them in heaven about 96 A. D., so whoever they are they are two men translated to reside in heaven at least 500 years before Christ (v 4; Zech. 4:11-14; Mal. 4:5-6). This will exclude John the Baptist, John the Apostle, and every other man living after 500 B. C.
10 They will be invincible for the 3 1/2 years of their ministry (v 5-7)
11 They will have power to destroy their enemies the same way their enemies seek to destroy them (v 5)
12 They will be able to cause fire to come out of their mouths to devour their enemies (v 5)
13 They will have power to stop rain all the days of their prophecy (v 6)
14 They will have power to turn the water into blood and smite the earth with plagues as often as they will (v 6)
15 When the 1260-day ministry is finished the supernatural angelic spirit out of the abyss will use the human Antichrist to kill them (v 7)
16 Since it is appointed unto men once to die (Heb. 9:27), it is certain that they are two men who have never died so that they can die at the hands of the Antichrist in the future. This excludes Moses or any other man who has already died as one of the witnesses.
17 They will remain dead for 3 1/2 days and then be resurrected (v 8-11). This further proves that they are two men who have never died and that they will not be resurrected, immortal men when they come from heaven to begin their ministry.
18 There would seem to be only two men in the Bible who could fulfil these facts about the two witnesses. They are Enoch and Elijah. That Elijah will be one of them is clearly predicted in Mal. 4:5-6. John the Baptist was never Elijah, fulfilling this prophecy. He said that he was not Elijah (Jn. 1:21). He only came in the same spirit and power of Elijah to prepare the hearts of men for the Messiah's first advent in the way that Elijah will prepare their hearts for the second coming of the Messiah (Lk. 1:17). Enoch is the only other man translated that he should not see death in his lifetime on earth (Gen. 5:21-24; Heb. 11:5; 2 Ki. 2). Both were prophets of judgment (Jude 14-15; 1 Ki. 17-18). Both must come back and die their own appointed death on earth as all men must who live before the rapture (Heb. 9:27; 1 Cor. 15:51-58). If either Enoch or Elijah had been translated in immortal, glorified bodies they would have been the first-fruits of the resurrection instead of Christ (1 Cor. 15:20-23). This proves they are in heaven in their natural bodies. They will continue there until their return to fulfil Rev. 11. The lives of Enoch and Elijah are parallel in every sense, so their cases rise or fall together as to being the two witnesses.

The sun-clothed woman (12:1)

1 Israel is often spoken of as a woman married to God under the terms of the old covenant (Isa. 54:1-6; Jer. 3:1-14; Hos. 2:14-23)

2 The church is not once symbolized by a woman, married or unmarried. It is never called the bride of Christ (see p. 312). The church is spoken of as a man (note g, Eph. 2:15). Therefore, the church could not be the sun-clothed woman of Rev. 12

3 The false church is spoken of as a woman, a great whore (Rev. 17), but this could not be the sun-clothed woman

4 The Bible mentions only 3 classes of people today: the church, the Jews, and the Gentiles (1 Cor. 10:32). At the middle of Daniel's 70th week when the woman travails and brings forth the manchild, the church has been gone from the earth for at least 3 1/2 years (notes t and y, Rev. 4:1). This leaves only 2 classes after the rapture: Jews and Gentiles. The woman could not symbolize the Gentiles, because they are the ones persecuting the woman. Therefore, the woman must symbolize national Israel

5 Israel is the one primarily dealt with in Rev. 4-19, not the church (see point 10, p. 306, col. 2)

6 The sun, moon, and 12 stars symbolize Israel, as proved in Gen. 37:9-11

7 The Jews are the only people in Scripture spoken of as going through travail in the last days (v 2-5; Mt. 24:8; Mk. 13:8; Isa. 66:7-8; Jer. 30:6-9; Mic. 5:3; Zech. 12:10-13:1)

8 Israel is identified as the woman by the wars against her and her seed. The same predictions of this woman are found in connection with Israel in the O. T. so they must be the same (Dan. 7:21; 8:9-14, 24-25; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:1, 7; Joel 3; Zech. 12:1-9; 13:8-9; 14:1-21)

9 The whole 70th week of Daniel 9:27 concerns Israel and Jerusalem, as did the first 69 weeks (Dan. 9:24-27). The church is not once mentioned in connection with these last day events

10 The persecution, flight, and protection of the woman in the wilderness prove her to be Israel (v 6, 13-16):

(1) Isaiah (16:1-5) predicts the flight of Israel into Moab and Edom, and mentions Sela or Petra, the ancient capital of Edom as their headquarters during the tribulation. The church is not the subject of any O. T. prophecy

(2) Isaiah (26:20-21) predicts the protection of Israel until the indignation (tribulation) be past

(3) Isaiah (63:1-5) pictures Christ in His second advent as descending from the direction of Edom where the Israelites are to be protected. Cp. Mt. 24:27

(4) Isaiah (42:11-13) speaking of the Lord coming to earth to prevail over His enemies predicts that the Jews in the wilderness and the rock (Sela) will sing of Him

(5) Psalms (60:6-12; 108:8-13) predict that God will reserve Edom from the Antichrist and refer to the leading of Israel into the strong city (Sela or Petra). See notes k-r, Ps. 60:8-10

(6) Ezekiel (20:33-44) speaks of Israel being gathered back from the nations in the last days and of her going into the wilderness where God will plead with her as He did when she came out of Egypt. The two witnesses of Rev. 11 will be the "Moses and Aaron" of those days

(7) Daniel (11:36-45) reveals the conquest of many countries, including Palestine, but predicts that Edom, Moab, and Ammon will escape him (the Antichrist). This is the place reserved of God for Israel to be protected in the wilderness 3 1/2 years (Rev. 12:6, 14)

(8) Hosea (2:14-23) speaks of the wilderness where Israel will flee from the Antichrist

(9) Matthew (24:15-22) predicts the Antichrist breaking his 7-year covenant with Israel (Dan. 9:27), the setting up of the abomination of desolation in the temple at Jerusalem, and the flight of Israel from Judea into the mountains or wilderness during the great tribulation

(10) Revelation (12:6, 13-16) makes the final prediction of Israel going into the wilderness to be protected 3 1/2 years from the Antichrist

The man-child (12:5)

15 proofs 144,000 are the manchild:

1 It has been proved that the sun-clothed woman is national Israel. The manchild then, could not be either the Gentiles or the church which is made up mainly of Gentiles (Acts 15:13-18). The woman would have to produce her own kind, according to the law of reproduction given by God (Gen. 1:21-28). Therefore, if the woman is Jewish the manchild must also be Jewish. The woman represents a company of people. The manchild must also represent a company of people. There is no other company in the events of Rev. 4-19 that could possibly be symbolized by the manchild other than the 144,000 Jews of Rev. 7 and 14

2 The manchild cannot be Christ because everything from Rev. 4:1 on MUST BE after the churches of Rev. 2:1-3:22. How could John see the historical ascension of Christ as happening among the things to be in the middle of Daniel's 70th week or 3 1/2 years before the second advent of Christ?

3 The manchild cannot be the church as a whole, or in part, as some teach, because the church is raptured in Rev. 4:1 before the events of Rev. 4-22 which MUST BE after the churches (see 10 proofs of the rapture, p. 306)

4 The manchild represents a company of all living people who will be translated without seeing death. The woman brings forth either a dead or a living child, not one partly dead and partly alive. The dragon could not kill one already dead at birth (12:4). The child is caught up to God alive as soon as it is born (12:4-5). The 144,000 are the only ones in all of the events of Rev. 4-22 (WHICH MUST BE AFTER THE CHURCHES) that could possibly be the manchild whose life the dragon tries to take (7:1-8; 14:1-5). Since the O. T. saints and church saints are all resurrected to immortality by this time, it would be impossible for the dragon to kill them. See p. 227, 230

5 Rev. 7:1-8; 9:4; 12:5; 14:1-5 give a complete revelation of the 144,000 - their number, salvation, sealing in the forehead, protection through the first 6 trumpets, rapture under the 7th trumpet as the manchild, and their destiny and position in heaven after their rapture. If one of these passages is taken away the revelation about them is incomplete. We have them on earth all through the first 6 trumpets (7:1-3, 9:4), and in heaven immediately after the catching up of the manchild in the 7th trumpet (14:1-5), so if they are not the manchild who is he and how did the 144,000 get to heaven? In Rev. 14:1-5 it is stated that the 144,000 are before God's throne in heaven, having been redeemed FROM the earth and FROM among men. They are an heavenly people the last 3 1/2 years of the tribulation. How and when were they translated if not as the manchild of Rev. 12:5?

6 The time of the rapture of the 144,000 proves them to be the manchild. The time of their translation is identical with that of the manchild (12:5; 14:1-5)

7 We have seen that the church and O. T. saints are to be raptured before Daniel's 70th week and the tribulation (note r, Rev. 1:19; p. 227, 230, 306). We have also seen that the great multitude of tribulation saints will be killed mainly after and raptured after the 144,000 are in heaven (notes, Rev. 6:9-11; 7:9-17). The only other company caught up besides these is the 144,000 and the only place for their rapture is in Rev. 12:5. Therefore, the manchild and the 144,000 must be the same. If they are not the same, then we do not know whom the manchild represents or how the 144,000 get to heaven. Where is the revelation of their rapture if not in 12:5?

8 The place where the 144,000 are, in 14:1-5 proves they will be in heaven during the last 3 1/2 years of the tribulation, so they must be raptured before then. When, if not as the manchild? The Mt. Sion is the heavenly one (Heb. 12:22-24; Rev. 14:1, note f)

9 The 144,000 are first-fruits to God from Israel after the rapture of every saved Jew and Gentile of the church in 4:1. They are not saved when the church is raptured or they would go up also (1 Th. 4:16; 1 Cor. 15:23). Since they are saved after that - in the first 3 1/2 years of the tribulation and since they are in heaven the last 3 1/2 years of the tribulation, their translation must be the same as that of the manchild in Rev. 12:5, which is in the middle of the tribulation. If the manchild, which represents a company of Jews from Israel, were to be saved and raptured before the 144,000, then the manchild would be the first-fruits to God from Israel and not the 144,000. But since the 144,000 are to be the first-fruits, then it is clear that they are the first Jews saved and raptured from Israel during the tribulation of 7 years between the rapture of the church and the second advent. This proves that the 144,000 are the ones symbolized by the manchild

10 There is only one company saved and raptured between the rapture of the church at the beginning of Daniel's 70th week and the rapture of the tribulation saints at the end of this week. That company is symbolized by the manchild and clearly revealed to be 144,000 Jews (7:1-8; 9:4; 12:5; 14:1-5). If they are not the same, then there are two translations in the middle of the week - one revealed and the other not: the history of one given after reaching heaven and the other not: the identity of one clearly stated and the other not. Thus, mystery after mystery appears if there are two companies instead of one

11 The 144,000 are specifically sealed for protection to go through the trumpet judgments only (7:1-3; 9:4). Immediately after the 7th trumpet, which includes all of Rev. 11:15-13:18, we see the 144,000 in heaven (14:1-5). The way God protects them from the wrath of Satan under the 7th trumpet is by catching them up to God and His throne (12:4-5), and by casting Satan out of heaven to the earth (12:7-12). The dragon is full of wrath because they have been protected from the first 6 trumpets. He seeks to destroy them under the 7th trumpet, but God translates them from his wrath (12:4-5). Then the dragon turns on the woman (12:13-16). He fails to destroy her and is then exceedingly wroth turning on the remnant of the woman (12:17). These are protected from him by the two witnesses (11:3-12) and by the new wars declared against the Antichrist from the north and east of the 10 kingdoms (Dan. 11:44)

12 The woman, manchild, and remnant of the woman are the only Jewish companies in Revelation (12:1-2, 5, 17). The 144,000 must be one of these 3 companies, for they are sealed out of all the tribes of the children of Israel (7:1-8). They are in no place mentioned separately from these 3 companies as a 4th company and there is no indication of them as such. Since they are one of the 3 companies, which one? They cannot be the woman or the remnant for these remain on earth while the 144,000 are translated (14:1-5). The 144,000 therefore must be the manchild

13 The 144,000 are the only ones that could possibly fulfill the statements about the manchild in Rev. 12. The manchild and the 144,000 represent a small company (7:1-9); they both are caught up to God and His throne (12:5; 14:1-5); they both are delivered from the wrath of the dragon (12:4-5; 7:1-8; 9:4; 14:1-5); and they both are an heavenly people (12:5; 14:1-5), so must be the same company

14 Isaiah (66:7-8) predicts Israel as bringing forth the manchild before she is delivered or saved at the end of the tribulation (Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29). Who is the manchild that Israel is to bring forth before her own conversion at the second advent if not the 144,000 of Rev. 7:1-8; 14:1-5?

15 Daniel (12:1) also predicts the deliverance or translation of every saved Jew at the time the great tribulation begins for Israel (Mt. 24:15-22; Rev. 11:1-3; 12:5-6, 13-17; 13:1-8; Jer. 30:6-9). Daniel says that every one that shall be found written in the book of life among His people will be delivered from this great tribulation (Dan. 12:1). The number of them written in the book of life is revealed in Rev. 7:1-8; 14:1-5. How are they to be delivered from this tribulation except by rapture, as in Rev. 12:5; 14:1-5? If the woman and her remnant were saved at the time of the translation of the 144,000 godly Jews they would also be translated. But, the woman, or the nation as a whole, is not saved until 3 1/2 years later at the second advent (Isa. 66:7-8; Rom. 11:25-29). The remnant turns to God after the catching up of the manchild and after the persecution and flight of the woman into the wilderness (Rev. 12:17). Therefore, the 144,000 must be the manchild

4fold announcement (12:10):

1 To all concerned: now is come (1) Salvation (3) The kingdom of God (2) Strength (4) The power of Christ

That is, God and Christ have demonstrated their power over Satan and all rebels, as they predicted they would in the plan of God. The great mystery of why God has allowed the devil to continue operating against Him so long without definite action to stop him is finally answered. Delay in fulfilling this mystery is no longer (notes d and e, 10:6-7)

2 To saints: the accuser is cast down and all courts of heaven are closed to Satan. The prosecutor of saints is cast out of heaven once and forever and saints will no longer be accused by him (v 10)

3 To the inhabitants of heaven: rejoice, for Satan has access to heaven no longer (v 12)

4 To the inhabitants of earth: woe, for the devil is come down among you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has but 1260 days or 3 1/2 more years to be loose before being confined to the abyss (20:1-3)

This is the 3rd of the 3 woes announced by the angel of 8:13. Cp. 9:12; 11:14. This 3rd woe is so much more terrible than the torment of men for 5 months (9:1-12), and the slaying of one third of men (9:13-21), that a special announcement is made of it here (v 12)

3 brands of Antichrist (13:17):

1 A mark (v 16-17; 14:9-11; 15:2; 16:2; 20:4-6). That this is different from either the name or the number of his name is clear from these scriptures. What kind of mark it will be is not stated. It may be the emblem of his kingdom and that is not known. It will be a literal brand upon the right hand or forehead (13:16; 14:9)

2 The name of the beast (v 17; 14:11). It is not stated here or elsewhere what his name will be, and all speculation is unscriptural and valueless. Men have chosen no less than 35 names for the Antichrist. They have made him a reincarnation or a resurrection of men from Nimrod in Gen. 10 on, including a number of conquerors of kingdoms and Judas Iscariot. Modern names hailed as the Antichrist have included popes, Mussolini, Hitler, Stalin, and others. Many have been chosen because their names in Greek would equal 666. On this basis many others could be chosen. All this is pure human speculation without Scripture backing

3 666, the number of his name (v 17-18; 15:2). This is the number of a man, and is the only one of the 3 brands that is given (v 18). Many Greek and Hebrew names have a numerical value of 666. The idea is that in the Greek and Hebrew alphabets there is not a separate system of numbers, as in the English. The letters of these alphabets stand for numbers. The letters in the name of the future Antichrist will have a numerical value of 666. We cannot know what his mark or name will be, but we can all know what the numerical value of his name will be, for it is stated to be 666. Since he will not come until after the rapture of the church and until after the formation of 10 kingdoms inside the old Roman Empire (notes, Dan. 7:24; 2 Th. 2:7), and until the beginning of Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 9:27), we can also know that no man will be able to take his mark, his name, or the number of his name before the last 3 1/2 years of this age (Rev. 11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5)

Extent of Antichrist's reign (13:16)

15 proofs Antichrist will not reign over America or be a world-wide dictator:

1 4 statements in Rev. 13 have led some to believe that Antichrist will literally rule the whole world and cause every man on earth to take a mark or be killed. They are:

(1) Power was given him over ALL kindreds, and tongues, and nations (v 7)

(2) ALL that dwell upon the earth shall worship him (except Christians, v 8)

(3) He causeth ALL, both small and great... to receive a mark (v 16)

(4) NO MAN might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, name, or number (v 17)

On the surface it might seem that these statements prove Antichrist will be a world ruler, killing all on earth who do not take his mark, name, or number. But, the contrary is true because ALL in these passages is simply a figure of speech - synecdoche in which a whole is put for a part, as we would say, "Everyone in town" or "the whole country" or "ALL the people in the country were there last night." If the United States would make a law that ALL MEN of all nations, and tongues must register on a certain day or be killed, we would naturally understand the law to apply only to all men of all nations and tongues who are under the government of the United States, not to the men of these nations and tongues who are under other governments. The word ALL is used in a limited sense hundreds of times in Scripture (Gen. 6:17; Josh. 6:21-25; 2 Sam. 6:5, 15; 1 Ki. 11:16-17; Mt. 3:5-6; Lk. 2:1-3; Rom. 1:8; 10:18; Col. 1:23; etc.)

2 Such terms as in Rev. 13 have been used of other rulers and kingdoms who did not literally rule the whole world. It was said of Nebuchadnezzar - wheresoever the children of men dwell... hath made thee ruler over THEM ALL (Dan. 2:38). Of Greece - which shall bear rule over ALL the earth (Dan. 2:39). Of Rome - Shall devour the WHOLE earth (Dan. 7:23-24). None of these kingdoms ruled the whole world

3 Rev. 13 itself limits the kingdom of Antichrist to the 10 kingdoms that are yet to be formed inside the old Roman Empire territory (Dan. 7:23-24). The beast has only 10 horns, not 65, plainly teaching that a limited part of the earth will be under Antichrist (Rev. 13:1; 17:12-17)

4 Rev. 17:8-17 also limits the kingdom of Antichrist to the 10 kingdoms - the 10 horns... are 10 kings, which have received no kingdom as yet, but receive power as kings with the beast... these shall give their kingdom unto the beast

5 In Dan. 7:7-8, 23-24 we have the definite location of the future 10 kingdoms. They are to be inside (out of), not outside the old Roman Empire territory. America and many other lands were never a part of the old Roman Empire, so they will not be a part of the 10 kingdoms to be formed in the last days inside that empire. No country outside the 10 kingdoms will be ruled by Antichrist and no mark of the beast will be forced upon any man outside the kingdom of Antichrist

6 In Dan. 9:27; 11:40-45 Antichrist breaks his 7-year covenant with Israel and takes over Palestine and many other countries, "but these SHALL ESCAPE out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon," which would be modern Jordan and Arabia. If these countries escape Antichrist, these on the border of Palestine which does not escape him, then it is surely conceivable that many countries across the vast oceans will also escape him

7 The nation of Israel escapes the Antichrist arriving safe in the wilderness of Edom and Moab where they are protected of God for 3 1/2 years, or during the time the whole world is supposed to be taking the mark of the beast (see point 10, p. 307, col. 1)

8 In Dan. 11:44-45 it is stated that the countries north and east of the 10 kingdoms under Antichrist will make war on him. These countries too, then, are not ruled by him and are not therefore forced to take the mark

9 In Rev. 16:13-16 we have 3 unclean spirits like frogs going forth working miracles through ambassadors, thus seeking the co-operation of many nations to help Antichrist against Jesus Christ at Armageddon. These will not have been conquered by him or be under him or they would not have to be persuaded to help him at Armageddon. If he ruled them and they loved him enough to worship him and take his mark, such demon ministries would be unnecessary

10 In Rev. 13:4 we have proof that there are nations whom the Antichrist has not conquered. If there were no nations who were not under him it would be foolish to raise the question about who can conquer him

11 In Rev. 14:9-11 it is stated that every man who does take the mark of the beast, or his name, or the number of his name, will be sent to eternal hell without exception. If, as some teach today, Antichrist will kill every man who does not take the mark of the beast, and if, as stated here, every man who does take it will be sent to eternal hell, there will not be one person left on earth to populate it in the Millennium and the New Earth. Thus such a doctrine as Antichrist killing all on earth who do not take his mark and worship him is literally untrue

12 The truth is that Antichrist will make a law that all in his 10 kingdoms must worship him and take his mark, but the law will not and cannot be literally enforced in such a vast territory in as short a time as 3 1/2 years. It would be impossible for one human Antichrist to contact every man in the whole world and to see that every man is killed who does not take his mark. To say that he could would be virtually teaching that one man can do more in 3 1/2 years than what God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, angels, and all the redeemed men of over 1900 years have been able to do. The gospel has been preached that long and still multiplied millions of men on earth have never heard of the name of Jesus Christ. How could a new doctrine and a new religion of the beast be made known to all the world in 3 1/2 years?

One reason Antichrist cannot enforce such a law even inside the Roman Empire territory in 3 1/2 years is because of the wars between his 10 kingdoms and the many nations north and east of his empire (Dan. 11:44). These wars will keep him so occupied that he will not be able to pay full attention to the enforcement of his religious laws. Then, too, there will no doubt be ways of avoiding such laws in certain localities as there are concerning any other man made law. Local officials, relative pulls, money, bribery, and many other things will enable some in his kingdom to escape literal compliance to such a law. Guerrilla warfare against Antichrist can be carried on in all parts of his kingdom, making it impossible to enforce such a law literally Antichrist will come and go without millions of people in various parts of the earth knowing that he ever existed. This is true of Jesus Christ, and it will be true of Antichrist. Many peoples in the interior of certain lands do not yet know that there have been two world wars in a generation. Many do not know we have automobiles, airplanes, etc.

The Bible teaches that in the Millennium Christ will be reigning in Jerusalem for some time before His agents contact certain peoples on earth and seek to bring them under His government (Isa. 2:2-4; 40:9; 52:7; 61:6; 66:18-21; Zech. 8:23; 14:16-21). So it will be in the days of Antichrist

13 In Zech. 14:16-21 it is clear that many from every nation, even those that are under Antichrist, will be left alive on the earth in the Millennium. These will not take the mark of the beast. If so, they would be sent to eternal hell by Christ at His second advent. Since they are left to enter the Millennium, it is proof that every man on earth will not take the mark or be killed. For example, Egypt is spoken of in Dan. 11:40-45 as not escaping the Antichrist, but we find Egyptians left to enter the Millennium in Zech. 14:16-21. So it will be with many people of all the nations under Antichrist. Some will not take the mark or obey his law and yet escape death by him. Multitudes will be killed, but not all (Rev. 7:9-11; 14:13; 15:2-4; 16:2; 20:4-6)

14 In Mt. 25:31-46 we read of many of all nations that are called blessed of My Father who will inherit the millennial and eternal kingdom. These people will not take the mark of the beast or they would be sent to eternal hell, as stated in Rev. 14:9-11. The basis of the judgment of the nations here is their treatment of Israel. Such kind treatment of Israel could not be possible on the part of any nation if all were directly controlled by Antichrist

15 The remnant of the woman in Rev. 12:17 escape the mark of the beast and the worship of Antichrist. This is made possible by new wars in the north and east of his kingdom, forcing him to let them alone for the time being so as to conquer these new enemies. The ministry of the two witnesses helps protect them the last 3 1/2 years. Then when Antichrist conquers his enemies after nearly 3 1/2 years of war he gathers his forces against the Jews to destroy them. He is defeated by Jesus Christ at Armageddon before he even takes all of Jerusalem, which by some means has been suddenly delivered from Antichrist and is back in Jewish hands (Zech. 14:14-15)

Thus we conclude that Antichrist will not rule America or be a world-wide dictator; that his kingdom will be limited to the old Roman Empire territory during the time he seeks to enforce the new beast worship; that he will be in constant wars with other nations during the whole 7 years he is here (Dan. 7:23-24; 9:27; 11:36-45); that multitudes of all nations will escape the mark of the beast and his worship; and that Antichrist will be defeated by Christ before he conquers all of Asia, Europe, and Africa, as well as before he conquers the Americas and all other parts of the world

18 kinds of "seven" things in Rev.: (15:1)

1 Churches (1:4, 11, 20)
2 Spirits (1:4; 3:1; 4:5; 5:6)
3 Golden candlesticks (1:12, 13, 20; 4 Stars (1:16, 20; 2:1; 3:1) 2:1)
5 Lamps (4:5)
6 Seals (5:1, 5)
7 Horns (5:6)
8 Eyes (5:6)
9 Angels (8:2, 6; 15:1, 6-8; 16:1; 17: 10 Trumpets (8:2, 6) 1; 21:9)
11 Thunders (10:3-4)
12 Thousand men (11:13)
13 Heads (12:3; 13:1; 17:3-8)
14 Crowns (12:3)
15 Last plagues (15:1, 6, 8)
16 Golden vials (15:7; 17:1; 21:9)
17 Mountains (17:9)
18 Kings or kingdoms (17:10-11)

20 things done under the 7th vial (16:17):

1 The earthly events between the rapture and 2nd advent end (4:1-19:21)
2 70th week of Daniel ends (Dan. 9:27)
3 Great tribulation ends (11:15-19; 21; Mt. 24:15-22; Dan. 12:1-7)
4 The judgments of the seals, trumpets, and vials end (6:1-19:21)
5 Wrath of God started in the 6th seal ends (6:12-17; 16:17-19:21)
6 Two witnesses end their earthly career (11:3-14; 16:17-19:21)
7 Israel is liberated from Gentiles under Antichrist (12:1-19:21; Zech. 14)
8 Jerusalem delivered from Gentiles (Lk. 21:24; Rev. 11:1-19:21; Zech. 14)
9 Martyrdom of saints ends (6:9-11; 7:9-17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)
10 Beast worship ends (13:1-18; 19:20)
11 Babylon is destroyed (16:17-21)
12 The times of the Gentiles end (Lk. 21:24; Rom. 11:25-29; Rev. 19:11-21)
13 Gentile world powers defeated at Armageddon (19:11-21; Zech. 14)
14 Many cities of the nations fall by an earthquake (16:17-21)
15 Great physical changes on earth take place (11:13; 16:17-21; Zech. 14:4)
16 First resurrection is completed (11:12; 7:9-17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)
17 Day of the Lord begins (20:1-10)
18 Antichrist's reign ends (19:11-21)
19 Satan's reign on earth ends (19:11-20:3; Isa. 24:21-22)
20 Second advent; eternal reign of Christ begins (19:11-21; 20:1-10)

31 facts about literal Babylon (18:2):

Rebuilding of Babylon

1 Babylon as a literal city is mentioned in the fulfillment of many things which MUST BE after the rapture (14:8; 16:19; 18:1-24)
2 Zechariah predicted the rebuilding of Babylon (Zech. 5:5-11, note)
3 Babylon must again be a great commercial center (18:3-10)
4 Babylon must again be a great religious center (18:2-10, 23-24)
5 Her sorceries will deceive all nations after the rapture (18:23; 2 Th. 2:10)
6 Orders for the martyrdom of saints will go out from Babylon (18:24)
7 Babylon will be destroyed at the end of this age (16:19; 18:1-24; Isa. 13:19; Jer. 50:40)

Time of the destruction of Babylon:

8 In the day of Israel's final restoration (16:17-20:6; Isa. 13:6-13; 14:1-7; Jer. 50:4-35)
9 In the day of the Lord (16:19; 18:1-24; Isa. 13:6-13)
10 At the end of the great tribulation (16:17-21; 18:1-24)
11 Under the 7th vial (16:17-21)
12 When the planets are affected (16:17-21; Mt. 24:29-31; Isa. 13:10-11)
13 When the world is punished for its sins (18:1-24; Isa. 13:11)
14 When Israel is given rule over her oppressors (Isa. 14:1-4)
15 When Israel sings her triumph song (Isa. 14:3-17)
16 At the second advent (16:17-21; 18:1-19:21; Isa. 13:1-13; 14:5, 25-27)
17 At the beginning of the Millennium (16:17-21; 18:1-20:10)

How Babylon is to be destroyed:

18 By an earthquake (16:17-21)
19 By a supernatural destruction (16:17-21; 18:8, 10, 17, 19, 21; Isa. 13:6-13; Jer. 50:20, 40; 51:8)
20 Suddenly in one hour (18:8-19; Isa. 13:19; Jer. 50:40; 51:8)
21 By fire from heaven (18:8-18; Isa. 13:19; Jer. 50:40)
22 With violence (18:21)
23 By the earth swallowing her (18:21; Jer. 51:62-64)
24 By God (18:8, 20), as He destroyed Sodom (Isa. 13:19; Jer. 50:40)

Extent of Babylon's destruction:

25 Will never be inhabited again (Isa. 13:20; Jer. 50:39-40; 51:29, 37, 43)
26 Arabs and shepherds will never dwell there afterward (Isa. 13:20)
27 Totally (18:21; Isa. 13:9-22; Jer. 50:3-40; 51:26-43)
28 Never to be found again (18:21)
29 Her site to be one of the openings of hell (19:3; Isa. 14:9-17; 66:22-24)
30 On the edges of this hell hole desert creatures will dwell (Isa. 13:21-22)
31 Men will be astonished at such destruction (Jer. 50:13)

Not one of the above passages has yet been literally fulfilled, so they must refer to a future prosperity and destruction of Babylon. That a literal city is referred to is proved by its predicted destruction along with the cities of the nations (16:19)

In N. T. times Babylon was still a city with a Christian church (1 Pet. 5:13). 500 years later the Babylonian Talmud was written there. Since then it has not been destroyed as required in the above references. Even today there is a city called Hillah of nearly 300,000 population built just south of the old site of ancient Babylon. The soil is exceedingly fertile and engineers estimate that the Euphrates and Tigris rivers could irrigate 7,000,000 acres in winter and 3,000,000 in summer to grow varied crops. The whole of the East is rich in oil and other minerals. A commercial city called Babylon could be made here in a few short years

This city will be the capital of Antichrist before he enters Palestine to make the Jewish temple his capital the last 3 1/2 years of this age (Dan. 11:40-45; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 11:1-2; 13:1-18). Even if we ignored all the O. T. prophecies above, we should be forced to believe in a literal city for the fulfillment of Rev. 14:8; 16:17-21; 18:1-24

Mystery Babylon (17:1)

13 proofs the whore a religious system:

1 Playing the whore in symbolic language always refers to religious fornication and idolatry (v 1-4; Isa. 23:17; 57:3-7; Jer. 3:2-9; Ezek. 16:1-63; 20:30-32; 23:7-49; Hos. 4:12-19; Nah. 3:4. Literal fornication must also be understood in some of these)

2 Her causing the many nations to commit fornication with her, proves that idolatrous religious practices are being referred to, as in passages above

3 She is not a political power for she is not classed as one with "the kings of the earth". She only causes the kings and inhabitants of the earth to be drunk with the wine of her fornication (v 2,4). Since fornication here refers to religious harlotry then her influence over the nations is through religion

4 The beast which the woman rides is the 8th kingdom, made up of the many waters or peoples inside the old Roman Empire territory (v 1, 3, 11, 15). Since the beast itself is the kingdom, the woman must be religion dominating the kingdom until she is destroyed by it (v 12-17)

5 The attire of the great whore identifies her as a religious system or as a whore committing spiritual fornication, duping political powers by her whoredoms and idolatries (v 4). The purple, scarlet, precious stones, pearls, and golden vessels indicate the wealth of the system. Cp. Ezek. 23:40-41

6 The golden cup in her hand, full of her uncleanness, spiritual fornication, and abominations by which she dupes political powers proves her to be a religious power. Cp. Ezek. 23:28-31

7 Her name MYSTERY BABYLON indicates she is not literal Babylon. The word mystery identifies her with the religious rites and mysteries of ancient Babylon

According to Hislop's "The Two Babylons" which quotes 280 sources, the ancient Babylonian cult, started by Nimrod and his queen, Semiramis, spread among all nations. The objects of worship were the Supreme Father, the Incarnate Female, or Queen of Heaven, and her Son. The cult claimed the highest wisdom and the most divine secrets. Besides confession to priests there were many mysterious rites. Julius Caesar became head of the Roman branch of the Babylonian Cult in 63 B.C. Other emperors held the office until 376 A.D. when the emperor Gratian, for Christian reasons refused it because he saw that Babylonianism was idolatrous. Damasus, bishop of the Christian church at Rome, was elected to the headship in 378 A.D. and from here on Babylonianism and organized Christianity became one. The rites of Babylon were soon introduced into the Christian church. Heathen temples were restored, beautified, and their rituals encouraged. Worship and veneration of images, saints, relics, private confessions, penances, scourgings, pilgrimages, sign of the cross, Christmas, Lady Day, Easter, Lent, and other pagan rites and festivals, little by little, became a part of Christian worship

8 The name MOTHER OF HARLOTS identifies the whore as a religious system (v 5). The harlots refer to many branches which have sprung from her and have become as much apostate as the great whore herself. She is a symbol of apostate religions being linked together after the rapture of the church to dominate the 10 kings of the Revised Roman Empire until Antichrist comes to full power over the 10 kingdoms by the middle of Daniel's 70th week (v 1, 3, 9-17)

9 The name MOTHER OF ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH identifies her to be a religious system fostering and tolerating all the abominations that go with idolatry and spiritual fornication. The word abominations is used many times of idolatry and whoredoms associated with pagan worship (Dt. 18:9-12; 29:17-18; 32:16-17; 1 Ki. 14:24; 2 Ki. 16:3-4; 21:2-11; Ezek. 16:22-58; etc.). The great whore of the future tribulation will be the mother of abominations in God's sight because she will exceed all others in wickedness

10 Her drunkenness - being drunken with blood of the martyrs of Jesus, proves beyond doubt that she is a religious institution. Only religion has killed the martyrs of Jesus in all ages. Governments have carried out the dictates of leaders in religion, doing the actual killing of saints because of religion. Although this prophecy speaks of the future drunkenness of mystical Babylon after the rapture of the church, who among us does not know of the martyrdom of 200,000,000 people in the past because they would not conform to organized religion?

6 classes that have martyred saints:

(1) Jews (Acts 7:51-60; 8:1; 9:1). Their religious prejudice caused many to be put to death

(2) Pagans of the old Roman Empire. History records the martyrdom of many Christians by pagan emperors because of religious differences

(3) Mohammedans slew Christians in all their conquests

(4) Greek Catholics have also persecuted and martyred Christians

(5) Roman Catholics have been guilty of martyrdoms in many centuries and many lands

Martyrdom of saints will again be revived in the old Roman Empire territory between the rapture and the 2nd advent. In the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week, the great whore will murder the saints of Jesus (17:6). In the middle of the week when Antichrist comes to power over the 10 kingdoms the great whore will be destroyed and martyrdom of Christians will be carried on by the beast and the 10 kings until the 2nd advent (13:1-18; 14:9-11; 17:9-17; 19:11-20:6)

11 The hatred and destruction of the great whore by 10 kings inside the Roman Empire territory prove her to be a religious system dominating them until they tire of her and give their power to the Antichrist. They turn on the great whore and destroy her so that the Antichrist might establish beast worship the last 3 1/2 years (17:12-17)

12 The woman sits on the beast itself, not on the heads and horns in succession (v 1, 3, 7, 15). The 7 heads and 10 horns on the beast are a part of him and this is the only sense in which she rides the heads (v 9). Since the beast is the 8th world empire (v 11), it is clear that she is something separate from the empire, and only rides or dominates the peoples of that empire. What could she be other than religion?

13 The angelic explanation of the great whore proves her to be a religious system reigning over kings spiritually. The Gr. reads, "And the woman whom thou sawest is the city the great, which has a kingdom over the kings of the earth" (17:18). She has a kingdom within the kingdoms and over them. She is to be a religious system inside the old Roman Empire territory; one that has headquarters in a great city; and one that has a religious kingdom or reign over the kings of the earth

We must recognize in the symbol two things: a great religious system and a great city where she has headquarters. The great whore will hold power over her loyal subjects, not through superior military forces, but by the deceptions of her spiritual harlotry and abominations

18 reasons Babylon the city:

The above facts, together with the mysteries of the Roman part of Christendom of baptismal regeneration, supposed changing of the bread and wine into the body and blood of Jesus Christ, holy wafers, holy waters, lights, candles, confessions, and other ceremonies, mumbled in a language that tends to mystery, have caused the majority of Bible students in all generations to hold that Rome is the city of the prophecy. But there is another city which could be the intent of the prophecy - literal Babylon itself, for the following 18 reasons:

1 Literal Babylon is definitely the subject of Rev. 16:17-21 and 18:1-24

2 Mystical Babylon is another subject inserted between these two passages, a parenthetical one to explain the religious aspect of Babylon. (See 16 contrasts between the two Babylons, note d, 18:2)

3 The fact that the great whore is called mystery Babylon proves a connection with literal Babylon (17:5)

4 Literal Babylon is the site of the first great rebellion against God after the flood of Noah (Gen. 11) and it will be the site of the last great rebellion (14:8; 16:17-21; 18:1-24)

5 Literal Babylon is always associated with demon religions and idolatry in Scripture (Isa. 21:9; 47:9-10; Rev. 18:2-3, 23)

6 Many prophecies concerning literal Babylon in both testaments are yet unfulfilled (Isa. 13:1-22; 14:1-27; 43:14; 47:1-15; 48:20; Jer. 50-51; Zech. 5:5-11; Rev. 14:8; 16:17-21; 18:1-24). On the other hand, the city of Rome is not once mentioned in any prophecy, fulfilled or unfulfilled

7 Of all the empires taking part in the times of the Gentiles - Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Rome, Revised Rome and Revived Greece, the capital city of only one (Babylon) is mentioned in prophecy with a latter day fulfillment. Memphis, Nineveh, Shushan, Rome, etc. are completely ignored in prophecy, while the capital city, Babylon is mentioned repeatedly. See scriptures under point 6 above

8 Never has it been necessary to re-identify any city named in prophecy. Predictions in Scripture about Sodom, Gomorrha, Ninevah, Tyre, Sidon and others have been fulfilled regarding the cities known by the names referred to in the various passages. Why should Babylon be an exception? The word mystery simply defines the religious aspect of the literal city - Babylon

9 Literal Babylon is the only city called the lady of kingdoms (Isa. 47:5, 7)

10 Babylon is the only city of the last days that will be the headquarters for every demon and unclean spirit (18:2). If this be true, then Rome or no other city will be the center of false religions fulfilling prophecy

11 Babylon is the only city named making all nations drunk with the wine of her fornication (18:3). The great whore unnamed is the only other Babylon causing nations to be drunk with the wine of her fornication, so the references must be to the same city - mystery Babylon being the religious aspect of literal Babylon (17:2)

12 Babylon is the only city in the last days to be the center of sorceries, enchantments, etc. (18:23; Isa. 47:9-10, 12-13). Rome could not take Babylon's place in this

13 Babylon is the only named city singled out as the object of God's wrath and plagues (16:19; 18:4, 6). If Rome was to be the great city fulfilling such prophecy it surely would have been mentioned instead of Babylon, for Rome was well known at the time John wrote the Revelation. The very absence of the name Rome is no mere accident. God never leaves us in doubt as to the true meaning of His revelation of events to come

14 Babylon is the only city God commands His people to come out of, in the last days (18:4; Jer. 50:4-9; 51:4-8, 45). The application of this to Rome cannot be proved by Scripture

15 Heaven is commanded to rejoice over the destruction of literal Babylon because God has taken vengeance on her (18:20). This is the same as judging the great whore of Rev. 17, proving that the great whore or mystical Babylon is the same as literal Babylon as far as a place or a city is concerned (19:2). The only difference is that the great whore is the religious aspect of the city of Babylon

16 Babylon is the only city named which is to be judged in the last days for martyrdoms (18:24). Since both mystery and literal Babylons martyr the saints there must be some relationship. If two different cities as far from each other as Rome and Babylon were to be guilty of the same things after the rapture, then two places would be referred to and not one only as in 18:24

17 The 16 points of contrast, 7 points of similarity (p. 299) and 31 facts about Babylon (p. 308) are in harmony with the idea that the one Babylon, a literal city, is the headquarters of the other, mystery Babylon, a religious system

18 Antichrist will be king of Syria with Babylon as his capital (Isa. 14:4). This will fulfill Dan. 8:8-9, 20-25; 11:35-45. The great whore will ride the beast (Antichrist's kingdom) in his rise to power over the 10 kingdoms (17:3,7). It should be recognized then, that she symbolizes a religion in his capital even before he gets power over the 10 kingdoms of Revised Rome (17:12-17)

What religion is symbolized by the great whore with headquarters at Babylon? Could apostate Christendom have headquarters in Babylon? That is possible, but not probable due to the fact that the religion predicted is anti-Christian. Could it be Mohammedanism, the religion of the eastern part of the Roman Empire territory? It could be as there are about 416,600,000 Moslems compared to 480,000,000 Roman Catholics in the world. Moslems control the northern part of Africa, including Egypt, all of Arabia, Trans-Jordan, Syria, Irak, Iran, Turkey and other parts of the old Roman Empire territory. Catholicism is the prevailing religion in Albania, Bulgaria, Romania, Yugo-slavia, Hungary, Austria, Italy, Spain, Portugal, France, and some other parts of the old Roman Empire territory. Between the two religions most of the old Roman Empire territory is covered religiously, but this does not prove a thing regarding mystery Babylon of Rev. 17

Babylon's could be a new religion entirely, or a revival of ancient sorcery, witchcraft, enchantments, and astrology which characterized the ancient city. It is clear that such will be the prevailing religion of the whole Roman Empire territory in the last days, as in point 12, above

Jesus predicted many false prophets who would show great signs and wonders to deceive men just prior to His coming to earth again (Mt. 24:24). Paul predicted the coming of Antichrist with all power, signs, and lying wonders by the power of Satan (2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:1-18; 19:20). All nations will be deceived by the sorceries and manifestations of demon powers concentrated in future literal Babylon (Rev. 9:20; 14:8; 16:13-16, 19; 18:23; Isa. 47:9-10, 12-13)

If Antichrist can start a religion and martyr millions during the last 3 1/2 years of this age (Rev. 7:9-17; 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 16:2, 6; 16:13-16; 19:20; 20:4-6), then it stands to reason that mystery Babylon as a revival of ancient magism backed by a concentration of demon powers dominating the nations of the old Roman Empire territory from Babylon could martyr many saints of Jesus during the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week and until Antichrist comes to full power over the 10 kingdoms of Revised Rome (Rev. 17:1-2, 5-6, 12-17)

As to Catholicism and Mohammedanism, both these religions would have to change completely to fulfil prophecies of these events. Neither religion is anti-God

One thing seems certain - mystery and literal Babylons are two aspects of the same city and power that will fulfil prophecy in the last days after the rapture of the church. Mystery Babylon is a religious system with headquarters in literal Babylon and will fulfil Rev. 17 until Antichrist comes to full power over the 10 kingdoms of Revised Rome in the middle of Daniel's 70th week (Rev. 17:12-17). Then Antichrist, who will be king of Babylon (Isa. 14:4) and the Assyrian (Isa. 10:20-27; 30:18-33; 31:4-32:20; Mic. 5:3-15), will destroy this religious system and start his own worship the last 3 1/2 years of this age (13:1-18; 14:8-11; 16:2-4; 16:2, 6; 17:12-17; 20:4-6)

One thing must be kept in mind, all these events will take place after the rapture of the church, so mystery Babylon need not be some religion now prominent inside the Roman Empire territory any more than the religion Antichrist will start must be some prominent religion now in existence. Religions can begin in one day and so it will be easy for two religions (Antichrist's and Babylon's) both to start and martyr millions between the rapture and the 2nd coming of Jesus Christ

7 headed 10 horned beast (17:8)

The beast is a symbol of 3 things:

1 A supernatural angel out of the abyss, as required in points 1-6 below
2 A mortal man, as proved in points 7-46 below
3 A kingdom, as proved in points 47-60 below

Many fallacies have come by not recognizing all 3 things in the same symbol. Some passages apply to all three: some to only one

60 facts concerning the beast:

6 facts - the beast out of the abyss:

1 Comes out of the abyss (11:7; 17:8)
2 Will war on the 2 witnesses (11:7)
3 Will finally kill them (11:7)
4 Once lived out of the abyss (17:8)
5 Was in the abyss in John's day (17:
6 Will go into perdition (17:8) 8)

40 facts - the beast out of the sea:

7 Will be a man (13:1, 18)
8 Has 7 symbolic heads (13:1; 17:3-11)
9 Has names of blasphemy (13:1; 17:3)
10 Has 10 horns; 10 crowns (13:1; 17:3)
11 Is like a leopard, a symbol of the Grecian Empire (13:2; 17:3; Dan. 7:6)
12 Has the feet of a bear, a symbol of Medo-Persia (13:2; Dan. 7:5)
13 Has the mouth of a lion, a symbol of Babylon (13:2; Dan. 7:4)
14 Receives power from Satan (13:2; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Dan. 8:24; 11:38)
15 10 kings give their power to him (17:12-17)
16 10 kings agree to give their power to him after he overthrows 3 of them (17:12-17; Dan. 7:23-24)
17 Leads the 10 kings against Christ at Armageddon (17:14; 19:19-21)
18 Will destroy the great whore (17:16)
19 Will be commander-in-chief of all earthly armies at Armageddon (19:19)
20 Will be slain at Armageddon, proving him to be a mortal man (19:20; Dan. 7:11; Isa. 11:4; 2 Th. 2:8-12)
21 Is to be defeated by Christ (19:20)
22 Will be cast into hell (19:20)
23 Will still be in hell 1,000 years later (20:10)
24 World will wonder after him (13:3; 17:8)
25 Will be worshipped by men (13:3, 8, 16-18; 14:9-11; 16:2; 20:4)
26 Will speak blasphemies (13:5-6; Dan. 7:20, 25; 11:36)
27 Will be given power 42 months, the last 3 1/2 years of this age (13:5; 19:11-21; Dan. 7:25-27; 9:27; 12:7)
28 Will make war on saints (13:6; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 20:4-6; Dan. 7:21; 8:25)
29 Will overcome saints and kill them (13:7; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 20:4-6; Dan. 7:21)
30 Will rule many nations (13:7; 17:12-17; Dan. 7:23-24; 11:40-45)
31 Will have a co-worker, the false prophet (13:11-18; 16:13-16; 19:20)
32 Will have miraculous powers (13:2-14; 16:13-16; 19:20; 2 Th. 2:8-12)
33 An image will be made of him (13:2, 12-14; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)
34 The image will be given life (13:
35 It will do personal acts (13:15) 15)
36 Will brand men with a mark (13:16)
37 Or with his name (13:17-18; 15:2)
38 Or with the number of his name (13:18)
39 Will kill men who do not take his brands and worship him (13:15; 20:4)
40 Will use boycott (13:17)
41 Will be opposed by angels (14:9-11)
42 Will cause men to be damned (14:9-11)
43 Will be opposed by men (15:2)
44 Will receive plagues (16:2, 10)
45 Will have a throne and kingdom (16:10)
46 Will league with Satan and demons in mobilizing nations (16:13-16)

14 facts - the beast as a kingdom:

47 Is the 8th kingdom (17:11)
48 Is to be dominated by the great whore until Antichrist comes to power over the 10 kingdoms (17:1-7, 12-17)
49 Existed before John's day (17:8-50 Was not in John's day (17:8-11) 11)
51 One head is killed (13:3)
52 The head will be made alive (13:3-14)
53 Is revived again in the last days by Antichrist (17:10-17; Dan. 7:24)
54 Succeeds 7 world empires (17:9-11)
55 5 empires had fallen before John's day - Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece (17:10)
56 The 6th kingdom (Roman Empire) was in John's day (17:10)
57 The 7th kingdom (made up of the 10 kingdoms inside the Roman Empire territory) is not yet come (17:10-17; Dan. 7:23-24)
58 The 7th must continue a short space before Antichrist comes (17:10)
59 The 7th becomes the 8th kingdom when Antichrist gets full power over the 10 kingdoms (17:9-17)
60 The 8th is one of the 7 kingdoms, that is, the 5th that had fallen before John's day. This is in harmony with the facts that the beast was before the 6th and 7th and is not during the 6th and 7th, and becomes the 8th after the 6th and 7th (17:8-11)

7 proofs Antichrist not from abyss:

1 Only a person could be referred to in such statements as a beast coming from the abyss. A kingdom could not possibly come from such a place. This would mean that every person in the original kingdom would come back to live on earth again. This is not taught of one human being in Scripture, much less of thousands of people coming out to carry on with their original lives and kingdom. If only a person can be referred to, then it must be either an angel or a human being who is now confined to the abyss and will come out to fulfill this prophecy. It is not necessary to hold that the beast of the abyss must be a man brought back from the dead, or that the beast out of the abyss and the beast out of the sea must be the same person

2 The Antichrist or beast out of the sea of humanity must be an ordinary mortal because he will die at Armageddon (Dan. 7:11; 8:8, 22, 25; 2 Th. 2:8-9; Rev. 19:20). This would be impossible if he were some man resurrected and made immortal during his second lifetime on earth

3 The doctrine of a resurrection of any man from corruption to become a mortal again and die again on earth in his second lifetime is not taught in Scripture (Heb. 9:27). Judas, Antiochus Epiphanes, or no other man is an exception to the law of dying only once and after this the judgment. One does not have to make the Bible contradict itself in order to find an explanation of all facts

4 The doctrine of a re-incarnation is not once mentioned in Scripture, so this would be impossible for any human being who ever lived on earth (Heb. 9:27; Rev. 20:11-15). To be re-incarnated one would have to be born again in the flesh as a baby, grow to maturity, and go through every process in his previous lifetime. This is utterly unscriptural. The next time men are to live in bodies is in the resurrection when their own grown bodies will be brought forth (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Cor. 15:20-58; 1 Th. 4:16; Phil. 3:21; Rev. 20:11-15)

5 The abyss is not the place of confinement for human beings who die in their one and only mortal lifetime. It is a place for confinement of demons and certain fallen angels (Lk. 8:31; Rev. 9:1-21; 11:7; 17:8; 20:3, 7). Human souls that are righteous go to heaven at death (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11). The wicked go to hell (Lk. 16:19-31; Rev. 20:11-15, notes). Therefore, no human being could ever come out of the abyss as the Antichrist

6 There is no scripture to prove that Antichrist will be different from any other natural man in his lifetime as to his birth, death, etc. He will merely be used by satanic powers in the last days, it is not necessary for God or Satan to call anyone back from the dead to fulfill any purpose on earth. If some man in history could fulfill the prophecies then some man who has never died can fulfill them. No re-incarnation or resurrection has been necessary for the operation of supernatural powers of either God or Satan at any time. The only thing necessary is the complete yieldedness to the operator

7 That the Antichrist will be assassinated in the middle of Daniel's 70th week and then rise from the dead as an immortal being and an incarnation of Satan is unscriptural. The head wounded to death and revived again has no reference to Antichrist, but to one of the heads on the beast, which are all kingdoms and not men (17:9-11). The Antichrist is merely the human head of the 8th kingdom. He is not any one of the 7 heads or 10 horns. They symbolize other things before he even comes (Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 17:9-11). Antichrist will never be an incarnation of Satan, for we see the dragon as a separate person from the beast in all Scripture (2 Th. 2:8-9; Rev. 13:1-18; 16:13-16; 20:10). Satan is an angel with his own body and could never be on the inside of any man bodily (note n, Lk. 22:3)

Beast out of the abyss identified:

The beast out of the abyss is a satanic angel and not the human spirit of some dead man. He does not incarnate himself in the human Antichrist or beast out of the sea, but merely uses him as a tool to revive the 5th or Grecian kingdom as the 8th and last kingdom in the times of the Gentiles. This spirit ruled the old Grecian Empire, the 5th of the 5 kingdoms that had fallen before John's day (17:10). When his kingdom fell he was confined to the abyss where he remained during the 6th kingdom (the Roman Empire, which was the one in existence in John's day) and where he has been ever since. He will be confined to the abyss until the 10 kingdoms are formed inside the Roman Empire to make the 7th kingdom of 17:10. He will then be loosed and use the Antichrist to revive the old Grecian Empire as the 8th kingdom of 17:11

This is what the angel meant when he said the beast was (had existed on earth before John's day), and is not (on the earth in John's day); and shall ascend out of the abyss and go to perdition (17:8)

Kingdoms of this world have always been controlled by godly or satanic angels and war on earth are lost or won as a result of battles in the heavenlies between the good and bad angels. God plans the rise and fall of certain kingdoms and Satan seeks to keep the prophetic Word from coming to pass (Isa. 24:21-23; 25:7; Dan. 10:13-21; 11:1; 12:1; Eph. 6:12; Rev. 12:7-12; 16:13-16). In Dan. 10:12-21; 12:1 we have the satanic prince of Persia, the prince of Grecia, Michael, Israel's prince, and other angelic rulers mentioned

He is the prince of Grecia because:

1 The last visions of Daniel concern the Grecian Empire, its 4 divisions, and the rise of Antichrist out of one of them (8:9, 20-25; 11:1-45)

2 The Antichrist, the earthly head of the 8th kingdom (which is a revival of the 5th kingdom that had fallen before John's day - 17:10), will come from the Syrian division of the old Grecian Empire (Dan. 8:9, 20-25; 11:36-45, notes). If he comes from the old Grecian Empire and revives it, then it is definite that the spirit out of the abyss is the prince of Grecia of Dan. 10:20

3 In Dan. 7:23-24 Antichrist uses one of the 10 kingdoms, the Syrian kingdom, to overthrow 3 others, that is, the other 3 divisions of the old Grecian Empire of Dan. 8:9, 20-25. This points to the prince of Grecia as the beast out of the abyss

4 The body of the beast of Revelation is like a leopard (13:2), which, in Daniel 7:6, symbolizes the old Grecian Empire, proving that the kingdom of Antichrist will be mainly Grecian in character and policy, as the Syrian division in Dan. 8:9-14, 20-25; 11:21-45. This identifies the beast of the abyss as the prince of Grecia

5 In Joel 3:6 with Zech. 9:13 we have prophecies of the Grecian Empire in the last days under Antichrist, proving beyond doubt that the prince of Grecia is the spirit of the abyss. This revival of Greece will be the head healed that was wounded to death (13:3, 12-14). The 8th kingdom will be the Revived Grecian Empire, not the Revised Roman Empire, which is the 7th head on the beast

Beast out of the sea identified:

1 He is a man (13:18; 2 Th. 2:3). See points 7-46, col. 1

2 Who is he? At present he is unknown - not any man now prominent in world affairs

3 When will he come? He will not come on the scene of action until after 10 kingdoms are formed inside the old Roman Empire territory (Dan. 7:23-24, note), and until after the rapture of the church (notes 1 Th. 4:17; 2 Th. 2:7-8). He will come at the beginning of Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 6:1-2). Warning: any speculation regarding any man as the Antichrist before then is pure human guess-work and valueless

4 Where does he come from? He will come from Syria, as proved in Dan. 7:23-24; 8:9, 20-25; 11:36-45, notes

5 What will he be called? See 15 titles of Antichrist, p. 279

6 How long is he to be here? For 7 years; 3 1/2 years gaining power over the 10 kingdoms inside the Roman Empire territory (Dan. 7:23-24; 11:36-45); and 3 1/2 years as ruler over them (Rev. 13:5). See The 70 weeks, p. 877

7 Where is he to reign? From Babylon the first 3 1/2 years, or during his rise to power (Isa. 14:4-17) and from Jerusalem the last 3 1/2 years (Dan. 9:27; 11:45; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 11:1-2)

8 What power will he have? He will receive power from Satan (Dan. 8:24; 11:38-39; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:1, 4; 17:12-17). The spirit out of the abyss will be Satan's agent in dominating the Antichrist (11:7; 17:8)

20fold power he will have power to

1 Blaspheme God (13:5-6; Dan. 7:8, 20, 25; 11:36)
2 Overcome saints (15:2-4; 20:4-6)
3 Overcome Jews (13:7; Dan. 7:21; 12:7)
4 Conquer nations (13:7; Dan. 7:7-8, 19-24; 11:40-45)
5 Destroy mystery Babylon (17:12-
6 Kill the two witnesses (11:7) 17)
7 Change times and laws (Dan. 7:25)
8 Understand mysteries (Dan. 8:23)
9 Do as he wills (Dan. 11:36)
10 Do miracles (13:13; 2 Th. 2:9)
11 Cause craft to prosper (Dan. 8:25)
12 Control money (Dan. 11:38-43)
13 Deceive many (13:1-18; 2 Th. 2:10)
14 Contract with Israel (Dan. 9:27)
15 Control religion (13:1-18; Dan. 11:
16 Control lives of men (13:12-18) 36)
17 Control kings (17:12-17)
18 Cause nations to fear (13:4)
19 Fight against Christ (19:19-21)
20 Reign for 42 months (13:5)

For ever and ever (19:3)

Used 13 times in Revelation of:

1 Worship of God and the Lamb (1:6; 5:13; 7:12)
2 God living for ever and ever (4:9-10; 5:14; 10:6; 15:7)
3 God and Christ reigning for ever and ever (11:15)
4 Smoke of eternal torment ascending up for ever and ever (14:9-11; 19:3)
5 Torment of the wicked forever and ever (20:10)
6 Saints reigning for ever and ever (22:5)

Heavenly horses mentioned in Scripture (19:11):

1 Christ rides one (v 11, 19, 21). This is not the same as the white horse in Rev. 6:1-2, which is Antichrist
2 Armies of heaven ride them (v 14)
3 Elijah was taken to heaven in a chariot drawn by horses (2 Ki. 2:11-12)
4 Elisha was protected by many chariots drawn by horses (2 Ki. 6:17)
5 Zechariah saw many horses - red, speckled, and white, on which rode God's scouts sent forth into all the earth (Zech. 1:8-11)
6 Zechariah saw horses - red, black, grisled, and bay horses, called spirits of the heavens that were harnessed to chariots going forth through the whole earth with scouts for God (Zech. 6:1-8)
7 Paul taught that in heaven there are creatures like those we have on earth, which means that horses are up there (Rom. 1:20; 1 Cor. 2:9)

8 mountain kingdoms and Israel (17:11):

1 Egypt was the first kingdom to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles - that period of Israel's history from her beginning as a nation in Egypt to the 2nd advent of Christ (Lk. 21:24; Rom. 11:25; Rev. 11:1-2). The words Egypt and Egyptian are used 731 times in Scripture and in nearly every case with Israel. Even until the Roman Empire days, Egypt was Israel's bitter enemy, with the exception of a few periods of friendship. Egypt was the place where Israel became a nation and where they were oppressed over 80 years before Moses led them out of bondage (Gen. 15:13-14; Gen. 37 through Ex. 15). She is mentioned many times after this as the oppressor of Israel (1 KL. 14; 2 Kl. 17; 18; 21-19:38; 23:28-37; 25:25-26; 2 Chr. 14:9-12; 16:7-9; Isa. 30-31; Ezek. 29-32). After having oppressed Israel off and on for over 3,750 years, Egypt will be subject to Antichrist in oppressing them again under the 8th kingdom (Dan. 8:21-25; 11:40-45). She will never be a great world power again (Ezek. 29:15), but will serve the Lord along with Israel in the eternal kingdom (Isa. 11:11-16; 19:23-25; 27:12-13; Zech. 10:10-11; 14:16-21). See note c, Ps. 80:13

2 Assyria was the second great empire to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles. Founded by Nimrod (Gen. 10:8-12). It was a kingdom inferior to Egypt for 1,300 years. Then God allowed her to chasten Israel (2 KL. 15-16; 17-19; 23-24). The words Assyria and Assyrian are used 175 times and nearly always in connection with Israel. She oppressed Israel off and on for about 175 years. Antichrist will be the last Assyrian to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles (Isa. 10:20-27; 14:25; 31:4-9; Mic. 5:5-6). Assyria will be blessed in the eternal kingdom along with Israel (Isa. 11:16; 19:23-25). See note c, Ps. 80:13

3 Babylon was the third empire to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles. It is the first one mentioned in Daniel, and for this reason many Bible scholars start the times of the Gentiles with Babylon. But it must be remembered that both Egypt and Assyria persecuted Israel before Babylon and much longer. Why start the times of the Gentiles with the third empire to oppress Israel merely because Daniel saw those times from his day forward? He naturally could not predict the oppressions of Israel by Egypt and Assyria for they were in the past by the time he lived. Nevertheless, were they not oppressions by the Gentiles? If so, then they rightly belong to the times of the Gentiles. Daniel saw them from his day forward, while John saw the whole length of the times of the Gentiles from Egypt to the Revised Roman Empire, the purpose being to identify the 8th kingdom that will complete the times of the Gentiles

Babylon as an inferior kingdom, helped Assyria against Israel (2 Kl. 17:24-30; 2 Chr. 33:11). She was chosen of God to take Judah captive for 70 years (2 Ki. 20; 1 Chr. 29; Jer. 24). Babylon is mentioned in Daniel under the head of gold (2:37-38) and a lion (7:4). The word Babylon is used 284 times in Scripture nearly always in connection with Israel. She will have a latter day part in oppressing Israel (Isa. 13-14; Jer. 50-51). See p. 308-309

4 Medo-Persia was the 4th empire to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles. It is the 2nd one in Daniel as the breast and arms of silver (2:32, 39), the bear (7:5), and the ram (8:20). It is referred to only 58 times in Scripture, but in an important role (2 Kl. 17:6; 18:11; Isa. 13:17; Dan. 5; 10:13-21; 11:1-2; Ezra 1:1-8; 4:1-9:9; Neh. 1-13). It will fulfill prophecy in the last days under Antichrist (Ezek. 38-39). Medo-Persia persecuted Israel off and on for over 100 years. See note c, Ps. 80:13

5 Greece was the 5th empire to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles and the 3rd one in Daniel. It is symbolized in Daniel by the belly and thighs of brass (2:32, 39), as the leopard (7:6), and as the he-goat (8:5-9, 20-25). It is only mentioned by name 9 times in Scripture, due to the fact it existed between the Old and New Testament times. She is mentioned many times in the books of Maccabees in the Apocrypha. Practically all of Dan. 8, 11 and 12; Rev. 6:1-8; 13:1-18; 17:9-17; 19:19-21 must be understood in connection with Greece which will be revived again as the 8th kingdom. Greece and the Syrian and Egyptian parts of the empire persecuted Israel off and on for over 250 years. The Grecian empire is the 5th head on the beast of Rev. 17:9-11, which was (before John), is not (in John's day), and becomes revived as the 8th and last kingdom to oppress Israel. She is the head that was wounded to death and made alive again (13:3, 12)

6 Rome was the 6th empire to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles and the 4th in Daniel. It is symbolized in Daniel as the legs of iron (2:33, 40), the non-descript beast (7:7-8, 23-24), and the 6th head on the beast (Rev. 17:9-17). Rome oppressed Israel over 200 years and dispersed the Jews, 70 A.D. (Dan. 9:26-27; Mt. 24:1-3; Lk. 21:20-24, notes). It is from this territory that the next two kingdoms will arise

7 Revised Rome will be the next empire mentioned in Scripture as oppressing Israel in the times of the Gentiles. This kingdom will be made up of 10 kingdoms inside the Roman Empire territory in the last days. For this reason we call it the Revised Roman Empire, not the Revived. If the Roman Empire were to be revived it would be one kingdom ruled by one man from Rome, but instead 10 separate kingdoms ruled by 10 kings and with 10 separate capitals will be formed inside the Roman Empire territory. This is symbolized in Daniel by the 10 toes (2:40-45) and 10 horns (7:7-8, 19-24), and by 10 horns in Rev. 12:3; 13:1; 17:9-17

10 proofs toes and horns the same:

(1) The number is the same (12:3; 13:1; 17:12; Dan. 2:40-45; 7:7-27)

(2) They all exist together and fight Christ at Armageddon (17:14; 19:11-21; Dan. 2:34-35, 44-45; 7:8-14, 21-27)

(3) They all exist after Rome and are a revision of it (17:12-17; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:7-8, 23-24)

(4) They will all be connected with the same beast at the same time (17:12-17; 19:19-21; Dan. 7:8, 11, 21-27)

(5) The little horn of Dan. 7:7-8, 19-24, and the beast of Rev. 17:9-17 are the same and will arise after the 10 kings and from among them (17:12-17; Dan. 7:7-8, 23-24)

(6) They will become subject to the same man at the same time (13:1-8; 17:12-17; Dan. 7:23-24)

(7) The kingdom of God and Christ will be set up in the days of their existence (17:14; 19:11-21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:7-27)

(8) They will give their power to the same man for the same length of time (13:5; 17:8-17; Dan. 7:23-25; 12:7)

(9) The 10 horns are the same as the 7th kingdom of Rev. 17:8-17. They succeed the 6th kingdom or Rome and precede the 8th or the Antichrist kingdom (17:8-17). The 10 toes and 10 horns of Dan. 2:40-45; 7:7-8, 23-24 also come out of Rome, succeed Rome and precede the kingdom of the little horn or the Antichrist kingdom. Hence, they must be the same

(10) The 10 horns in both books reign both before and after the beast or little horn. Their reign before him is different from that after him. Before he comes they are independent, but after he comes to power they are subject to him. They control the 7th; he controls the 8th kingdom. Therefore, they must be the same

8 Revived Greece will be the 2nd of the future empires to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles and the last world power to do so. Antichrist will come out of the 10 kingdoms and overthrow 3 of them. The others will submit to him thus forming the 8th kingdom (Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 17:8-17). It will be defeated by Christ at His second advent. This will end the times of the Gentiles

The Millennium (20:6):

50 points about the Millennium:

1 Definition. Latin, mille, a thousand, and annus, year. The phrase thousand years is used 6 times in 20:1-7

2 It is the last dispensation for man before the final removal of the curse (22:3)

In Scripture it is called:

(1) The thousand years reign of Christ (20:2, 4, 5, 6, 7)

(2) The dispensation of the fulness of times (Eph. 1:10)

(3) The day of the Lord (see p. 226, col. 4). Called that day many times in the prophets (Isa. 2:11; 4:1; 19:21; 24:21; 26:1; Ezek. 39:22; 48:35; etc.)

(4) The world (age) to come (Mt. 12:32; Mk. 10:30; Eph. 1:21; 2:7; 3:21)

(5) The kingdom of Christ and of God (Eph. 5:5; 2 Tim. 4:1; Rev. 11:15)

(6) The kingdom of God (Mk. 14:25; Lk. 19:11; 22:14-18)

(7) The kingdom of heaven (Mt. 3:2; 4:17; 7:21; 8:11; 10:7; 18:1-4)

(8) The regeneration (Mt. 19:28)

(9) The times of the restitution (restoration) of all things (Acts 3:20-21)

(10) The consolation of Israel (Lk. 2:25)

(11) The redemption of Jerusalem (Lk. 2:38)

(12) The kingdom of His dear Son (Col. 1:13; 2 Pet. 1:11)

3 Satan will be bound (Rev. 20:1-10)

4 It will be between the second advent and the New Heaven and New Earth (note h, 2, 19:19)

5 The kingdom will be literal and earthly (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-27; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 5:10; 11:15; 20:1-10; 22:4-5)

6 It will be a theocratic government (Isa. 2:2-4; 52:7; Ezek. 43:7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Zech. 14:1-21; Mt. 25:31-46; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10)

7 Christ will rule under God (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 7:13-14; Lk. 1:32-33)

8 David will rule over all Israel under Christ (Jer. 30:9; Ezek. 34:24; 37:24-28; Hos. 3:4-5)

9 The apostles will rule over one tribe each (Mt. 19:28; Lk. 22:30)

10 All saints will have part in ruling as kings and priests (note k, 20:4)

11 World capital will be Jerusalem (Isa. 2:2-4; Ezek. 48; Zech. 14)

12 The kingdom will be world-wide (11:15; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-27; Zech. 14)

13 Certain classes will not inherit the kingdom (1 Cor. 6:9; Gal. 5:19-21)

14 Certain classes will be excluded from entrance into the kingdom (Mt. 5:20; 13:39-50; 24:45-51; 25:31-46; Rev. 14:9-11)

15 The judgment of the living nations at the 2nd advent will determine who is worthy of entrance into the kingdom (Mt. 25:31-46)

16 All nations will be required to send representatives to Jerusalem once a year to acknowledge Christ (Zech. 14:16-21; Isa. 2:1-4; 35:8-9)

17 The wicked dead will not be resurrected to live again in the Millennium or be given a second chance (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15; Heb. 9:27)

18 The earth will not be desolate during the Millennium (Isa. 2:2-4; Zech. 14:16-21; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 20:1-10)

19 There will be civil and religious laws for all nations (Isa. 2:2-4; 9:6-7; 11:3-5; 65:20; Zech. 14:16-21; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)

20 The Gentile nations will be located in the part of the earth God gave to each nation and race (Dt. 32:8; Acts 17:26)

21 Israel will be given all the original promised land (Gen. 15:14-18; 17:6-19; Isa. 60:21; Ezek. 47:13-48:35)

22 The world-capital building will be the future Jewish temple at Jerusalem (Ezek. 43:7; Zech. 6:12-13)

23 A river will flow out from under the temple southward and part into two branches - one going into the Mediterranean and one into the Dead Sea, the waters of which will be healed and have many fish (Ezek. 47; Zech. 14:8)

24 There will be earthly priests and Levites serving in the future temple (Isa. 66:19-24; Ezek. 43:19-27; 44:9-31)

25 All the former sacrifices, feasts, and rituals of the temple worship will be continued as an eternal memorial of what they were types of before Christ fulfilled them (Ezek. 43:19-27; 44:5, 30; 45:17-25; 46:1-24; Zech. 14:16-21; Isa. 66:19-24)

26 The Holy Spirit will be poured out upon all flesh (Isa. 32:5; Ezek. 36:25-27; Joel 2:28-32)

27 Universal knowledge of the Lord will be manifest (Isa. 11:9; Zech. 8:22-23)

28 Jews will again be the missionaries to evangelize the nations (Isa. 2:2-4; 40:9; 52:7; 61:6; 66:18-21; Zech. 8:23)

29 There will be one universal religion (Mal. 1:11; Zech. 14:16-21; Isa. 2:2-4; Joel 2:28-31; Jer. 31:31-36)

30 The glory of God will be continually manifest (Isa. 4:4-6; Ezek. 43:1-5)

31 Salvation in its fulness will be for all (Joel 2:28-32; Acts 2:16-21; Isa. 2:2-4; 11:9; 52:7; Heb. 8-10)

32 Divine healing for the body will be experienced by all (Isa. 32:1-5; 33:24; 35:3-6; 53:5; Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24)

33 There will be universal peace (Isa. 2:4; 9:6-7; Mic. 4:3-4; Mal. 1:11)

34 Universal prosperity will be a reality (Isa. 2:2-4; 65:20-25; Mic. 4:4-5)

35 The financial system will be as in Israel (Gen. 14:20; 28:22 with Heb. 6:20; 7:1-10; Mt. 23:23; Rom. 2:22; 1 Cor. 9:7-18; 16:1-3; Mal. 3:10-12)

36 Full justice will be meted out to all alike (Isa. 9:6-7; 11:3-5; 65:20-25; 66:1-2; Mt. 5:1-7:29)

37 Human life will be prolonged indefinitely (Isa. 65:20-25; Zech. 8:4)

38 Light from the planets will be increased 7fold (Isa. 30:26; 60:18-22)

39 Animal natures will be changed as before the fall (Isa. 11:6-8; 65:17-25; Rom. 8:18-23)

40 Deserts will blossom again as a rose (Isa. 35:1-10; 55:12-13; Ezek. 36:8-12; Joel 2:18-27; 3:17-21; Amos 9:13-15)

41 Love and righteousness will prevail (Isa. 9:6-7; 11:5; 32:1-5; 65:17-25)

42 The Jews will be the head of all nations under the Messiah (Dt. 28:1-14)

43 The test for man will be to obey Christ, the resurrected saints, and the laws (Ps. 2; Rev. 2:26-27; 5:10; 11:15; 12:5; 20:1-10)

44 Fruitful seasons will be enjoyed without interruption (Isa. 30:23-25; 33:20-21; 35:6-7; 41:17-18; 49:10; Ezek. 34:26; 47:1-12; Zech. 14:8)

45 Material blessings will fill the earth (Isa. 29:17; 30:23-24; 32:15; 35:1-7; 41:19; 49:9-10; 51:3; 55:13; 60:5-17; 62:8-9; Jer. 31:27-28; Ezek. 34:27; 36:25-35; Joel 3:18; Amos 9:13)

46 Waste places of the earth will be restored to usefulness (Isa. 32:16-18; 49:19; 52:9; 61:4-5; Ezek. 36:8-38; Amos 9:14-15; Acts 15:13-18)

47 Great highways will cover the earth (Isa. 11:16; 19:23-25; 35:7-8)

48 Normal increase of mankind (Gen. 1:26-28; 9:1; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:20; 65:20-25; Jer. 30:19; 33:22; Hos. 1:10)

49 10fold purpose of God in the Millennial reign of Jesus Christ:

(1) To put down rebellion on earth, so that God may be all and all again as before rebellion by Lucifer and Adam (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Heb. 2:7-9; Eph. 1:10)

(2) To fulfill the everlasting covenants made with Abraham (Gen. 12:13; 15; 17), Isaac (Gen. 26), Jacob (Gen. 28), David (2 Sam. 7), and others (Mt. 26:28; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; Heb. 7; 8; 9; 10)

(3) To vindicate and avenge Christ and the saints (Mt. 26:63-66; Rom. 12:19; Ps. 2; Isa. 63; Rev. 1:7; 6:9-11; 19:1-10; 1 Pet. 1:10-12; 2 Tim. 4:7-8; Rom. 8:17-21)

(4) To restore Israel and deliver them from the nations and make them the head of all nations forever (Acts 15:13-18; Mt. 24:31; Isa. 11:10-12; Ezek. 20:33-44; Dt. 28)

(5) To exalt the saints of all ages to a kingly and priestly position according to their works (Rom. 8:17-21; 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10-11; Phil. 3:20-21; Col. 3:4; 1 Pet. 1:10-13; 5:1-4; Rev. 1:5; 2:26-27; 5:10; 11:15-18; 12:5; 20:4-6)

(6) To gather together in one all things in heaven and in earth (Eph. 1:10)

(7) To judge the nations in righteousness and restore the earth to its rightful owners (Isa. 2:2-4; 11:1-11; Mt. 25:31-46; Dan. 7:9-27)

(8) To restore a righteous and an eternal government on earth as originally planned (Isa. 9:6-7; 11:1-9; 42:

1-5; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-27; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-6; 22:4-5)

(9) To fulfill hundreds of prophecies concerning the eternal reign of the Messiah (Dan. 9:24; 1 Pet. 1:10-13; Acts 3:20-21)

(10) To restore all things as before sin entered the world (Acts 3:20-21; Isa. 66:22-24; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 21-22)

50 The Millennium will end in one more short period of rebellion. Then the final destruction of all rebels will take place, leaving the saints, natural and resurrected, in charge of the eternal perfect earth (Rev. 20:7-10; 21:1-22:5; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Isa. 66:22-24)

7 judgments of Scripture (20:11):

1 Judgment of believers' sins in the cross of Christ (Jn. 12:31-32)

(1) Subjects: believers as to sin (Rom. 6:10; Heb. 9:25-28)

(2) Time: on the cross (Jn. 3:14; 1 Pet. 2:24; Jn. 17:4)

(3) Place: Calvary (Lk. 23:33; Jn. 19)

(4) Basis: Christ's perfect work (Jn. 3:16; 5:24; Rom. 6:8)

(5) Result: death to Christ; life to believers (Rom. 4:1-24; 5:1-21; 8:1-16)

2 Believers' self-judgment throughout life (1 Cor. 11:31-32)

(1) Subjects: believers walking in the light (1 Jn. 1:7)

(2) Time: every day (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Eph. 4:22-32; Col. 3:5-17)

(3) Place: in the earth (Rom. 8:1-16; Heb. 12:5-11)

(4) Basis: obedience to God and His Word (Jas. 1:22-25)

(5) Result: chastisement or approval from God (Heb. 12:5-11)

3 Judgment of Israel for her many centuries of rebellion (Ezek. 20:33-44)

(1) Subjects: the living Jews of the future tribulation (Zech. 12:10-13:1)

(2) Time: during the great tribulation (Jer. 30:3-11; Mt. 24:4-15; Dan. 9:27; 12:1)

(3) Place: Palestine, Edom, and Moab (Zech. 12:1-14:21; Dan. 11:40-45; Isa. 16:1-5; Ezek. 20:33-44; Hos. 2:14-17; Mt. 24:15-31; Rev. 12:6, 14)

(4) Basis: obedience to God and His Word (Jas. 1:22-25)

(5) Result: conversion of Israel as a nation at the 2nd advent (Isa. 1:27; 66:7-8; Jer. 30:3-11; Ezek. 22:19-22; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Mt. 23:37-39; 24:31; Rom. 11:25-29)

4 Judgment of angels for rebellion against God (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7)

(1) Subjects: fallen angels (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; Rev. 12:7-12; 1 Cor. 6:3)

(2) Time: at the great white throne judgment after the Millennium (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; Rev. 20:11-15)

(3) Place: before the great white throne in heaven (Rev. 20:11-15)

(4) Basis: obedience to God (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; Ezek. 28:11-17)

(5) Result: eternal damnation in the lake of fire (Rev. 20:10; Mt. 25:41, 46)

5 Judgment of believers' works (Rom. 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10-11; 1 Cor. 3:11-15, notes)

6 Judgment of the living nations at the 2nd advent (Mt. 25:31-46, notes)

7 Judgment of the wicked dead (Rev. 20:11-15; Acts 17:21; Rom. 2:16)

(1) Subjects:
The wicked dead (v 5-6, 12-15) who are not judged at the judgment of the nations 1,000 years before (Mt. 13:30, 39-50; 24:51; 25:3-46; Rev. 14:9-11; 19:20). These include all wicked men from Adam to end of Millennium

(2) Time:
A End of the Millennium (v 7-15)
B When heavens and earth are renovated by fire (v 11; 2 Pet. 3:7-13; Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-28; Rom. 1:21-23)

(3) Place: at the great white throne (v 11; Ps. 9:7-8). The throne is literal and the white indicates absolute righteousness and justice of the judgment (Ps. 45:6-7; 96:10-13; Jn. 7:24; Acts 17:31; 2 Tim. 4:8), just as white robes indicate the righteousness of the saints (19:8)

(4) Basis:
A Law of conscience (Rom. 2:12-
B Law of memory (Lk. 16:25) 16)
C Law of Moses (Rom. 2:12-16)
D Law of character (Heb. 3:8-10; Eph. 4:19)
E Gospel (Rom. 2:12-16)
F Records of personal acts (Mt. 12:36; Lk. 12:2-9; Jn. 3:18; Rev. 20:12)
G The book of life (Rev. 3:5; 13:8; 17:8; 20:12, 15; 21:27; 22:18-19; Ex. 32:32-33; Ps. 69:28; Dan. 12:1; Lk. 10:20; Phil. 4:3)
H The Word of God (Jn. 12:48)

(5) Judges:
A God the Father (v 12; Heb. 12:23-24; 13:4; Rev. 6:10; Rom. 2:12-16)
B God the Son (Jn. 5:19-27; Acts 10:42; 2 Tim. 4:8; Rev. 19:11)
God will judge by Jesus Christ. The Father will decree, the Son will execute (Acts 10:42; 17:31; Rom. 2:16)

(6) Nature: It will not be a spiritual, invisible, endless process but a definite, literal, visible, and personal trial in God's court similar to a trial on earth (v 11-15; Ps. 9:8; Mt. 7:2, 21; Acts 17:31; Rom. 2:12-16; Heb. 9:27)

(7) Universality:
A The sea gave up the dead in it. This could only refer to bodies, for souls and spirits of the wicked dead do not remain in the sea at physical death. They go to hell and await the resurrection of their bodies (v 13; Lk. 16:19-31; Isa. 14:9). See Hell, p. 620-622
B Death gave up the dead that are in it. This could only refer to bodies, for the body only dies at physical death (Jas. 2:26). Souls are dead in trespasses and in sins while yet in the body (Mt. 8:22; Eph. 2:1-9; 1 Tim. 5:6). Physical death only, therefore, could be the reference
C Hell delivered up the souls that are in it (v 13). Souls and not the bodies of the wicked go to hell (see Hell, p. 620-622; Lk. 16:19-31, notes)

(8) Purpose:
A To give every man a fair trial before his eternal punishment (Acts 17:31; Ps. 9:8)
B To judge the secrets of men (Rom. 2:16)
C To judge idle words (Mt. 12:36)
D To judge all the works, thoughts, actions, and sins of man (1 Tim. 5:24; 1 Pet. 1:17; Rev. 20:12-13; 22:12; Rom. 2:5-6, 12-16)
E To mete out degrees of punishment according to deeds (Mt. 7:2; 10:15; 11:22-24; 12:41-45; 23:12-14, 33; Mk. 6:11; Lk. 10:14; 11:31-32; Rev. 20:11-15; 22:12)

(9) Length: time in judging all the wicked is not known, but the length of the sentence for all will be eternal (Mt. 5:33-30; 10:28; 13:42-50; 18:9; 23:15, 33; 24:51; 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:42-48; Lk. 12:5; Heb. 6:2; 10:26-31; Rev. 2:11; 14:9-11; 19:20; 20:10-15; 21:8; 22:15; Isa. 66:22-24)

(10) Results: all in death and hell sent to the lake of fire (v 14-15)

8 events between rapture and revelation (19:1):

1 Presentation before God (Eph. 5:27; Col. 3:4; 1 Th. 3:13)
2 Saints declared blameless (1 Th. 3:13; 5:23)
3 Settlement in mansions (Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 3:12)
4 Judgment of saints (Rom. 14:10; 1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10-11)
5 Regular worship (Rev. 19:1-9; Lk. 22:16, 18)
6 Routine of living (Lk. 22:29-30; Jn. 14:1-3; Rev. 1:6; 1 Cor. 2:9)
7 Marriage of the Lamb (Rev. 19:1-9)
8 Preparation for the 2nd advent, the battle of Armageddon, and the establishment of an eternal government on earth (Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10; Zech. 14)

The bride of Christ (21:9):

These verses (9-10) should settle once and forever what the bride of Christ is What the bride of Christ is not:

1 It is not Israel of O.T. times
2 It is not a part of the N.T. church
3 It is not the whole N.T. church
4 It is not the 144,000 Jews
5 It is not the tribulation saints
6 It is not any single individual or any one special group of individuals out of the redeemed
7 It is not any one denomination or all the denominations combined

What the bride of Christ is:

It is "that great city, the holy Jerusalem" (v 2, 9-10). This is what the angel pointed out to John when he promised to show him the bride, the Lamb's wife - the Holy City, the heavenly Jerusalem. What a simple revelation!

It is unscriptural to speak of any one company of redeemed as being the exclusive bride of Christ. If the city, the New Jerusalem, is the bride, then all who go to live in the Holy City make up the bride and not just a part of them

All redeemed will live in the city:

1 The O.T. saints were promised the New Jerusalem (Heb. 11:10-16)
2 The early church was promised the city (Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 13:14)
3 Every Christian is promised the city (Rev. 3:12; Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 12:23)
4 The 144,000 Jews will be there (Rev. 7:1-8; 12:5; 14:1-5)
5 The tribulation saints will go there (Rev. 6:9-11; 7:9-17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)

Therefore, we conclude that since all saints in the first resurrection (from Abel to the last one saved in the future tribulation) will go to live in the New Jerusalem that all such saints will be members of the bride. No one person, group of persons, denomination, mansion, temple or any other building can be called the city, the Lamb's wife. It takes all to be the city - the bride

It would be scriptural, however, to say concerning the redeemed, that they are now married to Christ under the terms of the new covenant, that they are citizens of heaven, that they have a hope of going to live in the New Jerusalem, and that because of this they expect to be a part of the bride of Christ or a part of the heavenly city. But no one is actually a part of the bride until he begins to live in the city, which is the bride, the Lamb's wife (v 9-10)

Students for centuries have called the church the bride of Christ but this is unscriptural. The church will become a part of the bride when its members begin to live in the New Jerusalem but it will not be the exclusive bride of Christ. All the redeemed of all other ages will also be a part of the bride (v 9-10)

The wife of Christ (21:9):

Gr. gune, a woman, married or unmarried; a wife. Trans. woman 129 times and wife 92 times. That it refers to single women and widows as well as married women is clear from Lk. 4:26; 10:38; Jn. 19:26; 20:11-15; 1 Tim. 5:2, 14. Therefore, the theory based upon this word that Israel is the bride of Christ because she is married to God is not proved. The Gr. for bride is numphe. It is trans. bride (Jn. 3:29; Rev. 18:23; 21:2, 9; 22:17) and daughter-in-law (Mt. 10:35; Lk. 12:53). The wife or bride here is the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, and is the same as the wife in 19:7, which is the redeemed of all ages who will have part in the first resurrection and who will live in the New Jerusalem forever. Just because the wife of 19:7 is not called a bride is no proof that she is not a bride. Are not all women who marry called brides? It is true that Israel is married to God (see p. 307, col. 1), but this is no proof that she is the wife and bride of Rev. 19:7; 21:2, 9; 22:17

8 proofs the Church is now married:

1 Jesus called Himself the bridegroom of Christians (Mt. 9:15; Mk. 2:19-20; Lk. 5:34-35)
2 John called Christ the bridegroom (Jn. 3:29). The Gr. word for bridegroom in all these passages is numphios, a newly married man
3 Christians are married to God and Christ under the terms of the N.T. as Israel was married to God under the terms of the O.T. (Mt. 26:28; Lk. 22:20; 2 Cor. 3; Heb. 12:24)
4 Paul taught that Christians are married to Christ by the new covenant (Rom. 7:1-6)
5 Paul taught that O.T. saints will not be perfected apart from N.T. saints (Heb. 11:40). This means that all will be perfected together as those who make the inhabitants of the New Jerusalem, the Lamb's wife
6 Jesus in Rev. 22:16-17, after the ascension, recognized that believers on earth were already His bride or were to be a part of His bride
7 Paul in 1 Cor. 11:3; 12:12-28; Eph. 4:12-16; 5:25-33 used the marriage relationship to illustrate and teach the relationship of Christ to His church, proving Christians are now married to Christ
8 Paul taught that believers are now joined to the Lord or married to Him in one Spirit, as Israel was in the O.T. days (Isa. 56:6; Jer. 50:5)

Marriage of Christ completed

It is clear from the above that Christians are now married to Christ. It is also clear from 2 Cor. 11:1-21; Rev. 19:1-10 that they are to have final marriage festivities. The seeming difference may be explained by Hebrew custom (note a, Mt. 1:18). The betrothed parties were legally in the position of a married couple and unfaithfulness in this period was adultery (Dt. 22:23; Mt. 1:19). The concluding festivities took place at the actual time of coming together as man and wife at which time a marriage supper was given. The marriage was consummated by entrance into the wedding chamber. The marriage supper of the Lamb in Rev. 19 is simply the concluding ceremony, not the marriage contract entered into at conversion

7 "new" things in Revelation: (21:5)

1 New name for overcomers (2:17; 3:12)
2 New name for Christ (3:12)
3 New Jerusalem (3:12; 21:2)
4 New songs (5:9; 14:3)
5 New Heaven (21:1; 2 Pet. 3:13)
6 New Earth (21:1; Isa. 65:17; 66:22)
7 All things new, referring to the renewal of the heavens and earth and all things previously cursed (21:1-22:5)

21 other "new" things in Rev. 21-22:

1 New city on earth (v 2-3, 10-27)
2 New and visible presence of God the Father on earth (v 3-7; 22:3-5)
3 New earth conditions (v 4-7)
4 New water of life for all men on earth (v 6; 22:1, 17)
5 New realization of eternal inheritances for all men (v 7)
6 New segregation between godly and ungodly (v 8-27; 22:15; Isa. 66:22)
7 New and eternal relationship (21:3-10, 24-27; 22:1-5)
8 New eternal generations of natural people (v 3-7, 24-27; 11:15; 22:4-5; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; 13:15; 17:7, 19; Ex. 3:15; Dt. 5:29; 29:29; 2 Sam. 7:24-26; 1 Chr. 23:25; Ps. 45:17; 72:5; 89:4; 102:12, 24; 106:31; 145:13; 146:10; Isa. 9:6-7; 51:8; 59:21; Jer. 31:35-36; 32:38-40; Ezek. 37:24-28; 43:7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32-33, 55; Heb. 12:28)
9 New traffic in the new city (v 24-10 New river on earth (22:1) 27)
11 New food for the new natural people (22:1-2, 14)
12 New and eternal health (22:1-14)
13 New earth inhabitants - the resurrected people residing in the new Jerusalem (21:2, 9-10; 22:1-5)
14 New location for the capital of the universe (21:2, 9-10, 24-27; 22:4-5)
15 New method of living forever (22:
16 New kinds of fruit (22:2) 2)
17 New and eternal King and kingdom on earth (21:3-7; 22:1-5)
18 New unity between heaven and earth (21:3-7, 24-27; 22:3; Eph. 1:10)
19 New and eternal responsibility of man in carrying out the original plan (21:3-7, 24-27; 22:1-5; Isa. 45:18; Gen. 1:26-28)

20 New future for natural and resurrected men (21:3-7, 24-27; 22:1-5; Eph. 2:7)
21 New and eternal realization of God's plan for man fulfilled (21:2-7, 24-27; 22:1-5)

Restitution of all things (Acts 3:21):

The fall of man does not do away with the original plan to replenish the earth with natural people. It only postpones it until the time of the restitution of all things (Acts 3:21). Then all things will continue as they would have if man had not fallen

If one can realize what wonderful conditions would be on earth today if sin, sickness, death, and the curse had not come, and then transfer that idea to the New Earth, he can fully understand the eternal conditions on earth. Children will be born eternally and natural life will continue perpetually. Planting, harvesting, summer, winter, cold, heat, day, and night, times and seasons, and every other phase of natural life as before the fall will be fully realized forever (Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 66:22-24; 2 Pet. 3:13)

David's earthly kingdom will be the head of all natural earthly kingdoms of Gentiles forever (v 24-26; 2 Sam. 7:11-17, 24-29; Ps. 89:3-4, 35-37; Isa. 9:6-7; Ezek. 43:7-9; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5). These and all the wonderful conditions of the Millennium on p. 311-312 will continue on earth forever

"IT IS DONE" (21:6) - WHAT IS DONE?

12-fold plan of God completed

1 Sinful career of immediate heavens and earth ended (21:3-7; 22:3)

2 Renovation of heavens and earth (2 Pet. 3:5-13; Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-28)

3 "All things" made new (21:5)

4 All rebels put down (1 Cor. 15:24-28)

5 Man purged of all possibility of rebellion (21:3-8; Eph. 1:10; 2:7; 3:11)

6 The curse removed (21:3-8; 22:3; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)

7 Earth turned back to God (Acts 3:21-22; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Isa. 66:22-24)

8 Rebels judged and confined to hell (20:11-15; Mt. 25:41, 46; Isa. 66:22-24)

9 God recognized again as Supreme Ruler of the universe as before rebellion (21:3-8; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; 3:11)

10 God's original plans for free wills and the universe realized (Eph. 3:9-11)

11 God's form of government and His own being vindicated before all free wills in the universe (Eph. 3:9-11; 2 Pet. 3:9)

12 God's throne and headquarters moved from the third heaven and established on earth (21:3-22:5)

2 classes of eternal people (20:4):

If one will keep in mind that there will be two classes of eternal people, eternal conditions on earth will be simple to comprehend:

1 Natural people will live from the future tribulation period through the Millennium and then on into the New Earth forever if they do not commit sin or rebel with Satan at the end of the Millennium (Rev. 20:7-10; Mt. 13:39-50; 25:46)

2 Resurrected people who have part in the first resurrection will be the eternal rulers of the eternal generations of natural people (note k, 20:4). The resurrected people will not marry or give in marriage (Mt. 22:30); but the natural people who are alive at the 2nd advent and who are permitted to be subjects of the eternal kingdom will marry, have children and carry out the natural program as God intended when He created Adam. They will live forever by virtue of the tree of life (Rev. 22:1-2), not by virtue of a resurrection and a change from mortality to immortality as with glorified saints (1 Cor. 15:51-58; Phil. 3:21)

NEW TESTAMENT COMMANDS (Rev. 22:14)

There are 1,050 commands in the N. T. for Christians to obey. Due to repetitions we can classify them under about 800 headings. They cover every phase of man's life in his relationship to God and his fellowmen, now and hereafter. If obeyed, they will bring rich rewards here and forever; if disobeyed they will bring condemnation and eternal punishment. They are not to be confused with the 10 commandments which were abolished with the law of Moses (note l, Acts 15:24 and 85 contrasts between the old and new covenants, p. 201). They are divided below under their various headings:

7 "abstain's" - abstain from:
1 Idols (Acts 15:20)
2 Fornication (Acts 15:20, 29; 1 Th. 4:2-3)
3 Strangled meats (Acts 15:20)
4 Eating blood (Acts 15:20)
5 Meats offered to idols (Acts 15:29)
6 All appearance of evil (1 Th. 5:22)
7 Fleshly lusts (1 Pet. 2:11)

7 things to avoid:
1 Trouble makers (Rom. 16:17)
2 Profane and vain babblings (1 Tim. 3 False science (1 Tim. 6:20) 6:20)
4 Unlearned questions (2 Tim. 2:23)
5 Foolish questions (Tit. 3:9)
6 Genealogies (Tit. 3:9)
7 Arguments about the law (Tit. 3:9)

3 "ask's":
1 Ask and ye shall receive (Mt. 7:7)
2 Ask no return of goods (Lk. 6:30)
3 Ask life for backsliders (1 Jn. 5:16)

2 things to awake to:
1 Awake to righteousness (1 Cor. 15:
2 Awake to life (Eph. 5:14) 34)

74 "be's" - be:
1 Exceeding glad (Mt. 5:12)
2 Reconciled to a brother (Mt. 5:24)
3 Perfect (Mt. 5:48; 2 Cor. 13:11)
4 Wise as serpents (Mt. 10:16)
5 Harmless as doves (Mt. 10:16)
6 Ready for Christ's coming (Mt. 24:44; Lk. 12:40)
7 Content with your wages (Lk. 3:14)
8 Merciful as God (Lk. 6:36)
9 Like faithful servants (Lk. 12:36)
10 Thankful (Col. 3:15)
11 At peace among selves (1 Th. 5:13)
12 Patient toward all men (1 Th. 5:14; 2 Tim. 2:24)
13 No partaker of sin (1 Tim. 5:22)
14 Sober and hope (1 Pet. 1:13)
15 Sober and pray (1 Pet. 4:7)
16 Sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, charity, and patience (aged men, Tit. 2:2)
17 Sober, love husbands and children (young women, Tit. 2:4)
18 Sober minded (young men, Tit. 2:6)
19 In behaviour as becoming to saints (aged women, Tit. 2:3)
20 Discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient (young women, Tit. 2:5)
21 Ready to give an answer of the hope that is in you (1 Pet. 3:15)
22 Of good cheer (Jn. 16:33)
23 Baptized (Acts 2:38)
24 Converted (Acts 3:19)
25 Transformed (Rom. 12:2)
26 Kind in brotherly love one to another (Rom. 12:10; Eph. 4:32)
27 Fervent in spirit (Rom. 12:11)
28 Patient in tribulation (Rom. 12:12)
29 Given to hospitality (Rom. 12:13)
30 Afraid, if lawless (Rom. 13:4)
31 No idolater (1 Cor. 10:7)
32 Followers of Paul as he followed Christ (1 Cor. 11:1; Phil. 3:17)
33 Followers of God (Eph. 5:1)
34 Followers of the faithful and the patient (Heb. 6:12)
35 Children in malice (1 Cor. 14:20)
36 Men in understanding (1 Cor. 14:
37 Stedfast (1 Cor. 15:58) 20)
38 Unmoveable (1 Cor. 15:58)
39 Always abounding in God's work (1 Cor. 15:58)
40 Strong in the Lord (1 Cor. 16:13; Eph. 6:10; 2 Tim. 2:1)
41 Of good comfort (2 Cor. 13:11)
42 Of one mind (Rom. 12:16; 2 Cor. 13:11; Phil. 2:2; 1 Pet. 3:8)
43 Separate from the unclean (2 Cor.
44 Renewed in spirit (Eph. 4:23) 6:17)
45 Angry and sin not (Eph. 4:26)
46 Tenderhearted one to another (Eph. 4:32)
47 Filled with the Spirit (Eph. 5:18)
48 Likeminded (Phil. 2:2)
49 Of one accord (Phil. 2:2)
50 Anxious for nothing (Phil. 4:6)
51 An example to believers in word, conversation, charity, spirit, faith, and purity (1 Tim. 4:12)
52 A partaker of Christian sufferings (2 Tim. 1:8. Cp. 1 Pet. 4:1)
53 Gentle to all men (2 Tim. 2:24)
54 Apt to teach (2 Tim. 2:24)
55 Instant in season, out of season (2 Tim. 4:2)
56 Careful to maintain good works (Tit. 3:8, 14. Cp. Mt. 5:16)
57 Content with what you have (Heb.
58 Doers of the Word (Jas. 1:22) 13:5)
59 Afflicted and mourn (Jas. 4:9)
60 Patient till Christ comes (Jas. 5:7-8)
61 Holy in conversation (1 Pet. 1:15-62 Pitiful (1 Pet. 3:8) 16)
63 Courteous (1 Pet. 3:8)
64 Examples to the flock of God, not lords over it (1 Pet. 5:3)
65 Subject one to another (1 Pet. 5:5)
66 Clothed with humility (1 Pet. 5:5)
67 Sober (1 Pet. 5:8)
68 Vigilant (1 Pet. 5:8)
69 Mindful of prophecies and commandments (2 Pet. 3:2)
70 Diligent to be found in peace (2 Pet. 3:14)
71 Diligent to be without spot, and blameless (2 Pet. 3:14)
72 Faithful to death (Rev. 2:10)
73 Watchful, strengthen self (Rev. 3:2)
74 Zealous and repent (Rev. 3:19)

30 "be not's" - be not:
1 Like the hypocrites in prayer (Mt. 6:5)
2 Like the heathen in prayer (Mt. 6:8)
3 As hypocrites in fasting (Mt. 6:16)
4 Called "Rabbi" (Mt. 23:8)
5 Called "Master" (Mt. 23:9)
6 Afraid of men (Lk. 12:4)
7 Of doubtful mind (Lk. 12:29)
8 Many teachers (Jas. 3:1)
9 Afraid of terror (1 Pet. 3:14)
10 Troubled (1 Pet. 3:14)
11 Ignorant of time with God (2 Pet. 3:8. Cp. Isa. 57:15)
12 Deceived: 10 classes not to inherit the kingdom (1 Cor. 6:9-10)
13 Conformed to world (Rom. 12:2)
14 Slothful in business (Rom. 12:11)
15 Conceited (Rom. 12:16)
16 Overcome of evil (Rom. 12:21)
17 Mere servants of men (1 Cor. 7:23)
18 Children in understanding (1 Cor. 14:20)
19 Deceived by evil companions (1 Cor. 15:33)
20 Unequally yoked together with unbelievers (2 Cor. 6:14-15)
21 Entangled again with law keeping (Gal. 5:1. See 85 contrasts, p. 201)
22 Deceived: man will reap what he sows (Gal. 6:7-8)
23 Partakers with sinners (Eph. 5:7)
24 Unwise about God's will (Eph. 5:
25 Drunk with wine (Eph. 5:18) 17)
26 Weary in well doing (2 Th. 3:13)
27 Ashamed of God (2 Tim. 1:8)
28 Slothful (Heb. 6:12)
29 Forgetful of strangers (Heb. 13:2)
30 Carried about with different strange doctrines (Heb. 13:9)

4 things to believe:
1 The gospel (Mk. 1:15)
2 God's existence (Heb. 11:6)
3 On Jesus Christ (1 Jn. 3:23)
4 God rewards diligent seeking (Heb. 11:6)

1 thing not to believe:
1 Believe not every spirit (1 Jn. 4:1)

14 "beware's" - beware of:
1 False prophets (Mt. 7:15)
2 Men (Mt. 10:17)
3 Leaven (doctrine) of Pharisees (Mt. 16:6-12)
4 Leaven (doctrine) of Herod (Mk.
5 Hypocrisy (Lk. 12:1) 8:15)
6 Covetousness (Lk. 12:15)
7 Scribes (Mk. 12:38; Lk. 20:46)
8 Lest you despise God and perish (Acts 13:40-41)
9 Dogs (false teachers, Phil. 3:2; Isa.
10 Evil workers (Phil. 3:2) 56:10)
11 The concision (Jews, Phil. 3:2)
12 Being spoiled through philosophy (Col. 2:8)
13 Being spoiled through vain deceit (Col. 2:8)
14 Backsliding (2 Pet. 3:17)

2 classes to bless:
1 Them that curse you (Mt. 5:44; Lk.
2 Persecutors (Rom. 12:14) 6:28)

3 things to cast out or away:
1 Beam out of own eyes (Mt. 7:5; Lk.
2 Devils (Mt. 10:8) 6:42)
3 All care upon God (1 Pet. 5:7)

1 thing not to cast away:
1 Your confidence in God (Heb. 10:35)

6 things to charge:
1 Men to be blameless (1 Tim. 5:7)
2 Rich to be humble (1 Tim. 6:17)
3 Rich to trust in God (1 Tim. 6:17)
4 Rich to do good works (1 Tim. 6:18)
5 Rich to lay hold on eternal life (1 Tim. 6:19)

2 classes to comfort:
1 One another - fellow Christians (1 Th. 4:18; 5:11)
2 The feeble-minded (1 Th. 5:14)

5 things to consider:
1 The ravens (Lk. 12:24)
2 The lilies (Lk. 12:27-28)
3 Truth (2 Tim. 2:7)
4 Self capable of falling (Gal. 6:1)
5 Christ (Heb. 3:1; 12:3)

3 things to continue in:
1 Love (Jn. 15:9)
2 Prayer (Rom. 12:12; Col. 4:2)
3 Truth (2 Tim. 3:14)

2 things to covet:
1 Best gifts (1 Cor. 12:31)

In the above lists there are 13 cases of innumerable healings and 58 individual cases of healing by divine power. From these 71 cases we learn that it is God's will to heal man's body as well as his soul

Thus there are many examples of plagues sent upon men for rebellion. God has made the law of sowing and reaping and regardless of fallacies teaching that God will not judge Christians who backslide, these examples demonstrate that saved men will also reap what they sow (Gal. 6:7-8)

There are 1,423 prophetical verses in the 7,957 verses of the N.T.: 194 verses of O.T. prophecy quoted or fulfilled in the N.T.; 1,229 verses or N.T. prophecy. Subjects of the prophecies are listed below and references given. Of these about 950 verses are given as unfulfilled prophecy; 162 verses as being fulfilled; and 324 verses as already fulfilled. This is 207 verses more than the total prophetical verses in the N.T. due to this fact. Some prophecies require a double listing - under fulfilled and being fulfilled

Cyclopedic Index

Every word in the Bible is listed in this Index in alphabetical order, besides many other words related to Scripture but not actually found in the text itself. A number, in parenthesis, following a word tells how many times it is used in the Bible. Aaron (403), for instance, means that the word Aaron occurs 403 times throughout the text of both Testaments. The number, without parenthesis, following a subject or word indicates the page on which a comment is made about that subject or word. If this number is followed by a dash and another number thus: -1, it means the note will be found in column 1. The figure 4 written thus would mean column 4

A small letter of the alphabet proceeding any page number is a reference letter showing exactly where to find the comment in a certain column. For instance, under Aaron (403), the subject, Brother of Moses, is followed by: d 68-1. This means that it is discussed in note d, page 68, column 1. The New Testament references and page numbers are distinguished with an asterisk. Had the note on Brother of Moses been in the New Testament it would have been marked thus: d 68-1*. Of the 12,143 Eng. Bible words below, about 69% or 10,822 have complete references

Symbols explained:
★ by a verse indicates a prophecy

Affirmed (3), Lk. 22:59; Acts 12:15; 25:
Afflicted (53), Used in same way as word afflict (Ex. 1:12; Dt. 26:6; Ps. 129:1-2; Isa. 9:1; 58:3, 10; Heb. 11:37). The soul is referred to as being afflicted 8 times; only Job's case of bodily affliction is referred to (Job 6:14; 30:11; 34:28). Affliction is distinguished from sickness (Jas. 5:13-14). Fasting is called affliction (Isa. 58:3, 10; Jas. 4:9), so scriptures referring to God as afflicting men should not be understood as making them sick in body (Ruth 1:21; Ps. 119:75; Isa. 53:4-7; Lam. 1:5, 12). Both God and Christ are spoken of as being afflicted (Isa. 53:4, 7; 63:9) and certainly no bodily disease is meant. See 12 ways to be afflicted, 626; also c 263-4°. See Affliction

Agriculture, The science of cultivating the ground, husbandry. Farming originated with God (Gen. 2:15; 3:19-23); it was man's first employment (Gen. 1:28; 2:5, 15; 4:2; 9:20). Seasons for such work were guaranteed by God forever (Gen. 8:22; Ps. 107:36-38; Zech. 8:12). Blessings for crops were conditional upon obedience (Lev. 25:18-19; 26:1-10; Dt. 28)

Ants (1), 15 ways of, a 644-4; Pr. 30:25. Several species in Palestine store up seeds for winter. Some Asiatic and South American types construct habitations with regular stories - sometimes 30-40 of them. Their dwellings have large chambers and numerous vaulted ceilings, long galleries and corridors, with pillars or columns of perfect proportions. The largest chamber is located in the center of the building and is much higher than the rest, all galleries terminating in it. The ceiling is more than 500 times higher than the builders; if the same proportions were used in human dwellings our houses would be higher than the largest pyramid in Egypt (which is 480 ft. high and requires a base of 700 ft. square to support it). Some ant houses are even said to be 12-20 ft. high and large enough to hold a dozen men

Origin of, Eph. 1:3-5; 5:25-32

Who belong to c., Mt. 16:18; Eph. 2:19-22 with Eph. 5:26-27

Not founded at Pentecost, for it began with Christ and His call of disciples, Mt. 4:18-19, 21-22; 10:1-8; Lk. 10; Acts 1:15-26; 1 Cor. 15:5-7. What happened at Pentecost was the endowment of power upon the c. for service (Mt. 3:11; Lk. 24:49; Jn. 7:38-39; 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-13; Acts 1:4-8). Such things as membership roll (Acts 1:15; 1 Cor. 15:6), voting (Acts 1:15-26), ordination of ministers (Mt. 10; Lk. 10), commission (Mt. 28:19-20), regular meetings (Lk. 24:33, 49-52; Jn. 20:19, 26; Acts 1), laws and many doctrines were all evident before Pentecost. Not the slightest reference can be found indicating the beginning of the c. at Pentecost

Apostles were recognized as leaders both before and after Pentecost, Acts 1:15-26; 2:14, 42-47; 4:33, 37; 5:1-16, 18-29; 6:1-7; 8:14; 11:1-18, 22-30; 15:2, 23

Contemporaries, Only 4 generations between Adam and Abraham, Methuselah was contemporary with Adam 243 years (Gen. 5:5, 27). Noah was contemporary with Methuselah 600 years (Gen. 5:27; 7:6). Shem was contemporary with Noah 447 years (Gen. 7:6; 11:10-11). Abraham was contemporary with Shem 150 years (Gen. 11:10-12:4). Isaac and Jacob were contemporaries of Abraham - Isaac for 75 years (Gen. 21:5; 25:7), and Jacob for 15 years (Gen. 25:7-23). Thus the earliest revelations of God and the story of creation could have easily passed from mouth to mouth from Adam to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob

Criticism, biblical. 2 kinds
1 Lower or textual criticism. This deals with the text of Scripture, seeking to ascertain the exact wording of each book as it came from the hands of the author. From earliest times the Jews applied certain criticism to their sacred writings in the selection of the books and settlement of the text, as seen in the marginal notes of the Hebrew Scriptures. The early church fathers also compared MSS. with N.T. books, noting their differences, if any, and judging the books themselves. The Reformers continued this work in their day, to arrive at the exact text of the original. Since the reformation many others have continued it with the ever increasing discoveries of MSS. and ancient versions, patristic quotations, lectionaries, etc. It must be recognized that carelessness of the scribes, in some cases, when all copies of Scripture were written by hand, lapses of memory, similarity in shape of letters, marred copies being used in transcribing, wrong dividing of words, omission by mistake of a line or clause because of successive lines or clauses ending with the same words, and intentional changes in rare cases or insertion of marginal notes to serve a church or party, all added to the need for textual criticism. The Bible reader of today, however, can be assured that the text in his Bible is about as perfect and as near the original as it can be, with but a very few minor exceptions
2 Higher criticism deals with the analysis of the books - their age, origin, characteristics, and their connection with the external conditions and the state of belief and life of the times when they are supposed to have been written. This began in the 2nd century by the Gnostics who assailed the O. T. as the work of an inferior deity. Since the 17th century such critics have made many vicious attacks on the Bible. They have rejected the writing of the Pentateuch by Moses, claiming it was produced much later; they have sought to do away with the supernatural element in the history and religion of the Scriptures. Genesis is considered a legend; Exodus untrustworthy; Joshua a romance; the history of O. T. books unreliable; and none of the laws, not even the 10 commandments, are held to be Mosaic. Monotheism is held to have come in with Amos and Hosea, and Jehovah, Himself is looked upon as merely a tribal god of an earlier period. The ark, tabernacle, priesthood, and feasts are supposed to be post-exilic, as well as chs. 40-66 of Isaiah and most of the Psalms. Daniel is said to be the work of the Maccabean age. The N.T. is also mutilated and criticised until there is little left, according to critics, for the simple believer in Christ to believe. All this, of course, is definitely of satanic origin and must be rejected by all lovers of God and the Bible. In our summaries we have given the true orthodox facts regarding these things

1 Man is a free moral agent (p 263-1; f 19-4*; 264*)
2 The wills of free creatures must be tested to see if they are willing to cooperate with God for the greatest good of all (Eph. 2:7)
3 Moral agents must prove themselves true to become worthy of the confidence of the Creator before being entrusted with the eternal administration of the universe (Eph. 3:9-11)
4 Free moral agents must have their wills purged of all possibility of failing, so there will be no possibility of marring God's plan sometime in eternity, through the misuse of their wills (1 Cor. 15:24-28)
5 Free creatures with free wills must eventually learn these lessons:
(1) That God must be respected and obeyed
(2) That His laws are final and just
(3) That He should, by His own position as Creator, Preserver, Governor, and Lord, and by His history of justice and righteousness, be recognized by all as the Supreme Moral Governor of the universe
(4) That God is the only absolutely just and perfect Being - the only one capable and worthy of unquestionable authority
(5) That He does only those things which are for the common good of all creation
(6) That sin does not pay and will never be excused
(7) That God's form of government is the only correct one
(8) That a loving and free submission to God is the highest and most noble principle of free moral government
(9) That justice and righteousness must prevail, or no society can be eternally preserved in the universe
(10) That consecration to the greatest good of all is the true nature and highest glory of the creature
(11) That God is merciful and forgiving to rebels who are penitent, and learn obedience through their experiences
(12) That all the accusations of present rebels against God are untrue
6 God's plan is to restore man to his original position as before the fall, with full dominion over all things (Dan. 7:18, 27; Rev. 5:10; 22:4-5)
7 God's dealings with free moral agents in holiness and absolute justice to all alike, gives Him a sound basis for punishment of rebels - all who refuse to conform to the divine plan (Mt. 25:41)
8 Dispensational dealings are necessary to assure lasting benefits for the eternal society; they guarantee the preservation of God's eternal plan which He purposed in Christ (Eph. 1:10; 2:7; 3:9-10)
9 Such dealings with man will make it eternally possible for God to be all-in-all; and this will remove all doubt concerning the eternal working of His predestined plan for all creation for the generations that shall yet be brought into being during the endless ages to come (1 Cor. 15:24-28). Election (6), selection; choice, Rom. 9:11; 11:5, 7, 28; 1 Th. 1:4; 2 Pet. 1:10.
God purposes to save all who conform to His plan - and this is His choice or election in the matter. By grace, men who conform will become the elect and be saved, while those who do not will be damned. Cp. Mk. 16:15-16; Lk. 13:1-5; Jn. 3:16-18; 1 Tim. 2:4-6; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17. See Election, p. 784.
The choice was first on God's part; and it must be accepted by men for them to receive the benefits and become a part of the elect or chosen ones of God (Jn. 15:16; Eph. 1:4; 2:10; 2 Th. 2:13); men must make their calling and election sure as stated in 2 Pet. 1:10

F

Fables(5). Found only in the N.T., 1 Tim. 1:4; 4:7; 2 Tim. 4:4; Tit. 1:14; 2 Pet. 1:16. Defined, 1 232-1*; d 234-1*. A fable is a story or account, especially a fictitious narrative feigned or invented to instruct or amuse, a tale devised to enforce some truth or precept, or to introduce indirectly some opinion, in which imaginary persons or beings as well as animals and even inanimate things are represented as speakers and actors. The minds of Orientals were full of fables; they spoke of beasts, trees, rocks, and other lower forms of creation as if they possessed human characteristics. Fables rejected by N. T. teaching were the legends, myths, and falsehoods developed perhaps by popular fancy or superstition, and such stories as had been fabricated to deceive. The interpretation of (acceptable) fables and allegories must not be carried too far; that is, details must not be stressed. Only the main lessons must be emphasized - the lessons made clear in the narratives, as in those of Jotham (Judg. 9:7-20) and Jehoash (2 Ki. 14:9). See Allegory Face (403). Used 12 ways in Scriptures:
1 Of the literal face (Gen. 3:19; 43:3; Mt. 6:17; Rev. 4:7; 22:4; Isa. 1:23)
2 Surface of the earth (Gen. 1:2, 29; 2:6; 6:1, 7; 7:3-4, 23; 8:9)
3 Bodily presence (Gen. 4:14; Ex. 10:28)
4 Seeking the face, meaning to seek the audience and favor of God or man (Ps. 24:6; 27:8; 105:4; Pr. 7:15)
5 Hiding the face, meaning to withdraw favor (Dt. 32:20; Job 34:29; Ps. 13:1; 30:7; 143:7; Isa. 54:8; Jer. 33:5)
6 Asking God to hide His face, meaning to overlook (Ps. 51:9)
7 Man hiding the face, signifying humility and reverence (Ex. 3:6; 1 Kl. 19:13)
8 Covering the face with fatness - a sign of prosperity (Job 15:27)
9 A man covering the face of another - a sign of doom, as if he were dead already (Esther 7:8)
10 Turning away the face - a sign of rejection (Jer. 2:27; 18:17; 32:33)
11 Hardening the face, meaning to harden self against mercy (Pr. 21:29)
12 Being afraid of a face, meaning to be afraid of the person himself (Dt. 1:17)
When God's face is referred to as being seen, or men are spoken of as speaking with Him face to face, it should be understood in the same literal way as we understand like statements regarding men having such experiences with men (Gen. 32:30; Ex. 33:11; Num. 14:14; Dt. 34:10; Judg. 6:22; Rev. 22:4, Cp. 2 Jn. 12; 3 Jn. 14)

Gnosticism - a philosophical and religious system teaching that knowledge rather than faith is the key to salvation. It swept over the church from Syria to Gaul like an epidemic and caused much confusion among Christians from the 1st to the 6th century
9 main points of gnosticism:
1 A claim to a higher and special knowledge of truth, a tendency to regard knowledge as superior to faith, and an insight into new light which the ordinary believer did not possess
2 The separation of matter and spirit, the flesh being essentially sinful and the source of all evil
3 The attempt in solving the problems of creation, and the origin of evil by a creator as being distinct from the Supreme God
4 A denial of the true humanity of Jesus Christ, looking upon the life of Christ, and especially His sufferings on the cross as unreal
5 A denial of the personality of the Supreme God
6 A denial of the free will of man
7 A claim that spiritual communion with God is attained through asceticism or denial of pleasures and comforts of life; on the other hand, an indifference to sin leading to failure and licentiousness
8 A combination of certain Christian doctrines with various pagan philosophies to tone down the distinction between them. This appealed to many in the church who were dissatisfied with the simplicity of the gospel
9 The O.T. Scriptures were the product of the inferior creator of the world, who was the God of the Jews, but not the true and Supreme God
It is regrettable that some parts of gnosticism are fostered by certain elements of the church today. All these points are fallacies and must be rejected by Bible believers
